MILLION DOLLAR RIVALRY

Juddmonte Farms' Cacique (Ire) (Danehill) and James Scatuorchio's English Channel (Smart Strike) lock horns for the fourth consecutive time in today's GI Arlington

Million. English Channel has gotten the best of that rival in two out of those meetings, taking the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. at Churchill May 6 and the GI United Nations S. at Monmouth July 8. Cacique, trained by Bobby Frankel, was second best on both of those occasions, but had his moment in the sun on Belmont S. day, notching the GI Manhattan H. by a head, with English Channel back in fourth. "You always want more," Frankel commented. "We'd like to get another Grade I with him [today]. He's the kind of horse who gets away from the gate well. We'll see how he breaks, and if the early pace is slow, he'll be near the front, and if the pace is fast, he'll be farther back. Edgar [Prado] will make that decision." English Channel makes his second start over the Arlington lawn after completing the exacta as the 4-5 chalk in last year's GI Secretariat S. "I really don't think that was Arlington or him not liking the turf," trainer Todd Pletcher told Daily Racing Form. "I think it was more the trip he got." As for Cacique, Pletcher added, "He was a better horse than Cacique at a mile and an eighth, and he was a better horse at a mile and three eighths. But these horses are very competitively matched." The top two will have their work cut out for them, with the ageless The Tin Man (Affirmed) and Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) standing in their way. The Tin Man resurfaced from the bench in top form, winning the GII San Marcos S. Jan. 22, finishing second in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 25 and scoring in the GII American Invitational H. last out July 2. Better Talk Now, winner of the 2004 GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Lone Star, has only started twice this season, annexing the GII Dixie S. May 20 and finishing fifth in the U.N.

European Invasion Comes up 'Aces'...

While the home team looks well-represented in the Million, European invaders Ace (Ire) (Danehill), Touch of Land (Fr) (Lando {Ger}), Soldier Hollow (GB) (In the Wings {GB}) and Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) also rate a big chance. Ace held his own in the U.S. last fall, finishing third in the GI Turf Classic Invitational S. and second in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. He ships in off a runner-up effort in the G3 International S. at the Curragh July 15. Touch of Land, fifth in last season's Million, enters off a victory in the G3 Grand Prix de Vichy July 19. Solider Hollow makes the trip across the pond after a pair of second-place finishes, including the G2 Pferdewetten Trophy last time June 18. Phoenix Reach boasts wins at the highest level in Canada, Hong Kong and Dubai, but may be up against it here, making his first start since placing 10th in the 2005 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. July 25.

A group of eight line up to try to deny morning-line favorite Relaxed Gesture, the Christophe Clement charge who is looking to improve off his runner-up finish in this race last term. Trainer Todd Pletcher sends out two, the free-wheeling Ramazutti and Go Deputy, who had a breakthrough win in his latest. On the board in four straight graded events this winter and spring, including a narrow neck loss in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup S., he finally notched that elusive graded win in the July 15, 11-furlong GII Bowling Green H. at Belmont. The six-year-old, who is cross-entered in the GI Arlington Million, has some tactical speed and should be able to track a few lengths off his stablemate. "He's consistently right there if the race sets up well for him," said Pletcher. "I think he's better with an honest pace in front of him." With Ramazutti the clear speed in the field, Pletcher doesn't discount his chances, either. "Sometimes, you can get lucky in a race like this with a speed horse," Pletcher said. The unknown in the race is French invader Grand Couturier, who is trained by Jean-Claude Rouget. The three-year-old will be taking on older horses in his U.S. bow, but comes armed with some smart European form. The bay was only a neck back in third in the G2 Prix Noailles in April and, in his most recent start, was fourth beaten 2 1/4 lengths in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp July 14.

Gorella held her own against the boys last season, placing a solid third behind Artie Schiller in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Belmont Park Oct. 29. The chestnut kicked off her four-year-old campaign with a Keeneland allowance tally Apr. 19, then ran a close fifth behind GI Arlington Million hopefuls English Channel and Cacique (Ire) in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. at Churchill May 6. The Martin Schwartz colorbearer was last seen reporting home a last-to-first victress in the GII Just a Game H. on the Belmont S. undercard. "I don't mind having the one post," trainer Patrick Biancone said. "In a mile and three sixteenths race, I don't think the draw is a very important factor. If I weren't confident, I would not be coming."

Honey Ryder rarely runs a poor race and makes her Arlington debut riding a three-race winning streak. The classy gray got up in time to score by a head in Delaware Park's Robert G. Dick Memorial Breeders' Cup H. last out July 15. Film Maker, third in the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf, also has a winning streak on the line here, coming off victories in Calder's GII La Prevoyante H. Dec. 17 and the GIII All Along Breeders' Cup S. at Colonial June 24.

Only six will line up for this contest, but divisional leaders Showing Up and Go Between meet again after doing battle in Virginia. The Lael Stables colorbearer opened his account with three straight tallies, including the GII Lexington S. at Keeneland Apr. 22. That victory earned him a spot in the starting gate for the GI Kentucky Derby, and he held his own, beating 14 of his rivals, while sixth, some 10 lengths off stablemate Barbaro. The $60,000 EASMAY juvenile tried the turf in his latest, and didn't disappoint, reporting home a smart 3 1/4-length winner in the $1-million Colonial Turf Cup June 24. "I think he will run a big race," trainer Barclay Tagg said of Showing Up. "He galloped [Friday] morning and was happy before and afterward. He was on his toes the whole time, and I tried to hold him while the groom was washing him. It wasn't easy."

Go Between has the edge on Showing Up as far as experience on the green stuff goes, having made eight of his nine starts on the grass. He rallied to finish third behind Showing Up in the Turf Cup, but ran a career best last time, notching the GII Virginia Derby July 15.

He captured an optional claimer on the Belmont S. undercard before taking a Monmouth heat July 4 by four lengths. Bobby Frankel saddles Mass Media, hero of last year's GI Forego H. over this surface. The five-year-old hasn't visited the winner's circle since, but comes into this race off a third in the GI Met Mile May 29.

Porto Santo, a tough-trip second in a division of the Oceanside S. on Del Mar's opening day, meets a pair of graded-stakes winners making their turf debuts. Arson Squad, who defeated A.P. Warrior last out in the GII Swaps BC S. July 8, has a pedigree tailor made for this surface: he's by a Grade I-winning son of Danzig out of a Green Dancer mare. A half-brother to Gorella (Fr), Porto Santo was a Listed winner in France and concluded his career there with a close sixth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. The bay broke a bit slowly in the one-mile Oceanside July 19, but came flying late, only to be forced to steady in the stretch before missing by a head (video). As for A.P. Warrior--a son of the accomplished European runner Warrior Queen--he is looking for his first victory since taking the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 18. Making his stateside bow for trainer Neil Drysdale is Caribbean. A maiden winner for John Oxx at The Curragh in October, the bay ran fourth to Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the G3 Derrinstown Derby Trial May 14 before finishing ninth over heavy ground in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas May 27.

TOBA NAMES OFFICERS & 10 TRUSTEES TO BOARD

The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association announced yesterday the re-election of Bill Casner as chairman of its Board of Trustees. There were six new members elected to the Board of Trustees, including Gary Biszantz, Seth Hancock, Roy Jackson, Richard Klein, Michael Levy and Robert McNair. Re-elected to three-year terms were Bill Casner, Stuart Janney III, Trudy McCaffery and E. Duncan Taylor. Immediately following its annual members meeting, the TOBA Board of Trustees met to elect officers for the 3,000-member association. Named as officers for 2006-2007 are: Bill Casner, chairman, Dan Metzger, president; Tracy Farmer, vice-president; John Amerman, secretary; and E. Duncan Taylor, treasurer. "It is an honor to serve a second term as chairman of TOBA," said Casner. "We continue to make progress with the Sales Integrity Program, yet we face challenges with the increasing loss of handle and revenue to illegal offshore bookmakers and the unregulated use of anabolic steroids in our sport and I look forward to working with the TOBA trustees and the industry to seek solutions to these issues. The owners and breeders need a strong and influential voice in our industry and we at TOBA will work to provide it." The TOBA Board also approved the appointment of Fred Seitz to the American Graded Stakes Committee.

BERNARDINI BREEZES FOR TRAVERS Darley Stable's Bernardini (A.P. Indy), last seen dominating his GII Jim Dandy S. rivals by nine lengths, worked five furlongs in 1:03.48 at Saratoga yesterday in preparation for a tilt in the Aug. 26 GI Travers S.

Bernardini
Horsephotos

The GI Preakness S. hero is expected to have two more workouts before the Mid-Summer Derby. "Depending on who shows up, this might be a little tougher challenge for him," trainer Tom Albertrani said. "I still believe we have the best horse in the race. The way he's been training, if he runs back to the same races, he's going to be very difficult to beat." According to Albertrani, the blue-blooded colt has exited the Jim Dandy in fine fashion. "He's gotten better since the [Jim Dandy]," the conditioner added. "He's a lot sharper now. That race was really a prep race and it turned out to be exactly what we were looking for. I get the right vibes from him. He's a lot sharper and more aggressive in a good way."

Sweet Home Alabama:

Pine Island (Arch) will be looking for her first stakes victory in next Saturday's GI Alabama S. She heads into the 10-furlong contest off a pair of seconds at Belmont, the GI Mother Goose S. July 1 and the GI CCA Oaks three weeks later, and has the confidence of trainer Shug McGaughey. "She's doing great," he said. "All systems are a go. "She's young and she is still improving. The distance, and especially the two turns, they sure won't hurt her." Pine Island just failed to run down Wonder Lady Anne L (Real Quiet) in the CCA Oaks, and will get another chance in the Alabama. Also slated to run are Adieu (El Corredor), Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid), Unbridled Belle (Broken Vow) and Wild Fit (Wild Wonder), while listed as possible are Grade I winners Swap Fliparoo (Exchange Rate) and Wait a While (Maria's Mon).

Placed in Listed stakes company in England last year, Shared Dreams had been rock solid in four U.S. starts this term. She captured her first American start, a Gulfstream allowance, in mid-March, then ran a good fourth to Noble Stella (Ger) in the GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 26. Shared Dreams was runner-up in a Belmont allowance May 26 and was returning to stakes company off a nose win going 10 panels in Elmont July 16. Never too far back racing as part of a crowded 11-horse field, she came between rivals in upper stretch, spurred clear at the furlong grounds and was all out to stave off the late run of Rowdy. "Turning for home, I let her loose and she took off," said jockey Edgar Prado, who won three races on yesterday's card.

Ballast, whose lone victory last year came against Thirsk allowance rivals in Great Britain for trainer Luca Cumani, was moved to H. Graham Motion's barn for the 2006 season. In his U.S. bow, Ballast ran a solid third as the favorite in a Pimlico allowance May 18 and improved to be second against similar company at Monmouth June 30. Looking to complete the cycle here, the chestnut was put on the lead by jockey Rafael Bejarano. The pair cruised along through solid :23 3/5, :46 4/5 and 1:11 fractions and always had the measure of favorite Chattahoochee War, who was making his first start since finishing third in last year's GI Secretariat S. in August. It was the third win on the card for Bejarano. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Latent Heat tabbed himself a horse to watch with a good third to Brother Derek in the Mar. 4 GII Santa Catalina S., his first test against winners. The bay missed some time afterwards, though, and didn't reappear until romping by 9 1/2 lengths in the Belmont slop facing allowance foes June 24. Beaten as the 1-2 chalk by Praying For Cash in the July 15 GIII Long Branch Breeders' Cup H. at Monmouth, Latent Heat came back here at odds-on once again. The Juddmonte homebred duelled from the start through snappy :21 4/5 and :45 splits, then shook loose in upper stretch under Rafael Bejarano. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

5th-SAR, $47,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 5 1/2f, 1:04 1/5, ft. DADE COUNTY (c, 3, Songandaprayer--American Royale {MGSW, $254,688}, by American Standard) steadied in deep stretch in his debut over this course a year ago, finishing fifth by 4 1/2 lengths, and had been off since. For his return, the bay had a string of modest morning moves dating back to late June, but showed his readiness for this with a three-furlong blowout in a bullet :35 from the gate at Saratoga Aug. 6. Off at 5-1, he sat in fifth as a rival bounded out to a substantial lead, then rallied strongly from the outside to win by three lengths. Place honors went to Proveyourlove (Not For Love), with another half-length back to firster Truman's Gold (Seeking the Gold), who closed well after a tardy start. Dade Country was a $15,000 OBSOCT weanling, a $95,000 OBSAUG yearling and a $200,000 OBSFEB two-year-old. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $29,550. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. O-Richlyn Farms. 7th-SAR, $47,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 6f, 1:12 1/5, ft. BAD BOY RISING (c, 2, Freud--Cool Ghoul, by Silver Ghost) stumbled after the start in his unveiling, but still managed to run on for second sprinting at Belmont July 3. The crowd's 8-5 second choice to improve here, he was the beneficiary of a smart Edgar Prado ride. The Peruvian jockey kept his charge just behind the front rank and patiently waited for a seam. As the field turned for home, a sliver of daylight appeared, and Prado sent Bad Boy Rising on through en route to a 4 1/4-length victory. Favored Your Hour's Up completed the Freud exacta. RED CHERRIES SPIN (f, 3, With Approval--Lavish Gift {GB}, by Generous {Ire}) was claimed for $75,000 just prior to the GI Kentucky Oaks and gave a good account of herself in that race, coming home sixth (promoted to fifth). Third in an off-the-turf allowance May 25, she was on the lawn in her last two. On June 17, she was well-beaten in the GIII Regret S. at Churchill, then just missed by a neck when shortened to five panels in an Arlington Park allowance July 15. Back to the main track but kept sprinting here, the crowd's 3-5 pick made every pole a winning one as she sailed home clear by 4 1/4 lengths. Angel of Love (Lord Carson) was second. WINDSOR KNOT (IRE) (c, 4, Pivotal {GB}--Triple Tie, by The Minstrel), winner of the G3 Solario S. at two, finished runner-up in the July 7 Listed Gala S. at Sandown and was just worried out of it by Tam Lin (GB) in the Listed Stevenston S. at Newbury last time July 22. The €260,000 GOFORB yearling stalked the pace in second and took over a half-mile out. Asked for his effort at the quarter pole, the heavily backed 4-5 pick was ridden out to score by a half-length from Khyber Kim (GB) (Mujahid) despite hanging left in the final eighth. Life-time Record: GSW-GB, 7-3-2-1, £55,427. O-Godolphin; B-Tally-Ho Stud; T-Saeed Bin Suroor.

Gestut Ammerland's homebred is a half to champion and stable companion Hurricane Run (Ire), who added the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. to his growing tally of major successes a fortnight ago. She lines up against a host of unexposed types, including Khalid Abdullah's Armand (GB) (Observatory), who opened his account at the same track and same day as High Fidelity.

SHERGAR CUP RETURNS

Ascot will host the sixth renewal of the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup today, after a year's sojourn during the redevelopment of the Berkshire venue. South African-based trainer Michael Roberts will manage the Rest of the World team, while fellow ex-jockey Jason Weaver is at the helm of the Great Britain and Ireland team. Roberts, whose line-up of riders will be captained by Frankie Dettori and includes the Canadian Emma-Jayne Wilson, welcomed the return of the event at the revamped Ascot. "It will be nice to get out on the new Ascot--I am looking forward to it," he said. "Ascot now looks to be one of the best, if not the best, track in the world." For Wilson, who has 78 winners at the current Woodbine meet, it will be a momentous occasion. "I'm excited," she said. "The style of racing is different from at home and the track at Ascot is also different, but it is still horses racing with four legs with a jockey on their backs." Making up the Rest of the World team is the Hong Kong-based Doug Whyte, Australia's Glen Boss, France's Gerald Mosse and Japan's Yuichi Fukunaga. Great Britain and Ireland will be captained by Jamie Spencer, with Michael Kinane, Ryan Moore, Seb Sanders, Robert Winston and Hayley Turner in tow.

STRUT THE STAGE TO BERKLEY

Multiple graded-stakes winner Strut the Stage (Theatrical {Ire}--Ruby Ransom, by Red Ransom) has been acquired by Edwina Morris and Alan Jones of Berkley Stud. The eight-year-old will enter stud at the Christchurch nursery for a fee of NZ$4,500. "After five months of negotiations we have finally been able to secure Strut the Stage," Morris said. "We believe he is one of the most significant and exciting racehorses to be offered at stud in the South Island." Acquired by Sam-Son Farms for $235,000 as a yearling, the chestnut compiled a record of 28-10-3-3 and earnings of $1,568,555. Among his victories were two GII Niagara BC H., the GII Sky Classic H., the GII Dixie H., the GII Chinese Cultural Centre S. and the GIII Toronto Cup. He also was the runner-up in the GI Secretariat S. and third in the GI Manhattan H. Strut the Stage, a half-brother to multiple Group 3 winner Sacred Song, was produced by the stakes-winning Ruby Ransom. A half-sister to champion Chief Bearhart and GISW Explosive Red, Ruby Ransom hails from the family of Mr. Prospector.
