LYMPHOMA DIAGNOSIS FOR LOST IN THE

FOG Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier) has been diagnosed with a potentially fatal case of lymphoma, according to trainer Greg Gilchrist. The four-year-old colt, owned by Harry Aleo, was taken to a veterinary clinic at the University of California-Davis earlier this week after developing what connections initially thought to be a routine case of colic. Doctors performed a sonogram that revealed a cantaloupe-sized cancerous mass in his spleen. Gilchrist said that the colt's

Gilchrist & Lost in the Fog

racing career was over and that the focus would now shift to simply saving his life. "This will not be unlike the situation with Barbaro," Gilchrist said. "Mr. Aleo will spare no expense and this horse will have the best surgeons available. We have always put the horse first and nothing will change. We will just do the best we can for him." Gilchrist said that if the cancer went untreated, it was expected that Lost in the Fog would survive for no more than a year. "We could go with radiation and chemotherapy, but I don't think that will happen," Gilchrist said. "We will probably choose to remove his spleen and hope that the cancer has not metastasized and spread. Right now, everyone feels it hasn't. The tricky thing is that he is 50-50 to make it through the operation. There are very few surgeons who have done this." Further tests will be done Friday to see if the cancer has spread beyond the spleen. If it has, no surgery will be performed, Gilchrist said. Lost in the Fog won his first 10 straight races, including the GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga, and suffered his lone defeat in 2005 in the Breeders' Cup Sprint. He has since lost two of three starts, including a ninth-place finish in his last race, the July 15 GIII Smile Sprint H. at Calder. Gilchrist said he believed the lymphoma was at least partially responsible for Lost in the Fog's poor form this year. "Obviously, he's been running with this for a while," Gilchrist said. "It shows you that this horse has the heart of a lion. It certainly could explain why he had some subpar performances."

SWEET MUSIC AT SARATOGA

Trainer Todd Pletcher, who generally gets his fair share of play at Saratoga, showed once again why he is the meeting's leading trainer after saddling longshot Octave (Unbridled's Song) to victory in yesterday's GII Adirondack S. Settled in a tracking fifth behind favored Magical Ride (Storm Cat), who carved out a crisp opening quarter mile in :21.83, the grey circled wide for the stretch run and drew off late to score by 1 1/2 lengths over New Jersey shipper True Addiction (Yes It's True). The 4-5 choice a half length further back in third. "For a baby to be down on the inside, she acted like she was seasoned," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "That's all of Todd's work-to have them ready like that. She did exactly what Todd wanted her to do. It made my job easy." cont. p2

The sole stakes winner in the field, Chace City took the June 18 Victoria S. at Woodbine, but suffered his only career loss after jumping in the air soon after the start of the Gill Bashford Manor S. at Churchill Downs July 8. "He was in the No. 1 post and he over-rated when the No. 2 horse came in on him," said assistant trainer Scott Blasi, who is running the barn for Steve Asmussen who is serving a six-month suspension. "I think he found himself in a position where he didn't know where he was at. I don't think it was his fault. He's a two-year-old and it was a new experience for him being in that position."

Saratoga Special BC S.

King of The Roxy was recently purchased by Team Valor and transferred to the barn of trainer Todd Pletcher. Well beaten in his debut at Hollywood park May 18, the dark bay rounded out his tenure with Richard Matlow with a 2 3/4-length score in a 5 1/2-furlong contest July 2. "It's an ambitious spot, but he's training well," said Pletcher. "He runs in blinkers and we haven't been working him in blinkers. Apparently, that makes a big difference...We'll give it a shot and see how he does."

A professional 2 1/2-length winner going 4 1/2 panels at Churchills Downs May 27, Octave stumbled at the start in her latest, a 5 1/2 furlong test at Belmont Park July 2, but still managed to finish a respectable second to Desire to Excel. Looking to secure her first graded stakes victory here, the filly appeared primed for her best effort following a bullet four-furlong work in :47 4/5 at Belmont Aug. 10. "I told Garrett [Gomez], 'Don't take away what comes easy,'" explained Todd Pletcher. "'Sit in the pocket and keep coming at them.' That's exactly what happened. It's a tiring track. From the eighth pole to the wire, you have to have a very fit horse to get there." The $350,000 KEESEP yearling, who is raced by Starlight Stables and Donald Lucarelli, was the second 9-1 shot winner in one week at the Spa for the Pletcher barn, following a victory by Jade Queen last Thursday. According to Pletcher, the filly is likely to make her next start in the GI Matron S. at Belmont Sept. 23. [Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. ☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

DAVID JUNIOR STRAIGHT TO CLASSIC Multiple Group 1 winner David Junior (Pleasant Tap) will make his next start in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 4, according to Racing Post.

The four-year-old, most recently the winner of the July 8 G1 Coral-Eclipse S., had been expected to have a rematch with Ouija Board (GB) in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 9. The Classic will mark his first start on dirt. "Everyone connected with the horse has had their hearts set on the Breeders' Cup, and it's sensible to build his preparation gradually towards that objective," trainer Brian Meehan told the Post. "The horse is fine and cantering every day. It must be remembered he started his program earlier than most because we were getting him ready over the winter, initially in Lambourn and then here at Manton, for the Dubai Duty Free in March. Another factor in giving him a longer break now rather than another race was that his win in the Eclipse came quite soon after his run at Royal Ascot." Hero of the G1 Champion S. last October, the flaxen-maned chestnut kicked off 2006 with a rousing victory over The Tin Man in the $5-million Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 25. He then ran fourth in Ouija Board's G1 Prince of Wales's S. June 21 before turning the tables on that champion at Sandown.

SWAP FLIPAROO OUT GISW Swap Fliparoo (Exchange Rate), winner of the GI Test S. Aug. 5, has been sidelined for the rest of the meeting because of an ankle injury, reports the Daily Racing Form yesterday. "I didn't like one of her ankles," trainer Allen Jerkens told DRF yesterday. "There's nothing that shows on [X-rays]." Jerkens had been considering the Aug. 27 GI Ballerina at Saratoga or Belmont's GI Gazelle Sept. 9 for the three-year-old filly.

LATENT HEAT TO FOREGO? Lightly raced Latent Heat (Maria's Mon), an impressive allowance winner over the Saratoga strip Aug. 11, may make his next appearance in the Sept. 4 GI Forego H., according to DRF yesterday. A winner of three of six lifetime starts, the Bobby Frankel-trained colt completed the 6 1/2-furlong test in 1:16.01. Reportedly 'full of energy' after the race, the Juddmonte homebred would have to carry only 114 pounds in the Forego, getting weight from possible contenders Commentator, Silver Wagon and War Front.

Race for the Stars ran last to stablemate Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. in September in her second career start, but rebounded from that to break her maiden in a conditions event over the same course and distance later that month. She entered winter quarters as a leading fancy for the G1 1000 Guineas on the strength of her victory in the Listed Oh So Sharp S. over seven furlongs of Newmarket's Rowley Mile in her final juvenile start. Heavy rain on the morning of May 7 G1 1000 Guineas diluted her chance, and she could only manage an eighth-place finish on that sophomore debut. The bay filly progressed from there to record solid fourth-place finishes in both the May 28 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at the Curragh 28 and G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 23, and followed home Ouija Board (GB) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire) at a respectable distance when coming home sixth in the Aug. 5 G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood on her last trip to the track. Racing in midfield through the steady early fractions here, she was pushed along as the field turned for home. The filly was challenging soon after, and one smack behind the saddle saw her hit the front 100 yards from the line, where she was good value for her half-length winning margin. ## CHURCHILL DOWNS, MAGNA JOIN FORCES WITH EMPIRE RACING

by Ron Mitchell, courtesy The Blood-Horse

The continuing consolidation of racing interests seeking the franchise currently held by the New York Racing Association took a quantum leap Wednesday when it was announced that Churchill Downs Inc. and Magna Entertainment were joining the Empire Racing team. "Our mission is to provide New Yorkers with racing that is both home grown and world class," Empire Racing CEO Jeff Perlee said in a statement accompanying the announcement. "The addition of these two great organizations to our team achieves that mission and prepares us to present the strongest possible bid to the state."

"Empire Racing was formed by a group of dedicated and innovative New Yorkers determined to create a bright future for racing in their home state," the statement quoted Magna Chairman Frank Stronach. "Magna Entertainment and Churchill Downs share Empire's outlook on New York racing and by pooling our collective talents and resources, our companies can assist Empire Racing and its impressive list of partners with what we hope will be a successful bid for the New York racetrack franchise." Fast Parade, second to the classy Cause to Believe in last year's Cavanaugh Juvenile at Santa Rosa, made short work of state-bred foes to win his final start of the year, the Captain Condo S. at Emerald Downs. A comfortable winner in his 2006 debut in the 6 1/2-furlong Baldwin S. Mar. 4, the bay found the stretch out in distance, as well as the jump in class, too tough in Keeneland's GII Lexington S. Apr. 22 and had to settle for seventh. Given a 5-1 chance for his first try on the turf, the gelding was close up to the early pace, was fanned wide turning for home and took over midstretch before drawing clear late to hand GIII Will Rogers H. winner Osidy a 3 1/4-length defeat. Lukewarm 3-1 choice Thor's Echo (Swiss Yodeler) got up late to finish fourth.

My Miss Storm Cat tired to be ninth in the Dec. 31 GI La Brea S., but is perfect in 2006. The dark bay filly opened the year with a five-length score in an optional claimer at Santa Anita Mar. 26 and followed up with a win in the May 28 Desert Stormer H. at Hollywood Park. The 3-10 chalk to go three-for-three on the season, she pressed the pace from second, took command in the stretch and drew away to best Hello Lucky.

6th-DMR, $75,140, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($50,000), 3yo/up, 8.5f, 1:43, ft.

ROBADOR (c, 4, Robannier--Ivory Bowl {SW}, by Falstaff), a winner in state-bred stakes company at three, came back after a 376-day layoff to capture an optional claimer over Cal-breds at Del Mar July 20 and was 4-1 to go two-for-two on the year. Allowed to settle off moderate early fractions, he briefly had to steady when they straightened for home, but angled wide and finished well to take it by a neck. The Godolphin runner came into this contest off a third in the Listed Aphrodite S. at Newmarket July 22.
