THE PERFECT MAN

They just can't beat him. Lava Man (Slew City Slew) had a trio of challengers at his throat as they raced around the turn in the G1 Pacific Classic at Del Mar yesterday afternoon, but shook them off like so many flies and pulled away down the lane to run his 2006 record to a perfect six-for-six. "My main concern was to go as easy as I could for the first quarter, and I got away with it," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "What a horse." Added trainer Doug O'Neill, "He's just an unbelievable athlete. I can't say what makes him better than the other horses, but he's just so gifted." The five-year-old Cal-bred gelding is not nominated to the Breeders' Cup, but O'Neill was comfortable predicting the owners would supplement him to the Classic. "I don't think they'll have any problem writing the check," he said.

ART-ISAN

Since the turn of the century, Johannesburg, Elusive City and Divine Proportions have entered the G1 Prix Morny with perfect records and emerged victorious. Fitting the same profile, Susan Roy's unbeaten G2 Norfolk S. hero Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}) confirmed the promise of that Royal Ascot win when adapting to the mud in yesterday's Darley-sponsored renewal at Deauville, posting a tenacious one-length score from Magic America (High Yield) at odds of 9-2. "I get wound up before every race, so this is no different for me," explained winning trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam, adding, "He won despite the ground, which he definitely didn't like, and will be a far better horse on faster ground. His next race will be the G1 Middle Park [Newmarket Sept. 29]. I think I've now won every French Group 1 race for juvenile colts." As expected, Susan Magnier's Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill) was scratched on account of the very soft ground.

DEAUVILLE EXPRESS

The momentum built during the first two sessions continued during the second half of the Arqana's Deauville Yearling Sale, with the market proving strong and active despite a drop in the quality of horses. The top seller at Deauville yesterday was a colt by Linamix (Fr), purchased for €160,000 by trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. Rouget was very much in the spotlight, saddling Group winners Germance and Lord du Sud (Fr) before heading to the sale. The page of the session topper, hip 282, received a serious boost after the catalogue was published, as his three-year-old full sister Mysterious Lina (Fr) won a Listed race and was second to Germance in the G3 Prix de la Nonette yesterday. The grey was consigned by Haras des Capucines on behalf of leading harness trainer Jean-Pierre Dubois, who has become more active in the Thoroughbred market in the last 10 years as an owner and breeder. Dubois still owns Mysterious Lina. Deauville cont. p9

Lava Rocks...

Third in the 2005 Pacific Classic, Lava Man then shipped to Belmont and was soundly beaten in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. The dark bay fared little better in the Nov. 26 G1 Japan Cup Dirt, finishing 11th, but has put those performances squarely behind him. After opening 2006 with a win in the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions Classic, he posted a narrow score in the Mar. 4 GI Santa Anita H., then switched to the turf to take the Apr. 30 Khaled S. and June 10 GI Charlie Whittingham H. The former claimer was back on the dirt for the July 8 GI Hollywood Gold Cup and had to fight to defend his title there, winning by a nose, but he had an easy time of it yesterday. Quickly into stride, he was head-and-head with Preachinattthebar (Silver Charm) through six furlongs in 1:11.20 before opening up as they entered the far turn. They came at him again as he neared the stretch, but Lava Man dismissed his foes and drew away to a handy triumph. Doug O'Neill has not yet decided where he will run next. "He's so versatile," he said. "We'll just map it out to get him to Churchill Downs in a few months." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Impressive when winning a Windsor conditions by 3 1/2 lengths June 5, Dutch Art progressed from that debut performance to secure the June 22 G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot in his only other start. Employing a stalking role behind crowd choice Sandwaki (Dixieland Band) through the early fractions of this first go at six furlongs, he was committed by substitute jockey Christophe Soumillon inside the final quarter mile. Strongly pressed once in front, he answered every call in the drive to record a deserved career high. "I scratched Striving Storm, because I knew he would definitely not act on that ground, but I still had concerns about Dutch Art's ability to handle it," explained trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam. "He won well and was perfectly ridden by Christophe, and I remain convinced he will be even better on fast ground."

Siren Lure has been beaten just once in his last seven starts, finishing third in the Apr. 22 GIII San Simeon H. at Santa Anita. The bay gelding bounced back to take the May 13 GIII Los Angeles H.

and the July 1 GI Triple Bend BC H. at Hollywood and was the third choice to stretch his current streak to three. Allowed to trail the field as Pure as Gold led them through an opening quarter in :21.96, he edged closer on the turn and roared past the pacesetter at the eighth pole to win going away.

"I knew he was on his game," trainer Art Sherman said. "I was just hoping for a good trip and we had that and we got the results." Eclipse winner Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon), sent off the 3-2 chalk, stopped abruptly after a half and finished last. "We'll scope him," trainer Ron Ellis said. "He ran like a horse who might have bled." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Successful in the G3 Prix Vanteaux and the G3 Prix de Psyche--over course and distance--last term, Satwa Queen closed her sophomore campaign with a fifth in the Oct. 2 G1 Prix de l'Opera. Returning at Nad Al Sheba in late winter, she ran second in a handicap Jan. 19 and again, this time behind Irrisdescence (SAf), in her latest start, the Feb. 24 Listed Balanchine S. Subsequently sidelined 177 days, the chestnut displayed the ability to handle deep turf with a dominant stretch display here. Positioned third after the opening exchanges, she made ominous progress to challenge with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, readily asserting soon after and running on strongly to win decisively. "She raced in Dubai this winter because her owner, Mr. Lamprell, lives and does business there for part of the year," explained winning handler Jean de Roualle. "Unfortunately, she had a setback out there after running second to Irrisdescence and I'm so happy to witness her bounce back so well, showing she had lost none of her quality. We will now go for the [Oct. 1] G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Lord du Sud turned the lights out on 2005 with end-of-season Listed wins in the Grand Prix de la Ville de Nantes and Prix Max Sicard. Continuing in the same vein this year, he garnered victories in the Feb. 25 Listed Grand Prix du Conseil General des Alpes Maritimes at Cagnes-sur-Mer and Apr. 1 Listed Prix Right Royal at Saint-Cloud before a last-out second in the G3 Prix de Barbeville at Longchamp Apr. 30. Regaining the winning thread coming off a 112-day break, he galloped his rivals into submission and was not extended to post a wide-margin success. Leading from the flagfall and untroubled throughout, the crowd's choice was asked for more at the top of the straight and, kept up to his work by Ioritz Mendizabal, responded willingly to win as he pleased. "He was fresh coming into the race and when he's like that, on the soft ground he likes, there are few stayers in Europe that can match strides with him," claimed winning trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "He's a horse that needs time between races, so he will come back in either the G1 Prix du Cadran [at Longchamp Oct. 1] or the G1 Prix Royal-Oak [at Longchamp Oct. 22], but certainly not both." Surging to the fore of the sophomore fillies division with victories in the Apr. 10 G3 Prix Penelope at Saint-Cloud and May 21 G1 Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp, Gernance started as favorite when losing her unbeaten tag in the June 11 G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly. Rebounding off that runner-up finish in style, she survived a late scare to prevail in near-effortless fashion. Restrained in fourth as stablemate Ballet Pacifica set the tempo, she arrived full of run turning for home. Swerving to avoid her weakening pacemaker at the distance, she quickly asserted and cruised to the line for an unextended win. "I brought her to Deauville on July 10 for a working holiday, but I didn't give her too much work before this race, just enough to get her wind right," said trainer Jean-Claude Rouget, celebrating his second group win of the day. "It was most satisfactory to see her win so easy and the ultimate target is the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf [at Churchill Nov. 4]. She shall have one more race before then, the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 1] or the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup [at Keeneland Oct. 14], but more likely the former as I think the timing is right." Having spent the last two winters in Dubai, with a win during each campaign, King Jock hadn't had his picture taken since taking a Nad Al Sheba handicap Jan. 19. Fourth in the Listed Platinum S. at Cork on his European return Aug. 7, the bay lit up the board at long odds and doubled trainer Robert Osborne's group-race tally with a relentless stretch effort. Held up in last off the early fractions, he was urged forward and enjoyed a smooth passage on the outside once into the straight. Wrestling the advantage from Heliostatic (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) with 200 yards remaining, King Jock was driven out to comfortably hold the late rally of Arch Rebel. "He might go for the [Oct. 1 G3] Concorde S. at Tipperary and he'll probably end up going back to Dubai," revealed Osborne. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Local hero Flamethrowintexan outran the So. Cal shippers to land his seventh Emerald Downs victory. The chestnut was sixth in this event last year, but came back to take an allowance test at the track before shipping to Hastings to post a stakes score in September. Sent to the shelf after that effort, he returned to be second by a neck in a sprint stakes here May 29 and was third when stretched to a mile for the Budweiser Emerald H. June 18. The Florida-bred signalled that he was back on top of his game with a front-running tally going nine furlongs in the July 30 Mt. Rainier BC H. last time out. The second choice to improve off his performance of a year ago, he went right to the lead and reeled off a half in :45.40 and six panels in 1:09.40. Papi Chullo was at his girth as they hit the quarter pole and inched ever closer as they raced down the lane, but Flamethrowintexan held on gamely to take the photo. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

STRONG CONTENDER QUESTIONABLE FOR

TRIVERS Strong Contender (Maria's Mon) worked a solid five furlongs in 1:01 over the Belmont training track Saturday, but connections said yesterday his status for the Aug. 26 GI Travers S. is still up in the air. The chestnut colt would have less than three weeks between his third-place finish in the Aug. 6 GI Haskell Invitational S. and the 10-furlong Travers. "I know he worked good, but I don't think [trainer John Ward Jr.] likes the closeness of the 20 days between the Haskell and the Travers," said Donna Ward, the trainer's wife and assistant. "If he had an easier trip, even if he still got beat in the Haskell, it would be an easier decision. He and [owner John Oxley] are going to talk about it more." The workout of stablemate Minister's Bid (Deputy Minister) was postponed when overnight rains turned the track sloppy. His participation in the Travers will be determined after he breezes, either today or tomorrow.

IN THE CLEAR AT DEAUVILLE

Of the 82 yearlings that went through the ring at the Arqana's Deauville Yearling Sale yesterday, 65 sold for a gross €4,266,000 and an average of €65,631. The median stood at €65,000, while the clearance rate was again very high at a shade under 80 percent. Eric Hoyeau, managing director of Arqana, explained, "The depth of the market and many new buyers, from all over, who could not buy on the first two days [contributed to the high clearance rate]. The French buyers have also been much more active on the day and should continue for the last day. At this stage, we can now make a comparison with last year--we are up by 32 percent on this first three days of the 2005 sale, the average being up by 12 percent, with a remarkably high clearance rate of 79.93 percent. Our gross this year, for three days, is up almost 10 percent from last year's total gross, and we still have 180 yearlings to sell [Monday]. We could not be more pleased with these results; may it continue like that." Full results can be found at www.deauville-sales.com.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Jean de Roualle, trainer, bought Hip 277 for €100,000

"I bought this colt for Steven Lamprell, whose four-year-old filly Satwa Queen (Fr) won the G2 Prix Jean Romanet [earlier] in the afternoon at Deauville. It was a nice way to celebrate that success, as Mr. Lamprell fell in love with the colt when he saw him. At the moment I train six horses for him and he plans to expand his activities with horses and try to build a nice racing operation. Deauville is the right place to buy and we've had luck here before."

Eric Puerari, consignor Haras des Capucines, sold the top-priced colt on the day for €160,000

"The unanimous view is it's a very good sale. There was a peak on some very good yearlings that probably sold for more than what their vendors were expecting, but that is good and we can feel a real ambiance here in Deauville. It is a solid market with good bidding and real underbidders. People go for good conformation and we feel the market is really solid, like never before in Deauville. The best proof is the high percentage of horses sold and the low percentage of horses bought back."

JOCKEY CLUB ROUND TABLE

NYRA: NON-PROFIT MODEL IS BEST OPTION FOR RACING

by Tom LaMarra, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

The year's Jockey Club Round Table conference had a decidedly New York theme, with the New York Racing Association espousing its progress and commitment to Thoroughbred racing and breeding in the state, and a representative of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Future of Racing in New York saying the panel is carrying out its mandate. The Round Table, held the morning of Aug. 20 in Saratoga Springs, New York, also featured updates on wagering security and medication and drug testing. But with the franchise to operate Aqueduct, Belmont Park and Saratoga up for grabs amid growing tension, New York racing was the focal point.

NYRA President and Chief Executive Officer Charles Hayward provided an update on NYRA, whose franchise to operate the three tracks expires Dec. 31, 2007. The association is one of 16 groups that responded to a request for proposal to operate the facilities. Hayward acknowledged NYRA "was in deep water" three years ago because of business practices, but said it was transformed after oversight by a federal monitor. "We've changed the culture dramatically and business practices substantially," he said.

Hayward then discussed purses at NYRA tracks and how non-profit associations are among the national purse leaders. NYRA believes its non-profit status is a major positive in its bid to maintain the three-track franchise; many of the bidders or those associated with them are for-profit entities.

"You pay a lot of money to purses when you don't have to pay money to shareholders," Hayward said.

The three NYRA tracks are traditionally among the top 10 in the country by daily average purses, with Saratoga at or near the top. But Hayward said delays in installing and operating 4,500 video lottery terminals at Aqueduct is annually costing horsemen $49 million for purses and breeders $8 million in development funds at the outset. That's about $190,000 a day in purses, while the state is losing $1.2 million per day in taxes, Hayward said.

"If you're a taxpayer, you should be pretty upset by what's happening with VLTs," he said, noting two key state approvals haven't been issued to move the project forward at Aqueduct. "The second floor at Aqueduct is waiting to hear from the second floor in Albany."

Auguri won four of his seven starts in his native country, capping the campaign with a victory in the G2 Clasico Comparacion in March of 2005. On the board in three of his first four U.S. outings, he broke through with his initial stateside score when wiring a field of $200,000 claimers at Gulfstream in February. The dark bay was out of the money in his next two tries, but rebounded to be second behind Wanderin Boy in an optional claimer in the mud at Belmont June 25. In his latest, he once again led every step to win a 10-panel optional test at Belmont July 20. Taking full advantage when this race was moved from the grass, he cruised along through six furlongs in 1:12.86 and a mile in 1:37.30. Auguri turned back a challenge as they raced out of the bend and widened his advantage down the lane for a handy triumph.

CARRIAGE TRAIL (f, 3, Giant's Causeway--Manoa {MGSP, $262,952}, by Seeking the Gold) was sidelined 10 months after a debut win over the Spa turf course last August and returned to run third over the Belmont lawn May 26 and, most recently, was fifth here July 30. Making her first start on the main track, the 5-2 favorite moved steadily into contention turning for home, continued to gain on the leaders despite drifting out and forged clear to win by 2 1/4 lengths over Madame Diva (Mr. Greeley). OK TO PAY (f, 3, Double Honor--Callomania, by Lucky North) was the runner-up in three straight starts before fading to sixth at Belmont May 4. Given a break after that effort, she came back to beat $75,000 maiden claimers June 21 and added an entry-level allowance win over that turf course July 14. Back on the dirt when this race was taken off the turf, the bay went right to the front and set quick fractions. Citronnade (Lemon Drop Kid), the 1-2 favorite, got to her heels in the stretch, but Ok to Pay pulled away late to take it by 2 1/2 lengths at odds of 9-1. The winner is a 1/2 to Laredo Lil (Pembroke), SP, $179,561. Lifetime Record: 9-3-3-1, $111,065.

Ah Day, second in the July 16 GIII Leonard Richards S. two starts back, was coming off a well-beaten fourth-place effort in the Aug. 6 GIII West Virginia Derby. Never far back while racing in traffic, the bay gelding rallied four wide in upper stretch, gained control a furlong from home and held Valid Brush at bay for the win. "I just kind of went along for the ride," said winning rider Jonathon Joyce. "He relaxed real good for me down the backside and going into the turn I knew I had him relaxed and if I got out we'd do all right. It opened up for us, we moved when we wanted and he did the rest."

Audacious Chloe, a June 1 maiden winner at Belmont in her second start, was making her turf debut off a non-factoring fifth in the July 26 GIII Schulyerville S. Favored against six foes, the chestnut filly rated in second as Flying Kiwi (More Than Ready) zipped through fractions of :21.79, :45.14 and 1:09.59. She took over in upper stretch and pulled clear under urging. "I tracked [Flying Kiwi] and eased outside of her around the turn," explained winning rider Chris DeCarlo. "She is bred for the turf and Todd [Pletcher] thought she would move up on it." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Officer Rocket, third on debut at Churchill July 16, wired the field last time out, winning by 5 1/2 lengths at Arlington July 30. Heavily favored in his stakes debut, the chestnut took over nearing the stretch and sailed clear down the lane for an easy win. "He ran very good here in his first start," commented winning trainer Bob Holthus. "He came back and duplicated that today. Even though Officer was primarily a sprinter, it looks like this horse will go on. [The Sept. 10 GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Futurity] is our goal if he comes back well." 5th-DMR, $69,600, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($80,000), NW2X, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:33 2/5, fm.

LOCK AND KEY (IRE) (f, 4, Key of Luck--Lock's Heath, by Topsider), runner-up in the GIII Las Cienegas H. in her second U.S. start in April, was fifth in the May 6 GII Distaff Turf Mile and in the May 29 GIII WinStar Distaff H. before returning from a two-month freshening to run third over course and trip in a July 24 optional claimer. This time, the even-money choice was slow into stride and allowed to settle near the back of the pack. After waiting for racing room on the final bend, the dark bay angled out four wide for the drive, took over at midstretch and pulled clear to a 2 1/4-length victory over Quemar (NZ) (Haafiz {Ire}). The €42,000 GOFAC yearling and 150,000gns TATDEC horse of racing age in 2005 is a full sister to Akanti (Ire) (SW-Ire & US, $227,999). Lifetime Record: MGSP-Ire & GSP-US, 17-3-6-2, $200,865.

CALLMELUCKYLUCY (f, 4, Lucky Lionel--Sararegal {MSP, $164,075}, by Regal Classic), sidelined over a year after her maiden-breaking win over track and trip last July, returned to run third here Aug. 5. Part of a three-horse battle for the early lead, the 4-1 shot took charge turning for home and came home 1 1/2 lengths better than favored Excessiveobsession (In Excess {Ire}). The winner was an $8,000 OBSJAN yearling and a $35,000 OBSAPR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 6-2-2-1, $103,580.

kicked off his career with a maiden win at Del Mar last July, then disappeared for 368 days. The dark bay colt returned after the lengthy layoff to be a rallying second in a six-furlong allowance race where the turf meets the surf July 28, and was the even-money favorite to go one better in his second start back. The $70,000 KEESEP yearling pressed a rapid pace, drove to the front at the eighth pole and drew clear late to win by 3 1/2 lengths. Winning Tactics (Cutlass Reality), off at 12-1, closed for second. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $88,600.

opened his career with a pair of third-place efforts over Hollywood's main track in the spring before taking to the Del Mar turf for a narrow loss at this distance July 26. The 8-5 favorite broke outward, but recovered to stalk the pacesetters. He angled to the outside for the drive and was hard-ridden to just get up for a head win over Camisado (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}). Big Mistake was a $65,000 KEEJAN yearling and a $90,000 KEESEP yearling. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-2, $64,840.

EMPEROR TO GO NATIONAL Having sidestepped yesterday's G1 Darley Prix Morny on account of the deep mud at Deauville, Susan Magnier's G1 Phoenix S. hero Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill) will instead target the €300,000 G1 National S. at The Curragh Sept. 17. Explaining connections' decision to scratch the bay colt from his French engagement, trainer Aidan O'Brien told PA Sport, "The rain was bucketing down and we decided against running Holy Roman Emperor. After walking the course, and because of the type of thundery showers they were having, we felt it was the right decision to make. We have decided to aim him at the National S." Holy Roman Emperor will aim to follow in the hoofprints of stablemate George Washington (Ire), who captured the Phoenix/National double last year en route to G1 2000 Guineas glory.

Victorious on seasonal return in the Apr. 30 Listed Vintage Crop S. at Navan, Kastoria was not disgraced when fourth in the May 19 G2 Yorkshire Cup and lined up for this off a groundbreaking score in the July 1 G3 Curragh Cup. Affording a five-length advantage to Foreign Affairs through the first mile here, Kastoria zoomed in on that old foe from the three-furlong marker, going on by at the eighth pole for an easy success. "I thought she'd run well and the G1 Irish St Leger [at the Curragh Sept. 16] is the obvious target," said winning trainer John Oxx. "I wouldn't expect to have the beating of Yeats (Ire), but I hope she might get placed."

5.20 Yarmouth, Mdn, £5,000, 3-4yo, 6f 3ydsT.

FELICITOUS (GB) (King's Best) ran into subsequent dual stakes scorer Short Dance on her second race at Newmarket last September and has been found a likely spot, albeit at short odds, for this first sophomore start. This straight six furlongs should suit the Godolphin colorbearer as she is a daughter of G1 Cheveley Park S. victress Embassy (GB), whose dam Pass The Peace (Ire) also won that top-level contest.

7.30 Windsor, Mdn, £5,000, 3-4yo, 1m 67ydsT

JUST LOGIC (IRE) (Desert Prince) comes back after a 173-day break and makes his turf debut here. The half to 1999 G1 2000 Guineas hero Island Sands (Ire) knocked at the door in all three early-season starts on the all-weather and bids to improve on a fourth at Wolverhampton last time Mar. 11.

- Unbeaten Group winner at 2.

TALE OF THE CAT COLT TOPS MM AUGUST

A yearling colt by Tale of the Cat out of Surrealist (Aus) (Kenny's Best Pal {Aus}) drew a A$400,000 final bid, topping Sunday's Magic Millions August Sale on the Gold Coast. Purchased by Magic Millions acting as agent, Lot 23 was consigned by Oaklands Stud, agent. Ten-year-old Surrealist, who is the dam of dual Group 1 winner Racing to Win (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), was purchased by Coolmore's Tom Magnier for a Magic Millions record price of A$1.6 million at June's National Broodmare Sale. The bay yearling, the mare's fifth foal, is also a half brother to Listed-placed Distilled (Aus) (Masterclass {Aus}). The same connections involved in the sale and purchase of the top yearling also led the day with the top broodmare prospect, Lot 139. Secured for A$350,000, Sharp (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}), out of the Don't Say Hello (Aus) mare Snarl (Aus), is a half sister to Angst (Aus) (Kala Dancer {Aus}), winner of the G1 AJC Flight S. The 13-year-old mare is believed to be in foal to General Nediym (Aus).

The Art of the Deal...

Dual G1SP Beaux Art (Aus), part of the 16-head consignment comprising the initial flight of the Astrik Pty Ltd Dispersal, brought a final bid of A$320,000 yesterday. By Nomrood out of Ballyman's Girl (Aus) (Call Report {Aus}), Lot 129 was purchased by bloodstock agent Damon Gabbedy and is believed to be in foal to Shamardal. "It has been a great day's selling," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "The mares sold as part of the Astrik Pty Ltd Dispersal were the subject of exceptionally strong interest." Next Sunday's Perth Mixed Sale at Belmont will include the remainder of the Astrik Dispersal.
