BRIGHT ONE OUT OF TRAVERS

Saturday's GI Travers S. at Saratoga lost one of its more intriguing starters after trainer Dale Romans indicated that Bright One (Dance Brightly) would not be entered. Bright One has won his last three races by a combined 22 1/2 lengths and was to get his first serious test in the Travers facing the likes of Bernardini (A.P. Indy) and Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat). The sophomore colt, owned by Carolyn Sue Bruder and Delmar Daubs, is three-for-four lifetime and was an impressive 5 3/4-length winner of the Aug. 6 GIII West Virginia Derby in his most recent. In other Travers news, John Oxley's Minister's Bid (Deputy Minister) breezed a strong five panels over Saratoga's main track yesterday morning. He stopped the clock in a bullet :59 4/5 in his final serious work before the Mid-Summer Derby. Oxley has three possible for the race, including Dr. Pleasure (Thunder Gulch) and Strong Contender (Maria's Mon). Trainer John Ward said yesterday that Strong Contender would start only if one of the other two didn't. If Strong Contender doesn't go in the Travers, he'll be pointed toward the Sept. 23 GI Super Derby at Louisiana Downs. "Why would we use all of our ammunition here when we have another scenario with the Super Derby?" Ward said. "If we have all three run together on the same time schedule, we need to start separating them. We need to split our colts up."

CHAPTER AND VERSE

Giant's Causeway was the sole sophomore to have bested older horses in York's G1 Juddmonte International S. since 1993 and it is up to Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) to emulate that past Ballydoyle great in today's renewal. Unlike the "Iron Horse," Dylan Thomas did not stamp his presence on the two-year-old scene and it was not until his emphatic G1 Irish Derby success that he advertised his considerable talent. Conditioner Aidan O'Brien is hoping that he can make the grade against his elders. "Dylan Thomas in good form and he's had a break since the Irish Derby," he said. "He seems in good shape and we have never thought a mile and a quarter would be any problem to him, so hopefully he'll run well." Coverage cont. p4

☆ SALES NEWS ☆

DEAUVILLE ENDS ON A HIGH Arqana's Deauville Yearling Sale continued its momentum until the close of business Monday despite Normandy's persistent rain, with major buyers remaining active during a successful fourth session. Topping the final day was Haras du Cadran's hip 375, a Night Shift colt knocked down to agent Paul Nataf for €155,000. The bay hails from a family developed over the years by Juddmonte Farms, whose second dam, Mariakova, is a full sister to Zaizafon, dam of champion Zafonic. Haras du Cadran's Pierre Talvard was delighted with the result. "I don't think I've bred a horse with so much quality," Talvard commented. "He had it all--conformation, pedigree and was a good walker. I'm not surprised that he sold so well and am delighted that he was bought by Malcolm Parrish. We sold Stormy River two years ago and his half-sister [yesterday]. We have a name now and realize that if you have the right horse, it will sell. Until a few years ago, it looked like only the major consignors would attract interest from buyers and sell well, but that is not the case anymore. I am delighted over the four days [of the sale], and I think that a lot of breeders are, because it was a really good sale and the market at Deauville is improving every year." Alain Decrion later paid €130,000 to secure the top-priced filly of the session, Haras de Grandcamp's hip 423. A daughter of 2001 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) winner Anabaa Blue (GB), she is out of a half-sister to the top-class Lune d'Or (Fr).

Numbers Up at Deauville...

A strong final day's trade saw increases across the board over last year's totals, with overall gross standing at €29,772,000; average increasing by nearly 16 percent at €81,344 and median up by over 21 percent at €57,000. The clearance rate, which has been an issue at this sale in recent years, was markedly up and in general, the feeling was that confidence had returned to the French market. For the newly inaugurated sales company Arqana, the initial foray provided encouraging results, with this sale's three-year slump finally arrested. "We could not be more pleased with the final results of our sale," Arqana's Managing Director Eric Hoyeau commented. "The new format was unanimously praised and the variety of buyers, both new and Deauville's regulars. The depth of the market explains why we have been so successful. We are particularly proud of the figures on the percentage of horses sold. This will give French breeders and consigners real reasons for hope." Deauville Coverage cont. p3

Martine Head, consignor, Haras du Quesnay:

“The Deauville sale was excellent. We have seen a lot of new clients, which is the consequence of the excellent prospective job done by the Agence Francaise foreign correspondents, especially in Australia and also by members of the team of the French Racing and Breeding Committee. The market is good and so is the new format. Beginning on Friday gives more time to inspect the horses earlier in the week when people are relaxed. I just regret that the horses could not have arrived earlier than Wednesday [before the sale]. Some potential buyers turned out to inspect horses on the Tuesday and found nothing and it is slightly annoying. I also regret that auctioneer Nick Nugent didn't stay on through Monday. Overall, the catalogue was excellent and conformations matched the pedigrees, which has not always been the case at Deauville. It is a great improvement. Together vendors and buyers have been very positive and that certainly helped the sale.”

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Marc de Chambure, leading consignor and vendor, Haras d'Etreham:

“The market is just excellent. It shows that there is still good money for good horses and the new format has been a great experience. It has permitted foreign buyers, mainly the English and Irish, to arrive earlier in the week, have time to inspect the horses, and remain for at least the first three days of the sale. So there were plenty of buyers. Breeders have shown plenty of support. The selection process has been well conducted and this leads to an improved catalogue. There is still some work to be done, but definitely we are on the right trail. From a personal point of view, Haras d'Etreham had a good sale. The right animals sold well and the others went back home. Buyers are very selective.”

Marc Antoine Bergracht (MAB Agency), bloodstock agent and leading French buyer:

“The market is very selective and overall, people preferred to buy well-bred fillies that have greater residual value. You had to be patient and it was not easy to buy here. There are plenty of new buyers on all levels of horses and that also explains the success of the sale. Personally, I bought horses for new Spanish and Russian clients. Some people that were new in Deauville also came just to have a look and some promised to be back next year. The sale was very good. Good animals were well prepared; something that has improved a lot at Deauville. I am not so sure, personally, about the new format. I thought that too many horses were on sale the first day, and I felt that some of my clients liked it better when they used to begin selling on Saturday and Sunday, following racing. I think that put more pressure on buyers.”

Dylan Thomas was not obviously one of his stable's leading lights as a juvenile, with a highlight coming in his defeat of this year's G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) winner Royal Power (Ire) in the Irish Breeders Foal Levy S. at Leopardstown in September. He looked a different proposition on his return, collecting the May 14 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown before finishing third in the blanket finish to the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby. Stepping up off that effort in the Curragh equivalent July 2, he overpowered the G1 Derby Italiano hero Gentlewave (Ire) and subsequent G2 York S. scorer Best Alibi (Ire) and sets the standard on that form. Lined up against the Ballydoyle contender is a duo from the Sir Michael Stoute barn, successful four times since 1986. Anthony and David de Rothschild's Notnowcato (GB) (Inchinor {GB}) was second to David Junior in the July 8 G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown and warrants respect.

Notnowcato had previously annexed the Apr. 19 G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket and G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown May 30 before finishing fifth to Ouija Board (GB) in the G1 Prince of Wales's at Royal Ascot June 21. The other arrow for the Freemason Lodge trainer to fire is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Maraahel (Ire) (Alzao), who was third behind Electrocutonist in last year's renewal. This term, he came off a success in Royal Ascot's June 24 G2 Hardwicke S. to finish fifth in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. back at that venue. Jockey Richard Hills is hoping he can rebound off that effort. "He was third in this race last year and if everything goes to plan he has a decent each-way chance again," he told PA Sport. "Whether we can beat Dylan Thomas or not is open to debate, as he was very impressive when he won the Irish Derby. Dylan Thomas is undoubtedly the main danger, but Maraahel is definitely on a par with the rest of the field and one of these days he's going to win a Group 1." Godolphin relies on Cherry Mix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), who got his picture taken again in last Sunday's G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne. He had previously suffered a dry spell interrupted only by success in the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey-Club at the San Siro in October. "Cherry Mix was a Group 1 winner in Germany last time and the soft ground certainly helped him that day," Saeed bin Suroor commented. "Hopefully, the ground at York will also be suitable for him. He came back very well after his run in Germany and we are looking forward to a good run from him." Triptych was the last French-trained raider to score in this and Gainsborough Stud's Laverock (Ire) (Octagonal {NZ}) represents that nation this time. He gained his first Group 1 win in Longchamp's Prix d'Ispahan May 21 before finishing third in the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and runner-up in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich last time July 30. "He's been running in some good races and should be up to running well in this sort of race," the Stud's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond told PA Sport. "I think the soft ground should help him--it is definitely in his favour and could hopefully level things up with a horse like Dylan Thomas."

Sir Michael Stoute has saddled five winners, with the latest coming courtesy of Hard Top (Ire) 12 months ago and puts forward a smart duo in Papal Bull and Stage Gift. While the latter has to prove his effectiveness at this level coming off an Epsom handicap score June 3, Papal Bull is already firmly established in the major league. Following his winning three-year-old bow in a Newmarket handicap Apr. 20, he bested Dragon Dancer (GB) in the May 11 G3 Chester Vase only to trail that rival when 10th following a troubled trip in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby. Rebounding last time at Royal Ascot, he overcame Red Rocks by a neck and has to confirm that form with a three-pound penalty. Soapy Danger has been one of the season's revelations, following a hard-fought success in the G3 Queen's Vase over two miles at Royal Ascot June 23 with a defeat of Mountain High (Ire) in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket last time July 13. Aidan O'Brien's representatives are always to be respected and he has annexed two of the last five renewals. He relies on Fire and Rain, whose only encounter with the racetrack came when successful at Newmarket in September and Puerto Rico, who disappointed when down the field in the July 2 G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh and G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp 12 days later.

All carry 127 pounds bar Tungsten Strike, 130.

With no Yeats (Ire) to contend with here, the stayers get the chance to enjoy a slice of the limelight and Sergeant Cecil bids for an elusive first stakes success. His three successes in the Northumberland Plate at Newcastle in June, Ebor H. at this meeting 12 months ago and Newmarket's Cesarewitch H. in October may never be repeated, but he has failed to get in front when it matters at this level. Runner-up in the G2 Doncaster Cup in September, he was in the same spot here in the May 19 G2 Yorkshire Cup before finishing fifth in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting June 22. Overturned as the hot favorite in the Listed Esher S. at Sandown July 8, he was doing his usual sterling work at the end of the Aug. 3 G2 Goodwood Cup when fourth last time. Tungsten Strike was runner-up to Cover Up in the G3 Sagaro S. at Lingfield May 3 before recording a five-length score in the G2 Henry II S. at Sandown May 29. Only eight in the Ascot Gold Cup, he was a creditable third in the Goodwood Cup in his latest start, but has to defy a three-pound penalty for his Sandown exploits. Mark Johnston has won two of the last nine renewals and relies on Golden Quest, who emerged from handicaps to finish runner-up in the G2 Goodwood Cup last July. He was enjoying his first start since that effort when only 11th in this year's renewal and has claims if back to his best.

It's just as well that hope springs eternal in the human breast, because sometimes there are few other reasons for persevering. Take Spectrum's daughter Halland Park Lass as an example. Bred at no less an establishment than Swettenham Stud, this filly made her debut in the May of her juvenile season. Unfortunately, she finished last of 17 and it was to be the same story when she contested another maiden race over three months later, when she finished 13th of 13 at 33-1.

With hope burning brightly, Halland Park Lass' connections kept her in training for another year. They must have decided that enough was enough, though, after she had finished 20th of 20 at 66-1 in a six-furlong claimer at Windsor in May. Perhaps temperament, rather than a total lack of ability, was to blame for this miserable record of three last-place finishes, as she started slowly on two occasions and pulled hard on the other.

Her next public appearance came at Tattersalls' 2002 July Sales, where she was led out unsold at 8,500gns. However, there were enough black-type winners in her pedigree for her owners to clutch at the hope that Halland Park Lass might be a different proposition as a broodmare.

Consequently, she became one of the mares who visited Machiavellian's top-class son Medicean in his second season, when his fee was £12,000 (down from £15,000 in his first year). It would be nice to report that Cromlech Bloodstock reaped rich rewards from their boldness, but the resultant colt, Dutch Art, made only 14,500gns as a foal and 16,000gns as a yearling, when he was bought by Blandford Bloodstock at Doncaster. Halland Park Lass wasn't covered in 2004 but visited another Cheveley Park stallion, the £7,500 Kyllachy, in 2005 before being sold for only 12,000gns to Trickledown Stud at Tattersalls' December Sales.

Although Halland Park Lass' original owners have no financial gains to show for their efforts, the mare's Medicean colt has shown that their hope and faith in her wasn't misplaced. Having won the G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot, Dutch Art stretched his unbeaten sequence to three when he triumphed in the G1 Prix Morny--a race which counts the likes of Blushing Groom, Irish River, Machiavellian, Arazi, Zafonic, Fasliyev and Johannesburg among its previous winners.

At first glance it might seem surprising that Dutch Art has shown such a high level of ability so early in his career. Medicean never made it to the races at two and Dutch Art's broodmare sire, Spectrum, made his only juvenile start as late as Oct. 22. But if you dig a little deeper into Dutch Art's pedigree his precocity--and his Prix Morny win--aren't nearly so surprising. The first four generations of his pedigree contain three of the illustrious Morny winners--Machiavellian, Blushing Groom and Irish River--mentioned in the previous paragraph. These three collectively won 13 of their 15 juvenile starts.

Medicean's dam, the Queen Mary S. runner-up Mystic Goddess, was another who matured quickly, as might be expected of a daughter of the champion two-year-old Storm Bird. Dutch Art will also have benefited from being trained by Peter Chapple-Hyam, a man skilled in getting the best out of his two-year-olds.

With juvenile champions as his sire and broodmare sire, there was always a good chance that Medicean would sire plenty of offspring more precocious than himself. His first crop contained two juvenile Group winners, including the Group 1-winning Nannina, and his second crop has matched that achievement, thanks to Dutch Art and the Irish Group 3 winner Regional Counsel. As his first crop also contains Almerita, winner of the G1 German Oaks over 1 3/8 miles, Medicean has made a highly encouraging start to his stallion career. Interestingly, his third dam Cocardé was a half-sister to that very accomplished stallion Caro, and Almerita is inbred 4x3 to this mare.

Dutch Art must also thank his female line for his two-year-old talent. His second dam, Palacegate Episode, won her first two starts early in her first season and then trained on so well that she recorded her 11th success at the age of five. She was a stakes winner at two, three, four and five, her speciality being her ability to lead throughout over five furlongs. She also travelled well, achieving stakes success in Britain, Germany and Italy (where she won the G3 Premio Omenoni). Although she was by the unfashionable Drumalis, an Italian 2000 Guineas winner who also won two Grade II contests in the U.S., she made 180,000gns when sold as a seven-year-old.

Five furlongs was also the optimum distance for Palacegate Episode's brother Another Episode, who was at his best at two. This pair also had a precocious half-brother in Palacegate Jack, who gained a hat-trick of Listed successes over sprint distances at two.

Although speed was clearly the main attribute of these winners out of the unraced Pasadena Lady, it certainly isn't obvious where this speed came from. Pasadena Lady's sire, Captain James, was a Group 2-winning miler and the next dam, Gliding Gay, was by Hill Gail, a winner of the Kentucky Derby, out of a daughter of Airborne, winner of the Derby and St Leger. What's more, Gliding Gay was a half-sister to Alciglidge, who had the distinction as a four-year-old in 1967 of winning the longest races in Britain (the Queen Alexandra S. over 2 3/4 miles) and France (the Prix Gladiateur over three miles).

My guess is that the main source of this family's speed was Drumalis' sire Tumble Wind. Although this very versatile horse stayed well enough to set a track record over 1 1/2 miles in the San Luis Obispo H., he was also successful the same year in the San Gorgonio H. over 6 1/2 furlongs. Tumble Wind also collected a couple of stakes victories at around five furlongs at two and his principal achievement as a stallion in Ireland was to sire a series of fast, quick-maturing juveniles, including Tumbledownwind, Cooliney Prince, Millingdale Lillie, Horage, Night of Wind and Mister Majestic.

This speedy element in Dutch Art's pedigree needs to be kept in mind when trying to decide how far he will eventually stay, but he should have no difficulty in staying a mile, as both his sire and broodmare sire were Group 1 winners over a mile and 1 1/4 miles.

a promising start yesterday, with a record-breaking single session of selected yearlings. A colt by Smart Strike earned top honors on a $300,000 bid from agent Ken McPeck. The conditioner purchased hip 220, produced by the 14-year-old Storm Bird mare Cent Nouvelles, a half to GSW Special Happening, from the draft of Martin Stables South. In all, 176 yearlings brought a total of $10,427,500, a new sale record, while the average of $59,247 (up 17.6 percent from last year) was also a record. The $45,000 median, a 12.5-percent jump from 2005, equaled the sale record established two years ago. The percentage of yearlings not sold remained high, with 32.3 percent failing to find homes, up slightly from 30.2 percent last year. The August Sale continues with four sessions of open yearlings, beginning today at 11:00 a.m. and running through Friday. For complete results and catalog, visit www.obssales.com. OBS Toppers, p2

Gold Like U, a back-to-back winner of Aqueduct optional claimers last spring, returned from a two-month freshening to post a pair of runner-up efforts at Belmont June 14 and July 13. Favored to earn her first stakes tally here, the bay mare attended the pace, moved to challenge Sweet Sweet for the lead a furlong from home and overtook that foe late to win going away. "She broke well," said winning rider Edgar Prado. "I wanted to keep her in second position because the track was playing to speed today. I kept her out wide because I didn't want to fight with her. By doing that, I allowed her to settle and she didn't kick her head about. She won real easy; I didn't really have to ask her." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

BRITISH JOCKEY FALLON SEEKS KENTUCKY LICENSE By Ron Mitchell, courtesy of The Blood-Horse

Jockey Kieren Fallon, who has been charged in connection with alleged efforts to defraud a major British online betting service, has applied for a license to ride in Kentucky during the 2006 Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships at Churchill Downs on Nov. 4. Jim Gallagher, executive director of the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority, said the regulatory body has been in contact with Fallon's attorneys regarding the ability of the six-time champion British rider to obtain a Kentucky license. Gallagher said Fallon's legal representatives have requested the Kentucky authority not take any action on the rider's license request until September. The authority is scheduled to meet again Sept. 25. For the complete story, click here.
