MID-SUMMER DERBY DRAWS SEVEN

Bernardini (A.P. Indy), last seen splashing home a nine-length victor in the July 29 GII Jim Dandy S., has been assigned the five slot in Saturday's GI Travers S. at Saratoga. Regular rider Javier Castellano has the call on the even-money morning-line favorite. "His performances have been speaking for themselves and this will no doubt be his toughest challenge," trainer Tom Albertrani said of the GI Preakness S. winner. "Bluegrass Cat has been second in two classics and he's definitely the horse that's going to be the main threat to him. I feel our horse is training as well as ever and hopefully he runs his race as he has in the Preakness and Jim Dandy." Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat), an impressive seven-length winner of the GI Haskell Invitational S. Aug. 6, has drawn the seven hole. John Velazquez will be in the irons. "In a perfect world, we'd draw right outside Bernardini and know where the horse to beat is every step of the way," trainer Todd Pletcher commented. The Travers, as well as the GI King's Bishop S. and the GII Bernard Baruch H., will be shown live on ESPN Saturday.

MONEY IN THE BANK

Hammered down to 4-9 by sizeable bets before yesterday's G1 Yorkshire Oaks, Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) was worth every penny as she annihilated her rivals to complete the English-Irish-Yorkshire Oaks treble. Detached by Michael Kinane off moderate fractions, she put forth a contemptuous display, slicing through rivals to take over passing the quarter pole and eased to a 3½-length success. "She's a very talented filly," Kinane commented. "The nice pace made life simple, as we were always going to bide our time and it worked out beautifully." Cont. p2

FINE AND DANDY

Paul and Sam McLean's Dandy Man (Ire) (Mozart {Ire}) treads York's hallowed ground in a bid for his own slice of sprinting history in today's G1 Nunthorpe S. over the furious five furlongs of the Knavesmire. His sire burnt the turf in this race five years ago, and Dandy Man--the finest produce from his short span at stud--has already shaped as a natural successor, showing all the precocity of that Ballydoyle dignitary. Having bested his elders in the G3 Palace House S. and Listed Richard H Faught Memorial S., the sophomore enters this test on the crest of a wave. "Everything has gone to plan with him since his last run--he's come out of that very well," trainer Con Collins's daughter and assistant Tracey told PA Sport. "There's not really a concern over the soft going--he won a Listed race as a two year-old on softish going and earlier in the year, when he went to Newmarket, all the press were saying he needed it soft." Cont. p3

YORK CONQUEST

Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Conquest (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was delivered late by Jimmy Fortune to snatch the G2 Gimcrack S. from the clutches of Wi Dud (GB) (Elnadim) at York yesterday. Fresh from a 46-day break, the 9-2 chance had to overcome traffic trouble to get to that rival, but found an extra gear to get in front in the final 50 yards and score by 3/4 of a length. "The plan today was to get covered up and come late and he got hampered 1½ furlongs down, which probably helped," Fortune commented. "If he gains confidence, he could be anything." Cont. p2

Alexandrova appeared carved out for the middle-distance Classics when finishing second to the subsequent G1 Coronation S. heroine Nannina (GB) in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Newmarket in September, but found Short Skirt too strong in the G3 Musidora S. at this track May 17. That disappointment subsided after her electric victory in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 2, and she barely broke sweat when following up in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh last time July 16. The exaggerated waiting tactics that exemplified the latter two performances were again used here, and her facile progress from last-to-first in the straight was breathtaking. Trainer Aidan O'Brien paid tribute after watching her coast to victory under a hand ride. "She's very special," he commented. "She's very classy and has got a great cruising speed and turn of foot. It's very rare that you can hold up a horse like this, but she has that extra gear that allows her to pick up horses. John [Magnier], Michael [Tabor] and Derek [Smith] will discuss what's next, but by the sound of it she'll go for the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 1]." Margins: 3/4, 2HF, 2. Odds: 9-2, 5-1, 7-1. Also ran: Elhamri (GB), He's A Humbug (Ire), Armigerent (Ire).

Conquest started out with a runner-up effort in a decent Newmarket maiden on 1000 Guineas day May 7, but disappointed when only fifth in the Newbury race won by subsequent G2 Coventry S. runner-up Major Cadeaux (GB). Second to Elhamri (GB) (Noverre) in the June 20 Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot, he enjoyed a confidence booster when wiring a Nottingham maiden July 8, but patient tactics were applied here as the blinkered bay was anchored behind the early speed duel. Forced to switch around rivals when blocked temporarily passing the quarter pole, he rallied to inhale Wi Dud and was firmly on top at the line. "He got a bit far back here, but always traveled well and we wanted to conserve his energy and wait and be brave," trainer William Haggas explained. "He did nothing wrong and it was copybook. He's always carried his head a bit high, but he can run. He's in the G1 Middle Park S. [at Newmarket Sept. 29] and I put him in the [Oct. 1] G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp today." Dandy Man emerged on the scene with a bold score in Newmarket's Palace House May 6 before leading home the disadvantaged far side when tying for fourth behind Takeover Target (Aus) in the June 20 G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot. He rebounded after a break of just 12 days to best Benbaun in the Richard H Faught Memorial at The Curragh and may not have to contend with that foe here. As well as filling the bottom half of the exacta against Dandy Man, Ransley, Birks & Hillen's Benbaun also filled the same spot behind Lady O'Reilly's Moss Vale in the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly June 4, Takeover Target in the King's Stand and Pivotal Point (GB) in the G3 Sandown Sprint S. last time July 8. Without drying conditions, connections are ready to scratch the five-year-old. "I have left him in the race in case the long shot happens and it dries out," trainer Mark Wallace told Racing Post. Cont. p4

"[Benbaun] needs good to firm ground and, at this stage, I would say he is very likely to miss the race." Moss Vale hails from the Dandy Nicholls barn successful with Bahamian Pirate two years ago and enters the fray off a fluent defeat of Ronnie Arculli's Red Clubs in the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. at The Curragh 11 days ago. Two-year-olds are rarely sighted in this contest, but Lael Stable's Enticing showed battling qualities when winning the Aug. 1 G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood last time and bids to emulate Lyric Fantasy (GB), who bested her elders in 1992. "I'm excited about her, but it's an extremely difficult task," trainer William Haggas acknowledged. "She's very well, and I hope she runs like smoke." Dab Hand Racing's nine-year-old The Tatling, second in the last three renewals of contest, has conditioner Milton Bradley hoping that he can end the hoodoo. He warmed up for his annual attempt with a fourth in the G3 King George S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 3. "Everything's gone to plan and, to be honest, I think we've got him better than he was at Goodwood and he ran well there," Bradley told PA Sport.

John Dunlop, who saddled Habibti (GB) to win this race in 1982, puts forward Scarlet Runner in his bid for a belated follow-up. Third behind Sander Camillo and Silk Blossom in Royal Ascot's G3 Albany S. June 23, she stepped up on that effort to take the G3 Princess Margaret S. back at the Berkshire venue last time July 29, when Indian Ink was back in fourth. Following her fine runner-up placing at the Royal meeting, Silk Blossom was only sixth behind Sander Camillo in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket July 12 and has questions to answer, while Siren's Gift steps up a panel after a fine fourth behind Enticing (Ire) in the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood Aug. 1. "[Silk Blossom] will love the ground as it was too firm at Newmarket," trainer Barry Hills' son and assistant Charlie told PA Sport. "She's by Barathea so she needs cut in the ground--I'd have to say she'd have a great chance."

Balletto can kick off a big weekend for Darley Stable and trainer Tom Albertrani. The chestnut finished second in the 2004 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, but was sidelined thereafter with a case of colic. She made her return to the races this season in a Mar. 30 optional claiming contest at Gulfstream Park and finished a well-beaten fourth behind Take D'Tour. The four-year-old has rounded into form nicely in her last three, including a nose defeat to Spun Sugar in the July 30 GI Go For Wand H. "That was the main target for her since the spring," Albertrani said of the Go For Wand. "We thought having her run two turns would make the difference and it has. The distance and pace scenario should be the key for her in the Personal Ensign. Hopefully, she'll be closing again."

ARCS TO JAPAN Willie McKay's dual Group 1-winning sprinter Les Arcs (Arch) will tackle the Global Sprint Challenge, it was announced yesterday. Conditioner Tim Pitt confirmed that the G1 Golden Jubilee S. and G1 July Cup hero would take in the G1 Sprinters S. at Nakayama Oct. 1 and G1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin Dec. 10, despite the current ban on jockey John Egan imposed by the Japanese authorities. "He's in great form and he's had a nice break after the July Cup," his trainer said yesterday. "He's been back cantering for the last 10 days to a fortnight and he will ship out to Japan about halfway through September. He'll run in the Sprinters S. out there and then, all being well, he'll move on to the big sprint over in Hong Kong--we're just trying to sort out a jockey for him there."

GEORGE CONFIRMED Aidan O'Brien yesterday gave the green light for Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) to tackle Sunday's G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood. Mick Kinane is the likely pilot for the G1 2000 Guineas winner. "He worked this morning and everything went very well, so we're using this as a start-back race," O'Brien said. "We hope Mick is going to ride him."

LUNG INFECTION FOR DECLAN'S MOON

Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon), champion two-year-old of 2004, has emerged from his well-beaten seventh-place finish in Sunday's GII Pat O'Brien Breeders' Cup H. with a slight lung infection, according to the Blood-Horse. "We're going to do some bloodwork and a throat culture and find out exactly what's going on," trainer Ron Ellis told the publication. "But it doesn't appear to be anything serious." Declan's Moon was unbeaten in four starts in his juvenile campaign, including the GI Hollywood Futurity and GII Del Mar Futurity. He was victorious in his lone start at three in the GII Santa Catalina S., but suffered his first defeat when second by a nose in his four-year-old bow in a $100,000 optional claimer at Hollywood July 16.

PAIR BRING $110K AT OBS AUGUST Yearlings by More Than Ready and Texas Glitter each fetched

$110,000 to share top honors at the second open session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's August Yearling Sale, in Ocala, Florida. The first through the ring was hip 748, a chestnut colt by More Than Ready out of the unraced eight-year-old Pulla Surprise (A.P. Indy). Nick de Meric, agent, purchased the Feb. 2 foal from the consignment of Sugar Hill LLC, Agent I. Pulla Surprise is a daughter of MGSW Ampulla (Chief's Crown). Later in the afternoon, hip 784, a filly from the second crop of Texas Glitter, equaled the session-topping price when knocked down to Speed Horse Racing. The Florida-bred is out of Robinfleir (Robyn Dancer) and was consigned to the sale by Peggy S. Dellheim, Agent VII. The sale continues today at 11:00 a.m. and concludes with a final session tomorrow. Third in the Mar. 18 Turf Dash S. at Tampa and second by a neck in Keeneland's GIII Shakertown S. Apr. 14, the bay set a new track record of 1:07 1/5 in winning the GIII Jaipur H. at Belmont May 28. He was most recently a tiring sixth in the GII Poker H. going a mile downstate July 2, but was favored in his return to the main track. Allowed to save ground as Caller One cut the early fractions, he gained from the rail in upper stretch and got through inside the tiring pacesetter for the win.

Mudawin was the last on the scene in a thrilling climax to this valuable prize to spring a 100-1 shocker and provide conditioner Jane Chapple-Hyam with a major boost to her fledgling career. After starting out in the Shadwell silks with Marcus Tregoning, Mudawin was sold having registered scores in a Newbury maiden and Ascot handicap in 2004. The bay got off the mark for his new connections in a handicap on Kempton's Polytrack May 24 and was third at Goodwood June 23 before adding to his tally at Sandown July 7. He offered little evidence that he could win a race of this nature when last of nine at Ascot last time July 28, but the imposing five-year-old served up a dramatic late surge to silence the Knavesmire crowds. Held up in rear early by John Egan, he was asked to close up the long stretch and kept grinding as Glistening captured the lead under Jamie Spencer. Rolling alongside that rival and the determined Young Mick, he pulled out extra to wrest the spoils in the final strides. Chapple-Hyam originally had high ambitions for her charge. "I wanted to enter him in the G1 Melbourne Cup, but lately his form hasn't been good enough to," she explained. "He's just come along in the last fortnight and it's been a patience game with him. We've always thought a lot of this horse and I thought it was a crazy price...I was lucky it didn't rain anymore."

SOAPY HAS SURGERY

Renata Jacobs' Soapy Danger (GB) (Danzig) was yesterday recovering after an operation to his near-fore leg injured when fifth in Tuesday's G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York. Trainer Mark Johnston announced that the sophomore had been sent to Greenwood Ellis vets in Newmarket for surgery to the fracture sustained in his pastern. "I've heard that he's come round from surgery and had four screws inserted in his pastern, with a cast on his leg," Johnston said. "I don't really know what the long-term outlook is, but plenty come back from this type of injury to race next year, and he's a good patient. These operations are fairly routine and we wouldn't be expecting any complications." Soapy Danger had been sent off at 4-1 for the York contest following wins in the June 23 G3 Queen's Vase at Royal Ascot and G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket July 13.

TATTS APPOINTS NEW REPRESENTATIVES

Tattersalls yesterday announced the appointment of two new overseas representatives, with George Kontis taking on the role in Greece and Jeremy Nelson becoming Tattersalls' first representative in South Africa. Kontis, a television journalist who works for the Greek television station ALPHA TV, both owns horses and assists in the running of the family stud farm, while Nelson operates under the banner of the South African Bloodstock Agency, set up by his father in 1934. Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "We are delighted that both George Kontis and Jeremy Nelson have joined Tattersalls' extensive team of overseas representatives. Greece and South Africa are increasingly important markets for us and with the assistance of both George and Jeremy, we look forward to welcoming increasing numbers of buyers to Tattersalls from both countries in the future."

MUNRO TO SEE SPECIALIST

Jockey Alan Munro has been referred to a specialist after suffering a convulsion on his way to ride at Deauville on Sunday. The plane carrying the 39-year-old had been forced to return to Cambridge airport after the reinsman suffered a fit shortly after take-off. Munro later revealed that he had fallen down stairs at his home prior to the incident. As a result, Munro missed the ride on the G1 Prix Morny winner Dutch Art (GB). "I've just moved to a new house and in the morning I fell down the stairs and banged my head," Munro told Racing Post. "I didn't think anything of it, and 20 minutes later I got myself on a plane to Deauville. I don't know whether it was the change in the air pressure that caused it, but I've had a convulsion. That's the story so, basically, now I need to go through the medical scenario to work through this." Munro, who suffered a similar convulsion in 1996 during track work at Sha Tin, will need to be cleared by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority's Chief Medical Adviser Dr Michael Turner.

OLIVER INJURED Seven-time champion jockey Damien Oliver was taken to Epworth Hospital for a series of scans and X-rays after a fall at the Victorian country track Werribee Wednesday. The 34-year-old has a broken right wrist, fractures in his hand and facial lacerations as a result of the accident. "Naturally he is a bit shaken up, but early indications are that there is no further spinal or neck injuries," said Victorian Jockeys Association president Des O'Keefe, who visited the jockey in hospital. "He will undergo further scans and X-rays, but he is bright and in good spirits." Oliver resumed riding just 10 weeks ago after missing 15 months with two fractured vertebrae suffered in a fall at Moonee Valley. Surgeons inserted titanium rods in his back, and these were removed in February. At Werribee, he was slammed into the running rail near the 700-meter marker when his mount Langarza (Aus) had an apparent heart attack and collapsed. Oliver's chin struck a steel upright supporting the running rail. Paramedics placed him in a neck brace as a precautionary measure before taking him to hospital. Oliver spoke to his mother Pat in Perth by mobile phone from the back of the ambulance to reassure her he was all right. Oliver's older brother Jason died after a fall in a Perth trial in 2002, and their father Ray died in a race fall at Kalgoorlie in 1975. Oliver has ridden 70 Group 1 winners, including two Melbourne Cups, two Cox Plates and four Caulfield Cups in a spectacular career.
