LOST IN THE FOG "NOT DONE YET"

by Jack Shinar, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

Less than a week ago, trainer Greg Gilchrist said that it was "the bottom of the ninth" for his champion sprinter Lost in the Fog, diagnosed with terminal cancer. But at his Golden Gate Fields stable Thursday, the rally caps were out. Returning to his barn after spending the previous five days in Florida for the Ocala Breeders' yearling auction, Gilchrist said Lost in the Fog is being treated in his stall with medications designed to shrink two football sized tumors found in his spleen and beneath his spine along his back, as well as a third, smaller mass. The trainer said he was encouraged by the four-year-old colt's feistiness. "This horse is not done yet," he said. "We are trying to shrink the tumors if that would be possible. If we can shrink them 50 percent, there's a chance we can remove them. It's a long shot, but long shots happen all the time in this game. It's something to hang on to. We're not dead in the water yet." Click here for the complete story.

ON THE WARPATH

Fleet Indian (Indian Charlie) bids for a seventh straight victory in the G1 Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga today. The five-year-old mare ended 2005 with wins in the Nov. 27 Montauk H. at Aqueduct and an allowance at Philly Park. Purchased for $290,000 at the Keeneland January Sale, she debuted for owner Paul Saylor and trainer Todd Pletcher with a one-length score in the Mar. 26 GIII Next Move H. The dark bay captured her next three starts by an average of 5 1/4 lengths, taking the Apr. 22 GIII Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne, June 17 Obeah S. at Delaware and July 16 $1 million GII Delaware H. in her latest effort. Even her new connections were surprised by her success. "We didn't necessarily guess she was going to reel off four in a row and win a $1 million race," Pletcher said. "She was a nice filly who had a good record before we got her. We were hoping to keep her in the right direction." Cont. p4

REVERED

Gary and Lesley Middlebrook's Reverence (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) made virtually all the running over York's rain-softened turf to blitz his rivals in yesterday's G1 Nunthorpe S. Denied the testing conditions he favors in four starts since defeating The Trader (Ire) (Selkirk) in the May 30 G2 Temple S. at Sandown, the five-year-old, who fractured his pelvis twice earlier in life, got his preferred ground again following heavy overnight rain. Taking full advantage under an enterprising ride from Kevin Darley, the 5-1 chance used his ability to accelerate through the soft to draw away late for a two-length success despite constant pressure on the front end applied by Amadeus Wolf (GB) (Mozart {Ire}). "I had decided not to run him if it was firm, but somebody looked after me and let the rain come," trainer Eric Alston commented. "He can really quicken in the last furlong, but I was amazed he did it like he did. All we were worried about was getting a lead, but that didn't matter. He's very good and the owners have been patient." BLOSSOMING

Silk Blossom (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) left it late, but had just enough real estate to wear down Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) in the shade of the post to capture yesterday's G2 Lowther S. at York. A troubled sixth in the July 12 G2 Cherry Hinton S. on her last start, the 3-1 chance made amends by grinding out a half-length score in the six-furlong affair. "I thought I'd get there, as I felt the leader was faltering and I knew I had some horse left," jockey Michael Hills explained. "She'll appreciate a mile--she was coming strong the last furlong." Trainer Barry Hills will stretch the winner to seven panels in her next start. "She will go for the Goffs Million [at The Curragh Sept. 19] and can run in either the [open race, with a purse of €1.6 million] or fillies' race [with a purse of €800,000]." Cont p3

Making his belated debut last May, Reverence quickly rewarded the persistence of his owner/breeders by taking his first five starts over five furlongs, despite the efforts of the handicapper to stop the highly progressive gelding. His first try at stakes level came when third after chasing home subsequent G1 Golden Jubilee S. and G1 July Cup hero Les Arcs on his four-year-old bow in the Listed Cammidge Trophy over six furlongs at Redcar Mar. 25, and he regained the winning thread back over his favored five in a Nottingham conditions race Apr. 12. A close fourth on fast ground in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket May 6, he rebounded when the rain came for the Temple S., wiring the field in that May 30 test. The chestnut was 16th, but beaten just five lengths, in Royal Ascot's G2 King's Stand S. June 20, and overcame unfavorable conditions when a highly respectable fifth under a penalty in the G3 Sandown Sprint S. last time July 8. With all the ingredients finally in place on the Knavesmire here, Reverence delivered the hard way, finally disposing of Amadeus Wolf and Neil Callan when turning the screw in the final furlong. "There are so many opportunities over five and six furlongs, that it's tempting to try different things with him, but he's an out-and-out five-furlong horse on soft ground and finds a gear," said winning jockey Kevin Darley. "I said earlier in the season that the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 1] would be the target for him, so if everything stays right he has a great chance." Alston added that the Sept. 2 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup would be next on the agenda before a tilt at the Longchamp dash.

Silk Blossom demonstrated the ability to finish well when making a successful debut on Newmarket's Rowley Mile Apr. 19, but met her match when runner-up to Sander Camillo in the June 23 G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot. She failed to make an impact when sixth behind that class act in the July 12 G2 Cherry Hinton S. on Newmarket's July Course, but was hampered at a crucial stage there. Traffic was not an issue here as she settled in fourth while wide throughout the early stages as Indian Ink blazed the trail. She looked booked for second as Richard Hughes stretched the leader's advantage inside the final quarter, but conjured a strong rally inside the final 100 yards to reel in that rival in the final strides. Unbeaten in three prior starts at six furlongs, Wildcat Bettie B looked like she might finally taste defeat at the distance yesterday, but hit her best stride in the final yards and got up for the score. Third when stretched to seven panels in the Apr. 13 GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland, the chestnut filly dropped back an eighth and captured the May 19 GIII Preakness S. in front-running fashion. She was freshened after that effort and changed tactics in her return, closing from off the pace to take the July 8 GI Prioress BC S. at Belmont by a neck. Allowed to trail the field through an opening quarter in :21.98 after a troubled break here, she was next-to-last after a half in :45.05, but closed ground from the inside when they straightened for home. G City Gal still had 2 1/2 lengths on the field at the eighth pole, but Wildcat Bettie B accelerated as that one shortened stride late, taking charge in the shadow of the wire and edging clear. "There was a lot of speed in the race," winning jockey Mario Pino said. "I had to sit still because they were going pretty fast. I just rode her the same way that I did in her last race. When she got clear, she took off." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

DISCREET CAT RETURNS TODAY Godolphin's undefeated Discreet Cat (Forestry) will make his return in the third race at Saratoga this afternoon. The bay, purchased privately after breaking his maiden at the

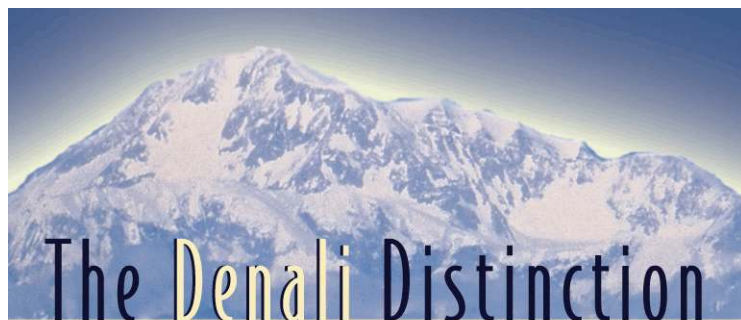

Andrew Watkins

Spa last August, made his first start under new colors in a conditions race at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 9, winning by four lengths. He came back to take the Mar. 25 G2 UAE Derby by six, but has not been out since. Connections had planned to give the bay an allowance race at Belmont, but changed plans at the last minute. "This horse has developed a little bit of a following," explained Rick Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "Because of that, we were afraid that the race at Belmont might not fill. We knew [Friday's race] was going, so we decided to enter." Discreet Cat has worked five times in the last six weeks, most recently going five furlongs in 1:01 Aug. 17. "I think he is still probably a few works away," Mettee said, adding, "We just felt this was a good opportunity to run him and get him started." The three-year-old faces older horses in his return, a $54,000 optional claimer going seven furlongs. He drew the outside post in the nine-horse field. Jockey Garrett Gomez has the mount. Mettee confirmed that Discreet Cat will be pointed for the Oct. 1 GII Jerome Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont Park, and will remain in training next year.

Lemon Drop Gal, an allowance winner over the Belmont lawn June 11, finished third and was promoted to second in the June 30 Elizabeth Bay S. last time out. Favored to go two-for-three on the grass, the bay filly burst to the lead at midstretch and pulled clear to earn her first stakes victory. The win was a relief for trainer Jimmy Jerkens, who had been 0 for 14 at the Spa meeting. "It's a good feeling to finally win a race here," admitted Jerkens. "This filly was going so well around the barn. If any horse was going to end this streak, she was the one. I knew I couldn't have all bad luck. I was worried a little bit because she broke sluggishly and got fanned wide coming off the turn. Sometimes you can't let those things happen because other horses can get away. But she kept at it good and strong." Winning jockey Kent Desormeaux also admitted to a few anxious moments. "My trip was pretty hairy, actually," Desormeaux said. "On the apex of the turn, I hit a soft spot and nailed the horse next to me pretty good. She came off the bridle for about four or five strides. Going this short, I was worried I wouldn't be able to re-rally in time. But she was able to recover quickly and got the job done. I was all out on her."

Sent off at 5-1, the bay filly pressed pacesetting favorite Laurentide Ice (Intidab) early and outbattled that foe down the lane to win by a nose. STEVE KENLY

Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment: Kenly, who along with his father Dave Kenly operates STD Racing Stable, owns Sunday's GI Pacific Classic winner Lava Man (Slew City Slew) in partnership with Jason Wood. With the victory, Lava Man, who was halted by his current connections for $50,000 in August of 2004, improved his lifetime earnings to $3,504,706.

Birthdate: March 10, 1963

Birthplace: Phoenix, AZ

Current Residence: Paradise Valley, AZ

Education: Graduated from Arizona State University with a degree in business in 1986.

Primary Business: Farming (cotton and grain) and real estate.

How many horses do you own? We've got about 12 or 15 right now. Itty Bitty Pretty is a good one we have; she won a Grade III earlier in the year. We won a stakes this year with Yes He's a Pistol. We also have a filly named Scrofa; she got hurt, but she's been training really good for her return.

If Lava Man were a human, who would play him in a Hollywood film? Vince Vaughn. Because he's kind of a funny horse. He's got a lot of personality.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? There's too much racing. In California, it just goes all year round, and it takes its toll eventually. There needs to be less racing and better quality racing. I'm a gambler, and half of these cards are horrible--short fields, $10,000 claimers.

If you had to name a stakes for anybody, who would it be? Brangelina. Put your best colts and best fillies together and see what happens.

What's playing in your CD player right now? Fat Joe. I like rap--Kanye West, I like all that stuff.

Funniest movie you've ever seen? Old School.

Last purchase? Wednesday's Daily Racing Form, because I wanted to see all the Pacific Classic coverage.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's Graded Stakes Winning Star of the Week:

Progress for Strategic Planning Committee:

The California Horse Racing Board's Strategic Planning Committee held its first public meeting last week, spending more than three hours in discussion at Del Mar with a group including racetrack executives, horse men and labor representatives. The meeting centered around the possibility that both Hollywood Park and Bay Meadows could be closed permanently, and that California tracks are unlikely to get slot machines to help improve purses and revenue. "I believe this is the beginning of a new era in California racing," said CHRBC Chairman Richard Shapiro. "Industry leaders agree with us that along with challenges come opportunities to take the reins and create even better racing throughout the state. Hopefully, we are going to build on this momentum, obtain firm commitments and develop a racing calendar that plays to our strengths and rewards those who perform. This may result in less racing days per week and fewer racing weeks overall, with breaks in between some meets. Hopefully, that would result in fresher, sounder horses and larger fields, renewed enthusiasm for fans and participants, and more creative marketing programs to build on our successes. This will likely be a multi-year endeavor, but in the end I am hopeful we will have the vision and the foresight to accomplish our goals." Among the ideas presented was a plan to create a four-month circuit for the Northern California fairs. The next meeting will be held Monday.

SISTER MARIA (Kingmambo) is the first foal out of Cliveden Stud's star performer Fraulein (Ger), who rounded off her career with success in the GI E. P. Taylor S. in 2002. Ed Dunlop saddles the homebred against other notables, including Helena Springfield Ltd's Peppermint Green (GB) (Green Desert), a daughter of the 1998 G1 International S. heroine One So Wonderful (GB) from the Luca Cumani barn.

3.10p Sandown, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, 7f 16ydsT
REGAL FLUSH (GB) (Sakhee) looked a colt worth following when fourth on debut at Newbury last month. Cheveley Park Stud's homebred half-brother to the 2000 G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Regal Rose (GB) represents the Sir Michael Stoute yard and takes on Hunting Tower (GB) (Sadler's Wells), a son of Fictitious (GB) from one of The Queen's best families, which includes Phantom Gold (GB) and Flight of Fancy (GB), from the Richard Hannon stable.

3.20p Newmarket, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT
MANY VOLUMES (Chester House) shaped with abundant promise when third behind Kalgoorlie and subsequent winner Safe Investment in a maiden at this track last month. He represents the resurgent Henry Cecil stable. Khalid Abdullah's son of 1997 G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Reams of Verse from the family of Elmaamul lines up against a host of blueblooded newcomers, including Stronach Stables' Lion Sands (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), a three-parts brother to 2004 G2 Lancashire Oaks winner Pongee (GB); and Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Saloon (GB) (Sadler's Wells), a half to Stravinsky and full to the smart Moscow Ballet (Ire) from the Sir Michael Stoute stable.

6.50p Salisbury, Mdn, £8,000, 3-4yo, 9f 198ydsT
SHARPSBURG (Giant's Causeway) was purchased by Godolphin out of the John Gosden stable following a promising debut second to the smart Hazeymm (Ire) at Newbury in October. The sophomore colt, from the family of De Niro, looks to extend his operation's fine recent run of form and has found a soft reintroduction.

LEGER TAKES SHAPE Tuesday's G2 Great Voltigeur S. victor Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) yesterday headed the 21 remaining entries for the £475,000 G1 St Leger, which takes place this year at York Sept. 9. Jaber Abdullah's colt looks likely to be joined by Voltigeur runner-up Red Rocks (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the oldest Classic, which saw the notable withdrawals of G1 Epsom Derby hero Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), as well as G2 King Edward VII S. scorer Papal Bull (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). Aidan O'Brien has left in a team of seven headed by Derrick Smith's G2 Dante S. hero Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Susan Roy's G3 Gordon S. winner Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) is set to represent the Jeremy Noseda stable, alongside Jadalee (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}), runner-up in that Goodwood contest Aug. 1.

Veteran Quito has a finishing kick few can compete with, but the habitual closer requires the cards to fall right and thus has been denied big-race success on more than one occasion in the past. Earlier this term, he split subsequent G1 Golden Jubilee S. and G1 July Cup winner Les Arcs and G1 Nunthorpe S. victor Reverence (GB) in the Mar. 25 Listed Cammidge Trophy at Redcar and later finished runner-up in the G2 Duke of York S. over six furlongs of this track May 17. He annexed his fifth stakes prize at Haydock next up in the June 8 Listed John of Gaunt S. over seven furlongs, but finished down the field in the June 24 G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot and sixth in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 14. He beat no rivals in the G2 Lennox S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 1, but was back to his authoritative best here. Quito produced his customary rattle from the rear to swamp Lightning Flash passing the eighth pole before settling the result in a matter of strides. "I was a bit frightened there would be no pace and nothing was coming from behind in the other races, but he's won well in the end," trainer Mark Chapman commented. "A lot of times, the luck has been against him, but he's a far animal and I might run him in the Listed Beverley Bullet Sprint S. over five on Saturday to sharpen him up."

Anna Pavlova bested subsequent Britannia H. scorer Sir Gerard (GB) on heavy ground in a Haydock handicap over a mile May 27 before finishing sixth when attempting 10 furlongs in the Listed Lord Weinstock Memorial S. at Newbury last time June 15. Held up in mid-division by Paul Hanagan off generous early fractions, she traveled strongly in the straight before being asked to quicken approaching the final quarter. In front soon after, she veered sharply left across the track before being organized to ensure a clear-cut victory.

"We've always thought a lot of her and the mile at Haydock was an absolute minimum, but it was very heavy ground and we got away with it," trainer Richard Fahey commented. "At Newbury I was so disappointed and we put it down to the [good-to-firm] ground, but she's a big baby and still very immature. They were all over the place here and she ran over to see the other horse in that wide-open space, but when she was straightened up she was grand. I've always thought she's a staying filly and we've been very excited about her since day one. I think she'll come into her own next year and stay a long way, so we'll have some exciting entries then. The G2 Park Hill S. [at this track Sept. 8] is an option, but if she doesn't race again this year I'm not bothered."

Smart Enough showed his exuberance on the front end when graduating at Goodwood May 26 before finishing fourth behind Sir Gerard (GB) in the Britannia H. at Royal Ascot June 22. Back in the winner's spot after a competitive Newmarket handicap July 12, the grey adopted the usual forcing tactics at the head of affairs under a positive Kerrin McEvoy. He had his rivals in trouble by the time Bolodenka and heavily supported Pride of Nation emerged from the pack approaching the eighth pole and needed only to be kept up to his work to record an impressive success. "He's an unbelievable horse who has improved every time I've ridden him," McEvoy said. "Today, he was more relaxed, but he has beaten them for pace and has such a high cruising speed. He has lots of ability and was looking about in front." Trainer Mikael Magnusson has one eye on the prestigious Cambridgeshire H. at Newmarket Sept. 30, but fears he may have shown his hand to the handicapper prematurely. "I said to Kerrin to let him bowl and that they wouldn't catch him," he commented. "He's still immature and will be a better four-year-old, but he's very progressive. I've always thought he'd be a Cambridgeshire horse, but we'll see what the handicapper does, as he does the assessment for the race tomorrow."

Doctor Brown started off with an impressive win, leading at every step over six furlongs at Leicester Aug. 2 before finishing runner-up in the Shergar Cup Juvenile over a panel further at Ascot 10 days later. Breaking smartly under Frankie Dettori, he raced prominently against the rail before taking over with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. He left enough room for Prime Defender to arrive with a challenge up the fence in the run to the line, but closed the door when veering right under strong driving. With Cockney Rebel staying on to fill the runner's-up spot out wide, the stewards ruled that the interference had not affected the result and allowed Doctor Brown to keep the valuable pot. "He's an improving horse and the drop back to six suited him," Dettori commented. "Well done to [trainer] Brian [Meehan], as he can be a little bit temperamental, but he won in good style."

This term, she had placed in Leopardstown's May 14 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial, the July 8 G3 Brownstown S. and the G3 International S. at The Curragh July 15. She beat no rivals, but was beaten barely more than a length in a tight finish to the Listed Sweet Mimosa S. back at Leopardstown on her latest start July 29, but regained the winning thread with a late rush here. Restrained behind the front rank into the straight, she was asked to close inside the final quarter and came under maximum driving to wrest victory from Cheyenne Star on the line.
