They still can't catch her. Fleet Indian (Indian Charlie) ran her winning streak to seven with a wire-to-wire display in the GI Personal Ensign S. yesterday at Saratoga. Allowed to stroll through fractions of :25.62, :50.67 and 1:15.21, the New York-bred had more than enough left in the tank to deny Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country) in the stretch. "We knew we were the lone speed in the race," winning rider Jose Santos explained. "She broke sharply like she has always done. She was asking me with her head to let her go. I kept her together until the half-mile pole when I let her go. When Balletto came within a length, I hit her once and she kept going." Cont. p3

BERNARDINI READY TO MOTOR

Darley's Bernardini (A.P. Indy), who burst to national prominence with his victory in the GI Preakness S. in May, will be heavily favored to cement his status as the top three-year-old in training in today's GI Travers S. After a brief break, the handsome colt toyed with his foes over a sloppy track in the GI Jim Dandy S. July 29, which has allowed trainer Tom Albertrani to not overly concern himself with the weather forecast. "This horse seems to run on anything," Albertrani said. "Going into the Jim Dandy, we were concerned, as he had never run on an off track before. But, seeing that performance, we know he can run on anything." Cont. p2

IT'S GOOD TO BE THE KING

Two of the country's swiftest sophomore, Henny Hughes (Hennessy) and Songster (Songandaprayer), will have a showdown this afternoon in the seven-furlong GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga. It's just one of two races at this level for the division. "We're here to win a Grade I and the horse deserves a Grade I," said Henny Hughes's trainer Kieran McLaughlin. "Believe me, this is a special horse and it's quite a privilege to have a horse like him in the barn." Cont. p4

WESTERN RANGER

Aragorn (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) will hope to continue his ascendance this evening in the GI Del Mar BC Mile. Three for five since arriving in the States, the chestnut has paired up Grade Is in his last two outings, including an emphatic success in the GI Eddie Read H. July 23. He set a course record of 1:44.79 in that nine-furlong contest, and just might be getting better. "He's continued to improve with each start," trainer Neil Drysdale. "He's an adaptable horse...he's a good-feeling colt." Cont. p5

☆ TRAVERS STAKES ☆

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC Bernardini would be toting a perfect record were it not for his career opener Jan. 7 at Gulfstream, where he ran fourth in a six-furlong maiden. Since graduating by 7 3/4 lengths in a one-mile contest at the Hallandale track, the bay has romped in three straight graded stakes: the Apr. 29 Gill Withers S., May 20 GI Preakness S. and the July 29 Gill Jim Dandy S. Each victory has been more impressive than the last, and he has shown the ability to adapt to a variety of pace scenarios. The Darley homebred will break from post five with Javier Castellano in the irons. "Five is a really good spot for us," Albertrani said. "It's pretty much right where we wanted to be. It will allow Javier to gauge the pace. This horse is so versatile in that he can make his own pace if he needs to, or sit off horses if that's the case."

2:00 Stakes record for the 1 1/4-mile Travers S., set in 1979 by General Assembly (Secretariat).

Cat on the Outside...

WinStar's Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat), a multiple graded-stakes winner at two, padded his resume this spring with a pair of runner-up efforts in the Classics, the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby and June 10 GI Belmont S. He stayed in his stall during Bernardini's Preakness, but, given a brief freshening, returned after the Belmont to post a resounding success in the GI Haskell Invitational Aug. 6 at Monmouth. "I thought it was the breakthrough performance that we thought he had in him," Pletcher said. "Second in the Kentucky Derby and second in the Belmont are not bad efforts by any means, but I thought he brought his game to another level."

Upset Bid...

Trainer John Ward will saddle an uncoupled entry for owner John Oxley, Minister's Bid (Deputy Minister) and Dr. Pleasure (Thunder Gulch). The former captured his first two starts before vainly chasing Bernardini en route to a second in the Jim Dandy. "The only chink in Bernardini's armor is being a target," Ward theorized. "In the Jim Dandy, he was a target, but nobody could get to him. He was a moving target." Ward knows he'll need some luck to get his first Travers trophy. "If the two superstars take care of each other, we're figuring to capitalize on others' mistakes," he added.

Fleet Indian began her career in 2004 for Jimmy Toner, winning her first four starts before finishing fifth over track and trip in the GI Alabama S. That set her back quite a bit, and the dark bay didn't get back to the winner's circle for 13 months, when she landed an allowance at Belmont. She rebounded from a loss in the Iroquois H. to take the Montauk H. by five lengths Nov. 27 in her final start for Toner. Clifford Sise saddled her for a Philly Park allowance win Dec. 30, and Fleet Indian then found herself on a van for Kentucky, where she sold for $290,000 at Keeneland's January Sale. New barn, new colors, no problem. The New York-bred mare kicked off 2006 with a victory in the GIII Next Move H. Mar. 26 at Aqueduct in her debut for Todd Pletcher, then overwhelmed her foes by 12 1/4 lengths in the GIII Sixty Sails H. Apr. 22 at Hawthorne. Freshened up, Fleet Indian aired in Delaware's Obeah H. June 17 before emerging triumphant in that track's marquee event, the 10-furlong GII Delaware H. July 16. She bounced out of her outside post in good order here and made her way over to the rail without too much resistance from her rivals. As she waltzed along on the lead, jockey Javier Castellano tried to get second choice Balletto to engage the free-running favorite. The Darley filly did her best, but there was no catching Fleet Indian in the lane. "When she got into that rhythm, Balletto put in a run but she had a lot left," Pletcher explained. "I thought it was a pretty solid finish going a mile and a quarter. She is not one to quicken; her strength is her rhythm." Pletcher would not commit to her next start. "I hate to back her up [in distance]," he added. "The Beldame [GI, 9f, BEL, Oct. 7] will probably make the most sense. I'll probably send [GISW] Spun Sugar to the Spinster [GI, KEE, 9f, Oct. 8]." As for Balletto, trainer Tom Albertrani said, "She's not that type of filly that runs early on. She doesn't have that kind of speed to put herself in the race early. If she comes back well, we'll try her again."

The King's Bishop has acquired a stallion-making reputation over the past decade, with recent winners including More Than Ready (2000), Forestry (1999), Tale of the Cat (1997) and Honour and Glory (1996), who led home a trifecta completed by Elusive Quality and Distorted Humor. Henny Hughes, acquired privately by Darley following a dominating victory in the Tremont S., closed out his two-year-old season with three straight runner-up efforts in Grade I events, including the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile after being transferred to Kiaran McLaughlin from Patrick Biancone. He disappeared from the radar over the winter, but resurfaced July 1 for Sheikh Mohammed's son Sheikh Rashid. The chestnut showed he hadn't lost a step that day in the GIII Jersey Shore BC S., overpowering three rivals to win by 10 lengths under wraps (video). "He ran so well, but we actually thought he might need the race," McLaughlin said. "I've been happy with his training since the Jersey Shore. He's so easy to train because he's so good. He's not difficult or keen when you work him, but he's so talented he'll sometimes go a second faster than you want him to." But Henny Hughes hasn't scared anyone off. "Henny who?" quipped trainer Tom Albertrani, who will saddle multiple graded-stakes winner Songster. "Obviously, he's the horse to beat, but it's going to be a good race. He's got a lot of speed, and we've got a lot of speed. We'll see how the race sets up. Our horse can handle seven furlongs, and between the two, it should be pretty memorable." Songster romped by 10 lengths in the GIII Hirsch Jacobs S. on the Preakness undercard, then bested Too Much Bling on Belmont Day in the GII Woody Stephens BC S. The black colt returned from his summer break in the GII Amsterdam S. July 31, but was caught late by the rallying Court Folly. He'll be looking to provide Albertrani with his first Spa winner since Bernardini's Jim Dandy rout July 29; since then, Albertrani has sent out 15 starters, with at least nine in-the-money finishes headlined by Balletto (UAE)'s second in yesterday's GI Personal Ensign H. "We're hoping to finish the meet on a brighter note," he explained. "It's not like we've been out of it. Our horses are running; it just comes down to luck. We've just been beaten out in a couple of close races."

I had not originally planned on this last race. But she came out of the Diana so well that we thought this would be a good spot for her." My Typhoon, a maiden winner over the Saratoga lawn in 2004, notched Churchill's GIII Early Times Mint Julep H. The lightly raced six-year-old Badge of Silver made a winning first impression on the grass in the Jan. 1 GII San Gabriel H. at Santa Anita, but hasn't faced the starter since. "He's had a few operations, a lot of nicks and bruises along the way," trainer Bobby Frankel offered. "He has been stopped and started on throughout his career, but he's ready to run a winning race [today]." Dreadnaught gave Better Talk Now all he could handle when second in the GII Dixie S. on the Preakness undercard, but hasn't been able to duplicate that effort since. He was last seen finishing eighth in Arlington's GIII Stars and Stripes Breeders' Cup Turf H. Aragorn, listed placed at three in England, has lifted his game since arriving on these shores. Winner of the GII Oak Tree Derby last fall in his second start for Neil Drysdale, the Ballygallon homebred missed by a head in the GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile Mar. 4, and was second best once again in the GII San Francisco BC Mile Apr. 29 at Golden Gate. But that's when the fun started. He captured the GI Shoemaker BC Mile May 29 before putting on his record display in the GI Eddie Read H. July 23, and his versatility makes him a deserving favorite. "He can be on the lead or off the lead," Drysdale noted. Aragorn ran down defending champion Sweet Return in the Eddie Read. Finishing fifth that day was Quasimodo, who was making his stakes debut. The Mercedes Stable homebred had previously rattled off four straight victories since breaking his maiden Jan. 25 in his first outing for Julio Canani.

The son of the "Iron Horse" received rave reviews from Kieren Fallon after making all the running on debut at Cork Aug. 7 and is preferred by that rider over the course maiden winner Eagle Mountain and Cork victor Yellowstone. He faces a stern opponent in Teofilo, who had the smart Black Rock Desert (Ire) and Blue Coral (Ire) behind when winning a course-and-distance maiden on debut July 16 before adding the Listed Tyros S. to his resume at Leopardstown 13 days later. He hails from the Jim Bolger stable successful three times, including with St Jovite in 1991. Kevin Prendergast adds weight to this high-class renewal by saddling Regional Counsel, who comes here off a battling success in the G3 Anglesey S. at this track July 16, in which Finicius was a luckless fifth.

5 BERNARDINI

A.P. Indy

Has gone from strength to strength, and in his last two ran figures just as good as Barbaro's Derby effort. But it's important to note that he had more than two months to recover from the Preakness, and only half that since the Jim Dandy. Yes, he won the race easily--but even if you think he could have run faster, that doesn't mean he gets to use any energy he saved today. The best horse going in by quite a bit--if he doesn't bounce from the big figure, and runs his race.

6 KIP DEVILLE

Kipling

30-1

Was purchased privately following a big win on turf at Lone Star and hasn't run quite as well since. But even on his best, he's not competitive with these.

7 BLUEGRASS CAT

Storm Cat

2-1

Put up the best juvenile top of any of these, and has inched forward this year in a carefully managed campaign with his only sub-par effort coming over the dreaded Keeneland surface. Passing the Preakness was a great move and his last was a breakthrough to a new top, but this time he doesn't get the kind of rest he got before the Belmont and Haskell. Contender, but vulnerable.

PP	Horse	SIRE	ODDS
1	HESANOLDSALT	Broad Brush	15-1

Finally broke through his 2yo top with a good effort concealed by a wide trip at Monmouth, and only had to repeat that effort to win last time at a big price. At this point, this colt has an interesting pattern and could run a new top. But, at level weights against top 3YO's, even a new top would only get him a minor placing.

2 MINISTER'S BID Deputy Minister 8-1

Came flying out with giant numbers in his first two starts before backing up in the slop in the Jim Dandy. Ward's runners tend to do their best early in campaigns, but this one is very fast, well drawn, and will be a price. If the track is fast, he looks like value.

3 DR. PLEASURE Thunder Gulch 12-1

Ran a big one in his 2yo debut, but has now gone almost a year without improving. He's not fast enough to compete and his pattern is not healthy.

4 HIGH COTTON Dixie Union 6-1

Was a solid stake-level juvenile that fell apart earlier this year, but jumped to a new level on the Preakness undercard. It's a major sign of strength that this one returned to that level after only a small bounce, and with six weeks rest, we don't see any reason why he won't run his race again.

Bottom Line- If Bernardini runs his race he's gone, but Minister's Bid has two good ones on fast tracks, and you can always protect with an exacta.

Thoro-Graph performance figures take into account weight, ground loss, effect of wind on the time of the race, and track speed. The lower the figure, the better the performance. *Jerry Brown formed Thoro-Graph in 1982 to service the needs of horsemen and professional handicappers. Since then, Thoro-Graph has been responsible for the purchase of Belmont winner and champion Victory Gallop, two-time Breeders' Cup Mile winner Da Hoss, multiple track record setter and leading sire Distorted Humor--a total of 70 horses who have gone on to win stakes for their clients. Additionally, the last three NTRA national handicapping championship winners used Thoro-Graph data. Thoro-Graph performance figures take into account weight, ground loss, effect of wind on the time of the race, and track speed. The lower the figure, the better the performance. Among Thoro-Graph's innovations are the figure-based profiles, which enable horsemen and serious handicappers to accurately assess the tendencies of trainers in different situations, and sires and dam's runners at different distances, over different surfaces, and at different ages. DISCREET CAT WINS EASILY Godolphin's Discreet Cat (Forestry), unraced since his victory in the G2 UAE Derby at Nad al Sheba Mar. 25, made an eye-catching return to action yesterday at Saratoga, taking a third-level allowance by 11 lengths. Never far from the front, the attractive bay colt made light work of a field of older horses, impressing even his own connections. "He actually surprised me with how much speed he showed because we didn't ask him for any in the morning," commented Rick Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "We just gave him steady moves. We wanted to teach him something today, so

Garrett [Gomez, jockey] took him off the pace. There were some solid older horses, so I was happy he went by them as easy as he did. This gives us five weeks to the Jerome [Gill, $150,000-added Jerome Breeders' Cup H., at Belmont Park, Saturday, Oct. 7], and that one-turn mile at Belmont Park should be a good trip." But don't expect to see the colt on Championship day. "I doubt you'll see him in the Breeders' Cup [Saturday, November 4, Churchill Downs] this year; first things first," Mettee added. We'll go in the Jerome and see how he comes out. It's a weight off our shoulders to get him back." Added the winning jockey, "I felt I had ridden some nice horses--he's just a beautiful horse. I didn't ask him to do anything; he did it effortlessly. If anything, I was trying to keep him idled down. He was a little eager early on. They were setting those fast fractions down the backside and he was just galloping. When I pulled up, I told the outrider that he probably went in 1:22 or 1:23 because of the way the track has been. When I saw the teletimer [1:21.53], I was surprised." Result p2

Under a long hold from Garrett Gomez, Discreet Cat rolled to the front under his own courage midway on the far turn and trotted home the easiest of winners with his rider taking several glances behind in search of any competition. Improving with every run, Streets Ahead followed a July 15 debut fifth at this track with a second at Ep-som Aug. 3 before getting the hang of things with success in a seven-furlong maiden back here Aug. 17. Continuing the trend with a career high in this stakes bow, he gave a tenacious display and earned a ticket to Canada as his reward. Ridden with patience in fifth, the eventual winner challenged at the quarter-mile marker and prevailed after outgaming Eddie Jock in the drive. "He knew nothing the first time he came to the race-course, he's just learnt and developed each time and is going the right way," explained winning trainer Andrew Balding, adding, "The way things turned out, he ended up in front sooner than he wanted to be, but he stuck to his guns well. The idea was to put him in the shop window and he is for sale if we get the right offer. We'll put him in the [GII] Summer S. at Woodbine [Sept. 17], and that will be his next race unless something happens before then."
