BERNARDINI KEEPS IT ALL IN THE FAMILY

Darley Stable's Bernardini (A.P. Indy) put the wraps on a phenomenal weekend for the Maktoum family, winning yesterday's GI Travers S. by a decisive 7 1/2 lengths. The victory added to the earlier graded-stakes successes by Godolphin's Ashkal Way (Ire) (Ashkalani {Ire}) and by Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed al

Maktoum's Henny Hughes (Hennessy) in the GI King's Bishop S. as well as Friday's impressive allowance score by Godolphin's G2 UAE Derby hero Discreet Cat (Forestry). The all-Maktoum Pick 3 returned $7.60. "The Maktoums put a lot of money into this game and no one deserves this more than them," said John Ferguson, bloodstock advisor to Sheikh Mohammed. Bernardini became the seventh horse to pair up wins in the GI Jim Dandy S. and the Travers. "Right now, I don't think any horse can beat this horse," proclaimed his jockey Javier Castellano. Travers S. cont. p2

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Sheikh Mohammed was not on hand to celebrate his Grade I success yesterday, but his son, Sheikh Rashid, was at Saratoga to see Henny Hughes (Hennessy) carry the colors of his Zabeel Racing International to victory in the GI King's Bishop S. The odds-on favorite in the seven-furlong test, Henny Hughes took command after the opening half mile and powered away to a 5 1/4-length triumph. "Sheikh Rashid...flew in from Dubai and it's great to have him here on such an important weekend of racing," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. He added, "This is so important for the horse's future because it's a Grade I. He's a very special horse." Cont. p2

AN EDUCATED GUESS

Dermot Weld has just one renewal of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. to his credit, but in Khalid Abdullah's Supposition (GB) (Dansili {GB}) he has a live candidate to double the score at The Curragh today. The first Juddmonte runner to be trained in Ireland, the two-year-old filly made an instant impact when narrowly beaten by subsequent G2 Vintage S. runner-up Duke of Marmalade (Ire) on debut here June 30. Her smooth seven-length success at Galway Aug. 1 set her up for her stakes debut. "She's in good form," the owner's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told PA Sport. "The form of her first race looks quite smart, but obviously it's a big leap to Group 1 from maiden. The trainer seems happy with her so we hope she's good enough." Cont. p9

ANOTHER GRADE I ESCAPEDE?

Darley Stable's Dubai Escapade (Awesome Again), an uncharacteristic sixth in the GI Princess Rooney H. last time out, looks to give her owner yet another Grade I victory when she goes postward in today's Ballerina Breeders' Cup S. at Saratoga. The four-year-old breezed five furlongs in :59 this past Tuesday. "She works fast because that's the horse she is," said trainer Eoin Harty. "She does things on her own." Cont. p10

The Making of a Superstar...

A son of Grade I winner Cara Rafaela, who was acquired privately by Sheikh Mohammed from the TNT Stud of Gonzalo Torrealba carrying a foal by A.P. Indy in early 2003, Bernardini debuted modestly enough, finishing fourth going six panels at Gulfstream Jan. 7. Stretched to that oval's one-turn mile Mar. 4, the striking bay posted a 7 3/4-length victory and shipped north to take the GIII Withers S. over that same trip by 3 3/4 lengths Apr. 29. After carefully considering their options, connections elected to run in the GI Preakness S. and, despite the unfortunate events that afternoon, nothing could be taken away from Bernardini's performance as he strode home 5 1/4 lengths best. Passing on the GI Belmont in favor of a late summer and fall campaign, the colt waltzed to a nine-length victory in the July 29 Jim Dandy, earning him 1-5 favoritism for the Travers.

Leaving Nothing to Doubt...

Following an alert dispatch, Bernardini found himself sandwiched between the Todd Pletcher-trained duo of GI Haskell Invitational S. hero Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) and GIII Northern Dancer BC S. winner High Cotton (Dixie Union). Javier Castellano sensed that his mount was keyed up and allowed him to lead through an opening quarter of :23.53. Despite being hounded every step by Bluegrass Cat, Bernardini relaxed enough to turn in an internal half-mile in a leisurely :49.19, turned on the afterburners leaving the quarter pole and cruised to the winner's circle. "I did not expect to go to the lead like that, but my horse broke sharp, he wanted to go in the first turn," Castellano commented. "I didn't want to fight him. I wanted to see him comfortable." Added winning trainer Tom Albertrani, "He trained beautifully going into this race. He was a lot sharper after the Jim Dandy. Hopefully, he comes out of the race in good order and we'll go in the [GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, Belmont Park, Oct. 7] and [GI Breeders' Cup Classic, Churchill Downs, Nov. 4]. Henny Hughes was purchased by Sheikh Rashid last summer after breaking his maiden at Monmouth Park and taking the Tremont S. at Belmont by 15 lengths. He made it three in a row in the GII Saratoga Special, then had to settle for second in the GI Hopeful S., GI Champagne S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. The eye-catching chestnut was not as his best while wintering in Dubai, but came to hand when he returned to the U.S. this spring. Off at 2-5 in his comeback, the July 1 GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S., he romped to a 10-length victory, stopping the timer in 1:08 1/5 for the six furlongs. Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin brought the colt to the King's Bishop off eight weeks' rest, and was rewarded for his patient handling with a dominant victory. The winner goes next in the Oct. 7 GI Vosburgh S. "The Vosburgh is against older [horses], but he's ready for it," McLaughlin said. A two-time winner from nine starts overseas, Ashkal Way took a second-level allowance over the Belmont turf May 25 and made it back-to-back victories with a nose victory in a $100,000 optional claimer downstate June 14. The chestnut made his way down the Jersey Turnpike to take the July 15 Elkwood S. by a half-length in a track-record 1:32 2/5 and gave a good account of himself in his graded-stakes bow, finishing runner-up to Remarkable News (Ven) in the GII Fourstardave H. over this turf course Aug. 6. Away smoothly from the outside, Ashkal Way was taken in hand by Garrett Gomez and guided over to the rail to save ground as T.D. Vance (Rahy) set moderate fractions up front. Given his cue midway on the far turn, the Godolphin runner picked his way neatly between horses, came four wide into the stretch and rallied stoutly for the victory. Aragn found room at the rail in the stretch and powered clear to score in near track-record time. A maiden winner in five European starts, the chestnut was runner-up in his U.S. bow at Santa Anita Sept. 29, then took the GII Oak Tree Derby by a nose just 16 days later. He returned to be second by a neck in the GI F.E. Kilroe Mile H. in Arcadia Mar. 4 and completed the exacta in the GII San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile at Golden Gate Apr. 29 before posting a 1 3/4-length success in the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood May 29. A four-length tour de force in the GI Eddie Read H. nearly led to a decision to contest the GI Arlington Million, but connections decided on this sharper trip. Tucked in cozily at the rail as longshot Wild Buddy got an opening half-mile in :46.61, Aragn waited a bit behind that one as they cornered for home, got through on the wood as the pacesetter drifted out and burst away while being taken in hand late. A nose winner of the GII Mrs. Revere S. on the Churchill weeds last November, regally bred My Typhoon was rested thereafter, returning to finish fourth in the GIII Gallorette H. at Pimlico May 20. She was back in Louisville to annex the June 17 GIII Mint Julep H. and most recently set the pace in this track's GI Diana S. July 29, weakening late to be fourth over yielding ground. With Garrett Gomez in the irons for the first time, My Typhoon was ridden for speed and took them along through easy splits of :24.64 and :48.98. Still comfortably clear approaching the stretch, the chestnut opened three lengths at the eighth pole and held the late bid of Karen's Caper. "We got away with reasonable fractions and it worked in our favor," said winning trainer Bill Mott. "I was hoping that if she was in front, there would be daylight where she wouldn't be too rank." Beaten a head when second in this event last year, one-time Canadian Classic winner Le Cinqueme Essai made amends for that narrow defeat with a game victory. Third in last year's GI Atto Mile in September, the chestnut was put away for the winter, resurfacing to miss by a nose in the GII Connaught Cup S. May 28. Runner-up to today's GII Nijinsky S. favorite Sky Conqueror in the GII King Edward Breeders' Cup S. July 3, the veteran suffered yet another excruciating loss in his latest, going down by a head in the Aug. 5 Sea O'Erin Breeders' Cup H. at Arlington. Never far from the front while racing between horses, Le Cinqueme Essai was patiently handled on the turn, drove to a narrow lead at the eighth pole and held off Del Mar shipper Becrux.

Teofilo emerged from a war of attrition to take his record to a perfect three-for-three and provide trainer Jim Bolger with a fourth renewal of this important staging post. He won one of the strongest maidens run in Ireland in 2006 when besting Black Rock Desert (Ire) and Blue Coral (Ire) over track and trip July 16 before taking the Listed Tyros S. at Leopardstown 13 days later. Keen in the hands of Kevin Manning in second throughout the early stages, he took over passing the quarter pole before being pressed by Eagle Mountain and Colm O'Donoghue. That rival was alongside for a few strides on the run to the line, but Teofilo pulled out more to find a final surge and secure the victory. "He's a real nice horse who has done nothing wrong and keeps progressing," Manning said. "Today, it was a messy race and there wasn't much pace--he's left the gates quick with me and got a bump and it set him alight. I ended up in front sooner than I'd have liked and he's just doing nothing in front. When he goes a mile, we'll see the best of him and there are no reasons why he won't get further. There are no stamina doubts in my mind and he's a proper Group 1 horse." Trainer Jim Bolger also sees Teofilo as a middle-distance performer. "This is the best colt I've had and he has everything," he commented. "We'll have to think again about the [Sept. 17] G1 National S., as I don't really want to run him over seven furlongs again, and he's a middle distance horse next year." * Automatically downgraded due to surface change.

The connections of four of the 10 runners opted to scratch when heavy rains forced this race to be switched to the main track, but Stan Hough decided to give it a go, and it proved the right call. Adapting to the surface switch, Brunilda forged to the front at the eighth pole and outfinished Rahy's Appeal for a narrow score. "I was disappointed it came off the turf, but she won a couple of races on the dirt before--one in Argentina and one at Churchill Downs," Hough said. "She was already at Monmouth, and there was nowhere else to run her." Brunilda had tried the dirt five times before, with two victories. On the board in three straight stakes tries, she shipped from Saratoga for her last start, the July 16 Politely S. on the grass at Monmouth, and led from gate to wire to take it by two lengths. Changing tactics yesterday, the six-year-old mare rated just off a half in :47.59 and six furlongs in 1:12.15. The chestnut grabbed a short lead as they raced down the lane and proved narrowly best. "She's been training great and really needed to run," Hough said. "She certainly has gotten better with age. She's better now than ever." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

 Tam Lin, winner of the May 19 Listed Glasgow S. at Hamilton and the Listed Steventon S. at Newbury last time July 22, suffered his sole defeat when fifth in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot June 23. Both victories were characterized by exaggerated flashing of the tail, but that trademark does not appear to be stopping the Sir Michael Stoute improver from climbing the ladder. Settled in third off the early fractions carved out by Kandidate, he was asked to take closer order as Reunite was committed at the top of the straight by Kerrin McEvoy. Joining battle with that filly, he gained the edge in the final 50 yards feeling the whip, giving the now customary swish of his tail as he asserted near the line. Mark Johnston's gallopers have made "always trying" the stable's slogan, and Drumfire exhibited all the typical attributes that have become the hallmark of the Northern base. His relentless grinding style saw him best subsequent G2 July S. runner-up Armigerent (Ire) by six lengths on debut at Beverley June 22, but he failed to see off the smart Thousand Words (GB) when second in a decent conditions event at Newbury July 22. Up to lead early under Joe Fanning, he appeared booked for that spot again as Danebury Hill quickened past at the quarter pole. Refusing to buckle, he rallied as that rival faltered uphill and was back where it mattered inside the final 100 yards, as Caldra arrived too late. "He's a big, game horse and is very backward still," his jockey explained. "He jumped out bold and, when the second horse came, he's battled back. He'll be a proper horse next year and, once he's strengthened, he could get the Derby trip."

All carry 124 pounds.

Despite Aidan O'Brien's fine record in this contest, which he has won four times since 2000, he may not have the strongest hand this time. O'Brien fields only the maiden Diamond Necklace, a half to Shamardal who was supplemented to the race after running sixth on debut at Leopardstown July 19. Kieren Fallon has opted to partner Simply Perfect for trainer Jeremy Nosedata. The gray is already proven in the top leagues, having finished runner-up in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 21 and third in the G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot on her latest start July 29. "She is approaching the race in good order," Nosedata commented. "I feel she will be suited by the step up to seven furlongs and she goes into the race having posted as good a form as anything else in it." Kevin Prendergast has saddled two winners of this race and puts forward a trio of hopefuls here. Miss Beatrix had her stable companion, the G3 Swordlestown Stud Sprint S. heroine Brazilian Bride, one place back when third behind Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) in the G1 Phoenix S. here a fortnight ago, while the third Prendergast contender, Dimenticata, split Gaudeamus and Alexander Tango when runner-up in the G2 Debutante S. at Leopardstown July 29. Gaudeamus, who was fourth in the G3 Anglesey S. at this track 13 days previously, bids to provide Jim Bolger with his third renewal. Mick Channon caused an upset courtesy of Mail the Desert (Ire) in 2002 and relies on Newbury maiden winner Silca Chiave, a half to the perennial improvers Golden Silca (GB) and Silca's Sister (GB).

Dubai Escapade, the $2-million topper at the 2004 Barretts March sale has shot to the head of this year's distaff sprint division, with dominating victories in the GII Vinery Madison S. at Keeneland Apr. 12 and the GII Vagrancy H. at Belmont Park June 11. The Darley runner bids to regain some of the luster lost when she sturggled home sixth behind Malibu Mint at 30 cents on the dollar in the GI Princess Rooney H. at Calder July 15. "It just wasn't her day," commented trainer Eoin Harty. "A lot of horses that shipped in to Calder did not run well that day. We went over her and didn't find anything. She just didn't run her race." Malibu Mint, purchased privately by John and Martha Jane Mulholland following a runner-up effort in the Winning Colors H. at Churchill Downs May 27, took the Princess Rooney by 3 3/4 and comes into this off a second-place finish to Stormy Kiss in the GII Honorable Miss H. Aug. 4, where she was beaten a neck. Nothing But Fun is perfect in three starts at sprint distances, including last year's Victory Ride S. at Saratoga.

Fox Hill Farms' Round Pond earned herself an Eclipse nomination as top three-year-old filly last season after winning four of six starts, including Oaklawn's GII Fantasy S. and Belmont's GI Acorn S. over eventual champion Smuggler. The bay closed out the year with a second-place finish in the GII Delaware Oaks July 16, then fired fresh off the bench to notch a $62,000 optional claimer at the Hot Springs oval Feb. 16. She made her final start for trainer John Servis a memorable one, securing the GIII Azeri Breeders' Cup S. in thrilling fashion by a neck over Happy Ticket. She makes her debut for trainer Michael Matz today. "I just hope she's ready to go right now," Matz said. "She's acting that way, and I hope she doesn't fool us. She's had a long time between races, and we're happy with the way she's working. It's always nice to have a horse of her quality. John [Servis] did a real nice job with her and hopefully we can continue." Defending Molly Pitcher champ Capeside Lady is four-for-six over the Jersey Shore main strip and looks to make amends for a second-place finish behind Friel's for Real as the even-money chalk in the Aug. 6 Lady's Secret S.

Seaside Retreat earned a trip down the Triple Crown trail with a runner-up effort in the GII Lane's End S. in March, but was sixth in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 14 and a respectable 10th in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6. Returned to his Woodbine base, the bay took the grassy Charley Barley S. June 25 and was most recently a good second in the GII Virginia Derby July 15. Facing older horses for the first time today, he is in receipt of 11 pounds from morning-line favorite Sky Conqueror. The homebred enters this off back-to-back graded-stakes scores in the GII King Edward Breeders' Cup S. July 3 and a half-length victory over Last Answer in the July 23 GII Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup S.

Morning-line favorite T.H. Approval looks to have these overmatched on paper. The gray snapped a trio of runner-up efforts when victorious in the Apr. 23 GII San Juan Capistrano Invitational H. at Santa Anita. He followed with a disappointing seventh behind Lava Man in the GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. June 10, but bounced back well in his next start, annexing the GII Sunset Breeders' Cup H. last out July 16. "He's good right now," trainer Eduardo Inda told Daily Racing Form. "I feel very confident." Artiste Royal, winner of the 2005 G3 La Coupe S. at Longchamp, finished fifth in the Charlie Whittingham prior to a third-place effort in the GIII Arlington Park. H. last time July 22. Quinquin the King was a good third behind T.H. Approval in his U.S. debut in the San Juan Capistrano, but hasn't faced the starter since.

Bellamy Cay has emerged as a highly progressive middle-distance performer this season, notching up a brace of wins in the Listed Prix de la Porte de Madrid at Saint-Cloud Apr. 18 and G3 Prix d'Hedouville at Longchamp May 8. He was third under a subsequent penalty in the June 4 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly before rebounding to take the G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil at Longchamp last time July 14, and hails from the Andre Fabre stable responsible for six winners since 1989. The 2004 G1 Derby Italiano hero Groom Tesse has slowly regained his old pomp with some fine efforts in his native land this term. Third in the May 14 G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica at the Capannelle, he annexed the G3 Premio Carlo d'Alessio back there a week later before finishing runner-up to Shamdala (Ire) in the June 18 G1 Gran Premio di Milano last time. Irish Wells, representing the sophomore division, followed a fair sixth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 4 with success in the Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange at Vichy on his last outing July 20.

All eyes will be on Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's G1 2000 Guineas winner George Washington, who reappears after a three-month absence enforced by injury. Last year's G1 Phoenix S. and G1 National S. winner showed electric acceleration to rout his rivals in the Newmarket Classic May 6, but found the soft ground against him when runner-up to Araafa (Ire) in the Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 27. He sustained a muscular injury in that effort, and connections are anxious to see how the charismatic Ballydoyle raider will perform in his return. "We hope he retains his ability, but it was a very severe injury and it wouldn't be usual to come back this quickly," trainer Aidan O'Brien explained. "We need him back, so we took a chance and we hope it's still all going to be there." George Washington faces older horses for the first time in a stiff comeback test. The most accomplished of the brigade is Soviet Song. The multiple Group 1 winner looked as strong as ever when powering to an impressive score in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot June 21 before being found out by slow early fractions when sixth in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 12. She proved that was an aberration when runner-up to Court Masterpiece (GB) in the Aug. 2 G1 Sussex S. over course and distance, where Rob Roy was a half length back in third. Godolphin rely on last year's G1 Prix de la Foret runner-up Caradak, who shaped as if he needed this trip when third in the G2 Hungerford S. at Newbury last Saturday.

Electric Beat burst onto the sprinting scene with a late flourish to best Matrix in the G3 Lotto-Trophy at Hamburg July 22, and lines up for this dash for the "golden whip." Showing his talent at two, he finished runner-up in the G2 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy at this track in September before disappointing when last of four in the G1 Gran Criterium at the San Siro the following month. Successful over seven furlongs in the June 18 Listed Grosser Preis der Sparda Bank Hannover, he improved when returned to this distance at Hamburg, but is unexposed in this category. Soave, who was a below-par eighth in the Lotto-Trophy, bounced back to his best when recording an eight-length success in the Listed Dallmayr Coupe Lukull over seven furlongs of the Munich circuit on his latest start July 30. Earlier this term, he blew away Donatello with an impressive success in the G3 Benazet-Rennen over course and distance May 25. Linngari, who took the G2 Al Fahidi Fort at Nad al Sheba Feb. 23, was a fine sixth in his first start in Europe this season, the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 6.

LOST IN THE FOG GIVEN "REASONABLE CHANCE"
by Jack Shinar, courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

The doctor treating sprint champion Lost in the Fog for cancerous tumors said Friday that the colt has "a reasonable chance" of reducing them to a size that's conducive for chemotherapy or surgery.

Dr. Gary Magdesian, chief of equine medicine at University of California at Davis, said Friday that Lost in the Fog is being treated with Dexamethasone, a corticosteroid sometimes used in treating lymphoma.

"We want to see if [the tumors] will respond to the extent that they are reduced to a size that will make them amenable to surgery or chemotherapy," Magdesian said

"There's a reasonable chance [of success]," he added.

If the tumors shrink, Magdesian noted, "I would say that chemotherapy, especially, gives him the best hope [of surviving]." Click here for the complete story.

AUTUMN SCHEDULE SET FOR HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood Park has announced a $3.78-million stakes schedule for its 36-day Autumn Meet, which will be conducted Nov. 1-Dec. 18. The track's Turf Festival will return after a year's hiatus and will include six graded stakes over Thanksgiving weekend, including the $400,000 GI Citation H., $500,000 GI Hollywood Derby and $500,000 GI Matriarch S. Other Grade I events to be held at the Inglewood oval are the Dec. 9 $250,000 GI Hollywood Turf Cup, Dec. 16 $250,000 GI Hollywood Futurity and Dec. 17 $250,000 GI Hollywood Starlet S. The chestnut travelled up to Keeneland and earned his diploma by 9 1/4 lengths, then wired Belmont allowance foes by five lengths May 4. Entered for the GI Belmont S. June 10, High Finance vied for the lead before fading to finish a distant 10th and was given some time to regroup. The 9-5 favorite went up to contest the pace, assumed command on the turn, kicked clear in the lane and opened up to win by 5 1/2 lengths. He was a $72,000 KEENOV weanling and a $120,000 FTKJUL yearling. Nar (Northern Afleet) rallied to claim second. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 7-3-2-1, $106,345.

Sweetnorthernst Back in Training:

Sweetnorthernst (Sweetnorthernst), one of the leading three-year-olds earlier this year and the post-time favorite in the GI Kentucky Derby, has returned to training, according to his conditioner Michael Trombetta. A 10-length winner of the Miracle Wood S. in February, the one-time $40,000 claimer added a 9 1/4-length success in the GI Illinois Derby Apr. 8. Seventh, beaten 13 lengths in the Run for the Roses, the dark bay was last seen finishing runner-up to Bernardini in the GI Preakness S. May 20. "[Friday] was his first day back on the track," Trombetta commented. "He put on some weight and he is very fresh." Future plans are as yet undetermined, though he added, "I am only staying away from two horses right now, Bernardini and Discreet Cat. Other than that we'll take our chances. He's probably on a late October-early November time frame, if all goes well."

Tampa Names New Racing Secretary:

Allison De Luca will assume the role of racing secretary and director of racing at Tampa Bay Downs in Oldsmar, Florida, for the 2006-2007 racing season. De Luca, 49, comes to Tampa having served as assistant racing secretary at Churchill Downs and Keeneland. "I'm thrilled to have Allison on the team," commented Peter Berube, the track's vice president and general manager. "It's a new era at Tampa Bay Downs and Allison's experience and contacts will undoubtedly contribute to our goal of presenting to our customers a well balanced and quality overnight and stakes program." De Luca takes over for John Morrissey, who resigned following a successful 2005-2006 racing season.

Eternal Search put it all together in his latest with a rallying 5 1/4-length score over this strip Aug. 7. The third choice in his stakes bow, he kept in touch with the leaders, moved to the fore in midstretch and drew clear for his first stakes tally.

FORTY ZIP (c, 2, Red Bullet--Secreto's Glory {SW & GSP, $126,618}, by Secreto), a $15,000 KEESEP yearling and $175,000 OBSAPR two-year-old, opened his career with three consecutive second-place finishes. The half-brother to High Wire Glory (Birdonthewire), SP, $210,860, attempted to graduate in the Dr. Fager S. Aug. 5 at Calder, but wound up sixth in that six-furlong contest. Going just a little bit longer here against maidens, the chestnut took command after a half in :46.36 and galloped off into the sunset to score by 10 1/4 lengths as the 4-5 chalk. He marks the third winner for his freshman sire (by Unbridled). Lifetime Record: 5-1-3-0, $33,290.

The hard-knocking Gold Storm added another stakes victory to his resume in a sharp performance here. He kicked off his six-year-old campaign with a victory in the Need For Speed S. at Evangeline Downs June 3, then finished eighth in Calder's GI Smile Sprint H. last out July 15. Forwardly placed in this one, he vied through :22.23 and :44.43 splits and fought his way clear to win in stakes-record time.

The dark bay hopped at the start, but recovered to race in fifth. After advancing along the inside on the far turn, she angled out five wide in the stretch, then found herself carried out to the 10 path by Sea Wedding (Seacliff). The odds-on chalk recovered to prevail by a neck over Touch of Fire (Thunder Gulch). A $3,000 KEEJAN yearling, the winner is a full sister to Spring House, SW & MGSP, $268,951. Barilko won at first asking for a $50,000 tag July 3 at Woodbine and, three weeks later, proved that was no fluke by adding the Colin S. to his laurels. Heavily favored here, the bay gelding was pressed early, but shook free turning for home and was kept busy while extending his advantage down the lane.

Overlooked in this one, she trailed the field of nine as Sunny Disposition set an uncontested pace. Swung out four wide for the stretch, Candy Factory rallied to the front in the lane and won going away. Even-money favorite Memorette (Memo {Chi}) crossed the wire a well-beaten sixth.

Wasseema is a work in progress and used her superior early speed to garner another stakes success under a stylish ride from Richard Hills. It was a measure of the regard in which she was held by her powerful connections that she was pitched into Newmarket 's G3 Nell Gwyn S. as a maiden, but she was unable to compete with Speciosa (Ire) and company and finished seventh there Apr. 18. It took until June 9 to get her back to the races and she rewarded the patience with a smooth score to graduate at Goodwood. Soon in the clear in the Listed Valiant S. at Ascot last time July 28, she never looked likely to relinquish her advantage and duly stretched it to seven lengths at the line. Producing an almost carbon copy of that display here, she had all rivals struggling by the quarter pole and only Bahia Breeze could emerge with a meaningful threat as she tread water up the hill. "She's very hyper and sweats freely," her rider commented. "Luckily, she stood down the start with me and that calmed her slightly, but she's not straightforward and they've worked really hard to try to get all her ability into one burst. She was just getting tired on that ground, which is as loose as she'd want it as she loves to hear her feet rattle."

Appalachian Trail, who had run over longer trips with credit throughout his career, excelled at Ascot this year when runner-up in the Buckingham Palace S. at the Royal meeting June 22 and fourth in the July 29 International S. Third in the Shergar Cup Mile back at that track last time Aug. 12, he made a successful first foray into sprinting company to register his first stakes score here. Held up at the back of the tightly packed field early by Tom Eaves, he found a seam up the rail passing the eighth pole and drew on his stamina reserves to pull clear of Assertive inside the final 100 yards.

Crocodile Dundee was on the upgrade in 2004 with wins in the Listed Gala S. at Sandown in July and G3 Scandinavian Open Championship at Copenhagen the following month. He had his first run for his new connections when third behind Best Alibi (Ire) in the July 29 G2 York S. and built on that encouraging comeback to get his picture taken again this time. Settled in third early, he challenged wide in the straight and gained the edge in the final 50 yards after a duel with Khyber Kim. "He had colic last year and then had another problem in the summer," trainer Luca Cumani said. "I think there's still improvement to come and he's entitled to go for a Group 3 next."

PERCY CONNECTIONS FAVOR CHAMPION

Trainer Marcus Tregoning said yesterday that Anthony Pakenham's G1 Epsom Derby hero Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) could miss the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in favor of the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket 13 days later. Tregoning reported that the Blue Riband winner, banged up after his Classic score June 3, was back in work, adding that the Arc may be a more suitable target in 2007. "He's had a long break and a nice holiday," he said. "He's moving extremely well and there are no signs of the jar he suffered in the Derby. The two aims are the Arc or Champion, but whatever happens this autumn, he'll be staying in training at four and he'll be better next year." Tregoning explained that the prospect of taking on Shirocco (Ger), Hurricane Run (Ire) and Deep Impact (Jpn) with the sophomore made the Longchamp showpiece a less attractive objective. "The Arc might be a better race to go for next year, as I quite honestly feel that Shirocco will be a tough nut to crack off a proper preparation and seems very effective on the going he's likely to encounter," he added. "Then there is Hurricane Run and the Japanese horse, so it might be a question of missing that this year and going for the Champion, but we'll play it nearer the time."

Tusculum broke his maiden at Navan in October before returning to finish fourth in a 10-furlong handicap at this venue July 1. Relishing the marked step up in trip here, he was reserved in rear by Seamus Heffernan in the early stages before making ground while racing wide at the top of the straight. Inhaling Good Surprise with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the bay wandered and looked green, but was always in command for a comfortable success. "He's an improving Sadler's Wells who stays well and has got tons of ability," his jockey said. "He quickened up and put it all in, and the quicker they go the better for him. He could be a good ride in the G1 St Leger [at Doncaster Sept. 9]."

Only fourth behind subsequent Listed Roses S. winner Not For Me (Ire) back at that track 13 days later, he rebounded to collect a nursery on his third visit there Aug. 6. Breaking smartly from his high draw here, he raced up with the pace before being committed at halfway by Fran Berry. Quickening approaching the final furlong, he was beyond recall as Southandwest closed late out of the pack under Kieren Fallon. "He's so lazy and you can't get to the bottom of him," trainer Deborah Evans said. "I wasn't worried about the ground, as he handled heavy ground before and good horses go on any ground. I don't think he's had a proper race yet and he's pulverized them. He'll be going for better races now."
