DUBAI ESCAPEDE SPARKLES IN BALLERINA

Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, the formidable head of the Godolphin and Darley operations, must have pleased heading into yesterday's GI Ballerina Breeders' Cup S. at Saratoga. With impressive victories by stable representatives Discreet Cat, Bernardini and Ashkal Way (Ire)--as well as a Grade I score by Henny Hughes, owned by son Sheikh Rashid--already in the coffers, it didn't look like it could get any better. That was until the classy Dubai Escapade (Awesome Again) ran off to an almost embarrassingly easy victory in the seven-furlong distaff feature. "She is such a fast filly," said Edgar Prado, who partnered the half to millionaire and GISW Madcap Escapade. "She can go :21 and :44 and keep going. When they didn't run with me early, I knew she was going to be tough today." cont. p2

CARADAK CELEBRATES AT GOODWOOD

With eyes focused on the return of George Washington (Ire) (Danehill), it was Caradak (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) who crept under the radar to seize his own slice of glory for team Godolphin in yesterday's G2 Totesport Celebration Mile at Goodwood. Ignoring the tearaway Ballydoyle rabbit River Tiber (GB) (Danehill) early, Caradak stayed on the front end of the peleton, with Frankie Dettori taking a peak back approaching the furlong marker to check on favored George Washington's progress. The 6-1 chance gained command shortly after, and it was Killybegs (Ire) (Orpen) who proved the greatest danger, forcing Caradak to dig in for the win. "I used [River Tiber] as a target," Dettori said. "I was expecting George Washington and Soviet Song to come through, but I realized they were a good bit behind and we made the most of it." cont. 3

MISS BEATRIX HARD TO BEAT

Kevin Prendergast had three guns to fire in yesterday's G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh and the target was duly hit by William Durkan's Miss Beatrix (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in a thrilling renewal. Third in the G1 Phoenix S. a fortnight ago, the most experienced filly in the line-up needed all of the seventh furlong to get to Silca Chiave (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Catching that rival in the final strides, the 14-1 shot had a short head to spare at the line. "She has been free in her races, but settled better today and I knew we were always going to get there," jockey Willie Supple commented. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. cont. p4

BLUEGRASS CAT RETIRED WITH INJURY Grade I winner Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat--She's a Winner, by A.P. Indy) suffered a non-displaced fracture to his right hind pastern in his runner-up effort to Bernardini in

Bluegrass Cat

Saturday's GI Travers S. and has been retired. The WinStar homebred, a Todd Pletcher trainee, was "significantly lame" in his right hind following the race, according to a press release, and subsequent radiographs revealed the fracture. Surgical options are currently under review by owners Bill Casner and Kenny Troutt. The injury is not life-threatening. "We are clearly disappointed that Bluegrass Cat's racing career has come to an end," said WinStar President Doug Cauthen. "We are excited, however, about his extraordinary prospects as a stallion." Prior to the Travers, Bluegrass Cat notched a breakout victory in the Aug. 6 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park. The three-year-old broke his maiden by 6 1/2 lengths for trainer Todd Pletcher at Belmont last September and went on to win the GIII Nashua S. and GII Remsen S. at two. In his sophomore bow, the son of Storm Cat embarked down the Derby trail with a win in the Sam F. Davis S. and a runner-up finish in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby, but a hiccup in the form of a well-beaten fourth in the GI Bluegrass S. at Keeneland resulted in 30-1 odds when he lined up for the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby. He belied those odds and found only Barbaro too good that day, then returned five weeks later to be second, this time to Jazil, in the GI Belmont S. The bay went in search of and found Grade I glory in the Haskell Invitational at Monmouth, winning by a resounding seven-length margin (Video).

Swan Song for the Cat...

Sent off the 5-2 second choice to Bernardini in the Travers, he tracked that foe before weakening down the lane, finishing second by 7 1/2 lengths. "This horse was just coming into his own," said Pletcher. "Bluegrass Cat was bringing his game to a whole new level coming off his performance in the Haskell. It is quite disappointing that his career has to come to an end. He was a very special horse." Bluegrass Cat, a half to MGSW Lord of the Game (Saint Ballado), is out of the unraced A.P. Indy mare She's a Winner, a full to MGSW Daydreaming and GSW Accelerator. Under the third dam is champion Rhythm, as well as successful sires Not For Love and Mutakddim.

World-traveler Dubai Escapade graduated second time out in Dubai last March before being shipped to the U.S. She came back after nearly 11 months on the shelf to win in a pair of allowance starts at Gulfstream this winter, then recorded her first graded-stakes victory in the GII Madison S. at Keeneland Apr. 12. Freshened for two months, the four-year-old returned better than ever, winning the June 11 GII Vagrancy H. at Belmont by six lengths, but she was derailed in her latest start when finishing sixth after stalking the early pace in the GI Princess Rooney H. at Calder July 15. "At Calder, I don't think she handled the track and she appeared confused when another horse went by her," said Eoin Harty, explaining her lackluster performance. "I just threw that race out and started from scratch." Back to her beloved spot on the lead here, the filly broke cleanly, led her rivals through sharp early fractions and had plenty left in the tank to collect her first Grade I victory. Nothing But Fun (Dixie Union), sent off at 5-1, mounted a gallant rally in the stretch to get up for the second spot, but was no match for the winner, who was 8 1/2 lengths in front on the line. Trained by John Oxx last term, Cardak found a rich seam in high summer when winning the Listed Celebration S. and G3 Minstrel S. at The Curragh and G3

Desmond S. at Leopardstown. Runner-up to Court

Masterpiece (GB) in the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp in October, it took until a conditions event at Newbury July 21 for him to debut for his new connections, and he made it a winning one. The five-year-old may have been unsuited by the heavy rainfall preceding the race when only third as favorite for the G2

Hungerford S. last Saturday, but he bounced back under a positive ride from Frankie Dettori to register a minor upset. "My fellow is a tremendous battler and gets his head down and tries," Dettori explained. "Take nothing away from this horse--his form is solid and he only flopped last week when the ground was too soft."

Racing Manager Simon Crisford added that Caradak will have a rest before being aimed at the G1 Hong Kong

Mile at Sha Tin Dec. 10.

George Pleases Connections...

Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's G1 2000 Guineas winner George Washington made his eagerly awaited return yesterday, and trainer Aidan O'Brien expressing himself "delighted" with his third placing. Off since sustaining a muscular injury after finishing runner-up in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 27, he was sent off the 5-6 favorite under Mick Kinane, deputising for the banned Kieren Fallon. While none of his notorious exploits were evident during the preliminaries, he missed the kick at the start and lost ground before racing freely in last place. Gaining on the leaders in the stretch, he was finishing strongly on the run to the line to get within 1 1/4 lengths of the winner and runner-up Killybegs. "We had the pacemaker in there to make it a consistent, true gallop and we were hoping they would follow and George would follow the field," O'Brien said. "They chose not to, and it wouldn't have been fair to ask George to follow him after he'd been off so long--automatically it turned into a sprint. Mick was happy with him and said when he let him down he was very rusty. He said it was only in the last furlong that he got going. He tore all the muscles off the top of his pelvis down into his hindquarters, and another horse wouldn't be here, but we knew that if we didn't make today, there was no point in looking at the rest of the season. We'd rather him be finishing than not finishing, and Mick had to put him to sleep and give him a lot to do, because we wanted him to be enjoying it. It's a long time since he's run and he had never worked off the bridle, so we couldn't be happier, other than he didn't win. He'll have a run under his belt in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. [at Ascot Sept. 23] and we won't run a pacemaker. He'll be like Alexandrova--if they walk, he'll walk at the back and if they fly, he'll be cantering along at the back and it won't matter then."

Miss Beatrix met smart rivals in Drayton (Ire) and City of Tribes (Ire) when placed in her first two starts before getting off the mark over seven furlongs at Leopardstown June 14. She turned in her only below-par effort when seventh in the Listed Woodpark & Ballysheehan Studs S. over this track and trip July 30, but was back on track when runner-up to Chanting in the July 19 Listed Silver Flash S. at Leopardstown July 19. Only Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) and Hellvelyn (GB) were ahead of her in the Phoenix last time, but the return to her own division provided her trainer with his first renewal since Arctique Royale (Ire) won in 1980. Settled toward the rear early by Willie Supple, she was full of run inside the final quarter and, after switching to the outer, charged past Silca Chiave in the shade of the post. "She should have been second in the Phoenix and when I saw the sixth [Rabatash] win today, I thought she'd have a big chance," Kevin Prendergast said. "She's well entered up and will go come back here for the [Sept. 19] Goffs Fillies' Five Hundred next."

Third behind subsequent G1 Derby Italiano and G1 Irish Derby runner-up Gentlewave (Ire) in the Mar. 18 Listed Prix Maurice Caillault at Saint Cloud, Irish Wells filled the same position in the G3 Prix la Force at Longchamp Apr. 23 before finishing sixth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 4. After a short break, he reappeared to win the Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange at Vichy July 20 and justified his connections' boldness by executing a perfect tactical plan. Following the rabbit Bannaby (Fr) (Dyhim Diamond {Fr}) throughout, he hit the front a quarter mile out before turning the contest into a procession, drawing further clear with distance. "Despite winning at Vichy, he was nervous racing at night, so we tried the ear plugs today and it worked to perfection," said trainer Francois Rohaut. "The pacemaker did a great job and set a fast, even pace. He could go for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [at Longchamp Oct. 1], but that might be his race in 2007 and we have the power to resist temptation." Promenade Girl had shown an affinity for the mud in the past, with two wins and a third from three wet-track starts. The bay capped her 2005 campaign with an easy score in an optional claimer over a muddy Laurel strip in December and came back to take the Nellie Morse S. Jan. 28. Third as the odds-on chalk in the Mar. 11 Conniver S., she was given a break after finishing fifth in the Apr. 1 Snow Goose S., and returned to fill the same spot in the May 19 Gill Breeders' Cup Distaff H. at Pimlico. The Bender homebred rebounded to wire the field in the June 20 Golden Sylvia H. at Mountaineer Park and looked to use the same tactics over the sloppy Monmouth surface here. Jockey Jeremy Rose sent the filly right to the lead and she clicked off a half in :47.95 and six furlongs in 1:11.68. GISW Round Pond, making her first start since taking the Gill Azeri BC S. at Oaklawn in March, took it to her as they raced down the lane and briefly had a head in front, but Promenade Girl battled back to take the photo. No stranger to graded stakes company, T.H. Approval completed his 12th consecutive start at that level yesterday with a come-from-behind victory. In the money in four of six starts last term, including a comfortable score in the 1 3/4-mile GII San Juan Capistrano H., the grey kicked off 2006 with a pair of runner-up finishes in 1 1/2-mile marathons at Santa Anita, including the GII San Luis Rey H. Mar. 25 before defending his title in this year's San Juan Capistrano Apr. 23. A well-beaten seventh in the 10-panel GI Charlie Whittingham H. at Hollywood June 10, he proved best when stretched out for his most recent start in the GII Sunset BC H. July 16. Content to settle off the pace here, the five-year-old rallied between foes turning for home and powered to the front late to collect his third win of the year. "He's a very unique horse, kind of like [MGISW] Megahertz," said winning rider Alex Solis. "When you get to know him, he will really give you his best." The winner of the GIII Jefferson Cup at Churchill Downs last June, Rush Bay was sidelined for nine months after finishing eighth in the GIII Virginia Derby the following month. The bay returned to be fourth in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 15, then put together back-to-back head victories in an optional claimer at Churchill May 6 and the Opening Verse H. in Louisville June 3. He showed brief speed over a soft turf in the July 22 GIII Arlington H. before tiring to be fifth in that 10-furlong affair, and was 9-1 stretching to 1 1/2 miles for the first time. Up to contest a pedestrian early pace, Rush Bay had a head in front with a quarter mile left to run, opened a little daylight at midstretch and was all out to hit the line a neck to the good over the rallying Last Answer. "He was so relaxed and I had so much horse, it gave me a good feel going to the first turn," winning jockey David Clark said. "When [Last Answer] came outside, I knew he had some fight left in him."

Linggari recorded a sole stakes score under the care of Sir Michael Stoute in 2005 when beating With Reason in the Listed Superior Mile at Haydock in September. Sold out of Freemason Lodge to the South African trainer Herman Brown, the chestnut took to Nad al Sheba like a duck to water during the Spring Carnival, winning the Feb. 2 G3 Dubal al Rashidiya and G2 Al Fahidi Fort three weeks later. After an unplaced effort in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Duty Free, he found himself changing stables again and it was Diego Lowther who sent him out to finish sixth in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville last time Aug. 6. Always close to the pace, he was committed by Andreas Suborics passing the quarter pole and seized command soon after before holding the challenge of Donatello and Soave on either side. Sesmen maintained her perfect record to provide rookie trainer Marco Botti with an early career highlight. Off the mark on Kempton's polytrack July 5, she followed up in a Nottingham conditions event Aug. 15, where she was forced to make her own running and, despite racing keenly, took apart a field of colts. Settled in behind the early speed duel by Oscar Urbina, she was sent in pursuit of Cumin, who had won the war for the lead in the straight. Swamping that tiring rival approaching the eighth pole, Sesmen was soon clear and needed only to be kept up to her work to deny the strong closer Bicoastal. "She tends to hit the front and wait on other horses, but she did it well there," Botti said. "Oscar was very confident and gave her a marvelous ride. She's improving all the time and I think there's a lot to come."

Rabatash was one of many victims of a high draw at Royal Ascot when failing to land a blow out in the middle of the track and finishing seventh in the June 20 Listed Windsor Forest S. Putting that disappointment behind him, he opened his account at Tipperary July 22 before finishing just over three lengths behind Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) when sixth on his first try at this trip last time Aug. 13. Always prominent under Wayne Lordan, he quickened impressively to lead passing the quarter pole when the button was pressed and was in no danger thereafter as Chivalrous stayed on in his wake. "I might throw him in at the deep end now and go for the G1 Middle Park S. [at Newmarket Sept. 29]," remarked trainer David Wachman.

Hello Sunday captured the Listed Prix Isonomy at Saint-Cloud in December before returning to finish sixth in the Apr. 17 G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp and third in the G2 Prix Greffulhe at Saint-Cloud May 15. Ninth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 4, he was dropped in class for the G3 Prix Daphnis, only to encounter the exciting Dilek (Fr) and finish third at Longchamp last time June 26. Returning after a break here, he stalked the early pace before grabbing Raciner with a furlong remaining and asserting under mainly hands and heels. "That's my first winner in August, so I'm pleased," trainer Criquette Head-Maarek commented. "He is obviously better on soft ground and a mile will suit him better. He might take his chance in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein [at Longchamp Sept. 30] if the ground is right."

When it rides soft, Indian Maiden is one of the better sprinters around and took advantage of her favored conditions to register her first group success and eighth stakes win overall in comfortable fashion. The six-year-old has been flying this season, winning the Listed Lansdown S. at Bath May 2, Listed Sweet Mimosa S. at Leopardstown July 29 and Listed Flying Fillies' S. at Pontefract last time Aug. 20. Breaking through at the higher level here, she produced her usual acceleration from a waiting ride in rear to swoop by her rivals with 1½ furlongs remaining, and settled the result in a matter of strides. "What a nice mare she is and she is so consistent," conditioner Malcom Sanders said. "She runs virtually every week and I do absolutely nothing with her in between, but she takes her races so well. She'll go to the Listed Henry Gee S. [at Chester Sept. 9] and then the G3 Renaissance S. [at The Curragh Sept. 16] now." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Benbaun gained due reward for a string of consistent efforts in top sprinting company to win back-to-back renewals of this contest. Runner-up on all four starts this term, he had given best to Moss Vale (Ire) in the June 4 G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly, Takeover Target (Aus) in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 20, Dandy Man (Ire) in the Listed Richard H Faught Memorial S. over course and distance July 2 and Pivotal Point (GB) in Sandown's Sprint S. last time July 8. Not to be denied on this occasion, he chased the furiously fast Desert Lord throughout before winning the two-horse war in the final 150 yards. Trainer Mark Wallace revealed that Benbaun may be aimed at the G1 Sprinters S. at Nakayama Oct. 1.

Shillelagh Slew closed his freshman campaign with a close third-place finish in the restricted Coronation Futurity S. at Woodbine Nov. 10, then disappeared until Apr. 29 of this year. He returned to take a seven-furlong allowance at the Toronto track by 4 1/4 lengths. Off that single prep, the Quebec-bred colt finished a respectable fifth in the June 25 Queen's Plate, then was awarded the victory in the Prince of Wales S. at Fort Erie July 16 after being interfered with by Malakoff. In his most recent appearance, the dark bay was a very game third in the final leg of the Canadian Triple Crown, the Breeders' S. on the Woodbine turf course Aug. 6. He was sent off at odds of just over 3-1 to earn a first graded-stakes victory. Content to rate off the pedestrian fractions set by The Visualizer while saving ground early, Shillelagh Slew hit a road block when making his move on the final bend. He fought his way through traffic and finished full of run to catch the pacesetter at the eighth pole and win going away.

HORSEMEN MALLORY AND BRUNACINI, TRAINER WILLIAMS AMONG AIR CRASH VIC- TIMS Courtesy of The Blood-Horse Staff

George Brunacini, who bred 2005 Travers Stakes (gr. I) winner Flower Alley, Central Kentucky horseman Dan Mallory, and trainer Jeff Williams were among the 49 victims of Sunday morning's crash of a commuter jet shortly after takeoff from Blue Grass Airport in Lexington, Ky. Brunacini, who operated Bona Terra Farm and also bred Grade II winner Victory U.S.A., was confirmed among the flight victims by WLEX-TV. Mallory, who operated Meadow Haven Farm and was regular consignor to Fasig-Tipton and Keeneland sales, was on the flight, according to Tim Boyce, sales director for Fasig-Tipton Texas. Mallory was en route to the FT Texas sale that will be held Monday and Tuesday. Mallory served as president of the Kentucky Farm Managers' Club in 1989 and bred several stakes winners alone and in partnership, including graded winners American Spirit and Traces of Gold. Williams, 49, who was based at the Thoroughbred Center in Lexington but race primarily in Ohio, entered the business through his association with polo ponies and the Dayton Polo Club in Centerville, Ohio, according to John Engelhardt, publicity director at River Downs racetrack. He went on to become an assistant trainer with W.E. "Smiley" Adams in the late '70s and began an association with Ohio's Woodburn Farm through the 1980s. He conditioned 10 stakes winners for Woodburn Farm, including 1985 Ohio 2-year-old champion Astrotot. Dayton attorney Larry Denny had a decades-long association with Williams through both Thoroughbreds and polo ponies. "He was an outstanding trainer of young horses. One of the best caretakers I'd ever seen," stated Denny, who put himself through college as a blacksmith. "Jeff and I were partners. We'd buy lots of horses, I'd shoe him, he'd exercise them. We'd get green horses from Oklahoma, off the track, wherever, and he could teach them to turn, stop and get them broke to mallet." Williams and Denny played together for years on the Dayton Polo Club. "We won the Mid-States Tournament in Louisville one year and Jeff scored the winning goal. He won the 'Best Playing Pony Award' and sold the mare Mariposa for what was then a record price. A lot of the polo horses he trained went on to be the best ponies on the circuit. He went on to work for Bart Evans, one of the most respected horsemen in the sport of polo." According to the Associated Press, the lone survivor was the co-pilot, who was in critical condition at University Hospital in Lexington. Investigators were trying to determine if the plane was on the wrong runway and ran out of pavement. Click for complete story.

Lawyer Ron, who kicked off his sophomore campaign with a four-race winning streak, started another one here. The chestnut colt capped off his juvenile season with runaway victories in an optional claimer at Louisiana Downs and the Diamond Jo S. at Evangeline Downs in December. He made it three straight victories by daylight when taking the Jan. 14 Gill Risen Star S., then shipped out of the Bayou State for the Feb. 25 Southwest S. at Oaklawn and fought off Steppenwolver for a 3/4-length score. After adding to his skein in the Mar. 18 Gill Rebel S. and Apr. 15 Gill Arkansas Derby, Lawyer Ron was sent off at 10-1 in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby, but finished 12th under the Twin Spires. He exited the race with a chip in his right hind ankle and underwent surgery. Making his return here, the odds-on chalk tracked the leaders through solid early splits, bulled his way through a narrow opening as they entered the far turn and took command at the top of the lane. He outfinished Smokeyjonesutton to earn the decision.

STABLEMATES SHIROCCO, HURRICANE RUN COULD MEET IN FOY Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Baron Georg von Ullmann's Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) could prep for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in next Sunday's G2 Prix Foy. Trainer Andre Fabre told the Racing Post that Shirocco may avoid the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 3 and join his stable companion in the Longchamp trial, run over the Arc course and distance. "Hurricane Run is in very good shape and will run in the Foy, but it has not been decided yet if Shirocco runs at Baden-Baden or not," he told the Post. "I am waiting on the forfeits and the ground and I need to speak with the owner Baron von Ullmann. The German race is very tempting, but I don't want him to have a hard race, and the German horses could be pretty good. If he doesn't run in Germany, he will run in the Foy too." Fabre dispelled concerns about last year's Arc winner Hurricane Run running against the GI Breeders' Cup Turf hero before the autumn showpiece. "Hurricane Run and Shirocco have already run together before and they will run together in the Arc, so I don't mind. The Foy is only a prep race, and they might even be beaten by a third horse." Christophe Soumillon looks set to partner Shirocco after the Post revealed that His Highness the Aga Khan's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Darsi (Fr) (Polish Precedent) and G2 Prix Greffulhe scorer Visindar (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}) would miss the race after being ruled out for the season.

Also Ran: Tatsuya (Fr), Illie Nastase (Fr), Bomber Pilot (Ire).

Christophe Soumillon displayed exemplary riding skills when almost unseated in the closing stages of this, but remained aboard British raider Iron Fist to secure an all-the-way success. Iron Fist followed a debut sixth at Newmarket July 1 with victory at Warwick 12 days later. Encountering steering difficulties off the home turn, Soumillon allowed his mount to drift wide in the straight and alertly recovered when Iron Rist spooked passing the 300-meters pole, to secure a pushed-out score.
