HIS DAY IN THE SUN?

On the losing end of the photo finish in two prior Grade I starts this season, Sun King (Charismatic) will be looking to get his picture taken after today's GI Woodward S. at Saratoga this afternoon. The four-year-old came from out of the clouds to capture the Apr. 15 GII Commonwealth BC S. at Keeneland, but ran out of real estate in the May 29 GI Met Mile H. and finished second, a head behind Silver Train. Sent off at 1-4 in the July 7 Albert the Great S. at Belmont, he once again filled the role of runner-up. The margin was so close in the Aug. 5 GI Whitney S. that trainer Nick Zito wasn't sure if Sun King or Invasor (Arg) got the decision. Unfortunately for him, it was Invasor. "When the horses are ding-donging, you can't tell who's in front," Zito admitted. "It's just a head bob. I hope he gets a good journey [this time]." The Brooklyn native has also entered Andromeda's Hero (Fusaichi Pegasus), who took a Saratoga allowance test July 31; and the speedy Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold). Runner-up to Invasor in the May 19 GI Pimlico Special, Wanderin Boy romped by seven lengths in an optional claimer in the mud at Belmont June 25, but faltered to sixth after pressing the pace in the Whitney. "They're all doing well," Zito said.

HUNGRY LIKE THE WOLF

Hungry for a success to add to his juvenile best in the G1 Middle Park S., Amadeus Wolf (GB) (Mozart {Ire}) may get his turn in the G1 Sprint Cup at Haydock today. Owned by a syndicate that includes the Irish National Stud, the sophomore has been creeping closer to the prize with each run this term, finishing runner-up to Reverence (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) in last Thursday's G1 Nunthorpe S. over five furlongs at York. With an extra panel to help here, jockey Neil Callan is hopeful he can reverse that form. "He's been a trooper this year and so consistent," Callan said. "Reverence had a little bit more gear on that soft ground last time, but I can ride him for a turn of foot over six and it'll suit him down to the ground." Cont p2

FRONT AND CENTER

War Front (Danzig) broke out of his bridesmaid's slump with a 2 1/2-length tally in the Aug. 12 GII Vanderbilt BC H. at Saratoga. The four-year-old will try to stretch his speed over an additional eighth of a mile in the GI Forego S. going seven panels at the Spa today. "This is going to be a much tougher field than he has faced," trainer Allen Jerkens said. "We're hoping he can keep going with it." Beaten a neck when runner-up in the Jan. 7 GIII Mr. Prospector H., War Front was the odds-on chalk in the Feb. 5 GIII Deputy Minister H., but had to settle for second once again. The bay was up against it in his return after more than five months on the shelf, taking on Silver Train in the July 16 GII Tom Fool H., but acquitted himself admirably when missing by just a neck after setting fast fractions. The 8-5 chalk in the Vanderbilt, he rated in third through the opening quarter, but strode to the front after a half in :45 and easily held off Judiths Wild Rush (Wild Rush). Cont. p3

Amadeus Wolf failed to see out the mile of the G1 2000 Guineas May 7, but performed with credit to be seventh. A fine fifth in the June 24 G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot, he was fourth in the G1 July Cup and filled the third spot in the Aug. 6 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest. The three-year-old was beaten just two lengths when second to Reverence last time. Jockey Neil Callan remarked, "My fellow goes on any ground and is in great form. He came bouncing out of the York race and looks really well." Reverence has yet to win a stakes race over this trip, but showed lethal speed over Britain's minimum distance when taking the May 30 G2 Temple S. and the Nunthorpe. "[Trainer] Eric [Alston] says the horse has never been as well--he's bucking and kicking and is in absolutely top form," owner-breeder Gary Middlebrook told PA Sport. "He's bigger and stronger now and I think he'll definitely get six." Veteran Quito has charted an unorthodox route to the top, having emerged in his later years from handicap company to make the metamorphosis into stakes performer. He demonstrated what a force he is over seven furlongs this term when winning the June 8 Listed John of Gaunt S. at this course and last Thursday's Listed City of York S., but he was also runner-up in the May 17 G2 Duke of York S. and sixth in the July Cup over this trip. His warm-up in Sunday's Listed Beverley Bullet S. did not go to planned, as his saddle slipped in the closing stages, but the nine-year-old is reported at the top of his game. Trainer David Chapman told PA Sport, "There should be plenty of pace on, which would suit him. We are very hopeful." In the supporting cast is Balthazaar's Gift, who has strong claims on his G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte success in November and his fast-finishing second to Les Arcs in the Golden Jubilee. He has to rebound from a below-par effort when trailing in the Maurice de Gheest, but trainer Tom George believes there were excuses for that run. "There was a catalogue of things that went wrong at Deauville," he told PA Sport. "He got very upset in the stalls and he was very sore after the race. He's recovered very well though and he's in good order."

We select our stallions to have speed, brilliance, looks, toughness and pedigree. What else are you looking for?

Trainer Bobby Frankel, bidding for his fourth consecutive victory in this event, sends out Mass Media. The five-year-old gave Frankel his third Forego score, winning by a half-length a year ago, but has been unable to get back to the winner's circle since. Second in the GI Cigar Mile H. to end 2005, the dark bay returned to be fourth in the Apr. 8 GI Carter H. and has since filled the show spot in the May 29 GI Met Mile H. and Aug. 12 GII Vanderbilt BC H. Commentator, a perfect three-for-three at the Spa, beat subsequent Horse of the Year Saint Liam by a neck in the GI Whitney H. last summer. Sidelined by a sore shin after finishing third in the GI Woodward S. last September, the chestnut gelding came back after a 10-month absence to gallop home a 6 1/4-length winner in the state-bred Mugatea S. at Belmont July 12, running his record to eight-for-10. He has been working sharply for his second start off the layoff, prepping for the Forego with a bullet half in :47 1/5 Aug. 26. Nightmare Affair rides a four-race winning streak into this Grade I test. The winner of three straight sprint stakes this spring, the five-year-old was overlooked at 14-1 in the July 15 GII Smile Sprint H., but closed from the back of the pack to best Pomeroy by two lengths. The Smile runner-up was making his first start since finishing eighth in the Vosburgh last year. The winner of the 2004 GI King's Bishop S., he has been first or second in all four Saratoga starts.

Island Fashion has yet to win in six starts on the turf, but she could turn it around here. The six-year-old mare was beaten a head by Amorama in the GI John C.

Mabee H. on the Del Mar lawn last season. She failed to make an impact when off the board in the Aug. 21 GI Pacific Classic and Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, but layered those disappointing efforts between thirds in the Oct. 2 GII Lady's Secret BC H. and Dec. 11 GII Bayakoa H. Sent to Dubai for her 2006 opener in the G2 Godolphin Mile, the gray could do no better than seventh, but she resurfaced in this year's edition of the Mabee and just missed, finishing third by a neck. Winless since the '05 Mabee, Amorama was fourth for the third straight time in that event last time out, but was beaten only a half-length for all the money. She ran second behind champion Intercontinental (GB) in the Palomar last year. Five-year-old Mea Domina, a maiden winner over this course at three, has won six of eight starts on the lawn. She came back after nine months on the bench to be third behind Polyfirst and Three Degrees in the Aug. 9 Osunitas H. and should be sharper in her second start back.

Reserved in fourth by Andreas Boschert throughout the early stages, he was taken over to the stands' side rail at the top of the stretch to chart a lone path as the field fanned across Baden-Baden's expanse. Sugar Baby Love looked to have done enough when taking over under Andrasch Starke in the center of the track passing the quarter pole, but it was Global Dream who had the call in the final 100 yards. From the first German crop of the much-traveled Seattle Dancer, Global Dream is out of a three-parts sister to Gonfalon (GB), the dam of last year's G1 Deutschlandpreis and G1 Preis von Europa heroine Gonbarda (Ger). Sugar Baby Love, purchased privately three weeks ago, was making her first start for Team Valor.

CHEMOTHERAPY NEXT FOR LOST IN THE FOG

by Jack Shinar, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

Lost in the Fog, champion sprinter of 2005, will begin chemotherapy treatments for his cancer at the University of California at Davis next week, trainer Greg Gilchrist said Sept. 1. The process could last for as long as nine months. Gilchrist, during a brief teleconference from Golden Gate Fields, said the hope is that chemotherapy can put the four-year-old colt's lymphoma into remission and give the horse as much as two years of quality life. "It would have to be a miracle for Lost in the Fog to be cured," Gilchrist said. "This is something that puts it into remission and allows him to go on." Gilchrist, along with owner Harry Aleo, were disappointed to learn earlier in the day that Lost in the Fog's tumors had not shrunk in size since the horse began treatment with injections of the corticosteroid Dexamethasone 10 days ago. "Doctors came down from the university Thursday to do a scan," he said. "Nothing had changed. Nothing had gotten any smaller. Nothing had gotten any larger." Aleo and Gilchrist made the decision on chemotherapy on the advice of Dr. Gary Magdesian, UCD's chief of equine medicine.

MELNYK HONORS CRASH VICTIMS

In a show of respect for those who lost their lives in last Sunday's crash of Comair Flight 5191, owner Eugene Melnyk has asked jockey John Velazquez to wear a black band on his pant leg during today's running of the G1 Woodward S. Velazquez will ride Melnyk's Flower Alley (Distorted Humor), who was bred by George Brunacini, one of the victims in the crash. "I had the pleasure to meet George at the races on the day after Flower Alley had won the Travers S.," Melnyk said in a statement. "We both shared great stories and our high hopes for the horse, as he had owned Flower Alley's mother, Princess Olivia. My wife Laura and I send our sincere condolences and prayers to George's family, as well as all the families who lost loved ones in this tragic accident."

DEREK, BOB MEET AT DEL MAR Today's $100,000 El Cajon S. at Del Mar drew a field of only five, but two of them are GISWs Brother Derek (Benchmark) and Bob and John (Seeking the Gold), who will be making their respective first starts since disappointing finishes in Triple Crown races. Brother Derek went into the GI Kentucky Derby as the best in the West following a string of wins that culminated in the GI Santa Anita Derby, but was forced to race very wide throughout and wound up in a dead heat for fourth with Jazil. The Cal-bred bay followed that with a flat effort when fourth in the GI Preakness S. May 20 and was freshened up by trainer Dan Hendricks. He had been training barefoot until recently, according to Daily Racing Form. "It's something I learned from [Richard] Mandella," Hendricks--a former assistant to the Hall of Fame trainer--told DRF. "It's a way for a horse to grow out his foot and toughen naturally." Brother Derek will face Bob and John, the GI Wood Memorial S. winner who ran 17th in the Kentucky Derby and eighth in the GI Belmont S. June 10 in his most recent trip postward. Also in the field is the intriguing newcomer Cindago (Indian Charlie), who defeated Latent Heat and Point Determined in a Dec. 26 maiden at Santa Anita before being forced to the sidelines. Click for brisnet.com pps.

TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

Brought to you by FASIG-TIPTON

TOM ALBERTRANI

Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment: Brooklyn-born and -raised Albertrani saddled Bernardini (A.P. Indy) to victory in the Mid-summer Derby, the $1 million GI Travers S. It was the fifth straight win for the three-year-old Darley homebred, who also captured the GI Preakness S., GII Jim Dandy S. and GIII Withers S.

Birthdate: Mar. 21, 1958

Birthplace: Brooklyn, NY

Current Residence: Garden City, NY

Family: Wife, Fonda, two daughters, Teal and Noelle

To you, what does it mean to be a New Yorker? Living in a fast-pace and competitive city keeps you on your toes.

What do your daughters think about their dad winning the Preakness and Travers? They are very happy for me and thrilled to be part of this excitement.

Of all the horses you have been around, who had the best personality? Songster has a lot of personality. He loves to have attention and for you to rub on his nose. When you walk away he neighs to have you come back to do it some more.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? I would like us to use some of the same medication rules as they use in Europe.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Hawaii.

Favorite food or meal? A thick steak and mashed potatoes.

What's the funniest movie you've ever seen? My Cousin Vinny. You have to be from Brooklyn to appreciate this movie.

What's in your CD player right now? Spyro Gyra 20/20.

Proudest moment? Winning my first race as a jockey and becoming a father.

Favorite book? A Dangerous Fortune by Ken Follet. The story was very entertaining.

Last purchase? A platter at the Anna House fundraiser charity event at Saratoga.

First job? Delivering newspapers and cutting grass when I was 12 years old.

A distant runner-up in his second start on the Belmont Park main track July 20, Fernando Po was switched to the turf at Saratoga Aug. 13 and just missed. The chestnut colt was caught in traffic on the first turn, but finished well to be third, beaten just a half-length, as the 2-1 chalk in that test. Let go at long odds in an attempt to break his maiden in stakes company, he changed tactics to sit just off the pace through a half in :48.82. He took over after six panels in 1:13.49 and dug in down the lane to prevail in a three-way photo. Admiral Byrd may have been the best, but was lugging in as they raced down the lane, forcing jockey Garrett Gomez to expend his energy in keeping the colt straight rather than urging him to victory.

Career Change for Hauswald:

Phil Hauswald has decided to put his training career on hold to take over as agent for jockey Mike Smith. Smith has won just two races from 49 mounts at the Saratoga meeting. Hauswald, 48, was assistant to trainer Shug McGaughey before taking out his license in 1985. He guided Epitome to a win in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and an Eclipse Award as champion two-year-old filly in 1987, but had just one win from 34 starts this year. He will begin handling Smith's book when the Belmont Park fall meet starts Sept. 8.

HAWK WING COLT TOPS FIRST SESSION As the first session of the Baden-Baden Sales Company's (BBAG) Yearling Sale drew to a close yesterday, it was a case of the saving the best for last when a colt from the first crop of Hawk Wing topped the evening's proceedings. Out of a half-sister to the 1998 G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua winner Waky Nao (GB), hip 85, from the draft of Gestut Park Wiedingen, was knocked down to trainer Waldemar Hickst for €130,000. That eclipsed the €110,000 paid by Blandford Bloodstock for the previous lot, a filly by Platini (Ger). Consigned by Gestut Romerhof, she is a sister to this year's G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) winner Windhuk (Ger). Chocely bred fillies were in demand throughout the evening and it was Team Valor who struck early for one of the picks of the first session. The operation have an important date on their calendar when Irridescence (SAf) runs in tomorrow's G1 Prix du Moulin and they were making their presence felt last night. Hip 18, the filly Daveron (Ger), is out of a sister to the group winner Dalicia (Ger) from the first crop of the 2002 G1 Gran Premio di Milano and 2003 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup winner Black Sam Bellamy (Ire). From a family richly endowed with stakes performers, Gestut Fahrhof Stiftung's offering was secured for €100,000. The evening session kicked off in style when Manfred Hofer paid €95,000 for the first lot, another from the draft of Fahrhof. By Anabaa, she is out of the listed victoress Zaza Top (Ger), who was also responsible for a colt by Galileo (Ire) sold for €120,000 last year. Just three lots later, Peter Schiergen, who will saddle the likely favorite Schiaparelli (Ger) in tomorrow's G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, stepped in to purchase Anassa (Ger), a daughter of Schiaparelli's brother and freshman sire Samum (Ger). From the consignment of Gestut Karlshof, the half to two stakes placegetters reached €85,000. Selling resumes today at 10 a.m. Full results can be found on www.bbag-sales.de.

ELMAAMUL EUTHANIZED According to a press release from Shadwell Estate Co Ltd, Elmaamul (Diesis {GB}--Modena, by Roberto) was euthanized Thursday due to a deteriorating heart condition. The 19-year-old stallion was a champion in Ireland at three after winning the G1 Coral Eclipse S. and G1 Phoenix Champion S., and retired with five victories from 10 career starts and earnings of £424,535. From 13 crops to race, the chestnut sired 13 stakes winners, including Group 1 winners Bandeira Native, Muhtathir (GB) and Sweet Return (GB). His progeny have earned more than $10 million. He had stood at Beechwood Grange Stud in York since 2003.

ARAAFA STRAIGHT TO ASCOT Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre) was a notable scratch from tomorrow's G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. Connections revealed that the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. hero will head straight to the Sept. 23 G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. "Following a consultation with the horse's owners Salah Al Homeizi and Imad Al Sagar, as well as their racing manager Tony Nerses, it has been decided that Araafa will bypass the Moulin," trainer Jeremy Noseda said.

SPENCER ON BOARD Jamie Spencer will be reacquainted with Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in next Saturday's G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown. The reigning British champion jockey partnered the multiple Group 1 winner to her maiden success at Yarmouth in 2003, and when she was seventh in last year's G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot at York. Trainer Ed Dunlop told the Racing Post, "He's ridden her plenty in her work and at the racecourse. I haven't worked it out yet, but he could have a sit on her at the weekend."

Kalderon last stood in the winner's spot after the Listed Grand Prix de la Region d'Alsace 12 months ago, but had run well in defeat since joining the Tom Hogan yard. Third in the Listed Alleged S. at The Curragh Apr. 9 and Listed Lenebane S. at Roscommon July 10, he had trailed Quinmaster when down the field in Sunday's Irish Cambridgeshire back at The Curragh. Sent straight to the front by Fran Berry, he repeled every challenge and dug in to hold Arch Rebel in the closing stages.
