PREMIUM UPSET

Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap) continued his steady improvement and outbattled Second of June (Louis Quatorze) to post a 31-1 upset in the $500,000 GI Woodward S. at Saratoga yesterday afternoon. "I'm really proud of the effort," winning conditioner John Kimmel said. "If we can keep him sound and healthy, we have some things to look forward to." The four-year-old isn't Breeders' Cup eligible, so Kimmel will have to get creative. "There are plenty of good races," he added. "There's the race after the Breeders' Cup at Churchill [GI Clark H. Nov. 4] and the [GI] Meadowlands BC S. Oct. 13]. Maybe we can take a trip to Dubai with him next year." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Cont. p2

SUCCESSFUL SPA RETURN FOR POMEROY

Silverleaf Farm's Pomeroy (Boundary) added another Saratoga trophy to his case yesterday with a sharp win in the GI Forego S. Hero of the GI King's Bishop S. in 2004, the bay followed up with a victory in the GI A.G. Vanderbilt H. last summer. "I love shipping into Saratoga," winning trainer Marty Wolfson said. "I'm three-for-three shipping in for Grade 1s at Saratoga." Favored Commentator (Distorted Humor) stumbled at the start and wound up 10th. Cont. p3

PRAISE BE!

Having claimed a first top-level success in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York nine days earlier, Gary and Lesley Middlebrook's Reverence (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) allayed stamina fears in yesterday's G1 Betfred Sprint Cup at rainwashed Haydock. The chestnut skipped through the mud to justify 11-4 favoritism, holding on for a neck success from Quito (Ire) (Machiavellian) "He's very tough and, to be honest, he just lasted out today," admitted winning rider Kevin Darley. "When I committed him a furlong down, I thought, 'please God, last out for me,' and he did." Cont. p3

CALLING THE TUNE

Having survived a lean spell, Team Godolphin are back on top, and Librettist (Danzig) bids to continue the purple patch in today's G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. A smart juvenile, the colt missed out his sophomore year, but is unbeaten since reappearing at four. He bids to follow up his success in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois. "Librettist came back from the Prix Jacques le Marois in good form," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "He has been working well...we have been very happy with his progress this year." Cont. p7

TAPPING ON THE DOOR A nine-length maiden winner in November of his two-year-old season, Premium Tap missed most of 2005, but closed out the year with a wire-to-wire allowance win over the Aqueduct inner track Dec. 8. He was the runner-up to a pair of Todd Pletcher-trained future graded-stakes winners--Master Command and Harlington--in two Gulfstream allowance races Jan. 16 and Feb. 8. The four-year-old trumped Survivalist by 5 1/4 lengths going a mile in an allowance at the Hallandale track Mar. 18, but didn't see action again for the next three months. Survivalist turned the tables on him in his return, a June 16

allowance at Belmont, but Premium Tap got his picture taken next out in handing Sun King (Charismatic) a 3 1/4-length defeat in the Albert the Great S. July 7 at Big Sandy. After missing some training time, the bay performed creditably in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 5 over track and trip, finishing fifth behind Invasor (Arg) and Sun King. "We thought he could improve," Kimmel said after yesterday's race. "He only had one breeze [before the Whitney]." Breaking alertly under Kent Desormeaux from post eight, the Kentucky-bred secured a perfect spot just off the flank of Second of June, who showed the way through fractions of :23.63, :47.37 and 1:11.88. Premium Tap drew even in the lane and, after exchanging bumps with his rival, forged ahead late. Desormeaux termed it "a measured victory." He said, "I had him where I wanted him, and he was full of himself. I actually had to slow him down. In the lane, I just threw in a lead change and let him go." Sun King, the slight favorite, made a belated rally to complete the trifecta. The exacta of the 31-1 Premium Tap and 21-1 Second of June made for a $929 exacta, and also led to a $335,280 Pick 6 carryover for Saratoga's penultimate day. For the record, five out of six paid $4,621. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Flower Fades...

Flower Alley (Distorted Humor), the slight second choice, put in his second successive disappointing effort at Saratoga, winding up seventh. He had finished in the same position last out in the Whitney. "I don't know what happened," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He never fired at all. He went into the first turn and got fanned out a bit, but the fractions were pretty moderate and he didn't keep up. We'll regroup." The chestnut had won the GI Travers S. and the GII Jim Dandy S. last summer.

Pomeroy began his career for the partnership of Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith and was trained by Patrick Biancone. His first stakes win came in the GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. at Monmouth in June, 2004. Following a close second in the GII Amsterdam S., he set a stakes record of 1:20 4/5 in capturing the GI King's Bishop S., but that proved to be his final appearance for quite some time. Returning the following spring at Keeneland, he was unplaced in the GIII Shakertown S., then ran third in the GII Churchill Downs H. and fourth in the GI Met Mile. He got back on track with a 6 1/2-length optional claiming win at Monmouth and aired in the GII A.G. Vanderbilt H. over this course last August. Eighth in the GI Vosburgh S. Oct. 1, Pomeroy was pre-entered in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, but never made it to the starting gate due to some foot trouble; he was later sold privately and underwent surgery. "After we bought him in the fall, we took a chip out of his ankle, and I've got to believe it's really helped him," trainer Marty Wolfson explained. The five-year-old began breezing in June at Calder and was deemed ready to make his return to action in the GII Smile Sprint H. July 15 at the Miami track, where he ran second to Nightmare Affair (Out of Place). Pomeroy was the third choice here to Commentator (Distorted Humor). He bounced away quickly from the gate and raced in second down the backstretch. The Silverleaf Farm colorbearer seized command on the turn and, after putting away a game War Front, came home safely in front. "I really had only planned on running him two to three times this year, so we might train him into the Breeders' Cup [Sprint, Nov. 4 at Churchill]." As for Commentator, the 4-5 chalk rushed up after stumbling badly at the start, but faded to finish 10th.

Having annexed the May 30 G2 Temple S. at Sandown, Reverence made a quick reappearance coming back from a career high in the Aug. 24 G1 Nunthorpe S. at York and became the first horse since Dayjur in 1990 to record the illustrious Group 1 double. Bagging a prominent role along the rail as Red Clubs (Ire) (Red Ransom) set the tone, he assumed a challenging position approaching the final eighth. Seizing control soon after, he responded to a forceful drive and ran on with gusto to prevail as Quito's customary late rattle fell just short. "I thought that was it when Quito came and the last 100 yards were the worst," explained local trainer Eric Alston, adding, "After his first race this year, when Quito finished just in front of him, we thought he would stay six [furlongs], but he hasn't proved it until today. We were targetting the Abbaye more than this race as we thought the ground would be more in his favor there. He's just good, it's as simple as that." The Lancashire trainer also confirmed his stable star will indeed target a third Group 1 success in the Oct. 1 Prix de l'Abbaye at Longchamp. Hollywood in May and--after a six-month break--the GII Las Palmas H. at Santa Anita in November. The Janis Whitham homebred didn't face the starter again until Aug. 9, and the rustiness showed when she wound up third as the favorite in the restricted Osunitas H. behind Polyfirst (Poliglote {GB}) and Three Degrees over this course. A generous 5.90-1 here due to her outside post, the bay sprang away quickly and had the lead by the first turn. She sailed along on the front end through fractions of :23.51 and :46.43, and turned for home with a full head of steam. Three Degrees took a hard run at her from the outside, but Mea Domina pinned her ears back, dug in gamely and found the wire in time. Oaklawn Park in March, but faded to sixth after a troubled start in her second start of the season, a Churchill allowance test May 4. The bay improved to be runner-up again in an optional event 20 days later, then led the field from gate to wire to romp home 6 1/2 lengths to the good July 3. Stepped up to stakes company in her latest, she suffered through a wide trip in the Aug. 5 Gill Gardenia H. at Ellis Park and ended up last. Sea Siren was the rank outsider in this field of five, but proved clearly best. Sent right to the front by jockey Mark Guidry, she was pressured through a half in :46.95 and six furlongs in 1:11.33, but opened it up down the lane to win handily. "[Trainer Ralph Nicks] said the main thing was to get her out of the gate and not have to check or anything because she gets discouraged real easily," Guidry said. "She broke real good. I was a little worried on the backside because I thought we were going pretty quick, but turning for home I punched on her and she took off." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Continuing his resurgence here, he recorded a determined first group race score at the expense of Goodwood winner Crosspeace. Positioned third from the break, he was shuffled back to fifth for most of the contest until a withering stretch run carried him home with something to spare. "I am delighted with the way he has won and I was always confident he would get the distance," winning trainer Clive Brittain told PA Sport. "He has got a turn of foot and it was unfortunate last time that the ground had too much give in it and took the edge off his speed. He is a fast-ground horse and is capable of winning another group race. He is in the Cambridgeshire H. [Newmarket Sept. 30], although now he has won a Group 3, he will have plenty of weight. But if his owner wants to run we will have to look at it." Click for Racing Post chart.

Settled in a close fourth until accelerating to the fore approaching the two pole, the bay was ridden clear through the final eighth for an impressive success. "I am very pleased with her; she is a nice filly and Jimmy [Fortune] was impressed," trainer Brian Meehan told PA Sport. "She ran badly in a sales race last time, but she was badly drawn and did too much down the outside. I have always thought a lot of her and I will probably step her up to seven furlongs for the G2 Rockfel S. [at Newmarket Oct. 14] now. Librettist endured his sole defeat in his third start at two and his first in stakes company, finishing fifth in the 2004 G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket. His fortunes took a dive thereafter, as they had for his half-brother Dubai Destination, but he returned to fulfill his early promise. Having broken Windsor's track record on fast ground in the July 1 Listed Midsummer S., he showed his versatility when coping with softer turf to take the July 23 G3 Prix Messidor at Maisons-Laffitte. He encountered even deeper ground at Deauville Aug. 13, but still had too many guns in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois for Baron Georg von Ullmann's runner-up Manduro and Ecurie Mister Ess AS's Stormy River, who finished fourth. Librettist will be bidding to become the first horse since Spinning World in 1997 to complete the Jacques le Marois-Moulin double in the same season. Manduro, looking to give trainer Andre Fabre a sixth win in this event, has a neck to find with Librettist on that effort. Marois fourth Stormy River was meeting older horses for the first time in the Jacques le Marois, having won the July 9 G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly after a second to Araafa (Ire) in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 20. Trainer Nicolas Clement is hoping the grey can improve on his Deauville placing. "He was not disgraced when fourth at Deauville, as he was bumped and a little out of his ground early on," he told the Racing Post. "This will be his last race of the season and the colt is training well." Fillies have held their own in this race in recent years, with Grey Lilas (Ire) and Nebraska Tornado having overcome the males since 2003. The distaff representation this year comes in the form of the Wertheimer brothers' Quiet Royal and Team Valor's Irridescence. The former, runner-up over course and distance in last year's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, runs for Carlos Laffon-Parias after the well-documented split between the Wertheimers and Criquelette Head-Maarek following the sophomore's fifth in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 6. The high-class South African mare Irridescence has been off the track since winning the Apr. 23 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin, but is a fascinating contender.

8	1	Saddex (GB)	Sadler's Wells	Rau	121
9	8	Schiaparelli (Ger)	Monsun (Ger)	Schiergen	121

Schiaparelli follows in hallowed footsteps as he bids to emulate his brother Samum (Ger) in completing the G1 Deutsches Derby-Grosser Preis von Baden double. Others to have achieved the feat in the same season include the filly Borgia (Ger) and Lando (Ger), so Schiaparelli will be in esteemed company if he can best his elders here. He has already encountered all-aged company due to a rescheduling of the 2006 calendar, finishing runner-up to Donaldson in the June 25 G1 Deutschland-Preis at Dusseldorf. Back against his peers in the July 23 Derby at Hamburg, he had Dickens, Oriental Tiger and Saddex in second, third and fourth, respectively. His trainer, Peter Schiergen, took this race with Tiger Hill (Ire) in 1998 and 1999. Norse Dancer has been off the board in nine of his last 10 starts, but has been playing in the major leagues throughout his career. In between his unplaced efforts was a second in last year's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Newbury, when he split Azamour (Ire) and Bago (Fr). He has to rebound from a dismal effort when last in the Apr. 23 G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin, but trainer David Elsworth is hopeful he can recapture old glories. "He went back to Jeff Smith's stud after his last run and has had a good rest," he told the Racing Post. "I'm not going to make any wild predictions, but the horse is in good form and it isn't the greatest race." Last year's G2 Derrinstown Derby Trial winner and G1 Epsom Derby fourth Fracas returned from a long absence to finish runner-up to Cherry Mix (Fr) in the G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne Aug. 13, and trainer David Wachman is hoping he can build on that comeback effort. "He's in good form and we're hopeful he'll run well," he told PA Sport. "Everything has gone well since his last run. He's a good, tough, solid horse and, in these mile-and-a-half races, he should be well able to perform well and compete."

6	X Star	Pulpit	Jones	3-1
7	Cool the Economy	Mazel Trick	Violette Jr	6-1
8	Ruby Crown	Awesome Again	Zito	6-1

Jamie Sanders, who was an exercise rider for Nick Zito for several years, is looking for her first Saratoga stakes win as a trainer with Pro Pink. A rallying winner of her Keeneland debut Apr. 26, the bay surprised at 23-1 by coming on for second against colts in the GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. at Churchill May 4. She hasn't faced the starter since, but Sanders said that was by design. "She ran such a huge race in Kentucky that we decided our main objective was to get her to the Breeder's Cup," Sanders explained. "There was never anything wrong with her after the Kentucky race. We just felt that it was a good time to back off and give her a break, and then point to the fall races. We felt that getting her two races in the fall would be the best way to go. She has maintained her fitness all along." What would a juveniles stakes race in the East be without a representative from Todd Pletcher's army? He has already won three of the four previous graded stakes for this division at this Saratoga meet, the first of which came courtesy of today's likely favorite Cotton Blossom. The rangy filly, who graduated first time out at Monmouth June 16, was a bit of a surprise at 8-1 when she came from just off the pace to take the GIII Schuylerville S. on opening day. It's that versatility that makes her special, according to Pletcher's assistant Seth Benzel. "She is such a unique filly, in that you can put her anywhere you want in a race," he noted. "This filly has shown the ability to rate and to sit behind horses. That really gives her a big leg up on her competition." The X factor in the field could be X Star, a 3/4-sister to GSW Master Command who aired by 6 3/4 lengths at Delaware July 15 in her lone career outing. "We might be biting off a little more than we can chew [running here]," trainer Larry Jones conceded. "But she sure acts like she wants to be a good thing, so we will lead her over there and give her a chance to prove it. She is spotting them all experience, but she does have a lot of class."

Union Avenue ships West to escape the specter of stablemates and graded-stakes winners After Market and Go Between. After a short-priced win in a Virginia-bred stakes race at Colonial June 17, the bay popped at 23-1 in Arlington's GII American Derby July 22. "After he ran so well at Arlington, we thought this race fit really well," said Kenny McCarthy, assistant to trainer Bill Mott. "It gave him more than a month before he had to run again. We thought the Secretariat [Aug. 12] came up too fast." Can the third time be the charm for Porto Santo? The half to GISW Gorella (Fr) was a listed winner and Group 1-placed in France, but has come up agonizingly short in his two U.S. outings. A head behind Obrigado in the Oceanside S. over this course July 19, the bay was beaten a nose by A.P. Warrior in the GII La Jolla H. Aug. 12.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

DURKIN OUT AT BREEDERS' CUP Tom Durkin, who has called each of the 161 Breeders' Cup races since its inception in 1984, will be replaced as the voice of Thoroughbred racing's championship day, the Blood-Horse reports. The regular voice of the New York Racing Association's three racetracks for the past 16 years, Durkin signed an exclusive contract with NBC this past February to remain that network's announcer for the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness. However, since television rights to the Breeders' Cup have been awarded to ESPN, Durkin will not be in the booth. "I signed the exclusive agreement and you can't have it both ways," he told Blood-Horse. "I am very happy with the contract I signed. I feel fine about it. Twenty-two years is a good run to hold a job. This is not a sad or bad feeling, and I'm not the weepy type anyway. I will call 42 Grade I races next year, so I'm not wanting for good horses. There's nothing negative about this at all." He continued, "It's been an honor and a privilege to have called the Breeders' Cup since its inception in 1984, a memorable, thrilling and fulfilling 22 years. I hope in some small way I've made those races memorable for racing fans."

Attila's Storm Getting Close:

Attila's Storm (Forest Wildcat), winner of last year's Fall Highweight H. and a close fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, breezed five furlongs over the Saratoga main track in 1:02 4/5 and could return to the races during the early part of the Belmont meet, according to trainer Rick Schosberg. "He worked real good," the conditioner commented. "The track was sealed pretty tight this morning, so I breezed him before the break because it was a little softer. He went great." Runner-up to Proud Tower Too in the GI Malibu S. Dec. 26, the bay was last seen finishing third by a neck in the GI Palos Verdes H. at Santa Anita Jan. 21. Schosberg is hopeful of making this year's Breeders' Cup as well. "He's got to earn his way in and we've got to be 100 percent happy with him," he explained. "If he makes it, I'd like to take on Henny Hughes with two races under his belt." To date, Attila's Storm has four wins from 11 starts and earnings of $288,628.

Better Talk Now Bound for Australia?:

Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) is likely to pass on a title defense in Saturday's GI Man O'War S. at Belmont in favor of a start in the GII Sky Classic S. at Woodbine Sept. 24. Should all go well there, trainer Graham Motion finds himself thinking a little bit outside of the box. "There's never been a North American horse that's run in the [G1] Melbourne Cup [Nov. 7]," he said. "It would be a great thing to do. I still feel the horse is as good as he's been in past years." The 2004 Breeders' Cup Turf hero has been conservatively managed this year, with just three starts to his credit. He took the GII Dixie S. by a head May 20, but was fifth in defending his championship in the GI United Nations S. and most recently seventh in the GI Arlington Million Aug. 12.

Take D' Tour Back to One Turn for Ruffian:

Take D' Tour (Tour d'Or), who had a four-race winning streak snapped when fourth in the GI Go For Wand H. at Saratoga July 30, returns to the one-turn game in next Sunday's GI Ruffian H. at Belmont Park. "She came out of the Go For Wand really good and I think she's gotta move forward off it," commented trainer David Fawkes. "Right now, she's seven-for-seven in one-turn races. The pressure doesn't bother her in one-turn races; she can go fast and it doesn't faze her." The five-year-old mare, who is scheduled to breeze tomorrow following the renovation break, is a perfect two-for-two at Belmont Park, having posted 5 1/2-length victories in the GII Shuvee H. May 21 and in the GI Ogden Phipps H. June 17.

A five-length debut winner over 4 1/2 furlongs June 5, Straight Faced made light work of the Birdonthewire S. July 15, winning by 5 1/2 lengths. Blinkers were added for his latest, the Aug. 5 Dr. Fager S., and the colt blitzed the field again, taking it by 4 1/4 lengths. Hammered into odds-on favoritism to remain unbeaten, the bay pressed the pace while three wide, dug in passing the eighth pole and was along late for the victory. "He's had foot problems we've had to deal with and we had to change his shoes," trainer Steve DiMauro said. "It was touch and go for a while whether we were going to make this race at all, or pass and wait for the next one. Mr. [Walter] Donnelly and I discussed it several times, and after our blacksmith assured us that he would be okay, we went ahead. Now, we have six weeks to the next one [$400,000 In Reality Division, Oct. 14], which gives a little more time to work with the foot, but he can't miss too much training. If all goes well, that's where we're headed."

Cat Tour had the misfortune of drawing post 11 in each of his first two starts, but performed admirably, finishing runner-up at this track July 16 before breaking through with a three-length score Aug. 12. Departing from the one hole in this two-turn bow, the dark bay turned this one into a procession, leading past every pole to win eased down. "This horse showed more speed today than he did when I rode him in his first start, and I think the lead is the place to be today," jockey Elvis Trujillo said. "Either he has more early speed on a wet track or the added distance suits him better. He feels to me like a horse that will do better the farther he runs."

Tropical Storm Ernesto KOs East Coast Racing:

Racing was called off at Monmouth Park and Philadelphia Park yesterday afternoon due to the high winds and heavy rains that Tropical Depression Ernesto brought to the area. "We were hopeful that we'd be able to race the live card [yesterday]," said Monmouth Vice President of Racing and General Manager Bob Kulina. "The preliminary forecasts were for the whole thing to blow over around 11:00 [yesterday] morning. Unfortunately the weather, and more specifically the wind, didn't subside early enough to facilitate live racing and, for the safety of the horses and riders, it was best to call it off." With just scattered showers in the forecast for today, it is expected that the both tracks will be back in action. The Gill Red Bank H. and the $100,000 City Zip S., the featured races at Monmouth yesterday, have been rescheduled for next weekend. They will be run either Saturday, Sept. 9 or Sunday, Sept. 10.

The $900,000 Barretts March graduate debuted with a promising runner-up effort at the Oak Tree meeting Nov. 5 and made just one subsequent appearance, a half-length victory over Latent Heat and Point Determined on opening day of the Santa Anita winter/spring meeting Dec. 26. The bay had been training brilliantly for his return and was the third choice in a salty quintet. Cindago sprinted to the lead, but was not allowed an easy time of it as Da Stoops prompted from the inside and Brother Derek from a three-wide position. The odds-on chalk tried in vain to pass Cindago turning for home, but Bob and John succeeded in that endeavor, getting a half-length in front at the eighth pole. But Cindago would not be denied, as he boxed back gamely from the rail for the win.

Political Web finished seventh as a maiden in the Dec. 18 GI Hollywood Starlet S., then resurfaced with an eighth-place finish in the California Breeders' Cup Oaks at Golden Gate Feb. 11. Political Web gave Hollywood maidens a try in her next two starts, and earned her diploma May 28 after finishing second behind Squallacious Apr. 29. She was second best behind Getback Time in an allowance test July 1, but went one better at Del Mar last time July 19. Seeking her first stakes victory here, the dark bay stayed within striking distance while trailing through a half mile in :48.09. Sent four wide by Victor Espinoza for the stretch run, Political Web hit her best stride and fought her way past the pacesetter Getback Time. River's Prayer (Devon Lane) stumbled at the start and unseated jockey Clinton Potts.

INDIAN BREEZE (f, 3, Indian Charlie--Pulaski Countess, by Fluorescent Light), a $130,000 KEESEP yearling, opened her account with two straight at Hollywood last summer, including the Landaluce S. Taking on graded company in her next two at Del Mar, she finished eighth in the GIII Sorrento S. Aug. 6 and 11th behind Wild Fit in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. last out Aug. 27. Overlooked at 17-1 for her sophomore and grass bow here, the bay dueled with even-money choice Stylish Wildcat (Forest Wildcat) through a :21.67 opening quarter mile. The favorite began to draw away on the turn for home and opened a clear lead in the stretch, but couldn't hold off a resurgent Indian Breeze, who went on to win by 3/4 of a length. The victress is a half to Don't Countess Out (Take Me Out), MSW & MGSP, $378,951. Lifetime Record: SW, 5-3-0-0, $128,280.

BABE HALL (f, 3, El Corredor--Storm Teal, by Storm Bird) showed promise when second behind Wild Fit at first asking in a Del Mar maiden last summer. The bay graduated at Oak Tree Sept. 28, then closed out the season with a well-beaten eighth in the Oct. 23. Anoakia S. She finished fifth behind Friday's Torrey Pines S. winner Political Web in a July 19 Del Mar allowance, but improved to be third when stretched to a route in an Aug. 14 $50,000 optional claimer last time. Sent off at 9-1 here, Babe Hall showed the early way through :23.23 and :47.39 splits and reported home a half-length victress over 5-1 Romanesque (Line in the Sand). The winner, a $150,000 KEESEP yearling, is a 1/2 to Gold Storm (Seeking the Gold), MSW & GSP, $507,000. Lifetime Record: 8-2-1-2, $89,800. O-Patti & Hal J Earnhardt III. BBAG SALE ENDS ON A HIGH Yesterday's closing installment of the BBAG Yearling Sale continued in the same vein as Friday's first session, with strong trade and a solid middle market. "We are truly pleased with the outcome of this sale," commented BBAG Managing Director Verena Gang. "The total aggregate has increased once again and we have gained new clients from South Africa and Singapore. Even though the top price could have been a bit higher, the strong trade and solid middle market were more than pleasing." Foreign buyers were active throughout the final day, accounting for almost half the trade, and included those from as far afield as the United States, South Africa, England, Ireland, France, the Czech Republic and Russia. Domestic young sires with their first yearlings on the ground were again well received, especially those from the first crops of Black Sam Bellamy (Ire), Sholokhov (Ire), Samum (Ger) and Royal Dragon. Representatives of Galileo (Ire), High Chaparral (Ire) and Hawk Wing also attracted the attention of the buyers. The highlight of the second day was Gestut Etzean's lot 105, a Monsun (Ger) colt out of the Classic-placed Dashing Blade (GB) mare Finora (Ger). BBA Germany's Dirk Eisele signed the ticket at a sales-topping €200,000. Leading buyer Manfred Hofer was also active, securing Gestut Wittekindshof's lot 149, a Singspiel (Ire) colt out of the stakes-winning Salde (Ger) for €150,000. Not to be outdone, Dr. Christoph Berglar matched that price for Union-Gestut's lot 204, a High Chaparral (Ire) filly from the immediate family of the G1 July Cup hero Owington (GB). That price was equalled yet again when Gestut Haus Ittlingen won the bidding for lot 251, an attractive Lando (Ger) half-brother to this year's G1 German Oaks heroine Almerita (Ger). A healthy clearance rate of just over 81 percent saw the sale's aggregate rise by 7.3 percent, with both average and median also boasting significant increases.

Zero Tolerance secured a deserved first stakes success when lifting the May 18 Hambleton S. at York, but was in the shadows in his next three starts, including a fifth in handicap company back on the Knavesmire last time Aug. 24. Relishing the deep mud in this, he doubled his black-type tally with a gutsy front-running performance. Leading from flagfall, the crowd's selection was driven to maintain his advantage with 2 1/2 furlongs to go and responded under Jamie Spencer's continued urging to draw clear inside the last 50 yards.

SILENT FUSAICHI (f, 2, Fusaichi Pegasus--Silent Eskimo {MGSW & GISP, $1,039,485}, by Eskimo), the 11-10 favorite, improved off a debut sixth at La Teste de Buch July 11 to finish runner-up at that track Aug. 6. Soon to the fore in this, the $375,000 KEENOV weanling dominated throughout and was pushed clear from the top of the straight to record a cozy 3 1/2-length score from Sahara Lady (Ire) (Lomitas {GB}). Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €9,100.
