Godolphin's Librettist (Danzig) was the toast of Paris yesterday when leading at every step to reward the Longchamp crowds who made him the even-money favorite to win the G1 Prix du Moulin. As at Deauville in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois, the four-year-old proved impossible to pass, digging in for Frankie Dettori to repel the determined challenge of Stormy River (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}) by a half-length.

"Frankie gave him a brilliant ride, sitting in front and this is a nice race to win," Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented. Cont. p2

APPEALING RESULT IN SPINAWAY

Heiligbrodt Stable's Appealing Zophie (Successful Appeal) staked her claim as the leading two-year-old filly on the East Coast with a compelling performance in yesterday's G1 Spinaway S. at Saratoga. After opening her account with a 10 1/2-length win at Keeneland in mid-April, the dark bay suffered a minor setback when second to Change Up in the Aug. 6 Mountaineer Juvenile Fillies S. But she proved her debut was no fluke in the seven-furlong Spinaway, drawing off to prevail by 5 1/4 lengths over favored Cotton Blossom (Broken Vow). "I thought that was a very good filly that beat her at Mountaineer," said winning trainer Scott Blasi. "We hadn't run in a long time and probably didn't have her tight enough." Cont. p2

PLETCHER HOPEFUL IN SPA FINALE

Trainer Todd Pletcher has been dominant at Saratoga in recent years. Going into the final day of the 2006 meet, he's already claimed his fifth consecutive training title--his sixth in the last eight years at the track. But Pletcher has yet to send out a horse to victory in the Spa's premier race for two-year-olds, the G1 Hopeful S. That could change this afternoon when he saddles the heavily favored entry of Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch) and Scat Daddy (Johannesburg). "Both are very talented colts," Pletcher said of the pair, who are owned by different connections. "That's why

Saeed bin Suroor was confident before Librettist took part in the 2004 G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket and he was not disgraced when fifth behind the impressive winner Shamardal on that occasion. Having missed 2005 through injury, he returned to win a June 7 Nottingham conditions--the same event his half-brother Dubai Destination had won--before adding Windsor's July 1 Listed Midsummer S. to his tally. Forcing tactics were employed to annexe the G3 Prix Messidor at Maisons-Laffitte July 23 and in the Aug. 13 Jacques le Marois, where Manduro (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Stormy River filled second and fourth. Confirming that form here, the bay quickened off his own fractions at the top of the stretch and had enough in reserve to deny Stormy River and Thierry Thulliez. "After the Jacques le Marois, we said we'd probably give him a break, but he came out of it so well and was bouncing and kicking, so we decided to come," Crisford added. "He's due a break at some stage, but if he does well again he could go for the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. [at Ascot Sept. 23] or go straight to the [Nov. 4] G1 Breeders' Cup Mile." Stormy River's conditioner Nicolas Clement was pleased with the grey's performance and is considering a drop in trip now. "He ran a great race and we'll think about coming back here for the [Sept. 30] G1 Prix de la Foret over seven furlongs."

Zophie Power...

Hustled out to set the pace, Appealing Zophie carried a daylight advantage through splits of :22 1/5 and :45 3/5. Shaken up by Shaun Bridgmohan as they cut the corner for home, the Heiligbrodt colorbearer sprinted away to lead by six lengths and was still well clear at the wire. "She's got a very good turn of foot," said trainer Scott Blasi. "And I do think she'll go far. She's got the best quality you can have, and that's speed." Todd Pletcher, who conditions the runner-up, GIII Schuylerville S. winner Cotton Blossom, said afterwards, "Johnny [jockey Velazquez] said she struggled with the track. I was happy with the way she finished. Our filly ran a courageous race." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Also Ran: Egerton (Ger), Dickens (Ger), Schiaparelli (Ger), Norse Dancer (Ire), Fracas (Ire), Donaldson (Ger).

Prince Flori caused an upset under Filip Minarik to provide trainer Sascha Smrczek with a career high in this prestigious contest. Having graduated over 10 furlongs in a maiden at Frankfurt Apr. 9, he returned to that track and trip to capture the May 7 G3 Stadtrat Albert von Metzler-Rennen. Fourth behind the subsequent G1 Grand Prix de Paris scorer Rail Link (GB) in the G3 Prix du Lys at Longchamp June 20, he was disappointing when only ninth behind Schiaparelli (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) in the G1 Deutsches Derby on his last start July 23. Putting that effort behind him, the bay tracked the early pace carved out in turn by Oriental Tiger and Saddex. Always traveling strongly, he cruised to the front soon into the straight and was asked to quicken away from his rivals passing the quarter pole. The colt showed greenness in the closing stages, zig-zagging under Minarik's whip, but was always in complete control. For owner-breeder Heinz Wacek, the win represented a fairytale outcome, as he had tried unsuccessfully to give away the dam last year, his only broodmare. This spring, trainer John Sadler went to the claim box for Get Funky and now, nearly five months later, has a talented graded turf winner on his hands. Sadler haltered Get Funky for $65,000 out of a winning effort on the dirt vs. maiden claiming foes at Santa Anita Apr. 14. Sadler gave the colt a two-month freshening, then put him on the sod for the first time in his return. Get Funky responded with a nose win in a NW1X at Hollywood June 18. Stretched beyond two turns for the first time in his next, he just missed by a head when third in the restricted Oceanside S. at Del Mar July 19. He put forth a similar effort in the Aug. 12 GII La Jolla H., when he set the pace and dug in for third-placed honors as A.P. Warrior and Porto Santo (Fr) (Kingsalsa) finished one-two. A 6-1 shot this time, Get Funky was quickly up to vie for the lead in the two path. He turned into the stretch with a host of challengers breathing down his neck, but kicked away when the real running began to win as much-the-best. Favored Porto Santo lacked his usual punch and finished a listless fourth. Rock Lobster, a maiden winner over Belmont's sod last October, was fourth in Barbaro's Laurel Futurity in November before finishing third in the off-the-turf Hill Rise S. at Santa Anita Jan. 2. Sidelined for the next four months, he made a winning return in the May 6 Woodlawn S. at Pimlico. The chestnut failed to land a punch in the June 24 Colonial Turf Cup, finishing 11th to Showing Up, but got back on track with a game nose second in the Jersey Derby at Monmouth Aug. 6. Here, the Michael Dickinson trainee was forced to steady several times rounding the first turn in a mid-pack position. Things didn't get easier from there, as he found himself in behind a wall of horses in upper stretch. Jockey Eibar Coa kept his cool, though, angling Rock Lobster out for clear sailing, and the pair determinedly tracked down Devil's Preacher for the win. Click for the brisnet.com chart. His Highness the Aga Khan has another Classic contender to look forward to over the winter after Visionario came through his latest test in impressive fashion. Having demonstrated his ability when winning on debut at Maisons-Laffitte July 15 and in the Listed Prix Francois Boutin at Deauville last time Aug. 13, he took the next step up the ladder in his stride under a typically confident ride from Christophe Soumillon. Settled in last early, he was angled wide for his run at the end of the back stretch and loomed up to Holocene as that rival was committed soon into the final straight. Rolling to the front at the eighth pole, he cruised to the line under hand riding for a snug score. "He is an easy horse to ride and you can do anything with him," trainer Andre Fabre said. "He seems to act on any ground and now will return for the [Oct. 1] G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Scat Daddy

handsome chestnut belied his experience when he squeezed through a tight spot along the rail in the July 8 GIII Bashford Manor S., winning that test with an explosive late turn of foot. The colt's stablemate, Jim Scatuorchio and company's Scat Daddy, sports a similar two-for-two record. After taking his bow by daylight in the slop at Belmont June 3, Scat Daddy was a well-supported 1-5 choice in the GII Sanford S. at Saratoga June 27. There were some anxious moments for his backers as he appeared to be distracted by the kickback from the front-runners, but once in the clear he came powering home and was up to win by a neck. "To me, both of them at the eighth pole in their last race looked like they had no chance to win," said the pair's trainer, Todd Pletcher. "Both of them salvaged [their races by] getting up."

The well-bred Untouched Talent has lived up to her name thus far in her young career. Purchased for $500,000 as a BESMAR juvenile, the Storm Cat daughter of MGSW Parade Queen (A.P. Indy) annexed Pleasanton's July 1 Juan Gonzalez Memorial S. in her very first start. Made the 3-2 choice when stepped up in class to the Aug. 5 GIII Sorrento S., she took her initial graded win by three lengths with something left and goes in search of a Grade I here. She has had two solid works since the Sorrento, most recently completing a six-furlong drill in 1:12 at Del Mar Aug. 27, the second-fastest of 20 moves at the distance. Jump On In has just a maiden victory to her credit, but that effort yielded a smart 104 BRIS speed figure. In her unveiling at Del Mar Aug. 6,

Jump On In battled through a half in :44 4/5 and was full of run as she drew off to win by 5 1/4 lengths. Zayat Stables has had a very successful summer and looks to continue its run here with Point Ashley. The $725,000 KEEAPR two-year-old purchase ran third in her first outing at Hollywood July 3, then came back to win as the 4-5 pick in a 5 1/2-furlong Del Mar maiden July 23. By Point Given out of a Slew O' Gold mare, she's bred to improve as the distances get longer and should appreciate the added ground here.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

FOURTY NINERS SON RETIRED Grade I winner Forty Niners Son (Distorted Humor--Cindazanno, by Alleged) has been retired after sustaining an ankle injury following a recent workout at Del Mar. No stud plans have been set for the five-year-old. The half-brother to Grade I winner Cindy's Hero enjoyed his best season in 2005, when he captured the GI Clement L. Hirsch Turf Championship S., ran second in the GI Eddie Read H. and third in the GII American Invitational H. Second to The Tin Man in this year's American Invitational, the chestnut was part of a blanket finish for second behind Aragorn (Ire) in the Eddie Read July 23, but was disqualified to fifth. The Tom Baxter homebred, trained by Neil Drysdale, retires with a record of 17-5-3-4 and earnings of $548,845.

HURRICANE AT LEOPARDSTOWN? Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) could tackle Saturday's G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, trainer Andre Fabre announced. The G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. hero had been expected to either contest Sunday's G2 Prix Foy at Longchamp or head straight to the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in a bid for back-to-back successes in the autumn showpiece. However, Fabre revealed to the Racing Post that the four-year-old could be switched to the 10-furlong contest. "The Irish Champion is an option for Hurricane Run," he told the Post. "The distance of ten furlongs is short of his best and for that reason I'd be looking for some ease in the ground to make the race more of a test of stamina. We'll monitor the state of the ground and the likely strength of the opposition before making a decision."

PREMIUM TAP DOING WELL AFTER UPSET Trainer John Kimmel reported Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap) to be in good order following his 31-1 upset win Saturday's GI Woodward S. "He looks really good this morning," Kimmel said on Sunday. "He ate all of his oats last night and this morning. He acted really confident this morning, as if he knew he accomplished something. I was pleased with his effort. When he came down the stretch, I knew he had Second of June [runner-up] beaten." Meanwhile, Bill Cesare, the conditioner of the 21-1 Second of June (Louis Quatorze), was extremely happy with the performance of his five-year-old, who was making his third start after a more than 14-month layoff. "He ran a good race," said Cesare. "They all had some conditioning edge on us, so we will only get better off this effort." Cesare said the Oct. 7 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont or the Sept. 30 GII Hawthorne Gold Cup would be next for Second of June. The former would likely mean a tough match-up with Bernardini and Invasor (Arg). "I know it won't be easy, but I'm not afraid of anyone with this horse," said Cesare.

John Forbes Honored with Buddy Raines Award:

John Forbes, a trainer at Monmouth Park for more than three decades, will be honored today with the Virgil Buddy Raines Distinguished Achievement Award at a ceremony in the New Jersey track's winner's circle. The Raines Award, instituted at Monmouth in 1996, honors men and women who have demonstrated a continuing commitment to the sport of Thoroughbred racing as an owner or trainer and whose conduct has been exemplary for professionalism, integrity and service to the sport. Forbes, trainer of graded stakes winner Tale of the Cat, among others, was the leading conditioner at Monmouth in 1979, 1981 and 1989-1991.

Calder Inducts Four into Hall of Fame:

Calder Race Course in Miami, Florida inducted four new members into its Hall of Fame yesterday. Shocker T. (horse), Eddie Plesa, Jr. (trainer), Herb and lone Elkins (owner/breeder), and Rosemary Homeister, Jr. (jockey) were all honored during a winner's circle ceremony. Shocker T. (Nodouble--Very Lucky, by Stevward) banked over a half-million dollars winning 11 stakes races, including the 1986 GI Delaware H. Eddie Plesa, Jr., the son of former jockey and trainer Eddie Plesa, Sr., has won several training titles at Calder and is currently the leading trainer of the 2006 meet. The husband and wife team of Herb and lone Elkins have been Thoroughbred owners since 1981 and breeders since 1986. One of their best horses was the homebred Seacliff, who became only the third of five (to date) male horses to sweep the Florida Stallion Stakes series at Calder. Rosemary Homeister, Jr. has won 1,726 races, with 953 of those victories coming at Calder. She is the second female jockey to be inducted into Calder's Hall of Fame, following Mary Russ in 2003.

Moon Dolly showed the way early before fading to seventh in Waya H. at Saratoga Aug. 11, her final start for trainer Timothy Ritvo. New conditioner Dave Duggan experimented with her blinkers and watched as his charge--a half-sister to two Brazilian champions--came away with her first stakes victory. Last of all early, the dark bay angled out in the lane and got up just in time.

1st-APX, $27,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:37 4/5, fm. BAVARIAN BELLE (f, 2, More Than Ready--Storm Season, by Storm Cat), a $26,000 KEESEP yearling, was third over course and trip last time out Aug. 17. The 3-1 shot to graduate in her second start on the lawn, the chestnut filly pressed the pace, gained command in upper stretch and drew off to a 5 1/2-length triumph over Melissa's Dream (Twining). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $19,170.

Tropo Bello, who scored here on debut in a claimer Apr. 21, was fifth in a Rome conditions event nine days later. Returning to the winner's spot in a seven-furlong conditions event at Naples June 18, she settled behind the early speed and was temporarily short of room as Susi Applause swooped to the front inside the final quarter. She swung out to find room, quickened impressively to inhale that rival with 150 yards remaining and settled the result in a matter of strides.

3--Fa A Mezz (GB), 121, g, 3, Halling--Sispre (Fr), by Master Willie (GB). €7,560.

Margins: 3/4, NK, 2. Odds: 1.98, 4.41, 2.05.

Also Ran: Rockmaster (Ire), Fringuell (GB), Carobene (Ire), Teofane II Greco (Ire), Graft Versus Host (Ire), Verbum (Ire). Scratched: Bruno The Mayor (Ire).

Monachesi beat Miles Gloriosus in the Listed Premio Botticelli at this track Apr. 23 before finishing a highly creditable fourth in the May 21 G1 Derby Italiano back here last time May 21. Settled in a stalking second early, he traveled strongly into the stretch and looked to have the long-time leader Fa A Mezz at his mercy. In the end, he had to work hard to wear down that rival and did so passing the furlong marker before holding sway over nemesis Miles Gloriosus.

Milan, 2.50, Cond, €19,800, 2yo, 1 1/4mT, 2:01.50, gd.

STORM MOUNTAIN (IRE) (c, 3, Montieu {Ire}--Lady Storm {Ire} {MGSP & SW-Ity, $122,286}, by Mujadil), off the track since finishing runner-up in the May 21 G1 Derby Italiano at the Capennelle, was hammered down to 1-3 for his return to action. Stalking Pressing (Ire) (Soviet Star) throughout the early stages, he passed that rival still on the bridle approaching the quarter pole and required only a shake of the reins to record a facile two-length success. Lifetime Record: SW & G1SP-Ity, 6 starts, 3 wins, 3 places, €192,321.

Milan, 5.00, Cond, €19,800, 3yo, 1mT, 1:37.30, gd. JOAQUIN (GB) (c, 3, Anabaa--Fracchi {GB} {SW & GSP-Ity}, by Raise a Cup), returning to the course and distance over which he finished second in the Listed Premio d'Etat on his last start June 11, was sent off the even-money crowd's choice and soon led. Quickening passing the quarter pole, the €120,000 ITYSEP yearling was in control thereafter and needed only to be kept up to his work to best Sgiaff (GB) (Spinning World) by 1 1/4 lengths. The winner is a half to Field of Hope (Ire) (Selkirk), MGSW-Fr, GSP-Ity & HK, $283,862. Lifetime Record: SP-Ity, 6 starts, 3 wins, 2 places, €46,546.
