Beauty is Truth (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) earned a well-deserved first group win in yesterday's G3 Prix d'Arenberg at Chantilly. After a successful debut in the July 6 Listed Prix Yacowlef at Deauville, the bay homebred had been stepped up in class. A commendable fourth in the July 23 G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte was followed by a pair of equally laudable sixths in the July 30 G3 Prix de Cabourg and Aug. 20 G1 Prix Morny, both at Deauville, but she turned things around with this dominant display. Recovering from jinking right at the break to take an early lead, Beauty is Truth quickly established daylight when kicked clear approaching the final furlong and coasted to the wire with the race comfortably in the bag. "The ground was just too desperate and we held her up for confidence in the Prix Morny, but we changed tactics today and it proved to be the correct decision," explained trainer Robert Collet. He added, "On good ground I think she will stay six furlongs, and we will now go to the G1 Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket Sept. 29]."

Sent off at 7-1 at first asking, Horse Greeley had the misfortune of running into eventual GII Best Pal S. winner Principle Secret, but ran with credit to be second beaten 4 3/4 lengths by that foe in a 5 1/2-furlong Del Mar maiden July 22. Horse Greeley earned his diploma next time out, though, taking a 6 1/2-panel test by four lengths Aug. 12. Stepped right up into stakes company here, he brushed the gate at the break and was off a step slowly, but quickly rushed up to keep Stormello company up the backstretch. Pushed on to take command after a swift half in :44 4/5, he leveled out nicely in the final furlong and was never in danger as Great Hunter rallied for second. Jon Court, aboard second choice Prime Ruler (Orientate), lost his left iron during the run up the chute and the pair never got going, finishing last of seven.

Multiple Grade I winner Borrego (El Prado {Ire}--Sweet as Honey, by Strike the Gold) will stand his initial season at Wintergreen Stallion Station for a fee of $20,000 live foal, due Nov. 1. Retired after undergoing surgery in early April to remove a chip from his right front ankle, Borrego notched runner-up efforts in the GII Louisiana Derby and GII Arkansas Derby at three before having a breakout season last year as a four-year-old. The chestnut, who was trained by Beau Greely, won the GI Pacific Classic and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup in 2005. First or second in 11 of his 20 starts, Borrego bankrolled $2,052,090. Wintergreen is scheduling showings of Borrego during the Keeneland September sale.

HOUSE TO VOTE ON HORSE SLAUGHTER BILL

The U.S. House of Representatives is scheduled to vote Thursday on bill H.R. 503, the American Horse Slaughter Prevention Act, which would end horse slaughter for human consumption in the United States, as well as the domestic and international transport of live horses or horseflesh for the same purpose. Backers of the bill are encouraging supporters to call their representatives to urge a "yes" vote. If passed, the act would shut down the three foreign-owned horse slaughter plants in the country. The plants in Forth Worth and Kaufman, Texas, and DeKalb, Illinois, slaughtered more than 90,000 horses last year with the vast majority of the meat sold overseas for human consumption. "Since our nation was founded, we have shared a special relationship with the horse," New York Rep. John Sweeney, the author of the bill, said during a rally to gain support for the bill. "The practice of horse slaughter is a contradiction to our culture, history, and economy. The time has come to end it." The bill has more than 200 co-sponsors. The House is scheduled to convene at 10 a.m. EDT. "The horses who get slaughtered are not brought by weeping families who have no money to feed their horses," said Diana Pikulski, Executive Director of the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, a supporter of the bill. "They are brought there by middlemen who offer cash to people and often tell unsuspecting sellers they will give the horse a good home. A full 92 percent of the horses who arrive at slaughter are classified in "good" condition. Surely the American people can do better by them."

ing the shape of the 10-furlong contest up to today's declaration deadline, Lord Derby's multiple Group 1 winner will only line up if the predominantly dry forecast proves correct. "If it does lash down with rain, she won't run," her conditioner said of the five-year-old, who was last seen when besting Alexander Goldrun (Ire)

by a short head in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood Aug. 5. "We are keeping an eye on the French ground [as well], and she would run in [Sunday's] G1 Prix Vermeille if it comes up heavy at Leopardstown. She seems well, and I just hope the Goodwood race hasn't taken too much out of her." With Coolmore's representation not confirmed yesterday, Dunlop was not intimidated by the possible presence of the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. winner Hurricane Run (Ire). "If he turns up, he'll be a worthy favorite as he's a worthy champion, but it's at the stage of her career when we're not going to run away from Hurricane Run," he added.

A Weighty Issue

WEIGHT STUDY – FEEDING TO FAIL

Cecil Seaman & Co. LLC conducted a study concerning young horses that fail to reach their potential at the racetrack. According to the study, a significant problem is that overweight and obese horses make up a substantial percentage of the entries in yearling and two-year-old sales.

In the mid-1980s, Seaman discovered that many horses that had the same biomechanics (skeletal structure) experienced widely varied results at the track. Full brothers and sisters to millionaires, who had very similar height and structural measurements, performed quite differently. A Weighty Issue cont. p6

Many people claimed it is just lack of desire, or the "heart," to perform. While that may contribute to the problem, other possibilities deserved examination.

Seaman collected data on the physical size and shape of over 44,000 yearlings and two-year-olds during a 30-year period from 1970 through 2001. After extensive analysis, the one consistent attribute that could be identified in most of the under-performing horses was excessive weight.

The problem with weight begins very early. Small weanlings and yearlings are often overfed in the hope that they will grow faster and larger. This overfeeding tends to increase weight more than size, and can put young horses into the overweight or obese category.

The results of overfeeding young horses, according to Seaman's study, are:

1) Overweight and obese horses make fewer lifetime starts, earning less than half that of underweight or ideal-weight horses. They tend to be ineffective at higher levels of racing, and thus are often relegated to races that offer low purse money.

2) The incidence of OCD lesions in overweight horses could be related to rapid growth brought on by overfeeding.

3) Weanlings and yearlings with offset knees have more problems when they are overweight, compounding conformation flaws.

4) Heavier horses place higher levels of stress on bones, muscles, ligaments, and tendons, which results in more unsoundness, and shorter racing careers.

Seaman believes that while extra flesh looks good in the sale ring, removing that extra weight is difficult even with intensive training and attentive feed-management techniques. He believes buyers should avoid overweight horses at yearling and two-year-old sales.

Trainers should closely monitor the weights of their horses. Trainers in Europe often weigh their horses weekly and on race day, and in some countries race-day programs publish the weights of entrants for each event.

According to Seaman, to identify a horse of ideal weight, "Height, length of barrel and girth must be in the correct proportions. Ribs may be felt with little pressure. [There should be no] ridge down the back, no bulge at the tail head and no cresty or thick necks."

His study, which correlates weight with career earnings, involved 52.2 percent colts and 47.8 percent fillies. The subjects were 91 percent yearlings and 9 percent two-year-olds. Measurements were run against a growth curve from Dr. Tyznik of Ohio State that projected what the individual might look like when full grown. Weights were calculated with a formula used by Texas A&M and other major universities in their weight studies.

A second study, measuring ideal weight of the race horse, was based off a study done by Seaman in 1993 that measured 51 horses within three weeks of winning a Grade I race. After evaluating these Grade I winners and their weights, a scale was established for ideal racing weight.

HOLD THAT TIGER COLT TOPS CTHS SALE

The Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society's Canadian-bred Selected Yearling Sale enjoyed a robust round of selling Tuesday at the Woodbine Sales Pavilion, with gross up significantly from last year. In all, 22 yearlings sold for over C$100,000, compared with nine in 2005. Leading Tuesday's session was a colt from the first crop of Group 1 winner Hold That Tiger (Storm Cat) that brought a C$250,000 bid from Winsong Farms. Selling as hip 34 from the consignment of Woodlands (Gail Wood), agent, the chestnut is out of the 13-year-old Forty Niner mare Brittan Lee, a half to GSW Cap-sized. A daughter of Broken Vow earned honors as the sale's highest-priced filly. Hip 175, consigned by Richard Moylan, agent, was sold for C$160,000 to Hugh Graham, agent for Morgan Firestone. The chestnut is out of Regent's Fancy (Vice Regent) and is a half to MSW & MGSP Byzantine (Quiet American) and SW & GSP Pete's Fancy (Peteski). Gross for the sale was up over C$1 million, a nearly 20-percent jump from last year. Average was up a solid 11.1 percent to $43,390, while the RNA rate dropped from 25.2 percent to 22.7 percent. A preferred session of the sale will be held Saturday, with action getting underway at 2:00 p.m.

CALLING OF NOTE PUTS NJC MEET IN JEOPARDY Couresty of the Blood-Horse

Duchossois Industries of Illinois has called in a more than $20-million note owed by the National Jockey Club, a move that threatens NJC plans for a 2007 spring meet at Hawthorne Race Course. Richard Duchossois, chairman of Arlington Park, told the Chicago Sun-Times Sept. 5 his company simply wants the note paid. Duchossois didn't tell the newspaper how the situation would impact the NJC meet or racing dates. The NJC once held meets at Sportsman's Park, which was converted to a horse and auto racing complex. The facility closed, was sold to Cicero, the town in which it's located, and the NJC racing dates found a home at neighboring Hawthorne. NJC officials told the Sun-Times they had just heard about the note being called in and had no immediate comment. The NJC meets at Hawthorne are held under the name Hawthorne National, which is a partnership between the two entities. For complete story, click here.

GSW CRYPTOGRAPH Retires Stud Plans Not Final...

CRYPTOGRAPH, who was injured finishing third to Funny Cide in Woodbine's Dominion Day Cup-G3, has been retired from racing. Stud plans have not been finalized.

By Cryptoclearance, CRYPTOGRAPH is out of a full sister to Canadian Horse of the Year and successful sire Peaks and Valleys. A homebred for Josephine Abercrombie's Pin Oak Stud, CRYPTOGRAPH is from an outstanding sire-producing family that also includes Grade 1 sires Broken Vow, Service Stripe, and Winged Victory.

A winner from only two starts at two, CRYPTOGRAPH posted four victories at three, including Arlington's Round Table S. and the Grand Prairie Turf Challenge at Lone Star Park. Additionally, he was second to Pollard's Vision in the Lone Star Derby-G3 by only a half length and third in the Oklahoma Derby-G3 as well.

In his 4-year-old debut, CRYPTOGRAPH missed by a nose in the $300,000 Lone Star Park H.-G3, but annexed two G3 victories at Woodbine in the Durham Cup S. and the Woodbine Slots Cup H. under topweight. Those back-to-back graded stakes wins were impressive enough to earn CRYPTOGRAPH a nomination as Sovereign Award for Older Male. CRYPTOGRAPH retires with seven wins, six times placed, from 20 starts, earning $531,705.

House to Vote on Horse Slaughter

H.R. 503, legislation to ban the slaughter of horses for human consumption, will be on the House floor for a vote on Thursday, Sept. 7. With some 200 co-sponsors, the bill is expected to pass.

In July, two House committees reached different conclusions about H.R. 503. The Energy and Commerce Committee simply discharged the legislation from its jurisdiction. The Agriculture Committee reported the bill "unfavorably with amendments," signaling its belief that the legislation should not be passed. One of the amendments accepted in the Agriculture Committee, which may be offered on the House floor, would grandfather in the existing operations of the three plants that currently slaughter horses.

The House convenes at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday. The debate will be telecast on C-SPAN.

PIRATE'S BOUNTY H.

Areyou talkintome, on the board in 27 of 36 coming into this race, usually puts his best hoof forward and did so here to stage the mild upset over favored Captain Squire. Far from disgraced when fifth in the GI Triple Bend H. at Hollywood July 1, he returned to run second to Captain Squire in a seven-furlong Del Mar allowance July 31. The five-year-old veteran completed the trifecta in the Gil Pat O'Brien Breeders' Cup H. going the same distance Aug. 20 and was the 5-2 second chance here. Stalking from the outside in fifth as the favorite was pressed through a half in :44 2/5, Areyou talkintome powered up and took a narrow lead in deep stretch and asserted well for the win. INVINCIBLE COLT TOPS SECOND DAY Freshman sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) was in demand again yesterday at Tattersalls Ireland's September Yearling Sale, which held up well after Tuesday's record-breaking opening session. The Irish National Stud's leading first-season sire is responsible for Grove Stud's hip 281, a colt out of a sister to the smart sprinter Argentum (GB) with a pedigree built for speed. He was snapped up by Jamie Osborne for €80,000. "He's a good, solid colt and stood out today," Osborne commented. "The sire is doing very well, and I think this one is typical of a lot of his." Later in the afternoon, Andy Oliver purchased a colt by Averti (Ire) from the draft of John Deer's Oakgrove Stud for €66,000. Hip 386 is out of the listed-placed Honeytrap (Fr), a half to the 1994 G2 Prix Noailles hero Gunboat Diplomacy (Fr). "He was a lovely, athletic colt with great balance," the trainer noted. "He's got a lovely pedigree and is bred for speed." Gill Richardson was on hand to secure hip 348, a colt by Xaar (GB) out of the 2001 Shergar Cup Distaff winner Flying Millie (Ire) from the family of Bold Arrangement (GB). Having paid €60,000, the bloodstock agent revealed that the yearling will be sent to Mick Channon. Invincible Spirit was also responsible for the top-priced filly of the session, supplied by Hill Top Farm. Hip 352 has the two Moyglare-owned stakes winners Safety Tactic (Ire) and Hymn of Love (Ire) on the page and was bought by P.J. Condron for €45,000. Returns showed increases across the board on 12 months ago, with the average rising by 53 percent to €17,944 and the median up by 40 percent at €14,000. "With such high averages and such a strong buying bench, I think we can safely say it was a very satisfying day for everyone," Tattersalls Ireland Chairman Edmond Mahony commented. "The purchasers liked the yearlings on offer and the vendors were pleased with the prices." Selling continues at 11 a.m. today.

IMPACT AT LONGCHAMP Kaneko Makoto's Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) will be shown off to the French public for the first time next week when he takes part in a racecourse gallop at Longchamp. Yutaka Take will fly in to partner the multiple Group 1 winner in the spin, which will take the place of a prep run for the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Stabled at Chantilly with Carlos Laffon-Parias, the four-year-old was reported to have settled in well by Isao Okano of the Japan Racing Association. "Deep Impact was a little nervous at the very beginning, but on the second day he had adapted to his new surroundings," he told the Racing Post. "Deep Impact appreciates the quiet atmosphere and loves Chantilly very much. It is very different from where he is trained in Japan. His preparation takes place at a training centre, which is rather like a race-track. Everything to date has gone very well. Carlos Laffon-Parias and his staff have all been very, very kind and helpful. They are very nice people and all the Japanese with the horse have been very happy. His trainer Yasuo Ikee arrived on Monday night to check his condition and found the colt very much at home and in very good form."

Drosia arrived for this second try at stakes level off a low-key success at Vichy Aug. 2 and a last-out conditions second at Deauville Aug. 22. Showing improved form here, she booked a transatlantic ticket by upsetting the odds with a determined career best. Sent to the front upon leaving the gate, the bay was pushed along when pressed by Phantom Rose with a quarter-mile remaining and came under a drive to hold on as that rival strayed left in the dying embers. "We had hoped for a good run and are very happy she lasted to the line," commented trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias. "Her future is probably in America, so we shall wait to see what happens," he added.

Doctor Dino's portfolio included six previous attempts at stakes level with a second in last term's G3 Prix de Guiche and a seventh in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club flagged as the highlights. Coming back from a confidence-boosting score at Deauville Aug. 9, he broke new ground with a bristling display here. Rated in fifth from the get-go, the €38,000 DEAAUG yearling made smooth headway in the straight to challenge at the distance, quickening to the lead 100 meters out and drawing off late for an easy victory. "The horse has reached top form again and won in good style today," enthused trainer Richard Gibson. "He will run next in the G2 Prix Dollar [at Longchamp Sept. 30], but only if the ground remains good."

TIGER DANCE TO OAKLANDS Tiger Dance (Storm Cat--Mariah's Storm, by Rahy), a full brother to leading sire Giant's Causeway, has been sold to stand at Oaklands Stud in Wellington, South Africa, in a deal brokered by Blandford Bloodstock's Tom Goff. The Cape Town-area stud, also home to Medaaly (GB) and Second Empire (Ire), is managed by Paul and Emma Timms. "We are delighted to have managed to secure a horse of this caliber and with such a superb bloodline at Oaklands," Paul Timms said. "He is a very serious addition to our roster. Timms added, "He is a lovely scopey horse with great bone and substance. He will provide South African breeders with a fantastic and unique opportunity. The four-year-old, winner of his lone start at two, most recently ran third in the G3 Minstrel S. at The Curragh July 16. A son of the tough racemare Mariah's Storm, Tiger Dance is also a full brother to the Group 2-placed duo of Freud and Tumblebrutus as well as the stakes-placed Roar of the Tiger.

CORRECTION: Wednesday's TDN should have listed freshman sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) with 27 winners through Sept. 5. We regret the error.

2007 DUBAI INT'L CARNIVAL ANNOUNCED The Dubai Racing Club has announced that the 2007 Dubai International Racing Carnival, which will be held Jan. 25-Mar. 24, will be worth $31 million. Over 200 horses competed in the Carnival last year, but an amendment in quarantine protocols is expected to see more horses from Australia and New Zealand. Previously, horses from those countries could only remain in the United Arab Emirates for a total of 14 days if they wanted a direct return. However, that protocol has been extended, and Australasian horses can now be in the UAE for a total of 60 days. "The amendment to the protocol is great news for both us and Australia as it will give Australian trainers an opportunity to compete at the world's richest racing carnival and horses based in Dubai the opportunity for direct routing to Australia," said Martin Talty, DRC's manager. The Carnival will conclude with the Dubai World Cup meeting Saturday, Mar. 24. The marquee event is the $6-million G1 Dubai World Cup, and there will also be the $5-million G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and the $5-million G1 Dubai Duty Free.

The tradition continues...
