HURRICANE MISSES LEOPARDSTOWN DATE

With the weather fine and sunny in Ireland, there will be no visit from Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) after Andre Fabre scratched Michael Tabor's four-year-old

Hurricane Run Horsephotos

from the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown. Last year's G1 Irish Derby and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero, who most recently added the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. to his resume, will not ship in, and instead, will contest Sunday's G2 Prix Foy at Longchamp. "Hurricane Run is staying in France because of the lack of rain in Ireland," Fabre told PA Sport yesterday. With Aidan O'Brien withdrawing Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor & Faisal Salman's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Aussie Rules (Daneshill) and Dr Vincent O'Brien's Lord Admiral (El Prado {Ire}) scratched by Charles O'Brien, a field of six will take part in the 10-furlong feature, the smallest number since the filly Timarida (Ire) bested five rivals in 1996. Distaffers are the focus this time too, with the multiple Group 1 winners Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) set to renew rivalry following their epic duel in the Aug. 5 G1 Nassau S., when the former came out on top by a short head.

THE PRICE IS RIGHT!

Juddmonte Farms' Price Tag (GB) (Dansili {GB}) was denied Classic glory when disqualified from first place in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essais des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp, but gained some measure of retribution when dissecting a classy field in yesterday's G3 Prix du Pin back at the Bois du Boulogne track. Recovering from early trouble, she showed rare acceleration to defeat Gwenseb (Fr) (Green Tune) by a decisive length and recorded a belated first pattern victory. "She loves this course and I still think it was a harsh decision to disqualify her in the Pouliches," reflected trainer Pascal Bary. "She quickened brilliantly and will return here in the [Sept. 30] G1 Prix de la Foret, but only on good ground." cont. p3

BALLYDOYLE FIELD FOUR

Aidan O'Brien will send a four-pronged challenge to York for tomorrow's G1 St Leger in a bid for a fourth renewal of the oldest Classic. Seamus Heffernan has been announced as the rider of Karin Baronin von Ullmann's Tusculum (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who he partnered to a 2½-length success in the Listed Ballycullen S. at The Curragh Aug. 26. Kevin Darley will partner Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Mountain (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), who has been off the board in three starts since his second in the May 14 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown, while Colm O'Donoghue will be on Fire and Rain (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), sixth in the Aug. 22 G2 Great Voltigeur S. on his sophomore bow. Susan Magnier's Great Voltigeur fourth Puerto Rico (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who reportedly suffered a recent setback, has also been declared, with Darryll Holland booked. "Puerto Rico ran a great trial in the Voltigeur, which is an ideal stepping-stone to the Leger and he's going to improve for that run," Holland told PA Sport. "From what I've seen, I think the extra two furlongs will help and I know that Aidan is pleased with him."

Ready to Rock...

Among the opposition to Susan Roy's G3 Gordon S. winner Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) will be Paul Reddam's Great Voltigeur runner-up Red Rocks (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was finally given the go-ahead yesterday. After his seconds to Papal Bull (GB) in the June 23 G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot and Rail Link (GB) in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp July 14, Red Rocks was collared again by Youmzain (Ire) in the closing stages of the main trial. "I rode him this morning and he seems fine," jockey Richard Hughes commented. "If he stays, he can win--it's as simple as that." Of the outsiders, Kevan Watts's G3 Queen's Vase S. runner-up Galient (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) has to rebound from a last-of-five effort in the Aug. 19 G2 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury, but trainer Michael Jarvis believes there were excuses. "I think he was a bit rusty at Newbury, as we gave him quite a break after Ascot by design," Jarvis commented. St Leger field p2

Price Tag was up for stakes company in her bow, finishing fifth in the Listed Prix Yacowlef at Deauville in July 2005 before posting a maiden score at the same track the following month. She closed her juvenile campaign with another fifth, in the G3 Prix d'Aumale at Chantilly. Returning to action with a third in the Apr. 23 G3 Prix de la Grotte at this track, the bay produced a banner performance in the May 14 G1

Poule d'Essai des Pouliches over course and distance next time, only to be stripped of victory in the stewards' room. She was a shade disappointing when off the board in both the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 23 and the G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville July 30, but was resurgent here and powered to an impressive success. Taking a bump from Gwenseb going into the first turn, Price Tag was reserved in rear until coaxed forward with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. Quickening beyond rivals to challenge the leaders at the distance, she was pushed out nearing the line to assert in ready fashion. Click for Racing Post race chart.

Getaway has benefitted from a patient approach and has taken gradual steps up the ladder since tasting his only defeat when second in a Longchamp maiden Apr. 30. Progressing from 12-furlong conditions scores--at Saint-Cloud May 24 and Compiègne June 28--he broke through at stakes level by plundering the Aug. 15 Listed Prix Michel Houyvet, going an additional three furlongs, at Deauville last time and climbed to a career high with a demolition job in this. Reserved off the pace after a tardy break, the crowd's selection settled the contest in an instant when quickening to the fore approaching the final furlong and he was pushed clear in the latter stages for an impressive success. A classy stayer-in-waiting, Getaway will now point to the G2 Prix Hubert de Chaudenay back at this track Sept. 30. Click for Racing Post race chart.

Sergeant Cecil, runner-up in this event 12 months ago in between completing the treble of Northumberland Plate H. at Newcastle in June, Ebor H. here in August and Cesarewitch H. at Newmarket in October, has subsequently developed into a steadfast top-league stayer this term. He has shown a distinct liking for the Knavesmire, following last year's Ebor exploits with a second in the May 19 G2 Yorkshire Cup and hard-earned first stakes success in the G2 Lonsdale Cup on his latest visit Aug. 22. "He's very well," trainer Rod Millman told PA Sport. "It's obviously a bit harder, the two-mile-two, but I'm sure he'll stay it okay." While Sergeant Cecil is at the ripe age of seven, Alcazar has another four years on him. The evergreen marathoner is returning off a 110-day absence, following a disappointing seasonal bow when last of six in the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier at his beloved Longchamp May 21.

Alcazar enjoyed an annus mirabilis last year when capturing the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at the Parisian venue in October, having finished runner-up and third behind Westerner (GB) in the previous two runnings. "This race is the means to an end," trainer Hughie Morrison told PA Sport. "It's a prep race for going to France for the two Group 1s he ran in last year. We just hope he runs a reasonable race and comes home in one piece. It's always difficult training 11-year-olds--there are not many of them around. Let's hope the ground doesn't dry out too much and that they get a shower."

Guadalajara represents the Godolphin team responsible for Echoes in Eternity (Ire), the 2004 winner of this "fillies' St Leger." Smart at four when under the care of Jean-Claude Rouget, she placed in the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville in August and G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp in October. She was making her debut in the royal blue when sixth in the June 22 G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting and after a facile Newmarket conditions score July 28, was runner-up in the G2 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury last time Aug. 19. "Guadalajara ran well when second last time at Newbury, but she wasn't really relaxed that day and needs to learn to settle better in her races," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "She's been working well, is in good form and I'm very happy with her. We're hoping for another good run at York and it would be nice to win a Group 2 with her." Sophomores have taken five of the last seven renewals and Allegretto has the pick of the form among her generation, despite being penalised for her success in the July 8 G2 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock. She was doing her best work at the finish when third behind Alexandrova (Ire) in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks over a mile and a half of this circuit last time Aug. 23 and will appreciate the step up. She bids to provide Sir Michael Stoute with his third renewal since 1992.

Elhamri returns to the trip over which he took the Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and July 22 Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury. He came unstuck here last time in the Aug. 23 G2 Gimcrack S. over an extra panel when fourth behind Conquest (Ire), who he had beaten at Royal Ascot. He faces a tough line-up in a strong renewal which includes the June 22 G2 Norfolk S. runner-up Hoh Mike, who bids to atone for a below-par seventh in the G2 July S. over six furlongs at Newmarket last time July 13. Wi Dud was runner-up to Enticing (Ire) in the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood Aug. 1, when Bahama Mama and Siren's Gift filled the next two places before making Conquest work when runner-up in the Gimcrack. Wi Dud's conditioner Kevin Ryan is hoping he can shed his nearly tag. "He's in great order," he told PA Sport. "He ran a good race in the Gimcrack and at Goodwood. He's a tough, genuine horse." Bahama Mama, who was previously successful in the Listed Dragon S. at Sandown July 7, has strong claims on her Molecomb effort. "She ran a big race last time out and possibly could have been a fraction unlucky not to have finished even closer," conditioner Jeremy Noseda commented. "She is approaching the Flying Childers in very good shape and I feel confident that she will put in a bold show as long as she acts on the slightly slower ground." Also in the mix is Not For Me, who scored over course and distance in the Aug. 23 Listed Roses S. and Abby Road, who captured the Listed St Hugh's S. at Newbury last time Aug. 19.

MCINGVALE SUIT CHARGES KICKBACKS TO TRAINER AND AGENT

By Ryan Conley, Leslie Deckard & Dan Liebman

Prominent racing owner James McIngvale on Thursday filed a federal lawsuit in Texas that in part charged trainer Bob Baffert and Florida-based sales agents J.B. McKathan and Kevin McKathan with receiving secret commissions and kickbacks on "various Thoroughbred racehorses" the Houston furniture industrialist purchased at public auction. The lawsuit, which was filed in the U.S. District Court in Galveston, Texas, specifically details a transaction involving the sale of Work, a $950,000 purchase on behalf of McIngvale at the 2003 Keeneland April 2-year-olds in training sale. The civil action alleges that the McKathans received a 10% commission from consignor Murray Smith for the purchase of the son of Menifee-Pacific City, by Carson City. A copy of a $95,000 canceled check paid to Our Team LLC, a Florida corporation affiliated with the McKathan brothers, was included as an exhibit with the lawsuit. The check, which was signed by Smith, had included in the memo line, "10% Comm. On Menifee-Pacific City." According to the lawsuit, McIngvale had an oral agreement with the McKathans to pay them 5% of the purchase price of horses bought on his behalf during the term of their relationship, from 2001-2004. The lawsuit - which seeks a variety of unspecified damages - goes on to allege that, during the course of an investigation by McIngvale into the dealings with the named defendants, J.B. McKathan "confessed to McIngvale that he did in fact receive secret commissions and kickbacks on Thoroughbred racehorses defendants recommended and purchased on behalf of McIngvale." Neither J.B. McKathan nor Kevin McKathan immediately returned calls made by The Blood-Horse on Thursday. The siblings operate the McKathan Brothers Training Center near Citra, Fla. Baffert's role in the lawsuit is defined as an adviser and trainer to McIngvale, who admittedly spent millions on horses during the four-year association with the McKathans. But Baffert told The Blood-Horse on Thursday that the McKathans handled the sales end of the relationship with McIngvale. "I just trained the horses," Baffert said in a brief interview. "J.B. was in charge of the sales. I don't know anything about the lawsuit, but I am going to find out." Smith was not named as a defendant in the suit, and was mentioned in the complaint only as the "seller" in the discussion of the sale of Work, who has three wins from 29 lifetime starts, earning $53,173. ## HORSE SLAUGHTER BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

By Amanda Duckworth Courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

A bill to end horse slaughter for human consumption passed the U.S. House of Representatives Sept. 7 with a final vote of 263-146. Two amendments to alter the bill both failed to pass. "It was a significant win," Kentucky Rep. Ed Whitfield said. "There was just an overwhelming feeling, at least on the House side, that something should be done about it." Whitfield, along with New York Rep. John Sweeney, were lead sponsors of the bill. If the bill becomes law, the American Horse Slaughter Prevention Act would shut down the three horse slaughter plants in the country. The plants in Forth Worth and Kaufman, Texas, and DeKalb, Ill., slaughtered more than 90,000 horses last year. The vast majority of the meat was sold overseas, where it is considered a delicacy. retired after sustaining a tendon injury during a workout Tuesday. A Phipps family homebred, the four-year-old worked four furlongs in :51.04 at Belmont Park Tuesday morning while preparing for an intended start in the GII Brooklyn Breeders’ Cup H. Sept. 16. Stud plans have yet to be announced. The winner of last year’s GIII

Gotham S., the dark bay was also runner up to Bellamy Road in the GI Wood Memorial. This term, the colt won three of seven starts, including the R.R.M. Carpenter Jr. Memorial H. at Delaware Park July 15. In what would be his final career start, the Kentucky-bred was a close-up second to Park Avenue Ball in the GIII Iselin BC H. at Monmouth Park Aug. 19. Out of the 17-year-old winning mare Miner’s Game, who is a full sister to MGISW Seeking the Gold, Survivalist retires with five victories from 15 starts and $478,920 in earnings.

PROVOCATIVE TOUCH (f, 3, Touch Gold--Don’t Read My Lips {MSW & GISP, $231,322}, by Turkoman), a distant ninth sprinting on the main track Dec. 3, made the most of her turf debut in her seven-furlong comebacker June 28, winning by 1 1/2 lengths. The Live Oak homebred gave a good account of herself in her latest, rallying to be fourth over Woodbine’s one-turn turf mile Aug. 11. Settled in centerfield, the dark bay advanced leaving the turn, gained the lead past the eighth pole and went on to post a half-length victory over Dame Eliza (Archers Bay) as part of a favored entry at 1-2. The winner is a three-parts sister to Hotstufathensome (Awesome Again), MGSW, $462,220; and a half to Tacit Agreement (Unbridled), SW, $227,078. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-0, $58,926.

RECORDS FALL AT SEPTEMBER Tattersalls Ireland's September Yearling Sale ended with more increases yesterday and record returns, prompting Chairman Edmond Mahony to reflect on the "strength of the demand from buyers at all levels." Overall, the gross was sent through the €10-million mark and the average was up by over 35 percent on 2005. While acknowledging that the first day's record-setting yearling purchase of €225,000 during the inaugural "New Sires' Showcase" had been the highlight, Mahony pointed to a number of causes for the auction's upswing this week. "It meant a great deal to us that the highest-ever priced yearling at Tattersalls Ireland was bought from the New Sires' Showcase and to have eight horses sell for €100,000 or more was especially pleasing," said Mahony. "The success of this week's sale can be put down to many factors, not least the fact that vendors are offering horses at the September Sale that appeal to the purchasers, be they trainers, agents or pinhookers. It is also increasingly evident that the results of horses bought at this sale in recent years have been outstanding; every day there seems to be another new two-year-old winner bought from last year's sale, 10 of which are now stakes winners or placed, as well as the high-profile horses such as Rising Cross (GB), Saoire (GB), English Ballet (Ire), and many buyers here have said that they are specifically targeting next year's €300,000 Tattersalls Ireland Sales S. Overall, we were delighted with the strength of the demand from buyers at all levels throughout the sale."

On A High Note...

It was a filly by Medecis (GB) who topped yesterday's final session of the auction. Offered by the Irish National Stud, which stands the 2002 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and G1 Prix de la Foret runner-up, hip 456 is a half-sister to last Monday's Listed Ripon Champion Two-Years-Old Trophy winner Stevie Gee (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The filly was purchased by trainer Jim Bolger's nephew Ken Bolger for €60,000. Medecis is a half-brother to the family's flagship performer Alexander Goldrun (Ire), who lines up in tomorrow's G1 Irish Champion S. "She was an athletic filly and a good walker," Bolger said of the yearling. "The update to her pedigree was a help and she will make a fine broodmare in time." Later, agent Bobby O'Ryan paid €58,000 for hip 499, a colt by the hot first-season sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) from the family of Superlative (Ire) consigned by Woodtown House Stud. Hip 577, a filly by Bertolini from Ballybrennan Stud, was knocked down to Enda Kelly, buying for Lady O'Reilly, at €49,000. Full results are available on www.tattersalls.ie.

BANDARI RETIRED Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Bandari (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}--Miss Audimar, by Mr. Leader) has been retired and will stand at Peria Stud in Tallow, County Waterford. Trained by Mark Johnston throughout his career, Bandari was successful in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York in 2002, before finishing third when favorite for the G1 St Leger at Doncaster. He added the G2 Princess of Wales's S. to his tally in 2004 and G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot the following year, but had been disappointing this term and finished last of four on his final start in this year's renewal of the Princess of Wales's S. July 13. A fee is yet to be set for Bandari, who won 11 of his 33 starts and £547,045 in prize money.

Battle Paint knew the score when tearing up his debut by three lengths at Deauville Aug. 8 and laid down a notable marker with another impressive effort in this second go. Hammered into 1-5 at the tills, the betting dominance was reflected on the lush track as he toyed with his opponents without being fully extended. Sent to the front off an even break, the homebred bay required no more than minimal encouragement inside the closing panel to comfortably hold Jarhes (Ire) (Green Desert) by a length and will now take the step into Group 1 company. Winning trainer Jean-Claude Rouget was impressed and explained, "This horse has talent and I figured this was the ideal race to prep him for the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere on Arc day [Oct. 1]. It is over the same course and distance and, after winning so nicely, that is definitely where he will go next." Click for Racing Post race chart. Lifetime Record:

Impressive at this trip when winning the Aug. 24 Listed City of York S., Quito was out again three days later for the Listed Beverley Bullet Sprint S. over five furlongs and was in the process of running a big race until his saddle slipped. He almost pulled off a career-best when failing by a neck to reel in Reverence (GB) in Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and, with no battle scars to hold him back, was out for more glory here. Slowly away, the anchor was down early and when Jimmy Fortune asked, he was too much for Mine when producing his trademark power-packed burst in the final 150 yards. "He was like a lion when he came out of his box this morning," trainer David Chapman explained. "He's an absolute idiot at home--he's dangerous, but he's a Christian when he comes to the racecourse. [Regular rider] Tony [Culhane] said to leave some petrol for the G2 Park S. [at York] on Saturday and I think Jimmy [Fortune] did. He's getting better and he'll be in training next year."
