CAN HE SHOW UP AGAINST HIS ELDERS?

There's no doubt that Showing Up (Strategic Mission) is a very talented animal, but he will certainly have his work cut out for him facing older horses in today's GI Man O' War S. at Belmont Park. The three-year-old opened his account with three straight victories before finishing a respectable sixth in the GI Kentucky Derby. He was switched to the turf for his next two starts and hasn't tasted defeat since, winning the $1-million Colonial Turf Cup June 24 and the GI Secretariat S. at Arlington Aug. 12. "This one should," trainer Barclay Tagg said of Showing Up taking on older horses. "It puts some more intense pressure on him the whole way and you never know how they're going to react to that. This horse looks the part. He's facing three Grade I winners, so it's not going to be any walk in the park." Juddmonte Farms' Cacique (Ire) (Danehill) won the GI Manhattan H. over this course on Belmont S. day, and has added second-place finishes behind English Channel in the GI United Nations S. July 8 and The Tin Man in the Arlington Million Aug. 12. Go Deputy (Deputy Minister) is finding his best form at the age of six, and will be right with these if able to duplicate his victory in the GI Sword Dancer Invitational S. last time Aug. 12. "He's in really good form at the moment," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He always runs his race and it seems like in his last couple he's figured out how to close the door on them."

FEMMES FATALES

Quite simply, they are the gold standard amongst their sex in Europe. Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) take to the floor again in today's G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown. Their first dance in the G1 Nassau S. was one that will live long in the memory and it was Lord Derby's star who came out on top by a sliver of light on the judge's photograph. "She's in great form and it's very pleasing to be having a rematch with Alexander Goldrun," Peter Stanley, Lord Derby's brother and racing manager, told PA Sport. "It was an epic battle at Goodwood. We would be happy if we could repeat it and we would be very happy with the same result." Noel and Miriam O'Callaghan's Alexander Goldrun is back on home soil this time and it promises to be another thriller. Cont. p2

MOTHER GOOSE REMATCH IN GAZELLE

Pine Island (Arch) finished 3/4 of a length behind Bushfire (Louis Quatorze) when second in the July 1 GI Mother Goose S., but will get another crack at the division leader in today's GI Gazelle S. at Belmont Park. The Phipps Stable colorbearer was making only her third career start that day and has continued to impress in two subsequent attempts, finishing a fast-closing second in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks July 22 and reporting home first in Saratoga's GI Alabama S. Aug. 19. "She is just a lot more experienced now," trainer Shug McGaughey commented. "She has come a long way from earlier this summer. Each race she gets better and better and learns more." Cont. p3

SEEKING ICON STATUS

Susan Roy's Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) steps onto the oldest stage in racing as he bids for star billing in today's G1 St Leger at York. He was having only his fifth start when the impressive winner of the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood Aug. 1 and trainer Jeremy Noseda is hoping the upward curve continues. "He is a progressive horse and can only get better," Noseda commented. "I have thought for a long time that he will get a mile and six furlongs well, and he has also shown he is effective on good to soft." Cont. p4

In the G1 Nassau S., Ouija Board was recording Group 1 win number six of a journey which began with a stellar performance in the 2004 Epsom Oaks. Alexander Goldrun has accumulated five Group 1 victories of her own, and proved herself as good as ever this season when recording a success in the July 1 G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh before her epic encounter with Ouija Board. She was third behind Oratorio (Ire) and Motivator (GB) in this race 12 months ago, her sole defeat in three starts at this track. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Mustameet has proved a revelation this term, rattling up a four-timer which included a defeat of Ace in the July 15 G3 International S. Upped to this trip in the Aug. 13 G2 Royal Whip S. at The Curragh, he put forth yet another impressive display. "He's fine and is good shape," trainer Kevin Prendergast told PA Sport. "Ten furlongs around Leopardstown will be in his favour, as he's won at the track before. The good ground will be perfect, too."

An intriguing group of 11 fillies goes postward here in search of an elusive Grade I win. Take the Ribbon, four-length winner of Churchill's Heavenly Cause S. July 16, travelled west for the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 19. She crossed the line second, but was disqualified to fourth in that nine-furlong affair and gets another crack at a top-level prize here. Shipping in from France is Chaibia, who put some early season disappointments behind her with a victory in the 10-furlong G3 Prix de Psyche at Deauville Aug. 1. This division's pro-tem leader, Wait a While, will await Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup, but trainer Todd Pletcher has an able deputy in Magnificent Song as well as the up-and-coming Jade Queen. Magnificent Song has captured three of four starts since adding blinkers, with her streak culminating in the GIII Lake George S. at Saratoga July 28. "I like the way she's been training," Pletcher said. "She's just a solid racehorse." The grey filly finished 3/4 of a length in front of Quite a Bride in the Lake George, snapping that filly's four-race skein. Jade Queen, three-for-four on the lawn, makes her stakes debut off a Saratoga allowance score Aug. 10.

Bushfire is clearly the class of the division boasting three Grade I wins, including Keeneland's Ashland S. and Belmont's Acorn S. and Mother Goose. She makes her first start since defeating Pine Island in the Mother Goose. "We wanted to freshen her up," trainer Eddie Kenneally said. "It was a designed break. With the hot weather and what she has accomplished, we thought it would be best to have a fresh filly for the fall races. She runs very well fresh, and depending on the outcome on Saturday, I could even elect to train her up to the [GI Breeders' Cup] Distaff [at Churchill Nov. 4]." Wild Fit ran second over this course in last season's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, but is still in search of her first victory as a sophomore. The gray finished a well-beaten fourth as the 1-5 chalk in a Saratoga allowance last time Aug. 16. After a horrific break, the $3-million FTKNOV purchase trailed the field of four throughout, and crossed the line beaten 20 1/4 lengths. "The race the other day, you can't take anything from it," trainer Patrick Biancone said. "She hurt herself at the start from the gate and basically just ran around out there. She is doing very good now."

YORK

From Zero to Sixties...

Sixties Icon has made rapid progress since graduating at Windsor May 8, justifying his owner's bold decision to run in the G1 Epsom Derby by finishing a respectable seventh. A rallying third behind Papal Bull (GB) and Red Rocks in the June 23 G3 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot, he returned from a break to record a comfortable 1 3/4-length defeat of Jadalee in the Goodwood trial. "The owner wanted to go for the Derby and it taught him so much," Noseda explained. "That race can make or break a horse and it made him--it turned him into a professional. With more enterprising instructions, he'd have finished on top of them in the King Edward, but we looked after him on the firm ground and in the Gordon all the pieces fell into place." Jadalee came back to record a gritty success against older horses in the Listed March S. back at that track Aug. 26 and jockey Martin Dwyer is hopeful of a repeat effort.

"If he runs as well as he has been, he'll be in the three," Dwyer commented. "If all goes well, he might even win. Sixties Icon beat us well at Goodwood, but my lad definitely stays and the increased trip will definitely help me." Barry Hills, who pulled off a shock in this Classic with the 40-1 shot Moonax (Ire) in 1994, saddles another longshot in The Last Drop. He was fourth in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. Aug. 22, a trial which has thrown up nine St Leger winners since 1990. "He's in great order," the trainer's son and assistant Charlie Hills told PA Sport. "He's obviously a big price, but he ran a great race at York last time. The horse is thriving. He should stay very well and he's not dissimilar to what Moonax was like." Eight of the last 13 fillies to have contested this Classic have made the frame, but it is 14 years since User Friendly (GB) bested the colts. G2 Ribblesdale S. scorer Mont Etoile is the sole distaff challenge this time and comes here off a fourth behind Alexandrova (Ire) in the G1 Irish Oaks July 16. "The faster the ground, the better her chance would be," conditioner William Haggas told the Racing Post.

Since the European program was strengthened for the distaffers, Cheveley Park Stud have carved out a formidable reputation in these contests. The Stud fields a top-class duo in Peeress and Nannina here. Peeress, who broke through at this level when winning the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket in October, returned to annex the May 20 G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury. Both successes came on testing ground, which she was denied when fourth in the June 20 G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot and G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 12. With give underfoot at Deauville last time, she was third behind subsequent G1 Prix du Moulin hero Librettist in the Aug. 13 G1 Prix Jacques le Marois. By contrast, Nannina likes to hear her hooves rattle and took advantage of quick conditions at the Royal meeting to best Flashy Wings in the June 23 G1 Coronation S. Second in the Falmouth, she covered herself in glory when third behind the high-class duo Ouija Board (GB) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire) in Goodwood's G1 Nassau S. last time Aug. 5. "Our fillies are proven at Group 1 level, but how they run is likely to depend on the going, with Nannina preferring a quicker surface and Peeress some cut," the Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told the Racing Post. Red Evie is so far untried in these waters, but has earned her chance with an outstanding run of six wins this term. She demonstrated a potent turn of acceleration on her last two outings, the June 21 Listed Sandringham H. at Royal Ascot and G3 Oak Tree S. at Goodwood Aug. 4.

Iffraaj, forced to miss Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup because of the heavy ground, bids for back-to-back renewals of this race. He has gone from strength to strength this season, following a respectable seventh on his return in the June 24 G1 Golden Jubilee S. with a fast-finishing second to Les Arcs in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 14. Despite carrying a penalty in the G2 Lennox S. at Goodwood Aug. 1, he made light work of that test. "Iffraaj won very well at Glorious Goodwood and is in good form," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He goes into the race in top shape and I'm very happy with him. We're looking for some good ground for him and hoping for a big run." Speciosa makes her eagerly awaited return to the races following a 78-day absence, having finished ninth in the June 23 G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. That followed a win in the soft in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 7 and a game fourth in the June 2 G1 Epsom Oaks. "She has to take on the older boys and girls now," trainer Pam Sly said. "The G1 Sun Chariot S. [at Newmarket Sept. 30] will be next, so this is a natural progression and we're going to keep her in training next year." Quito makes his fifth start in the last 16 days here. He followed a second in Saturday's Haydock Sprint Cup with a win in the Listed Fortune S. at Haydock two days ago. Sir Michael Stoute, who has won two renewals since this was made a group contest, saddles Wasseema. The filly bids to build on all-the-way wins in the Listed Valiant S. at Ascot July 28 and Listed Atalanta S. at Sandown Park Aug. 26.

All carry 124 pounds.

Barry Hills targets this annually with one of his brightest prospects and will be looking to the unbeaten Thousand Words to extend his record of five wins. Having taken a six-furlong maiden at Newbury June 16, he returned to that track to best subsequent G3 Solario S. winner Drumfire (Ire) by a neck in a conditions event over this trip on his latest start July 22. "He worked really nicely the other morning and is going the right way," jockey Richard Hughes remarked. Eagle Mountain stepped up markedly off his Curragh maiden score May 28 to finish a head second to Teofilo (Ire) in the G2 Futurity S. Aug. 26. Prince Forever created a favorable impression when winning on debut at Newbury Aug. 19, and trainer Michael Jarvis is hoping he can make the grade. "He's a nice colt, but obviously it's a big step up in class," Jarvis told PA Sport. "He's a very clear-winded horse and we haven't been too hard on him on since Newbury and just kept him ticking over." Eoghan O'Neill saddled Silent Times (Ire) to share the spoils in this 12 months ago and relies on the unbeaten Vital Equine, who comes here off a Yarmouth conditions score June 15. "He's a horse that finds everything very easy," O'Neill commented. "He went through the stage of being a teenager after Yarmouth, so we've given him a break and he's a much more mature and stronger horse now." Geoff Huffer is represented by Cockney Rebel, who was runner-up in the £300,000 St Leger Yearling S. over six furlongs of this track last time Aug. 24. "He's in fine form and ready to go," the conditioner told PA Sport. "He was on the worst of the ground at York and he had nothing to race with for a green two-year-old, so I thought he did himself proud. I've always thought highly of him and it's nice when they prove it on the track--but whatever he does this year he is going to improve upon next season."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

All carry 124 pounds bar English Ballet, 127.

English Ballet has looked a filly with a bright future on her two starts, following up on a Windsor maiden success July 24 with an impressive score in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket Aug. 12. She has to overcome a subsequent three-pound penalty for those exploits, which has been defied only twice in the last 20 years, by Midnight Line in 1997 and Nasheej 12 months ago. "She won very impressively last time," trainer Barry Hills' son and assistant Charlie Hills told PA Sport. "She's going to get the mile no problem." Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's silks will adorn the unbeaten Sudoor. Having taken a decent maiden at Newbury June 27, she registered a cozy score in the Listed Star S. at Sandown last time July 27. "She looked a decent filly at Sandown and she's given us all the right impressions so far," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Angus Gold told PA Sport. Jeremy Noseda puts forward Simply Perfect, who showed enough speed to finish runner-up in the June 21 G3 Queen Mary S. over five furlongs at Royal Ascot. Stepping up to seven for the Aug. 27 G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh last time, she suffered a troubled trip when seventh and bids for compensation here. "She would have finished significantly closer granted a little luck in running in Ireland," Noseda said. "This is a step up to a mile and I feel she will stay as long as she settles though the early stages of the race." Richard Hannon, who saddled Nasheej last year, relies on Baroness Richter, impressive when graduating at first asking at Chepstow Aug. 28. "She's a lovely filly and has the ability, but the experience might catch her out," her rider Richard Hughes said.

Sergeant Cecil gave the Knavesmire crowds more reason to love him after producing another chapter in his ongoing fairytale. For his many followers, his consistency is his greatest virtue, earning him the well-documented major handicap treble of Northumberland Plate H., Ebor H. and Cesarewitch H. last year and the Racing Post's Horse of the Year title in turn. He proved when runner-up to Millenary (GB) in this race 12 months ago that he had the class for these races and hammered home the point when taking the G2 Lonsdale Cup here last time Aug. 22. Settled in rear by Frankie Dettori in customary fashion, the blaze-faced chestnut made giant strides to arrive on the heels of Alcazar as that veteran took over passing the three-furlong marker. Allowed a breather there, he turned on the turbo soon after and despite veering right across Alcazar's path, had that foe covered in the run to the line. "He's amazing," his rider commented. "He wasn't traveling, but then came on the bridle very quickly and wanted to go, so I didn't want to disappoint him. When I hit the front he went a bit to his right, but the race was over. He's got his moments of dropping the bridle, but always comes back when it matters and I got there a bit too early. His turn of foot is immediate and he's got that zap that sets him apart from the others."

She may be diminutive in stature, but Rising Cross is lion-hearted and overcame the odds to record a career-best here. Having shared the spoils in the Listed Lupe S. at Goodwood May 6, she excelled herself when beating all bar Alexandrova (Ire) in the June 2 G1 Epsom Oaks, despite stumbling in the closing stages. Only eighth in the G1 Oaks d'Italia at the San Siro 16 days later, she was again chasing the shadow of Alexandrova when third in the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 16. Coming back off a last-place finish in the Aug. 12 G1 Beverly D at Arlington, she showed her typical determination to bounce back in this competitive affair. Settled behind the early leaders by Martin Dwyer, she was looking for a way through bigger rivals in the straight and after some nudging and barging, found the gap inside the final eighth before grabbing Anna Pavlova in the final 50 yards. "It's a good job she's small, as there wasn't much of a gap," her jockey said. "She's very tough and you can't be placed in two Classics and not be very good. She got a crack around the head with a whip and the gaps kept closing, but she was very brave. She keeps galloping and got the trip well."

Trainer John Best has two targets in mind for the pint-sized distaffer. "She's in the G2 Prix de Royallieu [at Longchamp Sept. 30], but she could be supplemented for the G3 Deutsches St Leger [at Dortmund Oct. 1]."

Wi Dud was beaten a fraction by Enticing (Ire) in the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood Aug. 1 before being caught late by Conquest (Ire) to fill the same spot in the G2 Gimcrack S. over six furlongs last time Aug. 23.

Allowed to find his stride by Neil Callan, he had more in front than behind in the early stages, but made smooth progress to join the front rank with 1½ furlongs remaining. Callan took his time there before asking Wi Dud to quicken and the response was immediate as he settled the result in a matter of strides. "He deserved that, as he's been so consistent," trainer Kevin Ryan commented. "Neil rode a real cool race, but we thought it would be better to get there too late than too soon. He nearly did get there too early, but he took a pull and the colt saw it out really well. All he wants to do is please you and he'll only run once more this year--he's done his job today." Callan believes he may stay further in time. "He was just beaten by a better horse in the Gimcrack and he's starting to relax now," he said. "He's still improving and is still a bit babyish, so it looks like he's going to get better."

Announcing the Arrival of...

to HurricaneHall

What they said after the Wood...

“It is hard to think of any horse in the modern history of racing who was more impressive in his last race before the Kentucky Derby than BELLAMY ROAD was winning Saturday’s Wood Memorial at Aqueduct.” —Mike Watchmaker

“You can take your pick of reasons why BELLAMY ROAD was so impressive. It could be because he won by 17½ lengths with jockey Javier Castellano celebrating in the irons the last sixteenth of a mile. It could be that combined with his 15 3/4-length score at Gulfstream in his first start this year, no one has been able to get in the same time zone as BELLAMY ROAD this year. Or, it could be that despite being hardly asked to run, BELLAMY ROAD equaled the 32-year-old 1 1/8-mile main track record, held by champion Riva Ridge.” —Mike Watchmaker

“When BELLAMY ROAD rang the bell in the Wood Memorial, he transformed the Kentucky Derby trail into a ‘road’ with a dominant figure.” —Frank Mitchell

“BELLAMY ROAD got a monstrous 120 Beyer Speed figure for his dominating victory in the Wood Memorial.” —Jay Privman

“BELLAMY ROAD has won four of his five starts, by a combined 43½ lengths. He came from off the pace to win his debut at six furlongs, but opened a clear early lead in his four routes since. In three of them, no one so much as breathed on him during the race, and he won by daylight, lots of it.” —Steven Crist

“The two most talented horses I have ever trained were Unbridled’s Song and BELLAMY ROAD.” —Nick Zito

Valenzuela Cleared to Gallop Horses:

Jockey Pat Valenzuela, who missed the entire Del Mar meet while hospitalized for an undisclosed reason, has been given clearance to begin exercising horses, the Daily Racing Form reports. But the troubled 43-year-old rider, who has a history of substance abuse problems, will have to undergo a hair follicle drug test before he will be allowed to ride races again. "He's not technically suspended," Del Mar steward Scott Chaney told DRF. "Given the obvious history, we thought it's prudent to investigate what he's been doing over the last month before he's named on horses."

TOBA Honors RTCA:

The Race Track Chaplaincy of America is the recipient of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association's 2006 Industry Service Award. The group was honored at the TOBA National Awards dinner at Vinery in Lexington last night. "Their faith-based ministry has touched many individuals at the tracks and on the farms and we salute them for their commitment to enriching the lives of countless participants in racing." The RTCA was established in 1971 and has 74 chaplains at 113 racetracks and training centers in the U.S., Canada and South America.

Pincay to Co-Host White Horse Award Ceremony:

RAKTI, ELUSIVE CITY TO IRISH NATIONAL STUD Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent--Ragera {Ire}, by Rainbow Quest) and Elusive City (Elusive Quality--Star of Paris, by Dayjur) will be moved to the Irish National Stud for the 2007 breeding season. Huma Park Stud's Hubie de Burgh announced the move of Rakti, who captured six Group 1 races over four seasons and Elusive City, the top-class juvenile of 2002 when he won the G1 Prix Morny, as a result of arrangements to sell their current base at auction Oct. 19. "We are delighted that Elusive City and Rakti will be standing at the Irish National Stud," he said. "The farm is highly respected in the industry worldwide, with a strong client base and is geographically well positioned--which augurs well for both horses' futures. They are both promising young sires who we feel will fit well into the exciting roster of stallions at the Irish National Stud."

DEWHURST IS STRATEGIC TARGET Sultan Ahmad Shah's Strategic Prince (GB) (Dansili {GB}) was yesterday reported on course for the Oct. 14 G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket. Trainer Paul Cole announced that the G2 July S. and G2 Vintage S. winner "looks marvellous" as he is geared towards the seven-furlong juvenile feature. "We haven't had any problems with him and he's fine," he said. "He's been doing easy work on the all-weather, but he's just going back into work now and if we get a bit of a break in the weather we'll put him on the grass shortly. He still looks marvellous and I hope the build-up to the Dewhurst goes alright and he puts up a good show."

Celtic Mill recorded one of his three stakes wins in this race at its usual venue at Doncaster two years ago before winning the G2 Temple S. at Sandown the following May. Warming up with a six-furlong Windsor conditions score Aug. 5, he left his usual pace-setting duties to stable companion and half-brother Mr Wolf (GB) (Wolfhound) in this renewal. Having taken a tow to the furlong pole, he took over there and had to dig in to contain the challenge of Oriente in the drive to the line. "He's been competing for three years now and the Windsor race put the confidence back into him," trainer David Barker commented. "He got sick of getting beaten in group races and it did him the world of good, so we'll go for the G3 Dubai World Trophy at Newbury on Saturday."

SUNDAY SYMPHONY (GB) (g, 4, Sunday Silence--Darrery {GB} {SP-Eng}), by Darshaan {GB} was a smart handicapper last term and returned after being gelded to finish second in the Aug. 26 Listed Chester H. Sent off the 4-1 second favorite, he was anchored in rear by Frankie Dettori off the fast early fractions before being eased into the center of the track after the final turn. Arriving at the front traveling easily with over three furlongs remaining, the 250,000gns TATDEC weanling drew away under a hand ride to best Zurbaran (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) by five lengths. "He relished the trip and is much more straightforward now he has been gelded," his rider said. "The middle seems the key when it's good to soft here and when I got there I never saw anyone else." The winner is a half to Al Wafi (GB) (Fairy King), G1SP-Ity. Lifetime Record: SP-Eng, 10-3-4-2, £61,570.

Heat Of The Night had the Aug. 20 Listed Grosser Preis der Stadtparkasse Dusseldorf at her mercy, but lost impetus when jinking in the latter stages and finished third. That first stakes placing ended a run of six off-the-board efforts in listed company and she maintained a straight course this time to bag a career high. Occupying a share of third along the rail after the opening exchanges, the bay homebred made smooth progress once in the open to lead approaching the final eighth and lengthened clear thereafter to score in easy fashion.
