DO NOT GO GENTLE

He had a disappointing fourth in the G1 Juddmonte International S. to put behind him, but Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) was in full effect yesterday to deny Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in a thrilling G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown. Kept close to the pace by Kieren Fallon, the 13-8 crowd's choice was briefly in front before the mare swooped by in the stretch. But, as his poet namesake suggested, the imposing bay raged against the dying of the light and dug in against the fence to reel her in and score by a neck. "He's a horse with a big heart and a lot of class," said Aidan O'Brien, winning his fourth renewal since 2000. "When I saw the mare head him, I thought we were beaten, but with Kieren you never know and he had a bit up his sleeve. In fairness to the horse, he was very fresh at York and he is a very good horse." Cont. p2

HEART ATTACK CLAIMS ELECTROCUTIONIST

Godolphin's Electrocutionist (Red Ransom--Elbaaha, by Arazi) died yesterday of a suspected heart attack. The five-year-old, hero of the G1 Dubai World Cup, was being prepared for a tilt at the Oct. 14 G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. at Newmarket "Earlier in the week, we detected an abnormality in Electrocutionist's heart," Racing Manager Simon Crisford explained. "He was admitted to the veterinary hospital for tests and further investigations. He appeared to be responding well to treatment, but during the night he suffered what seems to have been a fatal heart attack. It is terribly sad. He was a great horse for Godolphin and a real stable favourite. He will be sorely missed by all of us." Cont. p12

CONTINUING THE FAMILY TRADITION

Looking to become the fourth champion out of blue hen mare Hasili (Ire), Cacique (Ire) (Danehill) picked up his second Grade I victory of the year in the Man o'War S. at Belmont Park yesterday. The Juddmonte homebred shaded :11 as he shot up the rail to win by 1 3/4 lengths. "This might have been his best race yet," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "How could he finish any faster? I'm thinking [about the Breeders' Cup]." Cont. p2

Dylan Thomas took time to transform into the international force he is now, with his juvenile highlight a success in a valuable conditions race on this card 12 months ago. Returning to win the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial over this track and trip May 14, he was reported to have found Epsom's contours against him when third, beaten a short head and a head, in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby. His subsequent powerhouse performance in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh July 2 stamped him as a leading sophomore, but his effort in the Aug. 22 Juddmonte International was labored and he had questions to answer here. Sticking close to stable companion Ace (Ire) (Danehill) throughout, he was committed at the quarter pole, but his lead was short-lived and Ouija Board appeared to have the contest won. Rallying gamely to her inside, Dylan Thomas found extra reserves to regain the initiative in the final 100 yards. "There were probably the best fillies in the world in there and he's only a three-year-old, but he's tough," Fallon said. "Take nothing away from Ouija Board, as she's been on the go a long time, but my fellow's done well to battle back, and a stronger pace would have suited him better. It would have helped if Ace had taken me further, but when I saw Ouija Board come, I knew she'd help me. He likes top of the ground and that's the key to him--it was probably too soft at York." O'Brien has the target of either the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf or Classic [at Churchill Downs Nov. 4] for the sophomore. "He has a high cruising speed and loves fast ground, so obviously the Breeders' Cup would suit him," O'Brien said. "He gets a mile and a half and has mile-and-a-quarter class, so can run in either the dirt or the turf race there." Trainer Ed Dunlop said of the vanquished runner-up, "She's run a great race and it looked like she was going to win, but she has just been outbattled. We'll take her home and see how she is." Jim Bolger is considering another tilt at the G1 Prix de l'Opera de Longchamp for Alexander Goldrun, a race she won two years ago. "It's as good a race as she's ever run," he commented. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

A Group 2 winner in France, Cacique was runner-up in three of his first five U.S. outings. He sandwiched a win in the June 10 G1 Manhattan H. between seconds in the May 6 G1 Woodford Reserve Turf Classic and July 8 G1 United Nations S., then missed by a length when filling the place spot in the Aug. 12 G1 Arlington Million. Favored to return to the winner's circle here, the dark bay bided his time in fifth as Ramazutti (Honor Grades) cut out slow fractions over the "good" turf. He was momentarily trapped behind horses at the top of the lane, but burst through an opening to take the lead at the eighth pole before drawing clear. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. There were doubts surrounding the wellbeing of the Noseda barn after a winless spell, but Sixties Icon dispelled all concerns with a captivating display to land this Classic on York's Knavesmire. Ridden with consummate confidence by Frankie Dettori, the bay was settled in rear from his wide draw. He was only asked to change out of second gear at the furlong pole, where he opened up for an impressive rout of his one-paced rivals. "What a fabulous horse," said Dettori, enjoying his 100th success of the term and his fourth Leger score. "I couldn't believe how easy I was going--I thought I'd wait til the furlong pole to go and he responded straight away. This is probably one of my easiest Classics and you don't usually get a buzz like that." Sixties Icon went from a Windsor maiden success to a seventh in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby, building on that experience to finish third in the June 23 G3 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot. He bounded to a convincing success in the Aug. 1 G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood, and took the leap to this level in his stride to provide his trainer with his first domestic Classic. "There has been a lot of talk about us being out of form, but I've been expecting this for a few weeks now," commented Noseda, speaking from Keeneland. "I felt he was better than before Goodwood and I thought he was an absolute certainty." Owner Paul Roy may supplement the winner for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 1. "It depends very much on how he comes out of the race, but hopefully he'll be fine and we'll have a look at it," he said, adding, "Hopefully he'll stay in training next year." Sixties Icon led home a Classic 1-2-3 finish for his sophomore sire, by Sadler's Wells. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Red Evie had gone through her previous six sophomore starts with a rare will to win, which combined with a lethal turn of acceleration to make her a potent threat to the more established rivals in this line-up. Stepping up off maiden, handicap and conditions scores, she proved that her finishing burst was as deadly in stakes company when taking the Listed Sandringham S. at Royal Ascot June 21 and Goodwood's G3 Oak Tree S. on her latest start Aug. 4. Reserved towards the rear throughout the early stages by Jamie Spencer here, she delivered her customary kick wide in the stretch to take over with 200 yards remaining. Driven out to hold on as Peeress and Ryan Moore ate into her advantage late on, she had enough real estate to make it a magnificent seven.

Red Means Go...

"She has kept on improving and it's very exciting to have a filly of this quality," conditioner Michael Bell said. "At Royal Ascot, she had to make up 10 lengths and still won, so we knew we had a Group 1 animal on our hands. She normally comes later, but Jamie rode a perfect race by taking it by the scruff of the neck. The next stop is the G1 Sun Chariot S. [at Newmarket Sept. 30], all things being equal and she could remain in training next year." As for runner-up Peeress, trainer Mick Channon told Racing Post, "She's just a bit lazy on us these days, but I feel that she ran her race. There's a big one in her, but it's just a question of when it happens. She ran very well and we have no excuse." Favored Nannina (Pivotal {GB}) missed hitting the board by just a head, but gave Britain a 1-2-3-4 finish in the prestigious event.

Magnificent Song is still playing second fiddle to stablemate Wait a While when it comes to three-year-old turf fillies, but she's certainly making a name for herself on the green stuff. In April, the gray took a grassy Keeneland allowance by open lengths and soon had a stakes victory to her credit after a win in Churchill's Edgewood S. May 5. She suffered a minor setback when runner-up to the classy Lady of Venice (Fr) in the June 17 GIII Regret S. under the Twin Spires, but she got right back to winning ways in her latest, a late-closing tally in the July 28 GIII Lake George S. The public's tepid favorite as she went in search of Grade I glory here, Magnificent Song caboosed the 11-horse field as the leaders set honest fractions. Angled out for the stretch drive, she began picking off rivals with a bold move down the middle of the course and overhauled Take the Ribbon in the final sixteenth. "She is improving each time," said trainer Todd Pletcher, who also saddled third-place finisher Jade Queen. "That was big: a Grade 1 win for her with her pedigree is terrific."

Following up on last year's win with the dead-heater Silent Times (Ire), Eoghan O'Neill saddled Vital Equine to a perfect three-for-three record. His beginnings were humble, but he came back after a Newcastle maiden success May 10 to post a Yarmouth conditions score June 15. The colt was keen throughout the early stages here, and jockey Richard Mullen decided not to fight the enthusiastic bay. In front with three furlongs remaining, he was headed by Cockney Rebel 1 1/2 furlongs out, but showed tenacity to wrest back the spoils in the final 100 yards as Eagle Mountain found top gear too late. "He's always been smart and has been giving me great vibes at home for the last couple of weeks," O'Neill said. "He's a horse with a huge future and he's in everywhere, including the G1 National S. [at The Curragh] on Sunday, but we'll see how he comes back from this."

Also Ran: Sweet Lilly (GB), Sudoor (GB), Baroness Richter (Ire), Musical Mirage, Easy Lover (GB), Bobansheil (Ire).

Capping a memorable day for Jeremy Nosedo, the aptly named Simply Perfect proved her stamina to capture this vital stepping stone to next year's Classics. Second as a maiden to Gilded (Ire) in the five-furlong G3 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 21, she stepped up a panel to graduate at Lingfield July 14 before finishing third in the G3 Princess Margaret S. back at Ascot 15 days later. Stepped up to seven furlongs for the Aug. 27 G1 Moyglare Stud S. on her latest start at The Curragh, she was denied the chance to prove her staying power when hampered at a crucial stage, and finished seventh. Reserved in rear by Darryll Holland throughout the early stages, she traveled to the fore passing the furlong marker before drawing away from English Ballet in the run to the line.

On a day darkened by the sudden demise of stable flagship Electrocutationist, Iffraaj shone some light for Godolphin when breaking the course record and booking his ticket to Churchill for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Mile. The bay gained his first stakes win when beating Sleeping Indian (GB) by a short head here 12 months ago, but the soft going prevalent at Longchamp stopped him from adding to that tally when only seventh in the G1 Prix de la Foret in October. Making the best of the dry summer this year, he was caught in traffic in the G1 July Cup before delivering a late flourish to finish a head runner-up to Les Arcs July 14. Back over seven furlongs last time, he defied a penalty in emphatic style in the Aug. 1 G2 Lennox S. His performance here lacked fireworks, but he showed a new dimension characteristic to repeat the feat. Racing behind the early leaders while traveling strongly, he had to knuckle down to reel in long-time leader Wasseema, but got on top in the final 100 yards as Somnus closed in. "He got a bit lazy with me today and had me a bit worried, but I had a quiet chat with him and asked for extra effort and he gave it to me," his rider explained. "Seven furlongs is not ideal, but on today's run a mile is not beyond reach." Trainer Saeed bin Suroor welcomed the success. "We started today with bad news, but have now had some good news," he said. "We are really happy with Iffraaj. His main target now is the Breeders' Cup Mile. Today gave me confidence, as he stayed on really well." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Brilliant capped a three-race winning streak with a half-length tally in the June 17 GI Jefferson Cup on the turf at Churchill Downs, running his record on the surface to three-for-four. Given a short break after that effort, the dark bay shipped to upstate New York for his next outing, but stumbled at the start and could do no better than fifth in the Aug. 7 GI National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga. The second choice to get back on track this time, he settled in third as Diabolical (Artax) cut out fractions of :25.64, :51.40 and 1:16.32 over the rain-softened course. Brilliant edged closer as they raced around the bend, hit the front while three wide at the top of the lane and powered through the final furlong to prove much the best. "He handled the yielding turf well," said winning rider Mark Guidry. "He broke good and he put me in a good spot. We just sat in third and, into the last turn, he started pulling me up to the leaders. He is just a very nice horse." After Market (Storm Cat), perfect in his first four starts, was sent off the even-money chalk after winning the Hall of Fame by 2 3/4 lengths, but apparently did not take to the going. Rated just off the early pace, he had nothing left for the stretch run and finished last. "When we got on the grass I was a little worried because my horse has never run on a very soft course," said jockey Fernando Jara. "He had never been on a track like this. He just did not run today." He made a fight out of it, but Miesque's Approval got the nod over Hotstufanthensome at Monmouth Park yesterday. In the process, he shattered the record for the new course, stopping the timer for the mile on the grass in 1:33.36. The old mark of 1:34.47 was set by Diabolical June 29. The even-money favorite settled off the pace through a half in :45.95 and six furlongs in a rapid 1:09, then pulled jockey Eddie Castro into contention on the far turn. Hotstufanthensome kicked it into gear to take over at the top of the lane, but he was collared by the crowd's choice inside the eighth pole. After a brief tussle, Miesque's Approval edged ahead to take it by a half length. Trainer Martin Wolfson watched the race from his home base in Florida, but he felt sure that his charge had the race won. "I was confident," Wolfson said. "That's his game--he's not the type to draw off with a flourish. He just dogs the other horses and gets into their heads. He ran a beautiful race." Handled by trainer Bill Mott until the end of last season, the seven-year-old was slated for retirement after sinking into the high-priced claiming ranks, but owner Charlotte Weber agreed to give Wolfson the chance to revive the veteran's racing career. The move proved more than profitable. In his six starts under new management, the bay horse has four wins and a second, taking the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions Turf, Apr. 14 Gil Maker's Mark Mile S. and July 1 Gil Firecracker Breeders' Cup H. in addition to the Red Bank. Next on the agenda is the GI Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland Oct. 7, but even if Miesque's Approval doesn't put in another stellar performance, Wolfson is hopeful of making the $2 million GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Downs Nov. 4. "He really likes the course at Churchill--that's why we ran him [in the Firecracker]," the trainer said. "Even if he doesn't run a monster race at Keeneland, we still might send him to the Breeders' Cup." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Giving owner/breeder Charlotte Weber her second homebred graded-stakes winner of the afternoon, Hide and Chic closed from just off the pace to win going away. The bay was on the shelf for more than eight months after ending 2005 with off-the-board efforts in the Oct. 22 GII Raven Run S. at Keeneland and Nov. 26 Dream Supreme H. at Churchill. She made her turf debut in her return, the Aug. 7 GIII Royal North S. going six panels at Woodbine, and got up for a neck score. Looking to make it two in a row with the return to the main track, the four-year-old rated off fast fractions, drove past front-running Maryfield at the top of the lane and drew clear. A perfect three-for-three last year, Miraculous Miss was freshened after a victory in the Nov. 20 GIII Valley Stream S. at Aqueduct. She suffered her first--and to date only--loss when fifth in the GIII Old Hat S. at Gulfstream in her Feb. 4 return, but had her photo taken once again after overcoming trouble to take the Mar. 5 GII Forward Gal S. going seven furlongs in Hallandale. Bet down to 4-5 in the Apr. 15 GIII Comely S. at a mile, the chestnut filly closed from just off the pace to post a 1 1/4-length score. Miraculous Miss had to be scratched after getting banged up in the gate before the GI Acorn S., but showed no ill effects from that experience in her return. The three-year-old was slow into stride and trailed the field through a half in :45.18, but angled wide for the drive and dashed past longshot Gilded Gold in the waning strides to win going away. Trainer Steve Klesaris was pleased to have the talented miss back in the game. "There was a lot of misfortune in [the Acorn]," he explained. "I think with the cameras and everything around the gate, something just rattled her. That is not her behavior--she had never done anything like that in the morning or at the races. It was just one of those unfortunate things...[and] we had to take extra time with her to make sure she was okay physically as well as mentally. Getting her back into the starting and to the races was a challenge. It is a real thrill to have her back and to have her perform the way she did today." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

The least experienced of nine sophomore fillies, Lothenbach Stables' homebred Vacare remained perfect in three career starts with another facile victory. Dismissed at odds of 14-1 for her bow going 8 1/2 panels over this turf course June 9, the bay rallied from second last to post a four-length success. She made light work of a field of entry-level allowance horses July 26, scoring by 5 3/4 lengths, but missed an intended start in the Aug. 19 Hatoof S. due to a cough. The second choice in her stakes debut, Vacare employed new tactics, laying just off a moderate tempo established by Walklikeanegyptian. Sent after the pacesetter after six furlongs in 1:14.24, the Chris Block trainee easily overtook that rival before going on to a clear-cut success. "I knew when we got to the five-sixteenths pole that it was over because I had a lot of horse," said winning rider Carlos Marquez Jr. "She's all race horse. She's very competitive."

The late-developing Gouldings Green had notched four of his seven career victories this term and continued his solid five-year-old campaign with a game win here. The Melnyk colorbearer had previously captured the Alysheba S. at Churchill in May and the GIII Hanshin H. (via DQ) at Arlington Park later that month. Third in the GII Cornhusker BC H. at Prairie Meadows July 1, he then took Woodbine's GIII Seagram S. as the 4-5 pick July 30 and was trying out Turfway's Polytrack for the first time as the even-money choice. Bidding his time near the back of the pack while saving ground, Gouldings Green fanned six wide leaving the second turn, powered up to collar It's No Joke and asserted under jockey Corey Lanerie's drive for the win. Frost Giant was breaking his maiden when powering to a three-length success in the G3 Killavullan S. at this track in October; his next start came in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas May 6. Down the field on that occasion, he arrived here off a subsequent break and started where he left off as a juvenile with a gutsy success. Stalking the early pace, he was asked to lengthen on the turn into the straight and responded to take command with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. Under the customary Fallon drive, he stuck to his task gamely to deny the determined Cougar Bay. "He came back all wrong from the Guineas and will improve for this," trainer Aidan O'Brien explained. "We'll step him up now and he should make into a smashing four-year-old if he's kept in training." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Echo of Light gave Godolphin a further boost to wire this contest and provide Frankie Dettori with an afternoon stakes treble. He demonstrated his class when powering to a seven-length success in a conditions event at this meeting at Doncaster last year, but got lost in the crowd after attempting to make all in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October. Allowed time to recover from that experience, he reappeared with an impressive success when leading at every step in the G3 Summer Mile on Lingfield's polytrack July 15. Disappointing again when stepped up in class and finishing sixth in the Aug. 2 G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood, he put that behind him with an authoritative display, quickening off his own tempo in the closing stages to readily account for Stage Gift. "Echo Of Light is a good horse, but he can be a little moody and a bit too keen," conditioner Saeed bin Suroor commented. "The key is to get him relaxed. You know early on the result with this horse. I told Frankie to try and keep the horse relaxed, and he has given him a great ride. I think he has shown he is equally effective between a mile and a mile and a quarter. We have no plans for him at this time, but we will try and find him another race before the end of the season." Click for the Racing Post chart.

was beaten a nose by Shirocco (Ger) in the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club at the San Siro in Milan in October 2004. His four-year-old career was highlighted by wins in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano last June and G1 Juddmonte International S. at York two months later, when he got the better of Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) by a neck in a thrilling finish. After a third in the GI Canadian International at Woodbine in October, he was purchased by Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's operation and paid first dividends by winning Round Three of the G2 Maktoum Challenge on his first try on dirt at Nad al Sheba Mar. 2. He followed that with an emphatic three-length defeat of Wilko in the Mar. 25 Dubai World Cup, a win characterised by his powerful late stretch run. Second to Ouija Board (GB) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot on his European return June 21, he lost by only a half length when runner-up to Hurricane Run (Ire) in what proved to be his final race, the July 29 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor paid tribute yesterday. "He was a wonderful, brave horse, a real pleasure to train," he commented. "He gave his best every time he ran and I will always remember the courage and class he showed in winning the Dubai World Cup. He was a champion." Frankie Dettori added, "Electrocutonist's World Cup win was a really fantastic performance. It is desperately sad that we have lost him, because he was one of those horses who always seemed to relish a battle. It is a terrible blow for the whole team." In total, Electrocutonist won eight of his 12 career starts, earning £3,160,432 in prize money.

Take d'Tour and Pool Land duked it out on the front end in the July 30 GI Go for Wand H. going nine panels at Saratoga, with Take d'Tour fading to fourth and Pool Land hanging in there for third. Who will have the upper hand today? Pool Land, five-for-seven lifetime, was making her first start since taking the May 19 GIII Breeders' Cup Distaff H. at Pimlico and could be tough in her second start off the short layoff. "I thought Pool Land ran a big race in the Go for Wand," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "I also think she'll appreciate cutting back to a mile and a sixteenth." Take d'Tour has shown an affinity for two-turn route races at Belmont, cruising to front-running wins in the May 21 GI Shuvee H. and June 17 GI Ogden Phipps H. "She came out of the Go for Wand in great shape and I have to believe she's going to move forward off it," trainer David Fawkes said. "The pressure doesn't seem to bother her in one-turn races. She goes fast and keeps going. I'm excited about getting her back to Belmont." Last year's GI Kentucky Oaks winner Summerly is also a speedster. She returned after a 378-day absence to wire the field in the Aug. 4 Ashado S. at the Spa.

His Highness the Aga Khan first won this race in 1983 and has enjoyed success on four subsequent occasions, including with Shawanda (Ire) 12 months ago. All were conditioned by Alain de Royer-Dupre, and once again the partnership combine with the progressive Mandesha. She has charted an unorthodox course so far this season, proving her stamina when winning the Listed Prix Urban Sea over 1 7/16 miles at le Lion d'Angers June 13 before dropping back to 1 1/8 miles for the G3 Prix Chloe at Maisons-Laffitte July 2. She finished first past the post in that contest before being disqualified, but gained more than ample compensation when capturing the G1 Prix d'Astarte last time July 30. Her defeat of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches one-two Impressionnante (GB) and Tie Black (Ire) over Deauville's straight mile proved her versatility there, and her speed will be a weapon at this distance. John Hammond saddled Sweet Stream (Ity) to cause an upset in this two years ago. Today, he sends out Freedonia, who had Montare back in second when garnering her first stakes score in the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville Aug. 6, in which last year's Vermeille runner-up Royal Highness was fourth. Wurfscheibe is a filly on the upgrade, having annexed the G3 Fahrhofer Stutenpreis at Hamburg July 21 and G3 Walther J Jacobs-Stutenpreis at Bremen Aug. 20.

This trial offers an intriguing appetizer for the feast to come from stable companions Shirocco and Hurricane Run in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe over this track and trip Oct. 1. Andre Fabre, who has won this five times since 1989, has decided to let the heavyweights prep together for the autumn showpiece, in which Hurricane Run emerged victorious last year with Shirocco back in fourth. The latter has remained unbeaten since, taking the GI Breeders' Cup Turf in his stride before enjoying a currently flawless 2006 campaign. Defying a penalty on his return in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 7, he denied Ouija Board (GB) on his latest start in the June 2 G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom and arrives here fresh from a lengthy break. Hurricane Run has been busy throughout the summer, adding The Curragh's May 27 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup and Ascot's July 29 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. to his impressive record. His one blip came when runner-up to Pride in the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, and that mare's presence in the line-up will ensure the two titans do not have it all to themselves. She had Shirocco back in third in this 12 months ago, and has also enjoyed a freshener since her Saint-Cloud exploits.

Andre Fabre is enjoying one of the peaks of his distinguished career, thanks mainly to the accomplishments of his older warriors Shirocco (Ger) and Hurricane Run (Ire). While that duo warm up for the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe on this card, Rail Link has the opportunity to add a significant sophomore presence to the fall feature. The colt has risen to prominence in rapid fashion during his only season to race, following a Saint-Cloud conditions score May 29 with the first of two course-and-distance successes in the June 20 G3 Prix du Lys. Back for the G1 Grand Prix de Paris on Bastille Day July 14, he ground Red Rocks (Ire) into submission for a convincing two-length success. He reappears after the traditional summer break to bid for a seventh Niel score since 1991 for Fabre, who used this as a stepping stone for subsequent Arc winners Subotica (Fr), Carnegie (Ire), Sagamix (Fr) and Hurricane Run. Three of his opponents hail from Britain, with Papal Bull and Dragon Dancer closely linked on the form of their first and second placings, respectively, in the May 11 G3 Chester Vase. Cont. p15

KEENE LAND

Keeneland September

FRESHMAN FIREPOWER AT KEENE LAND

Buyers from all corners of the world have already begun to descend on Central Kentucky, and with a record 5,161 colts, geldings and fillies catalogued for the annual Keeneland September Yearling Sale, they should have no problem completing their wish lists. The 15-day stand in Lexington features the offspring of over 300 stallions, including A.P. Indy, Awesome Again, Cherokee Run, Deputy Minister, Distorted Humor, Dixie Union, El Prado (Ire), Elusive Quality, Forestry, Fusaichi Pegasus, Giant's Causeway, Gone West, Grand Slam, Gulch, Johannesburg, Kingmambo, Machiavellian, Maria's Mon, More Than Ready, Mr. Greeley, Officer, Point Given, Pulpit, Quiet American, Rahy, Sadler's Wells, Seeking the Gold, Silver Deputy, Smart Strike, Songandaprayer, Storm Cat, Successful Appeal, Theatrical (Ire), Thunder Gulch, Tiznow and Unbridled's Song. But while the accomplishments of those stallions are well documented, there is a most formidable group of sires, represented by their first crop of yearlings, who seem primed to leave a positive first impression. These include champion sprinter Aldebaran, Classic winner Empire Maker, Harlan's Holiday, Hold That Tiger, Kafwain, Mineshaft, Posse, Proud Citizen, Sky Mesa, Van Nistelrooy, champion Vindication--who is represented by no fewer than 82 yearlings, Whywhywhy and Yankee Gentleman. "I think it's one of the strongest freshman sire crops and I think there's strength through the whole market with them," said Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "You have the top guns...but then you have additional depth [with the freshmen]. It's a very strong group of horses this year." A.C.

Full Speed Ahead...

With a less-is-more approach, Fasig-Tipton got the 2006 yearling season off on a positive note, posting a 15-percent gain in average while the middle market surged by 20 percent. The momentum carried over to that auction house's Saratoga Selected Yearlings sale, as the average remained steady while the median rose by nearly nine percent. The OBS August sale improved on its performance from 2005 and, combined with very positive results from the yearling sales last month at Deauville and the recent Doncaster auction, there is much to look forward to. "I think globally the yearling market has been very strong. We are very pleased with that and that's a very good sign for our industry," Russell offered. "I think we're going to have a wonderful sale. I think the catalogue is very strong and I think we have a great quantity of quality at every level of the market." While Book 1 will feature its usual collections of exquisite pedigrees and results to light up the Keeneland tote board, the success of the sale will likely rest on its performance following the off day on Friday, Sept. 15. "All of the indicators suggest that the middle market will maintain what it's done in the last year. I would anticipate it would remain the same or maybe get a little bit better," Russell commented. "The quality of the horses is very high. We've made an effort to bump up the quality of the horses in Book 3 and we've tried to make it into a conformation class. With the day off, it's very important that we have a good individual in front of these buyers. You look through Book 1 and the pedigrees are spectacular and we think the individuals match. And then we think that carries on through. Book 2 is very good and then the middle-market Books 3, 4 and 5 are as well. So far, the middle market has been strong and we hope that will continue into this sale." A.C.

Racing Breeds Sales Success...

For each of the past seven renewals of the September sale, John Ferguson, bidding on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed, has gone home the leading buyer by gross, spending in excess of $185 million during that period of time. And there is little to suggest that will change, especially in light of the American success of horses racing in the blue silks of Godolphin and the maroon of Darley. Sheikh Mohammed celebrated his first American Classic victory when Bernardini stormed home in the GI Preakness S.;

John Ferguson

his brother, Sheikh Hamdan, was not to be outdone, as Jazil proved best in the GI Belmont S. three weeks later. The organization also boasted important victories by Sheikh Mohammed's Dubai Escapade and Discreet Cat and Sheikh Hamdan's Invasor (Arg), a treble Grade I winner this season, and is unlikely to be seen resting on its laurels at Keeneland. But the Coolmore juggernaut, which took the GI Hopeful S. with Circular Quay and yesterday's G1 Irish Champions S. with Irish Derby hero Dylan Thomas (Ire), will also prove a force to be reckoned with. Coolmore representative Dr. Demi O'Byrne nabbed the KEESEP sales topper four years running, from 2000 to 2003. Relative newcomers to the game such as Ahmed Zayat, whose Point Ashley took the GI Del Mar Debutante, and Jess Jackson are also likely to come out firing this week. "We hope that the streak of success for everybody encourages them to return to the marketplace and buy more," Geoffrey Russell commented. "The Maktoum family have made it known that the Classic success has whetted their appetite for American racing, so we'll be hoping that they will now be looking at not just buying horses to go to Europe to race, but that they'll buy American-type horses to keep here. Mr. Zayat had an unbelievable week and we hope that he'll buy more." Russell also added that there are some economic dynamics in place. "The exchange rate from the pound and the euro to the dollar is very favorable for the Europeans and we've been promoting that," he said. "We also feel that the quality of the American horses is superior, and we've made a major push to Southeast Asia-Hong Kong, Korea and Japan-and also domestically as well." A.C.

Winning the War...

When Jim Fleming, a retired Australian businessman who lives in Sydney, decided to take a dip in the American bloodstock market, he could have done worse than buying Warrior Queen. A champion sprinter in Ireland and England, the then-five-year-old was purchased by BBA Ireland's Adrian Nichol on behalf of Fleming for $2 million at the 2002 Keeneland November sale. Warrior Queen had slipped her first foal and, at the time of the sale, was in foal to A.P. Indy. The resulting offspring, later named A.P. Warrior, would earn back a good chunk of Warrior Queen's purchase price when knocked down to Stan Fulton for $1.3 million at the 2004 Keeneland September sale. A.P. Warrior rewarded Fulton with a tally in this year's GII San Felipe S. and was recently a game winner of the GII La Jolla S. Meanwhile, his year-younger half-sister by Storm Cat earned back the remainder of the Warrior Queen's price tag...and then some. At last year's September sale, the dark bay filly sold to Coolmore representative Demi O'Byrne for $3.8 million, giving Fleming a $5.1 million gross from Warrior Queen's first two yearlings.

Reiley McDonald and Tom VanMeter's Eaton Sales consigned Warrior Queen as a broodmare, and also consigned both of those seven-figure yearlings. McDonald said that the obvious physical appeal of the yearlings can be attributed in large part to their mother.

"The mare's gorgeous," he said. "Quiet American has turned into really an unbelievable broodmare sire, but they're not normally very refined. Warrior Queen is 16.1, very refined, a beautiful head, great top line, and very correct; plenty of bone, but not too much."

Fleming and Eaton return to the September sale this year with what McDonald calls another excellent representative of Warrior Queen. During tomorrow's opening session, the mare's dark bay filly by Storm Cat sells as hip 125. Asked if the filly reminded him of A.P. Warrior, McDonald said, "Actually, no. She's beautifully tall and balanced and leggy, but less of the length that A.P. Warrior had, but still quite leggy for a Storm Cat. She's very correct, also. She looks to me like she'd be one hell of a filly, whether she does it on the turf or the dirt, I don't know, but she's a stretchy, scopey Storm Cat, which so many of the really good ones have been."

Like her full-sister, hip 125 offers an interesting study for pedigree enthusiasts. Warrior Queen's second dam is Ocean's Answer, a three-parts sister to Storm Bird, the sire of Storm Cat. Hip 125 thus is inbred 3x4 to Storm Bird and Ocean's Answer's dam, the New Providence mare South Ocean. L.M.

The Loss of Lewis...

The 2006 Keeneland September sale will be the first in recent memory which will not be attended by Bob Lewis, who passed away this past February. "The absence of Mr. Lewis is a major absence on two fronts," Russell commented. "It's a major absence that he won't be here to buy some horses, but it's also a loss to the industry because he was such a wonderful ambassador for our industry. Forget about the auction aspect for a minute--for racing and the Thoroughbred industry, we will all miss his smile and great enthusiasm. But there are people who will come into the market and, while they will never replace him, they will fill the void that he's left. There will also be plenty of new faces." The legacy of Bob Lewis will live on during Monday's opening session when a colt by A.P. Indy from the couple's foundation mare Serena's Song goes under the hammer as hip 82 (see story that follows).

Reprise for Denali and Lewis...

It's been seven months since prominent owner Bob Lewis passed away, but his presence as both a breeder and, through his wife Beverly, as an owner, will continue to be felt for some time. Though he campaigned Kentucky Derby winners Charismatic and Silver Charm, perhaps the horse most identified with Lewis is the plucky filly Serena's Song. Small in stature, the daughter of Rahy was a giant on the racetrack, winning 11 Grade I events and banking over $3.2 million. In the breeding shed and sales ring, she's been no less prolific. Daughters Serena's Tune (Mr. Prospector) and Sophisticat (Storm Cat) were $1 million and $3.4 million yearlings, respectively, with the former becoming a stakes winner and Sophisticat winning the G1 Coronation S. in England.

Serena's Song's son Harlington (Unbridled), a $2.8 million yearling, won the 2006 GII Gulfstream Park H., and last year at this sale an as-yet-unraced daughter of Storm Cat, Colourful Score, made $3.5 million on John Ferguson's bid.

Over the years, the Lewises have entrusted Denali Stud's Craig and Holly Bandoroff to consign all of Serena's Song's sale yearlings, and the two couples developed a close relationship. The Lewises and Bandoroffs first met in the late 1980s, when Bob and Beverly attended a TOBA clinic that featured speaker Craig Bandoroff. Afterwards, Bob and Craig struck up a conversation, and quickly forged a lasting friendship. At the time, Craig says, he had no idea Bob Lewis would become such a major player in the game. "He wasn't in my end of the business, and I wasn't smart enough to know that someday he might be in our end of the business," said Bandoroff. "But we stayed in touch because I really liked him and wanted to make sure he was treated right--you know, 'Can I ever help you? Do you need any advice on anything?'--that kind of stuff."

When Serena's Song was retired at the end of the 1996 season, the Lewises opted to board her at Denali in Paris, Kentucky, a significant coup for a nursery that had been launched just six years before.

"He took a leap of faith with Serena's Song, because, although we had a reputation for running a good farm and doing a good job, we didn't have the reputation we have today," said Bandorff. "I think it would have been easy for him to send her to Lane's End or Taylor Made, but he sent her to us. I think he always liked Holly and admired our work ethic. And I like to think that he saw a little bit of him and Beverly in Holly and I."

Bandoroff added, "We've had numerous clients who have had a big impact on our careers: Barry Weisbord, Mr. [R.D.] Hubbard, the Snowdens [Guy & Diane], but Mr. Lewis gave us as much quality or more quality than anybody ever has."

According to Bandoroff, an example of that quality can be found in hip 82, a son of Serena's Song by leading sire A.P. Indy.

"As hot as A.P. Indy is, and as good as this colt is, it would be hard not to be optimistic about him," he said. "He's selling a little earlier than I'd like, but we'll test him early and see how we do."

Despite the high expectations, Bandoroff said that the sale of hip 82 wouldn't be without a touch of sadness with Mr. Lewis gone.

"There's going to be a lot of sentimentality on my part not having him there to go through the exercise of selling this colt," he said. "We'll go through it like we always have, but it'll be different than when Mr. Lewis was around. We've had a lot of luck together." L.M.

Farmer Hoping Pegasus Colt Takes Flight...

Tracy Farmer is no stranger to the Keeneland sales pavilion, having purchased GISW Albert the Great for a mere $85,000 from this auction in 1998 and Sun King, a three-time graded-stakes winner and seven times place in Grade I company, for $410,000 at the January Horses of All Ages sale. Also the owner of such prominent horses as GI Whitney H. hero Commentator and MGSW Sir Shackleton, Farmer, 67, somewhat uncharacteristically finds himself back at Keeneland with hip 45, a colt by Fusaichi Pegausa-No Knocks (A.P. Indy), which he acquired for $685,000 as a weanling at last year's November Breeding Stock sale. "It is a little bit unusual for Mr. Farmer to be pinhooking, but he liked this colt and he's here to sell," said Case Clay of Three Chimneys, which consigns the colt Monday afternoon. "He's a very athletic horse with a great body and an athletic walk. He looks like he can be a Classic-type horse. He's always been very straight-forward. He looked outstanding when we got him a couple of months ago and he's pretty much stayed the same. He's the first foal from a mare by A.P. Indy with stallion potential." Indeed, under the colt's second dam are a pair of established sires. A grandson of Never Knock, the dark bay is therefore from the family of Pleasant Tap, sire of recent GI Whitney H. hero Premium Tap, as well as GI Kentucky Derby winner Go for Gin. A.C.

Blum Colt Has a Lot of Sass...

Peter Blum knows a thing or two about a good horse. After growing up in the same Long Island, New York neighborhood as Bobby Frankel, Blum purchased his first horse while still a student at the University of North Carolina and made his first splash on the racing scene when Life Cycle, a horse he bought for just $1,400, defeated Cougar II in the 1973 Hollywood Invitational. The trainer? Bobby Frankel.

The following year, Blum got his formal start in the breeding business when he bought the broodmare Mono, who would go on to produce Rare Performer and Mine Only. He is also the breeder of GI Ashland winner Well Chosen and $4-million earner Devil His Due.

Back in 2004, Blum watched with interest as Madcap Escapade won her first two career starts for fun and approached Bill Betz, who bred the Hennessy filly in the name of his Needham/Betz Thoroughbreds, to see if her dam, Sassy Pants (Saratoga Six), was for sale.

"I asked [bloodstock agent] Mark Maronde if he could try to buy the mare and he called Bill Betz and we tried buying her for a few months," Blum explained. "We were persistent and eventually Mr. Betz agreed to sell and it was a deal that took place in a day. I thought I paid a fair price for her."

At the time, Sassy Pants, a multiple stakes winner of $239,384, was carrying a foal by High Yield, a colt now named High Estate and moving towards his race-track debut in New York for trainer Bruce Levine. A late foal, he was entered for last year's September sale, but Blum was forced to withdraw him because he "looked a bit narrow." But now, Blum says, "he looks like a man."

During the summer of 2004, Blum decided to breed Sassy Pants to Empire Maker, the Juddmonte homebred son of Unbridled-Toussaud, whom he admired off his victories in the GI Florida Derby, GI Wood Memorial and GI Belmont S. and runner-up effort in the GI Kentucky Derby the previous year. The result is a striking bay colt, consigned to the sale by Gerry Dilger's Dromoland Farm and set to sell

Hip 307 Lucas Marquardt

Tuesday as hip 307,.

"He is a phenomenal prospect," Blum said. "He looks like a racehorse. He's got a lot of presence and Gerry has liked him from day one. He's almost a June foal [May 24], so you'd like to have a few months for him to catch up, but he's fantastic." A.C.

Missed Opportunity at Barretts...

Like many others in March 2004, Blum found himself absolutely smitten with Sassy Pants's Awesome Again filly, who turned in a monster breeze ahead of that year's Barretts Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale.

"We didn't expect her to go for $2 million," Blum admitted. "At the time, Awesome Again wasn't doing so well and we thought we had a real chance to buy her and we didn't expect that kind of competition. I was surprised she brought that kind of money."

A short time later, and for a sum at least very close to or more than Sheikh Mohammed's winning bid, Blum owned Sassy Pants.

Things have gotten even better this year. Dubai Escapade, whose career had been more stop than start at two and three, has thrown her name into championship consideration with five wins from six outings, including a tour-de-force, 8 1/2-length victory in the GI Ballerina Breeders' Cup H. at Saratoga. Blum is counting his blessings.

"You're never sure about anything in this business, but when it does turn out, you enjoy it because you don't expect it," he stated. "It's been an unbelievable feeling--when you think how can a horse do any better, along comes a half-sister that runs such a dominant race at Saratoga." A.C.

The Best Is Yet to Come?...

As hopeful as Blum is about Tuesday's session, he has more still to look forward to. Sassy Pants is the dam of a 2006 filly by Giant's Causeway, named Deja Vu, and is in foal to Storm Cat, carrying a colt, according to Blum. Sassy Pants holds an entry in this year's November sale, but is no cinch to go under the hammer.

"I'm struggling with the idea of selling her this November," he admits. "The only reason I can think about it is that the filly of this year is so nice. It's just so hard to part with a mare like this." A.C.

Polytrack Not the Only New Addition...

While the Keeneland main track readies for its first meeting over the Polytrack in about four weeks' time, Keeneland has also been busy upgrading the facilities on the backstretch, with some direct application to the sales. "We redesigned the loading chutes," Geoff Russell explained. "We have more people that use goose-neck trailers, so we wanted a place where they could park and unload their horses. We wanted them to be able to use both sides of the loading docks, so we redesigned that. We put in a horse path so the horses wouldn't have to be on blacktop in between fence lines." Additionally, consignors and their employees are now able to access the Internet from the barns. "We are also in the process of making the whole campus wireless in the tack rooms. You're here for two weeks and the world doesn't end because you're at the Keeneland sale, so we want to make sure people have facility to do everything and, while most of our work this year was done on the racetrack, we wanted to do a couple of things to improve the sales experience here." A.C.

Quarter Main Attraction...

For an operation its size, Don Robinson's Winter Quarter Farm has had a remarkable run of international success in 2006. Overarching, a filly that was co-bred by Robinson and raised and sold by Winter Quarter, was named champion older female sprinter in South Africa and has won several important Group 1s in that country. The Lear Fan colt Rob Roy, another raised and sold by Winter Quarter, won the G2 Sandown Mile earlier this year and recently was third in the G1 Sussex S. in England. On the domestic front, a number of horses that were brought up at Winter Quarter and hailed from its consignments have added to the list of credentials. Balance, a $260,000 Keeneland September yearling, won the GI Las Virgenes S. and GI Santa Anita Oaks, while Storm Treasure, a $75,000 Keeneland November weanling, was runner-up in the GI Blue Grass S. In addition, T.H. Approval, raised at the farm, has won a trio of Grade II races this term.

Impressive, especially considering that Winter Quarter consigns just 12 to 15 horses each year and has about 35 resident mares at its Lexington, Kentucky farm. Located on 276 acres adjacent to Military Pike, Winter Quarter was first purchased by Don Robinson's father in 1948 before Don took over in the late 1970s. Today, Winter Quarter does a little bit of everything, from boarding mares for clients like George Strawbridge during the breeding season (which about doubles its mare population), to consigning to various sales, to advising on bloodstock purchases.

A year ago at this sale, Winter Quarter, wearing its consignor hat, hit one out of the park with an Unbridled's Song/Escrow Agent half to MGISW Vicar that John Ferguson Bloodstock purchased for $1.7 million. Winter Quarter returns with a half-sister to that horse, a dark bay filly from the first crop of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile champ Vindication.

"The people who have looked at her say that she's really quite nice," said Robinson, who is assisted at Keeneland by his son Ferran. "She has a lot of length and real quality."

Cataloged as hip 193, the filly was bred in Kentucky by Waterville Lake Stables, an East Coast-based operation that is the breeder of all four horses in Winter Quarter's Book 1 consignment. Comprised of three businessmen who "like to stay out of the spotlight," said Robinson, Waterville Lake first got into the breeding business a decade ago. The first broodmare it ever purchased was none other than Escrow Agent, a stakes-placed, then-10-year-old daughter of El Gran Senor who Robinson selected out of the 1996 Keeneland January sale. A $115,000 buy, Escrow Agent was carrying a Wild Again foal that turned out to be Vicar, winner of the 1999 GI Florida Derby and GI Fountain of Youth S.

"I thought at the time I paid too much for her," laughed Robinson. "She's kind of an ugly mare, but she throws magnificent foals. She's been phenomenal for us, and she's still prolific."

Thanks in part to Vicar's success, Escrow Agent has indeed been good to Waterville Lake and Winter Quarter. Her six colts to go through the ring (two fillies were retained for breeding purposes) grossed a total of $4.19 million, including Vicar ($260,000 in 1997), Official Visit ($1.1 million in 2000), and last year's Corporate Trust, who has not raced. Hip 193 is the first filly out of the mare to be offered at sale by Waterville Stables.

"We already have two daughters of Escrow Agent, and the fact the she's by a first-crop sire, which are usually very popular commercially, was certainly a factor," said Robinson.

Interestingly, Don Robinson's family plays a small part in Kentucky Derby lore. One of the Derby's most controversial, if not entertaining, runnings was in 1933, when jockey Don Meade, aboard the maiden Brokers Tip, exchanged blows with fellow jockey Herb W. Fisher on Head Play as they roared down the Churchill Downs stretch. Meade won the battle and the war when stewards were unable to determine which jockey was at fault and left up Brokers Tip's number (click for video, courtesy www.whas11.com).

Fisher and Head Play had to settle for second, as did the runner-up's owner, Don Robinson's grandmother, Mrs. Silas B. Mason. L.M.

Revved Up, winner of the GII Niagara Breeders' Cup H. last term, opened his 2006 season with three-length win in the Chris Thomas Turf Classic S. at Tampa Bay May 6. He added a Belmont optional claimer June 23 and, in his most recent, was a well-beaten sixth over the soft going in the GII Northern Dancer S. at Woodbine July 23. Looking to rebound here, the veteran gelding settled in a mid-pack position and was up by a neck after a strong late rally. Revved Up notched the first half of the family double at Monmouth, as younger brother and fellow millionaire Miesque's Approval (Miesque's Son) won the GIII Red Bank H. later on the card. Spanish Lullaby cleared the maiden hurdle in her second trip to the post over Monmouth's main track June 17, then was third in a NW1X going six panels July 20. A move to the lawn yielded a win against allowance foes Aug. 17 and it was right into stakes company for the three-year-old chestnut. Away alertly, she held a narrow advantage while dueling to the outside of Acquileia up the backstretch. Put to a drive in upper stretch, she kept on finding more as she fought off her early rival and opened up to hand Lucy Valentine the 1 3/4-length defeat.

LEGER DAY A SUCCESS Officials at York were pleased with a highly successful two-day St Leger meeting, transferred for one year due to Doncaster's redevelopment. Yesterday's crowd stood at 31,046, while the total over the Friday and Saturday was 48,311. "It's been a fabulous day and exceeded all our expectations," commented York Racecourse's Chief Executive William Derby. "The racing has been tremendous and it was fantastic to see Frankie riding a three-timer. We're very proud to have held the world's oldest Classic, and it's been a great effort by the team here to have turned the course round in two weeks from our Ebor Meeting for the two days of the Ladbrokes St Leger Festival that have been 10 months in the planning. It's always nice to see smiling racegoers and there has also been a real sense of Yorkshire pride amongst our team, who know that this has been their once in a generation chance to stage a Classic."

- Tax Free broke his second track record of the week here, having already achieved that feat when winning a five-furlong conditions event at Leicester four days previously. A highly progressive three-year-old, he rattled up a hat trick of wins in increasingly valuable handicaps over six and seven furlongs at Doncaster, Newmarket and York last summer. The upward trend continued this term when third in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket May 6 and G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly June 4. Fourth in the Aug. 27 Listed Beverley Bullet Sprint S. on his penultimate start, he raced close up early and was driven out to lead approaching the furlong marker. Pressed by last year's winner Ashdown Express out wide in the closing stages, he gave extra when asked to prevail.

At the ripe age of eight, Fantasy Believer is finding a rich vein of form, winning handicaps at Pontefract July 11 and at Goodwood Aug. 4 and Aug. 26. Held up in rear by Jimmy Quinn throughout the early stages, the veteran turned on the after burners to inhale the majority of the field and lead approaching the furlong marker. Surging clear thereafter, he had the race in safe keeping as One Putra stayed on at one pace and the favorite Hogmaneigh closed out of the pack. "It's amazing, but he seems to have become quicker at the age of eight," trainer John Quinn said. "He's been better than ever this season and will now go for the Ayr Gold Cup next Saturday."

ROHAANI (c, 4, High Yield--Strawberry's Charm, by Strawberry Road {Aus}) was returning from a break when unplaced in handicaps at Goodwood Aug. 4 and here at the Ebor meeting 20 days later. Sent off the 5-1 joint-second favorite, he was positioned in a stalking second early before being allowed to stride to the front with three furlongs remaining. Keeping up the gallop thereafter, the $160,000 KESEP yearling was always holding Topatoo (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) in the closing stages and had a length to spare at the line. "He was back up in trip today and that suited him," jockey Richard Hills said. "He is a big, imposing sort of horse and has given some trouble at the gate before but, all credit to the team, they seem to have sorted him out and he broke well today." The winner is a half to Strawberry Morn (Travelling Victor), MSW, $501,720. Lifetime Record: 9-4-1-0, £55,164.

Formerly with Dermot Weld, King of Tory failed to build on early promise and found his way to Edward Lynam's yard for his four-year-old campaign, which started inauspiciously with a second in Killarney claimer July 18. Making strides thereafter, he ran third in the valuable Aug. 6 Galway H. before filling the same spot in the Irish Cambridgeshire H. at The Curragh last time Aug. 27. Breaking smartly here, he was restrained to take a tow from the leading group by Chris Hayes and was short of room against the fence at the top of the stretch. When the gap appeared, he delivered a sustained challenge which carried him past the long-time leader Orpailleur in the final 150 yards.

 a 10-furlong event to her tally July 1. Her run was halted when down the field in a similar contest at this track last time Aug. 20, but she regained the winning thread stepped up in trip once again here. Awkward out of the gates and trailing early, she made steady progress under Johnny Murtagh and challenged wide at the top of the stretch. Grabbing the lead with a furlong remaining, she was soon clear and had settled the result by the time Karawana emerged late on.

Fly Free faced some well-regarded newcomers and some fillies with vital racing experience here, but there was market confidence and she started as the 5-1 joint-second favorite. Showing professionalism to break smartly and dispute the early lead, the 20,000gns TATDEC weanling and €85,000 GOFORB yearling took over at the top of the straight and quickened clear in impressive fashion to record a 4½-length success from Muluk (Ire) (Rainbow Quest).
