CACIQUE HEADED TO BANSTEAD MANOR

Juddmonte Farm's Cacique (Ire) (Danehill--Hasili {Ire}, by Kahyasi {Ire}), impressive winner of Saturday's GI Man o' War S., will head to Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket at the end of the season, according to Juddmonte Racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe. Speaking after the G2 Prix Niel victory of the stable's Rail Link (GB), Grimthorpe confirmed, "[Cacique] will be retired at the end of the season to stand at Banstead Manor Stud." The five-year-old started his career in France, winning three group races and placing in Group 1 company three times. Second in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill in May, he recorded his first success at the highest level when taking the June 10 GI Manhattan H. at Belmont Park. The bay was runner-up in both the GI United Nations S. and GI Arlington Million before adding to his resume with a 1 3/4-length score in the Man o' War (video). Cacique is expected to make his next appearance in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Turf.

MAN, SHE'S GOOD

Princess Zahra Aga Khan could have the chance to win her first G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe--Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) is just that good. The homebred bay filly once again proved her worth in yesterday's G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp. Stepping back up in trip after an impressive success in the G1 Prix d'Astarte over Deauville's straight mile, the 10-6 pick was in no danger after being freed from the crowd by Christophe Soumillon in the stretch. Never shown the whip, she was allowed to freewheel to the line under a hand ride for a facile 1 1/2-length score. "It's the first time I've seen her race, and she's a fresh filly who has proved all her quality," Princess Zahra commented. "She is not in the Arc, but I will discuss supplementing her with my father." Cont. p2

EX-SEPT-IONAL SALE ON TAP AT KEENELAND

A record 5,161 yearlings have been catalogued for the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, which gets underway this morning in Lexington. The catalogue for the 15-day auction--which includes a dark day Friday, Sept. 15--is the largest in Keeneland history, surpassing the previous record of 5,111 which were booked for the 2001 November Breeding Stock sale. The number of horses catalogued for this year's event is 51 greater than the September record 5,110 which were set to go under the hammer last year, and includes 2,704 colts and 2,457 fillies. "The September Yearling Sale is the ultimate Thoroughbred yearling auction," commented Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales. "It offers an unparalleled selection of quality individuals at all levels of the market, allowing buyers to fill their orders at one location." He continues, "Such strong participation from buyers--both principals and representatives--from every corner of the world makes Keeneland September the global marketplace for yearlings."

The $9.7-million sales-topper in 2005 millridge.com

Large Shoes to Fill..

The 2005 September Sale established new industry records for total gross receipts ($384.3 million), average ($108,420) and median ($40,000). A colt by Storm Cat out of Tranquility Lake (Rahy) was knocked down to Sheikh Mohammed for $9.7 million; that colt, consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, was one of 40 youngsters to achieve a seven-figure price tag, also a record. Russell admits that will be a tough act to follow. "Last year was a world-record sale, so it would be a little bit greedy of me to say it's going to be better this year," he commented. "I think people will be able to buy what they want at every level and at the end of the day, the most important thing is that we have buyers that go home happy and sellers that go home happy." Cont. p9

Pool Land, a creditable third in her first try against Grade I company in the July 30 GI Go For Wand H., got the job done yesterday with a two-length victory over favored Take D'Tour. The four-year-old filly broke sharply and was ridden to the front by jockey John Velazquez. She pressured Take D'Tour and jockey Cornelio Velasquez through fractions of :22.71, :45.79, 1:10.38 and 1:35.27 and spurted clear for the win. "I wanted to keep enough pressure on [Velasquez] so that he could settle her, but have to have her run at the same time," Velazquez explained. "His horse was breathing pretty hard; mine was handling it pretty easy. She was going really good. At the eighth pole, I gave her a little bit and she went on." Pool Land began her career with three straight victories last winter, but suffered her first loss when sixth in the Mar. 18 GII Shirley Jones Breeders' Cup H. She began a new streak with a 12-length triumph in Keeneland's Apr. 19 Doubledogdare S. and a one-length tally in the May 19 GIII Allaire DuPont Breeders' Cup Distaff H. She pressed Take D'Tour early in the Go For Wand, before tiring to third. Take D'Tour will likely return to Belmont for the Oct. 7 GI Beldame, while Pool Land may wait for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. Mandesha was campaigned over middle distances initially, graduating on her second start at Saint-Cloud May 29 before taking the Listed Prix Urban Sea at le Lion d'Angers June 13. Both performances were characterised by her superior acceleration, and that trait was exploited when dropped in trip for the July 2 G3 Prix Chloe over 1 1/8 miles. Disqualified by the stewards after finishing first on that occasion, she proved equally adept over a mile when annexing the July 30 G1 Prix d'Astarte on her latest outing. Kept to the rail throughout the early stages while buried in mid-division, she used her natural speed to extricate herself from traffic before the squeeze began in the pack. Quickening on demand to take over with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, she was clear in a matter of strides and was being geared down in the final 50 yards as Montare closed to fill the runner-up spot. Trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre paid tribute to Mandesha. "She is a really classy filly and showed in the d'Astarte that she has a lot of speed," he commented. "She showed here that she stays very well and is a dream to train. We will discuss supplementing her for the [Oct. 1] Arc with her owners." Also Ran: Divine Story (Fr), Near Honor (Ger).

Shirocco led home Hurricane Run in this fine-tuning for the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, which will prove an entirely different test over this course and distance in three weeks' time. Maintaining his unbeaten record since finishing fourth behind his barn mate in the 2005 renewal of the Arc, Shirocco raced in second off the moderate fractions set by the rabbit Near Honor (Ger) (Highest Honor {Fr}) before taking over at the quarter pole. Joined by Hurricane Run soon after, he gave a vital surge and was always holding that rival as Pride swooped widest of all in a hands-and-heels finale. Shirocco has been lightly campaigned since winning the 2004 G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg, and was having only his ninth start when besting Ace (Ire) and Azamour (Ire) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Belmont in October. Untroubled on his five-year-old bow in Newmarket's May 7 G2 Jockey Club S., he was racing for the first time here since his defeat of Ouija Board (GB) in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 2. Connections are keeping their eye firmly on the main prize. "Since last year, the goal has been to run here on the first Sunday in October," owner-breeder Georg von Ullmann explained. "We have built his program to have him fresh and ready to go on that day, and we need luck and good health, but so far it has worked out. Mr Fabre preferred this race to the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden and he is the champion trainer, so I have to go with him. After the Arc, there is a chance we might run in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic [at Churchill Downs Nov. 4]." Fabre, who was winning this trial for the sixth time since 1989, was pleased with both stable stars. "I'm very happy with Shirocco and Hurricane Run, who ran a great race also," he said. "Both will go to the Arc now and there is a strong chance that Shirocco will run in the Classic, which will be a lot of fun." Pride's trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre was delighted with the mare, who was returning for the first time since besting Hurricane Run in the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. "She has run a great race and has proven again that she is in the same league as these horses," he said. "The ground was against her today and if she's well in three weeks, she'll run in the Arc." Andre Fabre has an embarrassment of riches to take to the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe over this track and trip Oct. 1 after Rail Link came through his prep with aplomb. Like the afternoon's G1 Prix Vermeille scorer Mandesha, Rail Link has done all his racing during his sophomore term and has improved during the summer months. Building on a Saint-Cloud conditions success May 29, he registered a smooth victory in the G3 Prix du Lys June 20 before returning to produce another convincing display when annexing the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris. Breaking well here, Rail Link was steadied off the even tempo set by Dragon Dancer (GB) (Sadler's Wells) before being moved up to join that rival in the back straight. Traveling strongly when left in front at the quarter pole, he quickened decisively soon after and was always holding the determined effort of Youmzain in the closing stages. "I will talk to Prince Khalid, but he will most probably run in the Arc, as it is the right thing to do," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said. "He's won well, traveling and quickening very nicely and his form is solid, so he'll have to take his chance. I think he might not like it if it comes up too soft, but we'll see in time." As close as the Lassie was three races earlier, the Futurity was even closer as Officer Rocket, 13-length winner of the Aug. 20 Spectacular Bid S. over this track, and Got the Last Laugh, a debut winner at Saratoga in his only previous start Aug. 19, hit the wire together. Favored Officer Rocket raced in midpack as Got the Last Laugh was always within striking distance. Got the Last Laugh stuck his head in front in upper stretch and refused to let the favorite in front as they crossed the wire in a dead heat. "When I got by [Street Sense] on the outside, he started waiting for another horse," explained Rene Douglas, aboard Got the Last Laugh. "He just likes a little competition, but he's a little horse with a big heart and he's going to get even better." Mark Guidry, aboard the favorite, said, "I thought I had the other horse at the wire, but then they were real quick to put the dead-heat up." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Lisa M aired by five lengths with a front-running performance in her debut at this track July 14, but was derailed with a non-threatening fourth-place effort in the Aug. 20 Top Flight S. last time out. Disregarded at 35-1, the chestnut filly dropped back to last and trailed the field until the stretch. She weaved her way through traffic down the lane and just nailed Sutra at the wire. "They told me to break out of the gate, ease her back because there was a lot of speed in the race, save a lot of ground and call her when I was ready," explained winning rider Carlos Marquez. "When I called her, she gave me everything she had." Sutra took over a furlong from home, but came up the narrowest bit short at the wire. "My filly fought all the way until the end," said the filly's jockey Shaun Bridgmohan. "I thought it could go either way."

Majestic Missile, who took the G3 Cornwallis S. and G3 Molecomb S. as a juvenile, showed a spark of past glories to provide Christophe Soumillon with his fourth stakes of the afternoon and fifth win on the Longchamp card. Majestic Missile's performances over the past three years have been hit and miss, but he found a seam of form at this stage of last season when third in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York in August and when winning the Listed Scarborough S. at Doncaster the following month. Rebounding from a disappointing effort when down the field in the Aug. 3 G3 King George V S. at Goodwood, he was always traveling strongly against the inside rail as he kept tabs on the pace set by Peace Offering. When asked, he responded instantly to inhale that rival in the final 50 yards for a snug success. "It's nice to see him back to what he was," trainer William Haggas's wife and assistant Maureen said. "He's been on and off, but he really looked good before the race and Christophe Soumillon gave him a brilliant ride. All being well, he'll head to stud at the end of the year, but first he'll come back here in three weeks' time for the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye. He had a terrible draw in it last year and hopefully the ground will stay like this."

Le Miracle was campaigned mainly over a mile in Germany at three and it was not until recording a brace of successes in claimers at Saint-Cloud May 15 and at this track June 8 that he demonstrated his liking for extreme trips. Following up in a conditions event at Clairefontaine July 7, he was successful on his first try at stakes level 20 days later in the Listed Prix la Moskowa at Chantilly. Third in the G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville last time Aug. 20, he traveled easily behind the early fractions under a confident Dominique Boeuf and was full of run at the top of the straight. Quickening to lead passing the quarter pole, he turned on the power to decide the issue as Salutino stayed on his wake. The winner will return for the Oct. 1 G1 Prix du Cadran on the Arc undercard. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Godolphin's runners are excelling at present, and Pictavia typified the well-being of the string when emerging victorious from a stretch-long duel with Road to Love. Sent to the front early by Frankie Dettori, she was joined and passed by that foe with a half mile remaining and looked booked for second as the colt started to draw away. But the filly, spurred on by the presence of Crosspeace, dug in late to overcome both the runner-up and the tiring Road to Love in the final strides. Last year's G1 Epsom Oaks third Pictavia was winning her third stakes of the season, having taken the Listed Hoppings S. at Newcastle June 29 and Listed Upavon Fillies' S. at Salisbury Aug. 16 either side of a third in Newmarket's July 22 Listed Aphrodite S. "She showed fantastic determination--what a brave performance," Dettori said. "Pictavia always runs a good race and is improving."

Collier Hill contested this race two years ago and had to work hard to get the better of Foreign Affairs (GB) and earn a short-head success, but it was plain sailing this time for the improved veteran. Last year's G1 Irish St Leger hero was still seeking his first win this term, having finished third in the Aug. 13 G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne before failing by a neck to give nine pounds to the smart Wunderwood when second in a conditions event at Salisbury 18 days later. Staying close to the pace throughout the early stages, he was committed at the head of affairs with a half mile remaining and drew clear for an unchallenged score.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

ICON TO WOODBINE? Paul and Susan Roy's G1 St Leger winner Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) could be in line for a tilt at the Oct. 22 GI Canadian International, trainer Jeremy Noseda revealed yesterday. While Saturday's Classic hero could yet be supplemented for the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp, connections are considering the alternative of the mile-and-a-half Woodbine contest. "It was a class performance and he never looked in any danger of defeat," Noseda said of Saturday's score. "He picked up nicely and appeared to win a shade comfortably. Without any question, he continues to improve. It is a great result for the yard and rewards the team at home for all their hard work. It is also great for the owners Paul and Susan Roy, who are big supporters of the yard. We will get the horse back home and assess whether we will have a crack at the Arc, for which he would have to be supplemented. The other possible race in my mind would be the International at Woodbine in late October."

Parting is Such Sweet Sorrow...

Purchased in 1988 by the late Allen Paulson for $750,000 as a Keeneland July yearling, the Mr. Prospector mare Garimpeiro has been good to the Paulson family. Her first foal, by Allen Paulson's Theatrical (Ire), was Geri, a Grade I winner on both turf and dirt. That cross also produced stakes-winner Clure and GSP Stage Shy. To the cover of A.P. Indy, Garimpeiro produced A.P. Arrow, runner-up in last year's GII Super Derby, and there's a 3/4-brother to that colt by Vindication selling this afternoon as hip 212.

Hip 212 L Marquardt

"He's gorgeous. The more I look at him, the more I want to keep him," said Paulson's son Michael, who watched potential buyers inspect his offering while at Hill 'n' Dale's Barn 8 yesterday afternoon. Michael Paulson is the primary trustee of the Allen E. Paulson Living Trust, which bred hip 212. The Paulsons have brought several of Garimpeiro's offspring to the marketplace (Stage Shy was a $725,000 yearling; A.P. Arrow RNA'd for $475,000 in 2003), but Michael Paulson said it will be especially tough parting with hip 212. "I feel like I'm looking at the 2008 Derby winner," he said. "You wish you could keep all of them, but you can't." With a laugh, he added, "I've got a lot of that family and I wanted to share some of it." Cont. p10

A Taylor Made Mating...

The Taylor Made connection to the mare Goulash began in 1998 when the agency consigned the six-time winner and Grade III-placed runner to the 1998 Keeneland January sale, where she was sold for $100,000. Since then, the Taylor family operation has sold very successfully from the mare, including champion Ashado, both as a KEESSEP yearling for $170,000 and for $9 million at last year's November Breeding Stock sale; SW Saint Stephen; and the stakes-placed duo of Storm Creek Rising and Ballado's Halo. Also the dam of Aaron and Marie Jones's Sunriver, winner of this year's GII Peter Pan S., Goulash is represented during today's opening session by a gray son of Unbridled's Song. The decision to breed to that stallion, who stands at Taylor Made, was an obvious one in theory, but how did the two mesh in practice? "She's an amazing mare in that if you look at her, she's kind of like a sponge for the stallion and lets him produce the best of what he can produce," commented Mark Taylor. "Ashado was a beautifully balanced filly with a big hip-- if you bred to Saint Ballado, that's what you wanted to get. When [Goulash] was bred to Storm Creek--he was a Storm Cat-looking horse and a little heavier than most-- but her foal was the best Storm Creek I'd ever seen." Speaking about today's offering, he continued, "We've got a picture of Unbridled's Song and this colt is a spitting image of him. Good mares let the stallion do their thing and that's fantastic, scary even." Some horses are sold with not-so-obvious defects, but hip 220 comes with a very apparent "flaw," as he has no left eye. Romping in the paddock one day, he was kicked and the vision could not be saved. The incident may have served to toughen him up, Taylor suggests. "Out in the field with the other colts, he's the alpha male, the dominant character all the time," he says. "He's got so much class and he'll be a fun one to follow up on down the road." Taylor doesn't expect the loss of vision to be an obstacle to the colt's career. "I think the clear conclusion is that it won't affect him. He's got the body, the angle and the athleticism to be a real runner."

Mill Ridge Has Double D Power...

Danzig and Deputy Minister both had storied careers as stallions whose offspring were also extremely popular at the sales. Both covered their last mares in 2004, and this is the final year that buyers will have the opportunity to purchase yearlings by the dynamic duo. Mill Ridge Sales has a yearling by each in its Book 1 consignment: hip 120, a colt by Danzig, and hip 439, a colt by Deputy Minister. Mill Ridge's Bayne Welker said the former is a sterling representative for his sire. The bay is out of GSP Unify (Farma Way),

Welker L Marquardt

a half-sister to graded stakes winners Caress, Country Cat, Della Francesca and Bernstein. In addition to possessing a strong female family, Welker said the colt is helped by the fact that Danzig is having a good year both here and in Europe, with the likes of GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt Breeders' Cup H. winner War Front and the talented G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp hero Librettist. "The fact that it's Danzig's last crop is significant, but also the market always tilts to a horse that has activity around it," said Welker. "Even though he could have been the greatest sire that was, when they get cool, it's kind of like out of sight, out of mind. The business is a little bit fickle that way. It's 'What have you done for me lately?' But Danzig's having a terrific year, both here and in Europe." Talking about hip 120, Welker said, "He's a colt with a stallion's pedigree. He's got a nice amount of leg to me, a nice walk and a lot of presence to him. He's a pretty imposing individual." Welker said he's also excited about hip 439, who was produced by the Carson City mare Easter Bunnette. "He's a little more forward-looking," he said. "He looks more like a miler--some of that Carson City coming out in him. He's heavily muscled and looks like he could be a very fast two-year-old."

Remembering Comair 5191...

The unfortunate events of the early-morning hours of Sunday, August 26, resulted in the loss of 49 lives just across the street from Keeneland. As has been reported, among those that perished were George Brunacini of Bona Terra Farms and consignor Dan Mallory. Both operations are pressing on with consignments at Keeneland and Bona Terra is represented this afternoon by hip 123. A chestnut filly by Fusaichi Pegasus, the Apr. 15 foal is a daughter of Verbality (Verbatim), and is a half-sister to Verbasle, the dam of GI Florida Derby winner High Fly; and Estimraar, a dual Group 3 winner in Dubai. The two consignors will be sorely missed, said Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "The crash of 5191 will be with us all through the sale and for some time to come," he commented. "Dan and George were great clients and great friends. They always worked hard to put a good product in front of everybody and they will be sorely missed for their work ethic and family values as well as their involvement in the Thoroughbred industry. They were both very hard-working and they let their work speak for itself. It was just awful news and it will be with us for a long time."

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 29, c, Dynaformer--Miss Du Bois, by Mr. Prospector
 Consigned by Gracefield, agent
 B-Philip Steinberg (KY)

The bay colt is a brother to Film Maker, winner of the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at three and graded stakes in each of the last three years at the races. Runner-up in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf in 2004 and third in that event last year, she was most recently second in the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington. Breeder Philip Steinberg acquired Miss Du Bois for $90,000 at the 2000 Keeneland November Sale, but RNA'd the mare for $2.5 million at last year's November sale.

Hip 60, c, Storm Cat--Preach, by Mr. Prospector
 Consigned by Claiborne Farm, agent
 B-Claiborne Farm (KY)

This colt is a half-brother to Claiborne Farm's successful sire Pulpit, a son of A.P. Indy. Out of GI Frizette S. winner Preach, the Apr. 25 foal is from the extended family of Storm Cat-line stallions Tale of the Cat (by Storm Cat) and Johannesburg (by Hennessy).

Hip 81, c Empire Maker--Script, by Storm Cat
 Consigned by Dromoland Farm, agent
 B-Peter Blum (KY)

From the Blum foundation family of Well Chosen, Tomahawk and Rare Performer, the dark bay is bred on the same cross responsible for GISW Buddha, Birdstone and Saturday's GI Garden City BC S. winner Magnificent Song. "He's the kind of colt you want to stand and look at all day long," his breeder commented. "He's got a great walk, he's an awesome-looking horse and he's been that way from day one. Gerry [Dilger] and his team have done a wonderful job preparing him for the sale and we all have very high hopes."

Hip 82, c, A.P. Indy--Serena's Song, by Rahy
 Consigned by Denali Stud (Craig & Holly Banderoff), agent for the Bob & Beverly Lewis Trust
 B-Robert & Beverly Lewis (KY)

The eighth foal out of champion mare Serena's Song, this Mar. 4 colt is a half to Grade I winner Sophisticat, graded winners Grand Reward and Harlington (winner of this year's GII Gulfstream Park H.), as well as stakes-winner Serena's Tune.

Hip 83, c, Vindication--Serena's Tune, by Mr. Prospector
 Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent
 B-Hill 'n' Dale Farm & Edward McGhee (KY)

The third foal out of Serena's Tune, a $1-million 1999 KEEJUL yearling daughter of the inimitable Serena's Song who went on to win a trio of stakes. The first two out of the mare, both by Storm Cat, realized $1.4 million (Serena's Cat as a KEENOV weanling) and $3.1 million (Mutawahej at this sale last year). "She's been really well-received," said Hill 'n' Dale's John Sikura, who stands hip 83's sire at his Lexington farm. "He's like a lot of the Vindications--really typey, athletic horses with good angles, a good walk, and really good dispositions."

Hip 98, c, Fusaichi Pegasus--Squawk, by Mountain Cat
 Consigned by Gainesway, Agent I
 B-Castleton Lyons (KY)

As a $460,000 Keeneland November weanling, this bay is the co-fourth-highest-priced pinhook in Book 1.

B.G.H. Ranch purchased the colt, who was produced by an unraced half-sister to Banshee Winds, the dam of MGISW and champion Banshee Breeze. "He's a high-class, very high-quality individual by a Kentucky Derby winner, and he seems to be popular in several quarters with the major buyers," said Gainesway's Michael Hernon.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Hip 105, c, Seeking the Gold--Sulk (Ire), by Selkirk
 Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent
 B-James Wigan (KY)

A Feb. 7 foal, hip 105 is the second foal out of Sulk, victress of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in 2001 and on the board in the following year's G1 Nassau S., G1 Prix Royal-Oak and G1 Yorkshire Oaks. Sulk was named French two-year-old filly champion and was highweighted in England at 14+ furlongs as a sophomore. "He's a big, strong, huge-walking colt," is how consignor Reiley McDonald described the chestnut.

Hip 110, f, Seeking the Gold--Take Charge Lady, by Dehere

Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent
 B-Eaton Sales (KY)

Take Charge Lady's $4.2 million price tag at the 2004 Keeneland November sale reflected her accomplishments on the track. The always-game filly won 11 of her 22 starts for over $2.4 million in earnings. Her victories included the G1 Ashland S. and two renewals of the G1 Spinster S. She was also second in the 2002 G1 Kentucky Oaks. Take Charge Lady was carrying this filly when she sold to Eaton Sales, agent, as a broodmare. "She's just an extraordinary physical and is the first foal from an incredible racemare," commented consignor Reiley McDonald.

Hip 129, f, Unbridled's Song--Win Crafty Lady, by Crafty Prospector

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent
 B-Ronald Carter Family Trust (KY)

Already the dam of GISW Harmony Lodge, MGSW Graeme Hall and MSW Win's Fair Lady, Win Crafty Lady was purchased by ClassicStar for $900,000 at the 2003 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. "She's been an unbelievable broodmare," said Taylor Made's Mark Taylor commenting on Win Crafty Lady. "The physical of this horse matches the pedigree and for anyone interested in winning Grade I races and a horse to become a broodmare, she's the one."

Hip 131, f, Storm Cat--Words of War,
by Lord at War (Arg)

Consigned by Three Chimneys Sales, agent
B-Malibu Farm (KY)

Words of War is already the dam of a salestopper, having produced a $2.7-million colt at the 2003 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. Also the dam of MGSW & MGISP E Dubai and GISW No Matter What, the mare was purchased by B. Wayne Hughes for $1.95 million carrying this foal in utero at the 2004 November sale. "She's a special filly to own and her page speaks for itself," commented Three Chimneys' Case Clay. "She's a lovely filly and very good Storm Cat. A Storm Cat filly from that family doesn't come around that often."

Hip 154, c, Storm Cat--Awesome Humor,
by Distorted Humor

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent
B-WinStar Farm (KY)

The dark bay is the first foal from the winner of the 2002 GI Spinaway S., purchased privately by her breeder following her victory in that year's GIII Debutante S. "He's by Storm Cat and out of a Grade I winning daughter of Distorted Humor," Mark Taylor said. "The way Distorted Humor is asserting himself he could be the heir apparent to Storm Cat and this was one of his best fillies. She's very correct and a very nice horse all the way around."

Hip 158, c, Mineshaft--Better Than Honour, by Deputy Minister

Consigned by Denali Stud (Craig & Holly Banderoff),
agent for Mark Dedomenico
B-Shell Bloodstock (KY)

Horse of the Year and first-year sire Mineshaft got off to a good start at the sales when a daughter sold for $1.45 million at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga sale, and hip 158 received quite a boost to his page in June when his half-brother Jazil (Seeking the Gold) won the GI Belmont S. "He's a flashy, attractive horse," said consignor Craig Banderoff. "From what I've heard, Jazil's pretty slight, and this guy's a lot more A.P. Indy-ish. He definitely looks like a two-turn horse. People that have seen Jazil and seen this guy have commented that he's just a much bigger, scopier colt. He's had a real good reception at the farm."

Hip 182, c, Unbridled's Song--Dixie Pearl,
by Dixieland Band

Consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, agent
B-Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Moss (KY)

A colt produced by SW & GISP Dixie Pearl, "he's got an Unbridled's Song look to him, although he may be a little smoother than your average Unbridled's Song," said Mill Ridge's Bayne Welker. "He's not a great big horse, but he does have a lot of leg. He's a precocious, athletic-looking individual. He looks like a two-turn horse, but he doesn't look like the kind that you're going to have to wait on to get those two turns."

Hip 192, c, Distorted Humor--Emotional Outburst, by Capote

Consigned by Gainesway, Agent XXV
B-Brenda Jones (KY)

This colt, bred on the same Distorted Humor/Seattle Slew cross as Kentucky Derby winner Funny Cide, is a half-brother to the smart distaff performer Roar Emotion, the winner of the three graded events and $635,912. Roar Emotion sold in foal to Seattle Slew's son A.P. Indy for $2.4 million at last year's Keeneland November sale. "Distorted Humor has certainly emerged as a very high-class, versatile stallion," Gainesway's Michael Hannon said about hip 192's sire. "This is a very appealing colt and he's proving, at least initially, to be very popular with buyers, so we're expecting a good result."

Hip 218, c, Mineshaft--Gold Mover, by Gold Fever

Consigned by Lane's End, agent
B-Edward P. Evans (VA)

The first foal out of the talented sprinter Gold Mover, whose win column includes a pair of victories in the GII Princess Rooney H.--one coming at the expense of Xtra Heat--as well as placings in the GI Ballerina H. and two renewals of the GI Humana Distaff.

Bernardini Works:

Preakness and Travers winner Bernardini (A.P. Indy) worked five furlongs over Belmont's fast main track yesterday in 1:01.68. Exercise rider Simon Harris was aboard for the move, Bernardini's first since winning the Travers Aug. 26. "He went great," said trainer Tom Albertrani. "Honestly, this work was as good as ever. He came out of the Travers in good condition and considering today was his first work since the race, he couldn't be doing any better." The Darley colorbearer is expected to make his next start in the Oct. 7 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup.

Chic Dancer opened up the season with a third in a $100,000 optional claimer going a mile at Hawthorne Apr. 23, but found her winning stride in the Reluctant Guest S. here May 28. Back in the winner's circle following a narrow score over this track in the GIII Modesty H. July 22, the bay was well-supported here to record the hat trick. Settled in a stalking second through an opening quarter in :24.95 and a half in :49.64, she fired on all cylinders to take command in the stretch and was all alone at the wire.

DETTORI ARC PLANS IN THE AIR

Frankie Dettori was yesterday pondering his possibilities for the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe after a weekend of major pointers to the autumn showpiece. Having partnered Paul and Susan Roy's Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) to success in Saturday's G1 St Leger, the rider could remain faithful to that colt if he is supplemented by connections, as Godolphin will not have a runner, but revealed he has also been in discussions with Andre Fabre. Fabre saddled Baron Georg von Ullmann's Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Khalid Abdullah's Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}) to success in yesterday's G2 Prix Foy and G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp, respectively, with Christophe Soumillon on board both. However, Soumillon is contracted to His Highness the Aga Khan and his daughter Princess Zahra, and he may be committed to G1 Prix Vermeille scorer Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) if she is supplemented for the Arc. "I haven't spoken to [Sixties Icon's trainer] Jeremy [Noseda] and I suppose he is waiting for the dust to settle before making any decision," Dettori said. "He was very impressive, but we'll have to see. Andre [Fabre] told me not to sell myself too early, as he may have something for me and I was pleased to see Rail Link win, as that could be a possibility. I'll leave it in the hands of Andre, but there is still three weeks to go and anything can happen."

ROME UNDER FLOODLIGHTS

There was racing under floodlights in Rome Saturday as the Capannelle racecourse staged the first evening meeting in its 125-year history. Kicking off at 8:30 p.m., the management chose to coincide the special meeting with the "White Night" of the capital, which hosted over 400 events throughout the evening. Frankie Dettori and Richard Hughes were in action, while Olivier Peslier also paid a visit. All racing took place on the all-weather track, set up last year at a cost of €2 million, part of the €12-million investment plan. The next step of the program will see the complete refurbishment of the owners' and trainers' stand, weighing room and jockeys' rooms. The Capannelle's President Ezio Mei stated that evening racing would boost the racecourse attendance during the summer and winter from next year.
