KASTING A LONG SHADOW

Many expected a pre-Melbourne procession for Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in yesterday's G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh, but His Highness the Aga Khan's Kastoria (Ire) (Selkirk) had other ideas and produced a career-best to upset the 2-7 crowd's choice. Despite entering this at the top of her game, having recorded a brace of successes in the G3 Curragh Cup and Listed Ballyroan S., the five-year-old was allowed to start at 6-1 in the face of heavy support for the Ballydoyle favorite. The writing was on the wall as soon as the imposing mare swooped late on and had a half-length advantage on the favorite where it mattered. "I thought she'd have to run the best race of her life to beat Yeats, but I thought she had improved," commented trainer John Oxx, saddling his third winner of this race. Cont. p2 record-setting performance in the G1 Woodbine Mile. While today's field may not have one as talented as the TNT colorbearer, it will still boast an extremely competitive bunch of 13. The speedy Remarkable News (Ven) (Chayim) wired 'em in the GIII Connaught Cup S. over this course May 28, then finished second behind Rebel Re- bel (Ire) (Revoque {Ire}) in the GIII Poker H. at Belmont Park July 2. He returned to his winning ways last time in the GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 6. Cont. p8

THE EMPEROR'S LAIR

With six winners in the last 10 years, Aidan O'Brien knows what it takes to win the G1 National S. and Susan Magnier's Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill) is the chosen one in today's renewal of the Curragh test. Having followed the route of last year's winner George Washington (Ire) through the G2 Railway S. and G1 Phoenix S. at this venue, he will be a warm order to emulate that colossus here. "I like my fellow--he was very impressive last time in the Phoenix and I'll be expecting a big run," jockey Kieren Fallon said. Cont. p8

GREAT DAY FOR GRACEFIELD

When hip 1226 strode into the ring during last year's November breeding stock sale at Keeneland, Ben Walden and David Hanley didn't expect much competition. "David spotted the colt and we might have gotten him for $25,000, but there was one other guy bidding on him," Walden said. The duo were "extended" to $60,000 for the son of Silver Deputy out of Zuri Ridge, but all team's efforts paid dividends yesterday when the striking dark bay (hip 1506) was knocked down for a session-topping $625,000 at Keeneland September. Bloodstock agent Tim Kegel signed the ticket on behalf of the Geathers Racing Stable. "This has been a difficult year pinhooking for a lot of people--it's been feast or famine--but we sold well earlier in the week," Walden continued. Consigning under his Gracefield banner, he successfully resold a Songandaprayer colt for $480,000 after giving $180,000 last November; and a colt by Mr. Greeley for $385,000 that he purchased for $185,000. What made yesterday's topper so special? "The colt just grew, and grew and grew," Walden said. "He's a big, strong horse, but he has some style to go along with his size. He's a very unique Silver Deputy. He had good feet and he had some size. Most of them have little feet and they aren't very big, but they run. We're thrilled to have him sell so well."

A 'Good Day at the Office'...

No fewer than 28 horses eclipsed the $250,000 mark during the session compared with 20 last year, but marginal statistical declines were posted. The average of $106,793 was down by 1.9 percent versus day five last year while the median of $80,000 represented a loss of 5.9 percent. The not-sold rate, however, was a very healthy 19.2 percent, and likely contributed to the day's losses. "Last year, this was the session that had the greatest increase [the average year-over-year jumped by 27 percent on day five]," said Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "The not-sold rate was wonderful, but when it goes down like that, the sale's going to suffer a little bit. We sold the same number of horses for about the same gross, so there's a lot of positive. This is a book we've been working on for the last couple of years and now we're just trying to maintain it." The sale rolls on today with a session beginning at 10 a.m. EDT.

Kastoria made her debut last June, but her subsequent progression was rapid at four and she followed success in the Listed Galtres S. at York in August with seconds in the G2 Park Hill S. at Doncaster the next month and G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp in October. Returning to win the Apr. 30 Listed Vintage Crop S. at Navan, the homebred suffered her sole blemish this term when fourth in the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York May 19. Back in the winning groove in the July 1 G3 Curragh Cup and at Leopardstown on her latest start in the Ballyroan Aug. 20, she stalked Yeats throughout in this one and was looming ominously as that rival was taken to the front before the final turn. Traveling strongly in behind, she was asked for her all by Mick Kinane inside the final quarter and gave generously to roll by the driven favorite and Kieren Fallon in the final 150 yards. "We'll have to discuss plans, but the G1 Canadian International [at Woodbine Oct. 22] might be worth a crack," Oxx added. Aidan O'Brien refused to rule out a tilt at the G1 Melbourne Cup at Flemington Nov. 7 for the runner-up. Excellent Art made an immediate impression when scoring on debut at Newmarket Apr. 20 before registering a nine-length success in the mud in the Listed National S. at Sandown May 29. Third behind Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) in the G2 Railway S. at The Curragh July 2, he was in that position again after Deauville's G1 Prix Morny on his latest outing Aug. 20 and gained handsome compensation here. Breaking well, he tracked the fast early fractions under Kerrin McEvoy before moving up smoothly to lead approaching the quarter pole. Tackled by Doctor Brown and Jimmy Fortune soon after, he answered every question from the saddle to tough it out and win the bobber after a frantic final 100 yards. "My fellow's got a touch of class and that rode like a good race," McEvoy said. Trainer Neville Callaghan revealed that Excellent Art may be aimed at the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket Oct. 14. Trainer Nick Zito suffered some frustrating defeats this season with Sun King in the GI Met Mile, GI Whitney H. and the GI Woodward S., but was able to secure a Grade II consolation prize here. Wanderin Boy began the year at Gulfstream Park with a runner-up effort Jan. 19 and a third-place finish behind Bandini Mar. 1. The five-year-old, who broke his maiden at Keeneland back in October 2004, continued his love affair with that strip, posting an Apr. 7 allowance by 10 lengths and the GIII Ben Ali S. by 5 1/4 lengths Apr. 27.

Sent off at odds of 4-5 in the GI Pimlico Special S. May 19, he cut out the early fractions, but couldn't hold off the late charge of leading handicap horse Invasor (Arg) and had to settle for second. He quickly got back on track with an optional claiming tally at Belmont June 25, then finished sixth in the Whitney last out Aug. 5. Favored to make amends in this one, the chestnut rattled off :23.58 and :46.45 fractions with Reverberate in second, drew clear from that one in the stretch and had enough left in the tank to hold off a rallying Awesome Twist. "My horse likes to be nice and easy on the lead," winning jockey Javier Castellano commented. "The first quarter and second quarter were kind of slow. I was happy when I saw the scratch [of Take the Bluff]. It worked out good. I went to the lead and set a slow pace." Jockey Edgar Prado was impressed with the second-place finisher's late kick. "At the top of the stretch, I thought I was going to be second, beaten about seven or eight lengths," Prado said. "His second kick really impressed me. I think he is only going to get better off this."

Win McCool, a Saratoga maiden winner last summer, began her sophomore season with a dreadful eighth-place finish against allowance company at Gulfstream Mar. 17, then finished fourth in the Apr. 15 GII Comely S. at the Big A. She nearly stole one on the front end in the GII Nassau County Breeders' Cup S. when second May 6, but broke out with a dominating allowance win in her next attempt over this course June 21. She faded to sixth in the GI Prioress Breeders' Cup S. July 8 and followed with a well-beaten seventh in the GI Test S. at Saratoga Aug. 5. Sent off as the second longest shot on the board here, she was pressed through :22.15 and :44.54 fractions, but fought her way clear to post her first stakes victory. Trainer Bobby Barbara said the victress will start next in the GII Gallant Bloom H. Oct. 8. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

In a race marked by trouble in running, Arch Swing took the uncomplicated route to maintain her perfect record, having graduated first time out against the useful Theann (GB) in a six-furlong maiden at this venue Aug. 13. Forced to race wide without cover throughout the early stages, that proved a blessing as the scrimmaging towards the inside rail caused a knock-on effect to impede the Ballydoyle challenger Nell Gwyn (Ire) (Danehill). Stretching clear after hitting the front approaching the quarter pole, she was in no danger thereafter. "She did well first time for a filly that is half-asleep at home," trainer John Oxx commented. "She was always traveling strongly and could go for the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac [at Longchamp Oct. 1]." Click for Racing Post race chart.

Second on debut in the G3 Prix de Conde here in October, Best Name returned to this venue to break his maiden in the Apr. 9 Listed Prix Francois Mathet before establishing himself in the top division when runner-up in the June 4 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly. On the face of it, he was disappointing when only eighth in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh on his last start July 2, but trainer Robert Collet believed there were excuses and the bay was back on track with a fluent score here. Best Name was reserved in rear by a confident Christophe-Patrice Lemaire throughout the early stages. Lemaire left his question late, but Best Name was equal to his request and swamped Daramsar in the final 50 yards as Champs Elysees closed in his wake. "He didn't run his race in Ireland, as he was too keen and nervous and never got a breather," Collet explained. "I'm glad he's back so well, but we won't go for the [Oct. 1] G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe this year--we might come back here to the [Sept. 30] G2 Prix Dollar instead." Runner-up in the Apr. 15 G3 1000 Guineas Trial S. at Leopardstown on her sophomore bow, she was eighth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 14 and Irish equivalent here a fortnight later. Caught close home by Indian Maiden (Ire) when second in the Listed Sweet Mimosa S. at Leopardstown July 29, she was off the board in the Aug. 3 G3 King George S. at Goodwood and G3 Flying Five S. back at this track last time Aug. 27. Tracking the trail-blazing An Tadh in second, she was shaken up after halfway and responded gamely to collar that rival 150 yards from home. Click for the Racing Post race chart.

Ignored by the Berkshire crowd, Dixie Belle sprung a major shock here under an enterprising ride from Tom Queally. She had shown her talent at two when wiring the Listed Empress S. at Newmarket last June, but had struggled thereafter when upped in grade, finishing fifth in the G2 Lowther S. at York in August and fourth in the G3 Firth of Clyde S. at Ayr the following month. Despite a second in the Listed Scurry S. at Sandown June 17, she had looked as if her three-year-old campaign might not produce any fireworks and did not inspire confidence for her chances here when three-lengths second to Tax Free (Ire) in a conditions event at Leicester 11 days previously. Blitzing her rivals one by one with her lethal speed on the front end, she refused to relinquish her advantage, as first Dandy Man and then Excusez Moi threw down challenges late on. "All she does is gallop and doesn't really stop," Queally explained. "She won a good race last year, but it's taken a long time for her to come to herself again and she's pretty complicated. She didn't want to go out onto the track, but in the race simplicity is the key--you've just got to let her roll."

Miss Andretti has relished a switch from Perth in Western Australia to the Mornington Peninsula base of Australia's leading Group 1 trainer last season, Lee Freedman, and the game mare took out this first Group 1 race of the new season in emphatic fashion. Sent out the 4-1 favourite after an eye-catching last start win in the Listed McEwen S. three weeks ago, Miss Andretti jumped well from her wide gate, settled midfield and began to increase her pace at the 600-meter mark as All Bar One (Hennessy) and Dance Hero set a fierce pace in the lead. Dance Hero took the lead at the home turn and Miss Andretti was eased out four deep to pounce on the leaders to score by three-quarters of a length. Miss Andretti won the Listed Ruabon S., G2 Winterbottom S. and the G3 Prince of Wales S. in Western Australia before being sent to Melbourne in the autumn. A 75-percent share was purchased by Sean Buckley's Ultra Thoroughbreds, with her trainer Brian Mueller retaining a 25-percent share as she was transferred to Freedman. "At the 600-meter mark, you could have had the proverbial house on her," enthused Freedman. "She is a great mare and she is used to these fast tempo races; she was just jogging behind them." Buckley, executive chairman of car service franchise UltraTune, has acquired a band of 40 broodmares and an enviable spring line-up of talent.

Ad Valorem shipped to the U.S. last October, but could only manage a sixth-place finish in Keeneland's GI Shadwell Turf Mile and a ninth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Belmont. He got back on track at Ascot, notching the G1 Queen Anne S. June 20, then finished fifth in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois last time Aug. 13. He gains the services of top local rider Patrick Husbands. Trainer Bobby Frankel sends Diamond Green (Fr) and Three Valleys. The latter was last seen annexing Monmouth Park's GIII Oceanport S. Aug. 6, while the former enters off a pair of third-place finishes, including the Fourstardave. Sweet Return, winner of the GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. and the GI Eddie Read H. last term, seeks his first tally of the season after going winless in his first five attempts. The six-year-old crossed the line fourth in the GII Del Mar Breeders' Cup H. last time Aug. 26.

Holy Roman Emperor has made relentless progress after his flop in Royal Ascot's June 20 G2 Coventry S., showing smart acceleration at the finish of the July 2 G2 Railway and Aug. 13 G1 Phoenix over six furlongs. On the latter occasion, he comprehensively reversed Coventry form with that contest's winner Hellvelyn (GB), with the subsequent G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Miss Beatrix (Ire) back in third. He has to overcome another threat here in Jim Bolger's unbeaten Teofilo (Ire), but Fallon is expecting Holy Roman Emperor to prove up to the mark. "[Trainer] Jim [Bolger] doesn't usually get it wrong and he says Teofilo is one of the best two-year-olds he's trained, but this fellow would be a lot better than the horses I've ridden against him before and the seventh furlong won't be a problem."

Teofilo beat a smart duo in Black Rock Desert (Ire) and Blue Coral (Ire) in a course-and-distance maiden on debut July 16 before adding the Listed Tyros S. to his tally at Leopardstown 13 days later. He had the measure of the subsequent G2 Champagne S. runner-up Eagle Mountain (GB) in the G2 Futurity S. back over this track and trip last time Aug. 26, which Hawk Wing used as a stepping stone to success here five years ago. "His form is there in black and white for everybody to see and what he's done has been very, very solid," jockey Kevin Manning commented. "We knew pretty early that he was useful and he has always been a great ride." The big two have scared off much of the meaningful opposition and His Highness the Aga Khan's maiden Eyshal (Ire) has to show marked improvement off runner-up placings at Gowran Park Aug. 9 and Tipperary 15 days later to make any impact here.

Arcadio took the G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis over 11 furlongs at Baden-Baden May 28 before dropping back to a mile to add the G2 Pferdewetten.de-Trophy at Cologne June 18. He was playing catch-up off a slow pace last time when fifth in the July 30 G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich and bids to re-establish his reputation here. His trainer Peter Schiergen has won two of the last four renewals and also saddles Nordtanzerin, who has been admirably consistent this season. She followed a second in the G2 Schwarzgold-Rennen at Cologne May 14 with third placings in the June 4 G2 Preis der Diana at Dusseldorf, July 16 G2 Hansa-Preis at Hamburg and Aug. 20 G3 Walther J Jacobs-Stutenpreis at Bremen and gets a healthy weight-for-age and sex allowance. White Lightning comes into this off a success in the G3 Preis der Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe at Baden-Baden last time Aug. 26 and has claims.

faces a pair of talented three-year-olds. Arravale, last year's GIII Natalma S. heroine, annexed the Alywow S. on the Woodbine lawn in her seasonal opener June 11 before heading to California. Third to Wait a While in the GI American Oaks July 2 at Hollywood, the dark bay came from off the pace to land the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 19. "She couldn't have done it any better," said trainer Mac Benson. "We are so pleased with her. It was a tremendous thing to ship all the way out there and make the adjustment. I was as pleased as punch with her. I knew, if she had run well at Hollywood, which she did, she had to run 10 times better because she had 10 times the preparation." Her contemporary Almerita took the 11-furlong G1 Preis der Diana at Dusseldorf June 4 before finishing a close third to older males in the G1 Bayerisches Zuchtrennen over 10 furlongs July 30 at Munich.

Unbeaten Marcavelly looks to continue the success of the Zayat Stables juveniles. After breaking his maiden on the turf at Belmont July 15, the bay proved a handy winner of Monmouth's Continental Mile S. Aug. 19.

Streets Ahead, the stablemate of GI Woodbine Mile hopeful Vanderlin (GB), adds Lasix for his North American bow. The bay colt graduated in his third try at Salisbury Aug. 17 and promptly added the Listed Stonehenge S. at the same track eight days later. The lone filly in the field is Dreaming of Anna, who captured her debut on the main track at Arlington May 19. Produced by a half-sister to turf champion Kitten's Joy, she followed up with a course-record setting win in the Tippet S. at Colonial July 29 in her turf bow. Three maidens have been entered here, but the most intriguing one might be L.A. Boy. The California-bred switched to the turf in his second start and wound up third by a half-length in a one-mile maiden at Del Mar Aug. 23. Trainer Ron McAnally has put him on the plane with Woodbine Mile entrant Sweet Return (GB).

O'Callaghan Family's Walnut Hill Thrilled...

Peter O'Callaghan has matured into a very skilled judge of horseflesh over the past several years, operating a successful pinhooking operation under the banner of Woods Edge Farm. One of the partnerships which consigns horses through the agency is Walnut Hill Stables, but there was much recruiting involved to attract that particular collection of people. "Walnut Hill is myself, my father and my brother," O'Callaghan explained. "We just try to find some weanlings that we can turn around. We try to identify horses that look like runners." And by all accounts, they've done an excellent job. Walnut Hill sent a total of four horses through the ring yesterday, three of which were purchased at last year's November breeding stock sale and one as a short yearling at the January Horses of All Ages sale. Having invested a total of $555,000, the team better than doubled their money yesterday afternoon, as the quartet accounted for gross receipts of $1,170,000. "I think the sale has gotten better as the day has gone along," O'Callaghan commented. "It was tough-enough work earlier [Saturday], but we've had a good day and a good sale." The four-horse draft was highlighted by the sale of hip 1531. A son of Forest Camp--Balcovy (Saint Ballado), the dark bay, a $190,000 weanling last year, was purchased by Buzz Chace, on behalf of his client Barry Schwartz, for $390,000. O'Callaghan was not surprised. "We had a huge interest in the colt and I thought he was in that range. He's an athlete and a tremendous mover," he said. "Hopefully he'll turn out well for them." Walnut Hill also pinhooked hip 1300, a Distorted Humor colt that they bought for $140,000 and sold for $300,000; hip 1310, a Mr. Greeley colt picked up for $150,000 and sold for $360,000; and hip 1344, a colt by Street Cry (Ire) that was purchased for $75,000 and brought $110,000 yesterday.

Denali Fires Book Three Bullet...

Hip 1505, a colt from the second crop of 2000 GI Preakness S. hero Red Bullet, was hammered down to Centennial Farms for a whopping $390,000 around midday yesterday. Consigned by Craig and Holly

Red Bullet
www.stallionregister.com

Bandoroff's Denali Stud as agent for Shane Farley, the bay, produced by a half-sister to Horse of the Year Ghostzapper and GISW City Zip, was purchased for just $40,000 as a weanling from last year's Keeneland November sale. "He's a very sound-looking horse and very correct-legged," said Paula Parsons, who signed the ticket on behalf of Centennial. "He had a lot of presence and had a beautiful walk--really handled himself like an athlete. We're a racing group, so it's very important that they look athletic. I thought he was a standout for this day of the sale. This horse has a second dam with two major stallions. We also think that Red Bullet has a chance to produce a Classic-type horse." Craig Bandoroff was pleased to have such a popular commodity under his care. "He was a big, pretty horse and he probably got vetted as any horse I can ever remember having," the consignor commented. "He's a nice horse on the right day. He had enough female family to get people excited." The colt had been on Bandoroff's farm since last year's sale and he grew up the right way. "When we bought him in November, I liked him because he had leg. He wasn't perfect in front, but we thought that maybe that would get better as he got older, and it did. He was a big, scopey, rangy horse that had the frame to grow into." Earlier in the session, Denali sold a Kafwain--Raw Gold filly to Mike Ryan for $250,000. The bay hails from the immediate family of GI Del Mar Debutante winner Point Ashley.

A Real Mon-ey Maker...

Meg Levy's Bluewater Sales agency consigned the session's top-selling filly, a daughter of Maria's Mon. Consigned to the sale as hip 1389, the attractive bay is a daughter of River Cache (Unbridled), already the dam of MSW Sentimental Charm (Silver Charm). She was knocked down to Samantha Siegel on behalf of her family's Jay Em Ess Stable for $400,000. The Apr. 24 foal was bred in the Bluegrass by Hanover Meadows, which acquired River Cache for just $55,000 out of the Fasig-Tipton February sale in 2004. Barren that year, the seven-year-old mare is the dam of a weanling filly of this year by Johannesburg. It has been a banner year for Maria's Mon, whose first post-Monarchos horses are three-year-olds of this year. Members of his sophomore class include GISW Wait a While, GII Dwyer S. hero Strong Contender, GIII El Camino Real Derby winner Cause to Believe and the talented Latent Heat. His older horses have also performed well, including High Limit, victorious in the GII San Pasqual H.; and Gaff, who took the GIII Mr. Prospector H.

1452 c, Five Star Day Steffie's Pride $370,000

*Bred by Christina Latimer & Kathie Maybee
Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent
Purchased by B. Wayne Hughes*

Hill 'n' Dale Bloodstock, agent, bought this one for just $75,000 as a KEENOV weanling and realized a profit of nearly 400 percent on day 5 at KEESEP.

1505 c, Red Bullet Zip to the Wire $390,000

*Bred by Adena Springs
Consigned by Denali Stud (Craig & Holly Bandoroff), Agent IV
Purchased by Centennial Farms*

Out of a half-sister to Horse of the Year Ghostzapper and GISW City Zip, the bay colt cost Shane Farley just $40,000 as a KEENOV weanling, but showed a major return on that modest investment here.

1565 c, Holy Bull Cherie $290,000

*Bred by Charles Fipke
Consigned by Darby Dan Farm, Agent XX
Purchased by Kenneth McPeck, agent*
Cherie was hammered down for $42,000 at the 2005 KEEJAN sale. She produced a foal by Holy Bull just 11 days later, and the colt blossomed into this attractive KEESEP yearling.

1618 c, Indian Charlie Feminine $400,000

*Bred by Parrish Hill Farm & Dr Ben Roach
Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, Agent
Purchased by Excel Bloodstock*
Purchased for $27,000 while carrying her first foal at the KEENOV sale, Feminine was bred back to Broken Vow and sold for $54,000 at the 2006 KEEJAN sale. But the best was yet to come, as the Indian Charlie colt she produced in 2005 proved to be one of the top sellers on day 5 at KEESEP.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 1776, c, Buddha--Rare Bird, by Rahy

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent
B-Byerpatch Farm (KY)

The gray colt is a half to Host, winner of the 2005 GIII Mac Diarmida H. in track record-setting time, who recently returned from a 17-month absence to win the John Henry S. at Arlington Park. He is also kin to Barbados, a $3-million juvenile purchase.

Hip 1834, f, Empire Maker--Sunlit Silence, by Trempolino

Consigned by Viking Stud Inc, agent
B-Dapple Bloodstock (KY)

Purchased by Mike Akers' Dapple Bloodstock for $500,000 at the 2004 Keeneland November sale carrying this foal in utero, Sunlit Silence is the dam of MGSW & GISP Greek Sun (Danzig). The dark bay is out of a half-sister to Madame Pandit, the dam of GISW Mea Domina (Dance Brightly).

Hip 1847, c, Cherokee Run--Theresa's Tizzy, by Cee's Tizzy

Consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, agent
B-F Hertrich, J Fielding, Brilliant Stables, Taylor Made & Lynn Jones & B Kahn (KY)

Purchased by D.C. Goff for $120,000 out of last year's Keeneland November sale, the gray colt is the recipient of a major catalog update. His half-brother Got the Last Laugh (Distorted Humor) dead-heated for the win in the GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Futurity Sept. 10.

Hip 1997, c, Lemon Drop Kid--Diversa, by Tabasco Cat

Consigned by Hartwell Farm Inc, agent
B-Allan Dragone (KY)

This bay colt was bred by Allan Dragone, a former chairman of the New York Racing Association who passed away Aug. 20 at the age of 80. In the name of his December Hill Farm, Dragone raced the colt's dam, who won the 2001 Busher S. and was third in the GIII Next Move H. in 2002. She retired with four wins and earnings of $226,751. The Mar. 8 foal is a half to Divide and Conquer (Mr. Greeley), a first-out maiden winner at Del Mar July 15.

Hip 2039, f, Gilded Time--Gran Seniorita, by El Gran Senior

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent
B-Phillip F McCarthy (KY)

The bay is a full sister to Gilded Gold, a dual stakes winner this season and most recently a game runner-up in the GIII Engine H. over the Delaware main track Sept. 9. Phillip McCarthy went to $200,000 to acquire Gran Seniorita carrying this foal in utero at the 2004 Keeneland November sale.

Hip 2054, c, Harlan's Holiday--I'll Be Along, by Notebook

Consigned by Four Star Sales, agent
B-Stonestreet Mares LLC (KY)

Jess Jackson went to $210,000 to acquire I'll Be Along at the 2004 November sale carrying this foal and resold the colt to Tony Lacy, agent, for $130,000 as a November weanling last fall. The bay is closely related to Gators N Bears (Stormy Atlantic), a prominent East Coast sprinter who won a pair of graded stakes and earned $804,393.

ON BOARD AGAIN (c, 3, Awesome Again--Flight Delight, by Lear Fan) posted a sharp win at first asking Jan. 14 at Gulfstream, but didn't face the starter again until Aug. 26. He missed by a neck when third in a blanket finish in that optional claimer at Saratoga and was the 2-1 choice to get back on track here. In third early, the bay took the lead turning for home and battled back when headed by Superfly (Fusaichi Pegasus) to secure victory by a neck. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, $51,800. 4th-BEL, $43,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 6f (off turf), 1:10, ft. COLONIAL NOTE (c, 3, Exchange Rate--Raspberry Affair, by Black Tie Affair {Ire}), a $38,000 OBSOCT weanling and $140,000 FTKJUL yearling, blossomed into a $1.05-million FTFEB juvenile. The grey colt completed the trifecta in his Aug. 31 career opener at the Spa and was part of a 3-5 entry with Nationhood (Cherokee Run) here. Hustled to the lead, the Florida-bred showed the way through fractions of :22.85 and :46.25 and had enough to withstand his entymate by a half-length at the line. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $30,500. 7th-BEL, $43,000, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:10 3/5, ft. MY GOLDEN OPINION (c, 2, High Yield--Distant Breeze {Chi}, by Distant View) stumbled slightly at the start of his Aug. 16 career opener at Saratoga, but rallied to be second, with $1.5 million BESMAR topper Cowtown Cat behind him in fifth. Cowtown Cat came back to win handily at Belmont Sept. 8, and My Golden Opinion was sent off the 2-1 chalk to follow suit here. Allowed to settle off early splits of :22.25 and :45.72, the $47,000 KEESEP yearling had all the running room he needed as he closed up the rail at the top of the lane. The chestnut drove to the front inside the eighth pole and pulled away to take it by 2 1/4 lengths over firster Pleasant Strike (Smart Strike). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $35,200. Indy), seventh as the favorite in his bow Aug. 7 at Saratoga, missed by 3/4 of a length Aug. 30 at that track and was 4-5 to go one better this time. The chestnut jumped out in front, opened up in the lane and, despite being geared down late, wound up winning by six lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $34,235. O-Lewis G Lakin. Deputy S. Aug. 22. The odds-on choice shook off an early challenge at the head of the lane and opened up to remain a perfect four-for-four. It'll have to be enough if he is to earn a Sovereign Award as Canada's champion juvenile male. "I think I'm going to put him away," winning trainer David Dwyer commented. June 9 at Belmont, but rebounded to miss by a neck as the runner-up to Wildcat Bettie B. in the GI Prioress Breeders' Cup S. a month later. Sent to Saratoga for the GI Test S. The veteran mare failed to fire over a sloppy track in the Aug. 27 GII Molly Pitcher BC H. slop at Monmouth, running fifth, but was back on top of her game here. Settled just off the pace while racing wide early, she closed down the outside in the stretch, catching Silmaril in the final yards to earn a narrow decision.

All evidence during Ayr's Western meeting had suggested a high draw was necessary, but Fonthill Road overcame the odds to go one better than 12 months ago. That defeat was one of a string of heart-breaking seconds in major sprint handicaps, including Goodwood's Stewards Cup, where he had victory snatched from him by the late rattle of Gift Horse (GB). He had been off the board in all four outings this term and entered this off a ninth in a Haydock handicap run on heavy ground a fortnight ago, but rebounded to register a hard-earned high-profile success. Held up last of the isolated trio racing against the far-side rail, the chestnut quickened smartly to hit the front at the eighth pole and had too many guns for the main pack, led home on the stands' side by the Stewards Cup hero Borderlescott. "It worked out nicely, as there was pace on my side and I rode him with loads of confidence," jockey Paul Hanagan said. "There isn't a horse that deserves this more than him, as he has been so unlucky."

Walter Swinburn captured the valuable and prestigious John Smith's Cup at York with Fairmile (GB), but Pinpoint's success here represented another milestone for the famed rider. Not without his quirks, the gelding had been coaxed to the track only eight times prior to this career-high and only twice this term, finishing fourth in the Victoria Cup at Ascot May 27 and sixth in the June 21 Royal Hunt Cup at the Royal meeting. Trapped wide halfway down the field throughout the early stages, he finally gained cover as the field fanned out for the stretch drive. Weaving between rivals to lead with 150 yards remaining, he was always holding Charlie Cool in the run to the line. "It's a great credit to the whole team, as he's a real Jekyll and Hyde," Swinburn said. "One minute he's relaxed and then he's a nightmare, so he lives outside the whole time. The Cambridgeshire H. [at Newmarket Sept. 30] has been the whole idea and this was a good trial. Ted Walsh said to me a couple of years ago that you get a great feeling from riding winners, but it doesn't last and one day you'll train something to win and it will stay with you a lot longer--I've found that out this year."
