CRUX OF THE MATTER

Late-running Brecrux (Ity) (Glen Jordan {GB}) made the most of a crisp early pace to just get up for a narrow victory in yesterday's GI Woodbine Mile S. in Toronto. Well placed in eighth as Sweet Return (GB) (Elmaamul) carved out a brisk opening quarter in :22.86, the Team Valor and Gary Barber representative angled out for the drive, poked his head in front of the wilting Remarkable News (Ven) (Chayim) a sixteenth out and held off the late-running Rebel Rebel (Ire) (Revoque {Ire}) to eke out a neck victory. cont. p2

ANOTHER CLAIM TO FAME

When owner Stephen Lau claimed the mare Decadent Designer for $40,000 in 2000, little did he know that she'd one day become the dam of a half-million dollar baby. But that's just what happened yesterday when a colt by leading freshman sire Johannesburg out of the nine-year-old mare realized a bid of $525,000 to top the sixth session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale in Lexington. John Brocklebank, the California-based consigner who pinhooked Brother Derek, signed the winning ticket for hip 1989. The bay was consigned by the Indian Creek agency of Dave C. Parrish. "He was just a really nice colt all the way around," commented Mike Evans, farm manager at Indian Creek. "He was born and raised at Indian Creek and I have to give the owners a lot of credit for breeding to a good horse that got hot. The sire really made people pay attention and he was the individual to go along with it. He was the whole package and he was very popular. He looked very fast and correct and looks to be early like his father." A half-sister to 2002 GI Vosburgh S. winner and millionaire Bonapaw, Decadent Designer became a very useful runner for Lau and his partners John Toscano and Pat Crapanzano, earning back $120,690 over 20 starts. Her first foal, Owen Roe O'Neill (Mr. Greeley) was a $130,000 September graduate. Decadent Designer is the dam of a weanling filly of this year by Sky Mesa. cont. p5

IT'S A KNOCKOUT

Jim Bolger's Teofilo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), named after the famed Cuban boxer who garnered three Olympic gold medals, was in championship form at The Curragh yesterday, landing a telling blow to best Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill) in the G1 National S. Despite extending a perfect three-for-three record in the Aug. 26 G2 Futurity S. at this track, he was allowed to drift to 2-1 in the face of heavy support for Ballydoyle's contender. But the crowd's 4-9 pick never got close enough to trouble Teofilo, who had a comfortable 1 1/4-length margin to spare at the line. "I said after the Futurity that he was a proper horse and that's what he is," jockey Kevin Manning said. "He's the best I've ridden, without a shadow of a doubt and has the whole package."

Teofilo had already proved himself adept over this course and distance with relentless galloping displays in a hot maiden July 16 and when besting Eagle Mountain (GB) by a head in the G2 Futurity on his latest start. In between, he visited Leopardstown and showed tactical speed around the tight turns to annex the July 29 Listed Tyros S. Keeping it simple here, he was positioned in the slipstream of the stable rabbit Slaney Time (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) by Kevin Manning before stretching to the front passing the quarter pole. Quickening to steal a healthy advantage there, he was always out of reach of Holy Roman Emperor, despite Kieren Fallon's efforts. "All we were afraid of was a muddling pace, as the favorite had won the Phoenix over six and has a turn of foot," Manning said. "Teofilo is by no means a slow horse himself, as he proved at Leopardstown, but we needed something to make it an even-run race. Today, he picked up and sprinted clear at the furlong pole and I have no doubts he will be better over a mile." Trainer Jim Bolger paid tribute to his first National winner. "He's the best I've had," he commented. "He seemed well on top and hasn't been too stressed up til now, so he could run again this season in either the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere [at Longchamp Oct. 1] or G1 Dewhurst S. [at Newmarket Oct. 14]. Judging by the way Galileo got the one-two-three in the St Leger last weekend, I'd say this colt will get a mile and a half next season, but the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket is the priority." Aidan O'Brien was not downcast about the defeat of Holy Roman Emperor. "The winner is very special, but there is more to come from Holy Roman Emperor and it's possible we'll find more races for him this season," he said.

Winner of the restricted Oceanside S. over a mile at Del Mar last July, the four-year-old found the competition too tough and had to settle for fifth in this season's GII Arcadia H. at Santa Anita Apr. 8. Tiring to third when extended in a nine panel allowance at Hollywood May 20, the bay returned to his winning ways when cut back to a mile in Del Mar's restricted Wickerr H. July 29. Giving the E.P. Taylor turf course a first go in his latest--the seven-furlong GII Play the King S. Aug. 26--Becrux rallied late to be only a 1/2-length short of the victory. "He didn't care for the ground that day and he sort of fell back quite a ways," said trainer Neil Drysdale, explaining the gelding's most recent outing. "When he hit firmer ground, he came on with a very nice run. We felt that it encouraged us to run in this race. According to Drysdale, Becrux will make his next start in the GI Shadwell Mile at Keeneland Oct. 7. Ready's Gal proved best in her second start of the year in the GIII Hillsborough S. at Tampa Mar. 18, but failed to fire and had to settle for ninth next time out in the GIII Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill May 6. Weakening in the final furlong to be third in the Miss Liberty S. at the Meadowlands June 19, the chestnut regained her winning stride in her latest, the GIII Matchmaker S. at Monmouth Aug. 6. Hard pressed by GISW Arravale through the opening quarter mile, Ready's Gal steadily increased her advantage on the backstretch. Solidly in front with a furlong left to run, the filly had enough left to hold off the favorite. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Dreaming of Anna made it look easy with a good-looking four-length victory in her career bow over the Arlington main track May 19. She bumped up her game a notch when she galloped home a 7 1/4-length winner while setting a new course record going 5 1/2 furlongs in the grassy Tippet S. July 29 at Colonial Downs. Looking to remain undefeated here, the filly broke well to contest the early lead, took over after a modest half mile in :47.55, increased her advantage through the remainder of the race and drew clear to collect her first win at this level. Pollards Enrich Their Stable...

Trainer George Weaver, bidding on behalf of Richlyn Farm, was extended to $360,000 for hip 1880, a colt by El Prado (Ire) from the Taylor Made consignment. The bay is a son of Windsong (Unbridled), a filly campaigned by Shel Evans to five placings in graded stakes on the grass. She retired in 2002 with earnings of $248,860. The conditioner admitted he had to work a lot harder than he thought he'd have to. "I liked him a lot, but I didn't think I'd have to go that far to get him," Weaver commented "That's what happens when you get two people who really want one." Richlyn Farm is the nom du course of Dick and Evelyn Pollard, who most notably campaigned the late Saratoga County, winner of the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in 2005. In addition to yesterday's purchase, Weaver bought two additional youngsters on behalf of the Pollards, a filly by D'wildcat--Enchanted Spell for $185,000; and a filly by Seeking the Gold--Evening Meeting for $300,000.

Dapple Breeds and Sells Well...

Mike Akers, who operates Lexington-based Dapple Bloodstock, has had a very successful year pinhooking two-year-olds with Ciaran Dunne. Yesterday, a filly by Unbridled's Song out of To the Queen, who was raced by Dapple, sold for $350,000 to the Limerick Road partnership. The gray was consigned by the Littrell family's Viking Stud. "I wanted more, as usual. When I'm selling I need a little more and when I'm buying, they're too high" Akers said. "But I was happy enough." To the Queen, a half-sister to GSW winner Yarrow Brae, was a $535,000 yearling purchase and went on to be placed in Grade III company while bankrolling $191,335. This was her first foal and Akers explained the decision for the mating. "The pedigree cross is always very important, as well as the physical," Akers offered. "She's not a very big mare. She's very well put together and well balanced. The size and substance of Unbridled's Song was a good complement to her physically, and we were happy with the product we got."

E Dubai Colt Makes Waves...

A racy colt from the second crop of multiple Grade II winner E Dubai was hammered down to Centennial Farm for $270,000 during yesterday's session, resulting in a handsome profit for the colt's breeders. Jon and Jennifer Goebel, owners of Almar Farm in nearby Paris, Kentucky, were the successful bidders on a then nine-year-old Storm Key at the 2005 Keeneland January sale, taking the Storm Cat mare home for $80,000. A little over a month later, she produced a dark bay colt, and he quickly became something special, according to consignor James Keogh. "He's a class horse and he stood out here all day," he commented. "The people that bred him, Jon and his wife, are wonderful people, a young couple. He was a special horse from day one. He's just a lovely horse and has a lot of class about him. We're thrilled and delighted." E Dubai is off to a solid start at stud and is the sire of a pair of stakes winners, including Barilko. A $30,000 graduate of this sale last year, the bay gelding ran his record to a perfect four-for-four with a 2 3/4-length victory in the Swynford S. at Woodbine Sept. 16. E Dubai is also responsible for Spark of Dubai, recent winner of the Beau Brummel S. at the Fairplex meeting.

Hill 'n' Dale Also a Successful Reseller...

John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency has had a successful run through the first three books at the September sale, due in large part to the very positive reception of freshman sire Vindication, who stands at the farm. On day one of the sale, a son of Serena's Tune made $2.8 million off a winning bid from John Ferguson, while Ahmed Zayat gave $4.4 million for a son of Silvery Swan--a half to Hill 'n' Dale stallions El Corredor and Roman Ruler--during Tuesday's second session. Hill 'n' Dale has also dabbled in weanling-to-yearling pinhooks, selling a trio of horses during Saturday's session with positive results. The first of those to sell was hip 1371, a colt by Mr. Greeley which Sikura's agency purchased for $60,000 last November. Ralls & Foster, LLC was the successful bidder on the daughter of Prop (Unbridled's Song) at $175,000. The day's biggest score was on hip 1452, a colt by Five Star Day out of Stefie's Pride. A $75,000 KEENOV weanling, the dark bay was knocked down to B. Wayne Hughes for $370,000. Hip 1486, a Forest Camp colt Sikura purchased for $105,000 out of the November sale, was successfully resold for $230,000. Jeremiah Racing Ltd. signed the ticket for the dark bay son of Unbridled Dream (Unbridled's Song).

Book Three a Rousing Success...

Officials at Keeneland have painstakingly attempted to alter the focus of Book 3, the traditional start of the middle market, into a conformation class, and it seems the experiment has taken firm hold. The Book 3 gross from a year ago improved on the 2004 version by 27.3 percent and cracked the $50 million barrier. This year's turnover was $57.6 million, an improvement of 14.2 percent from 2005, and a result which has the sales company thinking very positively. "The middle market is very strong and we increased dramatically the market in session six," commented Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's Director of Sales. "People are being rewarded by putting strong conformation horses in there." Session six featured buying from what Keeneland refers to as its "emerging markets," including Mexico, Korea and Hong Kong, for example, well earlier in the sale than was previously expected. All indications are that the momentum built over the course of the first week of the sale will continue into Book 4 and beyond. "Book 3 was a very important book for us," Russell continued. "We wanted to see good growth in it, and we've seen good growth in it and we expect to see it continue in Book 4, 5, 6 and 7. We keep hearing that some people who plan to be here haven't even shown up yet. We're confident that [the sale] will continue to roll."

1759 f, Flatter                      Play Date                      $190,000

*Bred by Center Hills Farm
Consigned by Blandford Stud (Padraig Campion), Agent
Purchased by ML Bloodstock*

Play Date was bought for just $7,000 at the 2005 KEEJAN sale, producing a bay filly from the first crop by Flatter (A.P. Indy) three months later. The family received a boost when Play Date's '03 foal, Sabatini (Five Star Day), was third in the GI Hollywood Starlet last December and runner-up in the GIII Santa Ysabel S. in January.

1815 c, Successful Appeal    Southern Nature    $250,000

*Bred by Fred W. Pace
Consigned by Highclere Sales, Agent II
Purchased by Nick de Meric, agent*

The bay was conceived back when Successful Appeal stood for $6,000, then sold as a weanling at the OBSOCT sale and was purchased for $80,000 by Sun Mist Farm. He proved a wise investment for those connections as well.

1828 c, E Dubai                      Storm Key                      $270,000

*Bred by Almar Farm (Jon & Jennifer Goebel)
Consigned by James B. Keogh/Grovendale, Agent XXVII
Purchased by Centennial Farms*

Jon and Jennifer Goebel bought the mare for $80,000 at KEEJAN in 2005, and this foal paid solid dividends yesterday.

1939 c, Came Home                      Bruanna                      $195,000

*Bred by John D Murphy & Michael Gorham
Consigned by Dan Mallory, Agent XI
Purchased by Greathouse Bloodstock*

John Murphy and Old Coach Farm claimed MSW Bruanna for $35,000 at Delaware Park in 2002 and won seven races with her, including four stakes races. The dark bay was retired at the end of her 2003 season with earnings of $390,078. She was bred to Came Home, and her first foal continued the family's money-making tradition as a KEESEP yearling.

1953 c, Yonaguska                      Cat Out                      $150,000

*Bred by Robert D Nash
Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent LV
Purchased by Jay Em Ess Stable*

An $11,000 KEEJAN short yearling, Cat Out blossomed into a $375,000 TEXMAR juvenile, but won just two of her 29 starts, earning $69,646. Robert Nash purchased the mare for $40,000 at the 2002 KEENOV sale, bred her to El Corredor, and sold the resulting foal, a colt, for $225,000 at KEESEP last year. Her '05 foal, born Apr. 1, proved yet again that Nash is no fool.

2003 f, Yonaguska                      Drifa                      $195,000

*Bred by Joseph M Bryan Jr & Sandy Lane Farm
Consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, Agent for Joseph Bryan, Jr.
Purchased by Vinery Ltd.*

Joe Bryan Jr. went to $75,000 to get Drifa, carrying this filly, at the 2005 KEEJAN sale. He realized a 260-percent profit on that investment when selling the resulting foal yesterday. The mare has an '06 filly by Pleasantly Perfect.

Prado to Receive Mike Venezia Award:

Jockey Edgar Prado will receive the New York Racing Association's 2006 Mike Venezia Award, which is presented to the jockey who 'exemplifies extraordinary sportsmanship and citizenship.' The presentation will be made Sept. 24 at approximately 12:35 p.m., following the late program changes, in the paddock at Belmont Park. Winner of this year's Kentucky Derby aboard Barbaro, the 39-year-old Peruvian was chosen over fellow finalists Mark Guidry and Calvin Borel.

The headstrong Retribution ran his rivals off their feet in taking an open allowance by six lengths July 8 at Belmont, but things didn't go as swimmingly at Saratoga Aug. 13, when the bay's eight-length lead was swamped late and he wound up eighth. Ignored at the windows here, the four-year-old set sail in front, leading the way by as many as 15 lengths. He turned for home with a big cushion and found the wire safely in front of favored Certifiably Crazy. "This horse is uncontrollable," admitted winning trainer John Hertler. "[Jockey] Chantal [Sutherland] did a great job." Sutherland had done her homework. "I had watched his replays and knew I was going to be on the front end," she explained. "It's a fine line: you don't want him to totally run off, but you don't want to anchor him, either. I knew I spent myself early, but on the turn, he got a big breather. I started screaming at him. I got to the wire and said, 'Oh my God!'" Retribution could make his next appearance in the Mohawk H. over this course and distance Oct. 21.

Claimed for $40,000 out of a victory Feb. 17 at Aqueduct, Zippy Shannon took a state-bred optional claimer June 21 over track and trip, but faded to be third in an open optional claimer July 12 at Belmont and got the rest of the summer off. Though trainer Rick Schosberg wasn't sure about running in this spot, his 17-1 charge wound up in the right place at the right time. The chestnut broke on top, made all the running and withstood a late bid from Her Royal Nibs for her first stakes victory. "I wasn't going to run in here, I was going to run her in an 'a other than,'" Schosberg explained. "I saw that it was going to be a six-horse field, and I thought if they scratched down to five, she would get a race out of it and they might pay us for a workout. I honestly didn't think she was good enough to beat these fillies." Zippy Shannon may get another chance to prove her worth in the Iroquois S. on New York Showcase Day Oct. 21 at Belmont.

Around the Cape set a course record of 1:07 1/5 for six furlongs on the Belmont lawn in capturing the Gill Jaipur H. on Memorial Day. The bay tired to sixth in his next out, the one-mile Gill Poker H. at Belmont July 2, but rebounded in an optional claimer on the dirt at Saratoga, rallying past the swift Caller One Aug. 23. A slight choice in this off-the-turf affair, Around the Cape secured a good spot on the inside through a half in :45.09 and bested the veteran Spooky Mulder to get the win. This week's accomplishment: Consigned KEESEP hip 425, the second-highest selling yearling of all time. The colt was purchased by John Ferguson, agent for Sheikh Mohammed, for $11.7 million on day 2 at Keeneland September.

Birthdate: May 8, 1968

Birthplace: Graham, Texas (100 miles west of Ft. Worth)

Current Residence: Lexington, Kentucky

How did you kick back and celebrate? I had a very quiet dinner, woke up the next morning and went to work. I really haven't done much celebrating.

Do you have a favorite restaurant in Lexington? The Merrick Inn. It has a very good atmosphere, the food is always good, they always have good vegetables. You need to go there if you haven't been.

What do you do when you're not consigning eight-figure horses? I am a hunter. My favorite thing to do is to go big game hunting in the Western United States and Canada.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Africa, both to do touristy things, like go on a safari, and, of course, to hunt.

Historical figure you'd like to spend 15 minutes with? Teddy Roosevelt. He was a great American. I'd like to talk to him about conservation practices.

Favorite movie? Lonesome Dove.

What CD is in your player right now? Waylon Jennings.

Favorite horse? Thunder Gulch. He came from a person I was working for at the time and I was honored to work with him. He was always the underdog. He was a little small and immature, but had a lot of heart.

Biggest risk you've ever taken in life? Leaving everything I had in Texas to be in the horse business. I rolled the dice, and came up here with everything I owned in the back of a pick-up truck to chase the horse business.

YEATS PLANS ON HOLD

Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) may sidestep the his top-weight assignment in the Nov. 7 G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup after returning from his defeat in Saturday's G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh somewhat the worse for wear. Beaten a half-length by Kastoria (Ire) as the 2-7 favorite in that 1 3/4-mile contest, the G1 Ascot Gold Cup hero came out of the race less than 100 percent. "He was a little bit stiff this morning, so we'll see how he is over the next few days," trainer Aidan O'Brien said yesterday. "He was trained for high summer and the Gold Cup was his Derby, so maybe he's gone back a bit. If he'd won impressively yesterday, we'd have been going the way of the Melbourne Cup, but Kieren just thought the kick just wasn't there and maybe he wants a little break."

Yesterday's Results:

Also ran: Flash McGahon (Ire), City of Tribes (Ire), Diannella (Ire), El Soprano (Ire), Plato's Republic, Mythical Echo, Saint Andrew (Ire).

Brave Tin Soldier traveled to Britain for his first two starts, finishing runner-up at Goodwood Aug. 1 and again at York 22 days later, where he found the subsequent G3 Firth of Clyde S. third La Presse too strong. On home shores for the first time, he showed early speed to race prominently. The juvenile was cajoled to the front with a furlong remaining and asserted under mainly hands and heels. "He's an improving sort and won quite well," jockey Kieren Fallon commented. "He'll definitely go on to better things, as he's a laid-back type." Trainer Aidan O'Brien is aiming Brave Tin Soldier at the Sept. 29 G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket. His dam, a full sister to Kentucky Derby hero Fusaichi Pegasus, sold for $4 million to ClassicStar at the 2002 Keeneland November Sale in foal to Storm Cat.

Much water has flowed under the bridge since Ivan Denisovich excited the Newmarket crowds when powering away with last year's G2 July S. The sophomore was getting his picture taken for the first time since in this contest. Runner-up in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville last August, the Ballydoyle colt was fourth in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket in September before finishing down the field in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Belmont the next month. Off the board in the Apr. 23 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau and May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp, he rebounded with a third in the G1 St. James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 20. Only eighth in the July 9 G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly, he chased home Showing Up in the Aug. 12 G1 Secretariat S. at Arlington on his latest start. Settled in the wake of the early leaders by Kieren Fallon, he was driven to close inside the final quarter and responded to grind out the success in the shade of the post. "He's run some good races and I thought a lot of him as a two-year-old, but he'd just lost his way after running on desperate ground in the Prix Morny last year," his rider explained. "I thought he'd be impressive, but he made hard work of it. Hopefully we'll get him back."

Curragh, 1.40, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, 7fT, 1:27.00, gd. ESSEXFORD (IRE) (f, 2, Spinning World--La Rosetta {Ire}, by Alzao), unplaced on debut over this course and distance Aug. 26, was sent off at 12-1 and was at the fore of the cavalry charge early. Taking over approaching the eighth pole, the 40,000gns TATDEC weanling and 35,000gns DONSEP yearling had enough in the tank to hold on as Mamlook (Ire) (Key of Luck) closed to within a short head at the line.
