With a furlong to run, everybody was wondering what all the worry had been about. George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) scythed through the high-class field assembled for the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot yesterday and asserted his authority with a decisive victory.

racingpost.co.uk

There had been much talk of his quirks, the injury that had kept him off the scene throughout the summer and the rain-softened ground, but in the end Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's flagship took it all in impressive stride. Coming off the

KING OF THE HILL

After purchasing King of the Roxy (Littleexpectations) off his July 2 maiden victory, Team Valor's Barry Irwin said, "He's potentially a $2 million horse with an $8,000 pedigree." While the future value of the two-year-old colt--the third horse through the ring on the final day of last year's Keeneland September sale--will be determined over time, he took a promising first step yesterday, coming from just off the pace to land the GII Futurity S. at Belmont Park. A dull and green fifth in his racetrack debut at Hollywood Park May 18, the Ohio-bred was fitted with blinkers for his next start and put it all together, graduating by 2 3/4 lengths in a very professional effort July 2. He proved he belonged with this kind of horse when finishing runner-up in the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 17 and went one better yesterday, rallying four wide on the turn before staying on gamely for the win. "I thought he got some good experience out of his last race," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "He is still learning a little bit. He is still looking around a little bit. Each race and each work, he gets a little more focused." Futurity S. chart p4

STRONG CONTENDER LAYS DOWN THE LAW

John Oxley's Strong Contender (Maria's Mon) sat a perfect ground-saving trip beneath Robby Albarado, switched out three wide for the drive and ran down odds-on Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) to post a one-length victory in yesterday's 27th running of the GII Super Derby S. at Louisiana Downs. Super Derby cont. p4

MEADOW BREEZE BLOWS THRU MATRON

Unheralded Meadow Breeze (Meadowlake), racing at the fifth different track in her six-race career, raced prominently throughout and dug in gamely for a head victory at odds of 34-1 in yesterday's G1 Matron S. at Belmont Park. Matron cont. p3

The word was out about George Washington before he set foot on a racecourse and he proved it was for real when winning the G1 Phoenix S. by eight lengths last August. Put away for the winter after a follow-up in the G1 National S. the next month, he arrived at Newmarket for the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas with a tidal wave of expectation behind him. The bay treated a high-quality field with disdain there, cruising to a 2½-length tally over subsequent G1 Epsom Derby winner Sir Percy (GB), but he tore muscles in his hindquarters when second to Araafa in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh three weeks later. Nursed back to health for Goodwood's G2 Celebration Mile, he got going late after a slow start to be third in that contest Aug. 27, but was just warming up for his tour de force here. Steadied in mid-pack early as his pacemakers carved out the fractions, he was boxed in between rivals turning into the straight, with Mick Kinane keeping a tight hold. Allowed some rein approaching the final furlong, he responded to pick up Araafa and Christophe Soumillon in a matter of strides before being coaxed to a facile score. "They went a nice pace and we got in behind [trainer] Jeremy [Nosedal]'s colt, as I knew he'd take me where I wanted to go," said winning rider Mick Kinane. "When I asked him, he went by him very easily. I've ridden good milers, but none better than him and there were never any worries today--he behaved impeccably and he was very content going out and going down before the start, showing a great attitude. People were probably all too quick to knock him down after a farce of a race at Goodwood on his comeback with a penalty, but I got on well with him that day and he's an exceptionally good horse." Aidan O'Brien is looking to Churchill Downs Nov. 4 and the GI Breeders' Cup Mile with George Washington. "Everybody saw it today and Mick said he was just half-speeding," the conditioner added. "He grew up great after Goodwood and Mick learnt a lot about him that day. He's becoming a man now--he's been a little bit immature, but he walked into the parade ring fine. We'd love to go for the Mile and I think that's where we'll go." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

It has been a case of perfect progression as far as Simply Perfect is concerned this term and she continued the upward trend with a game success in this contest. Beaten only by the subsequent G1 Prix Morny hero Dutch Art (GB) at Windsor on debut June 5, she filled the same spot 16 days later in the G2 Queen Mary S. over five furlongs at the Royal meeting here. Trying a furlong further, she graduated in a Lingfield maiden July 14 before returning to this venue to finish third in the G3 Princess Margaret S. 15 days later. She met trouble in running and was unable to land a blow when seventh in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. over seven furlongs of The Curragh Aug. 27, but demonstrated her toughness when bouncing back to win the G2 May Hill S. over York's mile Sept. 9. Settled close to the early pace set by the rank Sesmen (GB) (Inchior {GB}), she was committed by Darryll Holland at the top of the stretch and led at the quarter pole. Always holding Treat and Jamie Spencer to her inside, she veered right across her path late on, but the stewards allowed her to keep the contest. "I said to [trainer] Jeremy [Noseda] the other day that she's a strong little filly and still has a bit of Queen Mary speed in her," her rider said. "This was her second time over a mile and she really dropped her head for me today. Her attribute is that she's very tough and travels well. She sees out the trip very well and wants better ground than this--when she gets it she'll lengthen a bit more than she did there." Noseda is targeting the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket next May. "She's a tough, honest filly who showed form at five and has just progressed and got better as she's gone up in trip," he said. Things didn't quite work out for Willow Rock Stable, who tried to resell Meadow Breeze, a $45,000 Fasig-Tipton July yearling purchase, at this year's OBS March Sale, but bought her back and added her to the racing stable. That misfortune turned into good fortune yesterday when the chestnut found the line a head better than the dead-heating Octave and Featherbed to become a Grade I winner. The most experienced of this sextet, she broke her maiden at Evangeline Downs June 1, took a Mountaineer allowance July 16 and was fourth in that track's Aug. 6 Juvenile Fillies S., a race which produced GI Spinaway S. winner Appealing Zophie. She was most recently runner-up in the off-the-turf P.G. Johnson S. at Saratoga Aug. 30, but was still the rank outsider in this field. Sent up to dispute the pace outside of Featherbed, Meadow Breeze drifted out in upper stretch, but continued to dig in gamely and was just up. Octave rallied from fifth to share the place spot. Strong Contender, sold by Murray Smith at the 2005
 Keeneland April Sale, broke his maiden at first asking at Arlington last August and returned to post a 4 3/4-length allowance victory at Gulfstream Feb. 22, as whispers of the Triple Crown trail crescendoed. But after being excluded from the Gil Lane's End S. due to insufficient earnings when the race was oversub-scribed, Derby dreams hinged on a lone start in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. A distant third in that Apr. 15 event dashed those dreams and he followed with a third in the Gil Peter Pan S. at Belmont May 20, but bounced back with a 7 3/4-length success in the Gil Dwyer S. July 4. The attractive chestnut made his most recent start in the GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Aug. 6, but effectively lost all chance when he broke in the air, was brushed at the start and rounded out the trifecta. Partnered with Robby Albarado for the first time, Strong Contender sat the garden trip as Lawyer Ron tugged his way along despite the efforts of his regular rider John McKee. Given his cue midway on the far turn, Strong Contender rallied determinedly into the lane and closed willingly for the win. Click for the Third behind Halicarnassus (Ire) in the G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket on his latest start July 14, he stepped up to record his first stakes success in that rival's absence here. Settled behind the fast early pace by Mick Kinane, he was angled wide for his run in the final quarter and wore down Medicine Path with 100 yards remaining before drawing clear. "They went very fast and he came home well, but we were worried about the ground beforehand," trainer Aidan O'Brien commented. "He's always been a very tough horse and has always finished his races, so Mick did the right thing in slotting in and bidding his time. He's a lovely big, fine horse." O'Brien added, "It's probable he won't run again this season. We'll give him time over the winter and he's a horse to look forward to, as he got a mile well today and, as he matures, I'd be surprised if he doesn't get a mile and a quarter. This was plain sailing for Lateral, who comfortably upstaged his elders to record an impressive success. Having beaten the top-class filly Dionisia in the G1 Gran Criterium at the San Siro in October, he proved himself in the top league, but his sophomore campaign started off slowly. Nevertheless, the colt was a respectable third in the G3 Prix de Guiche at Chantilly May 10 and G3 Bavarian Classic at Munich June 5. Things slotted back into place with a four-length success in the July 15 G3 Hamburger-Meile, but he had to work hard to beat Willingly (Ger) (Second Set {Ire}) in the G3 Oppenheim Pramerica Meile over course and distance Aug. 6. Third behind Notability (Ire) in the G2 Oettingen-Rennen at Baden-Baden last time Aug. 29, he regained the winning thread here, stalking the early pace before pouncing at the quarter pole. Soon clear, he was in no danger as Vega's Lord held off the rallying Arcadio to win the battle for the runner's-up spot. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Winner of the G3 Nell Gwyn S. and nosed out of the win in the G1 Coronation S. last year, Karen's Caper shipped to this country and missed by a flared nostril in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland Oct. 15. Shelved off a distant ninth-place effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf at Belmont Park Oct. 29, the homebred has been brought along slowly this season, with just a pair of starts under her belt.

The 1-2 chalk in a second-level allowance at Saratoga July 28, the bay was off slowly, raced wide and could do no better than fourth, but she atoned for that effort in her latest, charging late to finish second by 3/4 of a length in the GII Ballston Spa H. at Saratoga Aug. 26. Pommes Frites took up her customary position on the front end and cut out fractions of :24.14 and :48.27 as Karen's Caper was patiently ridden from fifth. The pacesetter cut the corner nicely into the lane, but the favorite was taken outside for the final three-sixteenths and she was along late for the win. "I thought she was compromised last time out by a slow pace," commented winning trainer Bobby Frankel. "That was a concern today also with Pommes Frites in there.

[Jockey] Edgar [Prado] had her in a good spot and she kicked in real hard today. We'll look at races like the [GI $400,000] First Lady [one mile, Keeneland Oct. 14] and the [GI $500,000] Matriarch [one mile, Hollywood Nov. 26]. TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

Brought to you by FASIG-TIPTON

ARTHUR B. HANCOCK III

Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment:
 The Stone Farm chief bred and owns Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold), winner of last Saturday's GII Brooklyn H.

Birthdate: Feb. 22, 1943

Birthplace: Nashville, Tenn.

Current Residence: Paris, Ky

Family: Wife Staci, son Arthur IV, and daughters Alex, Hutchi, Kate, Lynn and Walker.

Do you think a horse's attitude - be it aggressive or laid-back - is an indicator of his or her racing ability? No, they're all different; they're like people. Goodbye Halo, who won the [Kentucky] Oaks for us, she was real nice to be around. Fusaichi Pegasus, however, he was a character. You do find a lot of race horses that are tough. It's war out there. You don't want to turn one down because it has a tough streak. What you don't want is a common horse--a mean son of a gun, like a damn criminal. They're not going to try hard.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? I would stop all the illegal drugging of horses, and punish the hell out of the criminals that do it. I would stop the commercial bribery at the sales--the consignors who give bribes and the people who take them. I would ruthlessly stamp out those two things, because they're going to kill the game. You have but one reputation, and once it's gone it's gone.

You write and sing country and western songs. What's the best line you've written? I wrote one for my wife, called "Everything That I am I owe to you."

What is your favorite vacation spot? Just somewhere in the mountains going skiing for a week.

Who are your favorite artists? Guys like Cat Stevens, Gordon Lightfoot, Johnny Cash, Jim Taylor, Bill Monroe.

Did you see the Cash film? Oh yeah. I thought it was real good, very well done. I went to see him back when I was working for Eddie Neloy down at Hialeah. It was in 1967, I went to see him somewhere in Dade County. I got there, he came out and sang about half of a song, and was so drunk that they had to stop the show and give us our money back.

Favorite meal? Probably just a good steak and a green salad. Or fried chicken and blackberry cobbler a la mode.

Favorite film? Splendor in the Grass; I loved that film. It's with Warren Beatty and Natalie Wood.

| 7  | 4  | Quelle Amore (Ger)   | Monsun (Ger)     | Wohler    | 118 |

Four of the last six renewals of this contest have gone overseas and that trend could be extended this year courtesy of Youmzain. After a third behind Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the May 14 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown, his campaign has gone from strength to strength bar one downturn when unplaced after a troubled trip in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot June 23. Back to winning ways in Newmarket's Listed Bahrain Trophy July 13, he bested Red Rocks (Ire) in the Aug. 22 G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York before finishing a half-length second to Rail Link (GB) in the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp on his latest start Sept. 10. Backing up the British challenge is Enforcer, who finished on the heels of Shirocco (Ger) and Ouija Board (GB) when third in the June 2 G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom and Hurricane Run (Ire), Electrocutonist and Heart's Cry (Jpn) when fourth in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 29.

He has fully recovered from the foot problem that was ailing him when trailing in an Epsom conditions event Aug. 28 and seeks the major title his record deserves. Of the home team, Oriental Tiger may be the pick on his third in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 23 and second in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden last time Sept. 3. He bids to provide trainer Uwe Ostmann with back-to-back renewals following the exploits of the subsequent Godolphin acquisition Gonbarda (Ger) last year. The July 16 G2 Hansa-Preis winner Egerton warrants respect, having followed that Hamburg success with fourth placings in the G1 Rheinland-Pokal over course and distance Aug. 13 and in the Grosser Preis von Baden last time.

| 7  | Colorful Judgement   | Diesis (GB)        | Fehr         | 12-1 |

Fourth in this Canadian International prep last year, Last Answer seems to be sitting on a breakthrough performance this time around. Second by a neck to Jambalaya in the June 25 Singpiel S., the homebred led nearly every step of the way in the GII Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup S. July 23 before yielding late to be runner-up while 2 3/4 lengths ahead of Jambalaya. He came from off the pace in his latest, only to miss by a neck to Rush Bay in the Aug. 27 GII Nijinsky S. and should offer good value today. Better Talk Now is the obvious class of this field, but may lack the necessary pace to set up his typical barnstorming finish. Most recently seventh in the GI Arlington Million Aug. 13, the gelding's lone victory this year came in the GII Dixie S. at Pimlico May 20. Silver Whistle and Grand Couturier represent the from of the GI Sword Dancer H., where they finished second and third, respectively.

Baltic King put up one of the best handicap performances in recent years when defying top weight and besting Firenze in the June 24 Wokingham H. over course and distance at the Royal meeting. After two off-the-board efforts on slow ground, he rebounded to win the Listed Beverley Bullet Sprint S. on his latest start Aug. 27, and connections will be hoping it stays dry. Three-time Group 1 winner Somnus had been largely in the doldrums until recently, when recapturing some old sparkle when besting Excusez Moi in a Haydock conditions event July 8. That was his first win since capturing the 2004 G1 Prix de la Foret, and preceded a fine fourth in the Sept. 2 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and 3/4-of-a-length second to Iffraaj (GB) in the G2 Park S. at York a week later.

KENTUCKY CUP TURF STAKES RAINED OUT

Officials at Kentucky Downs were forced to cancel Saturday's live racing program after heavy rains pelted the area overnight into the morning. The program was to feature three stakes races, highlighted by the GIII Kentucky Cup Turf. Those events have been rescheduled and will be run as races 1-4 prior to the regularly scheduled card at the Franklin, Kentucky, track tomorrow with a first post of 12 p.m.

GRACEFIELD COLTS TOP DAY 12 A pair of six-figure colts consigned by Ben Walden Jr.'s Gracefield agency led the way as the Keeneland September Yearling Sale completed its 12th day of activity yesterday. Hip 4431, a colt by the successful international sire Hussonet, was knocked down for a session-topping $170,000 to the bid of Bloodstock Management. The bay son of Hancock (Wild Again) represented yet another successful pinhook for the agency, which signed the ticket on the colt for $30,000 at last year's November sale under the banner of Aspiration Stud. The Mar. 28 foal hails from the extended female family of Slew City Slew, sire of leading handicap horse Lava Man. Hip 4259, a colt from the first crop of the fleet Zavata (Phone Trick), was purchased by bloodstock agent Sam Semkin, agent for Jon Kelly, for $105,000. Produced by the Wolf Power (SAf) mare Tiwa Wolf E F, the Apr. 22 is from the family of champion Pleasant Stage. He was a $35,000 purchase by Aspiration Stud at last year's November sale. With two days remaining in the sale, the cumulative average of $125,871 is ahead by 4.7 percent versus last year while the median of $55,000 is a very healthy 17 percent better than 2005. Book 7 kicks off this morning at 10 a.m.

Ebony Breeze Retired:

Kinsman Stable's millionaire Ebony Breeze (Belong to Me--Valid Carnuba, by Valid Appeal) has been retired and is booked to Horse of the Year Mineshaft in her first season at stud in 2007. A stakes winner in each of the last four years, the six-year-old mare took four Grade III events and celebrated her best season as a sophomore, with wins in the GIII Florida Oaks and the GIII Azalea Breeders' Cup S. She added to her resume with a victory in the GIII Chicago Breeders' Cup H. this past June, making it nine black-type wins overall. On the board in 28 of her 38 starts, she retires with earnings of $1,039,922. "She retired completely sound," trainer Bill Mott told Daily Racing Form. "She could've gone on, but they decided she'd done enough. They reached their goal of her earning $1 million this summer. For me, she's been an awful nice addition to the barn for the last several years."

Rebel Rebel to Hong Kong:

IEAH Stables' Rebel Rebel (Ire) (Revoque {Ire}), a narrow runner-up in the GI Woodbine Mile last Sunday, has the $2.1 million G1 Hong Kong Mile as his long-term goal, Daily Racing Form reports. Trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. told the publication that he will not consider the GI Breeders' Cup Mile for the four-year-old due to his failure to handle the sand-based nature of the Churchill Downs turf course. Rebel Rebel finished seventh as the favorite in last year's Commonwealth Turf S. Nov. 13. "We ran him on that turf course and...he didn't like it and I don't want to do it again," Dutrow said. "One turn, that seems to be his game, so we'll let him play his game. It looks like we got him straightened out now." Rebel Rebel is likely to have one prep prior to the Hong Kong Mile, scheduled for Dec. 10.

Bayou's Lassie won her first two starts at Calder, including a June 30 allowance. She couldn't handle the class hike in her next start, finishing seventh in the GIII Azalea Breeders' Cup S. July 15, but got back on the right right path with a victory in her turf and two-turn debut in a $25,000 optional claimer Aug. 12. Favored to win her second straight, Bayou's Lassie broke on top from the one hole, led by five lengths through a half mile in :48.89 and held Silversider safe.

Always First, winner of last year's GII Sunset Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood, closed out his 2005 campaign with a sixth-place finish in the GII Del Mar H. Aug. 28. Brought back by trainer Neil Drysdale for the GII San Marcos S. at Santa Anita Jan. 22, he could only manage an eighth-place finish behind The Tin Man and was placed back on the shelf thereafter. Making his first start for Thomas Voss here, the bay sat a stalking third, rallied on the turn for home and powered clear for a smart tally.

7th-DEL, $44,800, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 1:06 1/5, ft. + DARE ME TO (c, 2, Exploit--Parmilla, by Silver Deputy), a 9-2 chance to win at first asking, settled in seventh through :21.78 and :45.93 fractions and kicked it into high gear in the stretch to win by three lengths. Lord Barrister (In Case) was second best. The victor is a half to Silver Stockings (Seattle Sleet), MSW, $162,443. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,600. O-Inwood Farm. B-Barbara Hunter (KY). Back on the dirt here, the 6-5 chalk dueled for the early lead and drew away to score by seven lengths. The winner was a $8,000 KEENOV weanling and a $55,000 KEESEP yearling. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $37,100. O-Markpoint Stable. B-Fred Sahadi (KY). T-Scott Blasi.

Kentucky Cup Nominations Up:

All but one of the five races which comprise the Kentucky Cup Day of Champions at Turfway Park Sept. 30 have attracted more nominations than their respective 2005 editions. A total of 32 horses were made eligible for the GII Classic, down slightly from 36 in 2005, but among the expected starters are Perfect Drift (Dynaformer), Gouldings Green (Charismatic) and Greeley's Galaxy (Mr. Greeley). The GIII Juvenile attracted 38 entries, up from 30 last season, and could include Shermanesque (Fusaichi Pegasus) and Kauai Calls (Fusaichi Pegasus), among others. Some 43 fillies and mares are nominated for the GIII Turfway Breeders' Cup S. and among the probables to face the starter are La Reason (Labeeb {GB}). In its 12-year history, the Kentucky Cup has produced the winners of six Breeders' Cup races, including Sprint champion Cajun Beat.

Tanta Suerte, champion two-year-old filly in her native Chile, ran fifth in her U.S. debut in Hollywood's GIII Wilshire H. Apr. 26, then finished third in that track's Wishing Well S. May 26. Freshened after that effort, she resurfaced at Del Mar with a sixth-place finish in the Osunitas H. Aug. 9, but turned things around with a third-place finish in her dirt debut in the Aug. 31 Adoration H. Trying dirt again here, the second choice sat patiently in third while favored Allswellthatnswell set an uncontested lead. With David Flores aboard, the chestnut began to cut into the pacesetter's lengthy lead in the stretch and got past that one late to post the victory.

Wait a While to Prep in California:

Wait a While (Maria's Mon), the impressive winner of the GI American Oaks at Hollywood Park in July, will make a return trip to the Golden State to prep for the Breeders' Cup in Saturday's GI Yellow Ribbon S. at the Oak Tree at Santa Anita meeting. While there is a more lucrative opportunity to run against her peers in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland Oct. 14, trainer Todd Pletcher prefers the distance, timing and the likelihood of fast ground at Santa Anita. "We felt this was the best way to get there," the conditioner told Daily Racing Form. "The firm course is a big factor and I like the spacing."

Last season, All Ivory captured handicaps at Newmarket in July and September before returning to that track to finish fifth behind King's Caprice Apr. 19. Off the track since a subsequent unplaced effort in a Lingfield handicap May 13, the chestnut overcame the layoff to bag this valuable prize. Settled behind the early leaders by Jimmy Fortune, he was produced with a power-packed late rally to inhale old rival King's Caprice with 100 yards remaining and assert as Fullandby closed to fill the exacta. "His last race wasn't run to suit and he needs to be dropped in and ridden with a bit of patience," trainer Roger Charlton said. "The rain helped too and Jimmy [Fortune] said that a mile will suit well and that he won with a bit in hand, which is encouraging."

CHOISIR FILLY TOPS SGA SATURDAY

While 14 lots broke through the six-figure barrier during a lively initial session at Societa Gestione Aste's Select Yearling Sale at the Settimo Milanese venue Friday, yesterday's closing installment was a more subdued affair, with no bids reaching that landmark. The session topper, hip 153, hit the ring before midday, with leading domestic player La Nuova Sbarra going to €70,000 for a filly by Choisir (Aus) out of the Alzao mare Luna d'Estate (GB). Offered by Razza del Sole and already named Luna Nel Pozzo (GB), she hails from the family of G2 Premio Federico Tesio winner Big Reef (Ire). This term's freshman sensation Invincible Spirit (Ire) was responsible for the highest-priced colt of the session. Con Marnane, in action early, went to €65,000 for the third lot through the ring. Offered by Azienda Agricola Rosati Colarieti as hip 131, he represented the first of the Bانشa House frontman's four purchases on the day. Closing day returns remained virtually on a par with last year's figures, although Friday's fireworks ensured the sale aggregate advanced almost nine percent. Complete results can be viewed at
