SETBACKS FOR GODOLPHIN QEII PAIR

Godolphin runners Librettist (Danzig) and Proclamation (Ire) (King's Best) were yesterday reported to be lame following their disappointing efforts in Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. Racing Manager Simon

Librettist

racingpost.co.uk

Crisford revealed to the Racing Post that plans are now up in the air for both last year's G1 Sussex S. winner Proclamation, who was fifth behind George Washington (Ire) and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and G1 Prix du Moulin hero Librettist, a place behind. "Both horses are lame in front, so it is a question of monitoring their progress in the next few days," Crisford told the Post. "Everything is on hold. Proclamation was disappointing and never looked like he had any finishing kick in him. Librettist didn't run anything like as well as he can run." With two of the stable's top runners currently sidelined, Godolphin will be without representation in Britain's last two Group 1 races of the season. "I don't think we will have anything in the Champion S. or the Sun Chariot S.," Crisford said.

MASTERPIECE HEADED EAST

Gainsborough Stud's Court Masterpiece (GB) (Polish Precedent) is being prepared for a winter campaign in Japan before retiring to stud in that country, connections announced yesterday. The Ed Dunlop-trained

Court Masterpiece APRH

six-year-old, winner of the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2, finished 3 1/4-lengths third behind George Washington (Ire) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. "He'll run in a race over seven furlongs in November and another over a mile in December and then be retired to one of Sheikh Mohammed's studs in Japan," the owner's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond told PA Sport. "The feeling is that he will have a better opportunity of establishing himself over there."

MUCH 'BETTER,' EH?

After failing to make an impact in his last two starts, Bushwood Stable's Better Talk Now (Talkin Man) took a trip over the border and got back to winning ways in yesterday's GII Sky Classic H. at Woodbine. The seven-year-old veteran, winner of the 2004 G1 Breeders' Cup Turf, rallied from near the back of the seven-horse field and was resolute in overtaking pacesetter Last Answer (Langfuhr) and Jambalaya (Langfuhr) to win by a head in a three-horse photo. "I've said all along this year, I think this horse is every bit as good as he was when he won the Breeders' Cup," said his trainer, H. Graham Motion, after the race. Despite his confidence, Motion said he may bypass the Breeders' Cup this year and instead opt for a return to Woodbine for the $2 million, G1 Pattison Canadian International Oct. 22. "I think there's a pretty good chance," said Motion. "The International is a very prestigious race in its own right."

OPTIONS OPEN FOR OUIJA BOARD

Trainer Ed Dunlop is looking at the G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. as an alternative to Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Opera de Longchamp for Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Lord Derby's multiple Group 1 winner could be kept at home for the Newmarket contest Oct. 14 instead of traveling to France if the ground worsens ahead of the Arc meeting. "We have the option of the Opera, but we could also look at the Champion S., which would still leave us three weeks to the Breeders' Cup," the conditioner told the Racing Post. "She is very fresh and we are happy with her at this stage."

THOMAS TO TAKE ON BERNARDINI

Susan Magnier's Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) will make his debut on dirt against Bernardini in Belmont's G1 Jockey Club Gold Cup Oct. 7, trainer Aidan O'Brien has confirmed. John Velazquez has been booked for the ride on the G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. winner. "We're looking at giving him a prep for the [Breeders' Cup] Classic in the Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont rather than in the Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Park next weekend," O'Brien told Racing Post.

Germany got a taste of the "Fallon factor" as Coolmore's number-one rider enjoyed an away day to steer Youmzain to his first top-flight success. Youmzain has made rapid improvement this season against some of Europe's finest middle-distance performers, running third behind Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 14. Badly hampered when down the field in the June 23 G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot, he took the Listed Bahrain Trophy at Newmarket July 13 before reeling in Red Rocks (Ire) with a dramatic late swoop in the Aug. 22 G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York. He met his match again in Rail Link (GB) when runner-up in the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp last time Sept. 10, but gained compensation when pitched against his elders for the first time. Reserved in rear early, he was threaded through a gap on the rail at the top of the straight and sent in pursuit of Egerton, who was battling to ward off the attentions of Enforcer. Egerton overcame that rival, but it was Youmzain who emerged up the rail to wrest the spoils in the final 50 yards. Better Talk Now began 2006 promisingly enough, winning the GII Dixie S. at Pimlico May 20, but he disappointed when fifth in the July 8, GI United Nations S. and again when seventh in the Aug. 12, GI Arlington Million. Reversing form in yesterday's Sky Classic, he is the first horse to have competed at Woodbine after winning a Breeders' Cup race since Chief Bearhart did so in 1998 after taking the 1997 GI Turf.

This contest was marred by multiple withdrawals due to Friday's heavy rain, but Red Clubs stamped some class on to proceedings despite creating his own drama in the closing stages. Winner of the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot at York and twice placed in Group 1 company at two, he returned to capture the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury Apr. 22. Down the field in the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas and the June 21 G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot, he showed enough when fifth while sprinting in the Aug. 24 G1 Nunthorpe S. and Sept. 2 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup to suggest he was nearing his best. Always traveling strongly while stalking the early pace, he was sent to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and had the race in safe keeping despite hanging violently left in the final 50 yards. "I don't know why he hung left, but he would have won by five or six lengths if he hadn't," jockey Michael Hills said. Young Mick's rise from the obscurity of Britain's poor-quality banded racing has been well-documented this year due to three high-profile handicap successes at this track. The four-year-old gelding kicked it off with a victory at the Royal meeting in the June 24 Duke of Edinburgh S., and capped the streak with a success in the Aug. 12 Shergar Cup Challenge. He came back to post a prior to a highly creditable third in the Ebor H. at York 11 days later and completed the journey here. Settled in rear by Robert Winston, he traveled easily into the stretch before taking over approaching the eighth pole. Always holding the wide challenge of Munsef in the closing stages, Young Mick was firmly on top at the line to register his first stakes success and a 10th win of the season. This race was originally scheduled for Saturday, but heavy rains forced the cancellation of the card. The likely favorite for the rescheduled event will be Silverfoot, who won the GIII Louisville H. in late May. He was a solid fourth to English Channel in the GI United Nations S. and most recently was sixth, beaten five lengths, in the GI Sword Dancer S. at Saratoga Aug. 12. He gets a class reprieve here, but does face the good three-year-old turfer Rock Lobster. That one is trying to build off his success in the Sept. 3 GIII Saranac S. at Saratoga.

VAN NISTELROOY COLT TOPS SUNDAY The end is nigh. Keeneland's marathon September Sale is set to draw to a close with today's 14th and final session. Yesterday's penultimate day of bidding was highlighted by a colt from the first crop of Van Nistelrooy that elicited a $75,000 bid from Sam Semkin, agent for Jon Kelly. Selling as hip 4497, the chestnut is out of the Meadowlake mare Meadowfold, an unraced half-sister to stakes-winner Mandarin Star (Personal Hope). Upson Downs Farm, agent, consigned the colt. Hip 4627 was the leading filly on the afternoon. From the initial crop of Posse, the bay, out of another Meadowlake mare in Summertime Liza, made $67,000 on Heiligbrodt Racing Stable's offer. The filly hailed from the draft of Viking Stud, Inc., agent for Meadowdale Farm. Action gets underway this morning at 10:00. For full results, visit www.keeneland.com.

Bernardini, Invasor Work; Jazil Returns to Track:

Bernardini Horsephotos

Darley Stable's Bernardini (A.P. Indy) continues to train well in advance of the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Oct. 7. On Saturday, the GI Travers S. hero breezed five furlongs over Belmont's 'fast' main track in 1:00.90, his third work since winning the Midsummer Derby. "It was just like all his other breezes," said exercise rider Simon Harris, who was aboard for the move. "It just amazes you that he does everything so easy."

The horse that figures to be Bernardini's main competition in the Gold Cup, the GI Whitney H. winner Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes), also worked Saturday. Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin sent the colt out to a five-panel breeze over the training track in 1:03.03. "That's just him," McLaughlin said about the lackadaisical move. "He'll work back once more before the Gold Cup. I'm happy with the way he's going." McLaughlin's brilliant GI King's Bishop S. winner Henny Hughes (Hennessy) was another on Saturday's worktab, and like his stablemate, he hardly set the track on fire. The sophomore breezed a half-mile on the training track in :52.20. "I think I over-coached the riders, which is one of the reasons he worked so slow," McLaughlin commented. "If you don't take a hold of him, he'll go :46, :58, and I'm not looking for that. Hopefully next week we can get a :48 out of him." Henny Hughes is being prepared for a tilt in the six-furlong GI Vosburgh H. at Belmont Oct. 7, his first start against older horses.

Meanwhile, McLaughlin's GI Belmont S. winner Jazil (Seeking the Gold), who was sidelined over the summer with a bruised hind cannon bone, took a stroll over Belmont's main track yesterday. "He galloped [Sunday] for the first time," said the conditioner. "He looked great. Right now, the Breeders' Cup is doubtful. We nominated him to the [G1] Japan Cup Dirt, but we'll wait and see."

I'm a Numbers Guy came from off the pace to win his debut going a furlong shorter at Delaware Sept. 9 and was given plenty of respect to take his stakes bow. Up to contest the early pace this time, the chestnut took command 1 1/2 furlongs from home and drew off to win by daylight. "He rated perfectly, and when he was asked, he sprinted down the lane," said winning trainer Tim Ritchey. "We'll probably bring him back in the [one-mile] Sleepy Hollow S. [for New York-breds Oct. 21]."

Win With a Wink came home an easy winner in her career bow against state-bred fillies here July 15 before making it two straight at the Spa Aug. 24. Let go at a generous price this time, the bay was bumped at the start and stalked the early pace. Ready to take over approaching the homestretch, the New York bred wrestled the lead from Laurentide Ice in the stretch and powered clear to collect her first stakes victory. "The pace was honest, and when [Fernando Jara] asked her, she fired right out of there," said winning trainer Bill Mott. "She had to battle away in her last race; this one was a little easier for her." Mott indicated that the freshman filly will likely make her next start in the one-mile Maid of the Mist S. Oct. 21. FIVE STAR DAYDREAM (f, 2, Five Star Day--September Charmer, by Septieme Ciel), a 2 1/4-length winner last out going a sixteenth shorter at the Spa Aug. 10, was installed the hot 1-5 favorite this time. Never far off the early pace in fourth, the $250,000 FTFFEB juvenile and $55,000 KEESEP yearling was aimed toward a seam along the rail turning for home and drew away late to win by three lengths over Bedside Story (Tale of the Cat). Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $63,800.

1st-BEL, $44,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:35 3/5, fm. NUNNERY (f, 3, Forest Wildcat--Convent, by A.P. Indy), a good second going a sixteenth longer over the Saratoga turf course Aug. 26, was given a 5-1 chance here. On the engine early, the chestnut relinquished the lead after a half mile, but was back at the head of affairs after three-quarters in 1:10.87. In front by five with a furlong left to go, the homebred had enough left in reserve to hand Mrs. Bailey (Mister Baileys {GB}) a 2 3/4-length defeat. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $36,160. O/B-Claiborne Farm (KY). T-William I Mott.

4th-BEL, $43,000, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 1:04 1/5, ft. WOLLASTON BAY (c, 2, Sea of Secrets--Wollaston's Baby, by Wollaston) followed a third over this track July 13 with a third at the Spa Aug. 6. A well-beaten fifth in an off-the-turf event going seven panels there Aug. 6, the $8,500 OBSAUG yearling was given a 9-2 chance here. On top from the word go, the chestnut led at every call and galloped home an easy seven-length winner. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-2, $36,528. O-One Pond Stable. B-Louis A Gurino (FL). T-G Sciacca.

5th-BEL, $43,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05, ft. + DREAM RUSH (f, 2, Wild Rush--Turbo Dream, by Unbridled), installed the 5-2 second choice for her bow, pressed the early pace in third, moved to the front after three-eighths and was in control for the remainder, winning by an impressive 6 1/2-length margin. The winner was a $90,000 KEESEP yearling and $285,000 OBSFEB juvenile purchase. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $25,800. O-West Point Stable, Lewis G Lakin. Livemore Valley, winner of the Dearly Precious S. over track and trip June 17, closed late to get third in the GI Prioress S. at Belmont July 8. Fifth in the seven furlong GI Test S. at Saratoga Aug. 5, the dark bay was given some support in this drop back to easier company. Unhurried in the early going, three-year-old saved ground on the backstretch, took over near the eighth pole and held sway late to get the victory.

Smart Enough was good enough to record four-straight victories heading into this, including a narrow neck win in his latest start in the mile Lamplighter S. here July 9. Favored this time, the chestnut never let the front rank get too far away, rallied four wide past the quarter pole and forged to the front in the final strides to eke out the victory. KENNEBUNKPORT (c, 3, Unbridled's Song--Clever Monique, by Clever Trick) was well-beaten while off the board in a pair of starts at Belmont earlier this summer, but was a much-improved fourth over this course Aug. 13. A first-out winner for his new trainer here Sept. 10, the gray went off the even-money favorite to make it two straight. Settled in a tracking fifth early, the Kentucky-bred challenged early leader Winzalot (Forest Wildcat) a furlong out and moved past that foe to score by 3 1/4 lengths. The $460,000 FTSAUG yearling is a half to Yes It's True (Is It True), GISW, $1,080,700; and Honest Deceiver (Is It True), MSW, $150,958. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-0, $62,567.

Magadino recorded a brace of stakes wins, capturing the June 24 Listed Grand Prix de Lyon at Lyon Parilly and Aug. 5 Listed Prix de Reux at Deauville before taking out a valuable conditions event at Craon last time Sept. 4. He maintained the winning thread here with a fourth Listed success. In rear through the early fractions, the crowd's choice inched closer from half-way to lead at the top of the straight and was kept to the task to comfortably hold a persistent Afaf.

Makderah finished third behind subsequent G1 Irish Oaks runner-up Scottish Stage (Ire) in the Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' Trial S. at Newbury May 19 before chasing home the eventual G1 Matron S. heroine Red Evie (Ire) when third in the June 21 Listed Sandringham H. at Royal Ascot and when runner-up in the G3 Oak Tree S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 4. Without anything of that calibre to contend with here, she made her way to the front in the early stages and sealed the result by quickening inside the final quarter. Tiring late on, she flattered Highway to Glory with the final margin to complete a stellar Ascot festival for her late sire.

Hawridge Prince, second in the Listed August S. at Windsor two years ago, was fifth in this year's renewal of that race Aug. 26. Tried over an extended trip in a Nottingham handicap last time Sept. 15, he relished the extra distance to win by five lengths and repeated the feat in this higher grade. Settled in rear early, he loomed wide on the final turn and took over traveling easily passing the quarter pole. Sent clear soon after, he was never in danger and was geared down as Frank Sonata struggled into the second spot.

PEVENSEY (IRE) (g, 4, Danehill--Champaka {Ire}, by Caerleon) finished fourth behind G3 Cumberland Lodge S. scorer Young Mick (GB) in the Shergar Cup Challenge over course and distance Aug. 12 before filling the same spot in a Yarmouth handicap last time Sept. 13. Positioned towards the rear early, the €220,000 GOFORB yearling and 42,000gns TATHIT horse in training purchase made ground wide on the turn into the straight. Grabbing the lead at the furlong marker, the 16-1 chance was driven out to assert for a neck success from Group Captain (GB) (Dr Fong). The winner is a full to Steel Princess (Ire), GSW-Fr. Persian Storm enjoyed notability before setting foot on the track, courtesy of topping the sheets at last September's BBAG yearling sale. His eagerly anticipated debut was welcomed by the crowd, who hammered the €300,000 purchase into 17-10 favoritism at the tills. He did not disappoint supporters, arriving on the scene with a dominant stretch display against a select cast. Settled in the wake of the leader along the rail in third, he was angled out to challenge with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. Quickening to an outright advantage approaching the final eighth under newly retained jockey Terence Hellier, Persian Storm required little more than minimum effort in the latter stages for an easy 1 1/4-length score from Molly Max (Ger) (Big Shuffle). The winner will now point to the prestigious G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne Oct. 15. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €6,000.
