SANDER QUANDARY

With the rain clouds gathering above Newmarket, connections of Europe's top-rated filly Sander Camillo (Dixie Union) approach today's G1 Cheveley Park S. in apprehensive mood. Highly impressive when winning the G3 Albany S. and G2 Cherry Hinton S. on a summer surface, Sir Robert Ogden's leading lady may have to answer a different question in this contest. "The filly is in great form, but we are in the lap of the gods regarding the weather," commented trainer Jeremy Nosedo, who is looking for his third renewal following the exploits of Wannabe Grand (GB) in 1998 and Carry on Katie three years ago. "We are keeping our fingers crossed that that it is at least good ground. However, looking at the weather forecasts, it appears unlikely." Field p5

GOING DUTCH

Peter Chapple-Hyam had the weight of expectation on his shoulders when saddling Rodrigo de Triano to justify even-money favoritism in the G1 Middle Park S. in 1991 and returns to Newmarket with another warm order today in Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}). Paul and Susan Roy's colt takes an unblemished record into today's Shadwell-sponsored feature and the Aug. 20 G1 Prix Morny hero carries stable confidence despite recent rain. "He won't let us down," Chapple-Hyam said. "I don't think the ground will matter to him. We are forecast rain, but it can't be any softer than it was when he won the Prix Morny in Deauville." Field p4

SADLER'S DUO BREAK MILLION BARRIER

Goffs rounded off its flagship Million Sale in style yesterday when two lots reached beyond the magic million-euro mark. Topping the session and the sale overall at €2 million was hip 627, a sister to this year's G1 Epsom Derby runner-up Dragon Dancer (GB). Despite her obvious potential for the track, the May-foaled daughter of Sadler's Wells consigned by Kirsten Rausing's Staffordstown Stud has significant residual value as a broodmare prospect. Her third dam is the outstanding Alruccaba (Ire), who has established a dynasty of top-class performers in a short space of time. Among her progeny is the 1996 G2 Nassau S. and G2 Sun Chariot

Lot 627 Goffs

S. winner Last Second (Ire), who is the dam of this year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) winner Aussie Rules and the 2001 G3 Doncaster Cup scorer Alleluia (GB), who has produced the G2 Lancashire Oaks winner and G1 Yorkshire Oaks third Allegretto (Ire). Others produced by Alruccaba are Alouette (GB), the dam of the dual G1 Champion S. winner Alborada (GB) and last year's three-time Group 1 heroine Albanova (GB) and Jude (GB), whose progeny include Ballydoyle's top-class fillies Quarter Moon (Ire) and Yesterday (Ire). It was Barouche Stud's owner Barbara Facchino who had the final say on the sale topper after outlasting John Magnier. "I think this was one of the picks of the catalogue from a family that Barbara was keen to get into," the stud's manager Rory Matthews explained. "I hoped that I wouldn't have to go that far, but she is one of the nicest Sadler's Wellises I have seen in a long time. She was bought for her pedigree, but hopefully she will do well on the track." Goffs cont. p2

Kilcarn's Legacy...

Earlier in the afternoon, the ongoing influence of Sadler's Wells was keenly felt when hip 591, a daughter of Pat O'Kelly's excellent producer Welsh Love (Ire) was sold for €1.3 million. Kilcarn Stud is accustomed to realizing million-plus sums at the old-style Orby--this filly's half-brother Balestrini (Ire) reached Ir2.1-million guineas five years ago. Johnny McKeever signed the docket for the three-parts sister to Ireland's champion juvenile of 1997 Second Empire (Ire), from the family of Salsabil (GB), Sahm and Marju (Ire). McKeever revealed that the filly was heading back to Kilcarn. "She has been bought for Miss O'Kelly," he explained. "She was a foal-share with Coolmore and is a lovely filly, so she wanted to buy out her partners and keep the family." Kilcarn was also responsible for the same family's hip 518, the joint-highest priced colt of the session bought by Shadwell. By King's Best, the half to this year's dual group scorer Echo of Light (GB), who also topped the sale at €1.2-million three years ago, is out of a sibling of Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's past luminaries Salsabil (GB) and Marju (Ire). Derrinstown Stud's General Manager Stephen Collins paid €600,000 to ensure that the colt would race in the famed blue-and-white, as his close relatives Akarem (GB) and Multazem have done. "We know the family exceptionally well and this colt stood out," Collins said. "He has a lot of quality about him and we loved him."

A Relentless Pace...

During the frenetic period between the selling of the two toppers, Dermot Weld paid €600,000 for hip 634, a son of Medicean (GB), who is the sire of Nannina (GB) and today's G1 Middle Park S. hopeful Dutch Art (GB). From Denis Brosnan's Croom House Stud, the 105,000gns Tattersalls December weanling acquisition is out of a half to the group scorer Rum Charger (Ire) and Pakhoes (Ire), two runners sent out from Weld's Rosewell House base. That transaction came hot on heels of bloodstock agent Gill Richardson's €550,000 purchase of a filly by Galileo (Ire). As it was on the first two days, demand for the Coolmore stallion's progeny was strong. Hip 631 is from the immediate family of this year's G2 Hardwicke S. winner Maraahel (Ire). Consigned by Abbeville and Meadow Court Studs, she is also from the family of the talented Shadwell performers Muhbubh, Sayedah (Ire) and Istintaj.

Other Notables...

Early in the session, first-season trainer David Myerscough went to €380,000 to secure hip 457, a Green Desert close relative to the 1997 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 Irish Derby winner and sire Desert King (Ire). The Irish National Stud's offering is also a half-sister to last year's G3 Mooresbridge S. winner Cairdeas (Ire) from the family of the 1994 G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Maroof. "I've bought her for Frank O'Malley, who has a nice two-year-old with me called Isola Star," the trainer's son Philip Myerscough commented. "She has a great pedigree and is an individual to match. She looks a strong filly and a two-year-old type and hopefully she'll be one for the Million." Another to grab a slice of the Sadler's Wells action was Glenview House Stud, which paid €355,000 for a daughter of the 1998 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Tarascon (Ire). From the draft of Thomastown Castle, hip 546 is from the immediate family of the ill-fated 2004 G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano winner Mister Monet (Ire) and Mala Mala (Ire), who was third in the G1 Cheveley Park S. six years ago. Danehill Dancer (Ire) has produced healthy returns again. His colt consigned as hip 497 by Paul Shanahan's Ashtown House Stud was knocked down to Charlie Gordon-Watson for €350,000. He is closely related to the 2000 G3 Queen Mary S. runner-up Al Ihsas (Ire) and the useful sophomore Anna Karenina (Ire). "I had an order to buy a Danehill Dancer and he looked the best of them," Shanahan explained. "He'll stay in Ireland." Michael Morrin's Pier House Stud provided another highlight in hip 525, a Mr. Greeley filly who was snapped up by Peter Doyle for €340,000 on behalf of Plantation Stud. Dermot O'Rourke's establishment will race the half-sister to the stakes winner Limelighting from the family of Sky Classic. "She's a gorgeous filly, with a broodmare's pedigree and has been bought for Plantation," Doyle said. "She is by one of the top sires of our time of both colts and fillies and will go into training with Mick Halford."

Success at the Top...

Goffs Managing Director Matt Mitchell heralded a highly successful sale, which returned a near 17-per-cent increase in average on 12 months ago and a rise in the median from €65,000 to €70,000. Despite these figures, Mitchell admitted that the market had been “selective” and that horses had to have all the ingredients to satisfy the criteria for buyers. “We are very happy with the sale and the increases on top of the huge increases last year,” Mitchell said. “The real key is the median, which is also up by nearly eight percent and the races, which underpinned the sale and saw this year’s winners reinvesting. A feature of the sale was a demand for fillies and the increase in quality has driven breeders to invest in pedigrees. The top end of the market is very healthy, but the market is selective and animals that don’t have the conformation and pedigree are punished. There was a very good cross-section of buyers, with buyers from Japan, which was encouraging and we hope to build on that--there was also a Russian presence for the first time. The progression of the Million Sale should be seen in the context of three years and the trends shown this week, building on the success of the inaugural Million in 2005, are very positive.” There is a change of direction today, when the Sportsman’s Sale is hosted. Selling starts at 10 a.m. and full results can be viewed online at www.goffs.com.

Dutch Art started out by besting the subsequent G1 Fillies’ Mile winner Simply Perfect (GB) in a five-furlong conditions event at Windsor June 5 and was adding the G2 Norfolk S. to his tally just 17 days later at Royal Ascot. His first encounter with testing ground came in Deauville’s G1 Prix Morny, but he handled the conditions with aplomb to comfortably beat Magic America and the subsequent G2 Mill Reef S. scorer Excellent Art (GB). His main opposition may come from Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed’s Hellvelyn, who proved his ability to handle rain-softened conditions when winning his first two starts at Leicester Apr. 6 and Pontefract May 26.

Showing his versatility when capturing the June 20 G2 Coventry S. on Royal Ascot's faster surface, he was subsequently runner-up to Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) in the Aug. 13 G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh, with the subsequent G1 Moyglare Stud S. scorer Miss Beatrix (Ire) behind. "I couldn't be more pleased with him and he's going to Newmarket in good order," trainer Bryan Smart commented. "I'm hoping for a big run in what looks to be a very competitive race. I was obviously a bit disappointed he got beat last time but, if anything, I think my horse was a little bit free that day and the form is solid. The horse has done it on all sorts of ground, so I wouldn't be concerned on that score." Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Conquest (Ire) represents the form of York's G2 Gimcrack S., which recent winners Balmont and Amadeus Wolf (GB) collected en route. His 3/4-of-a-length defeat of the subsequent G2 Flying Childers S. winner Wi Dud (GB) was an improvement on his previous form and the syndicate's Manager Harry Herbert is hoping the forward progression continues. "Physically, he has improved throughout the year," Herbert told PA Sport. "He's not a small two-year-old, he's a really imposing horse with plenty of size and scope. We are very hopeful, it is a hot race but this is the sort of race he should be running in." Aidan O'Brien has saddled Minardi, Johannesburg and Ad Valorem to success since 2000 and relies on Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's Brave Tin Soldier, who stepped up on his maiden form to win the Listed Blenheim S. at The Curragh last time Sept. 17.

Sander Camillo burst onto the scene with a comfortable 1 1/2-length defeat of the subsequent G2 Lowther S. scorer Silk Blossom (Ire) and Nicholas Jones' Scarlet Runner (GB) in the June 23 Albany at Royal Ascot. She was even more impressive when registering a five-length success in the Cherry Hinton on the July Course here when last seen July 12. Following her third at the Royal meeting, Scarlet Runner went on to beat Setsquare Recruitment's Vital Statistics (GB) and the eventual G1 Fillies' Mile winner Simply Perfect (GB) in the G3 Princess Margaret S. back at Ascot July 29. She disappointed on York's rain-softened ground when only fifth in the Lowther last time Aug. 24, but jockey Kerrin McEvoy is hoping she can bounce back. "We didn't get any luck in running at York and she didn't finish like she can," he explained. "She is a nice filly and I'm looking for a big run from her at the weekend, but we have Sander Camillo to beat. If we get some nice ground, I'll be disappointed if she doesn't run in the top three." Trainer Mick Channon has won two renewals courtesy of Seazun (Ire) in 1999 and Queen's Logic (Ire) five years ago and saddles Aldridge Racing Partnership's Silca Chiave (GB). She was denied by a short head by Miss Beatrix (Ire) when runner-up in the Aug. 27 G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh, having opened her account at Newbury nine days previously. The homebred bids to better the eighth placing of her half-sister Golden Silca (GB) in 1998. "We always thought Silca Chiave was a good filly--it was just a question of which route we went with her," her trainer said. "I thought it was worth having a cut at the Moyglare and she only got beat by a short-head. I'm not at all worried about the drop down in trip in the Cheveley Park S.--six or seven furlongs come the same to her. It won't be easy, but I'm very hopeful and I think she goes there with a good chance." Crikette Head-Maarek captured this race with Ma Biche in 1982, Ravinella in 1987 and Pas de Reponse in 1996 and lines up Tony Ryan's Magic America. She comes here off a second in the Aug. 20 G1 Prix Morny at Deauville, where she split Dutch Art (GB) and the subsequent G2 Mill Reef S. winner Excellent Art (GB). "She's not a bad filly and is very well," the trainer told the Racing Post. "She ran very well in the Morny, in which she was beaten by two good colts and the form looks good after the third won a Group race."

ICON ADDITION MAKES EIGHT FOR ARC

Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Lucien Barriere at Longchamp will witness the smallest field since 1941 after only eight were declared yesterday. As expected, Paul and Susan Roy's Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was supplemented at a cost of €60,000. Trainer Jeremy Nosedo paid the fee to add the Sept. 9 G1 St Leger winner to the mix and is realistic about the colt's chances. "We know we face a tough task taking on Andre Fabre's pair, plus the Japanese raider Deep Impact--three great horses," Nosedo told The Sportsman. "However, the owners are keen for Sixties Icon to run and as the horse has come out of York so well we have decided to roll the dice. The bookies probably have it right by making us 12-1 or 14-1, but we have nothing to lose and we will give it our best shot." Fabre accounts for three of the field; Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), Baron Georg von Ullmann's Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Khalid Abdullah's G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Makoto Kaneko's Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) represents Japan. Alain de Royer-Dupre will saddle N P Bloodstock's Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), while Paul Vidal's Best Name (GB) (King's Best), from the Robert Collet yard, and Berend van Daltsen's Irish Wells (Fr) (Poliglote {GB}), trained by Francois Rohaut, complete the runners. Geoff Wragg scratched John Pearce's Dragon Dancer (GB) (Sadler's Wells), while Aidan O'Brien withdrew Susan Magnier's duo of Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Jean-Claude Rouget took out Nelson Radwan's Germance (Silver Hawk), before revealing that the G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner would be aimed at the Oct. 14 GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Keeneland.

OUIJA WAITS Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will sidestep Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp after connections decided against sending the five-year-old overseas. Trainer Ed Dunlop revealed that the multiple Group 1 winner will be aimed at the Oct. 14 G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. at Newmarket before another tilt at the Nov. 4 G1 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Churchill Downs. "Having assessed the ground at Longchamp, it is still on the slightly soft side of good, which is not totally ideal for her," Dunlop said yesterday. "It was one journey she didn't need to do, as she's going to go to America and then Hong Kong. We thought it would be better if she ran here in the Champion S., but if it was very soft I'm sure we'd miss it, with only three weeks to the Breeders' Cup. It's under very serious consideration and as long as we feel everything is right for her, we will most probably have a tilt at that. The main target is the Breeders' Cup as long as the ground is right and Louisville is very wet at the moment. It does drain quickly, but if it was very soft she may not go there and the G1 Japan Cup [in Tokyo Nov. 26] is an option for that reason."

YEATS SET FOR FLEMINGTON Connections of Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) have opted to aim the five-year-old at the Nov. 7 G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup, ending days of speculation in the process. Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's G1 Ascot Gold Cup and G2 Goodwood Cup winner, who was reportedly stiff after his second in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh Sept. 16, was given the go-ahead by trainer Aidan O'Brien on Wednesday for the Flemington spectacle. "Yeats will go into quarantine at Ballydoyle this Friday for two weeks and the plan is to travel to Australia as long as everything is okay with the horse," O'Brien told the Racing Post. "When he gets to Australia he will spend two weeks in quarantine, so hopefully it all will work out."

SILENT NAME TO ADENA SPRINGS Silent Name (Jpn) (Sunday Silence--Danzigaway, by Danehill), winner of this year's GII Arcadia H. at Santa Anita, will enter stud in 2007 at Frank Stronach's Adena Springs near Versailles, Kentucky. The four-year-old will remain under the care of trainer Gary Mandella for the duration of his racing career. "He's got a few racing options, so it is in the trainer's hands right now as far as which way we go," Jack Brothers, director of breeding operations for Adena Springs, told the Blood-Horse. "He's a great miler and he fits our program to a tee." Bred in Japan by the Wertheimer Brothers, who sold an interest in the colt to Stronach following his Arcadia success, the bay spent his first two years in France, winning a pair of Listed stakes and placing third in the G3 Prix du Pin. An allowance winner prior to taking the Arcadia Apr. 8, Silent Name has finished third to Aragorn (Ire) in the G1 Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile May 29 and the G1 Eddie Read H. July 23.

The renaissance of Churchill Downs, from a single track facing hard times, to a thriving company that owns five additional racetracks, may have been a team effort, but the team was captained by Churchill Downs Incorporated President and Chief Executive Officer Thomas H. Meeker. Meeker, who was named Churchill's president in 1984, has been the man behind one of racing's greatest success stories. Meeker is widely recognized as one of the most influential individuals in the history of Churchill Downs; second, perhaps behind only Col. Matt Winn. He served three tours of duty in Vietnam and left the Marine Corps in 1977 as a lieutenant colonel. A graduate of the University of Louisville School of Law, where he was No. 1 in his class, he worked for the Louisville law firm of Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs. There, he served as general counsel for Churchill Downs before replacing Lynn Stone as the track's president. In January, Meeker announced that he would retire at the conclusion of his current contract, which expires in March, 2007. His successor, Robert Evans, has big shoes to fill. Meeker recently sat down with the Thoroughbred Daily News to discuss his reasons for retiring, his future plans and to look back at 22 years at the helm of Churchill Downs.

Q) You are only 63 and would appear to have many good years in front of you. Why did you pick this time in your life to retire?

A) You start off with the basic equation: I've been at this now for 22 years and before that I was associated with the company as outside counsel, so I've been working at this location for a number of years. You look at any company, any organization, and the longevity of the CEO is generally five to eight years or something like that. So I have overstayed my welcome. That is number one. Number two, while I would like to think I have all sorts of skills, there are some skills with which I am not blessed. As I look toward what's going on within our industry, I see some exciting things happening. Those things relate to a larger distribution base of our products and a more generous introduction of technology onto our product mix. These skills do not really resonate in me. We have some people who are good at those things, but we need someone such as a Bob Evans to come in and take a different view of life and to apply his skills in assisting the company as well as the industry at large to exploit new opportunities that are clearly out on the horizon today. His prism is very much different from mine. I looked at that and I looked at my family. I've had a number of jobs all my life, ranging from the military and then practicing law and the 22 years out here. The way I work is to work 24-7...not literally...but I am devoted to my work and I just thought it was appropriate with two grandchildren sitting out there--who are the love of my life--that I spend more time with them. I don't know what I might do in the future. I'm going to take six months off and kind of think about life and enjoy life a little bit and see what happens.

Q) Is there any particular accomplishment of which you are most proud?

Yes, there is. It's our people. If you look at Churchill Downs the way it was in 1984, we had a loyal and energetic but somewhat demoralized team base at that point. Today, we have a sense of energy, a sense of commitment and an overwhelming acceptance of change that exists among our team that is something that has held us in good stead over the years. More important, that will allow us to be very nimble and flexible as we move forward in the future. Then you look at what the team has been able to accomplish over the years, taking a monolithic, single track, which was not much, not withstanding the fact that we had the Derby, and taking Churchill Downs and moving it to the front of the racing world. And our team took the Derby and elevated it to a position that is untouched by any other racing event in the world. You see what they have been able to accomplish over the years and it is pretty impressive. But it all centers on the culture and the team that really represents Churchill Downs today.

Churchill's 2001-2005 $121 million renovation was one of many improvements under the Meeker era. Horsephotos

Q) What is the one thing you regret the most?

A) Our inability to convince various legislators of the needs of racing as it relates to slots. That's probably the single greatest disappointment.

Q) From so many standpoints, Churchill Downs was not in good shape when you took over. How bad was the situation and were you confident you could turn things around?

A) They had suffered through two years of summer racing that were an abysmal failure. They had lost money for three years in a row. It was financially strained. It was physically strained. All of that was reflected in the attitude of the employees. Did I think it was going to be a hard job? Yes. Was it going to be easy to do something? The answer is yes because it was so far down that anything you did was going to produce a result. If my memory serves me correctly, after we started in 1984 here at Churchill, we had 14 meets in a row where we increased attendance and handle. That was reflection of a couple of things: one, an attitudinal change among our employees and team members and, two, the introduction of some capital on the order of $35 million. That was the most difficult thing I had to do since I joined the company--to convince the board that they ought to spend $35 million on an asset that was losing money. It was that commitment from the board that allowed us to add money and leverage the company up a little bit. From there, we started down the road that led us to where we are today.

In third early, the Florida-bred chestnut took aim at odds-on Grecian Lover in the lane and wore her down for her first stakes victory.

GALAXY DANCER (Kingmambo), a $400K KEESEP buy, makes her debut for trainer Christophe Clement. A granddaughter of GSW Lotta Dancing, the dark bay faces a full field here, including Bitter Lemon (Lemon Drop Kid), who switches to the turf. The daughter of GSW Snit hit the board in each of her first two tries, but, with blinkers added, went too fast too early in a one-mile Belmont maiden and wound up fourth. The hood comes off here. Saint Pegasus (Fusaichi Pegasus) missed by a half-length on the turf at the Spa Aug. 9, but wound up 10th on the dirt Sept. 3 and gets back on the green stuff this time. brisnet.com pps.

Stonerside Purchases Argentina:

Robert and Janice McNair's Stonerside Stables has announced its purchase of Argentina (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) from the Wildenstein Family's Dayton Investments Ltd. in a transaction brokered by Eugenio Columbo. The four-year-old daughter of Airline (Woodman) is being pointed for the GI Flower Bowl Invitational at Belmont Park Oct. 7 and will continue to be trained by Bobby Frankel. "Argentina epitomizes the Stonerside philosophy of acquiring top racemares for our broodmare band," said John Adger, racing and bloodstock manager to the McNairs. "She has already proven herself in Grade I competition, and with her bloodlines, we feel she will be a top broodmare when her racing career is over." Winner of the Listed Prix Rose de Mai and runner-up in the G1 Prix Saint Alary and the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes in France, the bay has placed in four graded stakes since her transfer to this country earlier this year. She was most recently third in the July 29 GI Diana S. at Saratoga, where she was beaten a neck by Angara (GB), and has earnings to date of $506,974.

Martin Sentenced in Illegal Gambling Case:

by Ryan Conley, courtesy Blood-Horse.com

Trainer Gregory Martin, who in March pleaded guilty to charges for his role in an alleged multimillion-dollar illegal gambling ring, was sentenced to two years probation with six months home confinement Sept. 28 during an appearance in a New York federal court. Martin, 39, who is the son of Hall of Fame trainer Frank Martin, also received a $2,000 fine from U.S. District Judge Miriam Goldman Cedarbaum during a hearing held in the Southern District of New York courthouse in New York City. With Distinction to Hartley/DeRenzo:

With Distinction (Storm Cat--Extravagant Woman, by Alydar), winner of this year's GIII El Conejo H. at Santa Anita, has been purchased by Hartley/DeRenzo Thoroughbreds LLC for stud duty and is currently being syndicated. On the board in 17 of his 29 career starts, the dark bay, who currently races in the colors of the Robert and Beverly Lewis Trust, also finished runner-up in this year's GII San Antonio H. and the GII Churchill Downs H. and in the 2005 running of the GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. "The market is very tough for new sires and we are thrilled to have Florida's richest son of Storm Cat entering our breeding shed," said Dean DeRenzo. "He's got the speed and the female family to back it up." From the extended family of champion Zilzal, With Distinction is a half-brother to MGISP Resort and is bred on the same cross which produced GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Cat Thief.

Lone Star Gets 99 Days for 2007:

Lone Star Park at Grand Prairie was granted a total of 99 live racing dates during Wednesday's meeting of the Texas Racing Commission in Austin. The allotted dates include a 67-date spring thoroughbred meeting that will take place over 16 weeks from Apr. 12 through July 29. For the first time in its history, Lone Star will conduct racing four days a week, from Thursday through Sunday. "This past June and July, we found that the four-day weekly schedule perfectly complemented our horse population and provided an entertaining and competitive racing product," commented Lone Star President Corey Johnsen. "The results were extremely positive and our average field size during those abbreviated weeks rose to 9.05 horses per race, which greatly benefits the wagering public." The Dallas-area oval will celebrate its 10th anniversary in 2007, having opened its doors Apr. 17, 1997.

Honor In War to Australia:

Honor In War (Lord at War {Arg}--Catumbella, by Diesis {GB}) has been sold by Will Wolford's 3rd Turn Stable to Australian interests and the seven-year-old is expected to be prepared for a start in the G1 Cox Plate Oct. 28. The chestnut is to ultimately take up stud duty in the country. A winner in 10 of his 36 career trips to the post, Honor In War posted his most important victory in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic in 2003. He scored his most recent black-type victory in the Fort Lauderdale S. at Gulfstream Park Jan. 8.

Forest Grove to Airdrie:

Forest Grove (Forestry--Charm A Gendarme, by Batonnier), a stakes winner on both turf and dirt, will stand the 2007 breeding season at Brereton C. Jones' Airdrie Stud near Midway, Kentucky. Bred and raced by Aaron and Marie Jones, the half-brother to the outstanding turf mare Tout Charmant originally made a name for himself on the turf, winning the Ocean Place Resort S. at Monmouth Park and a division of the Pater-son S. at the Meadowlands in 2004. Switched to the main track for his four-year-old season, the chestnut was runner-up in the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H., but broke through with a victory in the GIII Los Angeles Times H., covering the six furlongs in a swift 1:08. Forest Grove, who will command a fee of $7,500, won five of 16 starts for earnings of $281,130.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Improving one place when tackling the G3 Lillie Langtry S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 3, she exhibited a tenacious attitude to garner the elusive black type and is now destined for the paddocks. Close up throughtout, she refused to surrender under maximum drive inside the final quarter mile and one final lunge saw her oust the game Zurbaran on the line. "She was a winner, but now she is a Listed winner and will make a lovely broodmare," trainer Henry Cecil told PA Sport. "It is up to [owner] Prince Khalid [Abdullah], but I think she has done enough now. She is very honest and has a lovely pedigree."

Fantasy Believer has long been a prolific scorer in sprint handicaps company and he has been as good as ever in that sphere this campaign. The veteran scored in decent six-furlong handicaps at Pontefract July 11 and twice at Goodwood--Aug. 4 and 26--and he posted a career-best when running away with the Sept. 9 Portland H. at York, in his penultimate out, before finishing midfield in the Ayr Gold Cup H. last time Sept. 16. Settled towards the rear as normal, the bay was pulled round the field to make his challenge towards the stands' side after the quarter pole and responded to a Jimmy Quinn drive to put his head in front on the line for a first stakes score.

Punters were aware there was something about Dream Scheme and they never had cause for worry as the 3-1 joint favorite recorded a resounding debut success. Stalking the leading trio along the rail from the outset, the bay homebred angled out to lead on the bridle at the furlong pole. Lengthening smartly from there, the issue was settled in a matter of strides as Jamie Spencer afforded himself the luxury of standing up in the irons 50 yards from the line, gearing down to an impressive 3 1/2-length score from Awwal Malika (Kingmambo). "She picked up well, lengthened nicely and it was a steering job for Jamie," claimed trainer Ed Dunlop. Responding to ante-post quotes of 25-1 for next term's G1 1000 Guineas, the local conditioner added, "We haven't really thought about where to go next, but, as there isn't anything suitable, I shouldn't think she'll run again [this season]. She should stay further, but, as for the Guineas, there's a long way to go." The winner is a full sister to Magic Mission (GB) (GSP-Fr & GSW & GISP-US, $397,856). Asperity gave indication of early promise with a first-up second, against more seasoned rivals, at Sandown Sept. 13. Leaving the form of that defeat behind, the G1 Derby entry was not headed in this one and came home a most decisive winner. Charting a lone passage in the center of the track as the main bunch remained on the stands' side, the 8-11 pick was last off the bridle inside the final quarter mile and he romped clear from the eighth pole to secure an easy five-length win from the well-regarded Life (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). "He is a promising horse and I will put him away now and bring him back next year at a mile," John Gosden told PA Sport. "If he is in great form you would have to look at the [G3] Craven S. for him. War Chant was a miler, but he might get a mile and a quarter." The bay's granddam is Storm Song, the U.S. champion two-year-old filly of 1996 and 3/4-sister to last year's ill-fated GSW Diamond Omi. Click for the Racing Post race chart. YAROSLAV (Danzig) makes his debut in a contest used as the starting point for able performers such as Rob Roy. Representing the Roger Charlton stable, the Bjorn Nielsen colorbearer is a son of G1 French 1000 Guineas winner Always Loyal and thus a half to Key of Luck and Anabaa. Lying in wait is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Al Tharib (Silver Hawk), a sibling of Japanese champion juvenile Grass Wonder and multiple GISW winner Wonder Again, and is the choice of jockey Richard Hills.

4.55 Newmarket, Mdn (Div II), £10,000, 2yo, 7fT

MYSTIC DANCER (GB) (Machiavellian) hails from the in-form barn of Sir Michael Stoute which is renowned for gearing up likely sorts in these events and the homebred brother of Cheveley Park Stud sire Medicean (GB) will be sent postward at short odds for this first go. Likely dangers include $190,000 KEESEP yearling Glen Nevis (Gulch), from Jeremy Noseda's local yard.
