HEAVY METAL

He missed nearly 15 months with an ankle injury and celebrated his eighth birthday just four days after his return, but The Tin Man (Affirmed) is still the one to beat in today's GI Clement L. Hirsch Turf Championship at Santa Anita. The venerable gelding wrenched an ankle after running fourth in this race two years ago and could have called it a career, but trainer Richard Mandella patiently nursed the dark bay back to health, and his efforts have been well rewarded. The Tin Man has four wins and a second in his five starts since the layoff, earning $1,879,000 and posting his first Grade I victory since the 2002

Hirsch when he captured the Aug. 12 Arlington Million. But it's not his success that endears him to his connections. "He's pretty much a pet at the barn," Mandella said of Ralph and Aury Todd's homebred star. Cont. p4

POINT OF ATTACK

Trainer Bob Baffert, who has won six of the last nine editions of the GI Oak Leaf Breeders' Cup S., will continue his assault on the race when he sends out Zayat Stables' Point Ashley (Point Given) at Santa Anita this afternoon. The morning-line favorite in the 1 1/16-mile test, the bay filly has been beaten just once, finishing third in her July 3 debut at Hollywood. It's a loss jockey Victor Espinoza blames on himself. "I kind of rushed her a little out of the gate," Espinoza said. "It was her first race and she got a little tired. She was green and didn't know what to do. But she was unbelievable in her last two races." Point Ashley came back to break her maiden 20 days later at Del Mar and made it two in a row with a 2 1/2-length score in the Sept. 4 GI Del Mar Debutante S. She stretches out off that seven-furlong affair, but her rider is not worried about the added ground. "The longer the better for her," Espinoza said. Cont. p5

HURRICANE ALERT

Michael Tabor's colors have become interwoven in the recent history of Longchamp's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Lucien Barriere, and Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) bids to continue the trend in tomorrow's showcase. In 1999, it was Montjeu who overcame El Condor Pasa in a thrilling final furlong and, six years later, his son stormed up the famed stretch to overpower Westerner (GB). Only five have won back-to-back renewals of this supreme test, and none have succeeded since Alleged completed the feat in 1978, despite the efforts of Helissio (Fr), Montjeu himself and Bago (Fr). Cont. p11

FIRST AMONG EQUALS

Twelve months ago, Cheveley Park Stud's Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) took advantage of the rain to rout her rivals in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket, and she is back to inflict more suffering in today's renewal. With the likes of Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) in opposition, it will not be easy, but the homebred knows how to battle on soft ground. She comes here off a fast-finishing second in Leopardstown's G1 Matron S. "She came back from her Irish race in good form," the Stud's Manager Chris Richardson told PA Sport. "The ground is in her favour, so we will see how she goes. We are very happy with her, but it's a tough contest." Cont. p5

ART EXHIBITION

Peter Chapple-Hyam's claim that Susan Roy's Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}) is "up there with the best I've trained" was borne out in spectacular fashion yesterday as the colt added Newmarket's G1 Shadwell Middle Park S. to an impressive portfolio. The chestnut has received quotes as low as 7-1 to emulate Chapple-Hyam's Rodrigo de Triano by adding G1 2000 Guineas glory to his Middle Park score. "This horse is very, very good, as I've said all along, and he is better on better ground, too," the trainer enthused. "I don't think Frankie even got serious with him today." Cont. p2

 He was purchased just after owner Susan Roy lost classy miler Major's Cast (Ire) on the gallops, and Dutch Art's opening salvo was to best subsequent G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Simply Perfect (GB) in a hot novice event at Windsor June 5. He tallied the June 22 G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot in his next start before landing the G1 Prix Morny, on unsuitable going, at Deauville last time Aug. 20. Racing a shade freely in the early stages here, he was never further than a neck away from Captain Marvelous and Brave Tin Soldier (Storm Cat) until easing by those rivals at halfway. The chestnut was in a league of his own throughout the final furlong as Wi Dud claimed a forlorn second nearing the line. "When I was third [aboard Excellent Art] in the Morny, I thought this was a special horse," said winning rider Frankie Dettori. "I was never in danger; all I had to do was change hands, and he picked up and won like a good horse should. I didn't even break sweat. He's a lovely horse who doesn't do a tap at home, but when he comes to the races he just lights up and runs."

Seventh to Dhanyata on debut over six furlongs at Newbury June 10, Indian Ink rebounded to win over that course and distance 17 days later. She was fourth in the July 29 G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot next time, then was caught close to home in the G2 Lowther S. at York Aug. 24, but came here off an impressive success in the Watership Down Sud Sales S. a week ago. The chestnut broke smartly to race in a close third before jockey Richard Hughes gave her the cue inside the final quarter mile. Emerging out of the dip with only Dhanyata in front of her, Indian Ink knuckled down to a scrap with that old foe and prevailed in a bobbing climax, as G1 Moyglare Stud S. runner up Silca Chiave fared best of the remainder. "She is very tough, but I felt I gave the Lowther away by kicking too early and she died on me inside the last 50 yards," reflected the winning rider. "They kicked about two furlongs out going into the dip [here] and I let them lead me down there. She only has a dash of about 100 yards, so I was worried she wouldn't get home, but once she met the rising ground she was good." Thousand Words shed the maiden tag at first asking when scoring at Newbury June 15 and doubled up in competitive conditions race back there July 22. He lost his unbeaten record when flopping as the 9-4 favorite in the Sept. 9 G2 Champagne S. at York, but redeemed his reputation with a decisive win in this meeting opener. Breaking smartly to stalk the leaders in a close fourth, the imposing Juddmonte homebred took over from Dijeerr approaching the final furlong and devoured the ground up the hill to bag a career best. "Something got to him at York last time, whether it was a bee sting or not I don't know, but he got worried, sweated up and needed a blindfold to go in the stalls," explained Richard Hughes, who secured a group race double aboard Indian Ink (Ire) 30 minutes later. He added, "Today was totally different. He jumped fine, got cover and he was so much easier to ride. He must be 17 hands and is still a little weak so all he can do is improve." As for future plans, racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe added, "He is in the G1 Dewhurst S. [Newmarket Oct. 14], but that may come too soon."

Breaking through at stakes level in her fourth start, Iron Lips took the Aug. 6 Listed Criterium du Bequet at La Teste de Buch before running sixth in a spicy renewal of the G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville Aug. 19. The Wertheimer homebred fared much better when second in the Sept. 6 G3 Prix d'Arenberg at this track last time and progressed further to secure a lifetime best in this event. Settled third along the rail in the wake of pacesetter Out of Time (Fr) (Panis), the bay homebred was readied for her bid approaching the final eighth. The bay swept to the fore with 100 meters remaining and was pushed out from there for a cozy victory. "She looked a little nervous beforehand and maybe it looked like it was one race too many, but she proved she still had some juice left," explained trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias. He added, "Like her sire, she is tough and genuine, so we'll see if we can squeeze her one more time in the Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte [Oct. 28], which is the only option left for her this year."

Wait a While broke her maiden on the grass at Belmont a year ago, but was given the chance to prove herself on the main track after cruising to a 6 1/2-length score in the off-the-turf Miss Grillo S. last October. The gray acquitted herself well, romping by 14 lengths in the Feb. 4 GII Davona Dale S. over a sloppy Gulfstream strip and picking up checks in four other graded stakes, including a second in the GI Ashland S. and a third (moved up from fourth) in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Slated for a return to the lawn for the June 3 GIII Sands Point S., she scored once again when that race was rained off the grass and earned a trip to the July 2 GI American Oaks. The Arindel Farm filly was 4 1/2 lengths the best that afternoon, and added a 4 3/4-length tally in the GII Lake Placid H. at Saratoga Aug. 18. She takes on her elders for the first time, including fellow speedsters Live Life, third in the GI Beverly D. S. last out; and Dancing Edie, who bested Moscow Burning by a nose after setting a leisurely pace in her latest, the July 22 GI John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar. "I was impressed that she gutted out that win," trainer Craig Dollase told Daily Racing Form. "We'd like to be on a lazy lead again, but I don't think that will happen."

The Tin Man is eight-for-13 at Santa Anita and three-for-six at the Hirsch distance of 10 furlongs. T.H. Approval has been most effective at extended routes, winning back-to-back editions of the 1 3/4-mile GII San Juan Capistrano H. Freshened after his 2006 score in that event, the gray came back to be seventh behind Lava Man in the 1 1/4-mile GI Charles Whittingham H. June 10, then stretched out to take the July 16 GII Sunset BC H. at 12 furlongs and the Aug. 27 GII Del Mar H. at 11 panels. A Group 3 winner at this trip in France, Artiste Royale was runner-up in the Del Mar H.

Since the Sun Chariot was opened up to older distaffers in 1974, sophomores have enjoyed the majority of success, and Peeress was only the fourth older filly to emerge victorious when she scored last year. She takes on Terry Neill's three-year-old Red Evie, who has a perfect seasonal record to defend after holding off her older rival when stretched to seven furlongs in the G1 Matron S. That was a steep rise in class for the filly, who won the Listed Sandringham S. at Royal Ascot and G3 Oak Tree S. at Goodwood Aug. 4. "I think there is still more room for improvement--you'd like to think there is," jockey Jamie Spencer told PA Sport. "She gave me a fabulous feel in Ireland; she is a really nice filly." The Elite Racing Club's multiple Group 1 heroine Soviet Song looked in for another profitable year when taking the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot and was beaten as much by the slow pace as the opposition when sixth in the July 12 G1 Falmouth S. Runner-up in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2, she put in a rare flat effort when fifth in the G2 Celebration Mile Aug. 27. "She's working well enough to run and see how we get on," Elite's Racing Manager Matthew Budden told PA Sport. "We'll take it a race at a time. If she [doesn't] run well, I suppose we'd have to think about retiring her." Noel and Miriam O'Callaghan's Alexander Goldrun looks for her sixth Group 1 victory, but her first at this trip. She has lost nothing of her old sparkle judged on her short-head second to Ouija Board (GB) in Goodwood's Aug. 2 G1 Nassau S. and her third behind Dylan Thomas (Ire) and that rival in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 9.

Marchand d'Or chases his second straight win at the highest level, having made a mockery of a competitive line-up assembled for Deauville's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest Aug. 6. He has come a long way since finishing runner-up to Stormy River in the Listed Prix Djebel at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 4, demonstrating raw speed over course and distance when taking the May 18 Listed Prix du Pont-Neuf and June 26 G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot. After a sixth in the G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis at Maisons-Laffitte July 15, hold-up tactics were adopted to maximum effect at Deauville, and he has the vital weapon of natural speed to employ. Stormy River followed his listed tally with a win in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly July 9, and finished runner-up in both the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot and G1 Prix du Moulin here Sept. 3. Godolphin's Caradak, who was second in this last year when trained by John Oxx, returns after defeating Killybegs (Ire) and George Washington (Ire) in the G2 Celebration Mile Aug. 27. That run came only eight days after a third behind Welsh Emperor in the G2 Hungerford S. at a rain-soaked Newbury, and he needs dry weather here. "Caradak came back very well after his last race and is working well," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. John Gosden puts forward Sleeping Indian. He carved out a niche as a specialist at this trip in 2005 when winning the G3 Hungerford S. and finishing a short-head second to Iffraaj (GB) in the G2 Park S. at Doncaster. He was having his first outing since a second in the G2 Challenge S. at Newmarket in October when taking the Sept. 15 Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup at Newbury.

7	Flamethrowintexan	Way West (Fr)	Penney	4-1

Sideline after a sixth-place finish in the GI Haskell Invitational H. last summer, Papi Chullo returned to take an optional claimer at Hollywood by five lengths July 2. He followed with a third behind Giacomo in the July 22 GII San Diego H., then was beaten just a neck by the front-running Flamethrowintexan when runner-up in the Aug. 20 GIII Longacres Mile H. Sent off at 40-1 in the Sept. 2 GI Woodward S. at Saratoga, the four-year-old was not disgraced, finishing 4 3/4 lengths behind Premium Tap in fourth. Six-for-10 over the last two seasons, Flamethrowintexan will try to stretch his speed over 10 panels for the first time. A.P. Arrow, second in the GII Super Derby 12 months ago, went to the bench after finishing sixth in the GII Clark H. in November. The chestnut colt moved to trainer Todd Pletcher's barn during the layoff, returning to take a Saratoga allowance test Aug. 19.

5	Greeley's Galaxy	Mr. Greeley	Stall Jr	4-1
6	Alumni Hall	A.P. Indy	Howard	6-1
7	Perfect Drift	Dynaformer	Johnson	3-1

All carry 118 pounds except Premium Tap, 124.

Perfect Drift has been first or second in all six previous visits to Turfway, but tries out the Polytrack for the first time. Winless since his victory in the GII Washington Park H. 14 months ago, the seven-year-old gelding was second in three of his first four starts this term, including the June 17 GI Stephen Foster H., where he was beaten just a nose by Seek Gold, and the 2006 edition of the Washington Park July 29. He comes off an even fourth in the Aug. 20 GI Pacific Classic. On the board in six of seven '06 outings, Premium Tap upset the field in the Sept. 2 GI Woodward S., besting the ill-fated Second of June by a half-length at 31-1.

KELSO BREEDERS' CUP H.-GII, $250,000, 3yo/up, 1mT

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Drum Major	Dynaformer	Weaver	12-1
2	Art Master	Royal Academy	Frankel	3-1
3	Ashkal Way (Ire)	Ashkalani (Ire)	bin Suroor	5-2
4	Baron Von Tap	Pleasant Tap	Bazeos	30-1
5	Meteor Storm (GB)	Bigstone (Ire)	W Dollase	5-1
6	Free Thinking	Unbridled	Danner	6-1
7	Old Forester	Forestry	Mott	5-1
8	Friendly Island	Crafty Friend	Pletcher	8-1

Ashkal Way could earn a trip to the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Downs with a big race here. The four-year-old gelding, one-for-five while racing in England and Dubai, opened his U.S. account with victories in an allowance and an optional claimer at Belmont Park in the spring. He made it three in a row in the July 15 Elkwood S. at Monmouth Park, where he stopped the timer in 1:32 2/5 for the mile, but had to settle for second in the Aug. 6 GII Fourstardave H. Odds-on to get back on track in the Aug. 26 GII Bernard Baruch H., the chestnut closed to take it by a neck, and is the morning-line choice here. "This race will definitely give us a better idea of what his next race should be," said Rick Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor. Grade I winner Meteor Storm is the class of the field, but has not been out since winning the Dec. 17 GII W.L. McKnight H. at Calder, and is racing at a distance well short of his best. "I'm not expecting him to win at a mile," trainer Wally Dollase admitted. "This race should help him stretch out to a mile and three-eighths and longer." Art Master gets Lasix for his U.S. bow. The Juddmonte homebred won his three starts at three, then came back to make it four in a row in a Group 3 event at Longchamp in May, 2005. On the shelf for 10 months after that effort, he returned to be second in the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc Apr. 1, but faded to eighth in his latest, the May 1 G2 Prix du Muguet.

Getaway represents the all-powerful Andre Fabre stable, which has also supplemented Gravitas in a bid for an 11th renewal of this marathon event. Nine of those wins have come since 1991, and the talented duo hold strong claims of maintaining the stranglehold. Getaway, who is a brother to the top-class stayers Guadalupe (Ger) and Guadalajara (Ger), has progressed with each outing this term and followed a victory in the Listed Prix Michel Houyvet at Deauville Aug. 15 with a score over Vendangeur in the G3 Prix de Lutece over this track and trip last time Sept. 7. Gravitas, winner of the Apr. 1 Listed Prix de Suresnes and June 17 Listed Derby du Languedoc, was giving weight away when third in the Listed Grand Prix Inter-Regional des Trois Ans on his latest outing at Toulouse Sept. 9.

7	8	Short Skirt (GB)	Diktat (GB)	Stoute	119
8	3	Princesse Dansante (Ire)	King's Best	Doumen	119

Short Skirt may be able to gain compensation after three punishing bouts with Alexandrova (Ire). The filly came out on top in the first meeting on York's soft ground in the May 17 G3 Musidora S., but felt the full force of that rival's vengeance when finishing a non-threatening third in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 2. She failed to get her off the bridle when second by 3 1/2 lengths in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks on the Knavesmire Aug. 23, but will not have to face her nemesis here. Rising Cross, second in the Epsom Classic, is toughness personified. She has shipped to Italy, Ireland and the States since her runner-up finish at Epsom. After trailing in the June 18 G1 Oaks d'Italia at the San Siro, she filled third spot behind Alexandrova in the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 16 before finishing down the field in the GI Beverly D S. at Arlington Aug. 12. She rebounded to win the G2 Park Hill S. at York Sept. 8. Of the home team, last year's G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris winner Montare needs to lose her bridesmaid tag this term, having finished at the wrong end of the exacta on her last four starts. She had Mandesha (Fr) in front in the G1 Prix Vermeille last time Sept. 10.

PRIX DANIEL WILDENSTEIN-G2, €130,000, 3/up, 1mT

7	3	Hello Sunday (Fr)	Poliglote (GB)	Head-Maarek	123
8	7	Only Him (GB)	Seeking the Gold	Fabre	123

Special Kaldoun is making his fifth straight appearance on his favorite date on the calendar. Ninth here in 2002, he returned to win the Prix Daniel Wildenstein in 2003 before finishing third in the 2004 G2 Prix Dollar. He was successful in this contest again last year, but his form has been questionable in 2006, and he needs to better his sixth in the Aug. 13 G1 Prix Jacques le Marois. Godolphin rely on Echo of Light, who recorded impressive successes in the July 15 G3 Summer Mile on Lingfield's Polytrack and Sept. 9 G3 Strensall S. at York. "Echo of Light is a talented horse who always shows us plenty of class," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "It is important to keep him relaxed, and I think the French race will suit him. He's working well and is ready for the race." Notability, who was third behind Echo of Light in the Summer Mile, was runner-up to that rival's stable companion Belenus (Ire) in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury Aug. 17. He races under a penalty, having annexed the G2 Oettingen-Rennen at Baden-Baden 12 days later. That race's form received a boost last Saturday when the third Lateral (GB) ran out the impressive winner of the G2 Grosse Europa-Meile.

5	3	Boris de Deauville (Ire)	Soviet Star	Wattel	121
6	5	Sudan (Ire)	Peintre Celebre	Lellouche	121

Touch of Land goes for a three-peat, having defied a penalty two years ago before returning without that burden 12 months ago. Due to his success in the Mar. 2 G2 Jebel Hatta at Nad al Sheba, he has to handle the extra import once again. He warmed up for a third try at the G1 Arlington Million with a win in the July 19 G3 Grand Prix de Vichy, but was eighth in Chicago Aug. 12. Also penalised is Manduro, who steps down in class in his bid to provide Andre Fabre with his fourth victory in this event. Successful in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt here Apr. 9, he found only one too good in the May 21 G1 Prix d'Ispahan over this course and in the Aug. 13 G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville, and comes here off a third in the Sept. 3 G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp.

Unbeaten DUTCH ART crowns a glittering season with a scintillating display in the Shadwell Middle Park Stakes Gr.1 at Newmarket yesterday for owner Susan Roy and trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam.

Winner of the Prix Morny Gr.1 at Deauville and the Norfolk Stakes Gr.2 at Royal Ascot he was selected as a yearling by Blandford Bloodstock at the Doncaster St Leger Yearling Sale and cost just 16,000gns.

Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe

After his Arc success on that rain-soaked day 12 months ago, Michael Tabor watched Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) bask in Ascot's sunshine when winning the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. July 29, and he is hoping that tomorrow's spectacle proves the colt's crowning glory. "I'd be very hopeful, because I think he is a very special horse and, knowing Andre [Fabre] and the trainer he is, he will have him prepared on the day," Tabor commented. "It's a real race, very exciting, and it's a special time of the year." Fabre has a record which is second to none here, having saddled six Arc winners to date. He also has Baron Georg von Ullmann's Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Khalid Abdullah's sophomore Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}) to call upon Sunday. Fourth last year, Shirocco has been unbeatable since, taking Belmont's GI Breeders' Cup Turf, Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup and the Sept. 10 G2 Prix Foy over course and distance, where he had Hurricane Run back in second. For his connections, the securing of jockey Christophe Soumillon is key to the five-year-old's prospects. "Christophe has become such an important part of this horse's life, and we are very happy that he is free to ride Shirocco," the owner's Racing Manager Paul Harley told PA Sport. "He knows the horse extremely well and will now what to expect on the day." Makoto Kaneko's champion Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), beaten just once in 11 starts, makes in first start outside his native country. N P Bloodstock's six-year-old Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) bids to become the first of her sex to win this since Urban Sea in 1993. The chestnut bested Hurricane Run in the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud before taking the eye when tenderly ridden to be third in the Prix Foy. "The ground was possibly too firm for her in the Foy and, when it's like that, she doesn't give her maximum," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre commented. "From the beginning of the season, it was the plan to go for the Arc, and she's fresh, ready and is in good condition."

CAMILLO TEAM PONDER PLANS Sir Robert Ogden's Sander Camillo (Dixie Union) was scratched from yesterday's G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket due to the heavy overnight rain, leaving connections undecided about her immediate future. After walking the track in the morning, trainer Jeremy Nosedá withdrew the G3 Albany S. and G2 Cherry Hinton S. heroine, and the owner's sportinglife.com

Racing Manager Barry Simpson told Racing Post, "We don't want to make any quick decisions. I will chat with Jeremy and Sir Robert over the weekend. We talked about the G2 Rockfel S. [at Newmarket Oct. 14] as a possibility, but Jeremy said, 'It will be two weeks, will we get the ground then?' We've talked about the Breeders' Cup as well, but if you went for a Breeders' Cup it might jeopardize your chances of a Guineas. I think it would be big odds against. She has got a wonderful dirt pedigree and it would be nice to go--and Sir Robert always takes a very sporting view of these situations--but we have got to be guided by Jeremy. He doesn't want to ruin her. He believes this is a very good filly, and he wants to win a Classic."

DYNAFORMER'S STUD FEE TO RISE Three Chimneys announced yesterday that they will raise just one stud fee for 2007, increasing the fee for 21-year-old Dynaformer (Roberto--Andover Way, by His Majesty) to $150,000.

Tony Leonard

"Dynaformer is, for the fifth year since 2001, a Top Five North American Sire," Three Chimneys' owner Robert Clay said. "He is the sire of Barbaro this year and he is in a class of his own in terms of his ability to get both dirt and turf runners of the highest caliber." He added, "Our stallions are having truly phenomenal years, but we have elected to keep the rest of the fees at 2006 levels. This is a competitive business and we want to make sure our stallions are priced to compete favorably for the best mares, so we've been realistic in setting our fees."

LAWYER RON TO JOIN PLETCHER STABLE

Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr), owned by Stonewall Farms Racing Div. 1 and the Estate of James T. Hines, will be trained by Todd Pletcher for the remainder of his racing career. Under the care of trainer Bob Holthus, the three-year-old won six straight races between December and April, including the GIII Risen Star S., GIII Rebel S. and GII Arkansas Derby. The chestnut finished a disappointing 12th in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby and subse-

Winner of the restricted Home of the Free S. over the Belmont turf in May 2005, Tinseltown was fifth in the grassy Pete Axthelm S. at Calder Dec. 31, but went missing off a runner-up effort in Gulfstream allowance company Feb. 9. A non-factor when fifth in a third-level allowance over the local weeds July 20, the bay was most recently a good second to Latent Heat in a one-mile test over the main track Sept. 8. The narrow favorite in a field reduced to four by the scratch of Mr. Whitestone (Dance Brightly), Tinseltown was allowed to trail to the far turn, commenced a wide rally into the stretch and ran past Accountforthegold in the final half-furlong.

BRUSHED GOLD (f, 2, Touch Gold--Painted Lady, by Broad Brush) had to overcome the outside stall in her July 31 debut on the Saratoga turf, but charged late to score by a half-length. Favored in the P.G. Johnson S. that was washed off the grass Aug. 30, she was a well-beaten fourth, but was part of the 4-5 favored entry in this turf allowance. Settled off the pace beneath John Velazquez, the homebred was sent wide into the stretch, had five lengths to make up on Acquired Cat (Tactical Cat) at the eighth pole, but was up late for a half-length success. SUCCESSFUL WAYS (c, 2, Successful Appeal--Wicked Ways, by Devil's Bag) was 5-1 for his lone previous racetrack appearance in the Saratoga mud Aug. 30 and sprinted to a clear early lead before holding on to win by a nose. The 3-4 favorite to remain perfect in his brief career, he was asked for speed from the gate and chased from the outside, began to inch clear into the stretch and scooted home a comfortable 2 3/4 lengths to the good of Sipsey (Peruvian). The winner, an $8,000 OBSOCT weanling, was a $45,000 FTMOCT yearling and $240,000 OBSFEB juvenile. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $55,200. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. O-Kinsman Stable. SHARP SUSAN (f, 2, Touch Gold--Winter's Gone, by Dynaformer), a half-sister to Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band), GISW, $633,100, debuted with a runner-up effort on the Belmont main track July 8, but ran fourth with blinkers added Aug. 10. The dark bay was a distant fifth in the off-the-turf P.G. Johnson S. Aug. 30, but got the chance to strut her stuff on the green here. The $340,000 KEESEP yearling raced well in hand while tracking the early pace from the outside. She advanced nicely approaching the lane, struck the front nearing the final furlong and edged away to post a 2 1/2-length victory. Whole Emblem (Our Emblem) rallied for second. Churchill Completes Sale of Ellis Park:

Churchill Downs Incorporated has finalized the sale of Ellis Park to a company owned by Kentucky businessman Ron Geary. "This is a thrilling day for me and the beginning of a new and vibrant future for Ellis Park," said Geary. "I am looking forward to a continued close working relationship with the Ellis Park team as we welcome the 2007 Claiming Crown and guide the track's ongoing growth and success. We were all pleased with fan reaction to our 2006 meet, and we plan to carry that momentum forward into 2007 and beyond." Under an agreement with CDI, Geary took over the operation of Ellis Park for the 2006 meet. The Henderson, Kentucky track has been granted 46 live dates for 2007 and will race July 4 through Sept. 3.

Hearing on ClassicStar Sale Horses Set:

by Ryan Conley, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

A hearing on motions that may halt the sale of certain horses affiliated with the controversial ClassicStar mare lease program at the Fasig-Tipton November select mixed sale Nov. 5 will be heard Oct. 3 in a Lexington courtroom. Lawyers for a trio of plaintiffs who this past July filed a civil action against ClassicStar have asked for temporary restraining orders in the U.S. District Court's Eastern District. One motion asks for an expedited discovery period and protective order based, in part, on ClassicStar's intention "to liquidate its remaining equine assets at the upcoming Fasig-Tipton sales on Nov. 5, 2006." The plaintiffs claim they were bilked out of at least $20 million in ClassicStar programs that touted valuable foals produced from leased mares bred to prominent stallions. The motions also request that ClassicStar "shall not transfer or encumber any foals that resulted from pairings purchased by plaintiffs," and seeks assurance that "defendants do not inadvertently or purposely destroy electronic or paper records relevant to this litigation..."

Keeneland Initiates 72-Hour Entries:

The Keeneland fall meeting, which runs Oct. 6 though Oct. 28, will institute a 72-hour entry rule. Exceptions will be Wednesday cards, which will close Saturday; and Thursday cards, which will close Sunday. Friday's races will be drawn Tuesday, Saturday's races will be drawn Wednesday and Sunday's races will be drawn Thursday.

J'BURG COLT TOPS SPORTSMAN'S After the excitement of the three-day Million Sale, the action was more low key at Goffs' Sportsman's Sale yesterday. The best was saved until last when a colt by Johannesburg topped the session at €130,000. Lady O'Reilly's Castlemartin Stud consigned the final offering of the day as hip 917. By the sire already responsible for G2 Richmond S. winner Hamood and G3 Round Tower S. victor Rabatash, the chestnut, is out of a half to GSW Anguilla. Con Marnane of Bansha House Stud secured the colt, who is also from the family of America Alive, Heritage of Gold, Weldnaas and Raise a Grand (Ire). Walter Swinburn was on the docket after signing the ticket for hip 717. From Joe Rogers' Ballintry Stud, the son of Cape Cross (Ire), from the family of Magellan and last year's G3 Norfolk S. winner Masta Plasta (GB), was knocked down at €95,000. That price was later matched by Chevington and Loughtown Stud's owner Felipe Hinojosa for a son of High Chaparral (Ire) sent up from Harcourt Stud. Hip 764 is a half-brother to the recent Curragh maiden winner Essexford (Ire) and hails from the family of the top-class Timarida (Ire), who was Europe's champion older mare in 1996. "I like High Chaparral--this is the second one I've bought," Hinojosa said. "He'll probably go into training with Carlos Laffon-Parias." The trading kicked off in style when the first lot through the ring was knocked down to bloodstock agent Amanda Skiffington for €58,000. By Intikhab, hip 665 was consigned by Deer Forest Stud. She hails from the world-class family of Warning (GB), Commander in Chief (GB), Yashmak and Dushyantor. Selling for the Bonus Sale begins at 10 a.m. today. Full results are available on www.goffs.com.

CARLOTAMIX HEADS ARC SALE His Highness the Aga Khan's Carlotamix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) is the high-profile offering at today's Goffs France Arc Sale, presented by the new sales company Arqana at Saint-Cloud. This sale saw a massive 76-percent hike in average and a 113-percent increase in aggregate 12 months ago, and the 72 horses in training on offer should attract the now customary visitors from Britain, Ireland, Dubai, Qatar, South Africa, the States and Hong Kong. Among this sale's graduates are 1993 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Urban Sea, who has become a prolific broodmare; multiple Grade I winner Megahertz (GB); 1997 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint hero Elmhurst; 1994 GI Yellow Ribbon S. victress Aube Indienne (Fr); and 1993 G1 Prix Ganay winner Vert Amande (Fr). Last year, Gary Tanaka's Atlando (Ire) was purchased for €300,000 by Meridian Bloodstock; he has since won the GII San Luis Obispo H. at Santa Anita. Carlotamix, last year's G1 Criterium International winner, was fifth in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville Aug. 19 last out. He is offered as hip 19 from the prized draft of his owner. Apart from His Highness the Aga Khan, consignors include Darley, Alec Head, Lady O'Reilly, Baron Eduoard de Rothschild, the Sangster family, Shadwell, Skymarc Farm, Richard Strauss, Vinery Farm, Baron Georg Von Ullmann and the Wertheimer family. Also among this year's highlights is hip 52, the two-year-old filly Poltava (Fr) (Victory Note). Consigned by trainer David Smaga on behalf of owner Malcolm Parrish, she has been mixing it with France's best juveniles this season, winning the Listed Prix des Reves d'Or at Vichy and G3 Prix d'Aumale at Chantilly as well as finishing second in the G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville. She will be sold with the proviso that she runs in Sunday's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, with any resulting prize money to be shared equally by the current and new owners. Another filly with a stakes win in the satchel is hip 30, the three-year-old Drosia (Ire) (King's Best). From the stable of Carlos Laffon-Parias, Leonidas Marinopoulos' homebred from the family of Kingsalsa provided a significant update when winning the Listed Prix de la Cochere at Chantilly last month. Arc Sale cont. p7

Lots to Watch...

Andre Fabre sends up some notable offerings, including hip 49, Baron Edouard de Rothschild's homebred sophomore colt Reve Lunaire (Hennessy). From the family of Agnes World, Dubai Destination and Librettist, he captured the Listed Prix Ridgway on Deauville's all-weather in July. Another is hip 24, the recent Chantilly winner Watch What Happens (Fr) (Stravinsky), a three-year-old colt who hails from the top-class family of Grape Tree Road (GB). Jean-Claude Rouget consigns Robert Bousquet's four-year-old Ruwi (GB) (Unfuwain) as hip 43. Last year's G2 Prix Noailles winner, who was also a close-up fifth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, showed he retained ability this term when winning the Listed Grand Prix de Bordeaux and finishing runner-up in the G3 Grand Prix de Vichy. Another to note is Richard Strauss' three-year-old Biniou (Ire) (Mozart {Ire}). A listed-winning son of Cap Coz (Ire), who is herself a half to Sainte Marine (Ire) and Josr Algarhoud (Ire), the colt was consigned by trainer Robert Collet as hip 18. German trainer Peter Rau's hip 4, the three-year-old Vega's Lord (Ger) (Lord of Men {GB}) split the smart Lateral (GB) and Arcadio (Ger) when runner-up in Sunday's G2 Grosse Europa-Meile at Cologne, while the Sangster family's three-year-old filly Antibes (Ire) (Grand Lodge), a recent Carpentras winner from the excellent family of Arcangues, Aquarelliste (Fr) and Cape Verdi (Ire), will be offered by conditioner Richard Gibson as hip 14. Selling begins after racing at Longchamp at 6:30 p.m. Full catalogue and updates can be viewed on www.goffs.fr.

Dynaforce returned from a break to run third in the Listed Prix de Liancourt on stakes bow at Longchamp Sept. 3. Positioned third until shuffled back to fifth at halfway here, she angled to the rail inside the final quarter mile and closed with a flourish under a drive to earn a first black-type rosette on the line.

Degas Art ran second in a 10-furlong maiden at this track on seasonal return Apr. 18 before taking a Salisbury maiden next time May 7. He collected prize money in the May 27 Listed Fairway S., June 23 King Edward VII S. and July 13 Listed Bahrain Trophy, but underperformed when fourth in a July course conditions last time Aug. 11. Gaining reward for his early summer efforts in this contest, the bay gelding wired the field under a tactically astute Kerrin McEvoy, denying Into the Dark a shade cozily. Degas Art, in front from the bell, was left in isolation as the entire field made a deliberate move towards the stands' side with five furlongs remaining. Unfazed by racing solo, he answered his jockey's urgings inside the final quarter mile and was driven up the hill to comfortably hold on.

"Obviously it was a disadvantage on the far side, as the rest of the field came on the other side, so more credit to the horse," joked local trainer David Elsworth. "I thought Kerrin would get a rollicking if he was beaten, and a pat on the back if he wins. He thought that the others would follow, but once he was committed, he had to stay there. Degas Art is a fine, big horse who will interest the jumps boys and I would certainly be tempted to jump him, as he stays well and would have a future in the winter game."

Margins: HF, 5, HF. Odds: 9-2, 10-1, 25-1.

Gelded after maiden defeats at Goodwood May 26 and Folkestone June 23, Caldra got off the mark at Salisbury Aug. 17 before running second to Drumfire (Ire) in the Aug. 26 G3 Solario S. at Sandown. Breaking through at stakes level to garner the Listed Stardom S. back at Goodwood last time Sept. 9, he justified favoritism here and boosted his earnings column with a determined score. The crowd's choice chased the leaders just behind the pace on the stands' side and came under pressure when the tempo was upped approaching the final quarter mile. Finding a gap at the distance, he quickened through to join Tobosa with 100 yards remaining and asserted under a drive to claim the valuable pot. "He's a good horse, but I was so disappointed when he got beat first time up at Goodwood," admitted trainer Sylvester Kirk. He added, "He ran on fast ground at Folkestone and just didn't try, but once we castrated him he's been a totally different horse and has improved so much since then. He's in the G3 Autumn S. over a mile at Ascot [Oct. 7] and we're thinking about it, but it might just come a little bit too soon."

Newmarket, 5.30, Hcp, £18,000, 3yo, 1 1/4mT, 2:11.77, sf.

RAMPALLION (GB) (c, 3, Daylami {Ire}--Minute Waltz {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells) won a one-mile maiden in his only prior start here last October. The bay ran in midfield after these opening exchanges. Asked for his effort with three furlongs remaining, the crowd's 15-8 choice dug deep under a drive and, despite hanging left, asserted 20 yards from home to record a neck verdict over Prior's Hill (Ire) (Danehill). He is half-brother to May Ball (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), Hwt. Older Mare-GB at 5-7f, G1SW-Fr & GSP-GB, $168,321. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, £18,394.

DESERT DEW (IRE) (c, 2, Indian Ridge {Ire}--Blue Water {GB}, {SW & GSP-Fr, $132,793} by Bering {GB}) was sixth in a track-and-trip maiden on his racecourse bow Sept. 19. Away quickly to share the early lead, the 7-2 chance took sole charge at the quarter pole and only needed two smacks in the final eighth to seal a pleasing 1 3/4-length victory over Urban Spirit (GB) (Dansili {GB}). The 250,000gns TATOCT yearling is a full to Indian Creek (GB), MGSW & MG1SP-GB, $636,621. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £5,829. O-Gainsborough Stud; B-Rebecca Philipps; T-Barry Hills.

+ SUPERSONIC DAVE (c, 2, Swain {Ire}--Vickey's Echo, by Clever Trick), a $55,000 KEESEP yearling and 70,000gns TATAPR two-year-old, was a well-backed 8-1 chance in this debut. He raced in the second rank through the steady early fractions. Taking it up with minimal effort two furlongs out, the dark bay was hand ridden to score by 3/4 of a length from Kirk Michael (GB) (Selkirk). The Kentucky-bred is a half-brother to French Braids (Personal Flag), MSW & GISP-US, $607,685. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,829. O-Roldvale Ltd; B-A B Hancock III; T-Brian Meehan.

ART MUSEUM (c, 3, Storm Cat--Totemic {GSW, $138,438}, by Vanlandingham) won the Listed Blenheim S. at The Curragh in good style last September on his last trip to the track and was never far off the pace in this return. Shaken up at the three-furlong marker, the 11-8 pick headed Absolute Image (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) before the eighth pole and the pressure was maintained by his jockey to ensure a one-length score from that tenacious rival. The winner is a half-brother to Lil's Lad (Pine Bluff), GSW & MGISP-US, $589,930; and full to Cherokee (Storm Cat), GSW-Ire. Lifetime Record: SW-Ire, 3-3-0-0, €61,519. RALLYING CRY (War Chant) made a striking impression when winning at Newmarket on debut in early July before finishing fourth in the G2 Superlative S. a fortnight later. John Gosden has opted for the Polytrack for Princess Haya of Jordan's colorbearer, who meets Khalid Abdullah's course-and-distance winner Monzante (Maria's Mon), a Roger Charlton-trained gelding from the family of Skywalker.

4.25 Kempton, Mdn, £8,500, 3yo, 1 1/4m(AWT)
LUNAR LANDSCAPE (Giant's Causeway) makes a belated first start for Godolphin, who raced his dam Melikah (Ire). She was third in the G1 Epsom Oaks and runner-up in the Irish equivalent six years ago and is a half-sister to Galileo (Ire), Black Sam Bellamy (Ire), All Too Beautiful (Ire) and My Typhoon (Ire); the latter is also by Giant's Causeway. He meets another delayed debutante in Princess Haya of Jordan's Right to Play (Kingmambo), a son of the high-class Possibly Perfect from the John Gosden barn.

RICHEBOURG, PENCARROW FOUNDATION

MARE, DIES Richebourg (NZ) (Vice Regal {NZ}--Mary Mead {NZ}, by Wilkes {Fr}), a Group 3 winner who became a foundation mare for Pencarrow Stud, died last Monday at the Hamilton, New Zealand nursery. She was 26. Acquired for NZ$65,000 at the 1982 National Yearling Sales by the Vela family, the dark bay won five races, including Australia's G3 Tranquil Star S. Her first foal, the winning *Sir Tristram colt Sir Rhine (NZ), finished fourth in the 1989 G1 WATC Australian Derby. Two years later she produced that colt's full sister Romanee Conti (NZ), a two-time New Zealand highweight who captured group events in that country as well as Australia and Hong Kong. Romanee Conti achieved fame as the dam of champion Ethereal (NZ) (Rhythm), whose four Group 1 wins came in the Melbourne and Caulfield Cups, the BMW S. and Queensland Oaks. Richebourg's 1996 filly Grand Echezeaux (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) captured the G1 Australasian Oaks and became the dam of Darci Brahma (NZ) (Danehill), the NZ$1.1-million topper at the 2004 Karaka sale. He later became New Zealand's champion two-year-old and a multiple Group 1 winner. Grand Echezeaux's Stravinsky colt topped the 2006 Karaka sale at NZ$2.2 million; she remains part of Pencarrow's broodmare band, along with her relations Romanee Conti and Ethereal. "[Richebourg] did so much for Pencarrow Stud," said the stud's general manager, Leon Casey. "She will be buried in a special area on the stud." For more information, go to www.pencarrowstud.co.nz.

2005 KARAKA TOPPER TAKES DEBUT

Enchanteress (NZ) (Danehill), the Pencarrow graduate who topped the 2005 Karaka sale at NZ$1.3 million, captured her debut at South Australia's Balaklava racecourse Wednesday. Trained by David Hayes, the bay filly is raced by a group which includes Lord Lloyd-Webber, Lord Vestey and the Hon. Peter Stanley. She will be pointed for Flemington's Spring Carnival. Enchanteress was produced by Encens (GB) (Common Grounds {GB}), a winner in France whose first two foals--both by Sadler's Wells--earned black type in Europe. The mare, a half-sister to champion sire Scenic (Ire), was acquired by Pencarrow as part of a group of 20 mares in foal to Danehill and sent to New Zealand. She has a Montjeu (Ire) filly slated to sell at Karaka in January and will be bred this season to Australian standout Redoute's Choice (Aus).

GOFFS TRIO HEADING TO HONG KONG A trio of colts was purchased by the Hong Kong Jockey Club at the Goffs Million sale and will be resold at the Hong Kong International Sale next December. Lot 279, purchased for €270,000, is a Danehill Dancer (Ire) colt out of Lady Taufan (Ire), making him a half-brother to Group 3 winner Gracefully (Ire). He will be joined by lot 558, a €190,000 son of Marju (Ire)--Theatregoer (Ire) who hails from the family of Group/Grade I winners Mutafaweq and Dimitrova. Rounding out the trio is lot 583, a €42,000 son of Choisir (Aus)--Vino Veritas. The bay was produced by a half-sister to Hong Kong stand-out Bullish Luck.
