READY FOR IMPACT

History will be rewritten today if Makoto Kaneko's Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) can conquer the G1

Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Lucien Barriere at Longchamp. Had El Condor Pasa not encountered Montjeu (Ire) seven years ago, Japan would already be counting a landmark success in Europe's premier test. Now it is up to that country's most revered equine deity to feed a nation's desire, and his trainer Yasuo Ikee is building the expectation. "I compare my feelings about him now to that of Miyamoto Musashi, one of the greatest Japanese swordsmen, who lived in the 17th century," he said. "We don't need to sharpen this great sword any more. I just put it back in the sheath and wait for the raceday, so that he will be able to run the race of his life. I want to go home with the best possible result." Deep Impact's reign was built on completing last year's Triple Crown, and he's been unstoppable this season as well, with sensational wins at Kyoto in the Apr. 30 G1 Tenno Sho Spring and G1 Takarazuka Kinen on his last start June 25. Most came on a firm surface, so the question remains of how he will handle yielding ground in Paris. Ikee is unconcerned. "Since arriving here, he's been training for almost two hours everyday on the sand course, which is deeper than that of Japan," he added. "We are ready for the race." Cont. p2

A Day of Stars...

The remainder of Longchamp's racing could hardly be described as an undercard, with triple Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) taking on multiple Group 1 winner Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de l'Opera. A clutch of high-class two-year-old colts square off in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, where unbeaten Visionario (Ire) (Spinning World) lines up against G1 Phoenix S. winner Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill), while Legerete (Rahy) looks to dominate the juvenile fillies in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. In the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye, Reverence (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) bids for his third Group 1 sprint. Marathoner Reefscape (GB) (Linamix {Fr}) bids for back-to-back renewals of the G1 Prix du Cadran. Cont. p14-16

INVASOR DOUBTFUL FOR GOLD CUP

Shadwell Stable's Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) is recovering from a fever and is "very doubtful" for next Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. "The timing of this is very inopportune," said trainer Kieran McLaughlin. "We could try to rush a work into him to make the race, but we'd hate to risk him being sick again." Cont. pX

CALIFORNIA DREAMING

Wait a While (Maria's Mon) may call Belmont Park home, but the grey filly has had a field day with her cross-country voyages. She earned her second Grade I in as many trips out West with a rousing defeat of her elders in the GI Yellow Ribbon S. yesterday at Oak Tree. Now, it's on to Kentucky. "She's going back to Churchill on Monday and be there until the Breeders' Cup [Nov. 4]," said Ginny DePasquale, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "She loves to win and that's the name of the game." Cont. p3

EIGHT IS ENOUGH

The Tin Man (Affirmed) just might be having his best season ever at age eight. He became the oldest winner of the GI Clement L. Hirsch Memorial Turf Championship S. yesterday with another gritty performance, outbattling T.H. Approval (With Approval) to win by a head as the 1-2 chalk. "Of all the horses I've ridden, nobody tries harder," said winning rider Victor Espinoza. "This isn't just 'The Tin Man,' this is 'The Gold Man.'" It was the second triumph in this race for The Tin Man; he had previously won in 2002. Cont. p3

PRIX DE L'ARC DE TRIOMPHE

GENERATION CLASH With fellow elders Hurricane Run, Shirocco and Pride stacking up against the sophomore challenge, the odds appear against that category. However, three-year-olds have dominated recently, accounting for their elders on 12 occasions since 1990. Of those, nine had either won or placed in the course-and-distance G2 Prix Niel; this year's winner Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}) fits the bill. Successful in the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris, the Khalid Abdullah homebred enjoyed the typical mid-summer break before returning to take that prep Sept. 10. "It's a very high-class Arc, but Rail Link is in very good form," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said yesterday. "This is going to be a huge test for him, not least because of his two stable mates, but we're hopeful the ground is going to be nice for him as he's a good-striding horse. I think there will be an honest gallop, as most of them want a mile and a half."

Of the remaining three-year-olds, Paul and Susan Roy's Sixties Icon has been supplemented as a result of his highly impressive success in the G1 St Leger at York Sept. 9. Despite the ease of that win, history is against him as no winner of that Classic has triumphed here in the same year, even though Nijinsky, Sun Princess (GB) and User Friendly (GB) found only one better when attempting the double. "It's a fantastic race and I'm as excited as anyone else," commented jockey Frankie Dettori, looking for his fourth Arc. "I wouldn't be surprised if Shirocco goes to the front, but my horse is very straightforward and I'll have a chat with Paul [Roy] and [trainer] Jeremy [Noseda] on the day and we'll work something out." Paul Vidal's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club runner-up Best Name warmed up for his tilt at this contest with a win in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange here Sept. 17 and bids to emulate Saumarez (GB), who in 1990 was the last to win that en route to Arc success.

DID YOU KNOW...

The last horse to repeat as Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe champion was Alleged in 1977-78.

Unbeaten on turf, Wait a While continued her domination of the U.S. scene by winning the Yellow Ribbon and will now head to Churchill as a leading contender for the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf Nov. 4. The grey's trophy case from this season includes the GI American Oaks at Hollywood, the GII Lake Placid S. at Saratoga and the GII Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream; she was also the runner-up in the GI Ashland S. and was moved up to third in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Making her second trip to California this year, Wait a While was facing her elders for the first time, but that didn't stop her from going postward as the 3-5 chalk. Jockey Garrett Gomez settled her in second as GISW Dancing Edie led through splits of :48.32 and 1:12.88, but Wait a While was done waiting on the far turn. She kicked on smartly and opened up daylight in the stretch. "All I can say is that everything she's done has been impressive," Gomez said. "She went by Corey [Nakatani, aboard Dancing Edie] sooner than I wanted to, but she just drug me by her. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree. The Tin Man lulled his rivals to sleep in the Aug. 12 GI Arlington Million before kicking on for home. That victory was his third in four starts this year at age eight, and the popular gelding was bet down to 1-2 for his return to Santa Anita. The bay set out in front with T.H. Approval on his tail, setting a modest pace of :25.06, :49.87 and 1:13.76. As The Tin Man quickened turning for home, his rival took a bit longer to hit his best stride, but the favorite dug in gamely to record his ninth victory in 14 starts over this course. It may be time for him to hit the road again, though. The Tin Man has participated twice in the Breeders' Cup, finishing fourth in the GI Turf twice, in 2002 at Arlington and the following year at Santa Anita. Will he be there at Churchill Nov. 4? "That would be the plan," answered winning trainer Richard Mandella, "as long as he comes out good and continues as well as he's been, we'll just keep going." Cash Included didn't attract much action in her career debut, going off at 42-1, and wound up a distant fourth to the highly regarded Jump On In at Del Mar Aug. 6. She posted a game front-running victory Sept. 2 in what would be her final start for trainer Howard Zucker. Purchased privately afterwards by J. Paul Reddam and sent to Craig Dollase's barn, the dark bay was getting Lasix for this first attempt at a route. She came away smoothly from post 10 as favored Point Ashley first broke awkwardly, then didn't really handle the first turn. The Reddam colorbearer stalked the pace before taking command at the quarter pole. Point Ashley tried to go with her, but her earlier woes left her with little resistance to Cash Included, who bounded away late. There could be a rematch in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Nov. 4. Click for brisnet.com chart or brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Margins: HD, 2 1/4, NK. Odds: 2.10, 11.50, 1.75. Also Ran: Meteor Storm (GB), Drum Major, Baron Von Tap, Friendly Island. Scratched: Old Forester.

Ashkal Way was a useful handicapper in England last year, but has certainly taken the next step since arriving on these shores. After pairing up allowance victories in late spring, he landed Monmouth's Elkwood S. July 15 before settling for second in the GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 6. Three weeks later, he became a graded-stakes winner with a rousing rally in the GII Bernard Baruch H. at the Spa, and was the second choice to make it two straight here. The four-year-old settled in fourth through a half in :45.44, went four wide to deliver his run, took aim at Free Thinking in the lane and prevailed in a photo. Ashkal Way could be part of Godolphin's Breeders' Cup contingent following wins overseas by his cohorts. "We had a Group 1 [Prix de la Foret] win with Caradak in France," said winning trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "We also have Echo of Light [winner of the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein] and Ashkal Way for the [GI] Breeders' Cup Mile [Nov. 4]. We'll keep our options open for all three of them for the Breeders' Cup." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

After a series of scratches reduced the field to five, Spinning Queen eased all doubts regarding the source of pace, assuming the mantle with relish and running her rivals ragged for a resounding career-best success. Thrust into pattern company off a maiden score at Haydock last year, the highlight of a seven-race juvenile campaign was a third to Donna Blini (GB) in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. She returned this term to chase home Speciosa (Ire) in the Apr. G3 Nell Gwyn at Newmarket, but was sixth to that foe in the May 7 G1 1000 Guineas back at the Rowley Mile. Dropped to the Listed level for the first time, she was third in the May 27 King Charles II S., again at HQ. The chestnut bagged a belated first stakes rosette in the June 24 Listed Eternal S. at Warwick, doubted that tally in the July 8 G3 Brownstown S. at The Curragh, and was bandaged when off the board behind Red Evie (Ire) (Intikhab) in the G3 Oak Tree S. at Goodwood Aug. 4. She hinted at what was to come when second in the Sept. 15 Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup at Newbury and was positive here, setting a sound pace from the outset. Unaware of the struggle behind, jockey Michael Hills sent Spinning Queen clear inside the final quarter and increased her advantage from the eighth pole for an impressive win. Denied a short head by Court Masterpiece (GB) last year, Caradak returned to go one better for team Godolphin and justify his purchase from His Highness the Aga Khan's ranks. A dual Group 3 winner in Ireland last summer when trained by John Oxx, Caradak's debut in the royal blue came in a conditions event at Newbury July 21 and he followed a comfortable success in that heat with a third behind Welsh Emperor back there in the Aug. 19 G2 Hungerford S. He showed battling qualities to beat Killybegs (Ire) by a short head in the G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood Aug. 27 and drew on that spirit again to record his first score at the highest level. Using his natural speed to defy his wide draw and race prominently while trapped wide, he traveled strongly in the stretch before being committed inside the final quarter. Responding to driving, he edged out Linngari and the long-time leader Welsh Emperor in the final 50 yards to overpower the dead-heaters. Racing manager Simon Crisford commented, "He's probably more of a miler, but the race unfolded perfectly and Frankie [Dettori] gave him a brilliant ride. We wouldn't have run if the ground was soft, but it was perfect and we'll look at the [Nov. 4] GI Breeders' Cup Mile, although we have Librettist for that. We always thought in the long term that he is more of a horse for the G1 Hong Kong Mile [at Sha Tin Dec. 10]." The decision to scratch It's No Joke from yesterday's GII Kentucky Cup Classic proved a wise one as the four-year-old colt came from just off the pace to land this rich event. A close third in GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 4, the dark bay was sixth in both the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 8 and the GIII Ben Ali S. at Keeneland Apr. 27. Following a June 14 allowance victory at Churchill, the Fulton colorbearer took the Bet On Sunshine H. beneath the Twin Spires July 9. A good third in the West Virginia Governor's S. at Mountaineer Aug. 8, he was last seen finishing runner-up in the GIII Turfway Fall Championship S. Sept. 9. Content to allow GIII Longacres Mile hero Flamethrowintexan (Way West {Fr}) cut out sensible fractions, It's No Joke turned up the heat on that one approaching the quarter pole, took a clear lead past the eighth pole and held sway as A.P. Arrow ran on late.

Echo of Light's exuberance saw him run off the track during a Windsor maiden last August, but the measure of the esteem in which he was held was evident when connections supplemented him for the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October. Down the field there, he returned with a bang when wiring the G3 Summer Mile on Lingfield's Polytrack July 15 before overracing and fading to sixth in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2. He recorded a comfortable success in the Sept. 9 G3 Strensall S. and, despite displaying errant tendencies again, was not hard-pressed to follow up. Restrained in third under cover throughout the early stages, he was asked to tackle long-time leader Picaresque Coat soon into the straight and duly took over with 1½ furlongs remaining. With the race already sewn up, the imposing bay veered left towards the racecourse exit in the final 100 yards, taking a diagonal course to the line. "This horse is getting stronger with age and although he's not always been well-behaved, he's learning," Racing Manager Simon Crisford said. The only horse in the field with a win over the Polytrack, Ball Four led every step of the way to post the upset as the longest shot in the field. The bay gelding, second in this race when the new surface was unveiled last season, went to the shelf after fading to eighth in the Oct. 7 GIII Sycamore BC S. on the turf at Keeneland. He came back to lead from gate to wire in the Mar. 18 Tejano Run S. at Turfway, but had not been out since finishing fourth in an allowance race on the Keeneland turf Apr. 20. Making his return off a series of sharp workouts, Ball Four set the pace, avoiding the traffic problems that plagued many of those behind him. He opened up a little daylight at the eighth pole and dug in late to hold off Perfect Drift in the dying strides. "I was able to control the pace, and once I got him comfortable I knew he would be very tough to beat," jockey Willie Martinez said. The runner-up, a possible for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, was caught behind horses at the eighth pole, but finished well once clear. Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap), the even-money chalk, clipped the winner's heels while trying to get through at the top of the lane and stumbled badly, losing precious ground, then tried to rerally, but tired late to be fifth. "It's amazing he even got back in the race," trainer John Kimmel said, adding, "He looked OK physically when he came back. I couldn't see anything obviously wrong." Good Reward had to steady when the favorite stumbled, then came on to get third. CARL DEVILLE

This week's accomplishment: Deville saddled the two-year-old filly Meadow Breeze (Meadowlake) to a 34-1 upset in the GI Matron S. at Belmont Park last Saturday.

Birthdate: 4/25/1966

Birthplace: Opelousas, Louisiana

Family: Wife Maria; Children Chasey, 19; Kyle, 11; Danielle, 6; Emily, 2.

Current Residence: Opelousas, Louisiana

How long have you been training? About 18 years. I started down in Louisiana at Delta Downs. We currently have a stable of horses at Delta, and have about 30 horses on our farm in Opelousas. We do a lot of our breaking there. We also have 14 horses up in New York at Belmont.

If you could name a stakes after anybody, who would it be? My dad. He trained a small string when I was growing up and really got me passionate about racing.

What did you do to celebrate your win in the Matron? [laughs] Looked up flights to try to get home. No, actually we all went out to dinner. Then, I looked up a flight to get home Sunday morning.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Saratoga.

Favorite food or meal? Steak.

First car? Was a truck. A Ford 350.

Favorite music? Country.

First job? I worked for John Franks for years, breaking his babies, getting his two-year-olds ready for the racetrack.

Proudest moment? My kids being born.

Last Purchase? An airline ticket. I'm in an airport right now, about to fly back to New York.

What's next for Meadow Breeze? We may run her in the Frizette S. [GI, Belmont Oct. 14]. I'm going to give her a few days, look at her, and decide whether to go straight to the Breeders' Cup [GI Juvenile Fillies] or go in the Frizette.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Montare left it late, but finally got her sheepskin-coated head in front after a string of seconds this season. Having recorded a career-best when winning Longchamp's G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris last October, she returned to finish fifth on her four-year-old bow in the Apr. 30 G1 Prix Ganay here before finishing second by a nose to Shamdala (Ire) in the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier May 21. Runner-up again when returned here for the July 14 G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil, her fortunes refused to take an upturn and she was the bridesmaid again in both the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville Aug. 6 and G1 Prix Vermeille back at this venue Sept. 10. Settled in rear early by Olivier Peslier, she was pulled out for her challenge at the top of the straight.

Lahudood looked certain to collect as she traveled smoothly to the front under Frederic Spanu, but Montare was not to be denied this time and her wide swoop saw her wrest the spoils in the final stride. "She deserved that and hopefully will have one more run this year in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak [at this track Oct. 22]," trainer Jonathan Pease commented. Vendangeur reversed form with his G3 Prix de Lutece conqueror Getaway to take the opening prize on this glittering weekend. Placed behind the smart Kentucky Dynamite and Lauro (Ger) on his first two starts at Saint-Cloud Apr. 18 and Chantilly May 10, respectively, he graduated over 10 furlongs when returned to Saint-Cloud June 1 and tried that trip again in the Listed Prix Pelleas. Promoted to the runner's-up spot from third in that Chantilly contest July 9, he relished the extra distance when upped in trip against his elders to be second in the Listed Prix de Reux at Deauville Aug. 5. Getaway had mastered him in the course-and-distance Lutece last time Sept. 7, but the homebred was in the limelight after a faultless ground-saving trip here. Always close to the pace, he took over at the quarter pole and dug in late on to hold the threat on either side of Getaway and the outsider Ponte Tresa. "He preferred the good ground better than the soft last time and that explains the reversal of form with Getaway," trainer Elie Lellouche commented. "He's always been a nice, late-maturing horse who will have a good future as a four-year-old." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Soldier Hollow, one of his country's leading middle-distance performers over the past three years, finally garnered a major domestic prize when taking the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich last July. He met with defeat at the hands of Manduro in the G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit at Hoppegarten in October, but had that rival back in fourth when recording his second consecutive success in the G1 Premio Roma the following month. Runner-up to Distant Way in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica back at the Capennelle May 14, he was sharpened up for a tilt at the GI Arlington Million when second in the G2 Pferdewetten.de-Trophy over a mile at Cologne June 18. Excelling himself when third in the Chicago feature last time Aug. 12, he gained another high-profile success on his European return at the expense of his penalised foe. Stalking the early fractions in second, the bay shook loose on the front end approaching the final eighth and was beyond recall by the time Manduro reached top gear. "I expected a good run after his excellent effort in America," trainer Peter Schiergen commented. "He'll either go for the G1 Champion S. [at Newmarket Oct. 14] or wait for the [Nov. 5] Premio Roma and he might go for the G1 Hong Kong Cup [at Sha Tin Dec. 10] later."

The grey mare began 2006 at Gulfstream, where she ran third in the GIII Hurricane Bertie H. Feb. 18 and second in the GII Shirley Jones Breeders' Cup H. a month later. She finished a distant fourth to Dubai Escapade in the GII Vinery Madison S. Apr. 12 at Keeneland and was given some time off. Second in the 5 1/2-furlong Buckland S. on the Colonial turf June 25, she captured her first stakes victory at Thistledown in the six-furlong Scarlet Carnation S. July 15 and continued to ship around for stakes engagements. Third at Mountaineer in the six-furlong West Virginia Secretary of State S. Aug. 6, the six-year-old ran third in Woodbine's 6 1/2-furlong GIII Seaway S. Sept. 9, but wasn't given much of a chance here while stretching out. Jockey Willie Martinez settled her near the back of the pack as lone three-year-old Slew Peg showed the way up front. After moving up five wide on the far turn, Beautiful Bets collared the pacesetter late, then held on as La Reason put in a belated run.

Reigning Court broke his maiden in his very first start, taking his lone juvenile appearance by three lengths at Churchill Downs last November, but took eight tries to earn his first entry-level allowance score. The runner-up after setting the pace at Arlington Aug. 9, he came back to wire the field Sept. 1 and moved right into graded-stakes company off the effort. The bay was on the heels of the leaders early, edged closer after a half in :44.85 and put his head in front at midstretch. Island Warrior came after Reigning Court in the closing yards, but couldn't get past the longshot. "He broke really sharp and was really on his game," jockey Corey Lanerie said. "[Trainer] Scott Blasi really had him ready to run well. Reigning Court put me in a great spot and...at the eighth pole I got into him and I'm glad I did because Island Warrior was coming and ...you can't hear horses coming on Polytrack as much as you can on dirt." Likely (Yes It's True), the 2-1 favorite, was last out of the gate and sat at the back of the pack early before putting in a mild rally that saw him beat half the field.

An unconsidered 17-1, U D Ghetto continued his consistent ways to take his stakes debut. The bay ran second in his career opener at Ellis Aug. 5 before graduating at that track three weeks later. He showed up in a local one-mile optional claimer Sept. 9 and vied for the lead before settling for third, beaten 3/4 of a length by Shore (Sea of Secrets). Breaking alertly, the Lucky Seven Stable homebred was a close-up third as favored Izzie's Halo (Halo's Image) led. U D Ghetto moved by that rival approaching the stretch and, despite drifting out, maintained a safe margin to the wire as second-choice and stablemate Shermanesque rallied to complete the exacta. He's never been off the board, but U D Ghetto hasn't made things easy for trainer Tony Reinstedler. "This horse is a handful all the time," he admitted. "At any given moment he's liable to rear up or flip over, but he can run." He added, "The Breeders' Cup [Juvenile] will be the owner [Michael Mackin]'s decision, but he's from Louisville, so I have a feeling we'll be going." Runner-up Shermanesque, a half-brother to 1997 Breeders' Cup heroine and champion Countess Diana, won't be in the Churchill line-up. "He hasn't matured yet, but you'll see that next year," Reinstedler continued.

Dear S. July 2. She tried the turf in her Aug. 20 return, but, after setting the pace, faded badly to finish 10th. Though the bay rebounded to take a local allowance Sept. 8, she wasn't given much consideration here and wound up going postward as one of the longest shots on the board in her first attempt at a route. Jockey Corey Fraser allowed the filly to settle into an easy rhythm in fifth several lengths from the front. Given her cue on the far turn, Coy Coyote rallied three wide, collared stablemate A.P. Reality in deep stretch and finished up strongly for her first stakes victory. "She [A.P. Reality] blew away from me on the turn and I thought it was a fight for second," Fraser explained. "[A.P. Reality] hit a brick wall and I saw it was open game." Coy Coyote's victory was the first of a juvenile graded-stakes double on the day for Honour and Glory, who was the leading freshman sire of 2000.

No Tolerance showed the way in the early going of the restricted Avers Wexler Illinois Owners S. at Arlington May 7, but had to settle for second after weakening late. A length winner in the mile Mister Gus S. over that course May 29, the bay faded to third next time out when trying the main track in the nine-furlong Prairie Meadows H. July 29 and filled that same spot in his latest in the Sept. 9 John Henry S. at Arlington. Employing his customary front-running style in the early going of this one, the five-year-old was comfortably in front through an opening quarter mile in :24.03 and a half mile :47.90, and had enough left in reserve to fend off 20-1 longshot Rapid Proof.

Satchem was transferred to Godolphin after a juvenile campaign which featured a win in the G3 Sirenia S. at Kempton and a fourth in the season-closing G1 Middle Park S. at this track. On the shelf after a ninth in last year's G1 2000 Guineas, his lone sophomore start, the bay displayed his old sparkle with victory in the June 10 Listed On The House S. at Goodwood and again when second in the July 15 G3 Sumer Mile S. at Lingfield. He came into this off a third in a notable renewal of the Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup at Newbury Sept. 15, and dug deep to fend off stablemate Pinson in a royal-blue exacta. Stalking the leaders in fifth for most of the contest, Satchem came under pressure with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and asserted under a drive up the hill. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Old Forester kicked off 2006 with a fifth, beaten 1 3/4 lengths, in the GIII Appleton H. Feb. 11, but rebounded to take a one-mile optional claimer over the same Gulfstream course Mar. 5. After dead-heating for second in the GIII Miami Mile Breeders' Cup H. Apr. 29 at Calder, the chestnut came up a head short in the Battlefield S. over this surface June 12 and was given a brief break. He missed by a neck in a Saratoga optional claimer Aug. 9, but was bet down to even-money to return to the winner's circle. Allowed to settle into stride in the early stages as longshot Tune of the Spirit sailed along on the front end, the five-year-old kicked into gear turning for home. Old Forester needed every inch of the stretch, but got up in the shadow of the wire to get his first graded win. "I had a perfect trip and was very comfortable going down the backside," winning rider Edgar Prado said. "The other horse [Tune of the Spirit]...was able to get away with some soft fractions, but my horse was closing strongly. At the wire, I knew it was close. I was just hoping I got it."

Visionario steps up to the plate with a perfect three-for-three record as he bids to ward off a stern overseas threat in this strong renewal. Everything has come easily to His Highness the Aga Khan's colorbearer thus far, recording effortless scores on his first two starts before adding the G3 Prix la Rochette to his resume under a hand ride over this track and trip Sept. 3. He represents the Andre Fabre stable who won this race--when it was known as the G1 Prix de la Salamandre--with Zafonic, Pennekamp and Xaar (GB). "He has been very impressive so far this season, but we will see how he copes when the competition becomes a bit stronger," the owner's Racing Manager Georges Rimaud told PA Sport. "This will be a real test." Aidan O'Brien always sends one of his very best to this race, which he won with Giant's Causeway in 1999. Since it was re-named and moved to this day, he has collected four of the last five renewals courtesy of Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), Hold That Tiger, Oratorio (Ire) and Horatio Nelson (Ire). He saddles the impressive Aug. 13 G1 Phoenix S. winner Holy Roman Emperor, who was runner-up to Teofilo (Ire) in the G1 National S. at The Curragh last time Sept. 17; and Trinity College. After a winning debut at Cork Aug. 7, that colt was fourth behind Teofilo in the G2 Futurity S. at The Curragh 19 days later. Jean-Claude Rouget has yet to win this prize and puts forward the unbeaten Battle Paint, who could not have been more impressive when winning on debut at Deauville Aug. 8 and over course and distance Sept. 7. Vital Equine is also unbeaten, having taken the G2 Champagne S. at York on his latest start Sept. 9.

All carry 123 pounds.

Gold Splash and Juvenia captured this prize for the Wertheimer brothers in 1992 and 1998, respectively, and that operation is represented by a duo this time in Legerete and Sismix. While the latter has proven stakes form, having finished third behind Poltava and Ikat in the G3 Prix d'Aumale at Chantilly Sept. 11, Legerete looked an unexposed filly with a bright future when winning a course-and-distance conditions event Sept. 7 and represents Andre Fabre, who was successful with Miss Tahiti (Ire) in 1995. David Smaga, who saddled the great Triptych to win in 1984 and Mary Linoa to follow up four years later, relies on the consistent Poltava. She beat the colts in the Listed Prix des Reves d'Or at Vichy July 22 before finishing runner-up to Charlotte O Fraise (Ire) in Deauville's Aug. 19 G3 Prix du Calvados prior her d'Aumale exploits. Aidan O'Brien saddled Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) to win this last year and puts forward Nell Gwyn, who was badly hampered at a crucial stage when seventh in the G3 C.L. Weld Park S. at The Curragh last time Sept. 16. Francois Rohaut steps up the impressive La Teste de Buch and Dax conditions winner Bal de la Rose.

5	3	Alexandrova (Ire)	Sadler's Wells	A O'Brien
6	4	Dionisia	Tejano Run	Cumani

All carry 123 pounds bar Satwa Queen & Irridescence, 128.

Despite the withdrawal of Ouija Board (GB) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire), this race is almost as keenly anticipated as the Arc itself, with Alexandrova and Mandesha squaring up alongside the G1 Oaks d'Italia heroine Dionisia, G1 Coronation S. scorer Nannina and South African champion Irridescence. Alexandrova has been a sensation this season, completing the notable treble of June 2 G1 Epsom Oaks, July 16 G1 Irish Oaks and Aug. 23 G1 Yorkshire Oaks. With each run, she appears to have become stronger and the ease with which she won at York last time is rarely seen at this level. Mandesha would not have been out of place in today's main event, which connections sidestepped due to the prospect of easy ground. She handled those conditions when dropped to a mile for the July 30 G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville, but looked more at home on a livelier surface when annexing the G1 Prix Vermeille over a mile and a half Sept. 10. Dionisia proved a revelation for her trainer Riccardo Menichetti, winning five stakes races as a juvenile, including the G1 Gran Criterium in Milan in October and two more prior to her Oaks romp at the San Siro June 18. Now with Luca Cumani, she will make certain it is not a two-horse war, as will the Apr. 23 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup heroine Irridescence, who warmed up for this with a fifth in the G1 Prix du Moulin last time Sept. 3.

Reverence bids to complete the treble of major sprints here, having reveled in the soft ground when winning the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 24 and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup last time Sept. 2. Five furlongs is his trip, which he also demonstrated when taking Sandown's May 30 G2 Temple S. Trainer Eric Alston, who saddled Stack Rock (Ire) to be second in this in 1993, is hopeful of a bold show. "I know he is going for his third straight win in a Group 1, but I felt more pressure going in to the Haydock Sprint Cup," Alston told PA Sport. "I think he is getting stronger if that is possible. He certainly looks as if he is and he should be coming in to his prime now. He still hasn't had many races." Majestic Missile came good last time when winning the Sept. 10 G3 Prix du Petit Couvert, this track's traditional Abbaye prep, and backs up a formidable challenge from Britain, responsible for the last four winners of this race. Last year's G1 Middle Park S. winner Amadeus Wolf has been placed in the major sprints this term and deserves reward for his consistency. Runner-up in the Nunthorpe and third in the Haydock Sprint Cup last time, connections are hopeful he can reverse form with Reverence. "He's run over a few trips this year, but he is an out-and-out sprinter," Trainer Kevin Ryan told PA Sport. "Five or six furlongs, it all comes the same to him, he has the speed for both. He's run consistently well all year and he has nothing to find with any of the top sprinters. He deserves to win a big race."

Defending champion Reefscape returns in his bid to emulate dual winner Westerner (GB), but has questions to answer following two off-the-board efforts since finishing second to Yeats (Ire) in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting June 22. He disappointed in both the Aug. 3 G2 Goodwood Cup and G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville last time Aug. 20 and needs to rebound under Kieren Fallon. Sergeant Cecil also failed to make an impact at Ascot and Goodwood, but has since recorded a brace of successes at York in the Aug. 24 G2 Lonsdale Cup and the Sept. 8 G2 Doncaster Cup, in which he got the better of last year's Cadran runner-up Alcazar. "He owes us absolutely nothing, but it would be nice to get that Group 1 win under his belt," trainer Rod Millman told PA Sport. "It's obviously a top race and Reefscape will obviously have to be feared. But he's in good form and it's just so exciting to go over there with a horse who has a real chance." Shamdala has to bounce back after a tame unplaced effort in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 24, but had earlier showed how effective she is at this level when winning the June 18 G1 Gran Premio di Milano.

There were more than a few people wondering whether the hype surrounding Discreet Cat was justified when the unbeaten colt resurfaced in a seven-furlong allowance at Saratoga Aug. 25. After all, the colt hadn't faced the starter since a facile romp in the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 25 at Nad Al Sheba. When the dust settled, however, the bay triumphed by an imperious 11 lengths while stopping the clock in 1:21.53 (video). He's conceding at least nine pounds to his rivals here as the 124-pound highweight, and it will be interesting to see whether that levels the playing field. Valid Notebook, like Discreet Cat, was bred by the late E. Paul Robsham, but their careers have taken slightly different paths. This colt was claimed for $62,500 out of his winning debut Jan. 13 at Gulfstream. An allowance winner over this surface May 27, he returned from a seven-week break to win over course and distance in wire-to-wire fashion Sept. 9.

Santa Anita stalwart Healthy Addiction returns to defend her title in the Lady's Secret; last year's victory ranks as one of her five scores--and four seconds--in 10 starts over this surface. She fended off Star Parade in this contest last year and, most recently, held acclaimed shipper Happy Ticket at bay in the GII Clement L. Hirsch H. at Del Mar Aug. 6, with Star Parade third. The five-year-old looms as the controlling speed in this small field. Hollywood Story's best races have in fact come at Hollywood, where she captured the GI Vanity H. July 2 by overcoming Healthy Addiction late. She never got going when fourth to that mare in the C.L. Hirsch, and will be hoping for a fast pace to set up her late kick.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

INVASOR IFFY FOR GOLD CUP Invasor (Arg)

(Candy Stripes) had been slated to take on star sophomore Bernardini in the Oct. 7 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont, but that confrontation may be put off until the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 4 at Churchill. The four-year-old spiked a fever Thursday afternoon at Belmont and has missed two days of training. "He had a 103 temperature Thursday," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin explained. "We pulled blood and his white count was elevated. We treated him, walked him [Friday], took more blood and that blood came back perfect." The bay was supposed to have his final work for the Gold Cup yesterday, but stayed at the barn instead. "We were really looking forward to facing Bernardini and it would have been a great race," McLaughlin added. If the Argentine-bred indeed heads to Churchill for the $5-million Classic, he would have to be supplemented for $750,000.

COMMENTATOR STRAIGHT TO SPRINT Grade I winner Commentator (Distorted Humor) will make his next start Nov. 4 in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, according to Daily Racing Form. A facile winner of the Mugatea S. for New York-breds in his belated seasonal bow July 12, the chestnut had a rough time of it as the 4-5 chalk in the GI Forego S. Sept. 2 at Saratoga and wound up 10th. "That was a rough race he ran in," trainer Nick Zito told DRF. Zito added, "He jammed a shoulder a few days after the race. He's been training like a bear now." Zito said that the Tracy Farmer colorbearer has been shipped to Kentucky to prepare for the Sprint.

SHOWING UP IN THE MILE Lael Stables' Showing Up (Strategic Mission) will likely have the $2-million GI Mile as his Breeders' Cup objective, according to Daily Racing Form. The three-year-old, winner of the 10-furlong GI Secretariat S., lost his unbeaten turf record when a close third to Cacique (Ire) in the 11-furlong GI Man o' War S. Sept. 10. Trainer Barclay Tagg indicated that the chestnut would be pre-entered in both the Mile and the $3-million Turf. "The Turf is not going to be easy and it's a mile and a half," Tagg explained to DRF. "Although I think he can handle the distance, I don't know if he can handle it against the Caciques and the Europeans of the world. I think he'd run good in either one." Showing Up will not start again until the Breeders' Cup.

GULFSTREAM SETS STAKES SCHEDULE FOR 07

Gulfstream Park released its 2007 stakes schedule yesterday. With over $9.25 million in purses and 45 stakes on offer, the meeting will be highlighted by the Mar. 31 GI Florida Derby, which was Barbaro's stepping stone to his Kentucky Derby win. Among changes for 2007, the GII Swale S. has been shortened to 6 1/2 furlongs and the GIII Holy Bull S. and GII Davona Dale S. will both be cut back to a mile. Also, the Swale was moved up in the schedule to join the Holy Bull on the Feb. 3 card, which also features the GI Donn H. Taking the place of the Swale on the Florida Derby undercard is the seven-furlong Aventura S. for three-year-olds on the dirt. "After listening to the horsemen, Frank Stronach [chairman of Gulfstream] said some changes were in order," said Gulfstream Vice President of Racing Bill Murphy. "We believe adjustments to the timing and distances of these races will provide a smoother progression to the Florida Derby, and beyond to the Kentucky Derby." The Sunshine Millions series will also return in 2007, with purses totaling $3.6 million.

The Moyglare homebred made it three in a row in the June 30 Elizabeth Bay S. at Belmont Park and just missed in her latest, closing late to be third by 3/4 of a length in the Aug. 7 GIII Royal North S. at Woodbine. Jockey Jose Santos put the filly on the front end right out of the gate and, after setting a pressured pace, she held off Lemon Drop Gal to take the photo.

She hasn't shown quite the talent of her Eclipse Award-winning half-brother, but Precious Kitten earned a first stakes score here. Third in the June 17 GIII Regret S. at 60-1, she was second in Churchill's Heavenly Cause S. the following month, but finished a troubled fifth in the Aug. 12 Audobon Oaks at Ellis Park last time out. The dark bay rated off the pace while wide, hit her best stride to take over in the stretch and was all out to beat Meribel to the line.

McDynamo earned his first Eclipse Award as top steeplechaser after going a perfect three-for-three in 2003, capping the campaign with a victory in the Breeders' Cup Steeplechase. The bay came back to win that event the following year, but he was beaten by Hirapour (Ire) in his only other start, finishing fourth in the Colonial

Cup, and was outvoted by that rival for year-end honors. Returning to make a co-career-high six starts last season, he hit the board in his first four outings before capturing the Breeders' Cup, the Colonial Cup and his second Eclipse. Now nine, McDynamo left the course after falling far out of it in the Apr. 21 Royal Chase for the Sport of Kings at Keeneland and disappeared for five months. He made his return as the second choice, but proved much the best. A tracking second for two miles, he drove to the lead as they came out of the final bend and opened up to win easily. "He's very special," said trainer Sanna Hendriks. "He's very intelligent, has a great desire to win. I felt really good about him. He was very happy and training well." As for what's next, she added, "It all depends on how he comes out of this. We have a month. I was hoping to use this as a prep, so unless something goes wrong, we're hoping to go to the Breeders' Cup."

★ INDUSTRY INFO ★

Internet Gaming Legislation Passed:

Internet gaming legislation containing language favorable to the horse racing industry was overwhelmingly approved by both the House and the Senate early Saturday morning. The bill is expected to be signed into law by the President in the near future. The legislation recognizes the ability of horse racing to offer account wagering under the Interstate Horseracing Act of 1978, as amended. "This is a very significant landmark recognition by the U.S. government of our industry's legal right to conduct wagering under the IHA and of our industry's important position as an agribusiness that supports 500,000 jobs," said Greg Avioli, chief executive officer of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association and Breeders' Cup Ltd. "The bill also includes language that will prevent the addition of harmful elements in any rulemaking required by the bill."

Cheveley Park Stud's Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) was scratched from yesterday's G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket after developing a fever. The Sir Michael Stoute-trained five-year-old may now be aimed at the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua at the San Siro Oct. 14. "She's got a temperature on Saturday morning and didn't eat up," the Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport. "There's a race in Italy over a mile which could be a possibility, but we'd have to supplement her."

Sixth on debut at Ascot July 28, Selinka improved to third at Newbury next time Aug. 18 before improving for her latest outing at Nottingham Sept. 15. Settled in rear after a tardy break here, she responded to a continued drive from the three-furlong marker and lunged late to wrest a career high from Puggy on the line.

Everybody knows the score with New Seeker--if he lasts he wins--and the habitual frontrunner adhered to his favorite script again to notch a second stakes victory. Breaking through in last term's Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup, he hit the board for the first time this campaign with a second in the June 8 Listed John Of Gaunt S. at Haydock and came back to run third in the July 1 G3 Criterion S. at Newmarket. Unable to dominate in a valuable handicap at Ascot last time July 29, he did here and was driven out inside the final furlong to maintain his advantage.

Formal Decree has steadily climbed the handicap ladder this season, opening his account over a mile at Pontefract May 26 and successfully stepping up to 10 furlongs back there June 12. He then took out a valuable handicap at Newmarket July 13 over the same trip and was an eye-catching third to Pinpoint in a similar event at Newbury last time Sept 16. Slowly away here, late substitute Jamie Spencer held him towards the rear of the huge field. Asked to take closer order three furlongs from home, Formal Decree hit the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was ridden clear of the chasing pack for a resounding victory.

RALLYING CRY (c, 2, War Chant--Turning Wheel {GSW-Fr, $142,092}, by Seeking the Gold) stayed on for a creditable fourth in the G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket last time July 13 and set the pace as a 4-5 pick here. The whip was drawn at the quarter pole and the $90,000 KEESEP yearling answered every call to repel the persistent Monzante (Maria's Mon) by a head, despite hanging in the final eighth. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £20,757.

BONUS BRINGS GOFFS MARATHON TO A CLOSE

Yesterday's Goffs Bonus session rounded off a highly successful five days of trade at the County Kildare venue, following the three-day Million Sale and Friday's Sportsman's Sale. It was a colt by Statue of Liberty who topped proceedings at the Bonus, which will feature its own €50,000 sales race in 2007.

Forrestalstown Stud's hip 1102, who is out of a half-sister to the dam of Theatrical (Ire), was knocked down to the Bloodstock Connection for €48,000. The Coolmore stallion was also responsible for the joint top-priced filly as hip 1150 from the draft of Abbeville and Meadow Court Studs. Out of a half-sister to Croco Rouge (Ire) and Alidiva (Ire), the dam of Taipan (Ire), Ali-Royal (Ire), Sleepytime (Ire) and Oonagh Maccool (Ire), she was knocked down to trainer Eamon Tyrrell for €38,000. That matched the price paid earlier by bloodstock agent Bobby O'Ryan for hip 1035, a Hawk Wing half-sister to the useful Nur Tau (Ire) from the same family, also consigned by Eimear Mulhern's studs. Mountain set out on the Classic path after a fourth in the Apr. 23 G3 Ballysax S. at Leopardstown and followed in the shadow of Dylan Thomas (Ire) for the first time when second in the G2 Derby Trial S. back there three weeks later. He remained on the same trail, albeit at a respectable distance, when eighth in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby and sixth in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh July 2 before running seventh to Rail Link (GB) in the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp. Returning from another seventh--in the Sept. 9 G1 St Leger at York--the bay appreciated the drop in class to bag a first stakes success in determined fashion. Kieren Fallon positioned Mountain in a close fourth until asking for extra at the top of the straight. Answering the call, he seized control approaching the final furlong and stayed on strongly under a drive to prevail a shade cozily. "He has run some good races in defeat, in particular the two Derbies where he wasn't beaten far," Fallon commented. "He had a shout in the St Leger and only failed in the last furlong and this will be a confidence booster now he's got his head in front. Let's hope he keeps it there. He's versatile, has plenty of toe, stays well and goes on any ground--a typical Montjeu. He can step back up to group company now."
