A "LINK" TO THE PAST

All the talk centered around the big names among the older horses before yesterday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Lucien Barriere, but it was the sophomore Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}) who came to the fore in a stellar renewal at Longchamp.

Khalid Abdullah's G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner was allowed to drift to an inflated 23-1 in the face of heavy support for Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), but surpassed the 1-2 crowd's choice approaching the final eighth. Stephane Pasquier hand rode the bay to ensure victory and, despite the late flourish of Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), he had an ultimately cozy neck margin to spare at the line. "This is a great reward for Juddmonte Farms and Khalid Abdullah, and the fact that he is by Dansili, who I trained, gives me twice the pride," commented Andre Fabre, registering his seventh Arc success. "I'm just part of the chain and my pride is in the horse, whom I have always loved." Cont. p2

CHASING THE CAT

They haven't caught him yet, and if yesterday's performance is any indication, they never will. Undefeated Discreet Cat (Forestry) dragged jockey Garrett Gomez to the front before they'd gone an eighth of a mile in the GII Jerome Breeders' Cup S. at Belmont Park and had the field at his mercy all the way to the wire, winning by a geared-down 10 1/4 lengths. "He left there with run on his mind," Gomez said. "It was something to see, because he was more aggressive today." Cont. p6

MANDESHA MAGICAL IN OPERA

Princess Zahra Aga Khan's Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}), who bypassed the Arc to take part in the G1 Prix de l'Opera, emerged triumphant in the fillies' championship after a daring ride by Christophe Soumillon. Sent off the 6-5 second favorite, the homebred G1 Prix Vermeille heroine found a golden rail in the stretch to overwhelm Satwa Queen (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) and score by 3/4 of a length. "She's amazing," her owner said. "We might try the Arc next year." Cont. p3

HOLY SMOKE

Susan Magnier's Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill) rebounded from a defeat at the hands of Teofilo (Ire) to provide trainer Aidan O'Brien with his sixth renewal of the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere (Grand Criterium) since 1999. Previously the winner of the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh, the 2-1 second choice delivered a surge to overpower Battle Paint (Tale of the Cat) late and stretched to a two-length score. "This is a very good horse," his trainer commented. "He's one of those that racing brings out the best in." Cont. p4

Rail Link lost his rider on his debut at Saint-Cloud Apr. 10 and was second on his next start at Chantilly May 10. But since his graduation at Saint-Cloud 19 days later, the Juddmonte homebred has stayed on a steep upward curve. Taking the rise in class in his impressive stride when recording the first of three course-and-distance wins in the June 20 G3 Prix du Lys, he went on to annex the July 14 Grand Prix de Paris. Rail Link returned from a summer rest to win this race's main sophomore prep, the Sept. 10 G2 Prix Niel. Breaking well in the Arc, he found himself in front out of the gates before being restrained to track Deep Impact in mid-pack as Irish Wells (Fr) (Poliglote {GB}) and then Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) took the field along. Traveling strongly into the straight as the Japanese challenger took over, he rolled by that rival with 1½ furlongs remaining and had already ensured the win as Pride closed. "He's a lovely horse who has taken time to mature," Teddy Grimthorpe, the owner/breeder's racing manager, explained. "He's kept on improving with each start, and when he won the Grand Prix de Paris, he showed he was a high-class horse. Especially in the last three months, Andre has been delighted with him, but to win like that is unbelievable. I will speak to Prince Khalid and Andre, but I would imagine he's through for the season, as he will be kept in training as a four-year-old. It's fantastic for Juddmonte and for Dansili, who has had a tremendous year." Rail Link's dam Docklands, who resides at Banstead Manor, has the two-year-old colt Crossharbour (GB) (Zamindar), a yearling colt by Oasis Dream (GB) and a 2006 filly by Barathea (Ire). The Vanquished...

Trainer Yasuo Ikee was not downbeat about the outcome for Deep Impact, who looked the likely winner when taking over at the quarter pole and rallied when headed by Rail Link. "He's run his race and ran very well, but was beaten by better horses. He was in top form, was 100 percent and settled well, so I have no regrets. I would like to come back next year." Last year's winner Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) was temporarily short of room on the inside in the straight, but could only stay on at the one pace when freed to mirror his sire's fourth-place finish when attempting the repeat back in 2000. "He was boxed in and it was a messy race," Fabre said. The conditioner was at a loss to explain Shirocco's poor showing. The five-year-old had no answer when passed in front with a quarter mile remaining, and was eventually eased down by Christophe Soumillon. "He had a fair run, but was disappointing," Fabre added. "I will try to get him ready for the Breeders' Cup."

Mandesha has come a long way since the July 2 G3 Prix Chloe, in which she was disqualified from first by the Maisons-Laffitte stewards. Dropped back to a mile to take the July 30 G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville, she made light work of besting subsequent G2 Prix de Royallieu heroine Montare (Ire) on her last start in the Prix Vermeille over this course Sept. 10. The bay was reserved in rear throughout these early stages by her confident pilot. Guided through a split on the inner in the straight, the winner responded to a crack with the whip to join Satwa Queen approaching the final eighth. Getting on top with 100 yards remaining, she asserted in the drive to the line for a convincing score. "I'm thrilled, as the decision not to run in the Arc was difficult," Princess Zahra said. "However, when we decided to keep her in training as a four-year-old, it was made easier as we thought we could try that next year. I was terrified when I saw her on the inside, but Christophe Soumillon is a brilliant jockey and very tactical, and he knew what he was doing." Satwa Queen's conditioner Jean de Roualle admitted, "When you are beaten by the better horse, you have to accept it and, in my opinion, Mandesha could have won the Arc." Desert Lord has established himself as a sprinter of high quality since coming under Kevin Ryan's care, and just missed Epsom's five-furlong record when wiring the Dash S. June 3. The runner-up over that trip in the G3 King George S. at Goodwood Aug. 3 and G3 Flying Five S. at The Curragh 24 days later, he failed to stay the extra panel of the Listed Starlit S. when fifth back at Goodwood last time Sept. 9. Using his raw speed to maximum effect here, he towed Moss Vale along in the center of the track and faced a strong challenge from that rival approaching the final eighth. Pulling out extra for Jamie Spencer's driving, the gelding shook off that threat before holding Reverence's late rally. "He's a very good horse and very fast," said Ryan. "He's very genuine, but needs blinkers to help him concentrate." Desert Lord will head to Sha Tin for the Dec. 10 G1 Hong Kong Sprint. Holy Roman Emperor went straight from a Leopardstown maiden success June 7 to Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. in the space of 13 days, but finished down the field after running greenly in the center of the track there. Bouncing back on his next two starts at The Curragh to win the July 2 G2 Railway S. and G1 Phoenix S. Aug. 13, he was undone by the outstanding

Teofilo (Ire) in the G1 National S. Sept. 17 at The Curragh. The bay provided a healthy boost to that form with this authoritative triumph. Restrained in mid-division by Kieren Fallon early, he raced against the fence and was temporarily cramped for space when making his forward move in the stretch. But he quickened impressively when an opening appeared and reeled in Battle Paint with a furlong remaining. Fallon kept him up to his work for a comfortable success. "We probably went to Ascot before he was ready mentally, but with every run since he's getting better and better and he's an exciting horse to look forward to," trainer Aidan O'Brien remarked. "Last time was his first race over seven furlongs, and he had to come back and settle. He's fast, tough, hardy, he quickens and stays, so it's very hard to look for more in a colt. He's going to need racing, and we'll be delighted to go on to the G1 Dewhurst S. [at Newmarket Oct. 14] with him, as competitive racing is what he loves." In the Paint...

Joseph Allen's homebred Battle Paint, dubbed a TDN "Rising Star" after taking a conditions race over course and distance Sept. 7, gave a good account of himself in his stakes debut. "I was very happy with his run and he's been beaten by a champion with more experience," trainer Jean-Claude Rouget said. "He will be aimed at the mile Classics next year." The bay colt was produced by a half-sister to Dynaformer.

On to the Dewhurst...

Each of O'Brien's last two Jean-Luc Lagardere/Grand Criterium winners, Oratorio (Ire) in 2004 and the ill-fated Horatio Nelson (Ire) last year, followed with runner-up finishes in the Dewhurst. Oratorio was second to Shamardal, while Horatio Nelson had only Sir Percy (GB) in front.

Jim Bolger already had next year's Newmarket Classics on his mind thanks to Teofilo (Ire), but Finsceal Beo ("living legend") gave him added ammunition with this scintillating success. Successful in her Leopardstown debut Apr. 23, the chestnut was sidelined until returning to finish runner-up in a Tralee nursery Sept. 1. She was drawn away from the main action when sixth in the Goffs Million at The Curragh 12 days prior to this contest. Held up towards the rear early, the Irish-bred took the inside route around the track, and a gap appeared passing the quarter pole to leave her in front soon after. Given a smack with the whip there, she quickened decisively to rush clear of the one-paced Darrfonah. "I had to train her more or less on the track to get her here, as she got a hairline fracture after her first race and had to stand in her box for eight weeks," Bolger said. "We went to Tralee to get her ready for the Million and she was drawn on the wrong side of the course at The Curragh, but we learned a lot about her in that race. She loved the ground today and everything was in her favor. She's pure class, and the English G1 1000 Guineas is the plan." Her dam was acquired for $100,000 at the 2003 Keeneland November Sale. Sergeant Cecil came fast and late to take France's premier staying event and complete his ascent from honest handicapper to Group 1 winner. Rod Millman coaxed massive improvement from him last season, when he achieved the unprecedented feat of taking the Northumberland Plate at Newcastle in June, the Ebor at York in August and the Cesarewitch at Newmarket in October, England's three richest marathon handicaps. This season, he was second in the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York May 19, fifth in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting and runner-up in the Listed Esher S. at Sandown July 8. Subsequently fourth in the Aug. 3 G2 Goodwood Cup, he broke his stakes duck when grinding out the win in the G2 Lonsdale Cup at York Aug. 22 and followed up in the G2 Doncaster Cup back at that venue Sept. 8. Settled in rear by Frankie Dettori while Le Miracle set fair early fractions, the veteran had the whole field in front at halfway. He was shaken up as they turned for home and, when the turbo kicked in, inhaled Shamdala with 50 yards remaining for an ultimately cozy win. Takeover Target ensured victory in the Global Sprint Challenge with his win here. The seven-year-old gelding left his native land this spring, opening his world tour with a nose score over Benbaun (Stravinsky) in the June 20 G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot. He came back to be third behind Les Arcs (Arch) in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. four days later, then finished 1 3/4 lengths adrift of that rival when seventh in the July 14 G1 Darley July Cup. Shipped to Japan after that effort, he was runner-up to She Is Tosho (Sakura Bakushin O {Jpn}) in the Sept. 10 Centaur S., and had already accumulated 33 points toward the Challenge championship. Favored at Nakayama, the bay tracked Silent Witness (El Moxie) early, then forged to the front on the final bend and kicked away to a decisive triumph. "He has improved since his last race and was 110-percent fit," said owner/trainer Joseph Janiak. "He's got a massive heart and always gives his best." Jockey Jay Ford added, "It's good to see the horse at his best...at the end of the day, he's a superstar." Takeover Target will be pointed for the final leg of the Challenge, the G1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin Dec. 10. "If he's fit enough coming out of this race, he'll be competitive," Janiak said. Silent Witness weakened late to be fourth, while Les Arcs was never in the hunt, finishing seventh. "He was apparently unprepared," jockey Eric Saint-Martin said. "He was unable to accelerate as I'd hoped he would." For a race replay, click broadband or modem.

Purchased privately by Godolphin after a 3 1/2-length maiden score at Saratoga last summer, Discreet Cat made his first start under new management in a conditions race at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 9 and won by four. He came back just 16 days later to add a six-length romp in the G2 UAE Derby, but missed out on the Triple Crown, and had his return further delayed when he developed a fever in the spring. The bay resurfaced in an allowance test at Saratoga Aug. 25 and, sent off at 2-5, dashed off seven panels in 1:21 2/5 as he cruised to an 11-length victory. Bet down to 1-20 yesterday, Discreet Cat bounced out of the gate and went right to the front. Valid Notebook tried to stay with him, but to no avail as the winner drew off with every stride. Looking ahead, trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "We'll keep our options open for the Breeders' Cup Classic [GI, Nov. 4, Churchill Downs] or the Cigar Mile [GI, Nov. 25, Aqueduct]. We'll probably give it 10 days, and then decide with Sheikh Mohammed." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. First or second in nine of her 10 prior starts over the Santa Anita dirt, Healthy Addiction was sent off the favorite to add to that track record yesterday. The five-year-old captured this event last year, but faltered badly to be 13th in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Belmont Park. Freshened after that experience, she was batting .500 in 2006, with victories in the Jan. 19 Paseana S. and Mar. 11 GI Santa Margarita H. at her favorite oval, and in the Aug. 6 GII Clement L. Hirsch H. at Del Mar last time out. Healthy Addiction was odds-on to successfully defend her title in the Lady's Secret. She shadowed longshot Downthedustyroad through six panels in 1:10.35 and looked ready to inhale the front-runner on the far turn, but had to battle to take control in the stretch before edging clear. "With this filly, you have to bounce out of the gate and get a position," jockey Victor Espinoza said. "Then she'll run along and do her own thing. She doesn't really have a lot of acceleration, so going to the 3/8 [pole], I try to let her slowly pick up her momentum. She's so professional. She loves to run. She's gone [to the sidelines], come back, and she keeps running good races." As for what's next, trainer John Sadler said, "I'd say it's 60-40 she'll run in the Breeders' Cup [GI Distaff, at Churchill Downs Nov. 4, as opposed to the GI Matriarch at a mile on the turf at Hollywood Nov. 26]. Everything's predicated on the horse, how she comes out of it and everything like that, so we'll look at everything and look at the division. I have to study those Eastern mares again a little bit, and then we'll make a choice."

Third in the Nov. 10 Coronation Futurity to end his juvenile campaign, Shillelagh Slew opened 2006 with an allowance tally at Woodbine Apr. 29. The dark bay came back two months later to run fifth in the Queen's Plate, then improved to be second in the July 16 Prince of Wales's S. and third when switched to the turf for the Aug. 6 Breeders' S. Returned to the dirt for the Aug. 26 GIII Canadian Derby at Northlands, the Quebec-bred colt closed from well off the pace to romp home 6 1/2 lengths to the good. Shillelagh Slew was sent off the crowd's choice to make it two in a row and did just that. He was allowed to settle in second as the speedy Stradivinsky (Stravinsky) cut out a leisurely pace. Driving to the front as they raced out of the far turn, the winner powered away from his overmatched rivals to prove much the best. "He's really changed from two to three," said trainer Mike DePaulo. "He was sort of a skinny guy last year and he's a bigger, stronger horse this year. We've got a really nice horse. Hopefully, we're going to continue." Added jockey Dino Luciani, "He's just come into himself. He's done everything we asked and he proved it once again today how good he really is." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Winner of the G3 Renaissance S. at The Curragh last September on her third lifetime start, Noelani looked set for a successful career, but her results have been a mixed bag since. Second places in the G3 Ballyogan S. at Leopardstown June 7 and G3 Minstrel S. back at The Curragh July 16 were sandwiched between a ninth-place finish in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot June 24. The bay was off the board in the Listed Fairy Bridge S. over this track and trip Aug. 24, but only Beauty Bright (Ire)--sixth in yesterday's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye--prevented her from repeating in the G3 Renaissance S. back at the Kildare venue last time Sept. 16. Showing early speed from the stalls, Noelani settled for a lead soon after the start and was asked for her effort rounding the home turn. She took over with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, and a strong Fran Berry drive found previously untapped reserves of stamina to deny the staying-on Ugo Fire. That drive earned Berry a two-day ban for using his whip with excessive frequency, but it gave Noelani the chance to conclude her career on a winning note. "It was the last throw of the dice for her," winning trainer John Oxx told Racing Post. "She is a full-sister to Namid and is a good broodmare prospect for [owner/breeder] Lady Clague."

Following his second-place finish in the G1 Deutschland-Preis at Dusseldorf June 25, Schiaparelli emulated his brother Samum (Ger) in capturing the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 23. He failed to repeat his sibling's subsequent success in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden when only sixth in that heat last time Sept. 3, but took advantage of a lighter task to return to winning ways. Settled in third throughout the early stages, the chestnut was ridden through a gap on the rail at the top of the straight to lead with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining and quickly asserted to win geared down.

Fair Nashwan, third in last year's G1 Oaks d'Italia at this course, filled the same spot in the Aug. 15 Listed Premio di Merano before winning a course-and-distance conditions event on her last start Sept. 17. Keen throughout the early stages of this contest, she raced in last and still had all rivals in front as they turned into the stretch. Groom Tesse looked destined for glory as he took command approaching the quarter pole, but the grey had reckoned without Fair Nashwan, who picked up impressively to roll by in the final 100 yards.

SHAMDALA TO SHA TIN His Highness the Aga Khan's Group 1 winner Shamdala (Ire) (Grand Lodge--Shamadara {Ire} by Kahyasi {Ire}), second by 3/4 lengths in yesterday's G1 Prix du Cadran, will conclude her career in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin, according to conditioner Alain de Royer-Dupre. At three last year, the bay captured the G2 Prix Chaudenay and G3 Prix de Lutece. She added the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier in May before annexing the G1 Gran Premio di Milano the following month. The Aga Khan homebred, a daughter of Group 2 winner and Classic-placed Shamadara, hails from the family of ill-fated champion Shergar (Ire).

TEOFILO SET FOR DEWHURST Jim Bolger's Teofilo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is on course to defend his unbeaten record in the G1 Darley Dewhurst S. at Newmarket Oct. 14. The G1 National S. winner has pleased his connections since defeating Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) by 1 1/4 lengths in The Curragh contest Sept. 17. That result was flattered when Holy Roman Emperor posted a stylish win in yesterday's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp. "[Teofilo]'s extremely well and is improving all the time," Bolger said. "The Dewhurst is the plan unless the ground gets heavy, so we'll take it one day at a time. I'm not going to make any predictions at this time about next year, but as he's a massive grubber, I'd expect we're going to have problems keeping weight off him in the spring-time. We may well need a prep race for the 2000 Guineas, but it's going to be difficult as Group 1 winners have to carry penalties in most trials, so I'll just have to play it by ear."

WEEKEND WORKOUTS FOR GOODWOOD

HOPEFULS The top three contenders for the Oct. 14 GII Goodwood BC S. at Oak Tree all worked out over the weekend. Lava Man (Slew City Slew) stretched his legs at Hollywood Saturday, going six panels in 1:15.60. "It was fantastic," trainer Doug O'Neill said. "He worked in company and started out slow, but then it snowballed. All systems are go." On Sunday, Brother Derek (Benchmark) went five furlongs in :59.40 at Santa Anita, while Giacomo (Holy Bull) went six furlongs in 1:11.40 over the same surface. "He went real nice and easy," trainer Dan Hendricks said of Brother Derek. "He picked it up around the turn and it was just what we needed."

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLATIC GETS UNDER WAY

On the heels of a very successful fortnight of trade at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, officials at Fasig-Tipton look to keep the ball rolling when the auction house kicks off the Midlantic Eastern Fall Yearlings Sale this morning at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, Maryland. A total of 1,053 youngsters have been cataloged for the three-day event, a full 17 percent more than the 899 which were booked for last year's sale. Buyers will have plenty of opportunities to fill their outstanding orders and will do so with the offspring of sires such as Awesome Again, Carson City, Cherokee Run, City Zip, Distorted Humor, Dixieland Band, Dixie Union, Dynaformer, Elusive Quality, Forest Camp, Forestry, Fusaichi Pegasus, Gilded Time, Hennessy, Honour and Glory, Indian Charlie, Johannesburg, Langfuhr, Malibu Moon, Maria's Mon, More Than Ready, Mr. Greeley, perennial leading Midlantic sire Not For Love, Officer, Orientate, Point Given, Pulpit, Quiet American, Smart Strike, Smoke Glacken, Songandaprayer, Successful Appeal and Thunder Gulch. Stallions represented by their first crop of yearlings include Aldebaran, Empire Maker, Harlan's Holiday, Hold That Tiger, Hook and Ladder, Kafwain, Macho Uno, Posse, Van Nistelrooy, Whywhywhy, Wiseman's Ferry and Yankee Gentleman. Expanded to three days last year, the sale averaged $23,577 for 615 horses sold with a median of $10,500. The salestopper was a colt by Songandaprayer--Tobin's Fortune, which was purchased by Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stables for $375,000. Bidding begins each morning at 10 a.m. For additional information, go to www.fasigtipton.com.

GENEROSITY (f, 4, Unbridled's Song--Rewarding, by Storm Bird) returned from a five-month hiatus to be third in a one-mile allowance at this track May 24 before improving to second in a similar tilt June 29. A distant eighth racing a mile over the Saratoga turf July 30, the homebred returned to the main to be fourth Aug. 21 at the Spa. The 2-1 second choice allowed odds-on Strelladar (Deputy Minister) to set a moderate pace, lassoed that one approaching the eighth pole and edged away to a 1 1/2-length victory. GIANT CHIEFTAN (c, 2, Giant's Causeway--Fitnah, by Fit to Fight) had his Aug. 13 debut over the Saratoga turf course in the bag before veering out in the stretch and finishing seventh. Tried in stakes competition off that effort, the $950,000 KEESEP yearling came calling late in the With Anticipation S. over the same course Sept. 1, but was forced to settle for third by a head. The 19-10 second choice in this off-the-turf affair tracked the pace from the outside, rallied four deep into the lane, engaged Pink Viper (Smoke Glacken) at the eighth pole and pulled away to score by 1 3/4 lengths. He is a half to Dreams Gallore (Silver Ghost), GISW, $588,615; Fateful Dream (Distant View), GSW, $294,472; and Absent Friend (Runaway Groom), GSW, $276,975. Catching another wet track for this first attempt at a route, the half to Hide and Chic (Seeking the Gold), MGSW & GISP, $352,418; and Saoirse Cat (Storm Cat), SP, controlled the pace in hand over the tiring surface, repulsed the bid of Perfect Forest (Forestry) in upper stretch and drew off to take it by seven lengths. Margins: NK, 1, 1HF. Odds: 2.40, 2.80, 9.10.

Pleasant Chimes returned from a nine-month break June 2 at Belmont, but tired to be a distant sixth in that optional claimer. Fourth in a similar contest July 14, the Virginia-bred bounced back to take an optional claimer at Monmouth Aug. 3 and followed up with an allowance score at the same track Sept. 10. The dark bay raced in fifth and had to wait for room at the top of the stretch, but found a seam and battled on gamely for the win.

BLUE ANGEL (f, 2, Golden Missile--Jouled Rhythms, by Silver Deputy), purchased for just $7,000 as a KEESEP yearling, was off slowly in her Sept. 4 bow going a furlong shorter, but finished very well to be second. Favored at 6-5, the chestnut outbroke the field this time around before taking up a midpack position early. Three wide on the turn, she dug in for the drive and edged away late to a 1 1/2-length victory over Sister Desiree (Vision and Verse). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $17,020.

 Winless since taking the GII Will Rogers S. at a mile on the Hollywood lawn in May of 2005, Osidy was on the board in a pair of graded tests after that performance, but was given a break after four straight unplaced efforts. He returned to be second in the Green Flash H. going five furlongs on the grass at Del Mar Aug. 16 and was well-backed to go one better while stretching out here. Quickest away from the gate, the bay battled Deputy Kris every step, but prevailed at the wire to take the photo.

Zafonical Storm, out of a half-sister to yesterday's Arc hero Rail Link (GB), took a five-furlong Folkestone maiden on his second outing Mar. 28 before biting off more than he could chew in his next two runs. Last in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and seventh in the G2 Railway S. at The Curragh July 2, he was collared on the line in a Newmarket nursery on his last trip to the races Sept. 19, but took advantage of these testing conditions to upset Ballydoyle's hot favorite Chinese Whisper. Bustled out of the gates to take the lead, the chestnut set a strong early gallop and stuck to the rail while his potential challengers came wide into the straight. He stayed on strongly in the closing stages and crossed the line firmly in control.
