BURNING DOWN THE HOUSE

They could only find three rivals to try their luck against Bernardini (A.P. Indy) in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park yesterday, and the trio proved hopelessly over-matched. Sent off the 1-10 favorite in his first outing against older horses, Bernardini was hard held by jockey Javier Castellano as he shadowed Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold) for the opening mile. The Darley three-year-old dismissed the frontrunner at the top of the lane and was never out of third gear as he came under the wire a 6 3/4-length winner. "That was exactly what I was hoping for," trainer Tom Albertrani said. "He does things so easily, I don't know if anyone can give him the kind of race where he was to fight. Look at the hold Javier had on him. It looked like he could take the lead at any time. It worked out very, very well. I've got a fresh horse for the Breeders' Cup now." Cont. p2

Horsephotos

WORTH EVERY PENNY

Purchased for a reported $4.3 million last July, Henny Hughes (Hennessy) paid immediate dividends with a win in the GII Saratoga Special and runner-up finishes in the GI Hopeful, GI Champagne and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. But the chestnut has proved even more valuable this year, putting himself squarely into Eclipse consideration as he beat older horses in the GI Vosburgh S. yesterday. Off a step slowly, he had a head in front after a half in :44.82 and opened it up late to win by 2 3/4 lengths. "He was pretty impressive today, let me tell you," jockey John Velazquez said. Cont. p4

FLEET OF FOOT

Proving she doesn't need to be on the lead, Fleet Indian (Indian Charlie) changed tactics for yesterday's GI Beldame S. at Belmont Park. Stalking the early pace set by Take d'Tour (Tour d'Or) and then Round Pond (Awesome Again), the dark bay took over at the top of the lane and held off Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country) to pick up her eighth straight victory. "What we were hoping to find out, which will help us in the Breeders' Cup, is that she can sit off horses and dig in," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "She showed that today." Cont. p4

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE

Add his name to the list of Breeders' Cup hopefuls who have yet to be beaten this year. While Fleet Indian will head into the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff with a perfect six-for-six record in 2006, and Henny Hughes is three-for-three, Lava Man (Slew City Slew) has been on top in every one of his seven appearances this term. The five-year-old gelding rolled through his seventh score, leading every step in the GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. at Oak Tree yesterday and drawing off late to take it by 2 1/4 lengths over Brother Derek (Benchmark). Cont. p7

Putting His Best Foot Forward...

Bernardini hasn't put a foot wrong since finishing fourth in his debut at Gulfstream Jan. 7. Bred in the purple and looking the part, he was a 7 3/4-length maiden winner Mar. 4 and came back to post a 3 3/4-length score in the GIII Withers S. Let go at 12-1 behind Kentucky Derby hero Barbaro in the May 19 GI Preakness, he was overshadowed when the star of the show broke down just strides into the race, but has since proved that 5 1/4-length Classic score was no fluke. With connections opting to skip the GI Belmont S., Bernardini awaited the July 29 GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga and won by nine in what was nothing more than a public workout. He was always in control in the Aug. 26 GI Travers S., and had an even easier time of it in the Gold Cup. Allowed to sit second as Wanderin Boy tried to save something for the finish, easing through a half in :48.13 and three-quarters in 1:11.81, Bernardini went after the lead after a mile in 1:35.86 and galloped through a final quarter in :25.16, leaving plenty in the tank for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Churchill Downs. "I had so much horse today," jockey Javier Castellano said. "I never asked him. It looked pretty easy." G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. winner Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill), making his first start on the dirt, trailed the field throughout, finishing 32 1/4 lengths behind the winner in last.

Adam Coglianesse

Patience Rewarded...

Javier Castellano was especially pleased with the patience his mount showed yesterday. "I liked the way he did it today," he said. "He settled down perfectly behind the speed horse. I didn't want him on the lead because I want him to be focused for his next race, the Breeders' Cup. In the Breeders' Cup, someone may want to go for the lead. There is more pressure and more pace in that kind of a race." The rider added, "He's a special horse, and that kind of a horse is hard to find. He's my spoiled baby." Looking ahead, Tom Albertrani said, "He'll probably stay here [at Belmont] until a few days before the [Classic]. Depending upon what flights we can get out, maybe he'll leave on Wednesday [Nov. 1]." And who are the horses to beat for year-end honors? "I think it will come down to Lava Man, Invasor (Arg) and us for Horse of the Year," Albertrani remarked. Trainer Nick Zito, who saddled Wanderin Boy and third-place finisher Andromeda's Hero, added his praise. "This horse has superstar credentials," Zito said. "If he wins the Breeders' Cup, he'll certainly solidify that. It's the first time I almost clapped for a horse that beat me. That was pretty cool. That was a tremendous horse. Javy rode him with tremendous confidence. He'll be getting a lot of accolades now. He doesn't need me." It looked like his rabbit might steal the race away from him, but English Channel ran down pacemaker Icy Atlantic (Stormy Atlantic) and pulled away to his third Grade I victory of the season. Fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf to end 2005, the chestnut opened the new year with a win in the Mar. 11 Canadian Turf H. at Gulfstream and earned his first at the highest level in the May 6 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill Downs. The four-year-old was compromised by a slow pace when fourth, just a half-length behind Cacique (Ire), in the June 10 GI Manhattan H., but turned the tables on that rival in the July 8 GI United Nations H. at Monmouth Park. The early fractions were slow again in the Aug. 12 GI Arlington Million and English Channel was fourth again, so owner James Scatuorchio went out and bought what he thought was guaranteed early speed in Icy Atlantic. The race, however, did not unfold that way. Icy Atlantic did go to the front, but loped through a leisurely six panels in 1:16.35. He still held the advantage as they hit the stretch, but English Channel charged past at the eighth pole for the score.

"He made it look a little more difficult than it was, but he went on and looked really good," said jockey John Velazquez. "He proved today that he can get 12 furlongs." It was the third Grade I winner on the afternoon for trainer Todd Pletcher, who also took the GI Beldame S. with Fleet Indian and GI Flower Bowl Invitational S. with Honey Ryder. "This horse has a heavy argument for being champion turf horse," Pletcher said. "His record stacks up with anyone's in the division." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Too much for the sophomore sprinters to handle in the July 1 GIII Jersey Shore BC S. at Monmouth Park and the Aug. 26 GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga, Henny Hughes took on older speedsters at Belmont and made it a perfect three-for-three on the year. Longshot Attila's Storm was sent away from the gate in his first start since January and cut out quick fractions, but he was joined by Henny Hughes at the quarter pole, and the three-year-old pulled away from his rivals down the lane to stamp himself the one to beat in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. "I told Johnny that if another horse clears us, that would be great," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. "Just ride your race. We broke a little flat-footed, but everything worked out great." As for how he will get the colt ready for the World Thoroughbred Championships, McLaughlin added, "We're there now. We'll keep him happy. We just have to go a few halves with him." Fleet Indian started her streak in modest company, besting New York-breds in the Montauk H. at Aqueduct last November. A Philly Park allowance winner in December, she was sent through the ring at Keeneland January, then added the Mar. 26 GIII Next Move H. in her first start under new management. The five-year-old was allowed easy leads in her next four starts and was never challenged, scoring by an average of 7 1/2 lengths over a stretch that culminated with a 4 1/4-length victory over Balletto in the Aug. 25 GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga. She would have company on the front end in the Beldame, but was sent off the odds-on chalk to make it eight in a row. Settled in fourth while tucked in at the rail through six panels in 1:10.36, Fleet Indian drove past Round Pond as they hit the lane and was all out to hold off perpetual bridesmaid Balletto, who was picking up her third straight second-place finish in Grade I company. Great Hunter had to settle for second in the July 4 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship S., Aug. 13 GII Best Pal S. and Sept. 6 GII Del Mar Futurity, but outfinished favorite Circular Quay to earn his first stakes success after a trip to the Midwest. The dark bay was sent off a lukewarm, second choice in his first try at the Grade I level. Jockey Victor Espinoza bided his time just off the early leaders while saving ground, but his strategy nearly backfired when his mount was caught in tight as they headed into the far turn. Steadied briefly off heels, Great Hunter fought his way to the outside for clear sailing and twice brushed with the crowd's odds-on choice as they turned into the lane, then took over nearing the wire as Circular Quay stayed on for second. "He even shocked me today, the way he ran," said Espinoza, on the colt for the first time. "He was in a little traffic, but as soon as he got free he settled nicely. I had a chance to swing to the outside and I got lucky because he got through on the outside. He was really something else." The winner will aim for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. The one-time claimer Bordonaro improved his record to nine wins in 12 lifetimes starts with his first Grade I score. The Cal-bred gelding got off to a late start, making his career debut in February of his four-year-old season, but won all but two of his eight attempts last term, including the restricted Pirate's Bounty H. and Cal Cup Sprint H. and the GIII Vernon O. Underwood S. Favored in his 2006 bow, he took the Sunshine Millions Sprint at Gulfstream Park Jan. 28, then returned three months later to annex the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. at Oaklawn in mid-April. The 4-5 chalk coming off the bench in the July 30 GI Bing Crosby H., he was in the process of engaging Pure As Gold (Stolen Gold) in upper stretch when he was struck in the face by his rival's whip. Forced to settle for second that day when stewards opted not to reverse the order of finish, he was out to avenge that loss here. Making it look easy, Bordonaro set the track on fire through :21 2/5 and :43 4/5 fractions and was always holding Thor's Echo safe down the lane. Bordonaro would have to be nominated at a cost of $180,000 to compete in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 4. Aussie Rules, the lone three-year-old in the field, kicked away smartly in the final furlong. The grey earned his first stakes victory in his 2005 finale, the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket. After finishing off the board in his seasonal opener in France, he produced a game effort to take the one-mile G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains May 14 at Longchamp, but didn't fare as well at longer distances. He ran seventh, beaten three lengths, in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club June 4 at Chantilly, and followed that with a fourth, 1 3/4 lengths behind David Junior in the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. July 8 at Sandown. Dropped back to a mile, the Kentucky-bred ran fourth to his elders in both the Aug. 2 G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood and the Sept. 3 G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. He had blinkers added along with Lasix in return to the land of his birth, and was the third choice here. After a slow beginning, jockey Garrett Gomez allowed Aussie Rules to settle into stride on the inside. He angled the colt out five wide and the grey responded smartly, rallying between rivals before spurning clear. "The ground [probably] came up in his favor for the first time," Gomez said. "The horses he's been taking on in Europe have been good, and he's just been knocking on the door. Today, he proved that he's just as good." Margins: 2 1/4, 1, HF. Odds: 0.60, 4.40, 8.60.
 Also Ran: Preachinatthebar, Super Frolic, Magnum (Arg), Romeo Plus (Arg). A mortal three-for-nine last season, Lava Man wasn't even favored in his first two starts of 2006. He was 5-2 when winning the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions Classic and 3-1 for the Mar. 4 GI Santa Anita H. But the crowd has known better than to bet against him since. The dark bay powered to odds-on victories when switched to the turf for the Apr. 30 Khaled S. against Cal-breds and the June 10 GI Charlie Whittingham H. He had to battle to a nose decision at 3-5 in the July 8 GI Hollywood Gold Cup and was only the even-money chalk in the Aug. 20 GI Pacific Classic, but was much the best that afternoon in a 2 1/2-length score. Heavily favored to extend his dominance of the West Coast crew yesterday, Lava Man was head and head with Preachinatthebar (Silver Charm) through a half in :46.90, but started to inch away from his foes thereafter and had little trouble fending off three-year-old Brother Derek to the wire. The five-year-old now needs to show he can take his show on the road. "Nothing against the horses that he's been running against here, but this is a new challenge and we've got to prove ourselves," trainer Doug O'Neill admitted. "We're going to go about [shipping] a little differently this time. We're going to ship to Kentucky at least three weeks out." Once again demonstrating an explosive burst of speed, Aragorn made it four in a row yesterday. The Ballygallon homebred, who has been first or second in all eight U.S. starts, added the victory to his wins in the May 29 GI Shoemaker BC Mile, July 23 GI Eddie Read H. and Aug. 26 GII Del Mar BC H. The chestnut tracked the pace as Wild Buddy (Line in the Sand) set sail on a daylight lead, but inhaled the leader as they neared the stretch and was under a hand ride to the wire. "He's just a tremendous horse, a tremendous athlete," said jockey Corey Nakatani. "When you ask him, he gives it to you, and takes the race to them at that point. He went fast and was just under a hand ride today. You don't want to squeeze the lemon dry too soon. We were trying to get an easy win under his belt and make sure he was getting enough out of it at the same time. I think this was just about what he needed." Added trainer Neil Drysdale, "It was a workmanlike performance; it was a very nice prep [for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Downs]." in the Mar. 5 GII Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream, India was off the board in her next two starts and found herself trying a route of ground last time out. Stretched to a mile and 70 yards for the Sept. 10 Without Feathers S, at Monmouth Park, she cruised home an impressive 5 1/2-length winner. The chestnut showed an affinity for two-turn competition again here. India pressed a pedestrian early pace, took command as they rolled out of the final bend and powered home a decisive winner. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

The winner of the GIII Aristides BC H. at Churchill Downs in June of 2005, Kelly's Landing was sidelined after finishing sixth in the GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt at Saratoga in August, but opened 2006 with a victory in the in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Park Mar. 16. The dark bay stopped badly to be 12th as the 3-1 favorite in the Apr. 15 GII Commonwealth BC S. at Keeneland, but bounced back to be second in a Churchill allowance test in May and in this year's edition of the Aristides the following month. He was off the board in his next two, most recently running sixth in the Aug. 26 Arlington Park Sprint BC H., but took advantage of a rail-skimming ride to get the job done here. The gelding was outrun early as Spanish Chestnut (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) set a solid pace on the Polytrack. In between horses as they raced around the bend, Kelly's Landing angled to the inside for the final drive and finished well, gaining the lead late before edging clear. Alzerra beat the smart Cumin to graduate at Haydock June 9 before finding Sander Camillo too hot when runner-up in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket July 12. Fifth after a 17-day break in Ascot's G3 Princess Margaret S., she dropped back to five furlongs for the Listed St Hughs S. at Newbury Aug. 19 and was third there before annexing the Listed Harry Rosebery S. at Ayr last time Sept. 15. Content to take her time off the furious early fractions, she arrived with a rush from rear to lead before the eighth pole and comfortably held Hoh Mike in the closing stages. "She was second in the Cherry Hinton on real firm ground and took a while to get over that," trainer Mick Channon commented. "She is an amazing filly, as she is so settled and laid-back and I was worried early on when she was racing lazily and Martin [Dwyer] had to niggle and scrub, but when he gave her a slap and asked her to pick up she took off. She's improved with racing and started the season early and seen it out. I think she's certain to stay a lot further, so we'll probably bring her back for one of the Guineas trials next year and see." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Dropped back to six for the Tattersalls October Auction S. eight days ago, he overcame that test of speed to scoop the valuable Newmarket prize and underlined his versatility with another impressive performance here. Settled off the generous early fractions by Declan McDonogh, he improved from his mid-division pitch to lead at the quarter pole before surging clear for an emphatic score. "That is it for this season and we will map out a plan for next year over the winter," trainer Sylvester Kirk told PA Sport. "Declan thinks he will get further than a mile and he is a talented racehorse. He will improve and strengthen up and has a lovely attitude." Baghdaria had not been out since getting trounced in the July 22 GI Coaching Club American Oaks, but rebounded in her return with a decisive victory. The bay picked up her third straight win in her 2006 opener, making her stakes debut in the Jan. 14 GIII Silverbulletday S. at Louisiana Downs and scoring by a head. She finished off the board in a pair of stakes efforts at Oaklawn Park, then improved to be third in the May 19 GII Black Eyed Susan S. On the road again for the June 30 GIII Iowa Oaks, she was sent off the 9-5 chalk and lived up to the role with a half-length tally. Baghdaria did not fare as well trying 10 panels and a muddy strip in the CCA Oaks, finishing eighth, and was given a break. She returned as the second choice here. Rated in fifth while saving ground early, the Atkins colorbearer switched to the passing lane as they straightened for home and hit the gas to win going away. "I knew there was a lot of speed in the race, so I just wanted to sit back," said jockey Rafael Bejarano. "I knew once she got in the straightaway, she'd be flying, and she was." Diamond Stripes opened his career with a belated maiden score at Belmont in July and came back Sept. 2 to add a Saratoga allowance victory going nine furlongs. The Florida-bred gelding took on graded foes in what was only his third career start and remained unbeaten. A well-backed second choice despite the jump up the ladder, the gray was last out of the gate and had just one behind him as they raced around the first turn and into the backstretch. He closed on the leaders from the outside, drove to the front at the eighth pole and held On Board Again at bay to the wire. "I'm very excited about this horse," said jockey Edgar Prado. "He's very professional both in the morning and in his races. He had plenty left when we hit the wire. He was looking around a little in the stretch, but once he heard [On Board Again] coming, he took off again. I think you'll see a lot of him as a four-year-old, he's really something good." Winner of the GII Black Eyed Susan S. and three times placed in Grade I company at three, Spun Sugar was sidelined for more than six months after running second in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga. She returned to take an optional claimer at Gulfstream Park in March before breaking through at the highest level, besting Happy Ticket by a neck in the Apr. 8 GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park. The even-money chalk in the June 17 GI Ogden Phipps H., the bay bobbed at the break and ended up fourth, but she atoned for that loss with a game nose decision over Balletto (UAE) in the July 30 GI Go for Wand S. at Saratoga. Happy Ticket came back after her narrow defeat in Arkansas to take the June 17 GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill Downs, then followed a short break with a second-place finish in the Aug. 6 GII Clement L. Hirsch H. at Del Mar. She showed an affinity for Keeneland's new Polytrack with a bullet five furlongs in :59 3/5 Oct. 1. Promenade Girl steps up in search of her third straight win. The four-year-old led every step in a stakes test at Mountaineer Park in June and added a front-running head victory over the accomplished Round Pond in the Aug. 27 GII Molly Pitcher BC S. at Monmouth Park.

Win McCool has run her best races over this track, finishing second by a neck in the GII Nassau County BC S. in May and posting a 7 1/4-length allowance score the following month. She faltered after setting fast fractions in the July 8 GI Prioress BC S., finishing sixth, and lost all chance when bumped at the start of the Aug. 5 GI Test S. at Saratoga, ending up seventh. In her latest, she got back on track with a wire-to-wire success in the Sept. 16 GIII Floral

Win McCool Adam Coglianese

Park H. over six furlongs at Belmont. "She did everything right," trainer Bobby Barbara said. "The padock, the gate, she got the right ride. Finally we've got her headed where she belongs." Fellow three-year-old Swap Fliparoo was 5 1/4 lengths behind Win McCool when third in the Nassau County and finished fourth in the Floral Park, but put in three solid performances between those races. Second in the June 9 Queen of Song S., she was beaten just a half-length when runner-up behind the older Behaving Badly in the July 3 GII Genuine Risk BC H. and cruised to a two-length triumph in the Test. She was briefly sidelined by an ankle problem after the Test and should be fitter in her second start since. Nothing But Fun, three-for-five at Belmont, won the first four races of her career, capping the streak with a narrow score in the GII Cotillion H. at Philly Park. Seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, she opened 2006 with a win in the May 11 Mil Kilates S. going a mile over "Big Sandy," then ran second in the June 17 GI Ogden Phipps H. Connections opted to turn her back to a sprint after a fifth in the July 30 GI Go for Wand H. and, while she never got close to winner Dubai Escapade in the Aug. 27 GI Ballerina BC S., the dark bay was second best.

Undeclared Principle Secret stretches out after an impressive maiden score at Del Mar July 22 and a three-length tally in the GII Best Pal S. at that track Aug. 13. The dark bay prepped with a six-furlong work at Hollywood Sept. 23, getting the distance in 1:13, fastest of 29 at the distance. Horse Greeley finished second to Principle Secret in his debut and came back to win by four in an Aug. 12 maiden test. He added a victory in the Sept. 6 GII Del Mar Futurity going seven furlongs and has worked sharply since, firing a bullet five furlongs in :58 3/5 at Santa Anita Oct. 3. Spot the Diplomat takes on open company in quest of his fourth consecutive success. The chestnut gelding wired the field in his latest, the six-furlong I'm Smokin S. at Del Mar Sept. 4. Malt Magic romped by 9 1/2 lengths when trying a mile at Del Mar the same afternoon.

Aidan O'Brien has won eight of the last 10 renewals and relies on a duo headed by Eagle Mountain. Having graduated over six furlongs of this track May 28, he returned here from a layoff to run Teofilo (Ire) to within a head when runner-up in the Aug. 26 G2 Futurity S. over seven furlongs. He got going too late when filling the same spot behind the subsequent G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere third Vital Equine (Ire) in the G2 Champagne S. at York last time Sept. 9 and should relish this extra panel. Dermot Weld, who has a sole renewal to his name, saddles the Leopardstown maiden scorer Capital Exposure. He had subsequent winner Angelonmyshoulder (GB) and New World Order behind in that contest Aug. 20 and his trainer is expecting a bold show as long as the wet weather abates. "He's a very straightforward and laid-back colt with a lot of pace and has progressed well, but I don't want to see more rain for him," he said. "It was lovely ground at Leopardstown, but real testing ground may take away his speed." Mark Johnston ships in Silent Waves, who was fourth behind Strategic Prince (GB) in the Aug. 2 G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood on his latest start.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

BEO TO ROCKFEL Michael Ryan's impressive G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) will run in Saturday's G2 Rockfel S. at Newmarket, connections announced on Friday. Trainer Jim Bolger revealed that the five-length Longchamp scorer will accompany his G1 National S. winner Teofilo (Ire) on the plane for the Champions' Day fixture. "She's in great form and we're looking at the Rockfel now," he told the Racing Post. "She doesn't seem to mind the ground, but if it's heavy at Newmarket then Teofilo wouldn't run in the G1 Dewhurst S."

STUDENT COUNCIL (c, 4, Kingmambo--Class Kris {MGSW, $582,129}, by Kris S.), a half-brother to Gradepoint (A.P. Indy), GSW, $144,285, tried Polytrack for the first time last out at Turfway Sept. 6 and came away with a victory in that allowance test. An 8-5 choice here, the Farish homebred tracked the pace from fourth, moved up to take the lead passing the eighth pole and went on to score by 1 1/4 lengths over the pacesetter Champ Sufi (Louis Quatorze). Lifetime Record: 11-3-1-1, $104,726.

GINGER PUNCH (f, 3, Awesome Again--Nappelon {GSW, $630,777}, by Bold Revenue), runner-up in her first two starts at Gulfstream earlier this year, ran fifth on the dirt at Keeneland in April. She was 2-5 to finally earn her diploma at Churchill in mid-May and did so emphatically, winning by 9 1/2 lengths. Shelved off that one, she was the 7-5 pick here to make it two straight despite the long break. The chestnut raced along between rivals up the backstretch, powered to a clear advantage in upper stretch and finished 6 1/2 lengths to the good of Everything Good (Giant's Causeway). Lifetime Record: 5-2-2-0, $65,959.

ADMIRAL BIRD (c, 2, Royal Academy--Sea Puffin, by Mt. Livermore) came flying to land his debut versus New York-breds at Saratoga Aug. 10, but that late kick fell a nose short in his latest, the With Anticipation S. at the Spa Sept. 1. After tracking the leaders from fourth, the bay swept to the lead in midstretch and dug in gamely to fend off Twilight Meteor (Smart Strike) by a nose. Admiral Bird had been on these grounds twice before, selling as a yearling for $50,000 at KEESEP before bringing $250,000 as a KEEAPR juvenile. BARONESS THATCHER (f, 2, Johannesburg--Natkeeta {SP}, by Gulch) debuted with a runner-up effort at Churchill July 3, but had a bad trip next out. She stumbled at the start and rushed up before tiring to be eighth in a Spa maiden Aug. 20. The 5-2 second choice broke much better this time to attend the pace, eased back to find running room on the outside and swept by her rivals to win going away by five lengths. A $25,000 OBSJAN and $27,000 KEESEP yearling, she sold for $130,000 at FTMMAY earlier this spring. The half-sister to Interminable Gold (Gilded Time), SW, $140,517, marks the 16th winner for her freshman sire (by Hennessy). TVG TRUMAN'S GOLD (Seeking the Gold) took plenty of support in his 5 1/2-furlong debut at Saratoga Aug. 11, but after a dawdling start couldn't live up to his 5-2 favoritism and had to settle for a closing third. The three-year-old colt, a $650k FTFFEB juvenile, has been working very well in the mornings and should do better this time. Alcibiades Top Three Bound for Churchill:

The top three finishers from Friday's GII Darley Alcibiades S. are each expected to make their next appearance in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Churchill Downs Nov. 4. Frank Brothers, who sent out Bel Air Beauty (Smart Strike) to a 47-1 upset in the 8 1/2-furlong event, reported that the Bruce Lunsford runner would run on Championship Day "if she's good the next three or four weeks." The connections of Untouched Talent (Storm Cat), runner-up by 3/4 of a length, indicated that the filly has emerged from Friday's race in good order and is also likely to go on. "It was her first time around two turns and she finished well," said exercise rider Antonio Gutirrec, who gallops horses for trainer Jeff Bonde. "She came out of the race sound and [Saturday] morning she was happy and fresh." Trainer Patrick Biancone reported that Her Majesty (Giant's Causeway) was "very good" following the race and would be pointed for the Juvenile Fillies. Owned by the Coolmore triumvirate of Michael Tabor, John Magnier and Derrick Smith, the dark bay was produced by a half to champion sprinter Safely Kept.

New Sale in Texas:

The first new Thoroughbred sale in Texas in many years, the Weatherbys Fall Mixed Sale, will take place Oct. 21 at 12 noon at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth. Brian Wallis, a resident of Decatur, Texas, and owner of Dormello Stud, is operating the sale. The inaugural sale features 51 broodmares, 30 yearlings, 8 weanlings, 15 horses of racing age and one stallion for a total of 105 offerings. Among the broodmares are daughters of Sadler's Wells, Deputy Minister and Affirmed, while the yearlings are by sires such as Fantastic Light, Volponi and Wild Zone. In addition to the auction, there will be a raffle for stallion seasons prior to the sale. For more information, please visit www.weatherbys.com.

Having met her match in the teak-tough Rising Cross (GB) in the G2 Park Hill S. last time, Anna Pavlova gained compensation despite charting an errant course in the closing stages of this contest. Off the mark at this level in the Listed Galtres S. at York Aug. 24, she veered left on that occasion when in the clear and was steered over to the stands' rail in the Sept. 8 Park Hill to concentrate her mind. Cont. p7

In the event, Rising Cross was too strong for Anna Pavlova in the finish and she went down by 3/4 of a length. She was settled towards the rear by Paul Hanagan throughout the early stages here, but traveled up to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before diving sharply left to the post across the expanse of the Ascot straight. "She saw the exit and I thought I was going into row Z of the stands," her jockey commented. "It's such a wide track and with nothing on her outside, she saw too much daylight, but it just shows how good she is. She's as tough as they come."

Peppertree Lane relishes the soft and had yesterday's Listed Harvest S. winner Anna Pavlova (GB) some 3 1/2 lengths back in second in a competitive handicap when the ground was testing at York May 19. After three off-the-board efforts, he bounced back on his favored surface to win at Ripon Aug. 19 before adding Haydock's Old Borough Cup H. to his tally on heavy ground Sept. 2. Third in a course-and-distance handicap 22 days later, he produced another power-packed performance to capture this valuable contest. Chasing the solid early fractions here, he rallied to lead with a quarter mile remaining before drawing clear for an authoritative success. "There probably wasn't a strong enough pace last time and he's steadily progressing," trainer Mark Johnston commented. "We thought he was a very good horse when beating Anna Pavlova early in the year, and I hope he stays in training."
