FLOWER ALLEY TO THREE CHIMNEYS

Robert Clay's Three Chimneys Farm has purchased a 50-percent interest in Flower Alley (Distorted Humor--Princess Olivia, by Lycius) from owner Eugene Melnyk, and the four-year-old will retire to Three Chimneys at the conclusion of his racing career. "Flower Alley was absolutely scintillating in his performances last year," Clay said. "Afleet Alex was voted champion three-year-old, but Flower Alley ran a 110 or better Beyer three times...and Afleet Alex did so only in the Preakness.

Flower Alley has been our pick of the crop since his domination in the Travers." Purchased for $165,000 as a Keeneland September yearling, the chestnut was first or second in seven of his nine starts last season. He was runner-up in the GII Arkansas Derby and GII Dwyer S. before taking the GII Jim Dandy S. by 5 1/4 lengths (video). Flower Alley came back to post a 2 1/2-length score in the GI Travers S. (video) and capped the campaign by finishing a length behind Horse of the Year Saint Liam when second in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The winner of the GIII Salvator Mile H. this year, he has compiled a record of 13-5-3-1 and earnings of $2,533,910 to date. "Melnyk Racing has retained 50 percent of the horse because I'm very excited about [his] prospects as a stallion," Melnyk remarked. Flower Alley will stand for a fee of $25,000, live foal. "As we said last week when we announced our stud fees, we want to make sure our stallions are priced to compete favorably for the best mares," Clay said, adding, "We will sell a limited number of shares from our portion of the ownership."

DOWNEY SCALES NEW HEIGHTS AT TATTS

Vendor Michael Downey twice broke the record price for Part 2 of Tattersalls's October Yearling Sale in Newmarket last night when getting 300,000gns for both a first-crop son of Captain Rio (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and a colt by leading freshman sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert). Downey, who consigns on a small scale from his farm near Cashel in Co. Tipperary, purchased the son of Invincible Spirit for just €23,000 at Goffs last November. Agent Angie Sykes bought him second time around, with Charlie Gordon-Watson the underbidder. "He was the outstanding horse here by the sire of the moment," said Sykes, acting for an undisclosed client. Out of You Rang Here (Dehere), the bay went through the ring as lot 1253. The Captain Rio, sold as lot 1210, was produced by the Formidable mare Sliding (GB). Bred on a stud fee of just €5,000, he will race in the blue and white silks of Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum. Racing Manager Angus Gold prevailed in a long battle with agent Amanda Skiffington. "I thought he was absolutely beautiful from the moment I first saw him," said Gold. "He was a natural in everything he did, and I hope he makes up into an Ascot two-year-old for us." Cont. p2

Second Time's The Charm...

A Medicean (GB) colt, bought back for 17,500gns as a weanling in 2005, proved more popular yesterday when reconsigned by breeder Ercan Dogan from James and Celia Miller's Freedom Farm Stud. Cheveley Park Stud Managing Director Chris Richardson paid 200,000gns for the colt, who sold as lot 1177. He will be the first horse David and Patricia Thompson's stud has in training with Newmarket handler Peter Chapple-Hyam, who campaigned the dual Group 1-winning Medicean juvenile Dutch Art (GB) this season. "He is a neat, quality individual who looks like he should make a real two-year-old," said Richardson. "The sire has really been catching the imagination this year." Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock paid 200,000gns on behalf of Ahmed Zayat for a Johannesburg colt offered from Timmy Hyde's Camas Park Stud. The bay, a May foal that cost $60,000 at Keeneland in January, will be trained in the U.S. Zayat has had banner season with his two-year-olds in America this year; among his representatives across the Atlantic are Grade I winner Point Ashely, graded-stakes winner Got the Last Laugh and multiple stakes-winner Chief Officer. HAPPENINGS

Hip 1276, c, Danetime (Ire)-Banco Solo (GB), by Distant Relative (Ire)
Consigned by Tally-Ho Stud

The late Danetime has been in the news of late, thanks to the exploits of G2 Champagne S. winner and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere third Vital Equine (Ire) and G3 Sirenia S. victress and G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Dhanyata (Ire). This half to an Italian stakes winner is out of a sister to My Branch (GB), the dam of the 2004 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup heroine Tante Rose (Ire).

On First Asking, 2YO sets Track Record!
"TDN RISING STAR" for CAME HOME

"Rainbow Promises showed the professionalism that has marked her homework to break smartly and race in second early. Frankie Dettori asked the 2YO to stride to the front with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining and she quickly settled the issue with an impressive turn of foot, breaking the juvenile track record in the process."

Following up with a first stakes win in the Sept. 6 Listed Prix de Boulogne at Chantilly last time, he progressed further up the ladder with a decisive victory here. He also provided the trainer-jockey combination of Richard Gibson and Olivier Peslier with an afternoon stakes double. Reserved off the pace as usual, Doctor Dino moved into contention once into the stretch run and couldn't be caught after taking over at the distance as Runaway kept on to repeat the Prix de Boulogne exacta. ☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

KINANE BOOKED FOR HURRICANE RUN If he runs, Mick Kinane will partner Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. at Newmarket. Trainer Andre Fabre told the Racing Post that he believed Kinane will suit the four-year-old, who is chasing his fifth Group 1 success in the 10-furlong contest. "I think Kinane will fit the horse," Fabre told the Post. "He will probably run in the Champion S., although I am waiting for the weather to be able to consider what sort of ground it is. Over this shorter distance, he would prefer soft ground." Hurricane Run ran fourth in his G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe defense Oct. 1 at Longchamp. Christophe Soumillon, who piloted Hurricane Run to victory in the July 29 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, will instead ride Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. hero Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre).

FALLON TO RIDE YEATS Kieren Fallon has been cleared by the Australian authorities to take the ride on Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in the Nov. 7 G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup at Flemington. Ballydoyle's retained rider, charged with conspiracy to defraud in Britain, had been asked to apply for a licence by Victoria Ltd, but his request has been granted and he is free to partner the G1 Ascot Gold Cup winner in the feature. "It's great news and I'm really looking forward to it," Fallon told PA Sport yesterday. "Let's hope we can go there and win the race now. The Melbourne Cup is without doubt one of the great races around the world that I've never ridden in. I had a few chances to ride in the race over the years, but nothing materialised in the end. This year it will hopefully happen on Yeats, and my intention is to get there early. I've never ridden before in Melbourne, so I'm going to be out there early to get a feel of the track. With a bit of luck, I might get a ride or two around there before the big one."

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

HORSE GREELEY OUT OF JUVENILE

Trainer Richard Mandella confirmed yesterday that Horse Greeley (Mr. Greeley) will miss the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill Downs. "His ankles are jarred up and he's going in to get a nuclear scan [Thursday]," Mandella said. "Then we'll X-ray and do other tests, but he won't be going to the Breeders' Cup, whether it all comes out negative or not. We'll have to see what damage was done. He's got some filling in his ankles, so we'll have to see what it's all about."

STORMELLO ON TARGET FOR CHURCHILL

Stormello (Stormy Atlantic) came out of his win in Sunday's GI Norfolk Breeders' Cup S., "like an alligator," according to trainer William Currin. "He tried to bite me this morning and he is such a beautiful thing," Currin said. "He doesn't even know he raced. He's in top, top condition." Currin confirmed that the colt, who he co-owns and co-bred, will be aimed at the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. "He'll be ready to take them on again," he said. "He's 110 percent to go and I told that to [jockey] Kent Desormeaux's agent this morning. We will be going and we'll hope for the best."

MELHOR AINDA RETIRED TNT Stud's Melhor Ainda (Pulpit--Potrinner {Arg}, by Potrillazo {Arg}), who worked five furlongs in 1:03.50 over the Belmont Park turf Saturday, has been retired due to chronic ankle problems, the Daily Racing Form reports. "She's not the same to run at the level she has to run at," trainer Bobby Frankel told DRF. "She worked okay, but you could tell something was wrong. I'd rather send her home in one piece." The four-year-old filly had been out just once this season, winning the Capades S.

Adam Coglianese

at Belmont in July. Two-for-two as a juvenile with an eight-length score in the Miss Grillo S., she added victories in the Appalachian S. and Gill Sands Point S. in her first two outings at three, then was second as the 6-5 favorite in the GI American Oaks. The bay was third, beaten just a neck, in the GI Beverly D. S. in her first try agaisny older mares, but was sidelined after finishing seventh in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. last October. She retires with a record of 8-5-1-1 and a bankroll of $483,216.

William S. Farish Named Keeneland Trustee:

Owner/breeder William S. Farish, a member of Keeneland's board of directors since 1985, was named a Keeneland trustee during the corporation's semi-annual meeting Wednesday. Farish succeeds Ted Bassett III, who announced his retirement after 13 years at the post. "It's a great honor to be associated with Keeneland," Farish said. "I have great admiration for the management team and look forward to working with them as Keeneland builds on its role as a worldwide Thoroughbred industry leader." Also announced yesterday was the appointment of Charles Nuckols III to the board of directors; Duncan Taylor was named to Keeneland's executive committee.

Irene's Mon defeated Simon Pure by 3 1/2 lengths in a Churchill allowance July 8 and followed that with a close fourth in Arlington's Forward Pass S. Aug. 12. He rebounded with an allowance win over Turfway's Polytrack Sept. 7 and was the 3-2 choice here. With Julien Leparoux in the irons once again, the dark bay settled in fifth while racing four wide. He advanced along the inside, angled out six wide in the lane and kicked clear late to record a two-length victory.

Jobar

Gone West - Windsharp, by Lear Fan

"Jobar had all the speed in the world. If they had a million dollar race down the hill at Santa Anita he would have run and won. But, once I knew he had heart, I trained him to chase, pick them off and go for the big money. In my book, he is a no brainer to be the next top son of Gone West at stud."

Wagering Declines During Third Quarter:

by Ryan Conley, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

Fueled in part by all-source handle declines at such meetings as Del Mar, Arlington Park and Monmouth Park, overall wagering on United States racing at U.S. and Canadian outlets in the third quarter of 2006 dropped by nearly $7 million when compared to the same period a year ago, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association reported Oct. 10. The decline may not be as glum as it might appear at first glance. Del Mar alone saw a decline of just more than $26.3 million from its all-time record handle of $608,916,117 recorded in 2005, but still managed to post its second-highest handle total ever at the historic California track with $582,604,451. Saratoga Race Course, Colonial Downs and Turfway Park, all of which carried live days of racing during the third quarter, all managed increases in handle, with Colonial and Turfway checking in with double-digit increases over 2005. Purses in the United States rose 2.25 percent to $337,888,371 from third quarter 2005, while the total amount of race days dropped 1.8 percent to 1,959.

MERRY BUYS OATH

The highlight of Goresbridge's two-day October Sale in Ireland yesterday was the sale of 1999 G1 Epsom Derby winner Oath (Ire) (Fairy King--Sheer Audacity {Ire}, by Troy {GB}) to Hugo Merry. According to Racing Post, the bloodstock agent acted through the new sales company's managing director Martin Donohoe to secure the 10-year-old for €205,000. The former Thoroughbred Corporation's colorbearer, consigned by Ballyglasane Stud, will head to India to the Maharajah of Idar's Prattap Stud. Oath, who had stood at David Stack's Coolagown Stud, provided a major boost to the County Kilkenny-based auction. Merry told the Post, "His sire Fairy King has been quite successful as a sire of sires in India, with one example being Burden of Proof (Ire). The Maharajah has been a long-standing client, and I have bought several broodmares for him at Goffs over the years."
