Aidan O'Brien's quartet of winners in the G1 Racing Post Trophy includes subsequent Classic heroes High Chaparral (Ire) and Brian Boru (GB), and Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) carries the main Ballydoyle hopes in today's renewal at Newbury. Switched from Doncaster due to that track's redevelopment, the race that has produced four Classic winners in the last five runnings has to survive an inspection following yesterday's heavy rain (see p6). But if it goes ahead, Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's colt will be a warm order. Emphatic in The Curragh's testing conditions when recording a seven-length win in the G2 Beresford S. 13 days ago, he bids to emulate the stable's Saratoga Springs, who completed the Beresford--Racing Post Trophy double in 1997. "This fellow is like his dad," O'Brien told Racing Post. "He's improving with every run and getting better and better." Cont. p2

MERIBEL TURNS THE TABLES

When last they met, Arthur Hancock III and Catesby W. Clay's Meribel (Peaks and Valleys) was a close second to Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Precious Kitten (Catienus) in the Martha Washington BC S. over the

Meribel Pat Lang

Laurel turf Sept. 30. The two combatants locked horns again yesterday in the $125,000 GIII Valley View S., washed onto the Polytrack, and it was the Hancock runner who got just the better of her rival, scoring by a half-length. Eased back to last by jockey

Garrett Gomez for the opening four furlongs, the homebred filly was forced to go 10 wide on the far turn, worked her way a bit towards the inside when straightened for home and was along late. Despite the surface switch, the race was allowed to retain its Grade III status. Click for the brisnet.com chart.. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Eagle Mountain emerged from a summer break to get within a head of Teofilo (Ire) when runner-up in the G2 Futurity S. at The Curragh Aug. 26 before filling the same spot in York's G2 Champagne S. Sept. 9. Both performances were marked by strong late flourishes, and it was not until he was stepped up to a mile in the Beresford that he showed his full arsenal. "He got the [mile] trip well, which is encouraging with the Racing Post Trophy in mind and you would have to think that the ground doesn't make much difference," O'Brien added. Another who will relish the trip and ground is Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Regime, who showed the same style as Eagle Mountain when runner-up in the Sept. 19 Goffs Million at The Curragh. He was over two lengths in front of the subsequent G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and G2 Rockfel S. heroine Finsceal Beo (Ire) on his side of the track that day, and bids to provide trainer Michael Bell with his second renewal after Motivator (GB) scored in 2004. "He looks in far better condition in his coat than Motivator did when he won, as he had gone in his coat by then," Bell said. "He looks absolutely magnificent in his well-being, but I don't want to start making comparisons until after the race. You've only got to look at the form of the Curragh race to see what a good horse this is." Barry Hills has yet to win this prize, but saddles a live contender in Khalid Abdullah's Thousand Words. He bounced back from a disappointing sixth in the Champagne to win the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. in authoritative fashion at Newmarket last time Sept. 29. Mark Johnston relies on a duo headed by Kennet Valley Thoroughbreds' Aug. 26 G3 Solario S. winner Drumfire, who was third behind Miss Beatrix (Ire) and Regime in the Goffs Million last time.

Edmund Gann's Garnica was third behind Tie Black (Ire) in the Listed Prix Aymeri de Mauleon at Toulouse Apr. 25 before finishing on the heels of the main players when fifth in Longchamp's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains, on the day that Tie Black was awarded first prize in the fillies' equivalent May 14. He was fifth again in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly July 9, but found a confidence booster at Deauville and duly won a conditions event there on his last start Aug. 22. Always close up, the grey was committed at the top of the stretch and quickly set his seal on the contest, opening up from two down on his way to an impressive success. Caulfield Cup cont.

David Hayes has a strong hand in this contest, with Growl making a meteoric rise in the wake of his last start G2 Winning Edge Presentation S. win over this same track and trip. That victory was essential to secure the lightly raced bay a berth in the 18-horse field; he was shortened from 150-1 to 7-1 in ante-post markets. Growl was a NZ$360,000 yearling purchase for Hayes, who recently sold 80 percent of him to India-based client Sanjeev Mahtani. Hayes indicated that Growl was the best of his Caulfield Cup trio, including Sheikh Hamdan's last start G1 Metropolitan winner Tawqeet and Short Pause (GB). "I've always had a lot of confidence in this horse; he's a very exciting stayer," Hayes said. "I think Growl is the pick of mine. He has only 49kgs [108 lbs]. It's a postage-stamp weight." The Melbourne Race Club committee opted not to use its discretionary powers to elevate English visitor Land 'n Stars and well-backed Ziping into the race, but the possible scratching of Godolphin's Imperial Stride (GB) due to a stone bruise injury may elevate the former into the field. Lee Freedman has an equally strong hand with Sphenophyta, Our Smoking Joe and Serenade Rose--the first three across the line in the 2000-meter G1 Turnbull S. at their last outings a fortnight ago--in his bid for a fifth win. "Sphenophyta is a funny horse," Freedman said. "They kept telling me how good he was; I had to pay a ridiculous amount of money to get in to the horse, but it looks like it might be worthwhile now."

Third over the conventional main track at the spring meeting, Sabatini resurfaced to take a Churchill allowance at this distance July 14, but is coming into this off a 12th in the GI Test S. at Saratoga Aug. 5. She has worked four times since that effort, including back-to-back bullets over the local strip Oct. 4 and Oct. 13.

Morner took the Aug. 12 Smart Deb S. at Arlington and posted a respectable runner-up effort behind Malibu Mint in the Weekend Delight S. over the Turfway Polytrack Sept. 23. Windy, a half-sister to the talented Summer Wind Dancer, defeated state-bred allowance horses at Del Mar Aug. 12 and stepped up to easily defeat open company at the Seaside Sept. 3. The bay looms large in her stakes bow with Rafael Bejarano in the irons.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

THE TIN MAN TO PASS ON THE TURF

Trainer Richard Mandella said yesterday that GI Arlington Million hero The Tin Man (Affirmed) would not be entered for the GI John Deere Breeders' Cup Turf. "He just isn't training back up to his best form and I'm not going to bring him there if he's not," Mandella told Blood-Horse. "Right now, I'm deciding whether I'll go ahead and give him a couple of months rest or just take some more time with him between races. But, with the Breeders' Cup coming up, I don't have time to have him back where I should in order to go." The eight-year-old gelding, who would have been making a third appearance in the Turf, was most recently the head winner of the GI Clement L. Hirsch Turf Championship at Santa Anita Sept. 30, his fourth win from five starts this season. His other appearance resulted in a runner-up effort to David Junior in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. at Nad al Sheba Mar. 25.

STREET SENSE SHARP IN JUVENILE PREP

James Tafel's Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) worked a solid half-mile yesterday morning in :49.60 over the muddy Churchill surface, the swiftest of 20 moves to work at the distance. "He did what we wanted," trainer Carl Nafzger said of the colt, most recently a good third in the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity Oct. 7. "He's done everything we've ever wanted him to do. He's taken us to every race. We haven't really pushed him. So we're letting him take us where he's going." Never off the board in his four career starts, Street Sense preceded his Keeneland effort with a third in the GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Futurity Sept. 10.

BEL AIR BEAUTY PREPS FOR JUVENILE FILLIES

Bruce Lunsford's Bel Air Beauty (Smart Strike), the 47-1 winner in her most recent appearance of the GII Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland, turned in her first serious move since that

Oct. 6 event yesterday, breezing five furlongs over a muddy Churchill Downs main track in 1:02.60. Donna Barton Brothers, wife of trainer Frank Brothers, was aboard for the work. "She's doing well so far," the conditioner commented. "We'll probably breeze her back one more time next week. We'll pre-enter [Oct. 23] and hope we draw in [to the 14-horse field]." Brothers is winless from his three Breeders' Cup starters, but did saddle First Samurai, owned in partnership by Lunsford, to a third-place finish in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

DOUBT HANGS OVER TROPHY CARD

Today's meeting at Newbury, which features the G1 Racing Post Trophy, is the subject of a morning inspection due to waterlogging. Heavy rainfall caused the abandonment of yesterday's card and Clerk of the Course Richard Osgood will look at the track at 7:30 a.m. "It has improved and the overnight forecast is favourable, but we will just have to see how it goes," he told PA Sport yesterday. "Most of the water has cleared off the course now, but there are a few soft patches, and we just need to keep an eye on them."

SHARP HUMOR RETURNS AT BELMONT Sharp

Humor (Distorted Humor), who underwent surgery to remove a chip from his left knee after a 19th-place finish in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby, makes his return in the $125,000 Hudson H. at Belmont Park this afternoon. The three-year-old faces six fellow New York-breds in the six-furlong test. Three-for-three at Belmont, the bay won a pair of state-bred stakes last fall, then shipped South and made it three in a row in the Mar. 4 GI Swale S. at Gulfstream. He stretched out to a route for the first time for the Apr. 1 GI Florida Derby and led nearly every step before yielding grudgingly to finish a half-length behind Barbaro in second. He beat just one home at Churchill Downs, but has been working steadily for his comeback attempt. "He's come along pretty quick," trainer Dale Romans told Daily Racing Form. "I think he's plenty fit. I think he's sharp and ready to go." Sharp Humor breaks from post 3 under jockey Edgar Prado. Returning to the main track when this race was rained off the turf, the bay made his move from off the pace to join the leaders at the eighth pole and outfinished Forward Move (Ire) (Dr Fong) for a head tally as the 3-2 chalk. The chestnut colt had hit the board in every other start this term, returning from a five-month break to be second by a nose in his turf debut at Arlington Aug. 23 and, after a seventh-place showing in the Sept. 9 John Henry S., finishing third in an allowance on Hawthorne's lawn Oct. 6. Trying his luck on a new strip here, he got into a bumping match at the break and was eighth in the early going. The Grother homebred swept six wide into the lane and finished full of run to win by 1 1/2 lengths over Funky Pirate (Montbrook). Lifetime Record: 10-2-2-1, $62,704. O/B-Martin Grother (KY). Accountforthegold had not visited the winner's circle since wiring the field in the New York Derby at Finger Lakes in July of 2005. The bay was off the board in his last three starts of the season and disappeared for nearly nine months. Off at 35-1 in his Aug. 25 return, an optional claimer at Saratoga, he ran into a tough one in Discreet Cat, and had to settle for a distant second. The New York-bred was runner-up again in an optional test at Belmont Sept. 29 and was only the third choice of the crowd here. Accountforthegold was sent right to the front and had the field on his heels early, but powered clear down the lane to an impressive success.

On the main track again here, the bay launched a bid from the inside at the top of the lane, but had to change course when caught in traffic. The 5-2 second choice found running room on the outside and got up in time to post a half-length score over pacesetter Glitterboy (Glitterman). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $32,160. Finding himself on a sloppy strip when this race was moved off the lawn, the 7-1 shot settled off the pace down the backstretch, moved closer on the far turn and fought his way past front-running 4-5 chalk Pulpit (Pulpit) to take it by a neck. The pair was 17 1/2 lengths clear of the field. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $26,620.

Coming under pressure to stay in contention with three furlongs remaining, the 6-1 chance found an extra gear once into the short straight and easily disposed of Mystic Dancer (GB) (Machiavellian) by 2 1/2 lengths. Smokejumper was led out unsold at last year's BBAG Autumn Sale at €20,000, but his appearance in the ring allowed him to qualify for this valuable pot. The bay progressed from a pair of maiden defeats at Cologne to light up the boards with a shock first win here. Chasing the leaders in fourth from the bell, he was pushed along to challenge inside the final quarter mile and kept on strongly nearing the line to comfortably hold the rally of crowd selection Simon Magus.

SHOLOKHOV COLT TOPS MIDDLE AUTUMN SESSION

Manfred Hofer purchased the session topper during the second day of trading at the Baden-Baden Sales Company's Autumn Mixed Sale, paying €58,000 for a colt from the first crop of Sholokhov (Ire) yesterday. Hip 340, from the draft of Gestut Etzean, is a half to a listed performer from the family of Platini (Ger). Hofer had earlier paid €49,000 for Albert Steigenberger's hip 332, a yearling colt by Dashing Blade (GB) out of a stakes winner. Irish-based Cleaboy Stud paid €46,000 to secure Violante (Ger) (Lagunas {GB}), the top-priced broodmare of the sale. From the family of Windwurf (Ger), the 11-year-old mare was consigned by Christiane Otto as hip 372. She is carrying a half (by Tertullian) to this year's G3 Furstenberg-Rennen scorer Waleria (Ger). In total over the first two days of the sale, 260 of the 397 lots offered brought the gross to €2,365,000, the average to €9,096 and the median to €8,940. Bidding for the final session starts today at 6 p.m. after racing. Full results can be found on www.bbagg-sales.de.
