Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's green silks have sprung to prominence this term thanks to Araafa (Ire) and Hamood, and they came to the fore again yesterday when Authorized (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) caused a 25-1 upset in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Newbury. Despite having only a third-place effort in a Sept. 15 course-and-distance conditions event to recommend him, the colt was pitched in at the deep end by Peter Chapple-Hyam, but never gave connections a doubt. Arriving with menace from the rear as the heat was turned up, he outfinished Charlie Farnsbarns (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) for a 1 1/4-length score. "I always thought he was a serious horse and he's just improved and improved all the time," his trainer commented. Cont. p2

STORM IN WOODBINE FORECAST

He had to settle for second behind Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) in last year's GI Canadian International S. at Woodbine, but GISW Meteor Storm (GB) (Bigstone {Ire}) is out for revenge this afternoon. The seven-year-old was expected to retire after winning the GII W.L. McKnight H. last December, but, unable to secure a satisfactory stud deal, his connections opted to keep him in training. He underwent surgery to remove a chip from his ankle and missed the first nine months of 2006, but made it back to the starting gate for the Sept. 30 GII Kelso BC H. going a mile at Belmont and rallied to be fourth at a distance well short of his best. Will he be fit to go 12 furlongs today? "Obviously, that's a question that will be answered on Sunday, but this is what he wants to do," said trainer Wally Dollase's daughter and assistant, Aimee. "He had a great work last week on the Polytrack [going six furlongs in 1:12 4/5 at Keeneland Oct. 15]. It looked like he wasn't even blowing when he came back, so we were kind of surprised. We expect a big performance. Obviously it's a good field, but he acts like he's real happy. That's all that counts." Cont. p7

Authorized arrived on the front end looking the certain winner in his debut, but was run out of the exacta late on and was let go at long odds with this ambitious climb in class. Settled in last early, he was moved to the stands' side for his run and was last off the bridle approaching the quarter pole. The bay soon quickened past Charlie Farnsbarns, and it was a case of hands and heels to the line. "I tried to put the owners off, as I didn't think he was mentally ready to tackle this kind of race," jockey Frankie Dettori admitted, adding, "We knew he had talent...the race went smoothly and he won like a good horse. He's a true professional and he's proved Peter right today." Looking ahead, Chapple-Hyam said, "Hopefully, he'll end up at Epsom, but I won't be in too much of a rush and I suppose it will be the G2 Dante S. [at York] and then the Derby." Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), the 8-11 favorite, labored in mid-division before staying on into a never-threatening fourth. Trainer David Hayes, dominant since returning from Hong Kong last season, is now poised to capture a second G1 Melbourne Cup with the powerful Tawqeet. The dark chestnut unleashed a barnstorming sprint in the last half-furlong to post this impressive win. Third in the 2005 G1 St Leger for trainer John Dunlop, he was sent to Hayes to target this year's Melbourne Cup and kicked off his Australian campaign with a third in a Group 3 event in May. Off the board in three subsequent starts, he stepped up to 2400 meters to win the G1 Metropolitan H. at Randwick Oct. 7 and made it two in a row in the Caulfield Cup. Jockey Dwayne Dunn parked the colt in ninth behind a solid early tempo and was briefly caught behind horses, but wheeled his mount into the clear in the straight and was rewarded with a rallying score. "His biggest asset is he just idles in the run and I can park him wherever I like and then he has a great turn of foot," Dunn said. "I am looking forward to two miles [of the Nov. 7 Melbourne Cup]." Leah's Secret won three of her first four starts this year, following up on a maiden win at Keeneland in April with a third in Churchill allowance company May 19. The dark bay came back to romp by 6 1/2 lengths in her second allowance try June 8 and added a victory in the Lazer Show S. July 4, but stumbled badly at the break in an optional claimer at Arlington Aug. 3 and trailed throughout.

Coming off a fifth-place finish behind Malibu Mint in the Sept. 23 Weekend Delight S., she was let go at double-digit odds. Never far from the front, Leah's Secret drove to the front at the eighth pole and was all out to hold off Vestrey Lady to the wire. The winner of the Mar. 18 GIII Cicada S. at Aqueduct in just her second career start, Wild Gams suffered her first loss in her next start, finishing a distant fourth in the June 9 Queen of Song S. at Belmont. She rebounded from that performance to finish a neck behind Wildcat Bettie B when second in the July 9 GI Prioress BC S., but failed to fire again in the GI Test S. and ended up ninth. Given a confidence booster in her most recent appearance, the bay responded with a neck score against fellow Jersey-breds in the Sept. 16 Eleven North S. at Monmouth and was the third choice taking on the Prioress victress, and even-money chalk, again here. Wild Gams was just a head behind the crowd's choice while rating off the pace early and edged past her as they dashed through a half in :45.68. She kept on motoring, to get to the front inside the eighth pole and had enough left in the tank to stave off the late charge of Wildcat Bettie B for her second graded success. Speedster Symphony Sid, winless since taking a Bay Meadows allowance in April of 2005, was dropped in for a $50,000 tag at Del Mar July 19 and was claimed after finishing fifth. His new connections ran him back in the Aug. 27 GII Del Mar H. going 11 furlongs and he was fifth again after pressing the pace. Trying his luck in a nine-panel optional claimer on this course Sept. 27, the chestnut had nine on the field early, but was caught in the final yards and ended up second. Jockey Michael Baze decided to let the six-year-old open up a bigger lead this time and the strategy paid off. In front by 10 after a mile in 1:34.89, Symphony Sid was put to a drive as they turned for home and maintained a daylight advantage all the way to the wire. Odds-on Artiste Royal chased from second throughout, but couldn't close in the final quarter. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Dijeerr followed a second at Ascot on debut July 29 with a maiden score at Leicester Sept. 5 and found only Thousand Words (GB) too strong when 2 1/2 lengths second to that rival 24 days later in the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket. Racing prominently throughout the early stages here, he moved to the front at the quarter pole before being tackled and passed by Mythical Kid. That duo pulled clear, but Dijeerr found extra to grind his way back to the front in the final strides and win the bobber. "This fellow always had a little bit left in the tank and when the other horse came and headed me, he found a bit more and started fighting back," rider Philip Robinson commented. "When it gets testing like this, it always helps when you've got a horse that wants to fight." The winner is a full sibling to the $9.2 million yearling colt sold by Monticule to John Ferguson at the Keeneland September sale. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Short Skirt bested Alexandrova (Ire) in the soft in the G3 Musidora S. at York May 17, but found that rival too hot to handle when third on a livelier surface next time in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 2. Runner-up again behind the Ballydoyle sensation in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 23, she failed to land a blow on a quick surface when sixth in the G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp Sept. 30. Back on her preferred deep ground here, she was reserved in the rear off solid early fractions set by the veteran Orcadian before being asked to close into the straight. Responding to every call, she wore down the long-time leader passing the eighth pole before asserting in the tiring final yards. "They went pretty quick and it turned into a real stamina test," jockey Ryan Moore said. "I though we were going to struggle four [furlongs] out, but nothing stayed from the two-furlong pole and she kept trying and going for me." Connections announced that Short Skirt is likely to keep her engagement at the December Sales at Tattersalls. Click for the Racing Post chart.

*Race automatically lost its Grade III status when it was taken off the turf. The American Graded Stakes Committee will determine if the race's graded status will be reinstated.

No Sleep was entered for main track only, and reaped the rewards when this race was moved to the dirt. Five-for-eight this term, the gray filly took three in a row over Aqueduct's inner track this winter, then was third in both the Mar. 26 GIII Next Move H. at the Big A and May 11 Mil Kilates S. at Belmont. A 7 1/2-length winner over Sis City in the May 29 Fort Monmouth S. on the Jersey Shore, she injured a tendon after capturing her second in a row in the July 1 Iowa Distaff BC S. No Sleep was subsequently sold to Glencrest Farm as a broodmare prospect, but was put back into training when it turned out the injury was less severe than first thought. The four-year-old was making her first start under new colors here. The even-money chalk off the short layoff, she went right to the front, set an even pace and edged clear in the final furlong for her sixth victory of the season. "She gets into a pretty good groove," said jockey Mike Luzzi. "She has a notch every time you need her. I had to use her a little to get to the lead....after that, she just clipped along."

Looking to become the ninth distaffer to take this prize, Kastoria will try to add her name to a list that includes such stars as Drumtop, Dahlia and All Along (Fr). The five-year-old, first or second in 10 of 11 career starts, has beaten the boys in four of five outings this term, most recently posting a half-length score in the Sept. 16 G1 Irish St. Leger. "She's in great form," said Jimmy O'Neill, assistant to trainer John Oxx. "She's picking herself up every day, every day she's getting a little bit brighter. We're hoping for a big run." Local hopeful Sky Conqueror goes after his fourth straight. The four-year-old took the GII Northern Dancer S. over course and trip in July, then got the rest of the summer off, returning to capture a Woodbine allowance at a mile Oct. 8. "He just seems to rise to the occasion and does whatever is necessary to get the job done," trainer Darwin Banach said. "He wants to win." Go Deputy is the morning-line chalk after posting wins in the July 15 GII Bowling Green H. and Aug. 12 GI Sword Dancer Invitational S., and running second in his latest, the Sept. 9 GI Man o'War S.

Arravale has been beaten just once on the Woodbine lawn. The three-year-old filly opened 2006 with a victory in the June 11 Alywow S., then shipped to Hollywood and was third in the 10-furlong GI American Oaks. She returned to the West Coast and captured the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 19, and just missed in her latest, finishing a half-length behind Ready's Gal when second in the Sept. 17 GII Canadian S. "If we're going to get beat, it will be by a faster horse, not because we aren't ready," said trainer MacDonald Benson. "I wasn't as hard on her between races last time, but she's definitely better prepared for this race." Ready's Gal, five-for-10 on the grass, stretches out past a mile and an eighth for the first time. Red Bloom rates top morning-line status off a win in the Sept. 19 G2 Blandford S. over this trip at The Curragh. The five-year-old makes her North American bow. "She's doing very well; she loves it here," Sarah Watling, the bay's groom and exercise rider, told Daily Racing Form.

Sergeant Cecil has become one of Britain's darlings, as his late-closing style has captured the imagination and the Aug. 22 G2 Lonsdale Cup, Sept. 8 G2 Doncaster Cup at York and when cutting down Shamdala last time in the G1 Prix du Cadran here on Arc day Oct. 1. His acceleration will stand him in fine stead here, but only 2003 and 2004 hero Westerner (GB) has completed the Cadran-Royal Oak double in the same season in recent times. "It does look a very good race, but obviously he's got a great chance if everything goes right and I'm as happy with him now as I have ever been," trainer Rod Millman told PA Sport. "We've done exactly the same as we did before the Cadran and we're very happy with him." Conditioner Alain de Royer-Dupre lets His Highness the Aga Khan's Shamdala have another tilt at Sergeant Cecil here. She reserves her best for this venue. The filly had subsequent G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Montare back in second when taking the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier here May 21 before recording her first success at the highest level in the June 18 G1 Gran Premio di Milano. She is joined by stable companion Daramsar, who was supplemented following Sunday's success in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris. Lord du Sud has looked a stayer of substance this term and when it's soft, the grey gets going, as he proved when recording a five-length success in the G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville last time Aug. 20.

With a strong overseas challenge, this prize looks booked for export, as has been the case for the last nine renewals. Godolphin took this with Najah (Ire) in 2001 and with Dubai Surprise (Ire) 12 months ago and rely on Pictavia, who bids for a three-timer after wins in the Listed Upavon S. at Salisbury Aug. 16 and G3 Select S. at Goodwood Sept. 10. "Pictavia is fine and in good form," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "It's a tough race, but she has the class to run in these big races." Shoring up the British threat is this year's G1 1000 Guineas runner-up and G1 Prix de Diane winner Confidential Lady, sent over by Sir Mark Prescott off a respectable fifth in Newmarket's G1 Champion S. last Saturday. Time On and Acts of Grace, both representing the John Dunlop stable, could also factor. Time On took the G2 Prix de Malleret at Saint-Cloud June 25, but was off the board in both the Aug. 6 G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville and Sept. 10 G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp, while Acts of Grace is on the upgrade, having won the Listed Prix des Tourelles at Chantilly Aug. 31 and G3 Princess Royal S. at Ascot Sept. 22.

27-1 The odds on 1985 GI Canadian International hero Nassipour (Blushing Groom {Fr}), the longest-priced winner in the race's history.

Around the Cape captured the GIII Jaipur H. going six panels on the lawn in May, but was given a break after finishing sixth in the one-mile GIII Poker H. July 2. He returned to take an optional claimer on the Saratoga main track Aug. 23 and made it two in a row in the off-the-turf Lure S. at Belmont Sept. 17. First or second in six of his seven career starts, Fast Parade bids for his first graded success in his second grass start. The bay gelding capped a three-race winning streak with a score in the off-the-turf Baldwin S. at Santa Anita in March, then stretched out to two turns for his graded debut in the Apr. 22 GII Coolmore Lexington S. The Washington-bred pressed the early pace in that test, but tired to be seventh behind Showing Up and went to the shelf. Making his turf debut in his return, the Aug. 16 Green Flash H. at Del Mar, he showed an affinity for the surface with a 3 1/4-length tally, and has been working bullets at San Luis Rey for this. Terrific Challenge has won six of his 10 turf starts. Second by less than a length in an optional claimer at Belmont in June, where the final time was 1:07 flat for six furlongs on the grass, the chestnut has since reeled off three straight Monmouth stakes victories, cruising to a three-length tally in the Sept. 10 My Frenchman S. last time out.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

ZITO TRIO BREEZE IN THE BLUEGRASS

Trainer Nick Zito sent out three Breeders' Cup hopefuls to work yesterday morning at Churchill Downs and Keeneland. Tracy Farmer's Sun King (Charismatic), a hard-luck runner-up in the GI Met Mile and the GI Whitney H. this season, tuned up for the Classic, covering five furlongs in 1:01.60 under exercise rider Carlos Correa. He has just one victory to his credit this season, but Zito has no hesitation giving the four-year-old a shot in the $5-million centerpiece. "He belongs in the Classic, for sure," the conditioner offered. "He's one of the best horses [in the Classic division] this year." Sun King, ninth in last year's race, was most recently third in the GI Woodward S. Sept. 2. C P West (Came Home), who finished well to be second to King of the Roxy in the GII Futurity S. Sept. 23, also breezed five-eighths of a mile, getting the distance in 1:01. The Robert LaPenta runner seeks redemption in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Over the Keeneland Polytrack, Commentator (Distorted Humor) drilled a half-mile from the gate in a blistering :45.60 as he prepares for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. The five-year-old gelding, also owned by Tracy Farmer, was last seen finishing 10th in the GI Forego S. at Saratoga Sept. 2.

PERFECT DRIFT, SUAVE WORK

Preparing for an unprecedented fifth start in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, Stonecrest Farm's Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) worked five furlongs in 1:02.40 at Churchill's Trackside training center. "He finished up great in the last quarter, which is all we were looking for," said trainer Murray Johnson. Garrett Gomez, who won two Breeders' Cup events last year, has the call for the first time aboard Perfect Drift. Jay Em Ess Stable's Suave (A.P. Indy) is not yet a confirmed starter in the Classic, but trainer Paul McGee put the five-year-old through a one-mile work yesterday at Churchill Downs. The son of Urbane stopped the clock in a solid 1:39.20. "He's doing really good," the trainer said. "He galloped out strongly after the breeze, and [jockey] Calvin [Borel] said he's dead fit." A five-length winner in track-record time of the GII Washington Park H. at Arlington July 29, the bay was a disappointing 10th in the GI Woodward S. last time out. Should connections choose to pass the Classic, Suave could be pointed for the GI Clark H. Nov. 24.

HORSES FOR COURSE TO BE PRE-ENTERED

A pair of runners from the Dallas Stewart barn that have shown their affinity for Churchill will be pre-entered for Breeders' Cup races. Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid), upset winner of the GI Kentucky Oaks beneath the Twin Spires May 5, will get a shot at the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. The chestnut breezed four furlongs in about :50 yesterday, a move which did not make the official worktab. "She's doing super. She loves this track," said Stewart, a part-owner of the filly. "She gets over it beautiful and she's bouncing around there." The three-year-old is winless in four post-Oaks races, including a close fifth in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland Oct. 8. Stewart also plans on pre-entering Chrysalis Stable's Silverfoot (With Approval) for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Sixth to Shirocco (Ger) in last year's event, the gray is the three-time defending champion of the GIII Louisville H., an 11-furlong turf event contested during the Churchill spring meeting.

SUPER FROLIC A MILE POSSIBILITY

Millennium Farms' Super Frolic (Pine Bluff), a good fourth to Saint Liam in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic, could have a different target this year, according to trainer Vladimir Cerin. "We might run in the Mile," he said, adding that he plans to work the six-year-old on the grass today. "There are a lot of factors involved. It give us more options." The chestnut has yet to visit the winner's circle in 2006 and was most recently fifth in the GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. at Oak Tree Oct. 7. From six starts on the turf, Super Frolic has a single third-place finish to his credit.

 NORTH AMERICA

A.P. WARRIOR RETIRED TO STONEWALL Stan Fulton's A.P. Warrior (A.P. Indy--Warrior Queen, by Quiet American), a graded-stakes winner on turf and dirt in 2006, has been retired and will enter stud in 2007 at Audrey Haisfield's Stonewall Farm. No stud fee has been announced. The deal was consummated on Friday when Stonewall's Bert Welker flew to Santa Anita to inspect the colt. "He's an awesome physical specimen," Welker commented. "He's a direct descendant of Storm Bird out of a stakes-winning Quiet American mare. He's very appealing." Bred in Kentucky by Jim Fleming, the dark bay was sold for $1.3 million at the Keeneland September sale and went on to finish second to Brother Derek in the GII Norfolk S. Switched to the barn of John Shirreffs this past winter, A.P. Warrior defeated Point Determined and Bob and John in the GII San Felipe S. and was third in the GI Santa Anita Derby before finishing unplaced in the GI Kentucky Derby. Runner-up in the GIII Affirmed H. and third in the GII Swaps BC S., he switched to the turf and took the GII La Jolla H. Aug. 12. In what would be his final appearance, A.P. Warrior was third in the GII Oak Tree Derby Oct. 14. "He's got a Grade I pedigree and he's a very correct, physically imposing horse and that's what the market wants," Welker added. "It's hard to buy into a family like this and we're just pleased to have him." A.P. Warrior retires with four wins and five placings from 13 starts and earnings of $548,595.

For a horse that cost just $2,700 as a yearling, Certifiably Crazy has done all right for himself. The six-year-old gelding notched back-to-back wins in the July 16 Draw Shot S. on the Belmont sod and in the Aug. 13 West Point H. at Saratoga. The veteran had to settle for second in Belmont's Ashley T. Cole H. Sept. 17, but was right back in the winner's circle after this one. The crowd's pick sat in second as Retribution (Rob 'n was the slight second choice returning to restricted company. The dark bay gelding was content to track as Sharp Humor fought it out on the front end, then rallied down the center of the track to win going away as Sharp Humor persevered gamely. "That was a big win for this horse," said winning trainer Tom Bush. "It looked like he broke a little bit flat-footed, it seemed to work out okay though. Beaten a neck by Sabellina in the June 18 Mt. Vernon H. over course and distance, Finlandia finished third as the favorite in the July 15 Irish Actress S. The dark bay finished strongly to hand Sabellina a one-length defeat in the Yaddo H. over the Saratoga turf course Aug. 19 and was coming into this off a narrow defeat in an open second-level allowance going 8 1/2 grassy panels at this track Sept. 21. Settled in third as Sabellina was allowed an easy and long lead, Finlandia began cutting into her advantage on the far turn, had dead aim on the pacesetter leaving the eighth pole and was just up. "Kent [Desormeaux, jockey] said she absolutely laid it down for him," said trainer Tom Bush, winning his second race on the program. "She gave everything she had. That was a very solid performance."

25. Her next race was washed off the sod and she responded with a dominating 11 3/4-length victory going a mile in the Belmont slop Sept. 15. Outrun up the backstretch, Grand Merger rallied under a spirited Kent Desormeaux drive and was up in time.

"She's bred to run long," said winning trainer John Kimmel. "We didn't even bother with her in any sprints. She's not a real big, robust filly; she's little on the light side, so we spaced her races. She's got tremendous stamina. Kent played it off the break and gave her a chance to settle, and she ran them down. I guess there is no doubt that she can go a mile and an eighth. Second by a head when adding blinkers in a $50,000 maiden claimer for statebreds at Saratoga Aug. 23, Chief's Lake graduated in his next outing, a Belmont maiden special weight Sept. 23. He romped by 7 3/4 lengths in a NW1X for Empire-breds Oct. 13 and was 3-5 to extend his streak to three here. Usually vying for the lead, Chief's Lake took back a bit yesterday and conceded the front to Solid Strike. He ranged up to take control in upper stretch and cruised home a much-the-best winner. "I didn't think Solid Strike would be on the lead, but as it turned out, it worked perfectly for us," said Toby Sheets, assistant to winning trainer Scott Blasi. Power of Freedom was beaten 4 3/4 lengths when he finished runner-up in a Monmouth Park maiden Aug. 9, then did one better in his next trip to the post, taking a 5 1/2-furlong test in the slop Sept. 23. The dark bay was sent off the odds-on pick as he looked to become the first stakes winner for GI Preakness S. hero Red Bullet (Unbridled) in a field reduced to three runners by a trio of scratches. Power of Freedom, with Rajiv Maragh aboard, allowed Elusive Fox a bit of slack up the backstretch, but wrested control nearing the quarter pole and set sail to win by open lengths.

NASTY EXCHANGE (f, 3, Exchange Rate--Blueberry Paige, by Maria's Mon) won by 2 1/4 lengths in 1:09 4/5 on debut at The Meadowlands Sept. 29 and quickly made it two straight. The Jersey-bred, the 5-2 co-second choice, came calling two furlongs out and lengthened away to defeat Morgan's Wish (Private Interview) by 2 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $52,500.
 O/B-Anna Mortellite (NJ). T-Scott A Lake.

7th-CRC, $23,500, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:13, ft.

OUR FRIEND HARVEY (c, 2, Put It Back--Very Laughable, by Out of Place), an even third in his Sept. 24 debut over track and trip, was sent off the 2-1 favorite to register to requisite improvement. Quickest into stride, the Foggie homebred surrendered the lead momentarily on the turn, regained the advantage at the head of the lane and sprinted home 4 3/4 lengths to the good of Saint Paul (Sweetsouthernstaint). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $17,800.

The smartly bred Catch the Thrill ran second in a Woodbine turf maiden July 30 before earning her diploma against allowance foes going seven panels on the sod Aug. 20. Well-beaten in the Gill Natalma S. Sept. 10, the daughter of Canadian champion Catch the Ring was trying the Polytrack for the first time here at 5-1. Allowed to settle into stride in a mid-pack position, she parlayed an eye-catching move on the turn into a 2 1/4-length stakes win.

Brass Hat Getting Light Exercise:

Fred Bradley's Brass Hat (Prized), who suffered a fractured right front sesamoid in a July workout, has begun light exercise and a return to the races is within the realm of possibility, says trainer William 'Buff' Bradley. "He's now walking on the walker," the conditioner said. "He's doing good. We'll turn him out about another four months and make sure that everything is going good. But it's exciting to think that he might be able to come back." The homebred won the GI Donn H. last February and shipped to the Middle East, where he finished second in the G1 Dubai World Cup. That result is now under dispute due to a drug positive. The gelding was last seen finishing fifth in the GI Stephen Foster H. in June. Brass Hat has six career wins from 15 starts and current earnings of $1,233,473.

*Private Fight finished second, but was DQ'd to fourth.

Mr. Pursuit annexed a money allowance over this course Sept. 29 and was taking the step up in class in search of his first stakes win. Off at 8-1, the bay colt was settled into a tracking position up the backstretch. He bid three wide entering the lane, overhauled the 43-1 longshot Private Fight (Open Forum) and asserted to finish 3/4 lengths in front of that foe, who drifted out in the final stages and impeded some rivals. Stewards demoted Private Fight from second to fourth.

Party met the smart Vital Statistics (GB) and Cumin when placed in maidens at this track July 21 and Goodwood Aug. 3 before finishing runner-up at Nottingham Sept. 26. Finally breaking her maiden over six furlongs back here last time Oct. 11, she proved this extra panel was within range with a game display. Always niggled behind the early leaders, she responded to Ryan Moore's urgings to roll to the front passing the quarter pole before holding the persistent challenge of Easy to Love and the staying-on Hollow Ridge. "This filly was called some names at the beginning of her career, but she showed today how gutsy she is," her rider said. "She was struggling early on in the ground, but she battled all the way to the line and saw it out really well."
