KING OF THE HILL

At the age of eight, the peripatetic Collier Hill (GB) (Dr Devious {Ire}) still has a few tricks up his sleeve. Sent off a 10-1 longshot making his North American debut in yesterday's GI Canadian International S. at Woodbine, the cagey veteran got the jump on the field as they wheeled off the turn and was all heart denying Go Deputy (Deputy Minister) by a nose at the wire. "I did [think Go Deputy was going to go by me]," said winning jockey Dean McKeown. "But this horse is such a battler. He's been all over the world. We've been to Dubai, Germany, Sweden and he's won everywhere. As an eight-year-old, he's just an incredible horse, a very, very, talented horse that just doesn't get the recognition he deserves." International cont. p2

ARRAVALLE TAKES E.P. TAYLOR

Robert J. Costigan's Arravale (Arch) lost her unbeaten record over Woodbine's lawn when second as the odds-on pick in the Sept. 17 GII Canadian S., but renewed her love affair with the surface with a convincing win facing older fillies in the GI E.P. Taylor S. "She was so relaxed and I had so much horse," said winning jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. "I know how long the stretch is here. I was never worried. Nine out of 10 times the hole is going to open up and that's exactly what it did." Taylor cont. p2

MONTARE IN A ROYAL PERFORMANCE

George Strawbridge's ultra-game Montare (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) had missed the frame just once in 16 starts prior to yesterday's G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp, but hadn't managed to secure that elusive Group 1 victory. It took the four-year-old filly 3:20 1/5 to change that, with the Irish-bred miss holding off Bellamy Cay (GB) (Kris {GB}) by a short neck in the 1 15/16-mile event. Prix Royal-Oak cont. p3

ON PARADE

Washington-bred Fast Parade (Delineator) belied his $4,500 yearling price tag and earned his first graded victory in Sunday's GII Nearctic S. at Woodbine. The three-year-old gelding, coming off a win in the Aug. 16 Green Flash S. at Del Mar, is now perfect in two starts on the turf. Nearctic cont. p4

World Traveler Makes Good...

Collier Hill's passport has taken a beating this year. The winner of last year's G1 Irish St Leger began 2006 in Dubai, where he ran sixth in the G3 Dubai City of Gold before a good third in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 25. The chestnut hit the board in three of his next four in stakes races in Britain, Ireland and Germany, and most recently was a convincing nine-length winner of Sweden's G3 Stockholm Cup International Sept. 10. Double-digit odds after the cross-Atlantic flight, he rated in second as Last Answer (Langfuhr) opened a clear lead. Launching his bid at the quarter pole, he was quickly on top and responded to the challenge when Go Deputy ran on from fifth. The 2-1 favorite Kastoria (Ire) (Selkirk), bidding to become only the sixth female to win the International, never threatened over the soft ground and finished eighth. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Arravale began her career at Woodbine last year, knocking off her maiden on the grass in mid-August before taking the GIII Natalma S. in her next start. Shelved off an up-the-track performance in a dirt stakes in October, she returned at three to win the Alywow S. before taking the show on the road. A good third to Wait a While in the GI American Oaks in July, she captured her first Grade I in the Aug. 19 Del Mar Oaks before returning to disappoint as the 4-5 choice with a runner-up effort in the GII Canadian S. in her latest. Content to track the leaders in mid-pack here, she awaited room in the stretch, dived to the inside a furlong out and kicked away with a determined run. MacDonald Benson, the winning trainer, admitted afterwards that he was concerned about the rain-softened turf course. "We don't have a chance in this country to run on soft going and the Europeans, I thought, had a little bit of an edge on us," he said. "She is a really, really good horse." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Montare, who captured the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris here 12 months ago, spent much of this year as the bridesmaid after a return fifth in the Apr. 30 G1 Prix Ganay. Her three seconds at this track came in the May 21 G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier, July 14 G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil and Sept. 10 G1 Prix Vermeille and she was at the bottom of the exacta at Deauville in the Aug. 6 G2 Prix de Pomone. She turned her fortunes around with her customary late rattle to win the G2 Prix de Royallieu back at this venue last time Sept. 30 and completed the transformation from bridesmaid to bride with the same commanding rush here. Held up in mid-division early by Olivier Peslier, she was forced to check as Bellamy Cay jinked left, but her momentum was not disturbed and she picked up to roll by that rival in the final 100 yards. "This was the plan after the Royallieu and it is rewarding to see her win a Group 1," said trainer Jonathan Pease. "I don't know yet if she stays in training, but if she does she is probably through for the season. If she is to retired, she might have another run and it may be in the G1 Japan Cup [at Tokyo Nov. 26] or in Hong Kong." Floriot took the Listed Premio Giuseppe Valiani over course and distance in November before returning to record a conditions score at the San Siro May 24. Runner-up in the June 4 G3 Premio Paolo Mezzanotte and successful in the July 9 Listed Premio Baggio on her next two outings there, she collected the Listed Premio Merano Aug. 15 en route to finishing second in the Listed Grosser Bavaria-Preis at Munich last time Sept. 9. Settled in rear early by regular rider Karoly Kerekes, she had all rivals in front at the top of the stretch, but her jockey knew what he had underneath him and bided his time. Asked to quicken passing the three-furlong marker, Floriot responded emphatically to swamp Confidential Lady with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before asserting for a comfortable success.

Fast Parade could have been picked up for $25,000 in a Pleasanton maiden claimer he won last July, but won't be in for a tag again anytime soon if yesterday's performance is anything to go by. The bay went on to win a pair of minor stakes as a juvenile and began 2006 with a tally in the off-the-turf Baldwin S. at Santa Anita Mar. 4. Seventh to Showing Up when trying two turns in the GII Lexington S. in his next in April, he was off for four months before taking Del Mar's Green Flash S., his turf debut. The 2-1 chalk to stay unbeaten on the green, he kept a wary eye on the leaders in third, burst clear at the top of the lane and held well under jockey Pat Valenzuela. "He's a very versatile horse," said the rider. "He can go to the front, he can come from off the pace. [Trainer] Peter [Miller] had him plenty ready, and I was just lucky to be the pilot." Miller said the big question was how his horse would take to the water-logged course. "I was a little bit concerned about the turf and whether he would be able to handle the soft turf, but he handled it beautifully," said the trainer, who is based at San Luis Rey in California. Miller added, "He runs well fresh. We wanted to spot him appropriately and this race looked like a good spot." BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

FLOWER ALLEY WORKS; CLASSIC LIKELY
 Melnyk Racing Stable's Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) worked a bullet six furlongs at Churchill Downs yesterday and remains probable for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, a race in which he finished second last year. Eugene Melnyk was on hand to watch his colt, who got the distance in 1:13 2/5 under Chris DeCarlo. It was the fastest of five works on a day when the track was playing slow. "I thought he looked good," said Melnyk. "We want to see how he comes out [of it] and we want to see the rest of the times of the works today. We'll more than likely go." Pre-entries for the eight Breeders' Cup races are due today and will be announced Wednesday. "I want to go, but I want to make sure we've got a good shot to win," Melnyk added. "We've already sold him as a stallion [to Three Chimneys Farm], so we want to make sure that whatever we do betters him, rather than take a step back."

TATTS AUTUMN HORSES IN TRAINING BEGINS

A busy October at Tattersalls continues this week when the Autumn Horses In Training Sale begins this morning. The four-day event, with 1,470 lots catalogued, is the world's largest sale of its type and, despite the fact that many of the best lots catalogued have been withdrawn, there are still plenty of offerings to appeal to the international flat and domestic jumping markets. Three-year-old Golden Arrow (Ire) (Danehill) is offered from Dermot Weld's stable, having won a Cork conditions event easily on his last start. Offered as Lot 902, he previously finished fifth in the GII American Derby. Several high-profile members of Aidan O'Brien's draft, originally slated for sale, are among the absentees, but those that remain include Lot 920, Tusculum (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a Listed winner at The Curragh this year, who most recently finished fifth in the G1 St Leger at York. Six-year-old New Seeker (GB) (Green Desert), Lot 952, winner of a Listed event at Redcar last month also bears watching. Among the high-class handicappers on offer are Lot 792, Dansili Dancer (GB) (Dansili), a three-time winner this year for trainer Clive Cox; Lot 823, Momtic (Ire) (Shinko Forest {Ire}), a flagbearer for trainer William Jarvis; and Lot 613, Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Numeric (Ger) (Singspiel {Ire}).

Lot 983, Laddies Poker (Stravinsky), is still a maiden, but finished an eye-catching fifth in last month's Goffs Million, one place in front of subsequent Group 1 winner Finsceal Beo (Ire). "It's a good solid catalogue with plenty for both the overseas market and jumping buyers," said Tattersalls Marketing Director Jimmy George. "It's been another great year for graduates of the sale, with the likes of Les Arcs and Desert Lord (GB) winning three Group 1s between them, and Iktitaf (Ire) shaping like a live Champion Hurdle candidate." The sale runs today through Thursday, with sessions starting at 9:30 a.m. each day.

FASIG-TIPTON FALL YEARLINGS SALE

STARTS TODAY Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 1,080 hips for the three-day Kentucky Fall Yearlings Sale, which kicks off today in Lexington. Bidding begins daily at 10 a.m. EDT. The auction boasts recent graduates such as Italian champion and G1 Oaks d'Italia heroine Dionisia and Grade I winners Behaving Badly and Bushfire. Sires represented this year include Distorted Humor, El Prado (Ire), Elusive Quality, Forestry, Fusaichi Pegasus, Giant's Causeway, Gone West, Mr. Greeley, Officer, Storm Cat and Unbridled's Song. There are also yearlings from the first crops by Aldebaran, Empire Maker, Harlan's Holiday, Sky Mesa and Vindication. Highlights of the catalogue include hip 346, a half-brother to GISW and top sire Yes It's True consigned by Paramount Sales, agent, from the first crop by champion Vindication; Mill Ridge Sales offering hip 972, a half-brother to GII Arlington-Washington Futurity winner and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile candidate Got the Last Laugh, by Cherokee Run; hip 991, a half-brother to GI Mother Goose S., GI Acorn S. and GI Ashland S. heroine Bushfire consigned by Moreau Bloodstock International, agent, from the first crop by champion Macho Uno; and Paramount Sales's hip 1068, a half-sister to GII Adirondack BC S. winner and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies hopeful Octave and MGSW Belle Cherie. Expanded to three days last year, the Kentucky Fall Yearlings Sale saw 610 lots bring an aggregate of $11,099,100, posting an average of $18,195 and a median of $8,500. For the complete catalogue and outs, go to www.fasigtipton.com.

Margins: HF, HD, HD. Odds: 1.30, 79.20, 4.00.

Louve Royale, second or third in four graded events this term, was third in the June 17 Gill Mint Julep H., second in the July 22 Gill Modesty H. and third again in the Sept. 4 Gill Glen Falls H. The chestnut mare was sixth against the boys over this course and trip in the Oct. 6 Gill Sycamore Breeders' Cup S. last time out. Allowed to settle near the back of the pack while racing with earplugs, Louve Royale moved up five wide on the final turn, gained command with a furlong to run and held off longshot Bottiglia for the win. "When I took the earplugs out [at the quarter pole], she reacted very good," said winning rider Julien Leparoux. "Today, she won because she was the best." Explaining the unusual equipment, winning trainer Patrick Biancone said, "I don't think you really need the earplugs as much in the U.S. because most of the races are a sprint. But to run a mile and a half or a long-distance race, a filly like her has a tendency to take a long time to relax, and possibly be last with a lot of ground to make up. With the earplugs, she may be behind, but not so far. It worked very good." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Sixty Rocketts scored back-to-back allowance wins at the Meadowlands June 19 and at Saratoga July 28, but was never a factor when fifth in the Aug. 26 GII Ballston Spa H. She was outrun again in the Sept. 23 Omnibus S. at Monmouth, finishing eighth, but was well-backed to get back on track here. Content to sit off moderate fractions, the bay rallied down the lane, elbowing her way to the front of the pack as they hit the line for a narrow victory.

BUDDY GOT EVEN (c, 4, Stephen Got Even--Gem Trek, by Java Gold) returned after a 15-month absence to beat $50,000 maiden claimers at Keeneland 11 days ago. A 7-1 shot to make it two in a row off the layoff, he came from off a sharp pace to take over in deep stretch before pulling away to a 2 3/4-length tally. Blotto (Hennessy), making his first start since an 8 1/4-length maiden score at Keeneland in April of 2005, had the lead at midstretch, but weakened late to be second. The winner, a $60,000 FTKJUL yearling and a $450,000 FTFEB juvenile, is a 1/2 to Glittergem (Glitterman), GSP, $125,873. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $55,554.

Gin and Sin, winless since taking last year's Independence Day S. at Mountaineer, tired to fifth after setting the pace in the Sept. 4 Edward DeBartolo Memorial Breeders' Cup last time out. Allowed to settle off the pace early, the dark bay gelding rallied three wide on the turn, took over a furlong from home and pulled clear to the wire. Group 1 winner Caller One (Phone Trick) rushed out to the early lead despite rearing at the break. The nine-year-old veteran led by as many as five lengths, but tired to fifth.

Pickapocket, a maiden winner over the Saratoga lawn Aug. 19, was sixth in the With Anticipation S. at the Spa, but returned to the winner's circle with a one-length tally in the Oct. 6 World Appeal S. at the Meadowlands last time out. Never far back, the bay colt rallied three wide into the lane, opened up 4 1/2 lengths on the field and held on for his second straight stakes score. "He broke fine, sat in behind the speed and I just waited until I decided it was time to make a move," explained winning rider Eibar Coa. "He just took off when I asked him." As for what is next for Pickapocket, trainer Frank Alexander said, "The [Nov. 25] Laurel Futurity is in a month, but I don't know if I want to do that. I may just wait and run in the [Jan. 1 GIII] Tropical Park Derby." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Chestoria ran her turf record to two-for-two with this effort, but her victory was overshadowed by an incident involving Sharp Susan (Touch Gold). That filly's rein broke soon after the start and she ran off with jockey Mike Smith to lead by as many as 15 lengths down the backstretch. The dark bay tired herself out and drifted wide as they neared the far turn, allowing the field to pass her safely. But at midstretch, with the outcome of the race decided, Sharp Susan moved back towards the rail and jockey Richie Migliore, aboard A Wonder She Is (Three Wonders), maneuvered to her outside, then was able to pull her up. Winning trainer Bruce Levine admitted he was not focused on Chestoria. "I was more worried about Mike Smith," Levine said. His charge had faded badly to finish ninth on the dirt in her Sept. 17 debut at Belmont Park, but turned it around when trying the turf Oct. 6. The dark bay romped by nine lengths that afternoon and was the second choice trying stakes company in her third start. Rated off runaway pacesetter while saving ground down the backstretch, she edged closer on the far turn, changed lanes for the final drive and outfinished runner-up Mystic Soul to the wire. Jockeys Razo, Torres Injured:

Two leading riders at Hawthorne Park are expected to miss up to six weeks of action after being injured in separate accidents Saturday. Jockey Francisco Torres suffered a hairline fracture to his wrist after a horse he was riding flipped in the starting gate during training hours Saturday morning, according to his agent, Bobby Kelly. "He'll be in a cast for a few weeks," said Kelly. Later in the day, Eddie Razo, Jr. sustained a separated shoulder when his mount in the eighth race, sixth-place finisher The Toast Man, stumbled 100 yards past the wire, unseating Razo.

Dilemma was fifth behind King of the Roxy in his debut at Hollywood July 2 and second behind Stormello in his next outing July 29 before graduating with a 2 1/2-length score at Del Mar last time out Sept. 3. The chestnut colt saved ground while racing in mid-pack along the rail down the backstretch. He split horses in upper stretch, moved back to the rail and reeled in Caped for Flight to win going away. "He got a perfect trip and I left [strategy] up to [jockey] Alex [Solis]," said winning trainer Paddy Gallagher. "The race set up good for him and the inside opened up. We're hoping he'll go long. The lightly raced Selvatica has never been worse than second and collected her second straight stakes victory here. The five-year-old mare started just three times last year, winning a pair of Southern California allowance races for trainer John Sadler. Moved to the Jeff Mullins barn for 2006, Selvatica returned from an 11-month absence to annex the Bangles and Beads S. at Fairplex Sept. 25. Made the even-money choice to win her fourth straight race, she flaunted her speed through :21 2/5 and :43 3/5 splits and, despite the hot pace, drew off to win by three lengths. FALCON SCOTT (c, 3, Swain {Ire}--Set Them Free {MSW, $173,275}, by Stop the Music), a maiden winner in his first try on turf at Del Mar Aug. 5, was fifth in an Aug. 26 Del Mar optional claimer last time out. The 8-5 favorite chased the early fractions, waited for racing room at midstretch and exploding between foes, drawing clear to a 1 1/4-length triumph. Presidential Cause (Giant's Causeway) was second. The winner is a half brother to Kentucky Derby winner Giacomo (Holy Bull, GISW, $2,282,316) and to Sea Jewel (Sea Hero, MGSP, $196,825). ROCK OF GIBRALTAR TO JAPAN Horse of the Year Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) (Danehill-Offshore Boom {Ire}, by Be My Guest) will stand the 2007 breeding season in Japan, it was announced yesterday. "His sire Danehill went to Japan for the 1996 northern hemisphere season and we have come to an agreement with the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association, whereby they will have the use of Rock of Gibraltar for the 2007 season," said Coolmore Manager Christy Grassick. The winner of seven Group 1 races over two seasons, including the Grand Criterium and Dewhurst S., at two and the English and Irish 2000 Guineas the following year, the bay retired with 10 wins from 13 starts and earnings of $1,884,167. With 15 winners from his first crop of two-year-olds this season, the seven-year-old stallion has produced Eagle Mountain (GB), winner of the G2 Beresford S. and listed winner Roxan (Ire).
