LAVA MAN WORKS AT KEENELAND

Lava Man (Slew City Slew), perfect in seven attempts this season, including the Oct. 7 GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H., breezed six furlongs in 1:15 at Keeneland yesterday with exercise rider Tony Romero aboard. "We are very happy with that," trainer Doug O'Neill said of his GI Breeders' Cup Classic hopeful's workout. "[A time of] 1:14 and change or 1:15 is what we were looking for. That's the target we talked about. For me, that's a good middle ground between a fast three-quarters and a two-minute lick." O'Neill is very pleased with the Keeneland Polytrack. "He's really done well here," the conditioner added. "Again, to credit the track surface. A lot of tracks, when the weather is like this [rainy], you are forced to stop and start, and it throws them off routine. It really helps to be able to train on a daily basis and just keep a normal routine going."

BUSY MORNING AT KEENELAND FOR O'NEILL

Along with Classic hopeful Lava Man (Slew City Slew), trainer Doug O'Neill also sent out Great Hunter (Aptitude), Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band), Thor's Echo (Swiss Yodeler) and Areyoutalkintome (Smokester) for Keeneland workouts yesterday. GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity winner Great Hunter worked six furlongs in 1:14.20 in final preparation for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. "He went awesome," said O'Neill. "That's what we wanted. It is very professional for a two-year-old to work by himself like that." Gearing up for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, Sharp Lisa breezed six furlongs in 1:17, while Breeders' Cup Sprint entrant Thor's Echo worked six furlongs in 1:14. Sprint also-eligible Areyoutalkintome worked six furlongs in 1:16.20. "These horses just needed maintenance works," O'Neill continued. "We didn't need any 1:12s today. If you get a jittery exercise rider out there, you can get a 1:12. Nothing bothers [exercise rider] Tony [Romero], and he did his job."

NIGHTMARE AFFAIR POSTS BULLET

Timber Side Stable's Nightmare Affair (Out of Place), winner of the July 15 GII Smile Sprint H., posted a three-furlong bullet in :35 at Calder Friday in preparation of the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. Owners Ron Borgese and Gary Marano were on hand for the workout. "We're really happy with [the work]," Marano said. "He galloped out in :47 4/5. If you had a script, it couldn't have been any better. It was perfect." Nightmare Affair was last seen finishing sixth in Saratoga's GI Forego S. Sept. 2.

BORDONARO SETTLES IN AT CHURCHILL

Bordonaro (Memo {Chi}), a leading contender for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, galloped over a sloppy main track at Churchill Downs Friday. "He will work either Sunday or Monday and Chris [Aplin] will work him," trainer Bill Spawr said. "Everything is going well. He has been to the track the past three days, has settled in well and been eating up every day." Bordonaro stopped the clock at 1:07 4/5 in Santa Anita's GI Ancient Title Breeders' Cup S. Oct. 7.

DREAMING OF ANNA SITTING ON GO

Frank Calabrese's unbeaten Dreaming of Anna (Rahy) is scheduled for a final tune-up for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Churchill Sunday. "I've been with her morning, noon and night for three weeks and am extremely happy with the way she's doing," trainer Wayne Catalano said. "She's twice the filly she was a couple of months ago." Dreaming of Anna graduated over the Arlington main track May 19, then added stakes races on the lawn in her next two, beating the boys in Woodbine's GIII Summer S. last out Sept. 17. "If all goes according to plan, we'll work her 5/8th's at Churchill on the 29th," Catalano added. "There's a lot of rain in the area, so we'll have to be flexible."

"She lost a front shoe in her last race and that's what got her beat, because she was just galloping at the three-eighths pole," trainer Bob Barbara commented. "She did the same thing in the [GI] Prioress [Breeders' Cup S.] when [Richard] Migliore rode her. She's got a little foot issue." Swap Fliparoo came from last-to-first to notch Saratoga's GI Darley Test S. Aug. 5. The gray returned to finish fourth in the Floral Park, then fifth in the Gallant Bloom. The Hobeau Farm colorbearer is undefeated in two attempts over the Aqueduct main track and owns two wins at this distance.

This renewal lacks strength in depth, with the home team's best chances appearing to rest with the fillies Out Of Time and Iron Lips. While the former made her stakes debut a winning one in the G3 Prix de Cabourg at Deauville July 30, she was put in her place when only fourth behind Iron Lips in the G3 Prix Eclipse at Chantilly last time Sept. 29. That represented a step up for the latter, who had previously run second in the Listed Prix d'Arenberg at Chantilly Sept. 6. Heading the Brit invasion is Baby Strange, who gave the subsequent listed winner Hinton Admiral (GB) a six-length beating in the Listed Rockingham S. at York last time Oct. 7. Captain Marvelous followed a Newbury nursery success Sept. 16 with a third in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket 13 days later and has to prove that was no fluke.

HONOR IN WAR OUT OF COX PLATE

Honor in War (Lord At War {Arg}) has been withdrawn from today's G1 Cox Plate on the order of Racing Victoria stewards after testing positive for a banned substance that was reportedly administered in North America eight weeks ago. It was not immediately revealed what drug was found in the eight-year-old's system. Honor in War, last seen finishing fourth in the GIII Turfway Park Champion S. Sept. 9, has since changed ownership and was being prepared for the 2040-meter race by Melbourne-based trainer Danny O'Brien. Four time Group 1 winner Racing To Win (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) is now firm favorite for the showpiece race despite the fact he is untested beyond a mile and has no experience at counter-clockwise venues such as Melbourne. His jockey, Glen Boss, believes a tactical war will produce the winner, and is confident Racing To Win has the speed and versatility to triumph. "He's fast and he's tough," Boss said. "Look at his record, he's had 13 starts for nine wins and four seconds."

FILLY SOLD BEFORE FASIG-TIPTON SALE SHOULD HAVE BEEN SCRATCHED

by Ray Paulick Courtesy www.bloodhorse.com

The second-highest-priced horse sold at this week's Fasig-Tipton Kentucky fall yearling sale--a Chief Seattle filly purchased on Tuesday for $270,000 by bloodstock agent Buzz Chace--was bought privately for $29,000 by pinhooker John Brocklebank less than 24 hours earlier and should have been scratched, according to Fasig-Tipton officials. Brocklebank was also the underbidder on the filly. "Someone in the office made a mistake," Boyd Browning, Fasig-Tipton's chief operating officer, said Wednesday. "We don't allow pre-sale, private sales. We don't participate in that. Our policy in those cases would be to scratch the horse." The filly in question originally was consigned by Paul Sutton's Oakleigh Farm, agent for breeder Harvey Clarke. Clarke said he received a call Monday afternoon from an acquaintance, Glenn Brok, who works for Brook Ledge vanning company. Clarke said Brok told him he knew someone who was interested in buying the filly. "I told him, given the way that sale is going, I'm going to put a $19,000 reserve on her, and the guy can bid on her," said Clarke. "He called back and said the guy would like to buy her before the sale. I said in that case the price would be $29,000, and he agreed. I then told Paul [Sutton] to try and scratch her. I'm not sure if Fasig-Tipton wouldn't let him scratch or John Brocklebank wouldn't let him scratch." Brocklebank said Brok reported the transaction on his behalf to someone in the Fasig-Tipton office. "I said I'd prefer to scratch the filly," Brocklebank said, "but Fasig-Tipton said I'd have to bring her into the ring." Brocklebank told The Blood-Horse that this was the first time he'd purchased a horse privately on a sale company grounds. Chace, meanwhile, said he'd looked at the filly both at the barn and in the sale ring. "I had her vetted earlier," said Chace, who said he bought the filly on behalf of a New Jersey client who wished to go unnamed. "I had absolutely no knowledge of who the filly's owner was. I come to buy horses and I buy horses. That's all I'm interested in. I don't get into anyone else's business."

NEUROLOGIC STRAIN OF EHV-1 CONFIRMED AT MONMOUTH One of the four horses that tested positive for the respiratory strain of the equine herpes virus has also been confirmed positive for the neurologic strain of the disease, it was revealed Thursday night. "Although not harmful to humans, the neuropathogenic form of equine herpes is a very serious and often fatal disease for horses, so we must take these cases very seriously," said New Jersey Secretary of Agriculture Charles Kuperus. "We are in continual contact with personnel from the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority...and are working cooperatively with them to address this situation. While we understand this may be an inconvenience to the owners of these horses, we must take the necessary precautions to avoid the spread of the disease." The New Jersey Department of Agriculture has issued a quarantine on the horses currently stabled at Monmouth Park. The horses not housed in the barns affected by EHV-1 will continue to be allowed to travel to the Meadowlands to race, but cannot ship anywhere else. Despite the extensive number of scratches at the Meadowlands, the meet will continue as scheduled.

AUSSIE FIRM OUT OF NY FRANCHISE RACE
by Tom Precious, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

The state panel considering bids for a new Thoroughbred franchise in New York has eliminated one of the potential suitors. Capital Play, an Australian betting company, was disqualified by the Ad Hoc Committee on the Future of Racing Oct. 26 for failure to provide a litigation bond as requiring in the bidding package. Scott Reif, a spokesman for the panel, said the board unanimously voted to disqualify the firm, which was considered a longshot by most industry insiders. The decision leaves three groups vying to take over the franchise to operate Aqueduct, Belmont Park, and Saratoga: the New York Racing Association, which is trying to hang on to the franchise it has held since 1955; Empire Racing Associates, a consortium that includes New York horsemen, Magna Entertainment Corp. and Churchill Downs Inc.; and Excelsior Racing Associates, whose partners include New York Yankees executive Steve Swindal and casino developer Richard Fields. The panel is rushing to finish its work in the next several weeks.

It will make a non-binding recommendation to Gov. George Pataki and legislators; Pataki, however, is leaving office Dec. 31, and unless there is some sort of political deal that brings the legislature back into session to deal with the franchise and other matters, there is little chance a final franchise decision will come this year. The NYRA franchise expires Dec. 31, 2007.

SUNDAY BREAK TO WALMAC Graded-stakes winner Sunday Break (Jpn) (Forty Niner--Catequil, by Storm Cat), whose first foals are yearlings this year, will move to Walmac Farm LLC for the 2007 season. His stud fee will be $7,500, live foal, for the partnership of Dennis Narlinger, Becky Thomas and Bill Heiligbrodt. The seven-year-old previously stood at Gainesway. Winner of the GII Peter Pan S., the bay finished third in both the GI Belmont S. and GI Wood Memorial S. "Sunday Break will be a real asset to our stallion program," said Walmac's John T.L. Jones III. "We all know how good a sire of sires Forty Niner has been. Sunday Break showed a world of talent on the track and was well supported in the breeding shed."

ANOTHER CHANGE FOR HALL OF FAME

VOTING The voting procedure for electing new members to racing's Hall of Fame has been changed. At its last meeting, the Executive Committee of the Museum's Board of Trustees approved a plan to tighten the nomination process and return to a policy of inducting those nominees who receive the majority of votes. In 2005 and 2006, the procedure was changed, with voters given the option of including more than one nominee from each category on their ballots, but also stipulating that a nominee must appear on at least 75 percent of the ballots cast in order to be elected. "We have made the nominating process stringent enough that returning to the plurality system does not lower standards," explained Museum President Stella Thayer. "The new process is designed to ensure that only bona fide Hall of Fame-quality individuals are nominated, so whichever one receives the highest number of votes has passed a very difficult series of tests."

Margins: 2 1/4, NO, 5 1/4. Odds: 3.20, 0.60, 4.60.

Twilight Meteor made a belated run to take his career opener on the Saratoga lawn July 30, then came up a half-length short when fourth--with Admiral Bird second--in the With Anticipation S. Sept. 1 over the same course. Trying the Keeneland turf last time, the chestnut couldn't get by Admiral Bird and had to settle for second by a nose in an Oct. 7 allowance. Heavy rains forced Keeneland to shift this contest from the turf course to the Polytrack. Twilight Meteor settled in third as Marcavelly showed the way, collared that rival at the sixteenth pole and drove clear for his first stakes victory.

Pyramid Love went two-for-three last year in France, but took time finding her best stride for Patrick Biancone in 2006. Sixth on the turf in the Gill Lake George S. July 28 at the Spa, the dark bay was eased in the GI Alabama S. Aug. 19 and was given some time to regroup. She rebounded with a forthright victory over this track and trip Oct. 6 and was favored to maintain that form. It may have taken a blindfold to get her loaded, but Pyramid Love didn't need too much assistance during the race itself. The three-year-old pressed the pace from second, took over turning for home and went on for her second straight victory.

3rd-KEE, $50,000, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16m, 1:45 4/5, ft. + TONY TERRIFIC (c, 2, Gone West--Thunder Kitten {GSW, $253,138}, by Storm Cat), a half-brother to Thunder Mission (Pulpit), MGSP, $174,413, was let go at 9-1 despite several good works over this surface. The dark bay was a bit reluctant to load, but came away well to race in sixth while five wide. He continued on his overland route, hit the front in midstretch and maintained a one-length margin over fellow firster True Competitor (Point Given). Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. 5th-KEE, $49,250, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16m, 1:45 3/5, ft. RUTLEDGE CAT (c, 2, Tale of the Cat--Rutledge Affair {SP, $115,150}, by Colonial Affair) had given a good account of himself in his first two outings, both sprints at Delaware. Shipped to Keeneland, the bay stretched out and ran third by 3/4 of a length at this distance Oct. 12. He added blinkers this time and went postward as the 2-1 chalk. After racing in second, Rutledge Cat put his head in front turning for home and pulled away to score by 3 1/4 lengths. Sacrifice Bunt (Storm Cat) completed the exacta. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-2, $50,825. O-Herman Greenberg. B-Rutledge Farm (KY). T-H Graham Motion.

Will He Shine graduated last September at the Meadowlands in his first try for trainer Todd Pletcher and added an allowance victory at Churchill a month later. He sold for $290,000 at Keeneland November and didn't face the starter again until Sept. 5, when he was the runner-up by 3/4 of a length at Delaware. The chestnut resumed his winning ways with a Belmont allowance score Oct. 5 and was the third choice here. Breaking from the rail, Will He Shine went straight to the lead, shook free after a half in :45.42 and won by daylight.

OXX'S MAGNIFICENT SEVEN Offerings from John Oxx's Currabeg Stables are usually at the fore at Goffs Horses In Training Sale and selections from the draft proved popular once more during a strong edition yesterday. The trainer provided the top seven lots, all breaking the six-figure barrier, as returns made substantial advances on last year's one-day sale. Chief among them was Neil Jones' three-year-old colt Snow Lord (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a maiden winner at Navan Oct. 17, who was knocked down to trainer Michael Halford for €300,000. Offered as hip 193, he is set to further his career at the winter game. "He's for an existing client and has been bought to go jumping," Halford explained. "He's a lovely horse and I'll give him a year off," he added. The second best price of the day was realized earlier, by another sophomore, when agent Ross Doyle went to €165,000 for Darley's three-time winner Film Festival (Diesis {GB}). Catalogued as hip 77, he is another bound for a jumps career under the guidance of Halford. "He's been purchased on behalf of Bill Durkan and will go to Michael Halford," commented Doyle. "Hopefully, he'll make a nice hurdler." Solid trade throughout saw the sale aggregate jump almost 64 percent with the average receiving a near 45 percent hike. "The sale was very strong, with demand from the domestic and UK markets for prospective jumpers particularly strong, and we must pay sincere thanks to John Oxx and his owners for their support in underpinning the sale," said Goff's Managing Director Matt Mitchell. Full results can be viewed at www.goffs.com.

AVERTI COLT TOPS AT TATTERSALLS

An Averti (Ire) half-brother to smart sprinter Intrepid Jack (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) was the standout lot at Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale Part 3 in Newmarket yesterday. Sold from Lord Margadale's Fonthill Stud, the colt was bought for 72,000gns by agent Richard Frisby, with Johnny McKeever the underbidder. "He's been bought for a syndicate that I manage to be trained in England, although I can't say where," said Frisby. "I was also involved in the purchase of Intrepid Jack and thought this was the standout horse in the sale." The sale concludes today with a session starting at 9:30 a.m. Full results are available on www.tattersalls.com.

1.00 Newmarket, Mdn, £5,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT

ARABIAN GULF (GB) (Sadler's Wells), the second foal out of 1999 G1 1000 Guineas winner Wince (GB), has a tough act to follow. Full sister Quiff (GB) plundered the 2004 G1 Yorkshire Oaks and ran second in the G1 St Leger, and recorded her career high on an easy surface. Likely similar conditions for this debut should hold no fears for the Juddmonte homebred representing the Sir Michael Stoute barn.

1.30 Newmarket, Mdn, £5,000, 2yo, f, 7fT

MEASURED TEMPO (GB) (Sadler's Wells) steps up to the plate in the Godolphin blue for this first at bat. Out of a half-sister to King's Best and Urban Sea, this half to G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Anabaa Blue (GB) faces a cast of likely sorts. It includes the Sir Michael Stoute trainee Eternal Path (Theatrical {Ire}), another debutante and granddaughter of Niarchos Family favorite Coup de Folie.

Breaking through in her third attempt in a Sandown maiden Sept. 12, Blue Echo met a hardened rival in G2 Mill Reef S. placegetter Dubai Builder when third in a Salisbury conditions last time Sept. 27. Improving on that performance, she emerged victorious in a pulsating duel to earn a career high in this stakes bow. Out swiftly to dispute the lead in the center of the track, Blue Echo rallied when headed by La Presse approaching the final furlong and responded under a stern drive up the climb to edge that rival in a thrilling bobber.

Gelded after running third in this contest last year, Into The Dark returned to form with a bang and doubled his stakes tally with a commanding display this time around. Returning off a second in the Listed Godolphin S. at this track Sept. 29, he settled fifth behind the leaders and remained under a tight hold until easing to the fore with three furlongs remaining. Quickening away from toiling rivals running into the dip, the crowd's selection romped further clear on the ascent before gearing down for an impressive score.

PRINCESS VALERINA (GB) (f, 2, Beat Hollow {GB}--Heart So Blue {GB}, by Dilum) was undone by a slow start when a first-up second at Windsor Oct. 9, but made no mistake here and wired the field in taking style. Up to lead from the bell, the well-backed 7-4 second choice went clear going to the dip and was not extended thereafter to account for Shmookh (Green Desert) by an easy 3 1/2 lengths. The filly is the sixth winner for her freshman sire (by Sadler's Wells). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £3,747.

MISS LUCIFER (FR) (f, 2, Noverre--Devil's Imp {Ire}, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) went postward as a solid 4-7 pick coming back from a debut third at Newbury Oct. 10. Breaking swiftly from an outside box to claim the lead, she was coaxed away from the pack approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to score by a cozy three lengths. The filly becomes the 23rd winner for her freshman sire (by Rahy). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £3,361.
