FIELDS OF GOLD

In an emotional finale to a remarkable career, Fields of Omagh (Aus) (Rubiton {Aus}) demonstrated both character and courage to deny El Segundo (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) by a mere whisker in the G1 Cox Plate at Moonee Valley. Fields of Omagh was originally conditioned by Peter Hayes, who was killed in a light plane crash just nine days after the gelding broke his maiden. His younger brother David saddled the nine-year-old to victory yesterday.

"This is a very special win because he was trained by my late brother Peter and he is the only horse that he trained that I still train," he said. "It's very emotional for all of us. He's been part of the furniture at Lindsay Park for so many years. It won't be the same without him. What a great way for the old boy to go out!" Cont. p2

BUSY MORNING AT KEENELAND

Five Breeders' Cup contenders worked over the Keeneland Polytrack Saturday, including G1 Kentucky Oaks victress Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid). The chestnut shipped from Churchill Downs and breezed five furlongs in :59.80. "The track at Churchill was muddy and she likes the Polytrack," trainer Dallas Stewart commented. "She went crisp and clean and cooled out fine. We're very happy with it." Lemons Forever heads to the G1 Breeders' Cup Distaff off a fifth-place finish in the Oct. 8 G1 Juddmonte Spinster S. Prepping for the G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint, Commentator (Distorted Humor) and Malibu Mint

(Malibu Moon) each fired four-furlong moves in :47. "We couldn't be more pleased," trainer Jim Chapman said of the G1 Princess Rooney H. heroine. "Actually, the rider [Kyle Kaenel] said she was a little more aggressive today than normal. He said he was never able to turn the bit loose at all. She wanted to do a lot more." Malibu Mint was last seen annexing the GIII Thoroughbred Club of America S. at Keeneland Oct. 14, while Commentator looks to make amends for a 10th-place finish in Saratoga's G1 Forego S. Sept. 2. Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) turned in a six-furlong bullet in 1:12.40 in preparation of the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile. Exercise rider Frederic Buscail was pleased with the move.

"He felt very good," Buscail said. "He traveled good. I didn't ask him. He did it all by himself pretty much." Badge of Silver has been on the shelf since notching Santa Anita's GII San Gabriel H. Jan. 1. Mauralakana (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}), second in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. last out Oct. 14, earned the bullet for five furlongs, stopping the clock at :58.80. The sophomore is cross-entered in the Mile and G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf.

Going Out in a Blaze of Glory...

David Hayes was confident Fields of Omagh would be competitive in his swansong after enduring a troubled run when fourth to El Segundo in the Oct. 14 Yalumba S., but the crowd sent the veteran off an 18-1 outsider. Settled one from the rear early, he charged down the outside to collar the leaders in the dying yards of a thrilling finish. "He just thrived on the atmosphere," jockey Craig Williams said. "I didn't have to pull the stick until quite late." Fields of Omagh had to overcome more than one setback to end his career in a blaze of glory, suffering two potentially career-ending ligament injuries. He was first injured after winning the G3 Eclipse S. at Sandown in November of 2001. Back on track nine months, he strained his offside suspensory nine starts later, but returned to be fifth in the 2002 Cox Plate. He won the prestigious event in 2003, was second in 2004 and third last year. "Fields of Omagh is a rule breaker," Lindsay Park Chief Veterinarian Campbell Baker said. "The amazing thing is that you rarely see a horse get sounder as he gets older. Most go the other way, but he's had less niggles as he's got older." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

You Make the Call...

Co-owner Bryan Martin, one of 31 members of the No Big Deal syndicate, also serves as the Moonee Vallee racecaller. He thought El Segundo had won until Fields of Omagh's number was semaphored; then he almost fainted. "I can't believe it, I still don't know how he won," Martin said. "I felt at 800 meters we were a chance, but I cannot remember much of my call. Coming into the straight, I thought he was a chance to be in the finish. I was thinking it looked like El Segundo or Pompeii Ruler, and old Fields might run a great half-length third." He added, "He is the bravest horse ever to look through a bridle, to come through the suspensory injuries he has had and win not one Cox Plate, but two, and he has been the catalyst for Living Legends." Needless to say, Martin was excused from calling the remaining three races on the card.

Living Legend...

Fields of Omagh captured a total of seven stakes, including three Group 1 races. Also runner-up in the 2002 G1 Caulfield Cup, he will now be retired to the new Living Legend Retirement property for former champion race horses at Greenvale, just outside of Melbourne. The property will be home to Might and Power (NZ), Doriemus (NZ), Saintly (Aus), Rogan Josh (Aus), Better Loosen Up (Aus), Paris Lane (Aus) and Sky Heights (NZ). In becoming the oldest winner of Australasia's weight-for-age championship, the nine-year-old also became the 11th two-time winner of the 84-year-old Cox Plate, joining the likes of Phar Lap (NZ), Sunline (NZ) and Northerly (Aus). He moves to fourth on the list of Australasia's all-time leading prizemoney earners. The A$1.82 million he earned on Saturday took his career earnings to A$6,456,240, placing him behind only Makybe Diva (GB), Sunline and Northerly.

The peripatetic Eccentric had made his name on Lingfield's Polytrack early in 2005, but handled the switch back to grass to take the G3 Winter Hill S. at Windsor last August. He ran eighth in the Japan Cup Dirt Nov. 26 in his final start for Andrew Reid and found himself heading to Dubai. A close third in the G3 Maktoum Challenge - Round 2 Feb. 9, the chestnut weakened to be 10th in the G2 Maktoum Challenge - Round 3 Mar. 2 and concluded his tenure under Satish Seemar with a sixth in a rich Nad Al Sheba handicap Mar. 9. Eccentric didn't start again until Oct. 8, when he rallied for third in a grass allowance at Woodbine in his first outing for Roger Attfield. Breaking from the rail here, Eccentric secured a ground-saving trip as Ball Four led. He was forced to steady several times turning for home, but came up the inside and responded to Eddie Castro's urgings to claim victory.

Flamethrowintexan had never raced on the turf, but that didn't derail him from earning his second graded-stakes win of the year. The Florida-bred returned from an eight-month layoff to be the runner-up in the Fox Sports Net H. at Emerald Downs May 29, then ran third in the Budweiser Emerald H. at the same track June 18. He proved a front-running victor of the Mt. Rainier BC H. July 30 and was the hometown hero in the GIII Longacres Mile at Emerald Downs Aug. 20. His first out-of-town trip resulted in a fifth in the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup Sept. 30, but this venture proved more successful. The grandson of Gone West assumed his customary position on the lead in this turf debut, clipping off fractions :47.05 and 1:11.12. Favored Fantastic Spain took a run at him in the lane, but Flamethrowin-texan dug in and got to the wire a head in front. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Captain Marvelous, who has enjoyed a busy first campaign, was making his fourth start when finishing off the board in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 20. Fifth to G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies hopeful Satulagi in the July 29 Winkfield S. back at Ascot next time, he ran second when dropped to conditions company at Chester Aug. 26, but bounced back to prevail in his handicap bow at Newbury Sept. 16. Improving leaps and bounds to run third behind Dutch Art (GB) in the Sept. 29 G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket last time, he wired the field in decisive style to bag this meeting highlight. To the fore off a smart break, Captain Marvelous maintained control throughout and was driven clear inside the final quarter mile as the slow-starting Baby Strange kept on to fill a raiding party exacta.

Magic America failed to build upon an impressive debut success at Longchamp May 18, but posted notable efforts in four subsequent defeats. Sixth in the July 2 G3 Prix du Bois in her stakes bow at this track, she ran third in the July 23 G2 Prix Robert Papin back here and improved to be the runner-up to Dutch Art (GB) in the Aug. 20 G1 Prix Morny at Deauville. Returning off another sixth in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket Sept. 29, the Criquette Head-Maarek trainee rebounded in style to record a career-best win in this contest. The chestnut stalked the leaders from a wide midfield berth, made smooth progress inside the final quarter mile to take control at the eighth pole and kept on strongly from there to comfortably best game pacesetter Nuqoosh.

Unable to add to victory in last term's G2 Prix Robert Papin, New Girlfriend has mixed with the best at the highest level, but found respite in this lower class and claimed a seasonal high, providing rider Julien Auge with a career moment. Fifth in last year's G1 Prix Morny, the bay sophomore faded to sixth in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp before running third in the June 4 G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly. She was back at the top table for her last three starts, finishing off the board in the Aug. 6 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville, G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois back there one week later and Sept. 30 G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp. Chasing the leaders in a joint fourth, New Girlfriend was set alight once the earplugs were removed with 350 meters remaining and she knuckled down for a fight inside the closing panel to deny Advanced in the drive.

Aidan O'Brien has yet to win this race, having saddled Landseer (GB) and Chevalier (Ire) to fill the runner's-up spot in 2001 and 2002. The conditioner relies on a duo headed by Mount Nelson to buck the trend here. This is his third run in quick succession, having finished second in a Gowran Park maiden on debut Oct. 6 before winning by six lengths at a rain-soaked Curragh on Sunday. Jockey Seamus Heffernan revealed after that race, "Mount Nelson would be in the top four or five at Ballydoyle." Heading the home defense is Spirit One, who followed an eight-length rout of his rivals in the Listed Criterion du FEE at Deauville Aug. 19 with a six-length win in the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp last time Sept. 16. Makaan graduated at Longchamp Sept. 10 before besting Holocene by 3/4 of a length in the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon over course and distance last time Oct. 6 and commands respect, while the British challenge features Vital Equine and Rallying Cry. Both will offer an early insight into the strength of the form of Newmarket's Oct. 14 G1 Dewhurst S., in which they finished fifth and sixth respectively.

Sohgol and Singalong, the fourth- and sixth-place finishers behind Wait a While in the GI Yellow Ribbon S. Sept. 30, figure to appreciate this drop down in class here. Sohgol finished fifth in the Aug. 25 CTT & Thoroughbred Owners of California H. at Del Mar prior to the Yellow Ribbon. Singalong previously won two straight at Hollywood, including the July 8 Redondo Beach S. "I thought she ran very well [in the Yellow Ribbon]," trainer Paddy Gallagher told Daily Racing Form. "She hadn't run in a while, she made a nice run, and maybe she could have been a little tighter. All in all, it was a good performance." Beautyandthebeast, freshened following a fifth-place finish against allowance company Aug. 11, resurfaced to notch Oak Tree's Swingtime S. by a head Oct. 4.

Sightseeing rallied up the rail for a game victory going 1 1/16 miles at Belmont Sept. 28 in his third start. Day Pass put in a wide run to take his Oct. 7 debut going 5 1/2 panels and has trainer Kiaran McLaughlin thinking about the future. "The best part about it is he wants to go a lot further than 5 1/2 furlongs," McLaughlin said. "Stretching out, I think a one-turn mile will be perfect for him. He's got a great mind and he's so talented. I love him." Also stepping up from a maiden win is Trading Star, who wired the field going seven furlongs at Belmont Sept. 30. Cowtown Cat, the $1.5-million Barretts saletopper, was beaten a length in his Aug. 16 debut at Saratoga, but came back to earn his diploma by 4 1/2 lengths in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden at Belmont Sept. 8.

Tiz Wonderful put up one of the most impressive debut victories at Saratoga, striding home 12 1/2 lengths clear in a Sept. 2 maiden. The TDN Rising Star hasn't raced since, and faces an intriguing field that includes Officer Rocket, who dead-heated for victory in the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity Sept. 10 in his most recent outing. That marked his third win in a row, but trainer Bob Holthus resisted sending the colt to the Breeders' Cup. "He's not a great big, stout, mature horse, and we wanted to have something for next year," Holthus explained. "He's always been able to outwork all the rest of the two-year-olds I had. He's put together a good record and is just a nice little horse to be around."

No fewer than four of these youngsters were left outside looking in when entries were taken Oct. 25: Baroness Thatcher, Cohiba Miss, Mistical Plan and Pro Pink. Baroness Thatcher seemingly put it all together in her third start by drawing off under a hand ride in a Keeneland maiden Oct. 7 and should continue her ascent here.

ROBERT COSTIGAN

Costigan and wife Nora

Accomplishment:

Costigan's Arravale (Arch) earned her second Grade I tally with a rousing victory in the E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine.

Birthdate: Sept. 1959

Birthplace: Tipperary, Ireland

Current Residence:

Vancouver, Canada

Family: Wife, Nora; children Carolyn, 25; Robbie, 20. Carolyn is actually in the Darley Flying Start program. She's the first Canadian to be in the program. It's such a great program; I wish they had one for someone my age. And she actually had interned for six weeks for Kiaran McLaughlin, and was one of the two grooms to lead over Jazil on Belmont day.

What's Arravale named after? The Arra is the river that flows through Tipperary Town, and vale is the valley. It's also the name of the local football club, the Arravale Rovers.

Did winning the E.P. Taylor have extra meaning for you?

I was a big racing fan growing up in Tipperary. Horses trained by Vincent O'Brien—like The Minstrel, Nijinsky, El Gran Senor—the majority of those horses were bred at E.P. Taylor's Windfields Farm. They were heroes and legends, and that's why it's extra special to win a race named after Mr. Taylor.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Australia. We've gone the last two years for the Melbourne Cup. The horse racing there is superb, and the people are wonderful.

Ever thought about sending a horse over for the Cup? Yes, I have. That's one of my goals.

Favorite food or meal? Steak and fries. With a nice red wine, or a beer.

What's the funniest movie you've ever seen? Let it Ride.

Childhood Ambition? To own a race horse. Unfortunately, nobody told me you couldn't own just one.

Last good book you read? Talk Talk, by T.C. Boyle.

If you get the chance you should read it.

First job? Milking cows.

Last Purchase? A win ticket on Arravale. Had to be happy with 9-2, right? Oh yeah. I think she was that much because of the [soft] ground. They looked at her and she'd only been on firm ground, but her female side is all French breeding that will go on that kind of ground.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's training track yesterday. Jockey Joe Deegan was aboard for the move. "He's training real good," Deegan said. "He's probably as good as he's ever been going into the race. He feels like he did four years ago. He tells you when he's ready. He knows what he's doing out there. Obviously it's a tough race, but it's a tough race every year." The seven-year-old finished 12th behind Volponi in the 2002 Classic; sixth behind Pleasantly Perfect in 2003; fourth behind Ghostzapper in 2004 and third behind Saint Liam last year. He was last seen placing second in the GIII Kentucky Cup Classic S. at Turfway Sept. 30. The only previous runner to contest the Breeders' Cup five times is champion Kona Gold, who captured the Sprint in 2000 as well as finishing second in that contest in 1999 and third in the same race in 1998.

We let her run slow down the backside and around the turn and then let her run a little bit down the lane and she responded well." The Louisiana-bred finished sixth as the 8-5 chalk in the

U D GHETTO TUNES UP FOR JUVENILE

U D Ghetto (Honour and Glory), 17-1 winner of the Sept. 30 GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile S., turned in a five-furlong move at Churchill in 1:01 in preparation for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Trainer Tony Reinstedler is yet to saddle a Breeders' Cup starter. "I like the way he breezed," the conditioner commented. "He's done everything right and has trained super here. PANEL CALLS URGENT MEETING ON NYRA BAILOUT

by Tom Precious, Courtesy www.bloodhorse.com

With New York Racing Association officials threatening to seek bankruptcy protection, state officials are rushing to complete a deal by Oct. 30 to get government bailout money flowing to the financially ailing NYRA. A state panel overseeing NYRA's finances is set to meet late in the afternoon Oct. 30, at which time the release of $19 million could begin. The oversight board has refused to sign off on the funding stream because another state agency, the Lottery Commission, has not yet given final approval to a contract between NYRA and MGM Mirage for construction of a long-stalled casino project at Aqueduct racetrack. State officials declined to discuss the agenda for Monday's meeting. Scott Reif, a spokesman for the agency, said the details of the session are still being ironed out. Behind the scenes, though, lawyers for NYRA and the state are involved in heavy negotiations to get a final deal on the VLT project that will then release the $19 million bailout package. The Legislature nearly a year ago approved a $30 million pot of funds for NYRA, which must be re-paid, to help it meet a worsening cash flow situation. So far, $11 million has been released. The issue has gotten embroiled in the bidding process underway to award a new franchise for the rights to run racing at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga racetracks. NYRA is competing with two other entities representing a who's who of racing industry individuals and companies. For the complete story click here.

Gray Suitor returned from an eight-month absence to take a Delaware turf allowance by two lengths Aug. 7 and doubled up over a boggy turf course at the same track Sept. 9. The gray nearly made a successful Keeneland debut in his latest Oct. 6, splitting horses late, but falling a neck short in third. Next to last for the opening half mile in this off-the-turfer, Gray Suitor was asked to pick it up three furlongs out, was angled out nine wide for the drive and was up in the final jump. Minister's Joy rallied from last to just miss.

A trio of impressive maiden winners make their first attempt against winners here. DREAM RUSH (Wild Rush) rolled by 6 1/2 lengths in her Belmont debut Sept. 24. The $285k OBSFEB 2-year-old shows four workouts at Keeneland since, including a four-furlong move in :47 Oct. 14. Overbrook Farm homebred FLORAL PARK (Forest Wildcat) graduated at first asking over this strip May 13, but hasn't been heard from since. RUNWAY QUEEN (Tale of the Cat) looked like a good thing in her Turfway unveiling, scoring by 5 3/4 lengths Sept. 30. brisnet.com pps

4:29p TVG 9th-CDX, $50K, Alw, 2yo, f, 1mT
ZOFZIG (Danzig), a daughter of GISW Zoftig, won at first asking over the Keeneland Polytrack Oct. 15 and makes her grass debut against this bunch. The $950k KEESEP yearling retains the services of Julien Leparoux. Todd Pletcher sends out the likely favorite, OCHRE (Red Ransom). The bay was last seen notching a grassy Saratoga maiden Aug. 31. brisnet.com pps

Margins: HF, HF, 1HF. Odds: 33.40, 4.60, 19.10.

Calculating Man finally broke through in his ninth attempt, graduating over the Colonial grass June 23, then finished fifth at Mountaineer in the West Virginia Legislature Chairman's Cup S. Aug. 6. He got back on track at Turfway, notching an allowance Sept. 15, but was overlooked by the Keeneland faithful here. Sent to the front by Willie Martinez, he set :21.91 and :44.66 fractions and had enough left in the tank to hold Four Sevens safe.

WARRIOR GIRL (f, 3, War Chant--Carefree Cheetah, by Trempolino) broke her maiden over the Meadowlands turf last October, but she was pulled up and out of this track's Jessamine S. three weeks later. A rallying third in Calder's Cherokee Frolic S. Dec. 10, the $150,000 KEESEP yearling was last seen finishing sixth to J'ray in the Jan. 1 Tropical Park Oaks. A 6-1 chance in this off-the-turf affair, she saved ground early, came four wide for the drive and held off an inside bid from Miss Peachtree (War Chant) for a head victory. MARGY'S FOREST (f, 3, Forestry--Margy, by Theatrical {Ire}), sent off at 51-1 for her Sept. 13 debut up at Turfway, showed interest for five furlongs before dropping back to finish fourth. Nicely into stride here, the $160,000 KEESEP yearling and $260,000 KEEAPR juvenile edged to the front in upper stretch, drew clear and was just able to hold on for a head victory over the debuting Succeed (Coronado's Quest). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $32,335. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. O-Never Tell Farm. B-Whisperwood Farm (KY). T-Juan Ruvalcaba.

ROSINKA (IRE) (f, 3, Soviet Star--Last Drama {Ire} {MSP-Fr}, by Last Tycoon {Ire}) was a seven-length maiden winner at Goodwood in July of 2005, but disappeared for 359 days after the effort. The bay filly returned to finish off the board in a pair of British starts this summer before being shipped to the States. Making her U.S. bow as a 13-1 outsider, she was rated near the back of the pack for six furlongs, but swung wide into the stretch and finished well to get up for a 3/4-length score over $800K KEESEP yearling Beautiful Daniele (A.P. Indy). A 58,000gns TATOCT yearling, the winner is a 1/2 to Self Feeder (Ire) (Lycius), SW & GISP, $465,594; and King's Drama (Ire) (King's Theatre {Ire}), GISW-US, GSW-Fr, $1,067,966. Frisk Her dueled heads apart with stablemate Caught Red Handed (Officer) in their respective racetrack debuts at Monmouth Sept. 7 and fought back inside that rival for a neck victory. Stretched to two turns over the Turfway Polytrack in her latest, the bay finished fourth, but was placed fifth, in the Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies S. Sept. 30. Outsprinted here by Lookin Back At You, who cut out fractions of :21.50 and :43.86, Frisk Her bid outside the pacesetter nearing the stretch, exchanged bumps at the three-sixteenths pole and edged away late. The result was allowed to stand following a stewards' inquiry into the bumping incident. Caught Red Handed was scratched.

Amansara defeated subsequent GSW Aunt Henny in a Feb. 13 allowance over the Gulfstream turf, but was promptly sidelined. The well-related bay was beaten a flared nostril by Meribel in the restricted Dynasty S. on the Saratoga lawn Aug. 31 and was most recently fifth in the Sept. 30 Martha Washington S. on the Laurel turf. Odds-on for a much-deserved stakes score, Amansara landed

Miss Goodnight struggled over a sloppy Delaware main track on debut, finishing a distant third, but improved to second over a fast main track July 15. Given a breather, the bay returned to decimate a field of maidens Oct. 9 and was the second choice in her two-turn bow. Eased back to stalk pacesetting Glacken's Mark from second, Miss Goodnight poked a head in front after five furlongs and drew clear late.

Da Stoops stretched out to nine furlongs to take the valuable Snow Chief S. at Hollywood Apr. 30, then shipped east and finished a distant third to Strong Contender in the GII Dwyer S. at Belmont July 4. Returned to a sprint, the dark bay was caught late in the seven-furlong Real Good Deal S. for Cal-breds at Del Mar Aug. 11 and was most recently third to Cindago in the El Cajon S. going a two-turn mile at the Seaside Sept. 2. Back to his best distance for this, Da Stoops forced the early pace outside of Bonfante, put that one away on the far turn and kicked on gamely for the win. "He likes it on the outside," commented trainer Bob Baffert. "He's a good horse when he's on his game and he was on today." The win was the first in a Cal Cup race for Baffert since saddling a pair to victory in 1997.

River's Prayer had never tried the turf, but led every step of this downhill course to hand heavily favored Cambicorsa her first-ever defeat at her metier. Third in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. last summer, River's Prayer was sidelined following a third in the Cover Gal S. last October. She resurfaced July 23 to defeat state-breds in Del Mar's Fleet Treat S., but stumbled at the start of the Sept. 1 Torrey Pines S. at the same track and lost her rider. The grey came out running here, sailed through fractions of :21.01 and :43.07 and held on gamely down the lane for an upset victory.

Cambicorsa, previously eight-for-eight down the hill, never switched leads in the stretch while giving away 10 pounds to the winner. "We knew she had to lose eventually, but we thought she ran a very creditable race," said trainer Doug O'Neill. "They put all that weight on you for a reason." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Special Heather closed out her four-year-old campaign in style, notching a $25,000 maiden claimer by 18 1/2 lengths last October at Santa Anita. Trying the lawn in her five-year-old bow, she took a starter allowance at Del Mar Aug. 12, then added a state-bred optional claimer Sept. 2. Looking to stay perfect in three attempts on the grass, the bay stalked the early pace in second, gained a short lead in the stretch and dug down deep to hold off a fast-closing Fortunate Event. Moscow Burning (Moscow Ballet), favored at 4-5, had to settle for fourth. She is set to go through the sales ring at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

Romance Is Diane trailed the field after a slow start in her July 29 debut at Del Mar and beat just one home, but turned it around at second asking, wiring the field for a two-length victory going a mile at Oak Tree Oct. 6. The third choice trying stakes foes and two turns off her maiden score, she settled just off the leaders down the backstretch, drove between horses on the turn and took over in the stretch, drawing off late to win handily.

Bautista Receives One-Year Suspension:

Jockey Carlos Bautista has been suspended for one year by the California Horse Racing Board for allegedly using an electrical device to shock a horse, Royal Medallion, during the warm-up before the second race at Fairplex Sept. 24. The decision was made following a two-day hearing by the CHRB. There was no allegation that Bautista used an electrical device during the actual race, in which Royal Medallion finished third. During the term of his suspension, Nov. 1 through Oct. 31, 2007, Bautista will be denied access to all premises within the CHRB's jurisdiction.

TATTERSALLS OCTOBER CONCLUDES

A filly by Starborough (GB) consigned by Thorsten Feddern's Bellow Hill Stud and a gelding by Mujahid from Tythe Barn Stables, agent for R.B. Hill, each brought final bids of 19,000gns to share top billing at a low-key final session to Part 3 of Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale in Newmarket yesterday. The filly, from the family of German champion Sheba (Ger), was purchased by bloodstock agent Borje Olsson. The gelding, a half to listed winner Fruit of Glory (GB), went to trainer John Jenkins. An expanded October catalogue saw the 1,100,000gns turnover rise by 35 percent on 2005, but the 6,320gns average was down six percent and the 3,500gns median fell by 28 percent. The clearance rate was 65.8 percent, as compared to 67.4 percent in 2005. "The record top price of 72,000gns for Fonthill Stud's Averti colt shows that, despite the huge rise in the number of yearlings catalogued here this year, there has still been demand for a good solid commercial yearling over the past two days," said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "There have been a good number of English trainers in attendance and buyers from the established European markets of Italy, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Spain and Sweden, as well as newer emerging markets such as the Czech Republic, Iran, Kazakhstan and Russia have all been active." Complete results of the sale are available at www.tattersalls.com.

 Fifth at Yarmouth in her July 18 debut, Passage Of Time showed improvement to take out a maiden at Newmarket's July track Aug. 13, and entered Classic reckoning with an explosive performance in this stakes bow. Settled in a share of second from the bell, she lengthened clear once taking over at the quarter-mile marker and was in splendid isolation on the climb to win by daylight. "She'd gone in her coat and I pulled her back a little bit to give her a bit of time," trainer Henry Cecil told PA Sport. "She is improving and I'm delighted. I think she'll get further than the Guineas trip, but we'll have to see."

Successful in maiden at this track Sept. 19, Empire
 Day made a smooth transition into stakes company when hitting the board in the Oct. 16 Listed Silver Tankard S. at Pontefract, and continued along the curve with an impressive score in this third go. Stalking the leader until taking a slight advantage with three furlongs to go, he maintained a relentless gallop to the line and bounded clear to win easily. The victory provided a fourth renewal for trainer Mark Johnston, who told PA Sport, "This always seems to be won by an out-and-out stayer who nearly always gets two miles. Kevin [Darley] said that he'd have stayed all day."

FALLON SUSPENDED

Champion European jockey Kieren Fallon was suspended by Racing Victoria stewards yesterday for his winning ride on California Dane (Aus) in the G2 Moir S., but his 10-meeting suspension will end on Melbourne Cup eve, so he will be clear to ride Yeats (Ire) (Sadlers' Wells) in the Nov. 7 showpiece. Fallon was suspended for causing interference to well-fancied Red Oog (Aus) 200 meters after the start. After a long inquiry held in stages throughout the day, Fallon pleaded guilty.
