NELSON ROCKS INTERNATIONAL

Inaugurated in 2001 with an honor roll including Dalakhani (Ire) and Bago (Fr), the G1 Criterium International had previously eluded Aidan O'Brien's grasp. That statistic changed at Saint-Cloud yesterday as 11-1 chance Mount Nelson (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) stepped up from a recent maiden win and prevailed where former Ballydoyle incumbents Landseer (GB) and Chevalier (Ire), among others, had failed by ousting the highly regarded Spirit One (Fr) (Anabaa Blue {GB}) by a head in a thrilling conclusion to the latest renewal. "There was a bit of a risk bringing him back so quickly for such a race only a week after winning a maiden, but he's a lovely horse with a lot of class," enthused O'Brien. "He'll definitely be a Classic prospect for next season," he added. British bookmakers William Hill agreed, installing Mount Nelson at 20-1 for next year's G1 Epsom Derby. Cont. p2

JUVENILES ON DISPLAY AT CHURCHILL

The juveniles took center stage at Churchill Downs yesterday, with Tiz Wonderful (Tiznow) running away with the GIII Iroquois S. and Change Up (Distorted Humor) grinding out a win in the GIII Pocahontas S. two races later. Running in the colors of Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stable, Tiz Wonderful was heavily favored yesterday off a 12 1/2-length debut romp at Saratoga. The bay was forced to steady several times when between foes leaving the chute, but moved to challenge for the lead in upper stretch before charging clear to a 6 3/4-length victory. Change Up, easy winner of the Mountaineer Juvenile Fillies S., disappointed when seventh as the favorite in the GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Lassie S. The chestnut filly rebounded yesterday with a driving two-length victory. The time for both one-mile contests was 1:35 4/5. Cont. p5

McLaughlin Duo Works

Trainer Kieran McLaughlin sent his two Breeders' Cup hopefuls to work yesterday at Belmont Park. Classic hopeful Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) went six furlongs in 1:14.83. The four-year-old has been off since winning the Aug. 5 GI Whitney H. Sprint hopeful Henny Hughes (Hennessy) went a half mile in :50.63. "Both of them worked very well and both of them came back great," McLaughlin said. "We're ready to go." Invasor and Henny Hughes will ship to Louisville Wednesday.

Runner-up to a more experienced rival in a Gowran Park maiden on debut Oct. 6, Mount Nelson showed necessary improvement, and then some, when plundering another maiden by six lengths at The Curragh last week. Pitched straight into the highest level in yesterday's G1 Criterium International, he exhibited a readiness for a fight and obliged in a pulsating duel. Breaking on terms and reined back behind the front rank as favored Spirit One clocked the fractions, jockey Seamus Heffernan employed patient tactics until stepping on the gas at the top of the straight. Closing under pressure to challenge approaching the final furlong, Mount Nelson proved a willing accomplice under a drive and asserted from long-time leader Spirit One in the shades of the post. The winner's stablemate Yellowstone closed late to take third. "I'm sure he'll stay further than a mile, possibly up to a mile and a half, so there will be plenty of opportunities for him next season," Aidan O'Brien said of the winner. "Of course, he is finished for the year," he added. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Beautyandthebeast, a narrowly beaten third in the Mar. 26 GII Santa Ana H., returned from a two-month freshening to earn a late-running head victory in the Oct. 4 Swingtime S. over course and trip. Looking to duplicate that effort as the tepid favorite here, the chestnut filly saved ground while racing a stalking sixth. Angled to the outside for the stretch run, she closed powerfully to take the lead late and then held off the closing rush of Clinet. "The pace scenario was the key today," explained winning rider Corey Nakatani, who earned his fourth straight Oak Tree riding title. "About the 3 1/2 [furlong marker], I was just sitting there letting her pick up the pace a little bit and getting her in a position to where I could let her run turning for home and it worked out perfect." Neil Drysdale added that Beautyandthebeast may start next in the Nov. 26 GI Matriarch H. Successful in conditions events at Maisons-Laffitte May 9 and Chantilly June 4, Passager was forced to miss the entire summer campaign due to injury. Returning to finish second on his stakes debut in the Oct. 15 Listed Prix Le Fabuleux at Longchamp, he rallied to the cause in this and battled gamely to a career high. Positioned in third by from the bell, the eventual winner took control approaching the final furlong and had plenty in reserve to hold the late rush of Gwenseb. "He twisted an ankle after he won at Chantilly and that is why he's been off all summer," explained owner Alec Head. "Maybe the injury was a blessing in disguise as he's a fresh horse for the end of the season. He improved a lot for his return over [an extended] nine furlongs which was probably too far for him. He loves soft ground and proved his point today. We'll see him again next year." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Breath Of Love garnered a lowly conditions event at Saint-Cloud June 16 and ran a respectable fourth in the July 29 Listed Prix Jacques de Bremond at Deauville next time. Off the radar in the Aug. 15 Listed Grand Handicap de Deauville, she showed much more to finish second in the Sept. 18 Listed Prix du Point du Jour at Craon and added further luster to her portfolio with a determined effort here. Finding cover in seventh from the outset, Breath of Love weaved through rivals to take a slender advantage at the distance and kept on in resolute fashion to hold the rallying Ricine.

Moth Ball, looking for his first win since leaving England in October 2004, was fifth behind Unfurl the Flag in an Aug. 23 Del Mar optional claimer before an eighth-place effort in the contentious War Chant S. over this course Oct. 9. Dismissed at 33-1, the bay gelding stalked the pace from third, forged to a short lead a furlong out and gamely held off Apalachee Tiger for a narrow victory. "[Jockey Michael Baze] did exactly what I told him to do," said winning trainer James Cassidy. "I said, 'Cheat the first quarter and get through,' and that's exactly what he did. I looked at the race and most of the speed in here was miler speed. I told him, 'Don't go to the lead because he'll get rank.' But trust me, this was all rider." Baze added, "I just let him break, let him settle and rode him down the lane and got the best of it. Once he got inside and [Apalachee Tiger] kept heading him, he wasn't going to let the other horse by." The victory was Baze's second graded-stakes win. The 19-year-old won the GIII Carleton F Burke H. last weekend. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Tiz Wonderful debuted with an impressive 12 1/2-length victory at Saratoga Sept. 2, but had been off since. "We gave him the month of September [off] because of his maturity," explained trainer Scott Blasi. "He's a very leggy immature colt and we have some big things in mind for him." The vacation quickly paid dividends here. Steadied in tight quarters early, Tiz Wonderful shot up to contest the early fractions once clear. The bay shook loose in upper stretch and drew away easily. "He's been very impressive from the beginning," Blasi said. "The more ground the better for him. The farther he goes, the better it will be for him." Jockey Garrett Gomez is also impressed with Tiz Wonderful. "He's got a tremendous stride, and he did things the right way in this race," Gomez said. "He looks so much like his dad, he's very big just like him. This horse is only two, though, and he's still learning. He should get better and better." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Change Up was a six-length maiden winner over the Churchill strip in June and added a front-running 4 1/2-length victory in the Aug. 6 Mountaineer Juvenile Fillies S. before her dull seventh-place showing in the Sept. 10 GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Lassie S.

Reed Palmer

Favored to start a new win streak here, the chestnut filly was never far back, powered to the lead with a furlong to run and drove clear to the wire. "Every time I thought she was done, she just kept digging down and finding something more," said winning rider Garrett

Gomez. "She turned in a tremendous run here and showed a lot of heart." Winning trainer Steve Flint has big plans for Change Up. "She's a legitimate contender," Flint said. "She's just got lots of talent. I think she'll make a great name for herself. Hopefully, we'll see you back here in May [for the GI Kentucky Oaks]."

Taking respite from stakes company to bag a confidence-boosting score over course and distance July 9, Lucidor missed the board when seventh in the July 15 G3 Hamburger Meile and fourth in the Aug. 27 Listed Preis des Casino Baden-Baden. Returning off another fourth in the Oct. 8 Listed Grosser Preis der Landeshauptstadt Dusseldorf, he recovered from an awkward start and rewarded supporters with a decisive first group win in this. Racing off the pace in the rear after a sluggish break, Lucidor made giant strides once into the 3 1/2-furlong straight, swooping for the lead approaching the final eighth and inching clear thereafter for a cozy win. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

HIGH WINDS FORCES AQUEDUCT TO CANCEL

For the second straight day, Aqueduct Racetrack was forced to cancel racing because of high winds. The decision was made after Sunday's first race had been run and while the horses were in the paddock for the second. "For the safety of everyone and the horses, we decided to cancel," said jockey John Velazquez. "It's pretty rough around the turns and to have control of the horses, it makes it difficult. The track was beautiful. It's just that the wind was way too strong to have control of the horses." Saturday's card was also cancelled because of high winds, as well as heavy rain. The two graded stakes that were scheduled for yesterday, the Gill Tempted S. and Gill Nashua S., will be run Friday, Nov. 3. Live racing is scheduled to resume Wednesday, with the first post at 12:30 p.m. Also forced to cancel racing yesterday due to high winds were Woodbine, Fort Erie and Philadelphia Park.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

Zito Happy with Cup Hopefuls

Trainer Nick Zito, overseeing the final pre-Breeders' Cup works for Sun King (Charismatic) and C P West (Came Home) at Churchill Downs yesterday, was happy with his charges' efforts. Sun King went five furlongs in 1:00.80 with jockey Rafael Bejarano aboard. "I'm happy with that," Zito said of the work, which began at the half-mile pole and finished at the seven-eighths pole. "He's run well all year and I really like the way he stretches out over this track." C P West, second in the GI Belmont Futurity, started slowly, but came home to complete his five-furlong drill in 1:00.20. "I hope it wasn't too fast, because the track is slow," Zito said of the juvenile's work. "Hopefully, he has a good week and it'll be great." Zito will also saddle Commentator (Distorted Humor) in the Sprint.

California Sprinters Work at the Downs

Trainer Bill Spawr was on hand to watch GI Ancient Title Breeders' Cup S. winner Bordonaro (Memo {Chi}) work four furlongs in :48.40 yesterday at Churchill. "He was blowing a little bit, but not much when he came back," Spawr commented. "He will go to the gate and stand a little bit this week and then gallop into the race." Fellow Sprint hopeful and GI Triple Bend H. winner Siren Lure (Joyeux Danseur) went a half mile at Churchill in :50.60. "He started out a little slower than I wanted to go, but he was just kind of looking around," said trainer Art Sherman. "Down the lane, it looked like he kicked it in pretty good."

MCDYNAMO TAKES BC STEEPLECHASE Two-time Eclipse champion McDynamo (Dynaformer) became the leading money-winning steeplechaser of all time Saturday, romping to a 22-length victory in the $250,000 Breeders' Cup Grand National at Far Hills, New Jersey. Jockey Jody Petty was in the saddle. It was the fourth straight win in the event for the nine-year-old, who has bankrolled $1,028,104 with 13 wins from his 21 career starts, surpassing the mark of

McDynamo Horsephotos

$965,809 set by Hall of Famer Lonesome Glory. "He does things so easily, it's weird," said trainer Sanna Hendriks. "He doesn't look like he's working hard at all, and other horses struggle, especially in going like this. I guess that's what greatness is--it's horses who can put it all together that become this good. They have the right mind, the right body, the right everything. That's what sets McDynamo, Lonesome Glory and the others over time apart." The reigning champion will make his next start in the Nov. 19 Colonial Cup in Camden, South Carolina.

STORM IN MAY (c, 2, Tiger Ridge--Laun Shaw, by Relaunch), a $16,000 OBSAPR juvenile, was a well-beaten third in the Sept. 2 Seacliff S. over Calder's main track Sept. 2. Switched to the lawn in his next, an Oct. 14 sprint, the colt won by a 4 1/2-length margin and was off here as the 9-5 second choice to make it two straight. Up close early, he was forced to steady when a rival came in on him on the backstretch. The gray kept his cool, however, and re-bid in upper stretch en route to the 1 1/2-length win over Wonderous Glory (Three Wonders). Lifetime Record: SP, 6-3-1-2, $72,430.

ZOFZIG (f, 2, Danzig--Zoftig {GISW, $401,024}, by Cozzene), a $950,000 KEESEP yearling, got the job done in her Oct. 15 debut at Keeneland and was the 13-10 second choice to go two-for-two in her turf debut. The bay tucked in at the rail while keeping tabs on the leaders down the backstretch and around the turn. The 6-5 chance angled outside for the final drive and hit the gas, putting a head in front at the eighth pole before pulling away to beat even-money Ochre (Red Ransom) by 1 3/4 lengths. The bay filly opened her stakes account with the Mar. 17 Erin Go Bragh S. in Northern California, then shipped to the Midwest to add the Apr. 8 Meafara S. in Illinois. Second in a Bay Meadows allowance in May and third in the Gill Dogwood BC S. at Churchill in June, the well-traveled miss next headed to the Sunshine State to annex the July 15 Gill Azalea BC S. She was outfinished when stretched to a mile and a sixteenth for the Sept. 16 Noe Valley S. at Golden Gate, running second, but got back on track at short odds here. Victorina tracked the leaders from fourth through a half in :44.53, eased outside for the stretch drive and needed only mild encouragement to draw off in the final furlong.

WESTLAKE (GB) (Sadler's Wells) is a full brother to last year's GI Arlington Million hero Powerscourt (GB) and half to the dual listed scorer Kind (Ire), representing the new partnership of Khalid Abdullah and Dermot Weld. The newcomer meets a trio from Ballydoyle, headed by Michael Tabor's Archipenko (Kingmambo), a colt from the family of Nureyev and Sadler's Wells, who was runner-up to stable companion Spanish Harlem at The Curragh a week ago.

1.55, Compiegne, Debutantes, €18,000, 2yo, c/g, 1 1/8mT
SAGARA (Sadler's Wells) is out of a half-sister to Spinning World from the celebrated Niarchos family of Denon and Chimes of Freedom. He debuts for Jonathan Pease against a host of regally bred individuals, including the Marquise de Moratalla's Rapporteur (Fr) (Daylami {Ire}), an Alain de Royer-Dupre-trained colt who is out of a half to Poliglote (GB).

2.25, Compiegne, Debutantes, €18,000, 2yo, f, 1 1/8mT
DALASYLA (IRE) (Marju {Ire}) is a daughter of the 1994 G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Dalara (Ire), who has produced the top-class Daliapour (Ire). Andre Fabre saddles His Highness the Aga Khan's homebred against George Strawbridge's Dyna Bowl (Dynaformer), a daughter of the 1996 GI Flower Bowl Invitational runner-up Powder Bowl.

WOODLAND FAERY (GB) (f, 2, Act One {GB})--Argent du Bois, by Silver Hawk ran second at Longchamp Sept. 3 and went postward as the 14-5 second choice coming back from a course-and-distance third Sept. 26. In front from the bell here, she came under pressure when tackled in early stretch, but maintained a relentless tempo to secure an easy three-length win from Green Lyons (Ire) (Green Desert). The winner, the eighth for her freshman sire (by In the Wings {GB}), is a half-sister to Ticker Tape (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}), MGSW-US, SP-Eng, $1,452,450. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 2 places, €18,250. O-Nicholas Forman Hardy; B-Car Colston Hall Stud; T-Jonathan Pease.

ROYAL AND REGAL (IRE) (c, 2, Sadler's Wells--Smart'n Noble {MGSW, $527,564}, by Smarten) made a promising debut when runner up at Chantilly Oct. 5 and justified favoritism with a smooth score in this second go. Allowing the leading trio some leeway until closing once into the straight, the half to Celtic Silence (GB) (Celtic Swing {GB}), SW & GSP-Eng, GSP-UAE, $124,809, accelerated to the front with 150 meters remaining and eased to the line two lengths in advance of Prince Fasliyev (GB) (Fasliyev) as the even-money pick. Lifetime Record: 2 starts 1 win, 1 place, €13,300. O/B-P D Savill; T-Andre Fabre.

INVINCIBLE SPIRIT COLT TOPS OAKLANDS

SALE A colt by leading European freshman sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) fetched a bid of A$120,000 to top Sunday's Inglis Oaklands Breeze-Up Sale. Consigned by Widden Stud, agent, the bay son of Sister Georgina (Aus) (Let's Get Physical {Aus}) breezed an eighth of a mile in :10.52 during Thursday's under-tack show and was purchased by Aquanita Racing of Victoria. He had been purchased as a yearling for A$20,000 prior to the huge success of his sire's first crop overseas. The horse to breeze fastest on Thursday was also among the top sellers. Hip 32, a son of Testa Rossa (Aus)--Rockellen (Aus) (Rancho Ruler {Aus}) was hammered down to Macau trainer Gary Moore for A$100,000. The bay clocked :10.18 on Thursday and was purchased as a yearling for A$30,000. A total of 82 horses were sold for gross receipts of A$1,927,500, an average of A$23,506.

REG INGLIS ON WAY OUT? A report in the Sydney Sunday Telegraph states that William Inglis & Son managing director Reg Inglis, 54, "has been deposed by his cousin Arthur Inglis, 50," who is also the company's largest shareholder. The report continued, "A public relations adviser to Arthur Inglis and his supporters contacted the Sunday Telegraph saying that 57 percent of shareholders agreed Reg Inglis should step down... 14 of the 24 shareholders were in agreement that a new executive with a different skill set was needed to broaden the basis of the business." Reg Inglis is quoted in the story as saying the situation was "sad for the business" and "Arthur has the numbers." Australia's leading bloodstock auction company has been controlled by the Inglis family since its inception in 1867 and has a vast sale complex on prime real estate in Sydney's blue-ribbon eastern suburbs. Reg Inglis has been at the helm since John Inglis, the father of Arthur, stepped down 17 years ago. He died in July of this year at the age of 88. The sale company has endured increasing loss of market share to the fast-growing Queensland-based rival company Magic Millions, since that company was purchased by Gerry Harvey, John Singleton and Rob Ferguson in 1997.

VENGEANCE OF RAIN 10th IN COMEBACKER

Vengeance of Rain (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), away from the races since winning last year's G1 Hong Kong Cup in December, finished 10th in Sunday's HSBC Premier Bowl H. over an insufficient 1200 meters. Drawn widest of all in the field of 14, the six-year-old was void of early speed and trailed for the opening half mile. He was asked for a bit of run in the straight and made some ground, crossing the line five lengths in arrears of the victorious Absolute Champion (Aus) (Marauding {NZ}). Vengeance of Rain will make his next start in the International Mile Trial Nov. 19, his lead-up to a title defense in this year's Hong Kong Cup Dec. 10.
