CLASSIC - POWERED BY DODGE, $5,000,000,
3yo/up, 1 1/4m

George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) got his first taste of the Churchill main track yesterday, cantering a mile in company with stablemate Ivan Denisovich (Ire). It will be the top miler's first attempt beyond that distance as well as his first non-grass race. "He's here to run in the Classic, so we'll find if he's going to handle the dirt or be bothered by the dirt in his face," trainer Aidan O'Brien said. "Pat [Lillis] was on him today and he's happy with him."

EMIRATES AIRLINE DISTAFF, $2,260,000, 3yo/up,
f/m, 1 1/8m

Three-year-old fillies have scored in seven of the 22 previous runnings of this event. Will Pine Island (Arch), the second choice on the morning line, make it eight?

Pine Island Horsephotos

Trainer Shug McGaughey already has three Distaff victories on his resume, taking the race with Personal Ensign in 1988 and Inside Information in 1995 as well as Pleasant Home--produced by a full sister to Pine Island's dam--last year. "This is all new to her. She's never shipped to run, so she's been all eyes," McGaughey said, but added, "I thought she trained as good as she could train this morning." First or second in all six starts, the late-running dark bay takes on older horses for the first time off a one-length score in the Sept. 9 GI Gazelle S. As for the competition, the Hall of Fame horseman said, "I think it's a good field. Fleet Indian, she hasn't made a mistake so far. Balletto runs hard about every time. I would have to think that she's going to be pretty tough, too, but I think we'll take some beating." Pine Island would benefit from fast fractions, as would Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country), who came up a head short behind Fleet Indian (Indian Charlie) in the Oct. 7 GI Beldame S. "Hopefully it will be strong pace that will suit her and she can come with her late run again, and have a good, clean trip," trainer Tom Albertrani said. "And hopefully she can get that Grade I race this year that we've been looking for."

FASIG READIES FOR BIG NOVEMBER SALE

Attempting to build on the momentum of last year's high-octane November Selected Mixed sale, Fasig-Tipton has assembled an impressive catalog for the 2006 renewal, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at Newtown Paddocks in Lexington at 2:00 p.m. A year

Last year's $5-million topper
Riskaverse
Horsephotos

ago, the Dynaformer mare Riskaverse was the star of the show, eliciting a $5-million bid from Eaton Sales, agent. The racing prospect Wild Fit and Contrive, the dam of Folklore, also sold well, each bringing $3 million. Those successes, as well as the $5-million sale of Smarty Jones' dam I'll Get Along in 2004, have helped bolster the reputation of the sale, and officials say that reputation is reflected in the quality of this year's offerings. "We're pretty proud of the catalog," said Fasig-Tipton's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Boyd Browning Jr. "It's certainly the strongest that we've had in recent years. We've seen a gradual build-up in the sale in, say, the last decade, and that's been in part because of horses like Riskaverse and Smarty Jones' dam." Included among the 255 cataloged lots are Grade I winners Gorella (Fr) (Grape Tree Road {GB}) and Honey Ryder (Lasting Approval), both of whom go for Breeders' Cup glory this afternoon. The dam of $3.5-million earner Lava Man (Slew City Slew) is scheduled to sell, as well as several top racing and/or broodmare prospects like Smokey Glacken (Forestry), Shining Energy (Rahy), Diplomat Lady (Forestry) and Bear Fan (Pine Bluff). "I think we've taken another significant step forward this year," continued Browning. "Success helps build success." On top of what is already a strong group of horses, Fasig-Tipton has cataloged the 73-horse dispersal of ClassicStar LLC, which includes a Grade I winner and producer Hookedonthefeelin (Citidancer) and full-sister to multiple champion Ashado (Saint Ballado). Cont. p9

TVG SPRINT, $2,130,000, 3yo/up, 6f

An outside post has posed no problem when the Sprint is contested at Churchill Downs. Four of the five Sprints run under the Twin Spires have been won from the outside: Gulch ('88, post 10); Sheikh Albadou (GB) ('91, post 9); Cherokee Run ('94, post 11); and Kona Gold ('00, post 10). Only Reraise in 1998 "overcame" an inside draw, leading every step from post 3 to win it in 1998. Siren Lure (Joyeux Danseur), who will break from the 11 hole today, is five-for-six on the year, including victories in the July 2 GI Triple

Siren Lure Benoit

Bend BC H. and Aug. 20 GI Pat O'Brien BC H. in his last two outings. He is the first Breeders' Cup starter for trainer Art Sherman. "Hopefully there is a lot of gas up front and somebody comes back to me," Sherman said. "That's what I need to do. I was up in the stands looking over the track, and I said to myself, 'Wow, that's a long enough stretch.' At the quarter pole, if he's three or four lengths off the lead, then I've got a shot."

BESSEMERTRUST JUVENILE, $2,000,000, 2yo, c/f, 1 1/16m

Trainer Doug O'Neill saddled Stevie Wonderboy to a 1 1/4-length score in last year's Juvenile. Can Great Hunter (Aptitude) make him the first trainer to win the race back-to-back since D. Wayne Lukas completed the three-peat with Capote ('86), Success Express ('87) and Is It True ('88)? Never worse than second, the colt proved he could handle the Juvenile distance with his 1 3/4-length win in the GI Breeders' Futurity. "He's doing fantastic," O'Neill said. "The similarities to 'Stevie' are still there for us. He's a big, strong and very mature-acting colt. He's already a Grade I two-turn winner. All of those things have us pretty excited." Lukas, who also captured this race with Timber Country in 1994 and Boston Harbor in 1996, sends out Pegasus Wind (Fusaichi Pegasus). The colt set the pace before finishing third as a 21-1 outsider in the Oct. 14 GI Champagne S. Lukas is confident of his chances at a sixth Juvenile victory. "Sometimes you get the feeling you wanted to do something different or tweak something, but I am comfortable with where he is--he is ready to go," he stated.

JUVENILE FILLIES, $2,000,000, 2yo, f, 1 1/16m

It's anybody's race--just ask the trainers. Todd Pletcher, conditioner of Cotton Blossom (Broken Vow) and Octave (Unbridled's Song), termed this "the most wide-open race on the card." Eddie Plesa Jr. agrees. He sends out Adhrhythm (Adhocracy), a Calder-based filly who has won her last three starts by a combined 20 lengths. "You could run this race 10 different times and probably have seven different winners," Plesa said. As for the strategy he will employ, the Florida horseman remarked, "There'll be some speed in there and we'll drop behind it and stalk it. Hopefully, midway down the stretch, they'll be calling her name."

Sleeping Indian (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) comes in as a dark horse for owner/breeder George Strawbridge. The bay captured the G2 Challenge S. at Newmarket Oct. 14 and is trained by John Gosden, who saddled Royal Heroine (Ire) to capture the inaugural running of this event in 1984. Gosden, who secured the services of Alex Solis for his charge, said it was difficult to give explicit instructions. "I haven't got a strategy in mind," he said. "I think in the Mile, you just want to break well and hold your position and watch it develop." There are two Mile entrants carrying the Godolphin blue, Echo of Light (GB) (Dubai Millennium {GB}) and Librettist

Librettist at Churchill Horsephotos

(Danzig), but first-call rider Frankie Dettori has opted for the up-and-coming Echo of Light over his multiple Group 1-winning stablemate. Asked if Dettori had made the right decision, trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "He doesn't always." He added, "I talked to Frankie...and said, 'Just don't fight with him.'" Echo of Light, a son of Godolphin's early flagbearer Dubai Millennium (GB), captured York's G3 Strensall S. Sept. 9 and tuned up for the Mile with a sharp victory in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein Sept. 30 at Lonchamp. Librettist, whose victories this summer included the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and the G1 Prix de Moulin de Longchamp, emerged slightly lame from a sixth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 23. "He's fine now and has been working good," bin Suroor said. Both Godolphin runners are first-time Lasix.

JOHN DEERE TURF, $3,000,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/2mT

T.H. Approval (With Approval) stretched his legs over the Churchill lawn yesterday morning, galloping a mile and a half before opening it up through the final quarter. "The clockers said they got him his last quarter in :25," trainer Eduardo Inda said. "I just wanted him to use a little speed late--something to get him ready for his race tomorrow, to open his lungs up. He's a little lazy in the mornings and this is good for him." The five-year-old has been first or second in six of seven outings this season, taking the Aug. 27 GII Del Mar H. and finishing a head behind The Tin Man when second in the Sept. 30 GI C.L. Hirsch S. at Oak Tree last out.

Successful Outlook drew the rail for her Oct. 1 debut at Belmont and broke alertly on her way to a front-running 5 1/2-length victory over a sloppy track. The chestnut showed a measure of versatility here to remain unbeaten. A close-up fourth early as Changeisgonnacome (Cherokee Run) led through fractions of :23.30 and :46.23, Successful Outlook rallied four wide, had the lead turning for home and edged away late. The Tempted had originally been scheduled for last Sunday, but was redrawn after strong winds forced its postponement. "We got a blessing with the delay," admitted Toby Sheets, assistant to trainer Scott Blasi. "She was on the rail last time and outside this time, so it worked out great."

Day Pass posted his second straight impressive victory to remain unbeaten. Forced to steady after the break in his Oct. 7 career opener at Belmont, the Darley colorbearer rallied four wide to take that 5 1/2-furlong contest. He went postward as the favorite here despite stepping up against a pair of stakes winners and rewarded his backers. The dark grey stumbled at the start, but recovered quickly enough to have a three-length lead after a :22.81 opening quarter. He continued to show the way through the turn with splits of :45.68 and 1:10.51 and, with Fernando Jara taking a peek under his shoulder, opened up in the stretch. "I've never ridden a two-year-old like him before," Jara said. "He stumbled coming out of the gate and ran off with me for about a half mile after that; I just couldn't get him to settle. He just kept running in the stretch. I let him run after the wire and he galloped out great. He's very exciting." Click here for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

A useful handicapper at sprint distances in England, Bayeux added Lasix here and, with the services of John Velazquez in the saddle, flew by his rivals in the final furlong to get his first graded-stakes victory. The bay posted a pair of victories in handicaps on all-weather tracks, at Lingfield Feb. 28 and Wolverhampton Mar. 11. He added a six-furlong handicap score at Hamilton July 14, but ran off the board in each of his next two starts. Carrying 133 pounds in a seven-furlong Goodwood handicap Sept. 9, the Kentucky-bred came up a neck short as the runner-up in his most recent trip postward. He was sent off as the second longest shot on the board here, but belied those odds. The five-year-old tracked the pace while three wide through fractions of :49.36 and 1:13.19. Ballast looked to have kicked on for home in the lane, but Bayeux came after him and drove by in the final sixteenth. "Everything went according to plan," said winning trainer Gerard Butler. "He's a horse that I bought last year for [owner] Mr. [Michael] Tabor. He's done very well for us in England this year, so the plan was to come out here and have a crack at this. Where we go now, I leave that up to Mr. Tabor." Tabor indicated after the race that Bayeux would remain in the States. Reform Act ships in for trainer Dermot Weld, whose overseas raids have proven very successful. The dark bay, produced by a full sister to ill-fated champion Pleasant Stage, landed the 12-furlong Listed Give Thanks S. at Cork Aug. 7 before running third over the same distance in Ascot's G3 Princess Royal S. Sept. 22. She will race with Lasix here. Heroine of the 2005 G2 Prix de Malleret, Royal Highness hasn't visited the winner's circle since, but has acquitted herself admirably in the interim. She began 2006 with a second in the G1 Prix Ganay Apr. 30 at Longchamp and concluded her French campaign with a third in the G1 Prix Vermeille Sept. 10 at the same Paris track. In her final outing for trainer Pascal Bary, the bay finished third to English Channel in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Oct. 7 at Belmont. She adds Lasix in her first start for trainer Christophe Clement. "She's a very nice filly, but she hasn't won too often," Clement noted. "She's a typical stayer, so I'd say a mile and a half over good to soft ground would be ideal for her."

Cup Runneth Over...

Flip through Fasig-Tipton's November catalog and it quickly becomes clear that there is a lot riding on today's Breeders' Cup races, and not just for the owners and trainers of the contestants. The results of nearly every Breeders' Cup race today could have direct implications on the value of several horses in tomorrow's sale. The GI Juvenile finds the GII Sanford S. runner-up Teufflesberg taking on the best two-year-olds in the country, a day before his dam St. Michelle (Devil's Bag) enters the ring as hip 220. The GI Sprint favorite

Henny Hughes Adam Coglianesse

Henny Hughes will have a cheering section in hips 168 and 169. The latter is his half-sister by Housebuster, Our Donna; the former is Our Donna's Stephen Got Even weanling colt. Rose Colored Lady (Formal Dinner), cataloged as hip 192, is the dam of another Sprint hopeful in Too Much Bling (Rubiano). Miesque's Approval, 10-1 on the morning line in the GI Mile, has a half-sister, Magnificentapproval (Distant View), sell as hip 139. Healthy Addiction, a candidate in the GI Distaff, has two half-sisters sell: hip 16, the Arch filly Arch Lady; and hip 17, the sophomore Ashlee's Lady (Gilded Time). The gutsy English Channel plies his trade in the GI Turf. He is the first foal out of Belva (Theatrical {Ire}), aka hip 30 at Newtown Paddocks.

Even the big one, the GI Classic, could play a major roll in the sale results. Hip 170 is the 12-year-old Irish River (Fr) mare Paradise River. In addition to being a half-sister to champion Paradise Creek and two other Grade I winners, the bay is the dam of David Junior, a MG1SW who tries the dirt for the first time in the Classic. Lava Man's dam Li'l Ms. Leonard (Nostaglia's Star) is hip 126; his half-sister Jantastic (Geri) is hip 112. And, of course, there are three fillies competing in the Breeders' Cup who themselves are part of the November catalog. Whether Gorella (Fr) (Grape Tree Road {GB}) and Honey Ryder (Lasting Approval), who are the favorite and third choice in the GI Mile and GI Filly and Mare Turf, respectively, will actually sell remains to be seen, while the GI Distaff contender Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band) is one of several J. Paul Reddam horses that are set to go under the hammer at Newtown Paddocks.

'English' Patience Pays Off Big for Small Farm...

Ann McBrayer's Keene Ridge Farm sends just one broodmare to the ring at Fasig-Tipton, but she is a good one. Belva, an eight-year-old daughter of Theatrical (Ire) and a full to MGSW Hap and GISW Pharma, sells through the Keene Ridge consignment as hip 30 tomorrow, but first thing's first. This afternoon, Belva's first foal, English Channel, will look to add to his resume of three Grade I tallies when he takes on a competitive field in the Turf. "We'll be watching pretty closely," laughed Keene Ridge farm manager Charlie McKinlay. But regardless of whether he wins, the four-year-old English Channel has done plenty to recommend his young dam. English Channel was arguably the best sophomore grass horse in the country last year, winning the GIII Virginia Derby and running second in a pair of Grade I events. He has really asserted himself this year, however, with wins in the GI United Nations S., GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational S. and GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. Not bad for a horse that sold for $50,000 as a yearling. It might have been a bad story for Keene Ridge had they parted ways with Belva after selling English Channel for that amount at the 2003 Keeneland September sale. Keene Ridge had purchased Belva privately two years earlier after the unraced filly had RNA'd for $100,000 at the Keeneland November sale. In a deal brokered by Charlie Boden, Belva was sold to Keene Ridge carrying a Smart Strike colt: English Channel. "They were mostly attracted to her family," explained McKinlay, who joined Keene Ridge a few months after the purchase. "She's a full-sister to Hap and Pharma, out of a champion, and it looked like a good deal. They decided to take a shot." Belva initially paid only modest dividends for Keene Ridge when English Channel was knocked down to James Scatuorchio for what now looks like a huge bargain, but her second foal, a full to English Channel named Sedgefield, did better, selling for $100,000 as a weanling in 2004. Then English Channel started winning, and Belva's stock soared. At the Keeneland September sale two months ago, her daughter by Street Cry (Ire) was knocked down to John Ferguson for $750,000. Strike while the iron's hot, reasons McKinlay, and Keene Ridge has decided to offer Belva up at auction as well. "It's a tough decision to sell, but you very rarely catch lightning in a bottle, and when you do you have to take advantage of it," said McKinlay. "We're primarily a commercial farm." Keene Ridge won't be without ties to English Channel if Belva's surpasses her reserve, however. They plan to keep and race his weanling half-sister by Aldebaran. "She's a very nice filly," said McKinlay. "She took weaning in stride and is now just hanging out in the field." Remarkably, Keene Ridge, a 170-acre breeding and boarding operation with just 12 permanent broodmares, owns the dam of another Breeders' Cup starter, Honey Ryder's mother Cuando Quiere.

Sale or No Sale? The Question for Gorella, Honey Ryder...

Will they or won't they? Two of the country's top turf fillies, Gorella (Fr) (Grape Tree Road {Fr}) and Honey Ryder (Lasting Approval), have been cataloged for the Fasig-Tipton sale, but the owners of each have been open about having reservations. Parting with stars that have great potential as broodmares is tough, but it also stands to reason that both have a lot of racing left in them as well. And that's not to mention sentimental value. Of the two, however, Honey Ryder, owned by Glencrest Farm's John Greathouse in partnership, is the more likely to go under the hammer. "As of right now, we are planning to sell her," said Glencrest's David Greathouse, John's brother and a partner in Four Star Sales, which consigns the five-year-old. "She's coming into the Breeders' Cup great and, hopefully, she'll run well. That will help us decide what we do with her." Honey Ryder, cataloged as hip 100, has won 12 of 28 races, including two Grade 1s, for earnings of over $1.8 million. David Greathouse said the filly's competitive spirit is what makes her such a desirable horse, either as a racing or broodmare prospect. "Any horse that's been in eight races that have been decided by a half-length or less, and won them all, I don't think there's any question how much heart she has," he commented. "She's got a heart as big as her body." While Honey Ryder is probable, it looks increasingly unlikely that Gorella will go through the ring tomorrow. Owner Martin Schwartz said that he would leave his options open until the last minute, but indicated that he would probably retain ownership of the charismatic four-year-old.

ClassicStar Dispersal Features Big Names...

About four years ago, ClassicStar LLC jumped into the fray of Thoroughbred breeding in a big way. The Kentucky-based company secured premium broodmares, including the likes of Xtra Heat and Turko's Turn, dam of Horse of the Year Point Given. But legal problems that surfaced earlier this year when the IRS raided its Versailles office have forced ClassicStar to sell off the majority of its breeding and racing stock. In July, it was announced that Fasig-Tipton would handle the dispersal, with Taylor Made Sales Agency consigning. "It's a very, very nice group of horses with some sensational mares in the package, and we're thrilled to have them," said Fasig-Tipton's Boyd Browning Jr. While Xtra Heat and Turko's Turn, a late scratch, won't be offered, there are some fillies and mares that are sure to be popular with buyers. One of the highlights of the dispersal, the members of which are interspersed throughout the catalog, is hip 22, a full to champion racemare Ashado. In addition to being a sister to the world-record $9 million broodmare, Ballado's Halo (Saint Ballado) is a full to this year's GI Peter Pan S. winner and GI Belmont S. third Sunriver, as well as to stakes winner Saint Stephen.

Herself stakes-placed, Ballado's Halo sells in foal to Elusive Quality. Hip 64 is the mare Drina (Regal and Royal), whose three stakes winners include Spain, GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine and the one-time leading female money-earner. Hookedonthefeelin (Citidancer) sells as hip 102. In addition to being a Grade I winner, the 10-year-old's first foal is Pussycat Doll, twice a winner at racing's highest level. The smartly bred 10-year-old mare Song to Remember (Storm Cat) is the dam of this year's GI Garden City Breeders' Cup S. victress Magnificent Song. Here as hip 213, she is in foal to leading sire Distorted Humor. One of the last through the ring will be hip 250, the stakes winner Win's Fair Lady (Dehere). A full to MGSW Graeme Hall and a half to GISW Harmony Lodge and GSW Win McCool, she sold to ClassicStar for $2.2 million at last year's Keeneland November sale. It's a sale company's dream to have horses like these gracing its auction ring, but after lawsuits were leveled against ClassicStar in September, alleging improprieties in its mare lease programs, some wondered whether the status of the dispersal would be affected. Cont. p13

Fasig-Tipton officials, however, say they expect the dispersal to go off without a hitch. "We've been in very regular contact with representatives of ClassicStar, and they've kept us apprised of the situation they've been involved in," said Browning. "We've had confidence all along that the horses would be offered for sale in a straight-forward, professional manner. We're looking forward to Sunday and selling those horses for them."

State of the Market...

Many believe that the performance of bloodstock sales roughly corresponds to that of yearling sales, and with all the major yearling auctions in the books, there is both good and bad news for sellers, according to Fasig-Tipton's Boyd Browning Jr. "I anticipate a continuation of what we saw in the yearling sales," he commented. "There's going to be significant demand for quality offerings, and diminished interest in the less-than-desirable offerings. There's a very strong market for proven producers or for young mares on an early cover, or for horses coming off the race track with good records. The horses with very few holes will sell very well. But the market's going to be demanding. They're going to want very few question marks and they're going to want quality."

A son of champion Heavenly Prize, the Phipps homebred captured the GI Hollywood Derby at three and added the GI Manhattan H. as a four-year-old. During his five-year-old campaign in 2006, the bay ran second to Lava Man in the GI Pacific Classic and closed out his career with a pair of thirds, the GII Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Sept. 30 and the GIII Fayette S. at Keeneland Oct. 28. He is a full brother to GSW Pure Prize, a freshman sire this season who has already been represented by three stakes winners. "Good Reward is a multiple Grade I winner with triple Beyer speed on both dirt and turf, a millionaire, a son of Storm Cat and out of a great champion mare, and he's a full brother to one of the leading freshman sires of 2006," noted Robert Clay, owner of Three Chimneys. "What more could you ask for?" Good Reward heads to stud with a record of 26-5-2-7 and earnings of $1,087,687.

RMTC ADDRESSES FUTURE PLANS; RETAINS GALLAGHER AS CONSULTANT

During its meeting Nov. 2, in Louisville, Kentucky, the board of directors of the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) announced future plans regarding anabolic steroids and out-of-competition drug testing, and received an update on ongoing projects related to the development of withdrawal times for therapeutic medications. The RMTC also announced it has retained Jim Gallagher, who most recently was executive director of the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority, as a regulatory and security consultant. Following a presentation from a sub-committee on the predominately unrestricted use and lack of uniform testing protocols for anabolic steroids in U.S. horse racing, the RMTC reaffirmed its commitment to present recommendations to the industry on the regulation of these drugs in December at the University of Arizona Symposium on Racing. In light of the recently introduced confirmation test for the blood-doping agent Erythropoietin (EPO) by the University of Pennsylvania, the RMTC approved a proposed draft of a rule regarding out-of-competition drug testing that will be forwarded to the Model Rules Committee of the Association of Racing Commissioners International. RMTC Executive Director Dr. Scot Waterman and Dr. Rick Sams of the University of Florida reported that the RMTC will soon complete a pilot project on eight therapeutic medications: acepromazine, lidocaine, mepivacaine, pyrilamine, glycopyrrolate, butorphanol, methacarbamol and detomidine. The goal of the pilot project is to develop the necessary protocols for research into developing scientifically defensible withdrawal times that will begin later this year.

SAHARA HEAT (A.P. Indy), a $3.4 million KEESEP graduate, makes his debut for Darley Stable. The dark bay posted a five-furlong bullet in 1:00 at Belmont Oct. 19. He is the first foal to race from his GI-winning dam Sahara Gold (Seeking the Gold), herself a daughter of GI BC Sprint heroine Desert Stormer (Storm Cat). Trainer Todd Pletcher unveils JUSTIN RULES (Mr. Greeley) and RED GIANT (Giant's Causeway). The former sold for $525k earlier this year at EASMAY, while his stablemate brought $350k as a yearling at KEESEP.

VENETI (f, 3, Old Trieste--Quiet City, by Carson City) took her Gulfstream debut Feb. 5, then ran a dismal seventh against allowance company at Saratoga Aug. 21. She gave a better showing when stretched to one mile at Belmont, finishing fourth Sept. 21, and was backed at odds of 3-2 here. With Eibar Coa aboard, she set :24.30 and :47.77 fractions and dug in gamely in the stretch to defeat Dream to Dress (Theatrical {Ire}) by 3/4 of a length. The victress was a $33,000 KEESEP yearling and a $75,000 OBSMAR two-year-old. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-0, $49,434.

NJ Agriculture Department Expands Quarantine:

In an effort to curtail the spread of the equine herpes virus, the New Jersey Department of Agriculture's Division of Animal Health has expanded its quarantine to include the Mid-Atlantic Veterinary Clinic in Ringoes. The new quarantine was issued after a horse recovering from colic surgery at the clinic tested positive for EHV. The horse had been stabled at Monmouth Park, but was shipped out on Oct. 21, six days before the quarantine was imposed. An initial test for the disease was negative, but the horse underwent a second test earlier this week and that proved positive. Thirty-six horses which either came into contact with the horse at the clinic, or with those exposed at the clinic, have now been tested as well. "This case in Ringoes shows the vital importance of quarantines for diseases like equine herpes," said New Jersey Secretary of Agriculture Charles M. Kuperus. "Just one horse that left Monmouth Park before the quarantine was imposed there has now created the necessity for tests of 36 others. Multiply that by the more than 1,000 horses at the racetrack and you can see how diseases like this can spread exponentially unless quarantine measures are taken." All of the horses housed in the medical and surgical barns at Mid-Atlantic were moved, and the barns were cleaned and disinfected twice. With strict biosecurity measures now in place, the clinic will continue to treat patients.

The Tin Man Tunes Up for Citation:

The Tin Man (Affirmed), a multiple Grade I winner at the age of eight, breezed five-eighths in 1:01 at Hollywood yesterday and will likely make his next appearance in the GI Citation H. Nov. 24. After taking the GI Arlington Million, the bay was a game winner in the GI Clement Hirsch Turf Championship Sept. 30, but trainer Richard Mandella didn't like the way his charge emerged from that contest. "I backed off a little and he bounced back," he said. Another Mandella trainee, Boboman (Kingmambo), could be headed for the GI Hollywood Turf Cup. The five-year-old landed a 10-furlong Hollywood allowance Thursday. "I was very happy with that," Mandella said of the Wertheimer homebred, who covered his final quarter in :22.82.

4.10 Windsor, Hcp, £20,000, 3yo/up, 10f 7ydsT NARVIK (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}), one of three Godolphin sophomores in the final race of the British turf flat season, has to overcome a 410-day absence if he is to follow up on his debut win in a Newmarket maiden last September. Touted as a Derby contender after that defeat of stable companion Achill Bay (Ire), the colt from the family of dual group scorer Trumbaka (Ire) is joined by the similarly undefeated Rampallion (GB) (Daylami {Ire}), a half-brother to the 2002 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest winner May Ball (GB) who took a Newmarket handicap on his sole sophomore start in September.

Claimed out of Jean-Claude Rouget's yard after finishing second June 8 at Longchamp, Trip To The Moon became an unbeaten revelation in Spain, garnering victories at San Sebastian July 30 and Aug. 20, and at Madrid last time Oct. 15. Returning across the Pyrenees for this stakes bow, she swooped late to provide enthusiastic connections with a landmark success. Settled in a patient sixth behind the leaders, the winner made progress on the outside once into the stretch run and was driven out from the eighth pole to wrest victory from the gallant Samsa in the final strides.

Spycrawler was not handed an easy debut by Andre Fabre, but rewarded the esteemed trainer's faith with a stunning performance against experienced opposition. Breaking third from the gate, the 43-10 chance occupied fifth until urged closer rounding the home turn. He didn't shirk the issue when guided between rivals to go second inside the final quarter mile and went through the gears before powering beyond Fan Club (GB) (Zamindar) inside the last 100 meters for a highly impressive four-length score. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, €16,500.

AT THE RACES GOES DOWN UNDER

At The Races yesterday announced that they have signed an agreement with The Racing Network International (TRNI) to show daily Australian racing. The deal follows on the heels of a similar agreement regarding the coverage of American racing on the British channel, and means that Tuesday's G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup will be broadcast live. "The Australian Thoroughbred racing industry is rapidly gaining profile thanks to the international success such horses as Choisir and Take-over Target have enjoyed in recent times," ATR's Chief Executive Matthew Imi said. "This agreement demonstrates our increasingly strong relations with Australian racing, especially now that the advent of 48 hour declarations allows Sky Channel in Australia to broadcast UK racing on a weekly basis and the TABs to take bets."
