HALF OURS NOW ALL HIS

Despite the presence of some world-class broodmares, a horse of racing age topped the opening session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in Lexington, Kentucky. Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, on behalf of the equal partners Aaron and Marie Jones and Barry K. Schwartz, was the subject of an intense bidding war which boiled down to those two parties, as they attempted to dissolve their partnership. Sitting to the left of the podium and alongside his trainer Mike Hushion and advisor Buzz Chace, Schwartz matched Jones stride for stride as the bidding escalated through the $5-million level. It was with increased trepidation and more careful thought that the tote climbed and to $6 million after a bid from Schwartz, the former Calvin Klein executive and New York Racing Association chief executive. After a moment's pause and a brief consultation with his advisor, Frank Taylor of Taylor Made, Jones lodged the final and decisive bid of $6.1 million, as Schwartz bowed out with a shake of his head and a wave of his hands. Cont. p2

Half Ours Horsephotos

FEATHER IN HER 'CAP

On the track, few could catch Madcap Escapade (Hennessy). The dismayed competition usually struggled to keep pace as the daughter of Hennessy seemed always out of reach.

Buyers at yesterday's first session of the November Breeding Stock Sale could likely empathize. Many tried to land the five-year-old Grade I winner, but in the end no one could match the offer of Hill 'n' Dale's John Sikura, who signed the ticket for $6 million. It was the fifth-highest price for a broodmare in Keeneland November history, just behind the $6.1 million paid for Windsharp in 2003. "I thought she would make that kind of money," said Sikura afterwards. "I think she's a unique mare. Her dam has produced two Grade I winners, and she was a brilliant racemare. She's big and beautiful. It's a long-term investment." Cont. p2

INVASOR TO TARGET WORLD CUP

Shadwell Farm's Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes--Quendom {Arg}, by Interpretate {Arg}), winner of Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic, will remain in training and target the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai World Cup. The four-year-old, a champion in Uruguay, is unbeaten in four U.S. starts this year. Prior to his Classic victory, the bay won the GI Whitney H., GI Pimlico Special H. and GI Suburban H. The only loss of Invasor's career came at Nad al Sheba last spring when he ran fourth behind Discreet Cat in the G2 UAE Derby. The likely U.S. Horse of the Year will travel this week to Palm Meadows Training Center in Florida with the rest of trainer Kiaran McLaughlin's stable.

Classic winner Bernardini (A.P. Indy--Cara Rafaela, by Quiet American) and multiple Grade I winner Henny Hughes (Hennessy--Meadow Flyer, by Meadowlake) have been retired from racing and will take up stud duties at Darley near Lexington, Kentucky.

Bernardini, who won the GI Preakness S., GI Jim Dandy S., GI Travers S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup before a runner-up effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Saturday, will stand for $100,000. The Darley homebred retires with six wins from eight starts and earnings of $3,060,480. Henny Hughes won the GI King's Bishop S. and GI Vosburgh S. this term and was victorious in last year's GI Saratoga Special S. He was second in the 2005 renewals of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, GI Champagne S. and GI Hopeful S. and retires with six wins from 10 starts and earnings of $1,124,820. Henny Hughes will stand for $40,000. "These are the supreme Thoroughbreds of their generation and each bested older horses, too," said Darley's Dan Pride. "They are well-bred and exceptionally attractive. They were not only brilliant, but they came back for more time and again. We couldn't be more thrilled than to have the chance to stand them."

The Half Ours story begins on a September afternoon two years ago. A colt by Unbridled's Song out of the Storm Cat mare Zing strides onto the Keeneland stage and something of a bidding war ensues between Aaron Jones and Barry Schwartz. As the bidding climbs to

Half Ours Four Footed Fotos

$625,000, Schwartz opts out and the hammer falls, but, at the behest of his wife, a deal was later struck with Jones for 50 percent of the original hammer price and the colt is appropriately named Half Ours. Things could not have gotten off to a better start for the team, as the gray broke his maiden by 10 3/4 lengths at Keeneland at first asking and followed up with a 4 1/4 victory in the Three Chimneys Juvenile S. on the 2005 Derby undercard. Connections found themselves hoping they'd be making a return visit to Churchill 12 months later, but that trip never materialized, as the colt fractured a hind ankle and was taken out of training in February of this year. As the summer approached, the two parties agreed that they would dissolve their partnership, the result of a difference of opinion. Said Frank Taylor, "It was just one of those things where Mr. Jones, like he had with Forestry and all those other stallions, had managed them completely. Now that the partnership is settled, Mr. Jones can race him as he sees fit and stand him. There's a lot to making a stallion, and he's willing to step up and do the things to do that. But they split amicably." Schwartz said that the decision to put the horse through the ring was mutual. "Aaron is looking to do some estate planning and didn't want to have any partners going forward," he said. "We talked about it at Saratoga and decided to put him in the sale. I've known Aaron 30 years and he's a very fine gentleman."

The sale means a return to the track for Half Ours. "He'll go back to Todd Pletcher to resume training," Taylor said. "We're going to try and win a Grade I with him and then stand him. He's undefeated, and Todd thinks he's a real Grade I horse. He had a little problem early on soundness wise, but we think he's got real Grade I ability. Mr. Jones bought the mare [Half Ours' dam] for $3.6 million [at the 2005 November sale] and he owns the little brother [a $1.7 million November weanling last year], so he really believes in that family and is trying to make that family. The way Unbridled's Song is doing as a sire of sires, we hope he can be the next Forestry or Saint Ballado." Pletcher is tickled to have the colt back in his shedrow. "That's why I'm here today," the record-setting conditioner commented. "The horse has been training really well, and we think he's a special horse." Pletcher added that the colt, who most went five furlongs over the Belmont training track Oct. 30, is another three works away from a race. The final price was a record for a racing/stallion prospect at the November sale.

Hill 'n' Dales John Sikura said he purchased Madcap Escapade, a daughter of the Saratoga Six mare Sassy Pants, for Hill 'n' Dale. He said, "Hopefully, she's the next Silvery Swan," referring to the farm's top producer, the dam of Roman Ruler and El Corredor. The action was fast and furious as Madcap Escapade stepped into the ring as hip 173. Bids came from all around the sale pavilion as the price tag quickly soared well into seven figures. Sikura, sitting in his usual spot along an aisle way, proved most determined, however, and looked calm as he made the winning bid. Despite his demeanor, Sikura said that he was at his limit. "I wasn't sure we'd get her, though we were going to try really hard," he offered. "We were at the end of our rope. That was my last bid." Madcap Escapade was consigned by Claiborne Farm, agent for owner Bruce Lunsford.

Maddening Speed...

A $160,000 yearling purchase by Bruce Lunsford out of the 2002 Keeneland September Sale, Madcap Escapade put everyone on notice in her first start that she was a force to be reckoned with. Sent off at 16-1 in a Gulfstream maiden in January of 2004, she won by a facile 10 lengths for trainer Frank Brothers. Only once more in her career would she not be favored. After her maiden win, the strapping bay won the Old Hat S., GII Forward Gal S. and GI Ashland S. in succession. The 3-1 second choice in the GI Kentucky Oaks in her next start, she lost her unbeaten record that day when a game third to Ashado after setting a brutal pace. Sidelined that summer with a hairline fracture to her hip, she showed she hadn't lost a step at four, taking the GII Shirley Jones H. upon return in February of 2005. After annexing the GIII Madison S. in April, she suffered the only other defeat of her career when a tired fifth in the GI Humana Distaff before going out on top with a win in the GII Princess Rooney H. in July. Lunsford opted not sell at last year's Keeneland November Sale and instead put Madcap Escapade in foal to Pulpit this spring. During that span, her pedigree gained further luster when her half-sister, Dubai Escapade (Awesome Again), established herself as the premier sprint filly in the country with a trio of 2006 graded wins, including the GI Ballerina BC S. Cont. p4

The Breeding Ground for Success

The November Breeding Stock Sale continues through Sunday, November 19.
Sessions begin at 10:00a.m. daily.

Stars Align...Sort Of...

Many times, when a horse of Madcap Escapade's quality is offered at public sale, the result is tussle between Darley and Coolmore representatives. Neither camp went after Dubai Escapade yesterday, though, making her $6 million price tag all the more impressive. "I knew that Coolmore and Darley were not in the game, so when they're not bidding on a particular mare, I've got to think that's a pretty high price," said Lunsford. "Obviously, she had a lot of people looking at her, and there were a lot of people bidding on her." Asked if he was surprised that neither Coolmore nor Darley had shown interest, he said, "Well, she doesn't really fit either of their breeding programs. Darley already has her half-sister [Dubai Escapade], and she's a Grade I winner. And [Madcap Escapade's] not particularly good for Coolmore's stallion base, because so many of their stallions are Storm Cat line, and so is she, being by Hennessy." Lunsford said that parting with Madcap Escapade was tough, and credited those who had played a part in her career. "It's hard to let her go, but in the end, this is a business, and I'm a guy that likes to race--that's always been my priority," he said. "Claiborne did a tremendous job getting her ready. I thought she looked as good as any mare I've ever seen over here. I would have to think that the way she looked today, and the way she looked as a racemare, you'd have every reason to believe her yearlings will be special over here [at Keeneland]. I think you'll hear more from Madcap Escapade."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner.

OMISSION: Hip 206, Shining Energy (Rahy--Miss Universal {Ire}, by Lycius), a four-year-old racing or broodmare prospect from the Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency consignment, was purchased for $1.2 million by Amazing Corp. at Sunday's Fasig-Tipton November sale. She was inadvertently omitted from the toppers in yesterday's TDN. The chestnut filly has five wins to her credit, including the 2006 GI Gamely BC S. and the 2005 GII San Clemente H., and has earned $514,467.

Like Daughter, Like Mother...

During the Keeneland September sale, John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency ranked second among the leading consignors (more than 10 sold) by average at $203,117 for 89 horses sold and gross receipts of $18,077,500. Bidding on behalf of Hill 'n' Dale Farm, Sikura remained aggressive during yesterday's first session at Keeneland, going to $4.5 million for Sassy Pants (Saratoga Six). The bid came about three hours after Sikura signed the ticket for $6 million on Sassy Pants' Grade I-winning daughter Madcap Escapade. "We had a very good yearling sale this year," he commented. "We lost our best mare, Serena's Tune, this year, and we decided to be aggressive to try to replace any gaps we have in our program the best way we can and reinvest funds. The business is a continuum. When you have the opportunity to broaden your base and improve your quality, you have to keep moving forward, so that was the objective, really." So what attracted him to the mare? "She is an outstanding producer--the two-year-old looks like a good horse--and she's already the dam of two Grade I winners. She's in foal to Storm Cat. She's a late cover, but hopefully over time, she'll have several foals and, between the two mares, maybe one of them will make the difference." Gerry Dilger's Dromoland Farm consigned the 14-year-old mare on behalf of his long-time client Peter Blum, but deferred all comment to the Atlanta resident. "I want to give all the credit to Gerry, Bridie Harrison and all the team at Dromoland, who did a fantastic job getting her ready for the sale," Blum said, adding that it was those two individuals who were responsible for helping Blum acquire the mare. "You have to be happy with the price she brought. I thought she'd sell for a price in excess of $4 million. She is a heck of a mare and I would have been happy to take her home. I wish the buyers well. She's a great mare and if they get a foal as nice as the one from this year, they'll be very happy." Blum bred and intends to keep and race Sassy Pants' filly of 2006 by Giant's Causeway.

Lyons Land Their Mares...

Sitting in the far corner of the press box during Sunday's Fasig-Tipton sale, Summer Wind Farm's Frank Lyon Jr. bid $3.1 million for Kentucky Oaks winner Summerly, then watched as her price tag crept just beyond his reach to $3.3 million. Lyon looked over at the press corps and, with an affable smile, shrugged his shoulders, as if to say, 'Ah, I gave it my best shot.' Lyon and his wife Jane did purchase Ashado's full-sister Ballado's Halo for $1 million, but they were similarly thwarted on Hookedonthefeelin and Win's Fair Lady. Undeterred, the couple jumped back into the fray during yesterday's at Keeneland, and this time their perseverance paid off in the form of two top prospects. Leading their purchases was 2005 GI Spinster S. winner Pampered Princess (Indian Charlie), bought for $2.1 million from the draft of Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent. "We thought she was an absolutely gorgeous mare and you don't have the opportunity to buy a Grade I winner that often," Jane Lyon said. "We're very proud to have her join our broodmare band." Also heading to the Lyons' Georgetown, Kentucky farm is the four-year-old Runway Model (Petionville). The two-time Grade II heroine, third in the 2004 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, was knocked down for $2 million. "We're very happy to have this filly," said Jane Lyon. "She was absolutely a beautiful physical, she was a very good runner, and she's in foal to Storm Cat, so she really was the complete package." Runway Model also hailed from Taylor Made's consignment. Jane Lyon says that they are in the process of upgrading and injecting newer blood into their aging broodmare band. It is nonetheless a formidable group at Summer Wind, including Onaga, the dam of MGISW Aragorn (Ire); Fashion Star, dam of GISW Eddington; GSP Renaissance Lady, a daughter of Storm Beauty; and Fantastic Ways, the dam of MGSW Worldly Ways (GB), as well as GSWs Trial By Jury and Miss Fortunate. Asked if she feels this is a difficult time to engage in a renewal, Jane Lyon commented, "The timing is not particularly great, but there are so many nice horses available this year and sometimes you have to get them when they're available." Lyon also added that they are committed to racing GSW India (Hennessy) next year.

The 'View' From Here...

Bloodstock agent Lincoln Collins was busy Sunday at Fasig-Tipton, purchasing the broodmares Andujar and Win's Fair Lady for $2.5 million and $2.3 million, respectively. Collins was acting on behalf of Barnes and Noble founder Leonard Riggio, of My Meadowview Farm, who is looking to establish a small but select broodmare band in Kentucky. While neither of those mares has yet to produce foals of racing age--Andujar was bred for the first time earlier this year and Win's Fair Lady's oldest offspring is a yearling--Collins managed to add a proven commodity to Riggio's band yesterday with the acquisition of the 13-year-old mare Thorough Fair (Quiet American) for $1.55 million. The bay is the dam of Grade I stakes winner Whywhywhy and Grade II winner Spellbinder, as well as the top-priced weanling at yesterday's event, a colt by Giant's Causeway that went for $1.05 million. Collins purchased the colt for Riggio. "He was a racy foal, and Nick Zito liked him quite a lot," Collins commented. Zito trained My Meadowview's Noble Causeway. Speaking about the appeal of Thorough Fair, Collins said, "She's a multiple graded stakes producer, and we bought two yesterday that were unproven. This is a relatively young, proven mare." Both Thorough Fair and her foal, cataloged as hips 278 and 279, respectively, were consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent.

Two Horses, Two and a Half Mil...

Don Adam, the owner and operator of Courtlandt Farm, has been a familiar face at Keeneland over the past few years, and the 71-year-old was back at work yesterday, snatching up two seven-figure mares in the span of three horses. The chairman and CEO of First American Bank first went to $1.15 million for the eight-year-old mare Double Cat (Storm Cat). A half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner War Chant, G2 TNT July S. hero Ivan Denisovich (Ire) and MSW Ministers Wild Cat, Double Cat was herself a successful racemare. A winner in two of her three starts at three, she earned black type the following season, taking the Queen of the Green H. She added to her accomplishments by finishing a close third to Tates Creek in the GII San Gorgonio H. in 2003. Sold in foal to Unbridled's Song, Double Cat is also the dam of Regally Bred (A.P. Indy), a debut winner at Laurel Sept. 23.

A few minutes later, Adam was extended to $1.4 million for Dream Time. A four-year-old daughter of Storm Cat--Fantastic Find (Mr. Prospector), the dark bay is a full sister to MGISW Finder's Fee and is pregnant to A.P. Indy. It is also the family of GSW T. D. Vance (Rahy), who is currently in training with Graham Motion. "There's a lot to like about both of them," Adam commented. "[On Dream Time], we wanted to stay in the family with a young mare, that's what my interest was in her. On the other one, the page speaks for itself. It's a wonderful pedigree, but I'm really surprised that she didn't sell for significantly more than Dream Time." Over the past few years, Adam's aim has been to purchase broodmares and racing stock of the highest quality, and he wants to build a broodmare band of about 25 horses. Some of his recent acquisitions include Purrfectly (Storm Cat, $3.15 million), the dam of GSW & MGISP Santa Catarina; champion Gourmet Girl (Cee's Tizzy, $2.25 million); GI Kentucky Oaks winner Pike Place Dancer (Seattle Dancer, $1.65 million); MGSW Saudi Poetry (Storm Cat, $2 million); A.P. Adventure (A.P. Indy, $3.7 million); and the recently retired Film Maker (Dynaformer), runner-up in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Turf runner-up. Adam went to $1.15 million for Sweet Talker (Stormin Fever) at last year's November sale. She remains in training with Graham Motion. Courtlandt also bought the co-highest priced foal from last year's sale. He paid $1.7 million for a Storm Cat three-parts sister to GISW Forest Secrets. Adam was active Sunday night at Fasig-Tipton, as well, going to $750,000 for Ready's Gal, and he was also the underbidder on $2.8-million Vacare.

'Diva' Makes Doris' Day...

When Elusive Diva (Elusive Quality) was still a yearling, she was nearly sold by her breeders, John William and Doris Konecny, to a family friend. The friend objected to a minor vet issue, however, and decided not to buy. That was just fine with Doris, who was none too pleased that her husband wanted to sell the filly in the first place. "I was so delighted," laughed Doris Konecny. "I was so mad he wanted to sell her." It was a case of wife knows best, as it often turns out. The Konecnys went on to race Elusive Diva, who won the seven-furlong GIII Railbird S. in 1:21 1/5 in 2004 and placed in the GI La Brea S, GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks and GII A Gleam H. Moved to the lawn, she added the GIII Las Cienegas H. and GIII Sen. Ken Maddy H. to her resume. Elusive Diva was retired with a record of 17-6-3-4 and $485,510 in earnings, but she wasn't done providing thrills for the Konecnys, who campaigned her along with Allen Branch. With family and friends in tow, Doris Konecny was on hand yesterday to watch her star mare sell to Guy and Diane Snowden for $1.6 million. The five-year-old Elusive Diva was consigned by Three Chimneys Sales and sold in foal to Distorted Humor. The Snowdens were sitting just in front of the sales ring, about 10 rows ahead of the Konecny clan. "We thought she was just a very nice mare," said Diane Snowden. Doris Konecny said they went into the sale with realistic expectations and were thrilled with the results. "We came in thinking a million would be a fair price," she said. The Konecnys still own Elusive Diva's dam, the Taj Alriyadh mare Taj Aire, who is also the dam of stakes winners R. Baggio and Handyman Bill. "[Elusive Diva's] mother has produced nothing but winners, and we expect Elusive Diva to go on and do the same," said Doris Konecny. Taj Aire foaled a full-sister to Elusive Diva earlier this year and is currently in foal to Empire Maker.

Jackson Not Just About Mares...

While Jess Jackson has collected his fair share of broodmare prospects at the breeding stock sales, he showed he is not averse to going after the occasional foal, if it fits his plan. The Kendall-Jackson impresario yesterday went to $625,000 for a Taylor Made Sales-consigned daughter of Unbridled's Song--Pure Charm (Storm Cat). "We are looking for a good racing prospect and she could also be a broodmare prospect as well," Jackson explained. "She was the best filly in the sale. She had length, scope, balance and muscle. Everything." Jackson added, "The cross of Unbridled's Song over Storm Cat is important. The beauty of that is that we can outcross to In Reality line or breed to stallions like Afleet Alex or Ghostzapper down the line."

Strong First Day at Keeneland...

Spurred by a strong international buying presence, yesterday's opening session of the Keeneland November Sale grossed $83,795,000, with 164 horses sold for an average of $510,945 and a median of $297,500. "There was a lot of interest [yesterday], both domestic and international, including the Japanese, Australians and Saudi Arabians, even," said Geoffrey Russell. Keeneland's director of sales added, "It was nice to have a different flavor at the end, with the sale topper that was a horse of racing age, who, like the top-priced mares, began his career at Keeneland. As for Bruce Lunsford [who sold the top-priced mare, Madcap Escapade], he is a long and loyal customer of Keeneland. He bought her here, raced her here, and now sold her here. We're very pleased for Bruce and for [consignor] Claiborne, as well as for Mr. Jones for Half Ours." The top buyer on the day was John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Farm, which purchased six horses for $14,080,000, including Madcap Escapade, for $6 million, and her dam, Sassy Pants, for $4.5 million. Taylor Made Sales Agency was the leading consignor, with 54 head sold for $28,440,000.

A Dazzling Catalogue Update...

Last year's Keeneland November sale was bolstered greatly by the results of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, when the dam of Stevie Wonderboy, Heat Lightning, sold for $1.1 million at the very end of day four and, to a lesser extent, when a half-sister to the eventual champion made $600,000 on day 10. Friday's fifth day of the proceedings at Keeneland figure to get a bump when hip 1446, a Distorted Humor weanling half-sister to the record-setting Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}), goes under the hammer. The bay filly, produced by the Dixieland Band mare Bedazzle, is consigned by Calumet Farm, agent, and was purchased in utero for $180,000 during the opening session of last year's November sale.

26 Bank Audit B'mare prospect $600,000
 (5, Wild Rush--Mosquera, by Faraway Son)
 Consigned by Hinkle Farms, agent
 Purchased by Ian Banwell/St. George Farm

Robert Amendola claimed this mare for $65,000 as a three-year-old, and she went on to win four stakes, including the GII Distaff BC S. and GII Genuine Risk H., before ending her career with $567,934 in earnings. She more than matched that figure in her first post-race trip through the sales ring.

131 Irish Cherry Storm Cat $800,000
 (12, Irish Open--Eston, by Ancestral {Ire})
 Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent
 Purchased by Hill 'n' Dale Bloodstock

Irish Cherry, in foal to Wild Rush, was purchased for a moderate $80,000 at Fasig-Tipton in 2002, but it was the foal she had dropped earlier that year that would put her on the map. That filly, later named Spun Sugar, won the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. and was placed in three Grade I events at three; this year, she added victories in the GI Apple Blossom H. and GI Go for Wand S. and her bankroll stands at $929,171. Irish Cherry's Wild Rush colt was a $110K KEESEP yearling, her 2004 Awesome Again colt brought $375K last year at KEESEP and her 2005 Sky Mesa colt sold for $200K two months ago; that bodes well for the Storm Cat foal she carried into the ring here.

193 Moscow Burning Racing/b'mare prospect $1,000,000
 (6, Moscow Ballet--Burning Desire, by Mr. Leader)
 Consigned by Three Chimneys Sales, agent
 Purchased by Shadai Farm

A $25,000 claim at the Bay Meadows Fair in 2003, Moscow Burning went on to become a graded-stakes winner of $1,417,800, and proved nearly as valuable in the sales ring as on the racetrack.

The resulting foal brought $50,000 as a 2006 TEXMAR juvenile, but it was after her 2003 foal Wonder Lady Anne L. hit her best stride that the mare's stock really soared. Wonder Lady Anne L. captured the GII Demoiselle S. at two, prompting Ancho's owners to send her to Unbridled's Song. She went on to capture the GI Coaching Club American Oaks this term, making her dam a hot commodity at KEENOV.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 339, Belle Nuit, 16, Dr. Carter--Belle Noel, by Tom Rolfe

Consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, agent

Belle Nuit, a stakes winner and graded-stakes placed, with earnings of $162,893, got off to a good start at stud, producing MGSW Belle Cherie (Belong to Me) in 1996. More recently, she is the dam of Octave (Unbridled's Song), winner of the GII Adirondack Breeders' Cup S. and runner-up in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. She is in foal to Empire Maker.

Hip 350, Brooke's Halo, 4, Southern Halo--Salty Lady, by Salt Lake

Consigned by Four Star Sales, agent

A $40,000 purchase out of the OBS February Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale, Brooke's Halo earned that back and much more. The chestnut, a winner in four of her 10 career starts, upset the GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks last year and added a victory in the Las Madrinas H. at the Fairplex. Retired with earnings of $250,455, the Florida-bred carries a foal by Vindication.

Hip 365, c, Fusaichi Pegasus--Concentric, by Shadeed B-Shell Bloodstock (KY)

Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent

This Feb. 6 foal is a half-sister to Circle of Life (Belong to Me), herself the dam of Michael Tabor's Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch). Not only did that chestnut colt close with a rush to win the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga in September, but he also overcame a troubled trip to round out the exacta in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile on Saturday.

OMISSION: Hip 180, a colt by Medaglia d'Oro out of Rainbow Promise (Known Fact), was the second-highest priced weanling at the Fasig-Tipton November sale. He was inadvertently omitted from the toppers in yesterday's TDN. Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency and bred by Stanwyck Glen Farms, he sold for $300,000 to Epona Management.

Hip 386, Eventail, 9, Lear Fan--Felicita, by Rubiano
Consigned by Denali Stud (Craig and Holly Bandoroff), agent for Gallagher's Stud

A stakes winner of $300,000, Eventail was a rock-solid performer on the track, but is perhaps best known as the half-sister to the superb racemare Take Charge Lady (Dehere), a dual Grade I winner of over $2.4 million. Take Charge Lady sold for $4.2 million in foal to Seeking the Gold in 2004; that foal, a filly, went on to bring $3.2 million at this year's Keeneland September sale. Eventail is also a half to Commendation (Capote), a SW and MGSP earner of $260,000.

Hip 405, Golden Thatch, 19, Slew o'Gold--Free Port, by Thatch
Consigned by Paramount Sales, agent

A half-sister to the stakes-winning Pleasantly Free, Golden Thatch was also off to a good start at stud, dropping the outstanding California sprint filly, MGSW Raw Gold (Rahy), in 1993. She is also the dam of the talented two-year-old filly of this year Point Ashley (Point Given), winner of the GI Del Mar Debutante S. and runner-up in the GI Oak Leaf S. She is in foal to Leroidesanimaux (Brz).

Hip 449, Lemons Forever, 3, Lemon Drop Kid--Critikola (Arg), by Tough Critic

Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent

For the second year in a row, a Kentucky Oaks winner is being offered at the November sale. Purchased by Dallas Stewart for $140,000 at the 2004 Keeneland September sale, this attractive chestnut came to hand this year, finishing third in the GIII Bourbonette Breeders' Cup S. prior to her 47-1 upset on the first Friday in May. Also third in the GI Alabama S. in August, she was a respectable fifth in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff.

Hip 458, Love and Happiness, 13, Septieme Ciel--Eternal Snow (Ire), by African Sky (GB)

Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent

Love and Happiness pays a return visit to Keeneland after selling last year for $650,000. The dam of Happy Ticket (Anet), runner-up in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, she is carrying a foal by Unbridled's Song. Her weanling colt by Not For Love follows her into the ring.

Hip 467, Megans Bluff, 9, Pine Bluff--Cozzena, by Cozzene

Consigned by Gainesway, agent for Eldon Farm Equine LLC

A graded-stakes winner on both turf and dirt, Megans Bluff tallied a total of eight victories and bankrolled $743,263 before Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Luke's Eldon Farm Equine went to $900,000 for the mare carrying a filly by Mineshaft. She is the dam of a 2006 colt by Elusive Quality, which sells as hip 466. The mare is in foal to Unbridled's Song.

Hip 475, Miss Norman, 3, Artax--Cajun Cat, by Storm Cat

Consigned by Burleson Farms LLC, agent

From the family of champion Housebuster and GSW Quero Quero, Miss Norman showed enough precocity to finish runner-up in the 2005 running of the GI Matron S. at Belmont Park. The dark bay returned this year to be a good second in the GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn Park. She sells as a broodmare or racing prospect.

Hip 509, Rietondale, 4, Dynaformer--Aletta Maria, by Diesis (GB)

Consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, agent

From a wonderful Mill Ridge family, the dark bay mare is a half to MGISW Cetewayo, GSW and GISP Bowman Mill and SW Ntombi, as well as three other stakes-placed runners. She is a full sister to Dynaforce, a stakes winner in France since the catalogue. She sells in foal to dual Classic winner Afleet Alex.

Hip 520, Saree (GB), 5, Baratheia (Ire)--Shouk (GB), by Shirley Heights (GB)

Consigned by Denali Stud (Craig & Holly Bandoroff), agt

A Grade III-placed two-year-old, Saree is a half-sister to leading European three-year-old filly Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Winner of the G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Irish Oaks and also victorious in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks, the bay was most recently third in the G1 Prix de l'Opera on the Arc undercard Oct. 1 and has updated earnings of $1,215,364. The dam of a weanling colt by Giant's Causeway, Saree sells in foal to Kingmambo.

Hip 555, f, Forestry--Starry Ice, by Ice Age

B-Twin Hopes Farm (KY)

Consigned by Viking Stud Inc,

agent for Twin Hopes Farm (Helen T Andrews)

Dapple Bloodstock, acting as agent, signed the ticket on Starry Ice for $750,000 carrying a foal by Forestry at last year's Keeneland November sale. She produced a filly by the Taylor Made stallion Feb. 8, and the dark bay, a full sister to the talented GI Carter H. winner Forest Danger, gets her chance today.

Hip 573, f, Smarty Jones--Til Forbid, by Temperence Hill

B-Mueller Farms (KY)

Consigned by Bluegrass Thor. Services (J Stuart), agent for Mueller Farms Inc

From the first crop of the dual Classic and $7-million earner Smarty Jones, the chestnut is a half-sister to Jim Tafel's GSW Scoop, herself the dam of SW and MGSP Coolwind. Mueller Farms purchased Til Forbid for $550,000 at the 2001 Keeneland November sale.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

MULL OF KINTYRE TO ASHFORD Mull of Kintyre (Danzig--Retrospective, by Easy Goer), who has been standing at Coolmore in Ireland, will relocate to the group's Kentucky base of Ashford next season. The nine-year-old stallion, winner of the G2 Gimcrack S., is the sire of this year's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. winner Araafa (Ire). Out of a half sister to Broad Brush, Mull of Kintyre sold for $1-million as a Keeneland July yearling of 1998. "We're delighted that Mull of Kintyre will be joining the Ashford roster," commented Ashford's Director of Sales Aislin Duignan. "He has the pedigree, race record and looks to make a leading stallion and has already proven himself capable of siring a top runner. From a commercial point of view, he also gets very good-looking horses--I know Araafa sold for the equivalent of $300,000 as a yearling." Mull of Kintyre will stand for $10,000.

CROSTOWN RIVALS

Though their figures will eventually be eclipsed by Keeneland's sheer weight of numbers, the folks at Fasig-Tipton must be pretty satisfied with the first couple of days of trade at the November sales. It's been a long time since Fasig had more of anything than Keeneland, so the fact that their $64-million sale Sunday included more $2-million-plus horses (seven) than Keeneland's opening session yesterday (five) must have pleased them no end. They've been tinkering with the format of this sale for years, and it looks like they've finally got it right--and how. There's no doubt Fasig's $32-million jump in gross must have had some connection with Keeneland's opening-day decline of nearly $15 million.

For the first two days of the November sales, combining Fasig with Keeneland Monday, 332 horses sold, grossing $147,925,000 and averaging $442,889. The number sold and gross increased 14 percent each from the corresponding days last year and, incredibly, the average was almost exactly the same--actually dropping by just one percent. On the first two days last year, 292 horses sold for $130,304,000, and averaged $446,247. The big difference is that Fasig had 43 percent of that first two-day market this year, versus 25 percent last year.

We will actually have a much clearer picture when we tally up the first three days tomorrow. Last year, Tuesday's session averaged just about five percent more than Fasig's sale. Once today's session is in the books, we'll have a more accurate read on how the overall (three-day) top of the November market looks. So far (no surprise) it looks very strong for the good stuff, and maybe just about even or a little up on last year.

Barbaro Update

BARBARO'S CAST REMOVED

November 6, 2006 KENNETT SQUARE, PA-- Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro's right hind leg cast was removed today, according to his medical team. "Barbaro was placed under general anesthesia for the cast removal," said Dr. Dean W. Richardson, Chief of Surgery. "In addition, his foot was trimmed and a new shoe glued on. A padded bandage with plastic and fiberglass splints was placed on his lower limb for support." Barbaro's lower right hind leg had been in a cast since surgery at Penn's George D. Widener Hospital following his accident at the Preakness on May 20. "He had a perfect pool recovery and immediately stood; he walked easily back to his stall," said Dr. Richardson. "He used all of his legs quite well." Barbaro's left hind foot, which had laminitis, was also fully evaluated while he was under anesthesia. "There are no signs of new problems with that foot, but the hoof needs several more months of growth before we will know how much foot structure and function will be recovered," said Dr. Richardson.

Breeders' Cup Day certainly didn't go as well as Sheikh Mohammed no doubt hoped, what with Bernardini's defeat and the disappointing efforts of Echo of Light and Librettist (and of his son's Henny Hughes). But it certainly wasn't all bad news for the Maktoum family. The Darley stallion team had a splendid time, with the Juvenile success of Street Cry's son Street Sense soon being followed by the second Filly & Mare triumph by Ouija Board, a magnificent daughter of Cape Cross. Then there was Invasor' Classic triumph for Sheikh Hamdan, and the Juvenile Fillies success of Dreaming of Anna, whose sire, Rahy, is part-owned by Gainsborough Farm.

Street Sense's unexpected victory must have been particularly satisfying--and the ease of his victory must have revived pleasant memories of Street Cry's decisive 2002 victories in the Dubai World Cup and Stephen Foster H. Street Cry has now moved ahead of Johannesburg to lead the first-crop sires' table. He has certainly made a pleasing start, as he has also enjoyed group success with Big Timer in England and stakes success with Sweep's Cry in Canada.

Street Cry, of course, also contested the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, when he ran on to finish a creditable third behind Macho Uno and Point Given. His narrow defeats at the hands of Flame Thrower in the Del Mar Futurity and the Norfolk S. also represented high-class form, and he ended the year ranked fifth among the males on the Experimental Free Handicap.

Street Cry had every right to be a highly effective juvenile, as his sire Machiavellian had officially been rated the best European juvenile of 1989 by a margin of five pounds. And while his dam Helen Street will be best remembered for her win in the Irish Oaks, she too had been one of the leaders of her generation, in a truly remarkable vintage. To be precise, Helen Street ranked joint-third among the juvenile fillies of 1984, four pounds below the extraordinary Triptych and three pounds below the unbeaten Park Appeal (now best known as the dam of Cape Cross). Cont. p13

She was also rated the equal of Seven Springs, a dual Group 1 winner who became the dam of Distant View. One pound below Helen Street came Oh So Sharp, who went on to complete a classic treble at three, and Helen Street was rated two pounds superior to Al Bahathri and Coup de Folie. Al Bahathri went on to win the Irish 1000 Guineas and to produce the Classic-winning Haafhd, while Coup de Folie became the dam of none other than Machiavellian and another champion two-year-old in Coup de Genie.

Machiavellian ranked among the highest-priced stallions in Britain by the time he succumbed to laminitis at the age of 17 during the 2004 covering season (leaving a last crop of around 18 foals to race next year).

Although some would claim that Machiavellian should have achieved even more than he did, given the opportunities he received, the signs are that he has left an important legacy.

The third generation of Machiavellian's pedigree featured those famous half-sisters Cosmah and Natalma, so he wasn't unlike the great Danehill, with his two lines of Natalma in the third generation.

Danehill is proving an excellent sire of sires, with such as Redoute's Choice, Danehill Dancer and Dansili to his credit, and Machiavellian also appears to have a lot to offer in this area.

Several of his older sons, including Vettori, Almutawakel and Titus Livius, sired good winners at comparatively modest fees, and Machiavellian finally made a major breakthrough with his son Medicean. This Cheveley Park stallion has five group winners among his first 143 foals, including the Group 1 winners Nannina, Almerita and Dutch Art, and his fee continues to climb, to £30,000 in 2007. One fascinating aspect of Medicean's success is that a measure of it has come with daughters of Danehill.

Danehill's name also features in connection with Street Sense's female line, which traces to Lianga, a Dancer's Image mare who ranks as one of my all-time favorites. Until Street Sense came along, Lianga's best descendant had been Danehill Dancer, a great-grandson who ranked among the top two-year-olds of 1995, thanks to his Group 1 victories in the Phoenix and National S. Danehill Dancer has been doing so well as a stallion that his fee has now been raised from €75,000 to €115,000.

Lianga's grandson Mr. Greeley is also on the up-and-up, with his daughter Finsceal Beo likely to be named this year's champion juvenile filly in Europe.

Mr. Greeley's fee is also on the rise, to $60,000 for 2007.

Lianga first earned my admiration as a two-year-old in 1973, when she won her first four starts, including the Prix Robert Papin, a 5½-furlong contest which at that time carried Group 1 status. However, it was as a four-year-old that she developed into a true star, with a Timeform rating of 133 (an extremely high figure for a filly or mare). In a 10-race campaign, she defeated the males in the July Cup, Prix Jacques le Marois, Vernons Sprint Cup and Prix de l'Abbaye. Oddly, none of these races, which range from five furlongs to a mile, was then classed as a Group 1 event, but they are now. In winning all four in a single season Lianga showed not only unusual ability, but also rare versatility and toughness. Timeform's tribute to her was that she "battled her races out most genuinely and was in every respect an exceptional filly."

Unfortunately, Lianga proved an excellent example of a top-notch racemare failing to pass on her talent to her immediate offspring. From nine foals, she came up with only one stakes winner, in the French Provinces. But as often happens in these instances, some of Lianga's daughters have made ample amends. Her Caro filly Lettre d'Amour produced the Listed winner Swordsmith, plus the dam of Danehill Dancer, and her Seattle Slew filly Lacune produced the smart Italian colt Glen Jordan (sire of this year's Woodbine Mile winner Becrux).

Street Sense's third dam is Lianga's Reviewer filly Long Legend, who produced Mr. Greeley and the stakes-winning Majestic Legend. This tough daughter of His Majesty won on dirt and turf, but turf was her preferred surface, judging by her victory in a $100,000 stakes race over 1 1/8 miles at Fair Grounds.

Although Majestic Legend's only stakes winner, the miler Binalegend, was by the comparatively unfamiliar Binalong, she visited some very good stallions, such as Unbridled, Gone West and Dixieland Band, and it was the last-named who sired Street Sense's dam, the successful sprinter Bedazzle.

Dixieland Band also sired the dams of First Samurai, who finished third as favorite for last year's Juvenile, and of Cotton Blossom, third in the Juvenile Fillies. The question now is whether Street Sense can follow Monarchos as the second colt out of a Dixieland Band mare to win the Kentucky Derby. If he can reproduce the form he showed at Churchill Downs, he must have a great chance of ending the Juvenile/Kentucky Derby hoodoo.

ANDROMEDA'S HERO TO RICHLAND HILLS

Graded stakes winner Andromeda's Hero (Fusaichi Pegasus--Marozia, by Storm Bird) will stand at Richland Hills near Midway, Kentucky, at the conclusion of his racing career after Richland Hills president and co-

Andromeda's Hero Jim Lisa

owner Nathan Foax acquired breeding rights to the four-year-old from Robert LaPenta. Andromeda's Hero will continue to race for LaPenta. Second in last year's GI Belmont S., the chestnut won the 2005 GIII Fred Hooper H. This year, he ran third in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, GI Donn H. and GI Suburban H. To date, he has hit the board in 14 of 24 starts, with four victories and earnings of $831,241. Andromeda's Hero will be the first stallion to retire to the new Richland Hills facility, located on Old Frankfort Pike between Midway and Versailles.

"Andromeda's Hero is a very impressive individual with a beautiful pedigree that should appeal to most breeders," Fox said. "He has been an incredibly sound racehorse that has demonstrated his ability to compete at the very top level of competition at a variety of distances over the past three years and he should provide the much-needed elements of soundness and stamina to his foals."

1:37p TVG 3th-CDX, $50K, Alw, 2yo, 1 1/16m
AUTOBAHN GIRL (A.P. Indy) was runner up in a pair of Saratoga sprints, including a 1 3/4-length defeat by Imperial Reign Sept. 3. An easy seven-length winner going a mile at Belmont Oct. 1, the chestnut was nominated to the GIII Tempted S. at the Big A Oct. 27. NOLA STAR (Three Wonders) graduated by 16 1/2 lengths at Arlington Aug. 5, but couldn't carry that form over to graded stakes company for her next start. A tiring fifth in the GIII Arlington BC Lassie Sept. 10, the chestnut finished a respectable third after pressing the early pace--against the bias at Keeneland--in an allowance test over this trip Oct. 18. brisnet.com pps

CHEROKEE SPIRIT (Cherokee Run), a firster for Todd Pletcher, has been working steadily for this debut. Getting Lasix here, the colt should be ready to fire given that the Pletcher barn wins with 22 percent of its first-timers. SILVER EXPRESS (Unbridled's Song) was 1 3/4 lengths behind the talented Belgravia, a $2-million juvenile purchase, at Keeneland Oct. 18. A $300K KEESEP yearling purchase himself, the grey should improve second time around for trainer Nick Zito. brisnet.com pps

FALLON MAY QUIT Kieren Fallon has suggested that he may quit the saddle if his well-documented trial is delayed into the next flat season. Banned from riding in Britain as a result of the charges made against him this summer for conspiracy to defraud, Coolmore's retained rider has also found obstacles against him in the States and was forced to rule himself out of the Breeders' Cup meeting. On the eve of his ride on Yeats (Ire) in the G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup at Flemington, he told the Times newspaper that he would be forced to hang up his helmet if the trial did not take place as scheduled in January. "If I sound disillusioned, it's because this thing has hung over me too long and time is running out," Fallon said. "If I don't get it resolved before the start of the next flat season, that's me finished--I'll have to retire. I'm told we're looking at January now as the earliest time for a hearing. If it's not finished then, my team won't wait any longer--they can't, they'll need a jockey who is free to ride everywhere. And if the job went, I'd quit."
