BOWL GAME DIES

Greentree Stables' Bowl Game (Tom Rolfe--Around the Roses, by Round Table), the champion male turf horse of 1979 who was believed to be the oldest living

Eclipse Award winner, was euthanized due to the infirmities of old age yesterday at his farm in Paeonian Springs, Virginia, according to the farm's owner, Jonathan Miller. He was 32. Miller had cared for the retired champion on behalf of the Thoroughbred Retirement

Foundation for the past six years, and said that Bowl Game had experienced some trouble eating over the past week, but had been receiving intravenous nutrition and appeared bright and alert when he was turned out yesterday morning. "It was a beautiful, sunny day and he was out in the pasture and got two-thirds of the way up the hill, and just lay down," said Miller, who also serves as president of the TRF. "He was in some distress, and it was clear to us that the time had come." At five, Bowl Game won the GI Washington D. C. International and set a track record in the GI Turf Classic en route to his championship honors. The bay lived on Betsey Cushing Whitney's Greentree Farm in Manhasset, New York until her death in 1998. He was taken in by the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation at that time, and went to live at Miller's farm in January, 2001. "It was just a pure delight to go out every morning and be with him," said Miller. Bowl Game will be buried on the farm. A four-time Grade I winner for Hall of Fame trainer John Gaver Jr., he compiled a record of 23-11-6-5, earning $907,083.

OMISSION: Friday's TDN did not include the third-highest priced weanling during the Thursday session at Keeneland November. Hip 1227, a Tiger Ridge--Caught Ree colt named Mazel, sold for $280,000 to Southern Equine Stables from the consignment of Four Star Sales.

A LOT OF ACTION AT KEENELAND FRIDAY

Quad's Melody (Ire) (Spinning World), in foal to champion juvenile Action This Day (Kris S.), topped Friday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in Lexington. Bidding on behalf of European-based clients, bloodstock agent Cecil Seaman went to $450,000 for the talented racemare, sold as hip 1679. Consigned to the sale by Taylor Made Sales as agent, the dark bay, from the first crop of the '97 GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero, made an immediate splash at the races, scoring a debut maiden victory prior to a narrow win in the G3 Prix d'Aumale. The seven-year-old is also a half to three stakes winners, including Bonapartiste (Fr), a Grade II winner in the U.S. and multiple Group 3 placed in France. "I thought she was one of the prettiest mares in the sale today," said Seaman, who operates a company that evaluates horses on a biomechanical basis. "She was a stakes winner at two, she was beautiful and she measured exceptionally well." Seaman has been forced to pick and choose his spots. "[The market] is little bit softer [Friday] than it has been, but the good horses have sold very well. It's still a strong market," he said. Seaman indicated that his clients had not yet decided whether to keep or sell the foal she is carrying. Keeneland November cont. p2-3

Breaking Up Is Hard to Do...

Trainer Carl Nafzger, part of the ownership group of hip 1446, found himself holding his breath as bidding on the attractive bay filly crossed over the $800,000 mark. "I was getting a bit nervous," he admitted. Ultimately the bidding stopped at $850,000, a number "right on top" of the reserve, and Nafzger and his partners held onto the daughter of Distorted Humor, a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Street Sense. The decision to retain the Mar. 28 foal was owed to some developments in the days following the race. "We decided to keep her because we sold the broodmare," the conditioner commented. Nafzger and partners Randy Bloch, Bob Manfuso, John Seiler and Nafzger's wife Wanda struck a deal earlier this week to sell Bedazzle (Dixieland Band), in foal to Speightstown, to Sheikh Mohammed. Nafzger declined to disclose any further details of the deal. The partners purchased the mare for $180,000 at last year's November sale. "We really wanted to keep her, but we really didn't want to get out of line," he remarked. "Since we sold the mare, we figured we'd like to keep some of the family--that's why we bought her. We wanted a broodmare who would produce racehorses. We just got very fortunate and her first foal was Street Sense." Nafzger gave Randy Bloch's wife, Kathy, and his wife Wanda all the credit for encouraging the team to keep raising the RNA amount. The partnership is very much looking forward to the filly joining the barn of Ian Wilkes in 2008. "It was a deal, where, if we possibly could, we'd like to race the horse," Nafzger explained. "She looks a lot like Street Sense did at this time." Owner James Tafel, who sold Bedazzle last year, still retains a female connection to the family. He owns an Elusive Quality yearling half-sister to Street Sense that is currently in training at Ocala Stud in Florida.

Reiding Between the Lines...

Walnut Green's Mark Reid knows a thing or two about Medaglia d'Oro, whose first weanlings have proved popular during the opening week at Keeneland. The striking dark bay, who holds court at Richard and Audrey Haisfield's Stonewall Farm, caught Reid's eye when he was training with David Vance as a two-year-old. Following an allowance win at Oaklawn Park in February 2002, Reid made owner/breeders Albert and Joyce Bell an offer they couldn't refuse on behalf of Edmund Gann, then sent the colt to Bobby Frankel. A Grade I winner at three, four and five and runner-up in the G1 Dubai World Cup, the son of El Prado (Ire) retired to stud with earnings of $5,754,720. After getting outbid on a few of Medaglia d'Oro's offspring earlier in the sale, the bloodstock agent finally landed one yesterday, going to $220,000 for hip 1514. Consigned by Three Chimneys, agent, the bay colt was produced by Double Trick (Phone Trick), a stakes-placed winner of $220,790. Murayama Bloodstock paid $95,000 to acquire Double Trick carrying this foal in utero at last year's November sale. "He's a very typey-looking colt," Reid said of his purchase. "He's out of an old Maryland family. We loved him physically, he had good vet work and he's a big, strong physical horse like his daddy, so we're taking a shot." Medaglia d'Oro impressed Reid as a racehorse, and he gives the stallion a great shot to succeed in the breeding shed as well. "I think he's going to be good sire," Reid offered. "They're very popular. For a $40,000 stud fee, I think he's a pretty nice starting-out sire."

Lots to Laugh About...

Taylor Made Sales Agency, consignor of the top four mares Friday, also sent out the top-selling weanling. Hip 1705, a chestnut colt by Mr. Greeley--Saintly Hertfield (Saint Ballado), was hammered down for $330,000 to the bid of Wright Brothers Bloodstock. The colt's dam preceded her foal into the ring and was purchased by Its Like This Stable for $330,000. She is a half to Got the Last Laugh (Distorted Humor), dead-heat winner of the GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Futurity.

HAVE WE GONE CRAZ-E?

Stakes filly High Heels wins a MSW at Churchill to become E Dubai's eighth winner. He also has multiple Stakes winner Spark Of Dubai and (wait for it...) undefeated record-breaking multiple Stakes winner Barilko in his first crop. Yet E Dubai's fee remains $15,000. Why? Because we want breeders to profit from using him.

(5, All Gone--Star of My Eye, by Lucky North)
 Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent

 Backfield N Motion was purchased for just $4,000 as a OBSAUG yearling, before older sister Lady Tak became a MGISW of more than $1 million. She herself won two of her seven starts and earned $89,124 at the track. Bred to Sky Mesa after her retirement, she paid even bigger dividends with the return to the sales ring.

 Consigned by Elm Tree Farm LLC (Mr & Mrs Jody Huckabay), Agent IV
 Purchased by Stonewall Farm Family Broodmares
 Blazing Cat Tracks was picked up for $45,000 at the 2006 Keeneland January Sale and bred to Indian Charlie. That proved a prophetic move, as the filly's half-sister, Pampered Princess (Indian Charlie), went on to win the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. in October, making her a much more valuable commodity in her second sales appearance this year.

1473 f, Successful Appeal--Ceo Sis, by Unbridled $180,000

 Purchased by Stonestreet Stables, LLC
 Nursery Place, as agent, bought the dam in foal to Tiznow for a modest $35,000 at this venue two years ago. That produce was not offered for sale, but this one earned her owners a solid profit on the initial investment.

Nightmare Affair (Out of Place), third in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, will be pointed for a re-match with Sprint winner Thor's Echo in the Nov. 25 GI Frank J. DeFrancis Dash at Laurel Park. The winner of the GII Smile Sprint H., he returned to Calder Sunday. "He came back so nice and happy," trainer Manuel Azpurua said. "It doesn't look like he had a 17-hour van ride. He looks so good." Added owner Ron Borgese, "I would love to get a Grade I for him, so we're going to the DeFrancis Dash. People have been making inquiries about him as a stallion prospect--[a Grade I win] would surely help him. But the most important thing is that I want him to end up some place nice. He's a great horse and has been good to us. I want to be good to him."

VACATION FOR COTTON BLOSSOM Dogwood Stable's Cotton Blossom (Broken Vow) will get a two-month vacation following her third-place effort in last Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. The bay filly got a clean bill of health after a complete medical exam at Rood and Riddle Veterinary Clinic. "Cotton Blossom is absolutely sound and will now be brought to Aiken in the next few days," explained Dogwood President Cot Campbell. "We will turn her out daily and train her every other day, and then send her down to Florida to [trainer] Todd Pletcher around Jan. 15. She will be pointed for the seven-furlong $150,000 [GII] Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream Park on Mar. 10 and will move on from there to Keeneland and Churchill Downs--with the [GI] Ashland S. and [GI] Kentucky Oaks being prime targets." Cotton Blossom won the GII Schuylerville S. in her second start and was second in the GI Spinaway S. She was fourth in the GII Darley Alcibiades S. before her third-place effort in the Breeders' Cup. "We were proud of her effort in the Breeders' Cup race, especially since she took the overland route on a day that was playing fast on the rail," Campbell added. "She was only beaten 2 3/4 lengths for all the money and indicated to us that she will relish added distances in her three-year-old year." On the board in four of five juvenile outings, Cotton Blossom has earned $358,380. She will be trained in Aiken by longtime Dogwood farm trainer Ron Stevens.

GALILEO FILLY TOPS SGA NOVEMBER

YEARLINGS Societa Gestione Aste (SGA)'s November Sale began with keen trade throughout yesterday's yearling section, underpinning significant advances at the Settimo Milanese complex. Repeating last year's feat, leading consignor SARL was again responsible for the highest-priced lot when realising €62,000 for hip 63. Already named Saluggia (Ire), the May-foaled filly was Galileo (Ire)'s lone representative and went the way of Emilio Balzarini's Scuderia Siba. Champion trainer Alduino Botti, active throughout the session, secured the most expensive of his eight purchases with his first bidding foray. He went to €52,000, the day's second-highest price, to acquire hip 3, an Indian Ridge (Ire) filly from the SARL draft. With a slightly expanded catalogue, the aggregate broke through the seven-figure barrier for the first time and the €1,032,500 yield was a massive 41-percent jump on 2005. Of the 183 yearlings offered, 115 sold at an average €8,978, a near 23-percent increase on 2005. Selling resumes at 9:30 a.m. today, with foals, mares in foal, broodmare prospects and horses in training on offer. 14 JOCKEYS TO COMPETE IN JRA SERIES The Japan Racing Association has announced a list of 14 jockeys who will compete in the 20th World Super Jockeys Series, to be held Dec. 2 and 3 at Hanshin Racecourse. The jockeys will compete in four races over two days and prize money of ¥3,000,000 ($26,000) will be awarded to the winner. From the U.S., Edgar Prado will be making his fifth appearance in the series, while Javier Castellano will be making his first visit to Japan. France will be represented by Ioritz Mendizabal, Germany by Andreas Suborics, England by Ryan Moore and Hong Kong by Douglas Whytes. Australia will have two representatives in the series, Darren Beadman and Craig Williams. The host country will be represented by Yutaka Take, Yasunari Iwata, Shinji Fujita, Eiji Nakadate, Norihiro Yokoyama and Kusahiko Hamaguchi.

HONOR IN WAR CLEARED FOR EMIRATES STAKES Grade I winner Honor in War (Lord At War {Arg}), forced to withdraw from the Oct. 28 G1 Cox Plate because of concerns about higher-than-accepted levels of a steroid, has been cleared to run in Saturday's G1 Emirates S. at Flemington Racecourse in Melbourne. The seven-year-old will become the first American-trained horse to run in Australia's Spring Carnival. Since leaving quarantine on Oct. 28, Honor in War has been training at Flemington in the care of trainer Danny O'Brien. He is owned by a partnership that includes Will Wolford's 3rd Turn Stables, David Bernsen's Carondelet Farm, Australian-based Emerald Thoroughbreds and a group of Australian owners who have invested in the future stallion. Honor in War won the 2003 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. and was second in the 2003 and 2004 renewals of the GI Shadwell Turf Mile S. He was on the board in 22 of 36 U.S. outings, with 10 victories and earnings of $1,156,927 for trainer Paul McGee.
