HOIST THE FLAG!

Tradition dictates Henry Cecil's Warren Place standard be unfurled to herald each Group 1 success, but the flag had not been hoisted in over six years. However, the ceremony is in vogue once more after Juddmonte Farms' aptly named 15-1 chance Passage Of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) stepped up from a Listed win and justified the €15,000 supplementary fee with an impressive 3/4-length defeat of Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud yesterday. Not since Beat Hollow (GB) captured the G1 Grand Prix de Paris in 2000, also for Khalid Abdullah, had Cecil enjoyed the spotlight. The Newmarket handler has a winter of content before embarking on the Classic path towards the G1 Epsom Oaks or G1 Prix de Diane Hermes next year. "We've had a quiet time for the last few years and it's nice for the stable to be back on top," said Cecil. Cont. p2

ALL EYES ON KEENELAND

On a relatively quiet day of racing in the U.S., Eyes on Eddy (Touch Gold), a four-year-old racing or broodmare prospect consigned by John J Greely III (Wintergreen Farm), topped Sunday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, selling to Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC for $400,000. The bay won five of 20 career starts and has $331,542 in earnings. She captured stakes races at Gulfstream, Turfway and Arlington and also finished second in the GIII Indiana Breeders' Cup Oaks at Hoosier and the GIII Silverbulletday S. at Fair Grounds. Leading the way for the weanlings was a Forest Camp colt out of the unraced Forestry mare Glenarcy. Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent for Aaron and Marie Jones, the dark bay was picked up by Josham Farms Limited, agent for $205,000. He was bred in Kentucky by the Joneses. Sunday's session marked the halfway point of the 14-day sale. Gross sales, average and median prices are all up compared to last year's figures. "There's still a strong international presence and foals continue to sell well, particularly those by first crop sires," said Keeneland's Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell.

Improving off a debut fifth at Yarmouth July 18, Passage Of Time shed maiden status in a similar event at Newmarket's July course Aug. 12 before trouncing the opposition by more than five lengths in the Listed Montrose Fillies' S. at her local Rowley Mile track last time Oct. 28. Stretching out to 10 furlongs for the first time here, she found the trip well within her scope, exhibiting a smart turn of foot to record a career best in taking fashion. Allowed to find a rhythm in sixth as Spirit One (Fr) (Anabaa Blue {GB}) set solid fractions, Passage Of Time was not unduly hurried as the heat was turned up in early stretch. Last off the bridle, she squeezed between Empire Day and Red Rock Canyon (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) to challenge approaching the final furlong and unleashed a power-packed finish to sweep by Soldier Of Fortune inside the last 150 meters for the score. "I kicked for home quite early at Newmarket last time, but I was delighted to see her quicken from off the pace like that," enthused winning rider Richard Hughes. "I am convinced she will be a very nice filly for the Oaks next year." The success saw owner Khalid Abdullah extend his lead in the French owners' table, and trainer Henry Cecil was more than happy to be of assistance in that regard. "I'm very pleased for the Prince [Khalid], as the win will certainly help him become leading owner [in France], which he fully deserves to be," Cecil said. As for the future of the winner, he added, "Passage Of Time should make a lovely three-year-old, but whether she goes for the Diane or Oaks time will tell. In fact, she will tell us." Hello Pretty stamped himself a leading candidate for the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 10 with this convincing victory. Successful in the Hong Kong Derby Trial in early March, the chestnut was fifth behind Viva Pataca in the four-year-old Classic three weeks later and closed the racing season with a fourth in a Class 1 handicap May 13. He resurfaced to take a similar event over 1800 meters Oct. 15 and was in receipt of five pounds from the Derby winner in this event. Settled just off a moderate early pace, Hello Pretty was taken to the outside for a clear run on the turn. He struck the front in upper stretch and drifted a bit late, but was always holding Saturn in the run to the wire. "I was confident about him staying the distance and I felt he had come on from his first up run," winning trainer Tony Cruz said. "He has proved that he is worthy of his place in the Hong Kong Cup and I think there is more improvement to come." Viva Pataca sat a wide trip, but couldn't summon the necessary late kick and was an even third. For a replay, click broadband or modem.

GOFFS NOVEMBER GETS UNDERWAY Goffs' seven-day November Foal and Breeding Stock Sale gets underway at the company's Kill complex today, with 1,137 catalogued foals taking centre stage during the first five sessions as pinhookers look for next term's source of potential profit. Last season's topper was a Montjeu (Ire) colt that reached €300,000, but the star buy proved to be Airlie Stud's Danetime (Ire) colt, which sold for €66,000 and subsequently realised €525,000 at the Million Sale, a near 700-percent profit on Meadowlands Stud's initial outlay. "I would say the Goffs Foal Sale is primarily a pinhooker's sale, and there have been some amazing returns for those who have bought foals," Goffs' Nick Nugent told Racing Post. "The vast majority will sell for less than €100,000, and we don't expect to have lots of very expensive foals, but we do expect lots of competition for those worthy of it." Quality increases as the week progresses and likely stars will be to the fore Thursday and Friday. Goffs November graduates that have made an impact this term include Alexander Goldrun (Ire) and Red Evie (Ire). Following on from SGA's more subdued November Mixed sale, the sale represents the first significant opportunity to purchase progeny of first-crop sires. Those with representatives include Elusive City, Exceed and Excel (Aus), Falbrav (Ire), Haafhd (GB), Indian Haven (GB), One Cool Cat, Refuse To Bend (Ire) and Sulamani (Ire). The broodmares and fillies sale takes over Saturday, featuring the usual drafts consigned by His Highness The Aga Khan's Studs, Moyglare Stud, Darley, Juddmonte and Derrinstown Stud. Indeed, it was the former that secured the highest overall price at last year's sale when Darshaan (GB)'s half-sister Dalara (Ire) was sold to Barronstown Stud for €1,000,000. The Aga Khan's 31-strong draft this year includes 1997 G1 Prix de Diane Hermes victress Vereva (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), offered as Hip 1283 and believed in foal to Linamix (Fr), as well as broodmare prospects Veyana (Fr) (Hip 1563) and Carakiysa (Ire). The latter, offered as Hip 1287, is a half to Godolphin's recent G1 Prix de la Foret winner Caradak (Ire). Selling starts at 11 a.m. today, tomorrow and Wednesday, with a 12 noon start slated for Thursday and Friday. The weekend sessions commence at 9:30 a.m. Full catalogue, withdrawals and updates can be viewed at www.goffs.com.

MIDDLE MARKET STRENGTH

The November sales so far have been the tale of two markets--strong, and stronger. The market's top tier has been plenty strong, but the second tier--what we usually refer to as the middle market--has been going bananas. For the purposes of today's discussion, I'm defining the top tier as the first four days of the two sales--Fasig Sunday and Keeneland Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Book 1 and the first day of Book 2. I'm calling the second tier Thursday, the second day of Book 2, plus Book 3--Friday and Saturday.

Here's what's been happening: Fasig's market share of the first four days combined rose from 14 percent in 2005 to 25 percent, which is exactly what it should be if it's going to be counted as one of the November sales period's best four days. At the risk of sounding for a moment like American football announcer John Madden, it's 25 percent of the days, it should be 25 percent of the gross; and that's what it is, 25 percent. If you look at the accompanying graph, you'll see that 786 horses sold during this year's first four days, grossing $258,482,000 and averaging $328,857. For the comparable four days last year, 747 horses sold for $232,185,000, averaging $310,824. For the four days combined, the number sold was up 5 percent, the gross up 11 percent and the average up 6 percent; however, because of the surge at Fasig-Tipton resulting in their increased market share, Keeneland's first three days were actually down 3 percent in number sold and gross, while the average for their first three days was up by less than a percent. But the fairest way to assess it is that the four-day combined market was up between 5-10 percent.

Because fewer horses were catalogued and sold at Fasig and in Keeneland's Book 1, the number sold in the next three days was actually almost exactly equal to the number sold in the first four. Between the second day of Book 2 and Book 3 (Thu/Fri/Sat), Keeneland sold 791 horses, which grossed $74,697,500, and averaged $94,434. The number sold was up 5 percent on the corresponding days last year--the same increase in number sold as on the first four days. But the gross and average shot up, with gains of 29 percent in gross (from $57,837,700) and 23 percent in average (from $76,708).

The first seven days combined (Fasig plus Keeneland's first three books) were up $43 million in gross (from $290 million to $333 million). The first four days (top tier) account for 78 percent of the combined gross, the next three days (second tier) account for 22 percent. But, of the increase in gross, the top tier accounted for 60 percent, the second tier 40 percent, so the second tier outperformed the top tier in that respect. Second-tier horses only average about 30 percent of what top-tier horses do, but their percentage price increases were in the 20s, whereas top-tier horses increased by under 10.

Kentucky's first seven days of mixed sales saw 1,577 horses sell for $333,179,500, an average of $211,274. Those figures represent gains on last year's corresponding days of 5 percent in number sold, 15 percent in gross, and 9 percent in average. With Goffs' November Mixed Sale coming up this week, followed by what's described as a 'blockbuster' Tattersalls December catalogue later this month (it goes for almost two weeks), a third consecutive record year at the major North American and European sales which we regularly follow for this column is assured. Last year, at the major yearling and mixed sales we covered, after the first week of Kentucky's mixed sales, a total of 9,079 horses had sold for just over $1 billion--the precise figure was $1,034,980,025--and averaged $113,997. In the corresponding sales this year, 9,283 horses (+ 2 percent) have sold, for a total of $1,141,940,550 (+ 10 percent) and an average of $123,014 (+ 8 percent). In 2004, the major sales we covered topped the $1-billion mark, at the end of Tattersalls December Sale, for only the second time in history (the first was 2000); in 2005, the corresponding sales (including Goffs' November Sales, which we're now including) grossed over $1.2 billion. This year, with a week to go in Kentucky, plus over 3,000 horses catalogued in Europe, the total has already reached $1.15 billion. If only things were this healthy in the racing end of the business.

May Day Vow made short work of rivals, winning by 3 1/4 lengths in a 6 1/2-furlong allowance at Saratoga Aug. 21 and making it two straight at Belmont Sept. 27. On the engine early in her stakes bow, the bay held a narrow advantage throughout and drew clear late to post the victory. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Overlooked at 13-1 to get back on track here, the $250,000 KEESEP yearling went right to the front, had seven lengths on the field at midstretch and easily held off Regal Officer (Officer) for a 3 1/4-length score. HIGH AGAIN (f, 2, High Yield--Miss Belle O {SP}, by Olympio) switched to the turf after finishing a distant third on the Belmont main track Sept. 10, closing some ground late to be a solid fourth Oct. 5. Bet down to 7-2 with the return to the dirt, the chestnut filly was pressured through a half in :47.34, but took charge down the lane, holding 19-10 chalk Smart Surprise (Smart Strike) at bay for a 3 1/2-length triumph. The winner was a $140,000 FTKJUL yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-1, $35,350.

HALF TIME CROWN (f, 2, Gilded Time--Half Crown, by Key to the Mint) opened up her career with a pair of respectable, if not sparkling, starts sprinting on the turf. Fifth at the Spa Aug. 23, the $67,000 OBSAPR juvenile and $10,000 KEESEP yearling came home seventh at Belmont Sept. 20. Sent off at 6-1 while trying the dirt, the bay stumbled at the start, but recovered quickly to settle behind early leader Ashley's Crown (Danzig). With that rival squarely in her sights turning for home, the filly inched clear to score by a half length at the wire. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $27,382.

Settled close to the early pace, the grey took on leader Psychotic Colors (Freud) in the stretch, but failed to sustain that bid and weakened late. Second by 1 1/2 lengths at the wire, the filly was moved up to the winner's spot following the disqualification of her rival. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $26,650. O/B-Camelia J Casby (NY). The Stonestreet Stables colorbearer was bumped at the break, but recovered to set fast fractions of :21.83 and :45.07. Buffalo Man won his first two, including a 2 1/2-length victory sprinting at Monmouth Park Aug. 17. A close-up third in the GIII Sapling S. over that track Sept. 4, the bay was a well-beaten eighth in the mile GI Champagne S. at Belmont Oct. 14. Well supported in this easier spot, the Canadian-bred stalked the early pace, moved up to take command at the quarter pole and drew off to win with authority.

Smitty's Sunshine showed speed, but wilted to fifth while trying a mile on the turf in the El Raspberry S. against state-bred foes July 14, and used the same strategy to finish third in the six-panel Victoria S. Aug. 19. On the shelf for almost two months, the bay returned with a professional victory going a mile on the sod in $35,000 optional-claiming company Oct. 7. Away quickly, the Louisiana-bred filly took over after a quarter in :22.16 and was ridden hard to hold on for the win. Favored Nicole's Dream, who will be retired after this race, forced the early pace and held on for third.

Citronnade followed a nine-length maiden tally at Woodbine in June with a front-running neck victory in Belmont allowance company in July. The runner-up in an off-the-turf allowance at Saratoga Aug. 20, she was given a try on the turf for the Sept. 21 Graceful Darby S. back on Long Island and rallied to win it by a neck. The bay was 10-1 for her latest, the Oct. 14 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland, and showed little, finishing ninth. Taking on a softer field after shipping to the West Coast, she settled in the middle of the pack off a pedestrian pace. Jockey David Flores put her to a drive at the top of the lane and Citronnade responded, outgaming Zoemeg for the score.
