DREAMING AT KEENELAND

Dreamingatdaybreak, a six-year-old by Grand Slam, realized a final bid of $200,000 to top the eighth session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in Lexington, Kentucky. Consigned by Craig and Holly Bandoroff's Denali Stud, which was representing the

Hip 2698, from the family of Sacahuista Horsephotos

Crystal Spring Dispersal, the dark bay was purchased by agent Ron Gilbert, acting on behalf of the partnership of C. R. Trout and Reata Thoroughbred Farm. The unraced mare is out of stakes winner Far Flying (Far North), runner up in the Gill Affectionately H. and Gill Next Move H., and third in the GI Mother Goose S. Far Flying, who earned $278,226 in three seasons on the track, is a half sister to champion three-year-old filly and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Sacahuista and Grade I winner John's Treasure. In foal to Successful Appeal, Dreamingatdaybreak, who was a $535,000 KEENOV weanling purchase in 2000, is a half-sister to graded stakes winner Dalhart (Forty Niner) and Garimpeiro (Mr. Prospector), dam of GISW Geri and graded stakes second-place finishers A.P. Arrow (A.P. Indy) and Stage Shy (Theatrical {Ire}). Heading the weanling offerings yesterday, hip 2829 was purchased by Pat Garvey for $180,000 from the Four Star Sales consignment. A Mar. 19 foal, the filly is out of Gill Debutante S. winner Move (Forty Niner), who sold in foal to this filly for $37,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale. Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale surpassed last year's sale gross on Monday, when totals for the eight days of selling reached $290,807,400. Gross sales for the 14-day auction in 2005 totaled $289,602,900. "We are very happy to establish such a mark with six more days yet to go," said Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales. "Today there was a strong presence of South American and South Korean buyers. The middle market just continues to roll on." Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale runs through Sunday, November 19. Sessions begin at 10:00 a.m. each day.

NEEDWOOD BLADE COLT TOPS FIRST SESSION Goffs' November Sale kicked off the first of five days of foals sessions yesterday, with proceedings headed by hip 168, a colt from the first crop of the group- and graded-stakes-winning sprinter Needwood Blade (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). From the draft of Nafferty Stud, the Feb. 26 foal is from the family of the 2003 G2 July S. winner Nevisian Lad (GB) and was knocked down to Paddy Cummins' Prosperous Stud for €31,000. That followed on the heels of Nafferty's selling of the session's joint top-priced fillies by Danetime (Ire), the sire of this year's Group 1 place-getters Vital Equine (Ire) and Dhanyata (Ire). Hip 165, a brown filly produced by the Green Desert mare Shining Desert (Ire), was knocked down to bloodstock agent Bobby O'Ryan for €24,000, while hip 146, out of Rose Vibert (GB) (Caerleon), was purchased by Michael Morrin's Pier House Stud. Selling continues at 11 a.m. today. Full results can be viewed online at www.goffs.com.

The truth of the saying that nature abhors a vacuum is constantly underlined in the Thoroughbred industry. As the great stallions age and fade away, a new wave invariably comes through to take their place. This is being amply demonstrated at the moment in Britain and Ireland, where several sons of famous stallions are rapidly scaling the heights.

Of course Sadler's Wells--soon to be 26--is still a major force, but he is rapidly being overhauled by his sons Galileo and Montjeu. Galileo's fee has risen from €37,500 to €150,000 (equivalent to $192,000), while Montjeu maintains his fee of €125,000 ($160,000). Other significant rises concern two of Cheveley Park Stud's stallions. Medicean, a son of the deceased Machiavellian, has had his fee raised from

Passage of Time

£17,500 to £30,000 ($57,000) and Pivotal, a grandson of the great Nureyev, is now priced at £85,000 ($162,000), from £65,000. Two sons of the much-missed Danehill are also on the up-and-up. Danehill Dancer, whose fee was as low as IR4,000gns as recently as 2001, is priced at €115,000 ($148,000) for the 2007 season, whereas Dansili's fee has been raised to £30,000 ($57,000) from £12,500.

'the switch to polytrack'

"There's no doubt that the switch to polytrack will have a big impact on American racing and early indications are that turf pedigrees will thrive on it. Powerscourt has every chance of making a successful sire as he's a Grade One winner in America and is a top-class son of Sadler's Wells. He represents great value for breeders, just as El Prado did when he retired to stud." BILL OPPENHEIM

The hike in Dansili's fee reflects his considerable achievements during the current year. When his daughter Passage of Time defeated the colts in the Criterium de Saint-Cloud two days ago, she became the third of Dansili's progeny to pass the post first in a Group 1 race in France in 2006, following Price Tag (French 1000 Guineas) and Rail Link (Grand Prix de Paris and the Arc). Although the stewards demoted Price Tag to third, Dansili looks assured of finishing champion sire in France--an honor taken by Danehill in 2001 and 2002.

The 10-year-old son of that extraordinary mare Hasili has also flourished in Britain and Ireland, where he ranks fifth by number of winners, with a similar percentage to Danehill and Danehill Dancer. His tally of 11 stakes winners places him seventh among the sires of European stakes winners, ahead of Montjeu, Galileo and Pivotal, his biggest British earner being Strategic Prince.

This very talented juvenile followed up a pair of Group 2 victories with a solid third behind Teofilo and Holy Roman Emperor in the G1 Dewhurst S. Dansili has another group-winning two-year-old in Thousand Words, even though juvenile prowess isn't generally what the Hasili clan has been famous for.

Hasili herself showed surprising precocity for a daughter of the Derby-winning Kahyasi, winning four of her eight starts in the French provinces. However, Dansili made only one appearance at two (which he won), and so did his outstanding sister Banks Hill and their younger brother Champs Elysee. Hasili's excellent Green Desert filly Heat Haze didn't race until she was three and neither did Cacique, the fourth of Hasili's five foals by Danehill. The exception to the rule was Intercontinental, who won her first two starts before tackling the colts in the Grand Criterium. Her refusal to settle in the first half of this G1 contest possibly cost her victory, as she was beaten only two half-lengths into third.

Intercontinental Horsephotos

Mention of these illustrious siblings helps explain why Dansili's fortunes have been on the rise this year. When he retired to Banstead Manor Stud for the 2001 season, his fee was set no higher than £8,000, as he had failed to win a Group 1 race during his 14-race career. There was no doubt, though, that he possessed more talent than many a Group 1 winner, as he had run Giant's Causeway to 3/4 lengths in the Sussex S. and he had looked distinctly unlucky when a narrowly-beaten third in War Chant's Breeders' Cup Mile.

By the time he stood his second season in 2002, his sister Banks Hill had won the Coronation S. and the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf. This resulted in his fee rising to £10,000, at which he sired a crop of 126 foals.

Banks Hill horse-races.net

There had been another distinct surge in the family fortunes by the time his third season came around: Banks Hill had won the Prix Jacques le Marois; Heat Haze had finished fifth in the French 1000 Guineas; and Intercontinental had already begun to shine. This prompted another rise in fee, this time to £12,500. While the third-season mares were probably the best Dansili had received, there were fewer of them and the group winners Passage of Time, Strategic Prince and Thousand Words, together with the Group 1 placed Supposition, come from a crop of 68.

Dansili's fourth crop--as is often the case--is his smallest so far, but his promising results with his first two-year-olds in 2004 ensured that he was much busier in 2005, when he attracted more than 130 mares. He again covered a three-figure book this year.

One striking aspect of Dansili's career to date is that he has sired the group winners Passage of Time, Rail Link, Price Tag, Thousand Words and Early March from mares which did not win at stakes level, and the same applies to his Listed winners Don't Dili Dali, High Heel Sneakers, Quenched and Silver Touch. Imagine what he is likely to achieve with the type of mare that his new fee will bring him.

Dansili's family history suggests that his progeny will generally improve from two to three. This bodes well for Passage of Time, as do the subsequent records of the other female winners of the Criterium de Saint-Cloud. Escaline, the 1982 winner, went on to take the Prix de Diane, whereas Goldamix and Paita, winners in 1999 and 2004, were both third in the Diane.

The Breeding Ground for Success

The November Breeding Stock Sale continues through Sunday, November 19.
Sessions begin at 10:00 a.m. daily.

Passage of Time is the third foal, and second talented winner, out of Clepsydra, a minor mile-and-a-half winner by Sadler's Wells. Clepsydra is one of 34 representatives of the Sadler's Wells--Blushing Groom cross, none of which won a group race. However, Clepsydra is the second mare bred this way to have produced a stakes winner, following Balaabel, dam of the Group 2-winning Darshaan filly Sayedah.

Passage of Time's second dam, Quandary, became one of the last stakes winners by the exceptional Blushing Groom when she easily won the James Seymour S. over 1¼ miles for Henry Cecil in 1995. Although she was talented, Quandary's main distinction was that she was a half-sister to the top-class racemare All At Sea (Prix du Moulin and second in the Oaks). Juddmonte also enjoyed group success this year with Stronghold, an impressive-looking son of Danehill and All At Sea's daughter Insinuate.

Quandary is also a half-sister to Quack A Doodledoo, the second dam of the champion American filly Banshee Breeze. The CCA Oaks figured among Banshee Breeze's five Grade I successes and it could be that this family, which also produced the outstanding Damascus, will enjoy further Oaks success with Passage of Time.

CORRECTION: In the table accompanying Bill Oppenheim's column in Monday's TDN analyzing the first seven days of Kentucky's November sales, the wrong average was transposed from one column to another. The first four days' sales average for 2006 was $328,857, not $211,274, which indicates the average for days one to seven. We regret the error.

CHARLES HESSE III PASSES AWAY Owner and breeder Charles Hesse III passed away yesterday after a brief illness. He was 71. The New Jersey native was introduced to racing by his father, Charles Hesse Jr., who owned the construction company that built the original racing strip at Monmouth Park in 1945. The elder Hesse joined the ranks of Thoroughbred owners in

Charles & Marianne Hesse

1952, but it would be another 20 years before the son followed suit. Hesse purchased his first horse, Southern Special, as a birthday present for his wife Marianne in 1972. While the mare earned just $11,525 and won only once, she became the foundation of their breeding operation. She is the third dam of Park Avenue Ball, who carried the silks of Hesse's Char-Mari Stables to victory in the GII Futurity S., GIII Philip H. Iselin BC S. and GIII Long Branch BC S., and was also third in the GI Haskell Invitational H. The four-year-old's earnings stand at $946,600. The stable also campaigned C.J.'s Boy, who won the first stakes race run at Monmouth after Hesse, then in charge of the construction business, rebuilt the track surface in 1978, taking the 1979 Brookdale H. One of Char-Mari's most accomplished runners was GISW Storm Tower. Purchased for $245,000 as a yearling, he captured the GI Wood Memorial and GII Fountain of Youth S. in 1993. The bay was sent off at 9-1 in the GI Kentucky Derby and set the pace for seven furlongs before tiring to be 16th. Also the winner of the GIII Salvator Mile H. in 1994 and runner-up in the GI Florida Derby and Haskell, he bankrolled $823,193. Bloodstock agent Buzz Chace, who knew Hesse for nearly 30 years, said, "He was a great sportsman. They don't make many like him any more. He was a really great guy." Funeral arrangements are pending.

PHIPPS REINFORCES COMMITMENT TO RESEARCH FOLLOWING PINE ISLAND'S INJURY by Ray Paulick, courtesy of bloodhorse.com

Ogden Mills Phipps said the fatal injury suffered by his family stable's Pine Island (Arch) in the Nov. 4 GI Emirates Airline Breeders' Cup Distaff only serves to recommit him to additional attention and resources to equine research and organizations such as the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation. "We think it's important to raise money for research," Phipps said. "It's important for all of us in the business to do something about racing injuries and to minimize them."

Horsephotos

Phipps said he does not believe the condition of the Churchill Downs dirt racing surface led to the catastrophic injury to Pine Island's left front fetlock in a race that also saw favorite Fleet Indian pull up at the top of the stretch with a suspensory injury. "I had no concerns about the track," Phipps said about a surface some jockeys and horsemen called inconsistent in its footing. "I had heard some horses liked the track and other hadn't. Never did I hear it was unsafe, or never was there any thought going in that there was something wrong with our filly." For the whole story, click here.

MONMOUTH QUARANTINE PARTLY LIFTED A quarantine of horses at Monmouth Park, instituted in late October when at least four horses tested positive for the Equine Herpes Virus (EHV), was partially lifted yesterday after tests on two horses showing possible signs of the disease last weekend came back negative, according a New Jersey Department of Agriculture press release. The quarantine was lifted on horses in the general population barns at Monmouth Park. Since the quarantine was put into effect Oct. 26, none of the horses from the general population has become infected. The barns house roughly 1,000 horses. "No other horses from the general population with any clinical signs consistent with the disease have tested positive for more than 12 days since the inception of the quarantine, so we feel confident we can let them leave Monmouth Park," state veterinarian Dr. Nancy Halpern said. "However, the quarantine remains on approximately 100 horses who either tested positive or were directly exposed to infected horses."

DESERT ORCHID DIES

Desert Orchid (GB) (Grey Mirage {GB}--Flower Child {GB}, by Brother), the legend of British national hunt racing and a national icon of recent years, died yesterday aged 27. David Elsworth, who trained the grey to win the 1989 Cheltenham Gold Cup and four renewals of the King George VI Chase, issued a statement which read, "Desert Orchid died peacefully in his stable at 6:05 this morning. There was no stress, he departed from this world with dignity and no fuss. He did his dying in the same individual way that he did his living. It was time to go. He was 27 years old and we had been involved with this wonderful horse for quarter of a century both in his racing days and retirement. Everybody will miss him and our sympathy goes to his adoring public and fan club that never ceased to take opportunities to see him at his public appearances."

JUMPERS TO THE FORE AT DONNY

Howard Johnson is a regular patron at Doncaster's November Sale and the Northern trainer snapped up another national hunt prospect yesterday when purchasing the four-year-old gelding St Wilfrid (GB) (Loup Sauvage). Consigned by Cornborough Manro Stables as hip 144, the bumper winner was knocked down to the County Durham-based conditioner for €80,000. The sale concludes today with a session starting at 10 a.m. For complete results, visit www.dbsauctions.com.

AGA KHAN'S DRAFT DOMINATES DAY ONE

There was a distinct jumps bias to the opening day of Arqana's Autumn Mixed Sale, when the consignment from His Highness the Aga Khan produced its usual excitement amongst the national hunt crowd. Topping the session was hip 35, the sophomore colt Khazar (Fr) (Anabaa), a half-brother to the 2002 G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Khalkevi (Ire) who was successful in a Longchamp conditions event last month. He will race in the famed green and yellow silks of the premier jumps owner JP McManus after trainer Thierry Doumen sealed the purchase with a bid of €320,000. Of the broodmare prospects, hip 48, the two-year-old Sharaliya (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}), was secured by Pegasus Farms for €75,000. The unraced half to the smart group and graded stakes scorer Sharbayan (Ire) was another highlight from the Aga Khan draft. Selling concludes today. Full results can be found on www.gofffs.fr.
