OUIJA BOARD EARNS SECOND TITLE

Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was named Horse of the Year for the second time at the 2006 Cartier Racing Awards yesterday. At a ceremony held at the Four Seasons Hotel in London, the five-year-old became the first in history to claim the accolade twice, having been awarded the title in 2004. Thanks to the famed homebred's exploits when beating the colts in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, winning an epic renewal of Goodwood's G1 Nassau S. and collecting a second renewal of the G1 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Churchill Downs this month, she also scooped the 2006 Cartier Older Horse Award. In the Horse of the Year category, the star of the Ed Dunlop barn saw off opposition from NP Bloodstock's G1 Champion S. winner Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), Susan Magnier's triple Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Jackie Bolger's unbeaten G1 National S. and G1 Dewhurst S. winner Teofilo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner George Washington (Ire) (Danehill).

Terrific Twos for Bolger...

Providing trainer Jim Bolger with the rare achievement of capturing both the Two-Year-Old Colt and Two-Year-Old Filly category were, respectively, the aforementioned Teofilo and the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley). George Washington received the Cartier Three-Year-Old Colt Award in the face of stern opposition from Khalid Abdullah's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}), Anthony Pakenham's G1 Epsom Derby hero Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. victor Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and J. Paul Reddam's G1 Breeders' Cup Turf winner Red Rocks (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Cont. p2

ROSES IN NOVEMBER

Coronado Rose (Coronado's Quest), a four-year-old broodmare prospect, topped Wednesday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale, selling to Jack G. Jones, Jr. for $300,000. On the racetrack Coronado Rose won four of 11 starts and $132,809 in earnings, including the Princess H. at Sunland. The chestnut was consigned by Asmussen Horse Center, agent. Leading the way for weanlings was hip 3381, a gray colt by Gainesway stallion Tapit. The Kentucky bred, consigned by Gainesway, Agent XVI, was purchased by Sonata Bloodstock for $110,000. For the session, 240 horses sold for gross receipts of $6,333,100, an increase of 43.6 percent from 2005 when 251 horses brought $4,411,400. "We continue to reap the benefits as Thoroughbred racing in areas such as South America and South Korea grows," said Chauncey Morris, Keeneland's sales marketing associate. "As the global market continues to develop, they come to Keeneland to buy." The sale continues through Sunday, Nov. 19. THE STORM IS BREWING FOR STORMY ATLANTIC

On November 11th, FLORIDA KEYS won the Walter R. Cluer Memorial Stakes becoming STAKES WINNER #11 IN 2006 FOR STORMY ATLANTIC. Stormy Atlantic ranks among the Top 15 Sires on the General Sire List with Progeny Earnings of over $5 Million.

Ballydoyle was also responsible for the leading stayer courtesy of Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's G1 Ascot Gold Cup and G2 Goodwood Cup winner Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), while Gary and Lesley Middlebrook's G1 Nunthorpe S. and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup hero Reverence (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) collected the Cartier Sprinter Award. Heading the Cartier Three-Year-Old Filly category was Princess Zahra Aga Khan's G1 Prix d'Astarte, G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Prix de l'Opera winner Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}). All awards were decided as a result of a system combining points achieved in pattern races, the views of racing journalists on Cartier's Racing Panel and votes from readers of the Racing Post and The Daily Telegraph. Peter Willett received the 2006 Cartier/Daily Telegraph Award of Merit due to his involvement in racing as a journalist, author and breeder and his part in the development of the pattern system.

'DEREK' MAY TRY GRASS Cecil Peacock's Brother Derek (Benchmark), a respectable fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 4, may start next in the Nov. 26 GI Hollywood Derby, according to Daily Racing Form. The GI Santa Anita Derby winner has never raced on the grass before. "It's hard to tell a guy to pass the last three-year-old race of the year for $500,000," trainer Dan Hendricks told DRF. Brother Derek will have a short exercise on the Hollywood turf today, and will work five furlongs over that course Sunday.

DANETIME FILLY SETS NOVEMBER ALIGHT
Goffs' November Sale continued its momentum yesterday, when the heat was turned up during the third foal session courtesy of the €125,000 sum paid for a filly by Danetime (Ire). Consigned by Oghill House Stud as agent, hip 503 is out of a half to the Listed scorer Head Over Heels (Ire) from the family of last year's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas runner-up Penkenna Princess (Ire) and was knocked down to Tim Hyde Jr. "She's a beauty and all racehorse," Hyde said. BBA Ireland later went to €90,000 to secure hip 609, a daughter of Green Desert from the draft of Peter Kavanagh's Kildaragh Stud. She is out of the dual Listed scorer Petit Calva (Fr), who is a half-sister to Mauralakana (Fr) and hails from the family of the top-class globe-trotter Jim and Tonic (Fr). John Tyrrell was buying the filly on behalf of a French client. Matching that price tag was hip 650, a daughter of Noverre who fell to Ruairi O'Coileain's Ennistown Stud. Herbertstown Stud's offering is from the family of Shergar (Ire), which includes this year's G1 Gran Premio di Milano heroine Shamdala (Ire). Coolmore's One Cool Cat has his first foals at the sales this fall and he was responsible for the top-priced colt of the session. Ballinamona House's hip 475, who is from the family of Scorpion (Ire), was purchased by Paul Shanahan for €80,000. Yesterday's average was up over 35 percent on 2005, spurring a huge hike in the gross from €2,464,500 to €4,197,000. The upturn also prompted a 13.3-percent increase in the average over the three days, with the two best days of the foal sale yet to come. Selling continues today at 12 p.m. Full results can be found on www.goffs.com.

MARYLAND OFFICIAL SAYS 'CLOCK IS TICKING' ON RACING by James Mosher, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

Maryland's Thoroughbred industry is likely to be downsized considerably beginning in 2008 unless racetracks are allowed more gambling options such as slot machines, a racetrack executive said Nov. 14. "We can hold our own through 2007," said Lou Raffetto Jr., president and chief operating officer of the Maryland Jockey Club, the Magna Entertainment Corp. unit that runs Laurel Park and Pimlico Race Course. "But I can make no assurances about racing past that. The clock is ticking." There will be about 20 fewer live racing dates next year as Maryland tracks try to cut expenses in the face of slower revenue growth. Industry leaders are near unanimous in endorsing casino-style gambling, especially slot machines, as a way to boost income for a multitude of things including keeping purses at levels competitive with neighboring states that supplement purses with slots money. Raffetto made his remarks following the monthly meeting of the Maryland Racing Commission. The executive said he is optimistic closer cooperation between the Thoroughbred and Standardbred industries, which resulted in a 15-year revenue-sharing agreement signed earlier this year, will spill over into the political arena.

Ten Carat Ruby had finished in the top three in 10 of her previous 14 tries beneath the Twin Spires and was coming into this off a pair of solid efforts over the Polytrack at Keeneland. A rallying third going seven panels Oct. 8, the bay was most recently runner-up over 6 1/2 furlongs Oct. 21. The fourth choice in this field of six tracked the early pace from four wide, took over in upper stretch and was fully extended to prevail.

Never far from the front while hugging the inside, the Whitney homebred responded when set down and rallied from the rail to hand favored Private Humor (Distorted Humor) a neck defeat at odds of 9-1. Leadership Decisions Due

Over the next two days, Democrats and Republicans are due to release their new leadership rosters for the upcoming 110th Congress. Democrats are expected to release their list today with the Republican roster due on Friday.

Incoming Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) has announced the committee assignments he anticipates members of the Democratic Caucus will hold during the 110th Congress.

As required by Senate rules, Senator Reid will meet with the incoming Senate Republican Leader – Senator Mitch McConnell of Kentucky, who was unanimously elected on Wednesday – following the Republican Caucus' leadership elections to negotiate and finalize the Majority/Minority make-up of each Committee.

Outside Foreign Relations, which would gain one member from both the Majority and Minority under this anticipated plan, the number of Senators placed on each committee reflects the committee make-up agreed to in the 108th Congress, the last time there was a 51-49 Senate.

New Digs for Dapple:

Dapple Bloodstock and a small investment group has acquired a 900-acre parcel of land in the southern portion of Bourbon County, Kentucky, to give its partners and clients a base of operations for the breeding, boarding and consignment of Dapple-owned and managed mares and progeny. The farm, named Dapple Stud, is located approximately 10 miles southeast of Paris, directly across from Stone Farm. Stuart Morris of Highclere has also joined Dapple Stud as the Director of Thoroughbred Operations, while maintaining a peripheral management presence at Highclere. Dapple Bloodstock offers pinhooking opportunities for weanlings, yearlings and broodmares, as well as the syndication of racing stock.

Harvard Avenue, third behind Rock Hard Ten and Lava Man in the 2004 GI Malibu S., only won once in 2005, but picked a good time to get his picture taken, winning the GII Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup H. He failed to hit the board in his next four attempts and closed out the year with a fourth-place finish in Emerald's GIII Longacres Mile H. Aug. 21. The dark bay finally resurfaced with a third-place finish in a Nov. 1 $80,000 optional claimer at Hollywood and was backed as the second choice here. In this one, he trailed the field of five through a half mile in :44.87, but ran by 'em all to score by 3/4 of a length.
