Exceeding Expectations...

Jeremy Brummitt went to €125,000 for a colt from the first crop of the brilliant Australian sprinter Exceed and Excel (Aus). Offered by Barretstown Farm House on behalf of John Doyle, hip 742 is a half to the listed stakes victor Irony (Ire) from the family of the 1991 G1 2000 Guineas winner Mystiko and top-class South African performer Rabiya (Saf). "I thought he was the nicest horse in the sale and an outstanding individual," the Yorkshire-based bloodstock agent commented.

Darley's Exceed and Excel
www.darleystallions.com

"He'll probably come up for resale." Exceed and Excel was also responsible for Oghill House Stud's hip 745, a half-sister to two stakes winners, who was purchased by the Somerset-based Carmel Stud for €100,000. Shortly after, owner Kevin Cooke paid the same amount for hip 760, a son of Invincible Spirit (Ire) out of a half to an Italian stakes winner from the draft of the Irish National Stud, acting as agents. "He'll probably be kept to race and hopefully he'll be a good one," Cooke said. Late in the session, Elusive City proved popular again, as he had during Tuesday's session and Belmont Stud's hip 927, a colt from the family of dual group winner Ahohoney (Ire), was knocked down to Crone Stud for €120,000. Paul Shanahan paid the same for Airlie Stud's hip 911, a colt by Danehill Dancer (Ire) out of a half to the top-class Vialli (Ire). Darley's Kheleyf has his first foals selling this fall and one of his colts was in demand. Consigned by Derek Veitch's Ringfort Stud, hip 877 is from the family of sires Lugana Beach (Ire) and Mtoto (GB) and was secured by Peter Doyle Bloodstock for €108,000. After a solid day of trading, the gross was up by nearly €2 million on 12 months ago and the average of €33,510 represented an increase of 47 percent on 2005. With the select final day of foals to come today, when bidding begins at 12 p.m., the sale is certain to exceed last year's figures. Full results can be found on www.goffs.com.

GOING TO THE 'CHAPEL' AT KEENELAND A weanling filly from the first crop of MGSW Chapel Royal (Montbrook) topped yesterday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale in Lexington, Kentucky. Cataloged as hip 4094, the bay was knocked down to Diamond J Racing for $180,000 and was consigned by Morris B. Floyd and Chuck Givens, agent for Fairway Farm. The Mar. 19 foal is out of the 14-year-old Starletta (Cox's Ridge), herself a daughter of Grade II winner Zero Minus (It's Freezing). Hip 4094 was the lone six-figure horse Thursday. The top-priced mare was hip 3936, the five-year-old Kahlo, a daughter of Broad Brush that went to Tommy Trojan for $60,000. The Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent, consignee hails from the extended family of Ruffian, Icecapade and Private Terms and was produced by Grade II winner Mesabi Maiden (Cox's Ridge). She sold in foal to Buddha. The sale continued on a strong pace Thursday, with the gross of $3,824,500 up nearly 50 percent from 2005 figures. The overall gross of $308,580,000 represents a 7.1-percent increase over last year's $288,015,000. "Keeneland's position as a global market was truly in evidence [yesterday] as we had buyers participating from India and Trinidad," added Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell about yesterday's proceedings. Action resumes today at 10 a.m.

BIG A MOVES WEEKEND RACES TO INNER

Officials at the New York Racing Association decided yesterday to close Aqueduct's main track for racing and training from today through Monday, Nov. 20, with the main track re-opening for training Tuesday, Nov. 21. Racing will be held on the winterized inner surface in the interim. Racing will return to the main track Wednesday for a final week before Aqueduct's regularly scheduled inner-track season begins Wednesday, Nov. 29. "After discussions with our trainers and jockeys and our director of racing surfaces, it was decided that this was the best course of action to give the main track a chance to recover from the effects of recent adverse weather," said Bill Nader, NYRA senior vice-president and COO. "There is a forecast for heavy rain [Thursday night] and into morning, and we want to do all that we can to make sure the main track is ready for next week's HolidayFest program." The HolidayFest program is highlighted by the GI Cigar Mile on Saturday, Nov. 25. Today's races that were carded at 6 1/2 and seven furlongs--the fifth, sixth and seventh--will be run at six furlongs. All other races will be run at their original distances.

THE DADDY TO MARTIN STABLES SOUTH

Grade II winner The Daddy (Valid Expectations--With a Princess, by With Approval) will begin his stud career at Eddie Martin's Martin Stables South in Reddick, Florida. The four-year-old will stand the 2007 season for a fee of $5,000, live foal, stands and nurses. A winner of three of four lifetime starts, The Daddy opened his career with a debut victory at Hollywood last July, romped by 12 in a Saratoga allowance in his next start, then was fourth behind Lost in the Fog in the GI King's Bishop S. His biggest victory came in his career finale, when he staved off A.P. Arrow to capture last year's GI Super Derby by a neck. Out of the stakes-placed With a Princess, The Daddy is a half-brother to the ill-fated With a City, hero of the 2006 GI Lane's End S.

UNFORGETTABLE MAX, FRISCO STAR MOVE

TO SEQUEL Versailles, Kentucky's Stonewall Farm announced yesterday that two of its stallions, Unforgettable Max (Northern Afleet--Maggy Hawk, by Hawkster) and Frisco Star (More Than Ready--No Mud on Me, by Great Above), will move to Becky Thomas's Sequel Stallions in Ocala, Florida for the 2007 breeding season. Both horses will remain the property of Stonewall Stallions and will stand for their previously announced fees. Unforgettable Max stands for $7,500; Frisco Star for $5,000. Both fees are live foal, stands and nurses. "We have a great respect for both the Florida market and Becky, [and] her proven record made Sequel a natural choice," said Stonewall's Director of Stallion Operations Ken Wilkins. "Both horses should be very appealing to breeders based on their racetrack records and physical appearance." The six-year-old Unforgettable Max, a full brother to dual Classic winner Afleet Alex, is a SW & MGSP earner of $384,079. Frisco Star, a three-year-old, was perfect in three starts, including a win in the Novato S. at Golden Gate earlier this year. Unforgettable Max will be standing his second year at stud, while the upcoming season will be Frisco Star's first.

Darley Buys Smart Maiden Winner:

Sheikh Mohammed's Darley Stable has purchased the two-year-old filly Zada Belle (Indian Charlie--Three of A Kind, by Carson City), an impressive nine-length winner on debut at Santa Anita Oct. 13 (video), for an undisclosed sum and has transferred the bay to Eoin Harty's barn in Palm Meadows in Florida, reports Daily Racing Form. The transaction was completed in late October, according to the publication. Zada Belle, a $35,000 KEENOV weanling and $110,000 KEESEP yearling, was purchased earlier this year by William Peebles for $95,000 out of the Barretts March sale of two-year-olds in training. She began her career with Peebles and trainer Adam Kitchingman. "We have mixed feelings," Kitchingman told DRF. "I've only got 15 in my barn. She could be any kind of filly. Who knows what kind of publicity I could have gotten and how my barn could have grown."

The bay showed some improvement when moved to the lawn last time, running an even seventh, beaten five lengths, sprinting down Santa Anita's hillside course Oct. 18 after another absence. Backed here as the 3-2 chalk as the less-preferred half of the Fulton entry, A.P. Xcellent showed an affinity for Hollywood's Cushion Track, stepping out to the lead the way through sensible fractions and holding longshot I.B. a Runaway (Runaway Groom) safe in the stretch to win by 3/4 lengths. PROCLAMATION TO STAND AT OVERBURY

Group 1 winner Proclamation (Ire) (King's Best--Shamarra {Fr}, by Zayyani {Ire}) has been retired to Overbury Stud in Gloucestershire, England, and will stand his first season for £4,000, special live foal. The four-year-old, who hails from a premier Aga Khan family, registered his biggest win in the 2005 G1 Sussex S., where he defeated Soviet Song (Ire) and Ad Valorem. He also won the G3 Jersey S. last year. In 2006, Proclamation finished a close-up third in the G1 Queen Anne S., behind Ad Valorem and Court Masterpiece (GB). "Proclamation was an exceptionally gifted horse, as good a miler as you could wish to see," said Overbury's Simon Sweeting. "What's more, he has the looks to match, being rangy, powerful and very athletic, and I'm hoping breeders will be just as impressed with him. I fell in love with him at first sight." Proclamation retires to stud with a record of four wins in eight starts and $483,586 in earnings.

Gainsborough Stud's Court Masterpiece (GB) (Polish Precedent), winner of this year's G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood, tuned up for Sunday's G1 Mile Championship S. at Kyoto, working 1000 meters in 1:03.3 beneath exercise rider Stephen Richardson. Breaking off in the homestretch, the six-year-old, most recently third to George Washington (Ire) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot, worked with a stablemate and got his opening quarter mile in :24.3. He was clocked in :49.3 for 800 meters and finished his work near the far turn. "He started from the homestretch so that his goal would come just short of the [far turn]," Nicholson explained. "His response was very good and I can't ask for more." Trainer Ed Dunlop has tabbed Frankie Dettori for the ride as they go in search of another international success.

ANOTHER ROCK FILLY FOR SUNLINE

Australasian supermare Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}), the five-time Horse of the Year in Australia and New Zealand and winner of over A$11 million in her stellar career, has produced her third foal, a filly by Coolmore stallion Rock of Gibraltar (Ire). The filly is a full sister to Sunline's first produce in 2004. The dual G1 Cox Plate heroine will be represented at the NZ National Sale in Karaka in January, where her second offspring, a colt by Zabeel (NZ), goes under the hammer. Sunline's two-year-old of this year is in training with Stephen McKee, who was the co-trainer of the mare with his father Trevor. The conditioner and his partners held on to Sunline's first foal and reportedly intend to do the same with her new filly. Sunline and foal are at Arrowfield Stud and she is booked to Redoute's Choice (Aus) for the current breeding season.
