'ERE KITTY KITTY

Kenneth and Sarah Ramsey's Precious Kitten (Catienus), a half-sister to a champion and to the dam of a soon-to-be-named Eclipse Award winner, took command at the head of the Churchill stretch and staved off a late bid from J'ray (Distant View) to win yesterday's GII Mrs. Revere S. The attractive dark bay filly broke alertly and went up to stalk Quite A Bride (Stormy Atlantic), who got away with an opening quarter mile in :24.44 and a half in a leisurely :49.92. Precious

Kitten took closer aim on the pacesetter after six furlongs in 1:15.35, wrested command from her when straightened for the drive and held sway late. J'ray, last but one rounding into the lane, came wide and finished gamely to just miss. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. ### NOVEMBER SOARS ON AT GOFFS

Following the resounding success of the five days of foals at Goffs November, the momentum was maintained as the action switched to broodmares and fillies yesterday. Twelve months on from the €1-million paid for one of His Highness the Aga Khan's finest broodmares Dalara (Ire), it was the same breeder's draft that generated the session's highest price when Anthony Stroud paid €430,000 for Alasana (Ire), consigned as hip 1363. Despite the daughter of Darshaan (GB) being in her advancing years at 15, she had produced the 2002 G1 2000 Guineas third and GI E.P. Taylor S. runner-up Alasha (Ire). From the family of Desert Story (Ire) and this year's G3 Mooresbidge S. winner Alayan (Ire), she is carrying a foal by Sinndar (Ire). "She is from a wonderful family," Stroud said. "She has been bought for an established client in Ireland and will stay here." As a measure of the phenomenal success of this auction, the session average of €51,132 represented an increase of more than 19 percent on last year's equivalent, which included a €1-million mare and had itself risen by a massive 93 percent on 2004. The median, which was up by 85 percent last year, rose again by 37.5 percent yesterday. Selling continues tomorrow at 9:30 a.m., the final day of the marathon November sale. Full results can be found on www.goffs.com. Goffs November cont. p6

BELGRAVIA BESTS DILEMMA IN PREVUE

Belgravia (Mr. Greeley), a $2-million purchase out of the Fasig-Tipton Calder Sale of Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training this past February, remained perfect in his young career, sweeping four wide into the stretch before hanging on for a nose victory over Dilemma (Grand Slam) in yesterday's GIII Hollywood Prevue S. on the Cushion track. "When that other horse [Dilemma] came up to him he really dug in and took off again," said winning jockey Julien Leparoux. "He has speed, but he seems like he really wants to go on." Cont. p2

No Stranger to the Twin Spires...

After wintering in Florida, Precious Kitten made four starts at the Churchill spring meeting, finishing second in a turf maiden May 10 before graduating in an off-the-turf affair May 25. A 60-1 chance when third in the GIII Regret S. back on the Matt Winn turf course June 17, she was second in the July 16 Heavenly Cause H., then shifted to Ellis Park, where she was fifth in the Aug. 12 Audubon Oaks. Rested a bit off that effort, she earned her first stakes victory in the Sept. 30 Martha Washington Breeders' Cup S., decisioning Meribel (Peaks and Valleys) by a neck, but fell a half-length short of that rival in the GIII Valley View S., scheduled for the Keeneland turf, but rained onto the Polytrack Oct. 20. Jockey Rafael Bejarano was impressed with the winner's effort. "I saw at the eighth pole that [J'ray] was coming from behind really strong, but I had a lot of horse and I saved a little bit," he said. "When that horse came to her, she [Precious Kitten] came again. She ran a good race."

Margins: NO, 3, 2. Odds: 2.00, 2.80, 1.30.

Also Ran: Hurry Up Austin, Marked Warrior, Pawnee, Chief's Magic. Scratched: Prime Ruler.

Belgravia was no secret when he finally made his debut over the Polytrack at Keeneland Oct. 18, the chestnut still had about three lengths to find leaving the eighth pole, but found another gear late and got to the line 1 3/4 lengths to the good as the 6-5 chalk. Sent off as part of an entry which was the second choice to big-figure maiden winner Notional (In Excess {Ire}), Belgravia was away well and took up a position at the tail end of the peloton, some four lengths from the front. Notional took the initiative and had first run into the stretch, but Julien Leparoux angled Belgravia out and went easily by the chalk. However, the real threat in the race would come from Dilemma, who was just hitting his best stride passing the eighth pole. As Belgravia drifted out under a left-handed stick, Dilemma sustained his bid nicely, but fell just short.

Accountforthegold led from pillar post to lead home a sweep of the top three spots for New York-breds. Winner of the restricted New York Derby at three, Accountforthegold resurfaced from a near 10-month absence to be second to Discreet Cat in an Aug. 25 allowance at Saratoga. He was reeled in by Tinseltown (Pine Bluff) in an 8 1/2-furlong test over the Belmont main track Sept. 29, but demolished a field of open-company milers by nine lengths in the Elmont slop Oct. 20. Sent immediately to the front, Accountforthegold dictated a solid pace, opened up turning for home and held on as even-money Carminooch came calling late. True Metropolitan has really come into his own this season, finishing off the board only once in 11 attempts. The dark bay won two in a row this summer, including the Spangled Jimmy H. at Northlands Park July 8, before placing second in the Redekop BC Cup Classic H. at Hastings Aug. 7. He picked up right where he left off following that defeat, notching Northland's Westerner S. Aug. 20 and Speed to Spare S. Sept. 9, and Hasting Park's Sept. 24 Sir Winston Churchill H. and GIII BC Premiers H. last time Oct. 15. Looking for his fifth straight here, he settled in fourth through :24.13 and :47.09 fractions. Sent four wide on the turn for home by Todd Kabel, True Metropolitan rallied to the front in the stretch and ran away and hid from 'em. "He beat the best horses and he did it with authority," Kabel said. "He's for real. I think the [Sovereign Awards] voters are really going to have a good look at this horse." Daiwa Major was beaten a nose in last year's renewal by Hat Trick, but arrives in top form in his attempt to go one better. The morning-line favorite was fourth to Deep Impact (Jpn) in this track's G1 Takarazuka Kinen June 25, but returned from a spell to best Dance in the Mood by a neck in the Mainichi Okan Oct. 8. The five-year-old made it two straight with a half-length score in the Oct. 29 Tenno Sho (Autumn) last time out and is worthy of favoritism. Dance in the Mood could hardly have been more impressive in winning the GIII CashCall Mile at Hollywood July 1 and comes into this off a sixth in the Tenno Sho. Court Masterpiece has been a model of consistency this season with a win, a second and two third-place efforts against Group 1 company in Europe. The G1 Sussex S. winner will try to atone for his third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. Sept. 23. "It's been two weeks since I saw him last, but he looks in good shape and looks very happy," said trainer Ed Dunlop.

Sale Continues Its Roll...

Earlier, Hubie de Burgh paid €400,000 for a daughter of Giant's Causeway from the draft of Billy Icton's Tara Stud. Named Pretty as Can Be (GB), hip 1318 is a half to the top-class distaffer My Emma (GB), who was sold for 1.3 million guineas at last year's Tattersalls December Sale, and the champion stayer Classic Cliche (Ire). The four-year-old, from Lord Matthews' excellent family, which also includes the 2001 G2 Royal Lodge S. winner Mutinyonthebounty (GB), was sold in foal to Dubai Destination. "She'll be going to England," de Burgh explained. "It's both an excellent and active family, several members of which are in good hands." John Colleran bred Scorpion (Ire) at his Grangemore Stud and it was his County Kildare establishment who secured a highlight from Darley's draft. Hip 1387 is the six-year-old Storm Cat mare Nellie Nolan, who was listed placed at two and is out of a sister to the top-class Caline. Carrying a close relation to her sire sibling Raphane, she was secured for €280,000. Dennis O'Flynn's Old Carhue Stud had been responsible for the purchase of some of the session's highlights, including two high-profile mares by Spectrum (Ire). The first was Abbeville & Meadowcourt Studs' five-year-old Sidecar (Ire), a half to last year's GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. victress and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas third Luas Line (Ire), consigned as hip 1302. She is in foal to Danehill Dancer (Ire) and was knocked down to the Coachford-based operation for €275,000. Shortly after, they landed hip 1314, the seven-year-old Corrine (Ire), who is out of a sister to the sire Bellypha (Ire). Consigned by Seskin Stud as agents, the listed winner had been responsible for a Galileo (Ire) foal sold to Camas Park Stud for €255,000 just 24 hours earlier. Carrying a full sibling after a return visit to the Coolmore hotshot, she reached €225,000. Towards the end of the day's trading, Adali Humkar paid €180,000 for hip 1392, the five-year-old Starline (Ire) in foal to Montjeu (Ire). The daughter of Trempolino is a half to two German listed winners, as well as the dam of the smart stakes sprinter Shinko's Best (Ire). As usual, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Derrinstown Stud draft proved popular and it was hip 1280, the Nashwan mare Mubkera (Ire), who attracted the most attention. Carrying to Marju (Ire), the stakes-placed seven-year-old from the outstanding family of Rainbow Quest and the gilt-edged broodmare Slightly Dangerous was knocked down to BBA Ireland's John Tyrrell for €175,000.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 1553, m, 5, Ouija's Sister (GB) (Groom Dancer--Cruinn a Bhord {GB}, by Inchinor {GB})

Consigned by Linacre House

This mare, whose foal by Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) sold for €90,000 here on Thursday, offers the chance to buy into the family of Ouija Board (GB), who is a half-sister to Cruinn a Bhord. Ouija's Sister is carrying a foal by Shinko Forest (Ire).

Hip 1563, f, 3, Veyana (Fr) (Kahyasi {Ire}--Veyara {Ire}, by Ashkalani {Ire})

Consigned by His Highness the Aga Khan's Studs

This filly, by the sire of Hasili (Ire), is a close relative of the 1997 G1 Prix de Diane winner Vereva (Ire), who sold as hip 1283 yesterday. The page also includes the sprinter The Kiddykid (Ire), who captured last year's G2 Duke of York S.

Hip 1596, m, 5, Polenta (Ire) (Sunday Silence--Polent {GB}, by Polish Precedent)

Consigned by Darley

Polenta's dam is a half to Snow Bride, who was awarded the 1989 G1 Epsom Oaks before embarking on an illustrious career at stud when producing Lammtarra and a host of useful stakes performers. She is carrying a King's Best foal.

Hip 1617, m, 8, Nebulae (Ire) (Unfuwain--Three Stars {GB}, by Star Appeal {Ire})

Consigned by the Castlebridge Consignment

Nebulae is a sister to Khalid Abdullah's 1994 G1 Irish Oaks scorer Bolas (GB), whose daughter Hollow Ridge (GB) was runner-up in last month's Listed Radley S. She has been covered by Royal Applause (GB).

Hip 1640, m, 8, Rain Dancer (Ire) (Sadler's Wells--Final Farewell, by Proud Truth)

Consigned by J.K. Thoroughbreds

This is the family of Danehill and the mare was provided with a major update when her juvenile daughter Boca Dancer (Ire) took the Listed Silken Glider S. last month. She is carrying a Noverre foal.

ACCEPTABLE TOPS PENULTIMATE SESSION

Selling as a stallion prospect, Acceptable (Capote--Ms. Teak Wood, by Woodman), the sire of 152 winners from five crops to race worldwide, brought a final bid of $75,000 to top Saturday's penultimate day of trade at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in Lexington. The 12-year-old was consigned to the sale by Richland Hills, which stood Acceptable for $2,500 for the 2006 breeding season. Western Canada-based trainer Robert Maybin signed the winning ticket. Campaigned at the races by Kinsman Stable, Acceptable was runner-up in the 1996 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and won the GIII Kentucky Cup Classic Preview H. in 1998. He retired to stud in 1999, standing at Wafare Farm in Kentucky while shuttling to Haras Abolengo in Argentina. The top-selling foal on the session was hip 4673, a filly from the first crop of track-record setter and multiple graded-stakes winner Soto (Dehere). Consigned by the Moonestone Sales agency, the chestnut daughter of Meadow Lily (Meadowlake) was knocked down to Highclere Stallions for $50,000. With one day remaining in the sale, the turnover of $312,790,200 is the second highest in the long history of the November sale. Today's final session begins at 10 a.m.

from next Friday's GI Citation H. and instead be put away for the year. The conditioner had been pointing the Ralph and Aury Todd homebred for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, but decided to change plans when the gelding did not train to his satisfaction. "I just have not had a good week with him," Mandella told DRF. "He's a little stiff and sore right now--no big problems. When I backed off, when we decided not to run in the Breeders' Cup, he got good for a while, but I don't like the way he's been doing the last few days. He's just a little worn out. I'm going to turn him out." The eight-year-old is a leading candidate for an Eclipse Award, with four wins from his five starts this season. In addition to the Million, he won the GI Clement L. Hirsch H., GII American Invitational H. and GII San Marcos S. His lone defeat of 2006 came when he was second to David Junior in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. in March. Mandella indicated that The Tin Man would be brought back for a nine-year-old campaign in 2007.

YUBET HAILS DECISION IN TVG ARBITRATION FIGHT

by Jack Shinar, courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

Youbet.com Inc. must pay about $1.3 million to its license partner TVG for underpayments during a three-year content agreement that ended Mar. 31, 2005, an arbiter ruled Nov. 16. TVG initially claimed it was owed $5.8 million. The arbitration figure included damages, reimbursement and interest, according to TVG. The ruling separately included $90,000 that TVG must pay to Youbet, which said TVG was cited for violating the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. TVG called it a payment for "short swing profits" that occurred in March 2004 when TVG surrendered a pre-existing warrant for shares of Youbet in a transaction between the parties. Charles F. Champion, Youbet CEO, hailed the arbitration decision, saying it affirmed his company's understanding of key provisions regarding host, license and transaction fees. "From the onset, we had an obligation to defend ourselves against TVG's claims, and the non-financial claims were potentially more damaging to our ongoing value than the monetary claims," he said. "At the same time, we had a series of important business principles to assert, and we were successful." For the complete story, click here.

SIR WHIMSEY (c, 2, Jump Start--Apogee {MSP}, by Star de Naskra) was sent off at long odds when seventh in his first start at Belmont Sept. 16 and again when fifth going a mile at that track Oct. 14. A more fancied 9-1 negotiating two turns for the first time on the Aqueduct inner track, he pressed the pace and battled gamely through the final quarter, besting Perfect Vow (Broken Vow) by a neck. A $55,000 KEESEP yearling and $75,000 OBSMAR juvenile, he becomes the 17th winner for his freshman sire (by A.P. Indy). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $27,892. O-Turtle Bird Stable. B-Chance Farm (VA). Santos Off Mounts Following Spill:

Jockey Jose Santos took off his remaining mounts yesterday afternoon after being shaken up in a spill in the first race. The accident occurred when Santos' mount Mountain General broke down and fell at the head of the stretch. Fit Faze, ridden by Eibar Coa, could not avoid the fallen horse and went down as well. Both riders were transported by ambulance to the track's first aid station. Coa was released with a minor contusion to his shoulder and fulfilled the rest of his engagements. Santos complained of dizziness and was excused from his commitments. Fit Faze was uninjured in the incident, but Mountain General had to be euthanized.

Imbriale Out of Retirement for the Winter:

John Imbriale, who retired from his role as backup announcer at the New York Racing Association tracks in 2005, will return as the winter racecaller at Aqueduct beginning Jan. 4. Imbriale takes over for Larry Collmus, who agreed Friday to become track announcer at Gulfstream Park. "I am very excited about working back at Aqueduct," said Imbriale. "I have a lot of fond memories and I look forward to seeing some old friends." Imbriale first joined NYRA in 1979 after winning a contest for aspiring announcers in the New York Daily News. Part of that package was a job in the NYRA press office.

Sent off as the second choice here, he broke on top, set :24 and :47.67 fractions and drew off to win for fun. Ah Day, bet down to 1-5, tired after pressing the pace and was eased. "I don't know what happened," said Mario Pino, who rode the favorite. "That was not him on the backside. Trying her luck in stakes company last time out, she finished an even fifth in the Nov. 2 GII Chilukki S. going a mile at this track. The dark bay dropped down the ladder and back in distance as the odds-on favorite and did not disappoint the crowd. Slowest into stride after hopping at the start, she angled outside for the final drive and hit the gas to win going away.

Magna Graduate Possible for Clark:

It has not yet been decided if Elisabeth Alexander's Magna Graduate (Honor Grades) will be in the gate for a title defense in Saturday's GI Clark H., according to Mike McCarthy, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. McCarthy said that the Clark is one of two options for the four-year-old, who is coming off a disappointing 10th-place effort in the GIII Ack Ack H. on the Breeders' Cup undercard Nov. 4. "He is definitely 'on the fence' for the Clark," said McCarthy. "He could either run in the Clark or wait for the [$100,000-added, Grade III] Queens County at Aqueduct [Dec. 9]." McCarthy added that Magna Graduate was entered for a Wednesday allowance race at Churchill, but the race did not fill. Magna Graduate breezed five panels in 1:01.60 Friday.

Having taken a conditions event at Saint-Cloud June 16, Balius returned from a break to finish runner-up in the Listed La Coupe de Marseille over this track and trip Sept. 27. Only sixth in the Listed Grand Prix du Nord at Le Croise-Laroche 12 days ago, he rebounded with a game effort here. Stalking Oracle West throughout the early stages, he got the better of that rival after a stretch-long duel to earn his first stakes success.

Al Ken registered two course-and-distance conditions successes Sept. 11 and Oct. 11 and confirmed his liking for this circuit with a fluent score under a confident Thierry Thulliez. Held up throughout the early stages, he made smooth progress to tackle All in Vanity in the straight and swept by that rival inside the final eighth for a comfortable success as Palosanto gained the runner-up spot.

BOMB SCARE AT LINGFIELD

Lingfield was forced to abandon the final race of its all-weather card yesterday after receiving a bomb threat by phone. The hoax was the second in the space of three days, after the jumps meet at Hexham received the same scare Wednesday. "We received a call and the security team acted upon that," Lingfield's Clerk of the Course Neil Mackenzie told PA Sport. "We evacuated the grandstand and the police are completing a full sweep as we speak. It does appear to be a hoax. It is in the hands of the police now."

Not many eight-year-olds retain as much energy as the evergreen Nayyir, but it took the application of blinkers to get the old-timer back in the winner's spot in this Polytrack test. The veteran finished second in the 2004 G1 Sussex S. at his beloved Goodwood, which was also the scene of his two successes in the Lennox S.--as a Group 3 race in 2002 and as a Group 2 a year later. Nayyir showed he retained ability when taking the G3 Diomed S. at Epsom for the second time June 3, but went winless in his next five starts, including a disappointing eighth in the Listed Ben Marshall S. at Newmarket Oct. 28. Breaking sluggishly under Eddie Ahern here, the chestnut was allowed to creep into mid-pack by halfway and, when the gaps came in the stretch, he quickened to lead approaching the eighth pole. Tackled by Blue Bajan soon after, he dug in to withstand that threat. "I just felt he was coming out of his races too well, so the blinkers were the last-chance saloon," commented trainer Gerard Butler, winning his fifth renewal since 2000. "He'd worked nicely in them at home and they worked a treat here."

Accepting a lead before halfway, the 160,000gns TATOCT yearling rolled back to the front at the quarter pole before asserting to beat Cavalry Twill (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) by 1 3/4 lengths. The winner is a full to Soldier Hollow (GB), Hwt. RAVINIA (f, 2, Rahy--Reverie, by Nijinsky II), eighth in her debut at Newbury Sept. 16, broke well to stalk the early pace. Making her move on the final turn, the 9-2 second choice got the better of long-time leader Murrisk (GB) (Groom Dancer) in the final furlong to score by a half length. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £3,238.

ASIA

HONG KONG'S BEST IN HKIR TRIALS A week ago, Hello Pretty (Aus) (Distorted Humor) stamped himself a leading local hope for the G1 Hong Kong Cup with a victory in the Cup Trial at Sha Tin. Today's program features the final prep races for the G1 Hong Kong Mile and G1 Hong Kong Sprint. The Mile Trial has attracted every top miler in the SAR, but the horse that will garner the most attention is Vengeance of Rain (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}). Last year's G1 Hong Kong Cup winner and World Series Racing Champion returned from an 11-month absence and was 10th in the HSBC Premier Bowl H., but finished well to hit the line five lengths behind the winner. Today's 1600 meters is well short of his best, but trainer David Ferraris is confident the prep will have the six-year-old primed for a title defense in the Cup. Among the competition is former Hong Kong Horse of the Year Bullish Luck (Royal Academy) and rising star Floral Pegasus (Aus) (Fusaichi Pegasus). The Sprint Trial is a wide open affair in which Scintillation (Aus) (Danehill) could start a lukewarm choice. Fourth by a length in the 2004 Hong Kong Mile, he has excelled at shorter distances, but is having his first run since finishing second in a domestic Group 1 last March. Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie), a two-time winner of the Hong Kong Sprint, gets a five-pound pull in the weights and has trained well for this. As he has aged, however, the 1000 meters has become too sharp and that is likely to be the case again this afternoon. The International Races are set for Sunday, Dec. 10.
