DANSILI COLT TOPS DECEMBER FOAL OPENER

Going through the ring as lot 491, a Dansili (GB) colt brought 58,000gns to top the opening day of December Foal Sale in Newmarket when selling to Ciaran 'Flash' Conroy of Co. Tipperary-based Glenvale Stud. Conroy, bidding through agent John O'Byrne, saw off Amanda Skiffington for the colt, who was bred by John Ellis and offered from Trickle-down Stud. "He was the only one I had a go for today," said Conroy. "He was a great mover by a very good stallion, and I should think he'll come back here for October Part 2." The bay, produced by the Midyan mare Mylania (GB), hails from the family of Hong Kong stalwarts Mensa (GB) and Firebolt (Ire). The second-highest price of the session was 40,000gns for a Monsieur Bond (Ire) half-brother to recent G3 Bentinck S. winner Bygone Days (GB). Offered by Whitsbury Manor Stud for Dr John Hobby, the bay was purchased by agent Oliver St. Lawrence for 40,000gns. "This was a nice, good-walking colt and, obviously, the catalogue update for Bygone Days was a big plus," said St. Lawrence. "He's been bought for a client to resell." The sale continues today with a session starting at 10:30 a.m. Complete results are available on www.tattersalls.com.

Kenneth and Sarah Ramsey have invested considerable time, effort and money in the career of their stallion Catienus. And, while he hasn't become a major commercial hit--he stood the most recent season at Highcliff Farm in Delanson, New York at a fee of $6,500--Catienus has rewarded his owner's faith by siring nine stakes winners and a total of 19 stakes performers with his first three crops. These include several smart Ramsey colorbearers, most notably the GI Breeder's Futurity S. victor Dawn of War, the GI Belmont S. and GII Super Derby third Nolan's Cat, and Precious Kitten, winner of this weekend's GII Mrs. Revere S.

A son of Storm Cat out of the graded-stakes placed Mr. Prospector mare Diamond City, Catienus actually carried the colors of Sheikh Mohammed through his first 13 starts. He began his career in Europe, and at one stage won three straight--his last two starts at two, and his first at three. Three outings in tougher company--the best of which resulted in a close fourth in the G3 Royal Whip S. against older horses--convinced his connections that Catienus' future might lie in the U.S. In this country, he made three starts at four when his season ended prematurely after a win in an 8 1/2-furlong allowance race on dirt at Monmouth.

After a disappointing debut at five, Catienus was dropped in for a $60,000 tag at Aqueduct and was promptly halted from the race, in which he finished second.

The move paid immediate dividends, as next time out Catienus, earned black-type for the Ramseys with a tally in the Charles Staats Memorial S. at Delaware. He demonstrated even better form in his next three starts, with a second, beaten only a half-length to Running Stag in the GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H.; a second to Behrens in the GII Suburban H., and a third to Victory Gallop and Behrens in the GI Whitney H. Kept in training at six, Catienus, added another second in the Saratoga Breeders' Cup.

Catienus initially stood at Ramsey Farm in Nicholasville, Kentucky, at a fee of $6,000 (which dropped to $3,500 the following year), before moving to Highcliff Farm. That first Kentucky crop produced 18 U.S. two-year-old winners, more than any other freshman sire. It also included four stakes winners as well as Nolan's Cat; Dawn of War and Precious Kitten head the four stakes winners from Catienus's second crop, and his third crop, currently two-year-olds, includes stakes winner Lights of Broadway.

Kitten's First, the dam of Precious Kitten, won only one race, but as a broodmare she's been something of a superstar. Her foal immediately preceding Precious Kitten was Kitten's Joy, an El Prado colt who earned honors as champion turf horse of 2004, and captured the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic, GI Secretariat S., GII Firecracker Breeders' Cup H., GIII Virginia Derby, GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. and GIII Tropical Park Derby. Earlier, Kitten's First began her stud career by producing the Broad Brush filly, Justenuffheart. She won three stakes events and was graded stakes placed, but she is now better known as the dam of this year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine, Dreaming of Anna, and is also dam of that filly's multiple stakes-winning and graded-placed brother, Lewis Michael.

Cont. p4

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America,

Precious Kitten's second dam, That's My Hon, a daughter of L'Enjoleur, never won, but she did produce the GI United Nations H. victor Down the Aisle. She was also half-sister to Road Princess, who captured the GI Mother Goose S. and subsequently produced the multiple graded winner Reign Road, and to GIII Breeders' Futurity winner Provante. Precious Kitten's third dam One Lane is a half-sister to Stop On Red, who entered the history books as the granddam of Spectacular Bid, one of the truly great horses of the second half of the 20th century.

Precious Kitten follows Grade I winner Dessert and Grade III winner Phantom Wind (both by Storm Cat) as the third black-type winner by Storm Cat or one of his sons out of a mare by Lear Fan. Catienus might particularly appreciate Lear Fan's sire Roberto since Catienus is out of a mare by Mr. Prospector, and Mr. Prospector's dam Gold Digger is a close genetic relative to Roberto's dam, Bramalea.

L'Enjoleur, the sire of the second dam of Precious Kitten also brings in an interesting element. He is out of the great Canadian runner and producer Fanfreluche, who is by Northern Dancer out of a mare by Chop Chop. This means she is bred along similar lines to Catienus's grandsire Storm Bird, who is by Northern Dancer and who has a second dam by Chop Chop. The combination of Storm Bird and Fanfreluche is found in at least five other stakes winners, including Group/Grade I winners D'Wildcat and Aube Indienne and graded scorer Wandering. Alan Porter may be contacted at portrpedigree@msn.com. BULL MARKET (CONTINUED)

Though Keeneland finished with a rare (and somewhat miniscule) drop in average, combined with Fasig's one-day blockbuster which kicked the November Mixed Sales off, the 15 days of selling saw a $56-million (17-percent) increase in gross. It's a great credit to the Fasig organization that their one-day sale accounted for over half of the increase for the whole fortnight-plus, but it is worth noting that their share of the November market increased only from 10 percent to 17 percent; Keeneland still accounted for 83 percent of it. With 13 percent more horses sold and the 15-day average still edging up four percent, it tends to suggest fears about overproduction have been dispelled; 1,536 horses sold in Keeneland books 3, 4, and 5 jumped 28 percent in average, from $39,986 to $51,287, indicating very strong demand for middle-tier horses.

That trend continued in no uncertain terms at Goffs November Sale last week; with five percent more horses sold than last year, the sale showed overall gains of 24 percent in gross and 19 percent in average.

Some observers described the foal market as the strongest they had ever seen, and the figures certainly confirm it was a strong market: 10 percent more foals sold for 32 percent more money and gained 20 percent in average, from €24,945 last year, to €30,040. Mares and fillies were plenty strong, too: though four percent fewer sold than last year, the gross for them was up 13 percent, and the average up 17 percent. Tattersalls December Sale opened the very next day (that's Monday, Nov. 20; 'December,' you see, turns out to be a state of mind), and marched right on. Demi O'Byrne discovered Dalakhani, and for the day nine percent more horses grossed 28 percent more than last year, with the average up 17 percent. Dalakhani was already Europe's leading 'freshman' sire of yearlings (ahead of Oasis Dream, Dubai Destination, and High Chaparral), but Monday's action propelled his average to something in the neighborhood of $348,465, ranking him second only to Empire Maker (about $379,000), and ahead of both Vindication (about $340,000) and Mineshaft (about $292,000) among his sire group. Cont. p6

When we went back and added in Goffs November, in addition to the German and Italian yearling sales we're including for the first time, we found that, at the 15 major sales we're now covering (11 yearling and four Mixed), last year 13,488 horses sold for $1,242,582,900--nearly $1.25 billion. This year, as you can see in the accompanying table, at the end of Goffs November, a total of 12,177 horses had sold for $1,232,471,100--just $10 million short of last year's total. That figure was surpassed on Monday, at Tattersalls' opening day, the December Yearling Sale. So, from the point of view of the major 15-sale gross, the rest of the December Sale is gravy. Last year the whole December Sale converted to about $140 million. The entire 15-sale gross, which reached $1 billion for only the second time in 2004, grew to nearly $1.25 billion last year. If it misses $1.4 billion by the end of next week, it won't be by much. Bull Market.

SIRE DEBUTANTS

At the Kentucky November sales, seven stallions had seven or more foals from their first crops of weanlings average over $100,000, headed by Smarty Jones (eight sold, averaged $275,625), Speightstown (12, averaged $217,916), and Medaglia d'Oro (21, averaged $187,476). Others who achieved a six-figure average included: Strong Hope, who had an impressive 14 sell, of 15 offered, averaging $131,071; Perfect Soul (seven sold, averaged $113,428); Tapit (12 sold, averaging $109,833); and Lion Heart, who had 19 sell (of 39 offered), which averaged $105,368. Eight first-year covering stallions averaged over $100,000; runaway leader among these was Ghostzapper, who averaged $712,500, though only four mares sold in-foal, of 10 offered. Saint Liam (21, averaged $223,190), Afleet Alex (19, averaged $181,578), and Rock Hard Ten (10, averaged $179,000) came next. All three had stood for $40,000-$50,000, though, of course, Saint Liam unfortunately died in a paddock accident after the covering season.

Two very well-marketed horses with 44 and 45 mares offered in foal, respectively, came next in average: Roman Ruler (25 sold, averaging $148,120) and Purge (38 sold, averaging $126,184). This top eight was rounded off by Taylor Made's Forest Danger, who was very popular, with 26 in-foal mares averaging $118,384. Equally popular was Claiborne's Eddington, with 12 in-foal mares averaging $111,833.

There is the usual contingent of 'commercial' stallions with their first foals at the European sales, Goffs last week and Tattersalls this week. Fifteen sires have double-digit representation between the two sales, including Coolmore's One Cool Cat (45 catalogued), Darley's Refuse to Bend (31), and Shadwell's Haafhd (13). It looks like a particularly strong European group of covering sires with their first mares in foal, including Footstepsinthesand (15 catalogued in foal) and Oratorio (23) from Coolmore; Dubawi (15) and Shamardal (7) from Darley; and Azamour (21), Motivator (13), and Starcraft (19) from the Rest of the World.

FLEET INDIAN HAS FETLOCK FUSED, INJURY OCCURRED IN BREEDERS' CUP

By Leslie Deckard Courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

Fleet Indian, who suffered an injury to her left front suspensory ligament during the Nov. 4 running of the Emirates Airline Breeders' Cup Distaff (gr. I) at Churchill Downs, had surgery Nov. 20 to fuse her left front fetlock. Owner Paul Saylor said the surgery was performed by Dr. Larry Bramlage at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital near Lexington. "She's doing very well," Saylor said Nov. 21. Saylor said the decision to perform the surgery came after Dr. Bramlage X-rayed the 5-year-old daughter of Indian Charlie's knees and ankles in an effort to determine the best way to stabilize her left front leg support system. "We kept looking to see if she was standing up on her pastern or fetlock and not putting too much weight on her right foot," her owner said. "Dr. Bramlage felt like the best way to stabilize the left front leg support system was to fuse the left front fetlock, which basically means she has a plate that goes in the front and that gives the fetlock support so she can stand up a lot better than she could otherwise once the healing is done. EXCELSIOR RACING ASSOCIATES CHOSEN FOR NEW YORK FRANCHISE

By Tom Precious Courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

Excelsior Racing Associates has been selected by a state government committee in New York to be the next holder of the franchise to run racing at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga racetracks. The non-binding decision by the Ad Hoc Committee on the Future of Racing recommended to the governor and state lawmakers that Excelsior get the franchise over the New York Racing Association, which placed a distant third in the scoring system by the panel. Empire Racing Associates, whose partners include New York horsemen, Magna Entertainment and Churchill Downs, scored second behind Excelsior. The recommended winner is a partnership that includes New York Yankees partner Steve Swindal and casino developer Richard Fields. Click here to continue.

Tiz Wonderful Works for Kentucky Jockey Club:

Tiz Wonderful (Tiznow), unbeaten winner of the Iroquois S., worked four furlongs at Churchill yesterday in :50. The colt is the likely favorite for Saturday's GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. "Chances like him don't come around all the time," said trainer Scott Blasi. "I'm happy with how he's doing out of his last race. This is a test that will help us learn a lot about him, as he's running back in races four weeks apart. I'm excited about leading him over." In addition to his 6 3/4-length victory in the Oct. 29 Iroquois, Tiz Wonderful was a 12 1/2-length maiden winner at Saratoga Sept. 2.

Thunder Touch to JEH:

Graded stakes winner Thunder Touch (Gulch--Highland Vixen, by Highland Ruckus) has been retired from racing and will enter stud at JEH Stallion Station in Wynnewood, Oklahoma, owner Millennium Farms announced yesterday. The five-year-old stallion will stand for $1,750. Thunder Touch won the 2004 GIII Fall Highweight H. and was third in last year's GIII Bold Ruler H. On the board in 11 of 21 starts, the chestnut won six times and earned $305,031. "Thunder Touch brings a new dimension to the southwest," said Millennium Farms' J Ted Neel. "He is a very fast horse and the only graded stakes winner in the southwest by Gulch, one of Mr. Prospector's finest stallion sons. We feel he will be an excellent fit for the region."

Keeneland Foundation Pledges $75K to Torok Fund:

The Keeneland Foundation has pledged $75,000 to a memorial fund established in honor of Keeneland employee Kathleen Torok, who was killed in an automobile accident in October. The contributions to the Kathleen Riley Torok Memorial Fund at Blue Grass Community Foundation will take place in $25,000 increments over three years. "Kathleen was an incredible employee and a wonderful friend to people from all walks of life," said Keeneland President and CEO Nick Nicholson. "Kathleen gave so much of herself and of her own resources to aid our community and those individuals in need of a helping hand. She was the embodiment of altruism and a role model for us all. This contribution will serve as a tribute to her efforts to make central Kentucky a better place." With the assistance of BGCF, members of Torok's family will oversee the distribution of the funds to ensure that the donations reach the causes that were of interest to her." Keeneland's contribution, coupled by an approximately $25,000 pledge from Thoroughbred owner Martin Schwartz in October, assures that the fund will exceed $100,000 by 2008.

Sam Houston Auction to Benefit Jockey Crisis Fund:

Sam Houston Race Park will host a silent auction to benefit the Jockey Crisis Fund on Dec. 2. The fund was established to lend support to injured riders and their families in times of need and has assisted over 30 riders at Sam Houston Race Park. "We have a very talented jockey colony this year at Sam Houston Race Park and they are extremely important to our organization," said racing secretary Eric Johnston. "While we do everything to protect our riders, injuries can occur when a rider is aboard a 1,000 pound racehorse at speeds of 35-40 mph. Trainers, owners and racing fans have expressed an interest in helping injured riders and their families. We are hopeful that the silent auction is successful in raising funds to assist our jockeys in their times of need." The auction, to be held on Texas Champions Day, will give fans the chance to bid on items such as: tickets to the Houston Texans vs. the Cleveland Browns football game, autographed baseball from Luke Scott of the Houston Astros, stable tour conducted by jockey Amanda Crandall, tickets to the Houston Rockets vs. Los Angeles Clippers basketball game, a Superbowl Party for 10 in the Sam Houston Race Park Jockey Club and a weekend package at the Hotel Derek.

Quick Action to Vessels:

Multiple stakes winner Quick Action (Carson City--Indian Sunset, by Storm Bird), who stood his first season at stud in 2006 at Martin Stables South, will relocate to Vessels Stallion Farm in Bonsall, California for the 2007 breeding season. Vessels purchased a 50-percent interest in the five-year-old and he will stand in partnership with Martin Stables. Out of a full sister to the dam of Storm Cat, Quick Action won the 2004 Fred "Cappy" Capossela S. and Anderson Fowler S. and was second in that year's GIII Lafayette S. "Given his consistent early speed and his royal pedigree that produces precocious, class horses, Vessels Stallion Farm is the perfect place for Quick Action," said co-owner Eddie Martin. Quick Action's stud fee is private.

Godolphin have purchased the G3 Preis der Wonerkonigin winner Shane (Ger) (Kornado {GB}) following the juvenile's 2 1/2-length success in the premier fillies' contest for owner Ulrich Zerrath and trainer Andreas Lowe at Baden-Baden last month. The chestnut is a sister to the 2004 G2 German 1000 Guineas winner and last year's G1 Prix d'Astarte runner-up Shapira (Ger). Among Godolphin's previous acquisitions from Germany is the 2001 G3 Premio Dormello heroine Kazzia (Ger), who went on to complete the G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Epsom Oaks double the following season.

WINSTON WAITS

Jockey Robert Winston has been forced to wait on the verdict of his application that he has "no case to answer" in relation to corruption charges brought against him by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority. Following the close of a two-day hearing in London yesterday, the HRA is deliberating before a decision is made later this week. Winston currently stands to be examined during a hearing of the HRA disciplinary committee starting Jan. 10, which also involves riders Robbie Fitzpatrick, Fran Ferris and former rider Luke Fletcher, alongside five Betfair account holders. The charges relate to a security department investigation centered on 37 races between June 16, 2003 and Feb. 29, 2004.

ALL BAR ONE TO OAKLANDS In a deal brokered by Magic Millions All Bar One (Aus) (Hennessy--Max's Sister, by Phone Trick) will enter stud in 2007 at Oaklands Stud as the property of a syndicate. His stud fee will be announced upon his retirement from racing. The chestnut, owned by Hoss and Gillian Heinrich, captured the G2 Sir Byrne Hart S. earlier this year. "All Bar One is a great addition to the stallion ranks at Oaklands," said the stud's principal Neville Stewart. "I was very excited about his speed and pedigree. He will definitely suite colonial-bred mares, and he is an excellent type, with a keen eye, and possesses great strength through his shoulder and hindquarter."

at Riethuisrael Stud. The nursery is owned by Altus Joubert, chairman of the South African Thoroughbred Breeders' Association. A seven-time Group 1 winner, Daylami initially raced for his breeder, His Highness the Aga Khan, for whom he tallied the 1997 G1 French 2000 Guineas. Sold to Godolphin thereafter, he continued to flourish, capping off his career with an eye-catching victory in the 1999 GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Gulfstream Park. Daylami entered stud in 2000 and sired subsequent G1 Irish Derby winner Grey Swallow (Ire) from his first crop. The 12-year-old has been represented by over 90 winners, including 19 stakes horses. To date, he has progeny earnings approaching $5.5 million. Robin Bruss of Northfields Bloodstock, who negotiated the deal, told SAHorseracing.com: "I am so proud to see a horse of this caliber coming to South Africa." He added, "Most importantly, Daylami has a pedigree entirely free of Northern Dancer, is from the Mill Reef sire line and out of a 'blue hen' mare, who also produced the European champion Dalakhani."
