the perfect sequel, charging from just off the pace to post a powerful 7 1/4-length victory in yesterday's GI Clark H. Spotting the competition anywhere from two to 11 pounds, the bay proved a handful for the starters, who were forced to load him backwards from the front of the stalls after balking for several minutes. But, once the race was on, it was all business for the progressive four-year-old, who took aim on the tiring Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold) at the head of the stretch before punching home a much-the-best winner. Cont. p2 afternoon when the three-year-old faces a compact, but classy field of older rivals in the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile H. at Aqueduct. Purchased from Joyce Robsham off his big-figure maiden victory at Saratoga last August, the son of GISW Pretty Discreet is coming off a 10 1/4-length thrashing of his peers at a nickel on the dollar in the GI Jerome Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 1 and Rick Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor, is looking forward to today's challenge. "I was a little disappointed the Jerome came up as easy as it did," Mettee said. "I wanted a little more of a test for him. He'll get that test Saturday and we'll finally be able to have a barometer on him. It's time for him to be pushed." Cigar Mile preview cont. p5

KICKING ASH

Askhal Way (Ire) (Ashkalani {Ire}) kicked off what could be a fantastic weekend for Godolphin, bursting through the stretch to win the GI Citation H. at Hollywood Park. Never much more than a decent handicap horse overseas, the chestnut has taken a liking to racing in this country. Yesterday was his sixth victory from seven starts, his first in Grade I company, and it came fairly easy, according to his jockey. "We had a perfect trip," said Garrett Gomez, who has the call aboard Discreet Cat today. "I was by myself down the backstretch. I felt a little pressure coming about the half-mile pole and I went ahead and put him in gear." Cont. p2

Premium Tap raised some eyebrows when he defeated Sun King in the July 7 Albert the Great S., but, in his first try against Invasor, could do no better than fifth in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 5. He lit the tote at 31-1 when he won the GI Woodward S. at Saratoga Sept. 2 and was a troubled fifth as the chalk in the GIII Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Sept. 30. That result cost Kent Desormeaux the ride in the Classic, but he was back in the boot for the Clark. Settled in third behind dueling frontrunners, Premium Tap angled off the fence cornering into the stretch and put the race to rest in a few strides. The final time was just 0.11 seconds off the track record set by Victory Gallop in the 1999 Stephen Foster H. and broke the stakes record by over a full second. Ashkal Way posted his only two wins in Europe at Beverly, winning his maiden at that venue in June 2005 before taking a valuable and competitive handicap two months later. He raced in Sheikh Hamdan's colors when third in a grassy handicap over the Nad Al Sheba turf this past Feb. 24, but has been a different beast since donning Godolphin blue. The winner of the July 15 Elkwood S. at Monmouth Park, he suffered his lone stateside defeat to date when runner-up in the GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 6. He bounced back with a neck victory in the GII Bernard Baruch H. at the Spa Aug. 26 and was most recently a head victor of the GII Kelso Breeders' Cup H. on the Belmont Park grass course Sept. 30. Sweet Return (Elmamul) sped to the early advantage, but Silent Name (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), the pacesetter in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile, refused to relax and went up outside that one at the five-eighths. Ashkal Way commenced his rally entering the final bend, came wide on the turn and into the stretch and cruised home under a full head of steam.

*Rahys' Appeal finished first, but was disqualified to second.

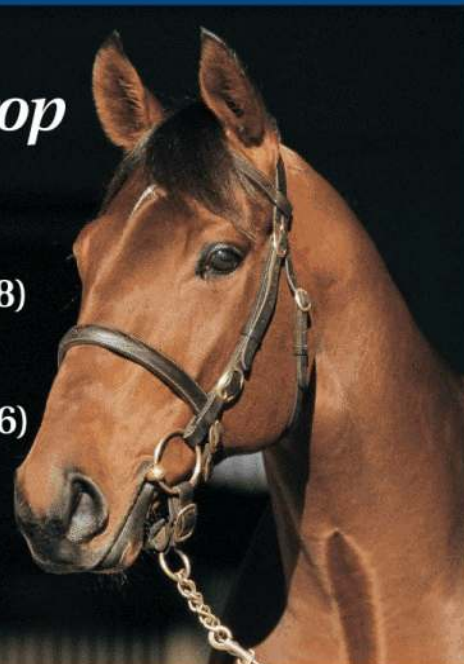

Rahys' Appeal crossed the line as clearly the best in the Top Flight, but had the win taken away from her when jockey Alan Garcia inadvertently struck the nose of Malibu Mint with his whip past midstretch. Purchased privately by John and Martha Jane Mulholland off a runner-up finish in the Winning Colors H. at Churchill May 27, Malibu Mint immediately rewarded that decision, sweeping to a 3 3/4-length victory in the GI Princess Rooney H. at Calder July 15. Second by a neck in the GII Honorable Miss H. at Saratoga Aug. 4, she ballooned to sixth in the GI Ballerina Breeders' Cup S. at the Spa Aug. 27, but atoned for that defeat with a track-record setting victory in Turfway Park's Weekend Delight S. Sept. 23, stopping the Teletimer in 1:08 2/5. She made it two straight with a one-length score in the GIII Thoroughbred Club of America S. at Keeneland Oct. 14, but was an overmatched 12th against the boys in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 4. Stretching to the one-turn mile for this, Malibu Mint found herself uncustomarily close to the front as Yolanda B. Too (Two Punch) took them along through swift fractions of :23.41 and :46.46. Rahys' Appeal, neatly tucked away inside and just behind the leaders after a stumbling start, angled out turning for home and took aim on the three-wide Malibu Mint. Rahys' Appeal was well on her way to the victory when misfortune struck and she lost the race upon review. "The horse came out into my whip," Garcia commented. "In general, my horse ran a big race. Anyway, I knew I had horse at the three-eighths pole. I was still waiting on her at the quarter-pole." Favored Mo Cuishle (Saint Ballado), perfect in three previous starts, made a middle move, but flattened out in upper stretch and finished last. Whatsthescript debuted with a third-place effort in a Leopardstown maiden for trainer David Wachman, then shifted to Roscommon to graduate by a head going seven furlongs over yielding ground July 10. The bay hooked tough-as-nails Teofilo (Ire) in the Listed Tyros S. back at Leopardstown July 29 and ran with credit to the would-be champion, finishing third by 2 3/4 lengths. Purchased privately in a deal brokered by former trainer and TVG personality Frank Lyons, the colt was rested and made his first stateside appearance a winning one, besting Warning Zone by a half-length in the restricted Pinjara S. going a mile over the Santa Anita turf course Oct. 26. The form of that race was franked when the runner-up came back to win the first division of the Generous and Whatsthescript was dispatched the even-money chalk. Settled outside for the run up the backstretch, Whatsthescript advanced on the far turn, overtook Sevengoldnmissiles in upper stretch and got to gawking late, but remained clear with jockey Isias Enriquez standing in the stirrups the final 25 yards. "He was dragging me all the way around," the winning rider said. "He's the best horse I've ever ridden on the grass. I give all the credit to this horse. It's like riding a Ferrari."

 Scratched: Golden Balls (Ire).
 *Private Wind (Wind Whipper) was DQ'd from third and placed seventh.

Warning Zone closed smartly to finish second in his 5 1/2-furlong debut over the Hollywood lawn June 24, then resurfaced with a narrow victory going one mile over the Del Mar lawn Aug. 23. The bay led the field in the stretch in Santa Anita's Pinjara S. Oct. 26, but tired to late to finish second, beaten a half length. With Corey Nakatani in the irons here, he settled in fifth as Quietly Mine (Belong to Me) and Private Wind battled through easy fractions of :24.66 and :49.05 fractions. Kept toward the outside on the turn for home, Warning Zone rallied down the center of the track to overtake the early leaders and drew off to win for fun. "It's called position," Nakatani commented. "The pace was slow and positioning means everything. He's a very nice horse and John [Sadler] was pointing him for this race. He's improving all the time and there's no doubt he's a very nice horse." Optari, favored at odds of 2-1, never got a chance to run after being blocked for most of the stretch. "I never really had a shot to go anywhere," jockey David Flores said. Private Wind crossed the line third, but was demoted to seventh for drifting out in the stretch.

The bit players include a Met Mile and Breeders' Cup Sprint winner, the 2004 runner-up from this event and a horse that ran Barbaro to a half-length earlier this year. In order, Silver Train has won this year's GII Tom Fool H. in addition to the Met, but was a no-excuses fifth in the GI Vosburgh S. Oct. 7. "I was shocked at the way he ran," said jockey Edgar Prado. "He broke well, but when I asked him, he never picked it up."
Badge of Silver, winner of this year's GII San Gabriel H. on the Santa Anita turf, returned from a 10-month absence to be third in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 4, while Sharp Humor, runner-up to Barbaro in the GI Florida Derby, figures to go forward off a second in the Hudson H. at Belmont Oct. 21.

Nightmare Affair raced in traffic on the backstretch and against the bias in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 4, but stayed on gamely into third, 4 1/2 lengths adrift of Thor's Echo. With a fair amount of speed signed on and with the possibility of a more level playing field, the five-year-old gets the nod and should be finishing fastest of all. Trainer Doug O'Neill sends the Sprint victor in an attempt to solidify claims to an Eclipse. The chestnut has done barely anything wrong this year and his 15-1 odds in the Sprint were overlaid, given his runner-up efforts in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen and the GI Ancient Title Breeders' Cup S. Attila's Storm, fifth after arguing the pace at Churchill, should be ready for a peak effort in just his fourth start of the season and third off an eight-month layoff.

The consistent Seeking the Dia was beaten a flared nostril in this event 12 months ago, but got back on the beam with a victory in the Nippon TV Hai at Funabashi Sept. 29. Fourth to Blue Concorde in the Mile Championship Nambu Hai at a distance probably too short for him, the son of French highweight Seeking the Pearl prepped for this with a runner-up effort in the JBC Classic at Kawasaki Nov. 3. Blue Concorde followed his win in the Nambu Hai with a two-length success from Meisho Battler in the JBC Mile Nov. 2, but must negotiate an extra 500 meters today. Alondite, a grandson of Kingmabo, is perfect in two tries at this distance, having graduated at this track June 10 and posting a 3/4-length score in the Gintei S. at this venue Oct. 22.

Nobiz Like Shobiz, a 10 1/2-length maiden winner going eight furlongs at Belmont Sept. 9, was sent off the 7-5 chalk in the Oct. 14 GI Champagne S. and nearly got the job done, finishing 3/4 of a length behind Scat Daddy in second. "He was relatively green, and the horse that beat him had some experience," trainer Barclay Tagg told Daily Racing Form. He added, "I think he'll relish [the two turns]. I ran him a mile first time out because I didn't think he was a sprinter." Phipps homebred Sightseeing followed up on his nose decision over Timber Reserve in a Sept. 28 maiden event with a runner-up effort behind Day Pass in the Nov. 3 GIII Nashua S. over this track. He should appreciate the added route. Timber Reserve, a $400,000 FTFFEB juvenile, shipped to Churchill to get his first victory going a mile Oct. 29.

Miss Goodnight, from the team that brought you Afleet Alex, romped by 9 1/2 lengths in a Delaware maiden race Oct. 9. The bay came back to take the Oct. 28 Blue Hen S. at that track in her first attempt at a route and looms the one to beat here. Boca Grande improved off a third in her career opener at Saratoga to win by 5 1/4 lengths in a mile test at Belmont Oct. 18 and should have no trouble with two turns in her stakes bow. Successful Outlook broke her maiden at first asking in the mud at Belmont Oct. 1 and added a 1 1/2-length score in the Nov. 3 GIII Tempted S. Her connections are not concerned about the extra panel here. "In the Tempted, she was the only one going on at the end of the race," Toby Sheets, assistant to trainer Scott Blasi, told Daily Racing Form. "She's a special filly."

She rebounded with a two-length score in the Oct. 29 GIII Pocahontas S. "You never want to get over-confident going into the race, because they're all nice fillies," said trainer Steve Flint. "But she's trained out of her skin. Somebody's going to have to run the race of their life to beat her." Lady Joanne, third in the Pocahontas, has been working bullets ever since. Cohiba Miss, fifth at Mountaineer for Steve Flint's father, Bernie, was freshened after wiring the field in the Sept. 30 Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies S. at Turfway.

Tiz Wonderful proved more than worthy of his $475,000 FTFFEB price tag when breaking his maiden by 12 1/2 lengths at Saratoga Sept. 2 and was nearly as impressive in the Oct. 29 GIII Iroquois S., cruising to a 6 3/4-length tally over What a Tale. The Stonestreet colorbearer has trained well at Churchill and will be a short price to remain undefeated. "Chances like him don't come around all the time," said trainer Scott Blasi. "This is a test that will help us learn a lot about him, as he's running back in races four weeks apart. I'm excited about leading him over." Any Given Saturday is also perfect in two starts, taking a Turfway maiden test Sept. 15 and a Keeneland allowance Oct. 19. The dark bay posted a bullet move at Churchill Nov. 13, going five panels in :59 2/5. GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile winner U D Ghetto lost all chance when stumbling at the start of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, but should improve off that seventh-place showing.

Freedonia (GB) (Selkirk), one of two overseas hopefuls for Sunday's race, is slowly coming around after reportedly spiking a slight fever and losing weight on the journey to the Orient. "Running a fever after a journey is not uncommon and we're not concerned," commented trainer John Hammond, who arrived in Tokyo Thursday night. "Unfortunately, [Freedonia] was delayed a day coming over here, which we could have done without, and she lost a fair bit of weight, which is normal in a journey. She's taking a little bit of time to put it back on which is why we're training her pretty lightly." The four-year-old filly, a Niarchos homebred, won the G2 Prix de Pomone Aug. 6 and was most recently second to English Channel in the GI Turf Classic Invitational in New York.

Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) continues to train strongly over the Fuchu Racecourse. "She has a big appetite and she's in great condition," commented trainer Ed Dunlop. "Everything is going perfectly." The GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine will be ridden by Frankie Dettori.

Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), narrowly runner-up in this last year and the only horse to defeat favored Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) at home, worked 800 meters on the uphill gallop at the Ritto Training Center in :50.7 yesterday. Jockey Christophe Patrice-Lemaire acknowledged that Deep Impact is the one to deny, but added, "We've beaten him once and I have to believe we can beat him a second time."

SADLER'S WELLS COLT TOPS TATTS Yesterday's record-breaking penultimate session of the Tattersalls December Foal Sale saw an amazing 42 six-figure transactions. Leading the way was hip 1207, a 420,000gns Sadler's Wells half-brother to the dual G1 winner Landseer (GB). He was bred by Rockwell Bloodstock and sold from the Swinburn family's Genesis

Green Stud. Demi O'Byrne, acting for the Coolmore trio of Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and John Magnier, outbid Co Cork agent Denis Sheehy for the colt. "Landseer was a really good colt and this fellow was very good looking," said O'Byrne. "He'll head to Coolmore now and hopefully he will race for the usual team." The dispersal from Roger Baines's Britton House Stud included a pair of popular colts. Camas Park Stud's Timmy Hyde saw off Sheehy for a 370,000gns Sadler's Wells half-brother to both the 2003 G1 Irish Oaks runner-up L'Ancrese and G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Cerulean Sky. "Prices are expensive, but at least with a page like that you've got a chance," Hyde said of hip 1147. "He'll be resold next year." Sheikh Mohammed team's acquired hip 1145, an Elusive Quality half-brother to G2 winner Mr. Mellon. John Ferguson outbid Sheehy for the 325,000gns colt. "It's unusual for foals with such a serious pedigree to become available at public auction nowadays," said Ferguson. "The dam, Mackie, was outstanding and she has produced a neat attractive colt who will go to Ireland now. There's a chance he could race in America, but we've got plenty of time to decide." Hyde also paid 285,000gns to outbid agent Bert Kerr for hip 1102, a beautifully-related Montjeu colt out of Alabastrine (GB). "Compared to what some of the others were making there was some sense in his price," said Hyde. "I love the sire, he's out of a Green Desert mare and it's a fantastic family. I should think he will be resold next year." The sale concludes today with a session starting at 10:30 a.m.

JOSE MARTIN PASSES AWAY Jose Martin, who trained three champions during a successful career, passed away Wednesday at New York's North Shore University Hospital after a lengthy battle with lung cancer. The son of Hall of Fame trainer Frank "Pancho" Martin and the father of trainer Carlos Martin, Jose Martin turned 63 in October. "He was a great father and a great friend," said Carlos Martin. "He was diagnosed with cancer about five years ago, and he fought it hard. About six months ago, it came back." Jose Martin registered his first stakes winner with Urgent Message and got his first stakes win in New York when Jogging took the 1973 Tidal H. His career kicked into another gear later that decade when Lakeville Miss was named the champion juvenile filly of 1977. He conditioned Wayward Lass to champion three-year-old filly honors in 1981, but his big horse was Groovy, the champion sprinter of 1987. According to Carlos Martin, there was to be a small, private ceremony in honor of his father.

The Green Monkey to Debut in 2007:

The Green Monkey (Forestry), who set a world record when he was purchased for $16 million at the Fasig-Tipton February Sale at Calder, will not make his debut until next year, the Daily Racing Form reports. The two-year-old was sidelined after injuring a gluteal muscle over the summer, and reagravated that injury this fall. He has been shipped to his owner's Ashford Stud in Kentucky for a break. "We sort of ran out of time at Aqueduct, so we're going to point for a Florida campaign," trainer Todd Pletcher told DRF. "We'll give him a little bit of time off."

Record Opening Day Crowd in New Orleans:

The return of racing to New Orleans drew a record opening-day attendance of 8,732 on a sunsplashed, 70-degree Thanksgiving Day afternoon. The previous mark was established Nov. 27, 1997, when the historic track reopened its doors after being reconstructed following a fire. The on-track handle of $616,078 was the third highest in the history of the facility, behind only Louisiana Derby day of 2005 and 2000.

Borel Undergoes Wrist Surgery:

Calvin Borel, the leading jockey at the fall meeting at Churchill Downs, underwent surgery yesterday to repair multiple fractures in his wrist suffered in a mishap in Thursday's fifth race. The 40-year-old, regular rider of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Street Sense, was aboard Janis Whitham's Pew in the 1 1/8-mile turf maiden when the three-year-old gelding appeared to clip heels and fell to the turf. The Ian Wilkes-trainee suffered a catastrophic injury to an ankle and was euthanized on the track. Through Thursday's racing, Borel held a 23-20 advantage over Shaun Bridgmohan in the race for top jockey. He was scheduled to pilot the victorious Ermine in the GII Falls City H. Eddie Castro picked up the mount following Borel's injury.

VOTE EARLY (f, 3, More Than Ready--Mail It In, by Lord Avie) followed up on a maiden win at Ellis Park July 29 with an allowance score at that track Sept. 3. The bay was given a break after that performance, but tired to be last when racing against the come-from-behind bias in her return, a Keeneland allowance test Oct. 17. Allowed to settle in third this time, the 5-1 shot was five wide as they raced into the stretch and finished well to hand 3-2 La Cocasse (Arg) (Mutakddim) a 3/4-length defeat. The runner-up was last seen taking the G1 Estrellas Juvenile Fillies in her native country June 19. Lifetime Record: 7-3-1-0, $71,791.

This race became a more open affair when the connections of Cambiocorsa decided to scratch out in favor of Sunday's GI Matriarch S. on the turf. Taking full advantage of the absence of that likely favorite was Gn. Group Meeting, who was in search of her first win since taking the CTBA Marian S. at the 2005 Fairplex meeting. Put away for the season off a fourth in the Cal Cup Distaff H. last November, the homebred was a 3-1 chance in the GII A Gleam H. in her July 1 return to action, but came home a well beaten fourth. She filled the same spot in an open optional claimer at the Seaside Aug. 16, but rallied in her next to be third in the Pio Pico S. at the Fairplex Sept. 15. She failed to get in front of a single horse in her latest, the Oct. 22 Pine Tree Lane S. at Santa Anita, and was the fourth choice in a field of eight. Settled in sixth for the opening half-mile, Gn. Group Meeting came out for the drive and rallied past four rivals in the final furlong en route to the victory. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

TCA Season Auction to Include Bernardini:

A season to likely three-year-old champion Bernardini has been added to the offerings that will be auctioned off at the 17th annual Thoroughbred Charities of America Stallion Season and Art Auction. The event will begin with a telephone auction, with bids for the seasons accepted from Monday, Nov. 27 through Wednesday, Nov. 29, and conclude with a silent auction during a dinner honoring the Barbaro team at the Keeneland Entertainment Center Friday, Dec. 1. In addition to Bernardini, the list of seasons is highlighted by Unbridled's Song, Bluegrass Cat, Songandaprayer, Awesome Again, Speightstown, Bellamy Road, Vindication and Dynaformer. Trainer Todd Pletcher will donate 26 seasons to the event. Items in the silent auction include oil paintings, bronzes, watercolors, photographs, prints, vacations, jewelry and tickets to sporting events. The auction, now in its 17th year, raised $1.9 million last year. Proceeds of the auction will be distributed among about 150 organizations involved with horse rescue and retraining and with backstretch aid, including scholarships, therapeutic riding and equine research. For additional information and a complete list of seasons, visit the TCA website at www.thoroughbredcharities.org or call the hotline at (302) 376-6289. For reservations to the dinner, call (859) 312-5531.

KELLY FACES CORRUPTION CHARGES

Jockey Shane Kelly will be charged with three counts of corruption by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority, it was announced yesterday. The HRA are expected to charge the currently injured rider over his contact with warned-off punter and former owner Ajaz Khan, for "providing inside information for reward," "aiding and abetting a corrupt practice," and "misleading investigators." Kelly told the Post, "I have nothing to hide and categorically deny all the allegations. I stress these allegations are not related to race-fixing and I will do whatever I can to help the HRA in their investigation and, indeed, have fully assisted them ever since this blew up." The allegations surround 14 races between November 2004 and April 2005. Yesterday, the HRA announced that three other jockeys, Josh Byrne, David Nolan and the currently unlicensed Fran Ferris, as well as trainer Phil McEntee, Ajaz Khan and six unlicensed individuals, have been informed that they face charges in relation to 40 races run between September 2004 and March 2005. The hearing is not expected to take place until next March.

WINSTON HAS TO FACE HRA

Robert Winston learned yesterday that his challenge that he has "no case to answer" to corruption charges has been rejected by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority. Following deliberations as a result of his two-day preliminary hearing this week, the HRA informed Winston that he will face charges at the January hearing, along with fellow jockeys Robbie Fitzpatrick, Fran Ferris and former rider Luke Fletcher, plus five Betfair account holders. The charges relate to a security department investigation surrounding 37 races between June 2003 and February 2004.
