GIVE THAT CAT A CIGAR

He had never been truly tested, and he was the 124-pound highweight despite facing a pair of talented older runners. But Discreet Cat

Discreet Cat D Alcosser photo

(Forestry) lived up to his 1-5 odds in the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile yesterday at Aqueduct, stopping the clock in 1:32.46, just .06 off Easy Goer's official track record. "This is the best race he's ever run," said winning trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "I'm sure he will improve. The way he won today was brilliant." It'll be hard to improve on perfection: Discreet Cat's Cigar victory made him six-for-six lifetime. ON BOARD FOR THE JAPAN CUP

Lord Derby's globetrotting Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), already a Group 1 winner on three continents, will attempt to add the G1 Japan Cup to her trophy case today in Tokyo. Beaten just two lengths when fifth last year, the five-year-old has stars Deep Impact (Jpn)

(Sunday Silence) and Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) standing in her way. "I'm confident she's well; but we've got two very good colts to beat, arguably the best two in the world at the moment," trainer Ed Dunlop told Racing Post. "She may be the best filly in the world, and we'll be getting two kilos which will help, but you can't be confident against those two, and home ground is a big advantage to them. She's defied us so many times, though. Let's hope she can do it again." Cont. p8-9 nice horse and has got a big personality," said trainer Barclay Tagg. The $500,000 contest will also feature the turf debut of Brother Derek (Benchmark), who is looking for his first victory since the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 8. "He's doing super, and [owner] Cecil [Peacock] wants to run," said Hendricks. "It's a tough race to win, but he couldn't be doing better." Cont. p9

Discreet Cat debuted in the colors of Joyce Robsham, the widow of his breeder E. Paul Robsham. He earned big speed figures for his 3 1/2-length victory in that Aug. 27 maiden at Saratoga; that margin remains the closest any horse has been to him at the finish line. Purchased privately by Godolphin for a mid-seven figure price, the bay didn't race again until Mar. 9, when he handily captured an allowance at Nad al Sheba. He stepped up to a mile and an eighth for the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 25 over the same course and came home six lengths in front. Among those beaten that day was Invasor (Arg), who is the leading contender for the U.S. Horse of the Year following four Grade I wins. But Discreet Cat missed most of the spring and summer with minor problems, and only made it back to the races Aug. 25 at Saratoga. An 11-length allowance win set him up for the G1 Jerome Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 1, when he gave away plenty of weight en route to an easy 10 1/4-length victory.

Top of the Stretch Adam Coglianesse

"I wanted to be out in the clear, with him being the best horse," Gomez explained. "[Sharp Humor] was getting out pretty bad and I was stuck in the middle. Halfway up the backside, I decided to drop inside. My only concern was [Badge of Silver]. I was giving up a lot of weight to the field. I guess the secretary weighted them right. I had plenty of horse in the stretch. I showed him the stick a couple of times and he went about his business. He's never been hit with it." Discreet Cat will winter in Dubai. "He's going to run in Dubai; maybe the Maktoum Challenge before the World Cup," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "There is also the [G2] Godolphin Mile, but we are looking forward to the World Cup."

Lighting the Cigar...

Discreet Cat was the highweight here despite being a three-year-old and facing the likes of Silver Train, the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint hero and winner of the GI Met Mile earlier this year; and Badge of Silver, second in this race in 2004 and most recently third in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile. Breaking swiftest of all was GSW Sharp Humor (Distorted Humor), who showed the way through an opening quarter of :22.72 as Silver Train secured the rail in second, with Discreet Cat racing in third. Discreet Cat put his nose in front after a :44.83 half as Sharp Humor began to back out of it, but Silver Train came up immediately to head the odds-on choice. Silver Train had the lead after three-quarters in 1:07.75, but Garrett Gomez sensed that Discreet Cat still had something left to offer. Gomez waved his stick at the colt and he responded, putting away Silver Train and finding the wire safely in front of the rallying Badge of Silver.

Thor's Echo had gone his first five starts this year without a win, but two outings later finds himself the front-runner for an Eclipse Award as the nation's champion sprinter. After concluding 2005 with a third to Proud Tower Too in the GI Malibu S., the chestnut ran fourth to Bordonaro in the Sunshine Millions Sprint Jan. 28. He was the runner-up to Proud Tower Too in each of his next two starts, the Sensational Star H. at Santa Anita Feb. 19 and the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen Mar. 25 at Nad al Sheba, and was given some time to regroup. The Cal-bred came back with a fourth on the turf at Del Mar Aug. 16, then finished second to Bordonaro in the GI Ancient Title BC S. Oct. 7 at Santa Anita and was 15-1 in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 4 at Churchill. Thor's Echo, prominent from the start in that $2-million affair, ranged up three wide and pulled away to win by four lengths. Sent further East in hopes of garnering a championship, the crowd's choice raced in fourth through fractions of :21.96 and :44.70. He rallied five wide on the turn and fended off a valiant Diabolical down the lane for his second straight Grade I victory. "This horse has always been knocking on the door of being a champion," said winning trainer Doug O'Neill. "He was just beaten at Dubai this year. After that race--with the advice of the vets--we backed up and gave him some time off. He was just worn out. That was probably the big difference in his turnaround. He's really come back running in a big way. We hope to take him back there [Dubai] again and run for the big money. This horse gives everything he has every time and he's a gelding, so we don't have to worry about his going to a breeding farm."

Nobiz Like Shobiz proved to be the real deal with this impressive victory. Tabled as a TDN Rising Star following a big maiden win at Belmont Sept. 9, the rangy bay was sent off as the favorite in the GI Champagne S. Oct. 14, but endured a rough trip and wound up second, 3/4 of a length behind Scat Daddy. The Elizabeth Valando homebred came away smoothly here to race with the pace through splits of :47.65 and 1:11.96. He quickly moved to the lead in the lane and the race was over, with Cornelio Velasquez just showing him the whip in the final furlong. "I thought he ran very professionally," trainer Barclay Tagg said. "That's what I was hoping for all along; that's why I gave him that extra month or five weeks or whatever. We worked on him a little bit." It was love at first sight, according to Tagg. "This is the truth: I went to look at him at Ocala Stud," he said. "They brought him out to the track and he jogged off. Before he jogged three steps, I called her [owner Elizabeth Valando] and said, 'This is the most gorgeous horse I've ever seen.' I'd never done that before." Unbeaten and not seriously tested in two previous outings, Tiz Wonderful fought back gamely against Any Given Saturday to maintain his perfect record. The bay aired by 12 1/2 lengths Sept. 2 at Saratoga, an effort which made him a TDN Rising Star. He didn't race again until Oct. 29, but showed no signs of rustiness with a 6 3/4-length victory in the GIII Iroquois S. going a flat mile under the Twin Spires. Odds-on here, Tiz Wonderful vied for the lead down the backstretch as Any Given Saturday--also perfect in two starts--loomed large in third. The latter swooped to the outside on the far turn and looked to have the favorite at his mercy, but Tiz Wonderful battled on tenaciously at the rail and found the wire first. "He's just learning to run; he's still trying to put it all together," said winning trainer Scott Blasi. I think when he leans to relax a little more off the pace, we'll know a lot more about him." to saved ground in fourth early here as Successful Outlook led aggressively, the dark bay drew closer through the far turn. She skimmed the rail to head that favorite and drew off smartly to win by daylight. "There is a lot to look forward to," said winning trainer Shug McGaughey. "We stepped her up a little bit quick, but her maiden race was a good race. She cut the corner...and got through there. She won pretty handy." Boca Grande, produced by a full sister to the dam of ill-fated Pine Island, will ship to Gulfstream Tuesday.

Lady Joanne rallied for third in her Sept. 20 debut at Turfway and, with Lasix added, triumphed by 6 1/2 lengths going seven panels at Keeneland Oct. 11. She stepped up in class for the GIII Pocahontas S. and came on to get third behind Change Up in that Oct. 29 contest over this surface. Breaking from the three hole here, the bay homebred secured a good spot heading into the first turn and tracked Change Up on the backstretch. She headed that filly turning for home and, after an extended battle, edged away late to earn her first stakes victory. "It's great, isn't it?" said Ian Wilkes, Carl Nafzger's former assistant who saddled the winner. "We were concerned there might not be enough pace for her, and the distance was a question." Valbenny closed from the back of the pack to get up in the final strides for her first stakes victory. The bay began her career in Britain for trainer Alan Swinbank, for whom she ran sixth in her June 5 opener at Carlisle. She improved to be second in an Ayr maiden June 23 before graduating against males at the same course July 25. Purchased privately afterwards, Valbenny was in steady training for Paddy Gallagher at Santa Anita by October. The Irish-bred was one of five fillies making their U.S. bows here, with an additional pair having already started once in this country. Alex Solis allowed the first-time Lasix Valbenny to settle into stride at the back of the pack as Kimmy Potter (Broken Vow) led early from Mystic Soul. Mystic Soul took over turning for home, only to find Super Freaky delivering her run. Though Mystic Soul won that battle, Valbenny had clear sailing on the outside and finished up relentlessly to claim the crown. "I saved all the ground the first part," Solis said. "When I got to the half-mile pole, I saw [Richard] Migliore [on Brushed Gold] in front of me and he was making a nice move, so I parked behind him. At the 5/16-pole, I put her on the bit and at the quarter pole I got in the clear and she did her thing. I never worked her, but I saw her tapes from Europe and she was very impressive."  Also Ran: Osidy, Sherwood Park, Houseofroyalhearts, Captain Kurt (NZ), Lazzeri.

Jungle Prince kicked off 2006 with a close-up second in a sloppy edition of Santa Anita's GIII El Conejo H. Jan. 2, but couldn't reproduce that form when switched to the grass for the one-mile Thunder Road H. at Santa Anita Feb. 8. Sixth that day, the gelding was a much improved third in the Daytona H. over 6 1/2 furlongs there Feb. 19. Back in the winner's circle for the Phoenix Gold Cup H. Mar. 18, the bay was placed on the sidelines until a return victory in the Governor's Cup H. at Fairplex Sept. 24. He was pitted against the best in the Oct. 7 GI Ancient Title BC H., but was not disgraced in defeat with a third-place finish behind Bordanaro and subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Thor's Echo, winner of yesterday's GI Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash. A close-up fourth in his latest going 6 1/2 panels on the turf at Santa Anita for the GIII Morvich H. Oct. 29, the five-year-old went off at generous odds this time. Keen once out of the blocks, Jungle Prince pressed a solid early pace and forged to the front turning for home. The bay was in full stride late and enough left in the tank to hand In Summation a half-length defeat. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Never close in a pair of turf starts to begin his career, Alondite completed the metamorphosis into a top-notch dirt horse here, outfinishing favored Seeking the Dia for his first stakes victory. Switched to the main track earlier this season, the dark bay colt was third in a Niigata maiden May 21 before graduating by eight lengths in a muddy course-and-distance test June 10. A one-length winner of a Kyoto conditions event July 9, he added a victory in Niigata's Uonuma Tokubetsu July 29 before getting a breather.

Rested off that effort, Alondite returned to action with a 3/4-length success in this track's 2100-meter regarded to negotiate this steep hike in class. The three-year-old was nicely

sophomore Fusaichi Richard (Jpn) (Kurofune) went a solid pace, but the speed began to back up turning into the stretch. Yutaka Take guided Seeking the Dia to the outside for a clear run and took command at the quarter pole, but Alondite remained glued to the rail and drove through an opening at the inside at the 200-meter mark before outstaying the crowd's choice to the wire.
 "I knew he was a special horse and could perhaps face a Group 1 field," commented winning trainer Sei Ishizaka. "I was confident enough to think that he would make it within the very moved by his performance." Ishizaka added that races such as the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai World Cup would be under consideration for the winner.

lost his unbeaten record when beaten a half-length by Heart's Cry in the Arima Kinen in December. He resumed his winning ways this past spring with three straight victories, including the Tenno Sho (Spring) and the G1 Takarazuka Kinen, before preparing for a tilt at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. After being forwardly placed in that Oct. 1 test, the four-year-old was passed late by Rail Link (GB) and Pride (Fr) and crossed the line third. He was later disqualified when a post-race urine test revealed the presence of a bronchodilator. Cont. p9

The journey back home does not appear to have taken too much out of Deep Impact. "He's been gradually shifting into high gear after returning here," said trainer Yasuo Ikee. "He had a fast work despite running on his own, so I think he's maintained in an extremely good condition. I just hope that he will be able to run in his usual style and give everyone a performance to remember in the Japan Cup. We are doing our best to prepare him for this race, and I believe that he will respond to our expectation." Heart's Cry, beaten a nose in last year's Japan Cup, followed his defeat of Deep Impact with a sharp victory in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 25 at Nad al Sheba. The five-year-old has started just once since then, finishing third by a length to Hurricane Run (Ire) in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. July 29 at Ascot.

All carry 122 pounds.

Ivan Denisovich, a son of U.S. champion Hollywood Wildcat, was treated with Lasix for the G1 Secretariat S. Aug. 12 and rallied four wide to be second to Showing Up over a mile and a quarter. The bay returned to capture the Listed Solonoway S. at The Curragh Sept. 17 before weakening to eighth behind stablemate George Washington (Ire) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 23. He just missed drawing in for the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile, but may be better suited by the 10 furlongs of this race. A solid handicapper in England, Dark Islander added Lasix in his stateside bow, the G1 Oak Tree Derby Oct. 14. The Irish-bred bay got first run over Obrigado that day and stayed on to hand him a 1 1/4-length defeat. Frost Giant, a recent acquisition for IEAH Stables, captured the 10-furlong G3 Kiltarnan S. at Leopardstown Sept. 9 before finishing fifth to English Channel in the G1 Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Oct. 7 at Belmont in his final start for trainer Aidan O'Brien.

The swift Mea Domina, a wire-to-wire winner of the 2005 GI Gamely BC H., returns home after tiring to fifth behind Gorella (Fr) in the GII First Lady S. at Keeneland Sept. 2. In her prior outing, the five-year-old set a course record at Del Mar for her front-running victory in the GII Palomar BC H. Sept. 2. But she will almost certainly have a serious rival for the lead her in Pommes Frites, a multiple graded-stakes winner in New York. The dark bay landed the GIII Athenia H. at Belmont Oct. 15 in her most recent trip postward.

The pace just might set up for Beautyandthebeast, who has won two straight. She outfinished Clinet by a head to capture the one-mile GII Las Palmas H. at Santa Anita Oct. 29. Bobby Frankel will saddle a tough entry for Juddmonte: Mirabilis and Price Tag. Mirabilis, winner of the GIII Distaff Turf Mile May 6 at Churchill, hasn't run since finishing fourth to Gorella and Pommes Frites in the GII Just a Game BC H. June 10 at Belmont. Her stablemate Price Tag was disqualified from victory in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, but later defeated males in the G3 Prix du Pin Sept. 7 at Longchamp. Her tenure under Pascal Bary concluded with a close 12th in the G1 Prix de la Foret Sept. 30 at Longchamp.

HAPPY TICKET RETIRED Grade I winner Happy Ticket (Anet--Love and Happiness, by Septieme Ciel), the richest Louisiana-bred of all time, has been retired from racing, according to Daily Racing Form. She will be sent to Glencrest Farm in Kentucky, but breeding plans have not yet been finalized. "I wanted to have her here in New Orleans in case we wanted to continue to run," owner/breeder Stewart Madison told DRF. "I've just kind of been on the fence, and after a while I said, you know, she's really done everything she could do and she deserves to have the day off, as they say. She's really in good physical shape. She's happy as can be, and she's done everything for us we could ever ask. She's just been a great racehorse for us." Trained by Andrew Leggio Jr., the blaze-faced bay whistled through her first nine races, including the GIII Chicago Breeders' Cup H., before losing her perfect record when second to Madcap Escapade in the 2005 GII Princess Rooney H. at Calder. She rebounded by defeating eventual GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Pleasant Home in the GI Ballerina S. and was second to Ashado in the GI Beldame S. Happy Ticket kicked off 2006 with a victory at Evangeline Downs before sustaining a heartbreaking pair of neck losses at Oaklawn, to Round Pond in the GIII Azeri BC H. Mar. 11 and to Spun Sugar in the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 8. She rebounded with a victory in the GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill June 17 and made her final career start in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, where she crossed the line third before being put up to second. Happy Ticket heads to the breeding shed with a record of 20-12-6-0 and earnings of $1,688,838.

TATTS FOALS ENDS RECORD RUN Tattersalls' December Foal Sale concluded in Newmarket yesterday evening with record figures. The turnover of 28.8 million guineas was up 24 percent on 2005, the 38,688gns average rose by 34 percent while the 22,000gns median was up by 25 percent. "This has been a truly phenomenal December Foal Sale from start to finish," said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "The statistics say it all. Last year's foal sale achieved records for turnover and median and an average that had been bettered only once. Equally telling has been the number of six-figure foals, which has gone from 32 in 2005 to 67 in 2006." Yesterday's sale was topped by a Kyllachy (GB) half-sister to Group 1-winning juvenile Dutch Art (GB); the weanling had been bought 'in utero' for just 12,000gns at last year's December Sale, and her dam Halland Park Lass will be offered Wednesday. Agent Amanda Skiffington paid 280,000gns for the filly after seeing off Angus Gold, Cheveley Park Stud's Chris Richardson and finally Seamus Burns of Lodge Park Stud, who had kicked the bidding off at 100,000gns. "She was beautiful, her x-rays were spotless and she was just perfect in every respect," said Skiffington. "She's been bought for a syndicate and I don't know what the plan will be, whether she will be resold or kept to race." A Galileo (Ire) half-brother to G2 Flying Childers S. third-place finisher Berk the Jerk (GB), offered by Denis McDonnell's Parkway Farm, was sold for 260,000gns to James Wigan of London Thoroughbred Services. Croom House Stud owner Denis Brosnan was the immediate underbidder. "He's been bought for a client to race and will be staying in this country," said Wigan. "I thought he was a particularly nice colt." A Montjeu (Ire) half-sister to this season's Listed Hilary Needler S. winner Roxan (Ire) was bought for 220,000gns by agent Brian Grassick from Castletown Stud. German agent Ronald Rauscher was underbidder. "She's for a longstanding client who has been trying to buy some nice fillies and will come back to my place [Newtown Stud] before going into training in Ireland," said Grassick. The December Mares' Sale begins tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. Toppers, Statistics, p11

LOST GOING HOME (g, 3, City Zip--Let Me Pass Sir, by Sir Leon) rode the rail to a 4 1/4-length triumph over state-breds in his career opener at the Big A Oct. 25 and was the 3-1 second choice to make it two-for-two. The $30,000 FTMMAY juvenile battled head-and-head for the lead to the stretch before drawing clear, hitting the wire 4 3/4 lengths to the good. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $51,000.

MISTER WHITE SOCKS (c, 2, Horse Chestnut {Saf}-Vacherie {MSW & GSP, $254,960}, by Vigers) tired late to be third while trying six panels in the slop at Belmont Oct. 20 and went off a lukewarm 3-1 favorite for this route debut. Up to contest the early pace, the bay was 1 1/2 lengths clear after three-quarters in 1:11.21 and remained two lengths ahead of Angelouie (Johannesburg) at the wire. The $210,000 FTMMAY juvenile is a half to Super I. (Wild Again), Ch. Sprinter-Pan, MSW. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $30,700.

filly cooled her heels while saving ground for six furlongs, then was guided to the outside for the stretch drive. She responded to jockey Mark Guidry's encouragement to get to the front in the final sixteenth and turned back the late bid of favored Baby Bird. "She's a typical female--you just gotta let her do what she wants to do," Guidry said. "She was a little pumped up at the gate. She broke clean and relaxed nicely down the backside. Turning for home, I angled her to the outside and she finished nicely. She's getting better and better each time."

Street Sounds switched to the turf after finishing third in a two-turn maiden test at Laurel Sept. 9 and cruised to a front-running 6 3/4-length score Oct. 3.

Jim McCue/MJC

The dark bay filly weakened to be third in the Oct. 26 Jessamine S. at Keeneland, but was odds-on to get back to the winner's circle here.

Tucked in while on the heels of the leaders, Street Sounds worked her way to the outside for the final drive and hit high gear to win handily. "We think she can still run on the main track, but she was so good on the turf we thought we would keep her there," trainer Michael Matz said. "We paid quite a lot for her as a yearling, considering she was by Street Cry, but now it's starting to look like Street Crys are bargains." As for what's next, Matz added, "I'll be taking her to Florida for some rest now and planning her three-year-old campaign. She's a Canadian-bred, so we have several options to look at. The three-year-old filly series in Canada is worth quite a bit of money." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

REAL DILEMMA (f, 2, Salt Lake--Crafty Gypsy, by Crafty Prospector) broke her maiden at first asking, posting a 3 3/4-length tally at Woodbine Sept. 24. She faded to eighth in an allowance test Nov. 8, but turned it around at 13-1 here. Rated in fifth through the opening half, the bay rallied to the front in the stretch and pulled away to earn a 2 3/4-length success. The winner was a $40,000 KEESEP yearling and a $120,000 OBSMAR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $65,748. O-Robert Harvey. B-Oak Ridge Farm (KY). T-S C Attard.

Also Ran: My Quentin (Fr), Reve d'Ailleur (Fr), Cylindree (Ire), Lets Get Cracking (Fr), Bleue Doloise (Fr).

Anabaa's Creation made an impressive winning debut at Compiègne Oct. 30 and emerged from a battle in this stakes bow with her unbeaten record intact. Settled just behind the pace, she made smooth headway to lead at the top of the straight, but required a forceful drive in the closing stages to hold the late flourish of Une Pivoine as the front pair pulled clear of the remainder. "She won by little, but she won well," commented trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre. "It's not often I go straight from a Class F to a listed race and this is a clue to how much I like this filly. She is definitely one to win group races next year," he added.

After closing his sophomore campaign with victory in the G3 Deutsches St Leger, El Tango mixed unsuccessfully with top-level company before returning to the winner's circle in the Aug. 30 Listed Badener Steher-Cup. He finished off the board in his last two starts--the Oct. 1 G3 Premio Federico Tesio and Oct. 29 Listed St Leger Italiano--but dominated the stretch run here to bag a fourth stakes success. Settled in rear until making progress into contention rounding the home turn, he quickly established daylight in the straight and was pushed out for an easy score.

MANDESHA OUT OF HONG KONG CUP Princess Zahra Aga Khan's Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}), the Cartier Award-winning three-year-old filly in Europe, has been ruled out of a start in the G1 Hong Kong Cup after turning in a dull workout Friday. "Mandesha didn't go as well as she normally does and possibly it was the heavy ground, but I cannot take a risk with such a filly, so we won't be going to Hong Kong," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre told Racing Post. The conditioner confirmed that Mandesha will remain in training in 2007 and be aimed for a comeback in a race such as the G2 Prix Corrida in May. Mandesha came to hand this summer and early fall with Group 1 wins in the Prix d'Astarte, Prix Vermeille in September and Prix de l'Opera on the Arc undercard.
