'UP' AND OVER IN HOLLYWOOD DERBY

Leaving no doubt who's the best three-year-old turf horse in the country, Lael Stables' Showing Up (Strategic Mission) traveled to Hollywood Park for yesterday's GI Hollywood Derby and proceeded to dismantle a talented field, winning the 1 1/4-mile event by 2 1/4 lengths in a stakes-record 1:59 1/5. Undeclared on the sod facing his contemporaries, the GI Secretariat S. winner was hammered down to 4-5 favoritism and secured an ideal tracking trip under jockey Cornelio Velasquez up the backstretch. Pushed on as the field rounded into the straight, Showing Up struck the front in mid-stretch and lengthened away as Obrigado (Fr) (Enrique {GB}) gamely rallied for place honors. "I had a lot of horse at the top of the stretch," said the winning rider. "I asked him a little bit and he really wanted to go." Cont. p2

THE 'PRICE' IS RIGHT

Sent off the 2-1 favorite as part of an entry, the Juddmonte homebred Price Tag (GB) (Dansili {GB}) might not have offered bettors a ton of value, but the

Price Tag Benoit

'Price' was definitely right in yesterday's GI Matriarch S. at Hollywood Park. The three-year-old French invader, who was disqualified from first to third in the French 1000 Guineas in May, rated near the back of the pack in her initial U.S. effort, was switched very wide for the stretch run and came charging with a resolute bid to land her first

Grade I race. It was Price Tag's first start for Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel, who continued his stranglehold on the Matriarch with his seventh victory in the race. Cont. p2 Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. de Triomphe at Longchamp in October, returned home to Japan victorious yesterday with a dramatic last-to-first triumph in the G1 Japan Cup at Tokyo Racecourse. "Since the Arc, we've been through a lot and it was a testing time for us," admitted winning trainer Yasuo Ikee. "But seeing Deep Impact being his usual self gave me the energy to carry on and I have learned that even if you are at your lowest, things can turn up again." Deep Impact, Japan's reigning Horse of the Year, was last through much of yesterday's 2400-meter contest. Swept to the outside for the stretch run and with the roaring support of an on-track crowd of 120,182, the four-year-old powered down the lane to overtake Dream Passport (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}) and draw off to a two-length victory. Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), fresh off a win in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf, closed well to be third. Cont. p3

Up, Up and Away...

Owned by Lael Stables, which sent out Barbaro to victory in the GI Kentucky Derby, Showing Up himself ran a solid sixth in the Run for the Roses, but really came into his own once switched to the turf. The chestnut won the $1-million Colonial Turf Cup in his first grass effort in June, then added the GI Secretariat S. in August before suffering just his second career loss when third to the older horse Cacique (Ire) in the GI Man o' War S. at Belmont Sept. 9. Returned to his own age group in the GII Jamaica BC H. Oct. 14, Showing Up won that test by an easy 3 1/2 lengths, but his connections opted to bypass the Breeders' Cup and instead target the Hollywood Derby. Their patience paid off yesterday, when Showing Up captured his second Grade I victory in rallying fashion. Afterwards, an upbeat Barclay Tagg, the colt's trainer, talked about the running of the race. "Well, I was a little angry he was back in fifth place and I was hoping he was in third place," admitted Tagg. "But Cornelio and this horse get along very well, which seems to overcome whatever they do they or whatever goes on." Tagg said Showing Up would get a break before returning to the races some time in the spring. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Price Tag began her career in France with trainer Pascal Bary, running third in the G3 Prix de la Grotte in April before her controversial DQ to third after hitting the line first in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) in May. After two subsequent off-the-board efforts, Price Tag won the Sept. 7 G3 Prix de Pin, then was 12th, beaten 4 1/4 lengths, in her European finale, the Sept. 30 G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp. Trainer Bobby Frankel said the filly came to the States with no instructions. "I got her about six weeks ago," he said. "They didn't tell me anything about her. They just send them in and say 'Do what you want'. That's why they do so well." About winning his seventh Matriarch, and his record fifth for Juddmonte, Frankel commented, "It feels good. It actually feels better every year."

Cosmo Bulk (Jpn) (Zagreb {Ire}) set a pedestrian pace as Deep Impact was away slowly and settled in last, tracking Ouija Board. Deep Impact angled out and edged past Ouija Board around the final turn and surged to the lead with a determined stretch run. "I am just overwhelmed," admitted winning rider Yutake Take. "Hearing the fans appreciating his victory today and being genuinely happy, I feel happy to have done my job as a jockey and answering their expectations." As for his trip, Take said, "I concentrated on keeping him relaxed. Coming around the turn for home, Frankie Dettori shifted Ouija Board a little to the outside, which gave me the opportunity to make my intended move to the outside for the charge--everything worked out my way. When I asked him for the effort in the last 700 meters, he responded well and gave that flying charge--then I knew I had won the race." Ouija Board kicked on to be third. "She ran really well," said Dettori. "She gave her best, but the long uphill stretch was a bit too tough for her. She seemed to tire in the last 100 meters. She is still the best mare in the world and so the winner would naturally be the best horse in the world." Deep Impact is expected to make his final career start in the G1-Jpn Arima Kinen at Nakayama Dec. 24 before retiring to Shadai Stallion Station. Video replay: modem or broadband. ☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

WORLD CUP ON 'TAP'? The G1 Dubai World Cup, to be held at Nad Al Sheba next March, could be in the cards for George Kline, Peter Alevizo and David Whelihan's Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap) following the four-year-old's dominating performance in Friday's G1 Clark H. at Churchill Downs. The colt's trainer, John Kimmel, said he was considering a rematch with Invasor (Arg), who's being targeted for the World Cup, after running third to that foe in the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic. "When you look on the form and see that the only race that Invasor's ever lost was in Dubai [a fourth to Discreet Cat, another World Cup probable, in this year's G2 UAE Derby] where he couldn't run on Lasix, you wonder if maybe he might not be that invincible there," Kimmel said. "I know this horse doesn't need Lasix. He's been very clean. He's never been a bleeder and that's a nice thing to know. Some horses go over there and you know they depend on that Lasix to keep from bleeding, but that's not the case with this horse." Premium Tap was scheduled to van to Payson Park in Florida yesterday, where he'll get a brief respite before returning to training. "We'll give him a couple of easy weeks until he tells me he can't take it any longer," said Kimmel. "Then we'll put him back in some light training and get him ready for the [G1] Donn [H. at Gulfstream Park Feb. 3], probably."

☆ TATTERSALLS ☆

TATTS BREEDING STOCK SALE BEGINS TODAY

Expect some fireworks in Newmarket over the coming days as the best Tattersalls December breeding stock catalogue of recent years comes under the hammer. The sale kicks off at today at 9:30 a.m., and first-day highlights look set to be headed by Lot 1695, Spinning Queen (GB) (Spinning World), a three-year-old who ran away with the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket on Sept. 30 by nine lengths, and Lot 1683, Short Skirt (GB) (Diktat {GB}), offered from Sir Michael Stoute's stable by owner John Greetham. The three-year-old won the G3 St Simon S. at Newbury since the catalogue's publication.

Other outstanding racecourse performers on offer during the week include Lot 2357, this season's G1 Preis der Diana winner Almerita (Ger) (Medicean {GB}), consigned by Ronald Rasucher for Dr. Christoph Berglar. Lot 1694 is La Cucaracha (GB) (Piccolo {GB}), the 2005 G1 Nunthorpe S. heroine, Lot 1720, Donna Blini (GB) (Bertolini), the 2005 G1 Cheveley Park S. winner, and Lot 1545, Pout (Ire) (Namid {GB}), the G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. winner.

Tuesday features a dispersal of eight fillies and mares from Roger Baines' Somerset-based Britton House Stud. Lot 1977, the 13-year-old Mackie (Summer Squall), is offered in foal to Unbridled's Song. The dam of four black-type performers, she sold for a record $5 million at the 2000 Keeneland January Sale. The now 16-year-old Solo De Lune (Ire) (Law Society), Lot 1979, is the dam of G1 winner Cerulean Sky (Ire), G1 Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf second L'Ancrese (Ire) and a Dalakhani yearling filly who sold for 700,000gns on Monday. Offered in foal to Montjeu (Ire), her winning four-year-old daughter Carisolo (GB) (Dubai Millennium {GB}) appears two lots later. That one is followed into the ring by her unraced two-year-old half-sister Danoise (GB) (Danehill).

Lot 1974 is Exciting Times (Fr) (Jeune Homme), offered from Kiltinan Stud for Xavier and Natalie Bozo as one of Dubawi (Ire)'s first book of mares. Her first two foals are G1 Beverly D S. winner Gorella (Fr) and Group 1-placed Porto Santo (Fr).

But potentially the star of the whole show is Lot 1945, the 2004 G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Magical Romance (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) offered with a Pivotal (GB) cover. Owned by Con Wilson, she is consigned from Stephen and Louise Kemble's Elms Stud. The four-year-old is a three-parts sister to this year's G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Ire).

Lot 2269, Halland Park Lass (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), is sure to show a handsome profit on the 12,000gns she cost 12 months ago. She is the dam of this year's G1 Middle Park S. and G1 Prix Morny winner Dutch Art (GB).

The Perfect Book

"The foal trade was extraordinary and it gives cause for optimism for the four days of breeding stock to come," said Tattersalls marketing director Jimmy George. "Everyone says this is the best breeding stock catalogue we have had for a long time and we are delighted with the quality. There are some obvious highlights, including the Britton House Stud dispersal, a number of classic and Group 1-performing fillies in training, as well as enormous depth to the broodmares on offer." Consigned by Kirtlington Stud

(Theatrical {Ire}--Enthused, by Seeking the Gold)

Hip 1658, f, 3, La Chunga

La Chunga was a high-class juvenile in 2005, winning the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot at York before finishing runner-up in the G2 Lowther S. She added the G3 Summer S. to her resume this term and is certain to attract keen attention.

Hip 1659, f, 2, Bahama Mama (Ire)
(Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Nassma {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells)
Consigned by Shalfleet Stables

Consigned by Freemason Lodge Stables

One of the more accomplished fillies on offer here, Short Skirt was third in this year's G1 Epsom Oaks and runner-up in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks, as well as being one of the very few to have got the better of Alexandrova (Ire) in the G2 Musidora S. John Greetham's homebred half to the group scorers Little Rock (GB) and Whitewater Affair (GB) has also won the G3 St Simon S. at Newbury last month.

Hip 1694, m, 5, La Cucaracha (GB)

Hip 1695, f, 3, Spinning Queen (GB)
(Spinning World--Our Queen of Kings {GB}, by Arazi)

Discreet Cat Fine After Cigar Win:

Tired but otherwise no worse for wear a day after his record-setting victory in the GI Cigar Mile, Godolphin's Discreet Cat (Forestry) will now get a little break before gearing back up for the G1 Dubai World Cup in March.

Discreet Cat
NYRA/David Alcosser

"He was a little tired, which was to be expected," said Godolphin assistant trainer Rick Mettee yesterday. "I knew this race was going to be a race where he would be pushed. For the first time, he had to come off the bridle and find more. It was just great to watch." In the Cigar, the unbeaten Discreet Cat rallied to take the eight-furlong event over Badge of Silver in 1:32.46, a stakes record and just .06 shy of Easy Goer's track record. Discreet Cat and the 10-horse Godolphin operation at Belmont are slated to ship to Payson Park in Florida tomorrow. Plans currently call for Discreet Cat and Day Pass (Five Star Day), undefeated winner of the GIII Nashua S., to then ship to Dubai in late December. Fellow Godolphin runners Afrashad (Smoke Glacken), winner of Thursday's Fall Highweight H., and Ashkal Way (Ire) (Ashkalani {Ire}), who annexed Friday's GI Citation H., will likely winter in Florida under Mettee's care.

WAR EMBLEM GETS FIRST WINNER War Emblem (Our Emblem), the 2002 Kentucky Derby winner whose unwillingness to cover mares since entering stud in 2003 at the Shadai Stallion Station in Japan has been well documented, was represented by his first winner Sunday afternoon. Sunday Racing Co. Ltd.'s Clan Emblem (Jpn) stormed to an eight-length victory in a 1600-meter maiden race over the Tokyo dirt course, covering the distance in a solid 1:38.7. He had made one previous appearance, a runner-up effort over the same course and distance Oct. 29. Ridden to victory by Yutaka Take, the son of Azusa Yumi (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) went postward at the minimum odds; for an investment of ¥100, his backers merely received their money back. Victorious in the Derby for the late Prince Ahmed Salman's The Thoroughbred Corporation, War Emblem is represented by just four horses in his first crop, which are two-year-olds of this year. He reportedly has more than 40 foals in his second crop, but just two that were born in 2006. After being shown over 100 mares this winter and spring, he covered just one, but she did not get in foal.
