

GETTING DOWN TO SPECIFICS

The 12-year-old Specifically (Sky Classic) topped yesterday's penultimate session of Tattersalls' December Sale in Newmarket, selling for 1,850,000gns to join the broodmare band at Klaus Jacobs' Newsells Park Stud. The mare, a half-sister to 2006 G1 Champion S.

Specifically tattersalls.com winner Pride (Fr), was purchased at Goffs November for just €50,000 by agent Susie McKeever two years ago. Her two-year-old of 2005, Speciosa (Ire)

(Danehill Dancer {Ire}), captured the G2 Rockfel S. last year, and Specifically was offered at Goffs again. She found no takers and RNA'd at €320,000, but that price tag looked a bargain after Speciosa added the G1 1000 Guineas to her resume this year. John Warren, agent for Newsells Park, bought Specifically after winning a long battle against rival bidder Luke Lillingston, accompanied by Lord Derby's brother Peter Stanley. Consigned by Lisieux Stud, she is carrying a full sibling to Speciosa.

"She's was beautiful and you can't beat a [Classic-producing] mare--they don't come up for sale very often," said Warren. "We've taken advantage of the few superior mares to have come up for sale here. Mr. Jacobs is keen to concentrate on the top British families and pedigrees and it has been a good catalogue that, in consequence, has drawn a real international marketplace." In addition to the gains made on Specifically yesterday, Lisieux Stud also sold her 2005 foal, a filly by Statue of Liberty, for 270,000gns at the 2006 TATOCT sale; and her 2006 foal, a colt by Indian Haven (GB), for €180,000 as a GOFNOV weanling.

Hitting One Out of the Park...

Halland Park Lass (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) was another to show a huge profit for her vendor yesterday. The seven-year-old was bought 12 months ago for just 12,000gns by a partnership headed by Trickle-down Stud's Paul Thorman, but that was before her son Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}) won this year's G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. Agent Charlie Gordon-Watson paid 710,000gns to outbid Shunsuke Yoshida of Japan's Northern Farm for the mare, whose Kyllachy (GB) filly foal made 280,000gns on Saturday. "She's been bought for a commercial breeder in Ireland to go to George Washington, and you'd hope to get another fast one like Dutch Art," said the agent. "Full marks to the vendors, they've done really well." Halland Park Lass is in foal to Tobougg (Ire). Hugo Lascelles went to 650,000gns to get Maid Of Killeen (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), the dam of G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), in foal to Azamour (Ire), from Killeen Castle Stud. "We've been after a Darshaan mare for a long time and we were underbidders on Puce on Tuesday night. She'll go to Galileo next year," said Lascelles. The final session of the sale starts at 9:30 a.m. today.

2133	Maid of Killeen (Ire) (m, 10, Darshaan {GB})--Sovereign Touch {Ire}, by Pennine Walk {Ire})	Azamour (Ire)	650,000
Consigned by Killeen Castle Stud Purchased by Hugo Lascelles Bloodstock Killeen Castle went to Ir£65,000 to buy Maid of Killeen as a GOFORB yearling, and may have been disappointed by a racing career that produced just one win and a listed placing from 10 starts, but the bay has made up for it in the breeding shed. Her first five foals each realized more than 400,000gns at auction, and her two-year-old of 2006 proved to be Indian Ink (Ire), winner of the G1 Cheveley Park S. Striking while the iron was hot, Killeen Castle sent the mare back through sales ring and earned 10 times her original purchase price.

 A 60,000gns TATOCT yearling, Musicanna was unraced at two and resold for 26,000gns after winning just one of two starts as a sophomore. The bay came back to win three of four starts in 2005, including the Listed Atalanta S., and was third in the G1 Sun Chariot S. She added a third-place effort in the G1 Falmouth S., where she was beaten just a length and a half, this term. Retired with earnings of £105,778, she proved an even more valuable asset in the sales ring this time.

Barbaro Update

BARBARO STEADILY IMPROVING

by Gail Luciani, Director of UPenn Office of Communications

KENNETT SQUARE, PA...Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro continues to improve following the removal of his right hind leg cast on Nov. 6, according to his medical team. "Barbaro is steadily gaining strength on his right hind limb now that it is out of the cast," said Dr. Dean W. Richardson, Chief of Surgery. "He is only wearing a very light cotton bandage on that leg and both walks and stands well on it." Barbaro's lower right hind leg had been in a cast since surgery at Penn's George D. Widener Hospital following his accident at the Preakness on May 20. "Radiographs of his fractured lower limb were taken yesterday and look excellent," said Dr. Richardson. Barbaro's left hind foot, which had laminitis, continues to improve. "The left hind foot is improving gradually and has a long way to go although his comfort on that foot remains surprisingly good," said Dr. Richardson. "Barbaro's attitude and appetite remain excellent, and he still takes short walks outside to graze each day if the weather permits."

FALLON DRUG POSITIVE Kieren Fallon's annus horribilis continued yesterday after it was announced the jockey is set to serve a six-month suspension, ordered by stewards of France-Galop, after testing positive to "traces" of a yet-to-be disclosed prohibited substance. The jockey was found to have fallen foul of the French Racing Authority's stringent procedures when both A and B samples failed a random test after the jockey rode [unplaced] Ivan Denisovich (Ire) (Danehill) in the July 9 G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly. Dr. Michael Lewis, the disciplinary hearing's expert witness, indicated an exceedingly low quantity of the banned substance may have arisen due to "environmental contact." The jockey has until midnight Friday to appeal the ban, due to commence Dec. 7, but is not expected to do so. "Only trace levels were detected and these are considerably lower than generally accepted thresholds for positive results," Fallon's solicitor Christopher Stewart-Moore told PA Sport. "Kieren is dismayed at this turn of events, but understands that as it is a strict liability offence, France Galop has no alternative but to impose a suspension." Confirming the ban will almost certainly be enforced worldwide, Denis Egan, Chief Executive of the Irish Turf Club, said. "Ireland is signatory to the international agreement which states that if we are requested, by a foreign authority, to reciprocate a ban then we are expected to reciprocate that ban," he commented. "It is a matter for the [Turf Club's] stewards, but my understanding is the ban will be reciprocated. My belief is that he will be ruled out of riding everywhere."

BREEDERS' CUP OFFICIAL: ALL SYSTEMS GO FOR MONMOUTH

by Tom LaMarra, courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

Breeders' Cup officials visited Monmouth Park in New Jersey for a tour Nov. 28, but they said it wasn't because the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority-operated racetrack was in danger of losing the 2007 Breeders' Cup World Championships as published reports had suggested. The NJSEA recently announced plans for a 20-percent cutback in staff, and there was a new personnel development that had Breeders' Cup concerned, said Damon Thayer, vice president of Breeders' Cup event management.

Super Frolic to Stand for $5,000:

Super Frolic (Pine Bluff--Lindsay Frolic, by Mt. Livermore), recently retired to Ro Parra's Millennium Farm, will stand the 2007 breeding season for a fee of $5,000. "He was a super sound, super competitive racehorse--and his pedigree makes him a super outcross for Mr. Prospector-line mares," commented recently named farm manager Bobby Miller.

"All this and his stud fee being set at $5,000 should make him attractive to breeders." Winner of the 2005 running of the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup and third in this year's GI Pacific Classic, Super Frolic retired with 11 wins from 40 starts and earnings of $1,391,334.

Jara, Romero to Part Company:

Fernando Jara, who won this year's GI Belmont S. aboard Jazil and the GI Breeders' Cup Classic astride Invasor (Arg) has decided not to renew the contract of his agent, former jockey Randy Romero. Beginning in February, the 18-year-old will be represented by Gatewood Bell, son of Darley USA President Jimmy Bell. "My contract is finished Feb. 5, and Fernando has decided to go with a new agent," Romero told the Blood-Horse. "Things happen, situations develop; he wanted to make a change and that's fine with me." Jara will remain in New York this winter, where he will continue to ride first call for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. Jara, who hired Romero last February, celebrated his first graded-stakes victory when he guided the McLaughlin-trained Like Now to victory in the GIII Gotham S. in March. His other major wins of 2006 include the GI Diana S. on Angara (GB) and the GII Darley Alcibiades S. with Bel Air Beauty.

A half-length back in second in the nine-furlong Stymie H. Mar. 4, the bay weakened late and had to settle for fourth in the nine-furlong GIII Excelsior BC H. Apr. 1. Fasig-Tipton Revises Saratoga Sales:

Fasig-Tipton has announced the schedule for its sales in 2007, which includes a minor tweaking of the company's Saratoga sales. The 87th annual Selected Yearlings Sale has been pushed forward by one night and is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday night, Aug. 6 and 7. "As the oldest yearling sale in North America, Saratoga has seen and prospered through several date and format changes," commented Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson. "In an environment where fewer out-of-state visitors can stay in Saratoga for an extended period, we saw an opportunity to streamline the sales schedule for buyers and sellers alike. We will be looking to offer the same number of yearlings, or more, in these two nights." The change will also afford Fasig-Tipton the opportunity to push forward by one night the New York-bred Selected Yearling Sale (Aug. 10 and 11). The open yearling sale will take place Aug. 14.

CHEPSTOWS LAUNCHES ON-LINE AUCTIONS

Chepstows, a British-based online auction company devised by Charlie and Anne Oakshott of Whitsbury Manor Stud, went live yesterday with a new, independent and transparent live online auction site for stallion seasons, <http://www.chepstows.com/>. The site will allow stud farms to market their less popular stallions alongside others that are oversubscribed, according to the company. Oversubscribed stallions will have their stud fee set as the reserve, while undersubscribed stallions will list an agreed-upon reserve. Upon registration, bidders will be able to use a searchable list of available stallion nominations, with links to their individual farm pages. Like items on EBay, seasons will be listed for a set amount of time with rolling bids accepted. After the conclusion of each auction, stud farms will deal directly with mare owners. Said Anne Oakshott, Chepstows's marketing manager, "The first stallions on-line will be those from Shadwell, and they will be an excellent demonstration of how the site works for breeders and stallion owners, with the flexibility to vary terms from those published, in a way beneficial to both sides. It will give an extra opportunity to mare owners, as studs with an oversubscribed stallion will be able to keep five or so nominations back to be auctioned. We have been delighted with the positive feedback we have received."
