BAZE ECLIPSES PINCAY FOR RECORD

The 48-year-old Hall of Famer Russell Baze became the winningest jockey of all time yesterday, notching his 9,531st career victory at Bay Meadows. Baze tied Laffit Pincay Jr.'s mark of 9,530 at the track Thursday, then earned the milestone in yesterday's fourth race, guiding Butterfly Belle to a 2 1/4-length victory in a turf claiming race. Facing a wall of horses in the stretch, Baze sent the four-year-old filly up the rail and she burst clear for the record-breaking victory. An elaborate winner's circle celebration immediately followed, and Baze, after achieving what undoubtedly will be one of the most enduring accomplishments in racing, was typically modest. "Who would've thought 32 years ago a skinny little kid with no experience would be standing here today?" asked Baze, who stood alongside Pincay. Pincay had been at Bay Meadows since Saturday in anticipation of Baze breaking the record. "He's been extremely gracious," said Baze. "There's not a greater rider in the history of horse racing." FIVE NEW GRADE I RACES FOR 2007

After reviewing 722 unrestricted U.S. stakes races with purses of at least $75,000, the American Graded Stakes Committee of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association yesterday added five Grade I races to the calendar, while demoting two Grade I events to Grade II. The five new Grade I stakes are the Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland, Goodwood BC H., Lady's Secret BC H. and Norfolk S. at Oak Tree, and the Del Mar Futurity. Losing Grade I status are the Clark H. at Churchill and the Matron S. at Belmont. A total of 474 graded races will be run in the U.S. next year, one less than in 2006. The Massachusetts H., which was awarded Grade II status in 2006, was canceled and is ineligible for grading in '07. There will be 107 Grade I races, (22.6 percent of the graded total); 157 Grade IIs, (33.1 percent); and 210 Grade IIIs, (44.3 percent).

DEAUVILLE HOST FINALE

ARQANA will stage the last major auction of the 2006 season today when its December Mixed Sale gets underway in Deauville. The first three sessions include broodmares and fillies in and out of training, 182 foals and two stallions in Epistolaire (Ire) (Alzao), consigned by Haras de la Haie Neuve as hip 194; and Volochine (Ire) (Soviet Star), offered by Haras de Preaux as hip 195. This afternoon's action sees the consignment of a notable highlight in Haras des Capucines' hip 82, the nine-year-old Mandalara (Ire) (Lahib). She is the dam of the recently crowned champion sophomore filly Mandesha (Fr), winner of the G1 Prix d'Astarte, G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Prix de l'Opera. Sold for €16,000 to the French Bloodstock Agency at this sale in 2004, Mandalara was exported to Turkey, where she was successfully covered by the Vettori (Ire) stallion Dinyeper (GB) this year. Tuesday's session features 158 yearlings and 61 horses in training before Wednesday's dispersal by the leading jumps trainer Thomas Trapenard. The 654-lot catalog include consignments from His Highness The Aga Khan, Darley, Wertheimer et Frere, Haras de la Louviere, Shadwell, Edouard de Rothschild, Alec Head, Mme de Moussac, Haras de Fresnay le Buffard, Gestut Schlenderhan and Gestut Farhof. In recent years, the dams of the top-class Gorella (Fr), Tawqet, Torrestrella (Ire), Commercante (Fr), Papal Bull (GB) and Touch of Land (Fr) have gone through the ring here, and top broodmare sires such as Danehill, Diesis (GB), Darshaan (GB), Rainbow Quest, Sadler's Wells and Zafonic are represented. While the list of covering sires include the proven Anabaa, Dansili (GB), Galileo (Ire), Highest Honor (Fr), Invincible Spirit (Ire) and Marju (Ire), also among the list are the exciting prospects Antonius Pius, Azamour (Ire), Dalakhani (Ire), Dubai Destination, Dubawi (Ire), High Chaparral (Ire) and Whipper. Selling starts at 1 p.m. today. Catalogues and updates can be found on www.deauville-sales.com. Cont. p3

HEART'S CRY RETIRED Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence--Irish Dance {Jpn}, by Tony Bin {Ire}), the lone horse to defeat Deep Impact (Jpn) on Japanese soil in the 2005 Arima Kinen, has been retired from racing following his 10th-place finish to that archrival in last weekend's G1 Japan Cup. The announcement deprives the Japanese racing public of a rematch in this year's Arima Kinen Dec. 24. Bred and raced by the Yoshida Family's Shadai Race Horse Co. Ltd., the attractive bay was runner-up in the 2004 Japanese Derby, but rose to international prominence late last year, finishing second by a nose to Alkaased in the Japan Cup. He proved that effort was no fluke in his next, fending off Deep Impact by a half-length in the Arima Kinen in front of no fewer than 162,000 racegoers at Nakayama Racecourse on Christmas Day. After a brief rest, he returned in excellent form in 2006, controlling the pace in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic before going on to an easy 4 1/4-length victory Mar. 25. His international excursions continued over the summer, as he was sent by trainer Kojiro Hashiguchi to the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. Despite the four-month absence, Heart's Cry looked like a winner at the eighth pole, but flattened out late and wound up third, just a length behind Hurricane Run (Ire) and Electrocutationist. His trainer disagreed that his charge was unfit. "He was not at his best," Hashiguchi told Japan Racing Journal. "I am convinced the reason he lost this time was because we didn't take a travelling companion with him--not because of the layoff. I really regret taking him by himself; he was clearly lonely. While Dubai was almost like being in Japan with all the horses together, in the UK he was by himself. When I arrived over there later, he came up to me crying and upset." Rested off the European journey, Heart's Cry raced prominently in the early stages of last Saturday's Japan Cup, but weakened and beat just one home. The Japan Racing Association reported that Heart's Cry has developed partial paralysis in his breathing, a condition which could have contributed to his Japan Cup performance. He retires to his owner's Shadai Stallion Station with a record of 19-5-4-3 and earnings of $8,054,175.

During the winner's circle ceremony, Baze said, "The list of people to thank is too long. My wife has been a rock, my kids have been great, and I'm grateful that my mother and father were able to be here today." In addition to thanking all of the trainers, horsemen and owners who assisted him in his record-breaking career, Baze also thanked the fans who "come out here every day. You make it all possible." The consistent Baze moved into second place on the all-time list on Jan. 22, 2005, when he surpassed Bill Shoemaker with his 8,834th win, which left him 433 victories shy of Pincay's mark. Pincay, who handled the impending fall of his record with the same class and elan he displayed as a Hall of Fame jockey, was on hand for Baze's celebration. "It was very important for me to be here today," Pincay said. "To me, Russell is a great rider. He's out there everyday. It takes a lot of ability and dedication to break that record." Tabbed to represent the local jockeys was Joey Castro. "I've learned a lot from Russell," he said. "It takes dedication, hard work and perseverance. I hope he keeps riding--but not too long, we need to earn a living, too."

A Long Time Comin'...

Born in Vancouver, British Columbia on Aug. 7, 1958 to two American citizens, and an American citizen by birth, Baze registered his first-ever win aboard Oregon Warrior at Yakima Meadows in Washington in 1974. The horse was trained by his father Joe, himself a successful jockey who won riding titles at Bay Meadows, Golden Gate Fields and Longacres before becoming a conditioner. Russell Baze eventually settled on the Northern California circuit, where he has rewritten the record books in the last three decades. Baze has registered a staggering 36 riding championships at Bay Meadows and 29 at Golden Gate Fields, taking that track's most recent Fall Meet. Since 1992, Baze has led the nation in victories eight times. His 375 wins in 2005, achieved despite spending a month on the sidelines with a broken collarbone, were the most of any jockey last year and equated to a strike rate of 30 percent. Baze also topped the wins list in 2002 (431 wins), 2000 (412), 1996 (415), 1995 (448), 1994 (415), 1993 (410), and 1992 (433). In 1995, Baze was honored with a special Eclipse Award for being the first jockey to win 400 or more races in a year for four consecutive years.

Consistently winning with a quarter of his mounts or better, Baze has had a stranglehold on the Isaac Murphy Award, which recognizes the nation's top jockey by winning percentage each year. Begun in 1995 and given out by the National Turf Writers Association, the Isaac Murphy Award has gone to Baze 10 times in its 11-year existence, with Ramon Dominguez providing the lone interruption in 2004. Baze's trophy case also includes the 2002 George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award, which is voted on by riders to honor a peer that has demonstrated, "high standards of personal and professional conduct, on and off the racetrack." In 1999, Baze received the ultimate honor when he was elected to racing's Hall of Fame at the age of 41.

Lost Together...

Despite his unparalleled success in Northern California, Baze has maintained a relatively low profile on the national scene. He's had just two Kentucky Derby mounts, running 14th on Semoran in 1996 and 13th on Cause to Believe this year. Baze did ride Event of the Year to a five-length victory in the 1998 GII Jim Beam S., and while that colt likely would have been favored in the Derby that year, the Seattle Slew son suffered a knee injury just prior to the race. Likewise, Baze had competed in only two Breeders' Cup races before 2005. He was 12th on Lite Light in the 1990 GI Juvenile Fillies and eighth on Toccet in the 2003 GI Turf. However, if there was any doubts about Baze's ability to perform away from Northern California, they were put to rest when a gutsy speedster named Lost in the Fog came along. As part of a team that included owner Harry Aleo and trainer Greg Gilchrist, Baze was thrust into the national spotlight in a way he had never been before. A wickedly quick sprinter, Lost in the Fog became a crowd favorite in 2005 with his pedal-to-the-metal style. With Baze in the irons, Lost in the Fog began his career with six straight wins, including the GII Swale S. and GIII Bay Shore S. Edgar Prado was in the saddle for the GII Riva Ridge BC S. after Baze broke a collarbone in a spill, and while Prado and Lost in the Fog won the Riva Ridge, it was the last time anyone but Baze would ride the colt in a race. Cont. p5

The pair reunited a month after the Riva Ridge and won their next three, including the GI King's Bishop S., and came into the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint with an unblemished 10-for-10 record. It wasn't meant to be that day, however, as Lost in the Fog tired in the stretch to be seventh, though he'd easily done enough to earn himself championship sprint honors. Lost in the Fog started three times in 2006, winning the GIII Aristides Breeders' Cup H. in June, before being diagnosed with cancer. The four-year-old was put down in September. Recalling Lost in the Fog's championship season, and Baze's role, Gilchrist said recently, "It was a lot of fun traveling around with Mr. Aleo and Russell, guys that you've know for a long, long time and who you work with every day. Russell gave the horse some great rides, and I'm sure the horse knew when Russell was on his back."

A Family Affair...

In addition to his jockey/trainer father Joe, Baze has a slew of other family members involved in racing. His younger brother Dale Baze is a retired jockey who is now an exercise rider. A cousin, jockey Gary Baze, is a member of Washington State's racing Hall of Fame, while two second cousins, Tyler Baze and up-and-comer Michael Baze, are both riders. Tyler Baze is one of the leading jockeys on the Southern California circuit. "He's my hero," Tyler Baze told TVG recently. "I hope that one day I can be as good as he is." For both family members and his fellow riders,

Tyler Baze
Benoit

Russell Baze has set the bar at an impressively high level. Asked to talk about what makes Baze such a talented rider, Gilchrist said, "Well, next to family, riding's always come first for Russell. He takes care of his body, and always has. He's got great patience, he's got great hands and he's got one of the best work ethics of anyone I know. He loves racing. Whether you are talking about football, basketball, racing or being a chef in a restaurant, it's the people who really love it that will excel. That's Russell."

STAR DABBLER'S CONNECTIONS DROP
INDIANA DERBY PROTEST

by James Platz courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

A protest filed by the connections of Star Dabbler involving the finish of the $513,200 GII Indiana Derby has been withdrawn. Owner Barry Schwartz and trainer Michael Hushion filed the protest with the Indiana Horse Racing Commission Oct. 9, two days after their Saint Ballado colt was declared by stewards a dead-heat winner along with Cielo Gold in the 1 1/16-mile contest at Hoosier Park. Both the owner and trainer believed Star Dabbler had won the stakes outright. In a Nov. 28 facsimile sent to racing commission legal counsel Robin Babbitt, Karen Murphy, attorney for Schwartz, informed the commission the appeal was withdrawn. The winner's share of the purse--$195,016 to each horse--had been held by the commission pending consideration of the protest. Purses will now be distributed to the connections of both colts. Star Dabbler was retired after the Indiana Derby due to an injury to his left front sesamoid sustained during the race. Click here to continue.

CHURCHILL DOWNS TO CUT 30 PERCENT OF CORPORATE STAFF

by Ryan Conley, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

Churchill Downs announced a staff reduction of 30 percent of the company's full-time corporate workforce Dec. 1, a move that will eliminate 22 positions in a variety of departments. CDI President and Chief Executive Officer Robert L. Evans said in a news release that the restructuring, which includes a reorganization of the corporate marketing function, "ensures the corporate team is strategically aligned and ready to execute on new business opportunities.

"First, I want to express my appreciation to the people affected by this organizational change for their significant contributions to the company's success," said Evans in the release. "However, we need different organizational capabilities to grow our company and pursue the opportunities we see before us, and that is the reason for the changes we are making.

"Such change is never easy for the people affected, and we will do whatever we can to help them transition to new careers."

Employees whose jobs have been affected by the restructuring have been offered severance packages and outplacement assistance. Click here to continue.

Weather KO's Another Hawthorne Card:

Continuing winter weather in the Chicago area forced Hawthorne to cancel its second consecutive card yesterday. An impending storm was expected to drop up to 10 inches of snow. The Hawthorne track crew will work the surface overnight; it is expected to be open for training today, when the forecast indicates sunny skies and temperatures in the 30s. Thursday's and Friday's races are expected to be brought back as extras, and additional races will be added to upcoming programs to make up for the cancellations.

TDN CRITERIA

The races covered in the TDN are as follows:

- Stakes - purses of $40,000/up
- Allowance Races - purses of $20,000/up
- Optional Claiming Races - purses of $20,000/up and a minimum claiming price of $25,000
- Maiden Special Weight Races - purses of $18,000/up
- Maiden Claiming Races - purses of $18,000/up and a minimum claiming price of $40,000

★ SO. CALIFORNIA ★

Meteor Storm Back to California for Turf Cup:

After making his previous nine starts outside the borders of the Golden State, Horizon Stable's Meteor Storm (GB) (Bigstone {Ire}) returns to California for the GI Hollywood Turf Cup Dec. 9. Now seven, the bay won last year's GII W.L. McKnight H. at Calder Dec. 17, but went missing for over nine months thereafter. "He had a chip in his ankle removed," explained trainer Wally Dollase. Meteor Storm returned to action at Belmont Park in late September, turning in a decent fourth-place effort behind Ashkal Way (Ire) in the GII Kelso Breeders' Cup H. going a mile. In his next and most recent appearance, he was a midpack fifth in the 12-furlong GI Canadian International S. at Woodbine Oct. 22. Dollase can come up with explanations for both efforts. "The Kelso was too short for him, and the turf was too soft at Woodbine," he said. "A mile and a half is his best distance. The farther, the better. He has been training good and should run a big race." Meteor Storm will be ridden for the first time in the Turf Cup by Victor Espinoza. The two teamed for a powerful six-furlong move over the Cushion track in 1:12.20 Nov. 29.

Paasch Pointing for Starlet, Futurity:

Trainer Christopher Paasch has major candidates for Hollywood's features for two-year-olds, the GI Hollywood Futurity Dec.16 and the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Principle Secret (Sea of Secrets), winner of the GII Best Pal S. in August, will seek to rebound from a troubled Breeders' Cup outing in the Hollywood Futurity. The colt sustained a number of cuts and faded after a half mile in the GI Juvenile. "He got all chopped up in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, and we sewed him up half the night," explained Paasch. "[Jockey] Victor [Espinoza] had to check with him, and a horse behind stepped on him and scraped him up behind."

Principle Secret
Horsephotos

Paasch said that Principle Secret faces a critical work today. "He's going to get a good seven-eighths drill from the gate," the conditioner added. "He will work in company. Racehorses sometimes become mentally unwound after an experience like he went through." Paasch has GI Oak Leaf S. heroine Cash Included (Include) for the Starlet, and may supplement Back in the Shade (Put It Back) as well. The former ran sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. "She was in in a little tight on the turn, but no excuse," said Paasch. "She's been a slow learner. The more racing experience, the better." Her stablemate most recently ran third in the Sharp Cat S. Nov. 5; the winner of that race, Runway Rosie (Include), is also targeting the Starlet.

HORSE AND RIDER INJURED IN NEWMARKET CRASH

Trainer Sir Mark Prescott's head groom Colin Nutter was involved in a horrific accident in Newmarket yesterday morning when a car collided with his horse as they were crossing the famed Bury Road. Nutter, who has been employed at Prescott's Heath House Stables since 1971, and the unraced juvenile Maunik (Ire) were struck by the vehicle at 6:45 a.m. The groom was taken to the West Suffolk Hospital at Bury St Edmunds, where he was later reported to be in a stable condition, while Maunik was diagnosed with a fractured his pelvis at the James Crowhurst veterinary practice. "Maunik is a home bred owned by Mr. Graham Waters who also owned Spindrifter, and Colin has been here since he was a boy and has never had another job," Prescott told the Racing Post. "I can get another horse, but I can't get another Colin. It was absolutely horrendous. The horse was thrown at least six feet in the air and made the most horrible noise. It was like a scene from Dante's Inferno. Maunik is in a really bad way. We don't know if he is going to live or die."

HUGHES MAINTAINS JUDDMONTE LINK

Richard Hughes will continue to ride in Khalid Abdullah's silks in 2007 after his contract was renewed. Following the Racing Post's exclusive that Britain's champion trainer Sir Michael Stoute would no longer use the rider, it was confirmed later in the day that Hughes had received the backing of the Juddmonte operation. "I am delighted that I have been retained by the Prince again and I am looking forward to riding for him in 2007," he told the Post. "Sir Michael Stoute is entitled to his opinion and if he doesn't want me, that's up to him. In racing, you have to work as a team and I have plenty of backing from Henry Cecil and Richard Hannon, who are also champion trainers. They are quite happy with the way I ride and this won't dent my confidence." Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe added, "We are very pleased Richard is back on board again next year--his contract has been on a variable basis since he joined us and sometimes it has been for one year or two years. We have had a very enjoyable year and the jockey arrangements are not without precedent."

WORLD SUPER JOCKEYS SERIES AT HANSHIN

Fourteen of the world's pre-eminent jockeys representing eight different racing jurisdictions are scheduled to take part in the 20th annual JRA World Super Jockeys Series at Hanshin Racecourse. The competition takes place over the course of four races, two each to be contested today and tomorrow. The riders' mounts are assigned by lot and points are awarded depending on the finishing position in each race. The local challenge is spearheaded by jockey Yutaka Take, who recently piloted Deep Impact (Jpn) to victory in the G1 Japan Cup at Tokyo. The veteran reinsman makes his 18th appearance in this contest. Jockey Yasunari Iwata, who upset the Series last year, is back for his title defense. The United States flag is flown by Edgar Prado, making his fourth consecutive appearance in the event, and Javier Castellano, who makes his first visit to Japan. Europe is represented by France's Ioritz Mendizabal, Germany's Andreas Suborics and Ryan Moore of England. Darren Beadman and Craig Williams comprise Team Australia, while Brett Prebble makes the relatively short trip over from Hong Kong. A top prize of ¥3 million (about $26,000) awaits the winner, ¥2 million (about $17,300) to the runner-up and ¥1 million (about $8,600) to the third-place getter.

HEFFERNAN ON SCORPION Seamus Heffernan will ride Susan Magnier's Scorpion (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the Dec. 10 G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin. Trainer Aidan O'Brien confirmed that the Ballydoyle rider would partner the four-year-old, who was last seen finishing fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Churchill Downs Nov. 4. Coolmore have announced that they will continue to use the best riders available throughout the six-month period in which Kieren Fallon is currently banned.
