VENGEANCE WORKS FOR CUP DEFENSE

Last year's G1 Hong Kong Cup hero Vengeance of Rain (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) tuned up for Sunday's title defense by working 800 meters in 46.9 over the turf at

Vengeance of Rain defeating Pride in the 2005 Hong Kong Cup

Sha Tin yesterday. After an easy opening quarter, the bay gelding picked up the pace under jockey Anthony Delpech to sail through the final 400 meters in :21.7. "He worked brilliantly; he's flying," Delpech said. "Honestly, I think he's in better form than last year." In his most recent outing, Vengeance of Rain was beaten a length when fifth in the Mile Trial Nov. 19 at Sha Tin. "Some people saw his run last time and they say, 'oh, he's dour, he's lost that kick,'" Delpech added, "but he wasn't trained for that race, and [trainer] David [Ferraris] has proven time and again how good he is at getting horses to peak on the big day."

KEENLAND ANNOUNCES SPRING SCHEDULE

Keeneland will offer a record $4.275 million in stakes purses during its 2007 spring meet, to be held Apr. 6-27. The previous mark of $4.225 million, established in 2006, will be surpassed following the increase in value of the GIII Bewitch S., up from $100,000 last year to $150,000 for the 2007 season. Nineteen stakes are carded for the 15-day spring meet, including 15 graded stakes, with at least one stakes held each race day. "We continue to adjust and improve our racing program in order to better fit the needs of our horsemen and ensure the best racing possible for our fans," explained W. Rogers Beasley, Keeneland's director of racing. "Our rich stakes schedule, combined with the overwhelmingly positive response to our Polytrack surface, should make for a very exciting race meet." The spring meet is highlighted by the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 14 and the GI Ashland S. Apr. 7.

INCREASES CONTINUE AT ARQANA

ARQANA's Deauville December Sale continued yesterday with a pair of sessions, one for yearlings and one for horses in training. There was increased demand for yearlings this year compared to 2005, when just one brought more than €20,000. This year, a pair of yearlings each sold for €77,000 to top the session. The first to reach that price was lot 679, an Iron Mask filly from the Haras du Logis draft. Produced by the Darshaan (GB) mare Daftiyana (Ire), the bay was purchased by the Wertheimer brothers. The half to listed winner Golden Island (GB) hails from the Aga Khan family of Doyoun (Ire). Her price was matched just over a hundred hips later by 782, a colt from the first crop of Dalakhani (Ire). Consigned by Haras de Fresnay le Buffard, the bay out of stakes-placed Sinueuse (Fr) (Fabulous Dancer) is a half to stakes-placed Russian Muse (Fr). Further down the page are Fappiano and Keeper Hill, among others. The top price for a horse-in-training was €85,000, paid by Alain Decrion for the two-year-old filly Ripping (GB) (Green Desert). Selling as lot 864 from Pascal Bary's stable, the bay had placed twice in British maidens. She was produced by a half to GSWs Zipping (Ire) and Nipping (Ire), as well as Zelding (Ire), the stakes-winning dam of GSW Beauty is Truth (GB). Complete results are available on www.deauville-sales.com. Today's final session will feature the complete dispersal of jumping trainer Thomas Trapenard.

Dalakhani, sire of lot 782

After skipping a year due to Hurricane Katrina, the $1 million Delta Jackpot S. was back again last Friday, and run for the first time as a graded stakes. What was a first for the race, was also a first for the sire of the winner, Pure Prize, who was represented by his first graded stakes winner, from his first crop of two-year-olds.

The winner Birdbirdistheword had already captured the Harrah's Juvenile S. In his only start between those two races, he took fourth in the GI Lanes' End Breeders' Futurity, beaten 4 3/4 lengths. That form looked pretty strong after the first three in that contest--Great Hunter, Circular Quay and Street Sense--went on to occupy the first three places in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Although he is his sire's first graded winner, Birdbirdistheword is one of no less than five individual juvenile stakes winners to emerge from the first crop of Pure Prize. Four of these, including Birdbirdistheword, took black-type races in November, while the other, Cowgirls Don't Cry, took the Anna M. Fisher S. in August. cont. p3

Pure Prize
$12,500 Live Foal

It's a little surprising to see Pure Prize--who has a total of 13 winners from 25 starters so far--turn out to be such an influence for precocity. He did win a maiden special weight at Belmont on the third of his three outings at two, but he was much better at three and four, and gained his graded-stakes triumph--a win over Dollar Bill and Hero's Tribute, in the GII Kentucky Cup Classic as a four-year-old in his final lifetime start. While one might not have expected Pure Prize to be a sire of juveniles, his pedigree gave plenty of reason to anticipate stallion success in the long-term. A son of Storm Cat, Pure Prize is out of champion Heavenly Prize, a daughter of Seeking the Gold who is herself a sister the GI Matron S. winner Oh What a Windfal. The pedigree has taken on added luster recently with the deeds of Pure Prize's brother, Good Reward, who won the GI Hollywood Derby at three and the GI Manhattan H. at four, and retires to stud to stand in 2007.

Birdbirdistheword is out of Berchta, who is by Rocky Mountain, an Alydar son who cost $1.8 million as a yearling back in 1989. He won just once and gained his only black-type with a third in the Bergen County S. Berchta won only once, but she is a sister to Prairie Princess, a filly whose victory in the GIII Miesque S. qualified her as the best of the three stakes winners sired by Rocky Mountain. Joan L., the dam of Berchta and Prairie Princess, never ran, but she was half-sister to Gene's Lady (What a Pleasure), winner of 14 of 89 starts, including the GII Ballerina S., two renewals of the GIII Interborough H., the GIII Princess S. and GIII Santa Ynez S. The next dam, Lady T. V. won the Bay Meadows Lassie S. at two and the Children's Hospital S. at three, and was also multiple graded placed.

	Bourbon Mist
	Green Dancer
	Crystal Queen
	T.V. Lark
	Ypres

The pedigree pattern which created Birdbirdistheword is a very clever one. Pure Prize is by a son of Storm Bird out of a mare by a son of Mr. Prospector with a second dam by Nijinsky II. Birdbirdistheword's dam is by a son of Alydar (genetic relative to Mr. Prospector) with a second dam by a grandson of Nijinsky II (genetic relative to Storm Bird). This means Birdbirdistheword's sire and dam are reverse crosses (with both Raise a Native and both Northern Dancer strains coming through genetic relatives) and a parallel Raise a Native/Nijinsky II cross to Pure Prize's dam, Heavenly Prize. Pure Prize has rather interesting pedigrees among some of his other stakes winners, too. Two-time stakes winner Amature's Prize is out of a mare by Marquetry, a reverse Mr. Prospector/Northern Dancer cross to Pure Prize. Nice Inheritance is out of a mare by a son of The Minstrel, a horse who is a close relative to Storm Bird, and 3/4-brother to Nijinsky II, who are both in the pedigree of Pure Prize.

The early success of Pure Prize is also a reminder that we are entering into a new phase with Mr. Prospector inbreeding. Initially, Mr. Prospector was mostly available as a sire or paternal grandsire of sires, and duplicating him tended to generally be most effective when a Mr. Prospector-line stallion was bred back to a mare with Mr. Prospector through either the very untypical Fappiano, or through a daughter (or with a Fappiano-line horse over a mare from another Mr. Prospector line). We then started getting stallions who were out of Mr. Prospector-line mares, and as far as we can count, there are at least 13 individual sires with Mr. Prospector as a broodmare sire, and which have sired stakes winners with Mr. Prospector inbreeding, seven of them siring group or graded winners, and five getting group or Grade I winners.

Pure Prize is something different as he is out of a mare by a son of Mr. Prospector. He has already sired two stakes winners out of Mr. Prospector-line mares (three with a Mr. Prospector double), and other stallions which are out of mares by sons of Mr. Prospector and have stakes winners out of Mr. Prospector-line mares include Galileo (GI Breeders' Cup Turf victor, Red Rocks), Archers Bay (graded winner Arch Hall), More Than Ready (four stakes winners, including Grade I winner Carry on Cutie), Exchange Rate (graded winner Xchanger, who was also third to Birdbirdistheword in the Delta Jackpot), Hernando and Talkin Man, so it looks as though inbreeding to Mr. Prospector in this fashion seems to work.

LUXURY GOODS

It is a rule of thumb that comparative figures from mixed sales are not as reliable as figures from yearling sales, because you can get more variation in the catalogues at mixed sales, depending on what is entered. That is less the case at yearling sales, where over 7,700 or so cases (7,706 at the 11 major NA and EU sales we've covered this year), the pedigrees tend to even out. No doubt the presence of Magical Romance and Spinning Queen accounted for some of Tattersalls December Sale's 36-percent leap in gross—combined, they did bring almost six-million guineas. (over $12 million, at today's rates) more than last year's sale-topper. But, really, the catalogue being better was only a small part of the story. In the seven years between 1998-2004, only once had the December Sale gross not been between 47-53 million guineas; the exception was 2003, when the sale grossed 63-million guineas.

The Mare sale alone exceeded that figure this year, and the entire sale's gross, which broke the 100-million guinea mark (over $200 million, at today's rates), was almost double the sale's gross in 2004. There's plenty more evidence that it wasn't just a good December Sale catalogue which accounted for the big jumps: Goffs November Sale, which precedes Tatts, was up 24 percent in gross; and the new French sales company ARQANA's December Mixed Sale, which comes after Tatts, more than doubled in both gross and average. I hate to use the phrase 'frenzied bidding,' because it didn't really seem like that; it was more 'determined' than frenzied. But the overall results of the three major European mixed sales disclose an impressive upward trend: we calculated the gross for the three sales combined was up 38 percent over US$70 million.

To express the results of the sales in dollars means we are using three different currencies, the others being Guineas (£1.05, formerly 21 shillings, compared to 20 in a pounds) and Euros (€). I've converted Euros at $1.25, but for guineas, I used $1.875, which would be $1.80 to the British pound; however, that was more the figure for last year and earlier this year, whereas now a guinea is worth over $2.00. But it is essential to use 'constant dollars' when comparing results in different currencies from year to year, otherwise the change in the currency rate clouds the results. In actual fact Tattersalls December Sale grossed the equivalent of over $200 million this year. Maybe using the lower figure is just wishful thinking on my part (the British pound was at about $1.60 a few short years ago); anyway, you could argue the British figures, when converted, should really be about seven percent higher than what this table shows.

Nonetheless, when you look at the table of all the major North American and European Yearling and Mixed sales this year (we've increased the number to 16, since sure enough Deauville December did barge its way in), what is so striking is how much more the mixed sales were up in comparison to the yearling sales. Those sales were plenty strong themselves: 7,706 yearlings sold for approximately $808,761,050 in the 11 major sales, with Keeneland September 2006 setting a new world horse sale record, just missing the $400-million mark with sales of $399,791,800, a $15-million (four percent) gain on the 2005 record. Incidentally, when you add that figure to the Keeneland November gross of $313.8 million, the two Keeneland sales, September and November, grossed $713,635,600, 49 percent of the total for all 16 sales. Tattersalls, Europe's biggest sales company, sold another $350 million, or 24 percent, in the same period--meaning the two biggest sales companies, Keeneland and Tattersalls, between them accounted for almost three-quarters of the total 'spend.'

Overall, the 11 yearling sales we covered increased about $64 million in gross over last year, about 9 percent. The two Kentucky mixed sales alone were up $56 million, and the three European mixed sales were up another $70 million--about $190-million total--a 15-percent increase over 2005, and nearly a 40 percent increase over 2004--and both those were record years. But after the yearling sales' 9 percent increase, the mixed sales just got stronger and stronger. The two Kentucky November sales were up 17 percent in gross over 2005 (Fasig did cut into Keeneland Book 1, but Keeneland is still 49 percent of $1.44 billion); then, moving to Europe, Goffs was up 24 percent. After a day of December yearlings (up 28 percent), followed by 746 weanlings (up 24 percent), last week's Mare Sale blasted off, surging 42 percent in gross; that meant the entire Tattersalls December Sale grossed over 100 million guineas., a 36 percent rise over last year. Then Deauville went into orbit; the gross up 124 percent, the average 118 percent--a lot of that was catalogue improvement, including Mandesha's dam, repatriated from Turkey and now headed to Japan for €1.7 million. That was, I believe, over 100 times her purchase price two years before. Is this a great business, or what?

And how else can you explain the European mixed sales being up 38 percent, meaning the five major mixed sales we covered jumped 25 percent in gross, compared to the 9 percent gain in yearling prices. These figures illustrate dramatically where the real growth is right now in the thoroughbred business -- breeding, not racing. Whether it's the chance of making money or the buzz of being in on the action, the race-track ain't where it's at these days. Maybe the new cure-all of 'all-weather' surfaces for American dirt racing can fix this, too. But, for the moment, it seems like the further away you are from the racetrack, the hotter the market. That says a lot.

RACING CAN LEARN FROM CASINOS, PANELISTS SAY by Ryan Conley Courtesy Blood-Horse.com

Racing can learn much from its partners from the casino business, a panel of analysts told a couple hundred participants Dec. 5 in the 33rd Symposium of Racing & Gaming in Tucson, Ariz. The discussion, "How Casinos Would Run Racing: Leveraging the Casino Experience to Grow the Racing Industry," was just one of several think groups conducted in the kick-off session of the annual three-day gathering of industry leaders held this year at the Westin-La Paloma Resort. Beyond the traditional battle cries of making the game simpler for new fans, panelists also added that racing can also learn from hard analysis of data such as is routinely scrutinized by casinos. Mark Midland, vice president of racing operations for Harrah's Louisiana Downs, a racino located in Bossier City, La., said the allure of slots is simple: It's simple. "Slots are easy to play and easy for people to figure out," said Midland, formerly an executive with Churchill Downs, among other past endeavors. "And they are self-marketing. Every player and machine has the potential to be a big winner. On the other hand, he continued, racing "is not easy to play, it's not easy to understand, and it's not easy to sell. We need to make it fun and easy for the person that comes in that first time; figure out ways to court them." Midland also said that slots create repeat customers with a "jackpot" promise. He noted that when a big payoff is won by a slots player, a new jackpot is advertised in flashing lights almost immediately. "Pick-6 carryovers are not a consistent marketing tool," Midland said. "When a Pick-6 is won, the pool goes back to zero." Among Midland's suggestions was to create a hold-back percentage from all wagering, noting that a quarter-percent slice of the weekly U.S. handle of $300 million could create $750,000 a week for jackpots. In an interview after the panel discussion, Midland said that Harrah's Louisiana Downs was willing to lead by example, and had already submitted a proposed jackpot betting system involving a special exacta wager to the Louisiana Racing Commission for inclusion in its spring meet. GUILD LINKS ACCIDENT INSURANCE TO SLOTS LICENSE

by Tom LaMarra Courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

The Jockeys' Guild has asked the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board to consider the catastrophic on-track accident insurance policy at Philadelphia Park before it grants the racetrack a permanent license to operate slot machines. Philly Park, which is scheduled to open its slots parlor in mid-December under a temporary license, offers $100,000 in on-track accident insurance, a figure believed to be the lowest of any major track in the country. Penn National Race Course, the other operating Thoroughbred track in Pennsylvania, offers maximum coverage of $1 million. In a Dec. 1 letter to the gaming control board, Guild national manager Dwight Manley said track operator Greenwood Racing's "refusal to adequately protect its jockeys is all the more troublesome given its prospects for opening a slots parlor and the accompanying positive revenue implications. The track's management is projecting purses will increase to as much as $400,000 per day, along with substantial increases in terminal revenue," the letter says. For more, click here.

TODAY'S INSIGHTS

2:48p TVG 6th-AQU, $43K, Msw, 3yo/up, 6f
EVER SHIFTING (Tale of the Cat) is scheduled to make his much-anticipated debut today. The Darley Stable colorbearer was the highest-priced juvenile of 2005, selling to Sheikh Mohammad's operation for $5.2 million at the Fasig-Tipton February sale at Calder, a world record for a two-year-old at the time. The bay, now three, has a modest worktab, most recently breezing four panels over the training track at Belmont in :48 4/5 (8/29) Dec. 1. Marital Asset (A.P. Indy), a half to GISW Yonaguska, was shelved off a runner-up effort to Corinthian at the Big A more than a year ago. Casey's Joy (Maria's Mon), a $240k KEESEP yearling, debuts for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. brisnet.com pps

3:30p TVG 1st-HOL, $40K, Msw, 3yo/up, 6fT
I CAN'T KNOW (Unbridled) finally makes it to the races on the eve of his fifth birthday. A son of Group 1 stakes winner Shake the Yolk (GB), the B. Wayne Hughes homebred has been working well on the Cushion Track, however, and gets Lasix for his first test sprinting on the sod. Oliver Twisted (Theatrical {Ire}) is a from a family that has worked well with Theatrical. GISW Startac and SW Megantic, sons of the Hill 'n' Dale stallion, can be found under the second dam. Tavros (Holy Bull) showed good speed in his debut and should take a step forward in his second outing. brisnet.com pps

4:00p TVG 2nd-HOL, $46K, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m
CANTABRIA (GB) (Dansili {GB}) hails from the same Juddmonte/Bobby Frankel team that sent out Phantom Rose to a rousing victory over the Cushion Track last week in her U.S. debut. This three-year-old is just one for 10, but has three times been placed in stakes company, including a pair of English Group 3's, and is working well over the synthetic surface for her own American bow. brisnet.com pps

Industry representatives provided brief updates on initiatives they are involved with late Tuesday afternoon during a session devoted to "Racing Industry Updates and Initiatives" at The Symposium on Racing & Gaming in Tucson. Among them, Jay Hickey of the American Horse Council updated attendees on the Unwanted Horse Coalition and provided a brief history of it. "Our prime goal is to end the need for the coalition to exist," he said. "We have no plans to get into the areas of legislation or adoption. We are attempting to get owners to act responsibly." Dan Fick, executive vice president and executive director of The Jockey Club, provided updates on the Racing Officials Accreditation Program and the recent Welfare and Safety of the Racehorse Summit. "If we're going to be a major league sport, we need to do a better job with our officials," he said. He mentioned a 12-point plan that included continuing education.

Fair Hill Training Center Re-Opens with Tapeta:

The Fair Hill Training Center in Elkton, Maryland, recently re-opened its 7/8-mile track after converting the surface from wood chips to the synthetic Tapeta. "It was opened last Thursday [Nov. 30], and Graham Motion breezed some horses on it on Friday, and all went well," said trainer Michael Dickinson, who developed the surface and who is the principal of Tapeta. Fair Hill also has a one-mile dirt track. The Tapeta all-weather surface has been tabbed to replace the current dirt track at Golden Gate Fields next spring.

COMPETITIVE BUNCH FOR CXIJC A classy field of 12 internationally recognized jockeys assemble for this evening's Cathay Pacific International Jockeys' Championship at Hong Kong's Happy Valley Racecourse. Now in its ninth year of existence, the increasingly popular competition pits several past champions of the event against a trio of newcomers, including America's Javier Castellano. The 29-year-old native of Venezuela has become a hot commodity on the New York circuit in recent years, piloting the likes of 2004 Horse of the Year Ghostzapper and more recently the likely three-year-old champion and GI Breeders' Cup Classic runner-up Bernardini. Also making their respective first appearances at the downtown venue are Ryan Moore, at age 23 the youngest champion rider in Britain in over 30 years; and Ireland's Declan McDonogh, the third-youngest champion in the history of the Irish turf. Past winners of the CXIJC include two-time winner Andrasch Starke (Germany, 2000 & 2005), Olivier Peslier (France, 1998), Hong Kong's own Douglas Whyte (2002), Damien Oliver (Australia, 2003) and Yutaka Take (Japan), who tied for top honors in 2004. Added to the field following Saturday's program at Sha Tin was Eddy Lai, the leading Chinese rider in Hong Kong. All 12 jockeys are randomly allocated their mounts and the winner will be the one accumulating most points. The champion jockey will receive HK$200,000 and a trophy. HK$100,000 will go to the runner-up.
