FORMIDABLE FIFTY SET FOR HKIR

A total of 50 of the top turf horses from around the world were entered yesterday morning for Sunday's Cathay Pacific Hong Kong International Races at Sha Tin Racecourse. Competing for the HK$62 million in prize money are three defending champions from last year's races, but none will receive more attention than Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who makes the final start of her brilliant career in the G1 Hong Kong Vase. Sunday's event is just two weeks removed from her excellent third-place effort in Tokyo's G1 Japan Cup, a result which followed by just 22 days her victory in the G1 Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf. Still, the five-year-old has looked fresh as a daisy in the mornings and connections were pleased after drawing the two hole for the 2400-meter event. "No problems there with the draw and I can tell you that [jockey] Frankie [Dettori] said she was awesome this morning so that's good enough for me," commented trainer Ed Dunlop. Ouija Board blew out a quarter mile in :22.8 on the turf yesterday. "The signs are good. Her bodyweight is right and I just hope that it's not one race too many. We would like a good pace. Sha Tin's mile and a half is easier than the one in Tokyo and Frankie rides it brilliantly." Vengeance of Rain (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) will shoot for a repeat victory in the G1 Hong Kong Cup. Perfect in five course-and-distance appearances, the six-year-old will also leave from post position number two beneath jockey Anthony Delpech. "It's a fantastic barrier, I'm delighted with it," trainer David Ferraris said. "The horse is in great shape and it's been well reported how well his work has gone leading up to now. I am as confident now as I was last year when he won."

Hello Pretty, fifth to Viva Pataca in last year's Hong Kong Derby, rides a two-race winning streak into the Cup, including a visually impressive 2 3/4-length victory in the G2-HK International Cup Trial Nov. 12. He completed his preparations for Sunday's race by rolling home in :21.3 over the all-weather surface yesterday morning. "He's spot-on," his trainer Tony Cruz offered. "He's raring to go and he will run very well--it's a beautiful gate too. He will have a trouble-free run from six."

He missed by a short neck to the top-class Caradak (Ire) in the G1 Prix de la Foret Sept. 30 and was narrowly beaten when fourth in the G3 Prix Seine-et-Oise Oct. 28. COLIC CLAIMS PEARL OF LOVE Group 1 winner Pearl of Love (Ire) (Peintre Celebre--Aunt Pearl, by Seattle Slew) died from complications of colic at Heytesbury Stud in West Australia, shortly before completing his first season at stud, according to Racing Post. The five-year-old had stood at Ireland's Oak Lodge Stud earlier this year, covering 70 mares at a fee of €5,000. Winner of the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot, the bay later added the G2 Futurity S. and ran a close third in the G1 National S. before concluding out his juvenile campaign with a triumph in the G1 Gran Criterium. That proved to be his final career victory as well due to a foot injury compromising his form at three and four. A 3/4-brother to MGSW Social Charter, Pearl of Love hailed from the family of Stravinsky and Verglas (Ire).

SECOND CHOICE Arrowfield Stud stallion Hussonet (Mr. Prospector) has been tabbed to cover a pair of star mares after last week's announcement that Redoute's Choice (Aus) would be forced to miss the remainder of the Southern Hemisphere season due to a hip muscle injury, according to www.racingandsports.com.au. Both champion Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) and MG1SW Alinghi (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus})--boarded at Arrowfield--were among the final group of mares booked to Redoute's Choice, and both will now be bred to Hussonet, who recently had a Group 3 winner from his first Australian crop of two-year-olds.

 NORTH AMERICA

ARLINGTON PARK TO GO SYNTHETIC Arlington Park yesterday became the latest track to announce it was replacing its conventional dirt surface with a synthetic surface. Officials at the Chicago-area oval said a decision hasn't been made as to which material--Polytrack, Cushion Track, Tapeta, or some other kind--would be used, but said they hoped to have the installation completed by the time Arlington is scheduled to begin its 2007 meet on May 4. The announcement came at a press conference yesterday at the ESPN Zone in Chicago and follows a summer at Arlington that saw a number of horses suffer fatal injuries on the main track. The rash of breakdowns caused an uproar in the local media and prompted three independent evaluations of the track. Each evaluation deemed the track safe. "Arlington Park has always and will continue to provide the very best that horseracing has to offer," Arlington Park President Roy Arnold said. "While we are confident the track's current dirt surface is one of the best, the fact is that we lost horses last summer, and that's not acceptable. If we lose one horse, it's one too many. We have been diligently monitoring other synthetic track installations and race results, and now possess the knowledge necessary to move forward with a synthetic surface to ensure that Arlington Park remains one of the finest racing surfaces. We are investing $10 million to do this." Trainer Carl Nafzger, the conditioner of this year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Street Sense, weighed in on the announcement. "I've stabled horses at Arlington Park for many years, and I'm planning to send even more horses to race on their new synthetic surface next summer," he said. "I feel so strongly about synthetic racing surfaces that we're installing one at our training center in Kentucky." Street Sense won his maiden at Arlington last August. Arlington becomes at least the eighth major North American track to switch, or plan to switch, to a synthetic surface.

TBA ANNOUNCE 2006 AWARDS

Britain's Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (TBA) yesterday announced all but two of its annual awards with the exploits of globe-trotting Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who became Britain's first dual Breeders' Cup winner, earning the association's Silver Salver for Lord Derby's Stanley House Stud. "In a very international world, with extremely wealthy owners and breeders, to be fortunate enough to breed a horse good enough to win an award is a great honour, as well as being a great privilege for all of us at the stud who have been a part of it," commented stud manager Peter Stanley. "We've had three, if not four, amazing years racing her. We've thoroughly enjoyed every moment of it, and we're very excited and looking forward to the next challenge, which is to breed one as good as we possibly can from her." Harry Ormesher took the Langham Cup for Small Breeder of the Year. His Old Suffolk Stud bred G1 Epsom Derby hero Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}). "I'm absolutely delighted and honoured. It's a wonderful thing for a small stud like mine with just eight mares; it's incredible really," Ormesher said. "Sir Percy was a most wonderful foal and the best colt I'd ever seen in my life. He kicked me on the head with his near fore when he was 10 seconds old, and I knew then he was precocious. All he wanted to do was get up on his feet and get out into the world and run. He had wonderful balance from the day he was born." The awards will be presented at the TBA Awards Dinner, at the Hyatt Regency London Churchill Hotel Jan. 9, when the winners of two special awards for contributions to the British Breeding Industry are announced.

TRNI SIGNS COMMINGLING AGREEMENT WITH TOTE

TRN International (TRNI) has announced an agreement with the Totesport, Britain's only pool betting operator, to provide wagering services that will allow the latter to commingle all wagers on U.S. races directly into the U.S. host pools. TRNI software supports the U.S. racing distributed by At the Races (ATR) and is supplied under a recently announced agreement with Television Games Network (TVG), the main broadcaster of horse racing in the US. The Tote is one of the principal betting organisations in Britain with more than 4,000 employees and over 74-million bets are placed through the Tote every year, with profits going back to racing. "I am delighted to bring Totesport into our line up of wagering partners," commented TRNI President Bill Hogwood. He added, "We now have most of the major UK bookmakers and Totesport, with its long history in tote wagering, provides a significant opportunity to promote wagering directly into the U.S. host tracks. International wagering is an important expansion for horse racing that requires the industry to work together. Having the Tote commingling to the U.S. pools reciprocates the arrangement set-up with our recent TVG deal, whereby, the U.S. outlets commingle wagers back to the UK and Irish totes on the ATR tracks shown on the TVG channels throughout the U.S.A. I am pleased that TRNI are active in helping to achieve this. I am excited by our recent agreements that will expand our service in the New Year and fully expect to be able to add to these during 2007."

'GREAT THOROUGHBRED SIRES OF THE WORLD' RELEASED 'Great Thoroughbred Sires of the World,' a 1000-page publication that offers a comprehensive profile of most successful sires and their descendents over the past century, has been released and is now available by its publisher, The Australian Bloodhorse Review. Conceived over 15 years ago by Australian writer Jennifer Churchill, the book, which contains 205 sires from the world's major racing nations, offers in-depth details of each stallion's pedigree, race record, stud career, and lists their most successful descendants. Each horse has at least two pages allotted, with an essay on each by an internationally recognized racing authority, and the book is generously illustrated with high-quality color and mono photographs. "Horses who are featured in 'Great Sires' are those who are significant sires of sires or broodmare sires," said Churchill. "The book is a great reference tool, with the index running to something like 80 pages, and the 'Leading Sires List' to 50 pages. It's something I'm really proud of."
