OUIJA BOARD RETIRED

Globetrotting star Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}--Selection Board {GB}, by Welsh Pageant {Fr}) exhibited soreness in her left front leg yesterday and was withdrawn from today's G1 Cathay Pacific Hong Kong Vase. The 2400-meter race, in which the five-year-old would have been favored to defend her title, was to have been her final career start, and she has been retired.

Ouija Board www.bongoracing.dk

"She was only going out for a brief trot [Saturday] morning and she came back and just didn't look quite right, and so we thought we would have a closer look at things," owner Lord Derby told Racing Post. Trainer Ed Dunlop added, "We x-rayed the leg and the damage was unremarkable, but she has jarred herself either on the dirt or the grass, and we decided that enough was enough." Dunlop said the injury was the same left front splint bone problem which sidelined Ouija Board during the summer of 2005. Booked to Lane's End stallion Kingmambo in 2007, the popular mare may head back to Britain first in order to have her injury monitored before heading to Kentucky. Cont. p3

CLASH OF THE TITANS IN CUP

The International Races meeting culminates with the G1 Hong Kong Cup, featuring a pair of former champions and two of the best turf mares in the world. Vengeance of Rain (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) seeks to double up on his victory over Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) a year ago and has been prepared meticulously by trainer David Ferraris. After having his 2005/2006 campaign curtailed by a heart condition and subsequent spell at Cambridge Stud in New Zealand, the rugged six-year-old enters this off a close fifth to Mile favorite Armada (NZ) in the International Mile Trial Nov. 19. "From gate two he will get a nice position with cover and I probably won't have him further back than second or third," said jockey Anthony Delpech. "He can go on from the 700-meter mark and he will be pretty hard to get past." Cont. p4

HE'S THE MAN

Boboman (Kingmambo) didn't have any stakes experience prior to yesterday's G1 Hollywood Turf Cup S., but that didn't stop him from posting a one-length victory over Runaway Dancer (Runaway Groom). Placed in fifth by Garrett Gomez as Symphony Sid (Unbridled) set an uncontested lead through :24.25 and :47.37 fractions, Boboman came charging down the lane to take the lead in deep stretch and crossed the line in stakes-record time. "When he won [his last race] I said right there that this is what I would try next," trainer Richard Mandella said. "I wasn't sure I could beat these kind of horses, but I wanted to give it a try. They were just galloping along, and once Garrett kind of got him talked into it, you could see him kind of moving along pretty good." Cont. p2

Boboman began his career with three off-the-board finishes in France, but finally broke through at Longchamp in his fourth and final start of his two-year-old campaign, scoring by 3/4 of a length in October 2003. Freshened following that effort, the bay resurfaced in March 2004 at Santa Anita with an eighth-place finish in an $80,000 optional claimer. Out for the entire 2005 season, the Wertheimer & Frere homebred returned at Del Mar this summer with consecutive third-place finishes July 30 and Aug. 28. Favored at 4-5 in an Oak Tree allowance test Oct. 7, Boboman delivered a 4 3/4-length tally and followed with an $80,000 optional claiming score over this course last time Nov. 2.

Magna Graduate concluded his sophomore campaign with three straight tallies, including the GIII Discovery H. on the Breeders' Cup undercard at Belmont Park and the GII Clark H. at Churchill in November. The dark bay began 2006 with a well-beaten fourth in the GI Donn H. Feb. 4 and repeated that performance in the $6-million G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 25. He was later moved up to third following Brass Hat's disqualification from second for a medication positive. Magna Graduate resurfaced with a 10th-place finish as the 5-2 choice in the Nov. 4 GIII Ack Ack H. after missing most of the year with an ankle injury. Favored by the Big A faithful to get back on track here, the Elisabeth Alexander colorbearer was hustled to the lead by John Velazquez and never looked back. "Generally, he's not a front-runner, but in this scenario, he found himself there," trainer Todd Pletcher commented. "We'll take him down to Florida and see what's next."

A Magical Career...

The Hong Kong Vase was to have brought the curtain down on Ouija Board's extraordinary career, which spanned three seasons at the highest level. Lord Derby's homebred, beaten a length when third in her debut at two, graduated as the even-money favorite in her second outing at Yarmouth in October 2003. The Racing Post commentary of that novice race concluded that the Cape Cross filly "looks sure to win in decent company next year." A true understatement, even if she ended her juvenile campaign with a third in the Listed Montrose Fillies S. Her three-year-old season began with a six-length success in the Listed Pretty Polly S., which preceded a seven-length coronation in the G1 Oaks S. at Epsom a month later. She duly added the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh in July and made her next start in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October, when she had a troubled trip, but managed to be third by 1 1/2 lengths to Bago (Fr). Sent to Lone Star for the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, the three-year-old defeated six Grade I winners and earned herself an Eclipse Award as U.S. champion turf female as well as the Cartier Horse of the Year honor. Ouija Board began 2005 with a distant seventh in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at the Royal meeting, but emerged with a splint injury and missed the rest of the summer. She returned to capture the G3 Princess Royal S. in September before traveling once again for the Breeders' Cup at Belmont, where she ran second to champion Intercontinental (GB) in the F/M Turf. She followed that with a close fifth in the G1 Japan Cup in Tokyo before concluding 2005 with a victory in the G1 Hong Kong Vase in December. Sportingly kept in training this year at five, the dark bay began 2006 with a fourth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba in March, then missed by less than a half-length when third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin the following month. She returned to England for the G1 Coronation Cup June 2 and wound up second to Shirocco (Ger), but found her way back to the winner's enclosure with a popular victory in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot three weeks later.

Fifth in the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. July 8, Ouija Board emerged as the winner in a thrilling battle with Alexander Goldrun (Ire) in the G1 Nassau S. at Glorious Goodwood Aug. 5 before succumbing late to Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the G1 Irish Champion S. Sept. 9 at Leopardstown. She then earned her second Breeders' Cup title in the F/M Turf before heading to Japan, where she ran a gallant third to Deep Impact (Jpn) in the G1 Japan Cup Nov. 26 in what would be her final trip postward. In all, Ouija Board compiled a record of 22-10-3-5 with earnings of £3,510,682 ($5,102,985), just £160,000 shy of Singspiel's mark for a horse bred in Great Britain.

Pride has been a model of consistency this season and parlayed a runner-up effort to Rail Link (GB) in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe into success in the G1 Champion S. two weeks later. This marks the final start of her career. Alexander Goldrun became the first filly winner at this meeting when she took the Cup in 2004 and turned in one of the more memorable performances of the year in the G1 Nassau S., going down by a short head to Ouija Board (GB). Third in the G1 Irish Champion S. two back, she was most recently third in the G1 Sun Charriot S. Sept. 30. She will certainly appreciate today's 2000-meter journey. Progressive Hello Pretty is the overnight favorite in Hong Kong and is perfect in two starts for Tony Cruz, including an impressive score in the G2-HK International Cup Trial Nov. 12.

Armada will fly the flag for Hong Kong in a competitive renewal of the Mile. Unbeaten in his first six starts, the chestnut missed by 1 1/2 lengths when fourth in the 1200-meter G3-HK HSBC Bowl Oct. 29, but rebounded to take the G2-HK CX Mile Trial Nov. 19 over course and distance. "He has done very well since his last run, but this is still a real rise in class," said trainer John Size. "His Mile Trial win was very good, but it's fair to say he probably has to improve again on that performance to win this. I'm very happy to have him in the race and hopefully he is still heading upwards--but this is his biggest task." Seven of the runners who finished behind him that day have returned for this contest, including Bullish Luck, who reigned as Hong Kong's Horse of the Year in the 2005/06 season. The bay landed the G1-HK Champions Mile in May before traveling to Japan the following month to annex the G1 Yasuda Kinen and, with it, the Asian Mile Challenge. But things haven't gone smoothly for the gelding since his return from a summer break. Last in the Sha Tin Trophy Oct. 15 in his first start back, he comes into this contest off a sixth to Armada in the Mile Trial. HK Mile cont.

Collier Hill, the redoubtable stayer, has shown his best form this year as an eight-year-old after taking the G1 Irish St. Leger in 2005. Second to Heart's Cry (Jpn) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic in March, the chestnut used a win in the G3 Stockholm Cup Sept. 10 as a springboard to success in the G1 Canadian International Oct. 22 in his most recent trip postward. Scorpion, last year's G1 St. Leger S. hero, missed most of 2006 with a fractured pastern, but returned to take a listed race at The Curragh in October. The four-year-old followed that with a solid fifth in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf Nov. 4 at Churchill and should move forward off that effort.

"I think we will get into the money," said jockey Seamus Heffernan. "He's in good form and I think he is getting better with age. He was quite a weak three-year-old, but he is stronger now and ran a good race in America. Surprisingly, for a horse by Montjeu, he will like the ground at Sha Tin as he has a fast ground, quick action. Obviously I would like there to be plenty of pace, but I would not be worried about going on with Scorpion if there wasn't. He is adaptable." The surprising ante-post favorite in Hong Kong is Admire Main. A confirmed front-runner in a race void of speed, the sophomore missed by a neck in the Japanese Derby this past May. He was most recently third to compatriot Song of Wind in the Japanese St. Leger S. Oct. 22 and may have the tactical advantage.

Originally excluded from the field, Absolute Champion possesses the credentials to take this. Seventh in last year's 1000-meter event, the five-year-old has had just one start during the current racing season, but opened eyes with a short-head score from Sunny Sing in the G3-HK HSBC Bowl H. Oct. 29, clocking a track-record 1:08.1 in the process. Trainer David Hall elected to bypass the International Sprint Trial Nov. 19 and the decision almost cost him, but it could be a case of all's well that ends well. Able Prince took the Trial, but Sunny Sing worked home well and will enjoy the extra real estate this afternoon. Silent Witness, forced to miss last year's Sprint with an illness, has proved better over these slightly longer distances and ran with credit when fourth to Takeover Target in the Sprinters S. He was beaten 2 3/4 lengths when fourth in the Sprint Trial three weeks back.

DANEHILL COLT SETS RECORD AT HK SALE

Widely expected to be the topper before setting foot in the ring of yesterday's Hong Kong International Sale, a two-year-old Danehill colt sold for HK$7,500,000, the highest price ever at the auction. The previous record was HK$6 million.

Cheng Keung Fai purchased the handsome bay, lot 15, produced by the Secretariat mare Sister Dot. A half-brother to champion Dehere, the Irish-bred colt was the final Danehill juvenile to be sold at public auction; he was purchased as a yearling by the Hong Kong Jockey Club for €360,000 at the 2005 Goffs Orby Million Sale. The second-highest price at yesterday's sale was HK$4,400,000 for lot 30, a gelding by More Than Ready. Bought by industrialist Siu Pak Kwan, he will be trained by David Ferraris, who said, "I have the only other son of More Than Ready in Hong Kong, and like this horse and sire very much." Foaled in Australia, the son of Dainty Dancer (Aus) (Al Hareb) was acquired by the Hong Kong Jockey Club for NZ$120,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale. In all, 28 lots sold for HK$81,200,000, leading to a 63-percent increase in average to HK$2,900,000. "It was not a bargain sale, but Thoroughbreds worldwide have become more expensive and, combined with the currency weakness here and other factors, it was in line with overall trends," said Winfred Engelbrecht-Bresges, HKJC's executive director of racing. "We are considering the idea of some races confined to horses from our sale so that we can show our support for the enthusiasm of the purchasers." LATICE & ROCHESTER RETIRED Augustin Stable's Lattice (Ire) (Inchinor {GB}--Laramie, by Gulch), heroine of the 2004 G1 French Oaks and highweight three-year-old in France at 9 1/2-11 furlongs, has been retired. The chestnut began her U.S. campaign with a Saratoga allowance win in August 2005 and added a second-place finish later that year in the GI E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine. A Keeneland allowance winner this April, she placed second in the Colonial's GIII All Along Breeders' Cup S. June 24 as well as Saratoga's GIII Glens Falls H. Sept. 4. Bred by Petra Bloodstock Agency Ltd. in Ireland, she retires with six wins from 17 starts and $797,007 in earnings. "With what she accomplished, it was best to send her home to be a broodmare," trainer Jonathan Sheppard commented. According to Sheppard, the 10-year-old Rochester (Green Dancer--Central City {GB}, by Midyan) has also been retired. The Augustin Stable colorbearer bankrolled $1,211,264, winning 11 of 51 career starts, including two runnings of the GIII Kentucky Cup Turf H. He was bred in Pennsylvania by George Strawbridge, Jr. "He's sound," Sheppard said. "He ran well in a couple of races this year, although he didn't win. He's been a very nice horse, but has done enough. I think we'll try him at fox-hunting."

Fernando Po broke his maiden in the restricted With Anticipation S. on the grass at Saratoga Sept. 1, prevailing by a gallant nose. The chestnut colt was never in the hunt when sixth in the GII Futurity S. on the main track at Belmont 22 days later, and tired to be seventh in the Oct. 22 Pilgrim S. over a yielding turf at that track. Looking to rebound after the trip south, he saved ground early while stalking the pace. Fernando Po threaded his way through a narrow opening on the hedge as they raced past the eighth pole and held off the late charge of odds-on Soldier's Dance to take the photo.

Ruthierienne was an early arrival in the Sunshine State for this barn and made an immediate impact, overcoming a pair of traffic incidents to break her maiden by an impressive six lengths over track and trip Nov. 12.

Allowed to trail this octet through a moderate opening half-mile, the Payson homebred angled to the outside approaching the stretch and drove past Perfect Motion for a cozy victory. "This is the kind of filly that can do just about anything you need her to," said winning rider Rene Douglas. "She is great coming from off the pace, but if you need her to, she can be closer to the lead if the pace is slow. She has a good mind and this race set up perfectly to her running style."

Dream Of Angels hit the board in his first two starts, but has been unbeatable since breaking his maiden as an 18-1 shot in the Middleground BC S. at Lone Star Park July 23. The chestnut colt was freshened after that effort, returning to post a five-length tally in an optional claimer at Remington Park Oct. 16. He took the Jack Price Juvenile S. by a neck at Calder Nov. 11 and was odds-on to make it four in a row. Head-and-head for the early lead, Dream Of Angels began to get away from the field as they raced down the lane and poured it on in the final furlong for an eye-catching win.

Johnson S. on the Saratoga lawn. The dark bay joined the Graham Motion stable during her layoff and was the 5-2 second choice in her return. On the bit as she raced off the heels of the early leaders, she fought her way to the front in the stretch and bested the dead-heating Known Thief (Cat Thief) and Feels So Good (Malibu Moon) for a one-length tally. "You never know what kind of impact a small, random act of kindness can have on someone's life," Gross said. "I've been on the receiving end of many of those acts throughout my lifetime. A random act can parlay itself into something pretty powerful down the road--you just never know. I'm just thankful for the win, and want to respond in kind by sharing it with others. After all, it's Christmas, and for me being able to give this donation is the real prize."

Successful in his first two outs, at Florence Sept. 4 and Milan Sept. 17, Moriwood lost his unbeaten tag when seventh in the Oct. 15 G1 Gran Criterium back at the San Siro last time. The Italian-bred bay rebounded in style to grab a first stakes success here. Positioned in third after the opening exchanges, Moriwood was ridden to the fore on the wide outside with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and kept on strongly to score in decisive fashion.

ETHEREAL'S FIRST A WINNER Champion Ethereal (NZ) (Rhythm), heroine of the G1 Melbourne Cup, G1 Caulfield Cup, G1 BMW S. and G1 Queensland Oaks, got off the mark as a producer when her first foal, the Giant's Causeway filly Uberalles (NZ), graduated at New Zealand's Matamata racecourse Thursday. The three-year-old filly scored in her third career start after two placings, and will race next in the G2 Great Northern Guineas Dec. 26. "If she's anything like her mum, she can only get better with age and a trip," trainer Mark Walker told New Zealand Thoroughbred Update. Her acclaimed dam earned over A$4.7 million on the track and was the champion stayer in Australia for 2001/02. Both Ethereal and Uberalles were bred and raced by Peter and Philip Vela of Pencarrow Stud; Ethereal is a granddaughter of Pencarrow foundation mare Richebourg (NZ). Ethereal has a two-year-old filly by Van Nistelrooy, and her yearling Stravinsky colt is slated to sell at the New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sale at Karaka in January. She is back in foal to Stravinsky.
